LADIES PLAN DRESS CONTEST

Miss Taylor, Clothing Expert,
Here.

The leaders of the clothing project representing five home demonstration groups met with Miss Cymbil Taylor, clothing specialist for V.P.I., Friday, April 13, to plan work for April and May.

Miss Taylor took up the fitting of the Guide Pattern, Cutting Patterns, Cutting and Fitting a Dress, and Garment Finishes. Mrs. Ernest Spittler, Nokesville, served as model.

A committee was appointed to solicit prizes for the dress contest to be held June 14. The committee consisted of: Mrs. Edmund Roland, Haymarket; Mrs. John Ellis, Greenwich; Mrs. Robert Mooney, Dumfries; Mrs. M. M. de Nicola, Bethel.

Leaders attending the meeting were: Mrs. Edmund Roland, Mrs. John Carter, Haymarket; Mrs. John Ellis, Greenwich; Mrs. Ernest Spittler, Mrs. John Farneyhough, Nokesville; Mrs. Henry Keyser, Mrs. S. G. Whetzel, Aden; Mrs. M. M. de Nicola, and Mrs. S. D. Lloyd, Bethel; visitors, Mrs. Wallace Dawson and Mrs. Dewey Shaffer, Woodbridge, and Mrs. Long, Aden.

Following the leaders' meeting a committee meeting was held to decide on means of meeting financial obligations of the Home Demonstration Advisory Board for the year. In the absence of Mrs. J. F. Hale Mrs. John Ellis served as chairman. After carefully considering possibilities it was decided that funds be secured by subscription from advisory board members.

EASTERN STAR HAS DISTINGUISHED VISITORS

At a regular meeting of Winoandus Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, held in Masonic Temple, April 17, there were present the following guests: Worthy Grand Matron Mrs. Nellie R. Cosden, Past Worthy Grand Patron Alfred E. Cosden, and Mrs. Sellers, all of Clarendon, Va.

This being the first meeting of the newly installed officers and each officer's part well done another successful year ahead of us is anticipated.

After the regular routine of business the chapter adjourned to second floor where they were entertained by Miss Eloise Compton and her dancing class—three dances by Edla Blakemore, Margaret Blakemore, and Mildred Parrish; two dances by Nancy and Betty Parrish, and three songs by Eloise Compton. Refreshments were served by the entertainment committee.

MANASSAS OCTETTE TO PARTICIPATE IN STATE EVENT

The newly-formed choral organization, the Manassas Octette, is holding its final rehearsals in preparation for the singing of Brahms' Requiem, to be rendered by a state-wide chorus at Charlottesville on April 28. The chorus of approximately one thousand voices will be under the direction of Dr. T. Tertius Noble of New York City and will be accompanied by the National Symphony Orchestra of Washington, D. C.

The local organization is composed of the following members: Mrs. Robert F. Logan and Miss Anna May Ellis, sopranos; Miss Gladys Athaline Ball and Miss Marguerite Neal, contraltos; Mr. Frederick S. Leinbach and Mr. Wilmer M. Kline, tenors, and Rev. H. Jerome Leinbach and Rev. John M. DeChant, basses. Rev. Leinbach is director and Miss Virginia N. Speiden is the accompanist for the group.

MISS TURNER TO BE HERE APRIL 26

Miss Nancy Byrd Turner, as stated last week, will give a reading to the public sponsored by local Woman's Clubs. The reading will be given in the Manassas High School Thursday, April 26, at 8 p.m. Last week we published the names of the organizations sponsoring Miss Turner's reading and by mistake stated that the Eastern Star was one of the seven clubs when we should have said "Postal Clerks' Wives Club." We regret the error.

The colored teachers of the county will meet at Manley tomorrow. W. D. Gresham of the State Board will be present.

APRIL W.C.T.U. MEETING

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the home of Mrs. C. J. Meetze, West street, on Wednesday, April 25, at 3 p.m.

This is "April Eggs" month when the Sunday eggs or their equivalent in cash is brought to the April meeting as an offering for the work of the organization.

RELIEF WORK REORGANIZED

Applications for Transfer Will Be Considered.

The Relief Office has been notified that a work division of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration is being organized. Applications for transfer of Civil Works Project to Work Program will be executed at once for transfer only.

With the suspension of Civil Works many Civil Works projects will be left in an incomplete condition. It is hoped that most of such projects particularly those of real social and economic value, may be completed under the Work Relief Program, which will take the place of Civil Works. This is necessary because relief shall be given only to those who qualify for same after proper case investigation and because of lack of sufficient relief funds to carry on a Work Program comparable with the Civil Works program. The fact that a person has been or is employed on a C. W. Project does not imply that he will be given employment on Work Relief.

Employment will be given only after thorough investigation including an examination of every resource possible to the applicant, giving specific attention to the availability of a job at a living wage in either private or public enterprise.

Projects will be undertaken not alone for the sake of the work itself, but also as a means of affording relief for those definitely determined as eligible.

Mr. H. C. Dulany has been appointed as projects engineer of Prince William County under the supervision of Mr. W. F. Carter, jr., of Fredericksburg, Va., district engineer.

The work division is strictly a branch of the relief organization of Prince William County and Mr. Dulany's office will be in the same building as that of Mrs. Lewis, relief director.

WILL SOLICIT FUNDS

Mrs. A. J. Delaney has accepted the chairmanship for Prince William County, in the annual state-wide campaign for funds for the Children's Home Society of Virginia, according to the announcement of Mr. E. Randolph Williams, of Richmond, who is State chairman of the campaign.

The campaign which is to provide funds for the rescue and care of the homeless children of the state will be held this year April 29-May 20. The local committee will solicit funds from the 100 or more contributors who care for the thirteen children from Prince William who are in the Home. In addition it is hoped that new contributors may be secured.

The solicitation will begin on April 29 and continue for three weeks.

HICKORY GROVE

WOMEN TO MEET

The Hickory Grove Home Demonstration group will hold its first regular meeting on Tuesday, April 24, at 2 o'clock at the U.D.C. Hall. The topic for study will be "Selection and Growing of Perennials."

Mrs. Walter Gardner will have charge of the program.

All women of Hickory Grove community are cordially invited to attend.

MANASSAS MILLING CORP. GROW OUT CHICKS IN STORE

Manassas Milling Corp. have an attractive display of fluffy baby chicks which are being grown out from one day old stock. These pert youngsters are usually to be seen in a uniform row, going after their feed for dear life.

Only a mash feed called Purina Startena is used in feeding these chicks, and they are literally growing by leaps and bounds.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY

The O. E. S. is giving a card party Friday, April 27, on second floor Masonic Temple. The public is cordially invited.

ON CAPITOL HILL

Seeks Market Improvement.

Representative Howard W. Smith, Democrat of Virginia, plans to make a vigorous effort in the House to include in the 1935 District Appropriation Bill funds for the improvement of the Farmers' Market in southwest Washington.

During hearings on the Bill before a House subcommittee on appropriations, Mr. Smith urged that the market be put into proper condition for the use of the farmers.

It was developed during the hearings that the market is used by farmers from Virginia, West Virginia and Maryland. A number of them joined Mr. Smith in his protest to the subcommittee against existing conditions at the market. The principal need is proper drainage facilities; the lack of which seriously interfered with the operation of the market during the past winter season.

Estimates presented to the subcommittee showed that the market could be put in condition for about $23,000.

The subcommittee, however, refused to include the item in the District Appropriation Bill, and Mr. Smith plans to offer an amendment to the measure to provide the funds. He also will seek an appropriation of $10,000 to provide for an engineering survey looking toward replacement of the old Chain Bridge.

Legislative Program.

Although adjournment of Congress had been anticipated about May 15, President Roosevelt's latest legislative requests is expected to keep the House and Senate in action until June 1, at least.

The House, however, can complete the legislative program by May 15, according to Majority Leader Byrnes, but he believes the Senate will tie it up for another 15 days or longer. As Byrnes put it, it will just be another case of the House waiting for the Senate.

The new legislative program of the President, in the opinion of Speaker Rainey, will include a request for $1,600,000,000 for public works, $300,000,000 for continuance of the conservation corps and $300,000,000 for the emergency work relief system which was replaced by the civilian works administration. The President also may ask Congress for $2,200,000,000 for continuance of the re-employment program. The appropriations would be carried in a deficiency supply bill.

Rainey made his announcement of the legislative program after a conference of Democratic leaders with the President at the White House. In addition to the appropriations for carrying out the "new deal" program, the President also named the stock market regulation bill as one of those he wants enacted before Congress adjourns. The President, however, has said, he wants a measure with "teeth in it."

The public works appropriation, Rainey said, probably will carry definite allocations for roads, permanent buildings and construction of warships under the Vinson "treaty strength" navy bill.

Rainey also said the President feels that for the time being at least, the Wagner-N.R.A. Licensing Bill, the Wagner unemployment insurance measure, and the 30-hour week bill could be laid aside. The three problems to be solved by that type of legislation, in the President's belief, can probably be worked out through temporary N.R.A. codes.

Anti-Lynching Legislation.

Early enactment of the revised Federal anti-lynching bill now on the Senate calendar, was urged in the House recently by Representative Louis Ludlow, Democrat of Indiana.

The Bill reported to the Senate, which is the Wagner-Costigan measure in an amended form, recognizes the fact that a lynching, wherever it may occur under the American flag, is a crime against the nation. Under its provisions any official, such as a sheriff, who fails or refused to make all diligent efforts to protect his prisoner, would be liable to a fine of $5,000, and imprisonment not exceeding five years. An official or employee who conspired with a mob to put a prisoner to death would be subject to a sentence of 25 years in prison. If local and state courts would not act to punish lynchers, the United States District Court would have jurisdiction to administer punishment.

Ludlow pointed out that 28 lives, sacrificed at the hands of lynchers in 1933, supply proof of "the continuing practice of this shocking type of crime." The complete failure of the governments of those States involved to apprehend the perpetrators of crimes establish by the evidence presented," he said, "substantially supports the need for Federal legislation."

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS

Adoption of John Richard Baker by D. E. and Louella Earhart approved.

Adoption of Jean Isabel Clearwater by Irvin V. Masters and wife approved.

ELECTED HEAD OF JUNIOR WOMEN'S CLUB

MISS ESTHER WARREN PATTIE

Miss Esther W. Pattie was elected president to the Junior Woman's Club for the year 1934-35, at the monthly meeting of the club held at Miss Lucy Arrington's home, on April 12.

Miss Helen Lloyd was elected vice-president; Miss Mildred Dunkley, secretary, and Miss Meaker Burke, treasurer.

Annual reports were given at this meeting by the out-going president, Frances Bushong; Christine Meetze, and Pattie Hatcher, out-going secretary and treasurer. Various reports from committees were also read. Plans are being made by the different members to attend the State Convention at Newport News, in May.

Much enthusiasm is being displayed over the dance which the club will give on May 11, which promises to be a splendid event.

GLEE CLUB GIVES INITIAL OPERETTA

On May 3 at 8 p.m. in Manassas high school auditorium, the Glee Club of Bennett School will present "Mother Goose Island" for the benefit of the school.

REEVES WILL DIRECT M.A.C.

Manassas Ball Club Organizes
for Season.

Mr. H. G. Reeves, athletic director of the Swavely School for boys, has been selected by the executive committee of the Manassas Athletic Association as coach and manager.

The selection is said to be the occasion of much gratification among local baseball fans, who predict a very successful season for the local team under the guidance of Mr. Reeves.

The personnel of the executive committee of the M.A.C. comprises Messrs. F. R. Hynson, chairman; A. S. Boatwright, Arthur Vetter, J. W. Smith and Jenkins Davies.

A game which promises to be a good game has been scheduled with the Quantico Indians at Quantico on April 29, with the return game on May 6. Occoquan, with the splendid record of winning 23 out of 25 games last season will be defeated (the Manassas fans predict) at Occoquan on May 19, but will have a chance to retrieve their hard luck on June 23. Folks at Occoquan say Manassas won't even score, so the chances for a good game are strong.

The Warrenton Wonders will be encountered at Warrenton on June 3.

PRINCE WM. CORN-HOG PRODUCTION CONTROL AS- SOCIATION ORGANIZED

At a meeting of the corn-hog contract signers of Gainesville district Thursday evening, April 12, the following men were elected as members of the district committee: R. B. Gosson, chairman; T. O. Latham, R. H. Florence. Mr. Gosson and Mr. Latham were at the same time elected to serve as directors on the board of directors of the county association.

On Friday evening at the Nokesville High School, the signers of Brentsville district elected the following committeemen: Davis Nolley, chairman; J. A. Hooker, John W. Ellis. Mr. Nolley and Mr. Hooker were named as directors of the county association.

On Saturday afternoon the signers of Coles, Dumfries, Manassas and Occoquan districts met at Manassas and elected as committeemen to serve the four districts the following men: W. M. Johnson, chairman; R. H. Smith, J. J. Conner. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Smith were named as directors of the county association.

The committeemen elected last week met Tuesday and organized the Prince William County Corn-Hog Production Control Association electing as officers:

J. A. Hooker, president; T. O. Latham, vice-president; J. A. Hooker, R. B. Gosson, W. M. Johnson, allotment committeemen; F. D. Cox, secretary, and Frances Bushong, treasurer.

The community committeemen for the three county divisions will begin immediately to check up on contracts, statements of supporting evidence, etc., and to make appraisals of yield of contracted corn acres of signers.

Contracted acres of signers should be designated by stakes showing where this land is located.

Statements of corn and hog production claimed by signers are published in this issue of The Journal. Overstatements should be called to the attention of the district committeemen or allotment committee.

MINSTREL DRAWS CAPACITY HOUSE

Charity Fund Is Materially Assisted.

The Kiwanis Minstrel last week was all that could have been wished for financially. At neither performance were there over a dozen seats vacant. Several rows of chairs had been placed in front for the youngsters who enjoyed themselves immensely.

From start to finish there was plenty of action and a host of laughs. The scene opened behind the curtains with the club placing a restrainer on its President for the evening. It didn't work, however, for some of his jokes were soon bouncing around.

The downtown quartet composed of Rev. Leinbach, Leinbach (Junior), Rev. DeChant and Mr. Kline got off several nice numbers.

The musical events were largely built up around the director, Mr. Leinbach, who sang in every number besides two excellent solos.

The interlocutor (who appeared au naturel) was Doctor Eli Swavely, the inspiration of the show originally and one of those who worked hardest for its success. Doc registered 100 per cent on all his stuff and kept his charges on the quiver.

The end men, bones, etc., were Dick Hynson, O. D. Waters, Hunton Tiffany and Bob Hutchison. Bob called in Ed Conner to milk the working end of a cow which Ed did to the dulcet strains of a regular whistle. The dairymen present were not called on, however, to comment on either Ed's methods or his whistle. Both must have been OK judging by the applause.

The big hit of the evening was Dick Hynson's cakewalk (or what have you). Arthur Carter strummed out the music and Dick gave both the club and their guests a reminder of the old days when people really had fun.

There were so many jokes that it would be hard to tell of them all. Bob's whiskers, the Editor of The Journal, Harry Davis' loquaciousness, Ray Ratcliffe's thrift, etc., etc., were all dragged in to make the evening merry.

Incidentally, Ratcliffe finally got out an old music box of the vintage of about 1850 (?) and gave a varied menu on the same. He was mobbed afterward by those who wanted to inspect the ancient affair.

Musical get-offs went over at the expense of Bish Gibson who had on a perfectly gorgeous vest, Town Manager Cocks, and "Honey Boy" Covington, all of whom took hearty parts in singing their own dirges. The personnel of the gambling song was not revealed although there were pointed suggestions.

The conclusion was brought about through a sermon by Rev. Worth Storke who reproached the club for its misdoings. Then the lights went out and the club sang its parting numbers.

On the second evening, many admirers forced the club to reveal its membership but it was just about as clear afterwards as before. There was no vote on the beauty contest thus staged.

The club, of course, extends its thanks to the community for their support and the underprivileged children will in turn thank Dr. Swavely for his idea, and those who worked so faithfully with him.

A SERMONETTE

Text John 14:1 "Let not your heart be troubled."

Most of us need comfort, and encouragement as we pick our way along the road of life. It is true, we need rebuke and censure. When appetite gets the better of judgment; when overindulgence in food and drink threaten our health; when we become the slaves of the cigarette or the whisky bottle; when we cannot resist the card table and the picture theatre, we need a stiff rebuke to restore our sense of values, we need someone to call our attention to the important things in life.

When our thoughts are concentrated on profits in business; when we drive for the last nickel we can make; when we forget widows and orphans and trample upon others in our zeal to make money; then we need to be told that greed is sin, that "man shall not live by bread alone," and that human life is precious in the sight of God.

Yes, we need rebuke and censure.
But we need also comfort, assurance and encouragement. When Jesus said to his disciples, "Let not your heart be troubled," they were about to face life without his physical presence. He would not be there to answer their questions and to settle their disputes. He would not be present to lay out their preaching tours.

He would not be on hand to argue questions with the scribes nor defend them from the verbal attacks of the Pharisees. He would not be standing by to come to their rescue when evil spirits refused to depart at their command. They were to be left alone to answer their own questions, defend themselves and make their own decisions. And He knew their lot would not be easy. So He sought to prepare them finally for His departure.

"Let not your heart be troubled;

ye believe in God, believe also in me."
That was to be the key to their success, "believe in me." Whatever happens, "believe in me." "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. If ye believe in me, greater works than mine shall ye do." He was trying to tell them how important it was to believe in Him, to remember His commandments, to follow His teachings. He had chosen them, He had prepared them, therefore they need not fear. "If ye shall ask ANY-THING in my name, that will I do.
If ye love me, keep my commandments."

This is the message of comfort Jesus gave to his disciples. Thru them He gives it to us. We need it.
We are alone. We are on our own resources. We must make our own decisions, we must face our own temptations alone. We must suffer our defeats and withstand the attacks of our enemies alone. The world is more often ready to condemn us, to trample upon us and cast us aside than it is to help us. And if we hunger and thirst after righteousness we are more likely to receive ridicule than assistance. Men will use us until we are worn out or penniless and then turn their backs upon us.

Yes, we need comfort. We need to be strengthened and encouraged.
Where can we get it? Where the disciples got it. Peter said, "Thou hast the words of eternal life." We can go to him of whom Peter spoke, Christ. We don't mean to be bad, we don't mean to be greedy, we don't mean to hurt and wrong our neighbors. We just don't believe in Jesus enough. "Let not your heart be troubled. . . I will pray the father and he will give you another comforter, that he may be with you forever."

she, "The handle is so long and out-of-date that I'm afraid it will not turn these modern rains." Wheeew!

The annual conference of the Washington District, Baltimore Conference, was held in Grace Church, Manassas, Va., last week and was largely attended. Sudley circuit was represented by J. D. Wheeler, Mrs.
A. B. Sapp, Mrs. C. F. Sinclair, Mrs.
Maggie Hundley, Mrs. W. H. Dogan
and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. McDonald with several of our elected delegates unable to attend. The sessions were interesting thruout and well worth one's time to attend.

As a rule the work of the District Conference and its place in the general scheme of things is but little understood by the laity in general. This is due probably to the fact that the conference has grown so large, nummerically, that it can only be entertained in the larger centers. The Baltimore Annual Conference was formerly divided into eight districts, each presided over by an elder. This number was reduced last year to seven by combining the Old Alexandria district with the Washington district which makes Washington the largest and perhaps the most important in the Baltimore Conference. This, then, was the conference recently held in Manassas. It meets annually for the purpose of transacting the annual conference business as it pertains to the district in which it is held thus saving much time and expense to the parent body.

The Washington district conference is composed of 43 ministers and 99 congregations giving it a possible legal membership of some 350 people.
Among its ministry is to be found some of the strongest men in Southern Methodism. Warrenton, Falls Church and Hyattsville were bidders for next year's sessions with Hyattsville the winner.

Meetings of this nature are usually attended by former pastors, elders and friends of other days and many re-unions are the result.
Among those present with whom Sudley is acquainted, may be mentioned W. D. King, Homer Welsh, L.
B. Atkins, Dr. F. J. Prettyman, Dr.
E. V. Regester, K. D. Swecker and our present elder, Dr. J. Howard Wells; most of them accompanied by their wives. In addition one meets with many old-time acquaintances and friends with whom it is a joy to mingle; but the one outstanding feature of all was probably the sermon by Dr. Forney Hutchinson, pastor of Mount Vernon Place Church, Washington. Dr. Hutchinson, tho' an eminent scholar himself, does not put in his time quoting Shakespeare or discussing Relativity or flirting with Socrates to impress one with his own greatness; but Man O Man! You'll get what's coming to you and in a way you will understand it, too. If you ever have an opportunity to hear him, don't miss it.

Another very pleasant feature of the conference was the splendid entertainment afforded by the people of Grace Church. The building is happily well planned for feeding and entertaining large gatherings and with the good things to eat and the uniform courtesy of pastor, ushers and people who handled everything so pleasantly and well, the pastors and delegates went home with a kindly thought for the people of Manassas.

Thus another district conference has passed into history.

THE BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER
 If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

GIVING GETS: There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.—Proverbs 11:24.

BE KIND TO ANIMALS

Periodically, in the course of every day life, we are called upon as a nation to stress some special feature of our civilization. One of these is the call to emphasize in our newspapers and schools kindness to the dumb brutes that our Creator has given in our keeping.

The parents who do not train their children to be kind to animals do not deserve the children to train. The child allowed to wilfully abuse an animal will one day abuse his fellow creatures.

To kill or torment a helpless brute, to whip a horse, stone a dog or cat, kill a bird, mistreat a cow, or in any way show spitefulness to animals is murder and cowardice in the making.

The child allowed to commit such atrocities has the criminal instinct destructive to society. The parent should watch these things and so should the pastor and teacher.

The Manassas Journal,
 Manassas, Virginia.

Gentlemen:

I don't know whether you desire to burden the columns of your valuable paper, but if you will publish this letter it would go a long way toward promoting full co-operation with those who desire to see and promote good order in our community.

I am constantly in receipt of anonymous communications advising that certain individuals in the County are violating the laws of our land; but those who write the letters are not courageous enough to sign their names and, of course, no attention can be paid to them. The officers are unwilling to take the risk unless they know at whose instance complaints are made.

Therefore, if anyone who knows of the violation of the laws of our Commonwealth will write to me or Mr. J. P. Kerlin, and sign their names thereto, giving the names and location of the parties complained about, it will receive prompt attention; and they may rest assured that their names will not be divulged.

Very truly yours,

THOS. H. LION.

A CORRECTION

In last week's issue of The Journal a typographical error caused a statement to read that eighty out of forty-three citizens of Haymarket were on the school payroll. The statement should have read eight.

MRS. WASHINGTON CLUB HOSTESS

Good Housekeepers Plan Civic Work.

A very enjoyable and successful meeting of the Bethlehem Good Housekeeping Club was held on April 18 at the home of Mrs. Maud Kincheol with Mrs. Marion Lewis as assistant hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. R. L. Sadd. Seventeen members responded to roll call by repeating bits of verse with capricious April as the prevailing topic. Reports from the various committees were heard.

A contribution toward purchasing shrubbery for Bennett School grounds was donated by the club.

The "Household Hints" program with Mrs. M. E. Hart in charge was put on with much interest and enthusiasm. Many valuable suggestions and recipes were exchanged and every one felt benefited by the experience.

In May the club will meet at the home of Mrs. Eleanor C. Johnson. Mrs. John Lyons will present a Mother's Day program.

After singing the club song led by Mrs. M. M. Washington, the hostess served delicious ice cream and cake.

Special guests of the occasion were Miss Nina Hayes, Miss Jennie Hottle, Mrs. Minnie Conner and Miss Estelle Holden of Herndon.

GREENWICH HOME DEMONSTRATION GROUP TO MEET

IN MEMORIAM

Sacred to the memory of my dear wife, Mamie E. Russell, who departed this life 5 long months ago today, April 16, 1934.

When the one I loved was called away God took her home. It was his will. I miss you, darling, more and more each day.

But God knew best, so he called you away.

But forever in my heart is hiding your sweet face.

Gone are her steps I loved so dear. Silent her voice I love to hear.

We know you are happy with the angels.

But still I miss your love, dear.

Oh joys that are gone that will never return.

I loved her and will forever miss her.

Your love for us was strong and true.

Left behind broken hearts and many tears.

Often to the graveyard I wonder.

Hours to lay with loving care.

On the grave of my darling lies there.

Who is sweetly sleeping there.

Yours smiling face I can not see.

For as long as life memory last.

There is not a day dear darling.

That I do not think of you.

Of the one I loved but could not save.

The dearest pal I ever knew.

Mamie darling that was you.

How I miss you God only knows.

The happy days that used to be.

You brought me a load of sunshine.

You cheered me through darkest days.

You made this earth seem like heaven.

By your many loving ways.

There lies the one I loved so dearly.

In her lonely silent grave.

By her husband,

T. M. Russell.

AN APPRECIATION

Since I was unable to see every one that helped me so efficiently in producing "Little Red Riding Hood" I want to take this means of mentioning and thanking those who were so kind and took so much trouble in assisting me.

I want to specially thank Mrs. Frank Peters for her wonderful work and skill in the making of the costumes of the Wolf and the Spider. They were so wonderfully made that every one felt that they were the property of professional costumers. Then I want to thank the teachers of both the Haymarket and Nokesville Schools for their untiring help. I made no intimation of what I needed that I did not receive ready co-operation. No one could have been kinder and nicer than they were. I also want to thank the parents and the students of Nokesville for the part they took in helping me in the little play. The Bunnies were ably trained by Miss Frazier of Bennett School to whom I am also indebted.

It is such co-operation as was given me by the people mentioned that make a community and I want to again thank them all.

Respectfully,

BEATRICE LEACHMAN.

TARZAN SHARES HONORS WITH KEN MAYNARD IN SUB-DUING "STRAWBERRY ROAN"

Horses love and hate, sulk and are stubborn, have sense of humor, and quite as much temperament as most human beings, according to Ken Maynard, the red-blooded Universal western star who is putting his favorite mount, Tarzan, through his paces in "Strawberry Roan" at the Theatre next week. Maynard, who has had wide experience with horses, has raised Tarzan from a colt and has taught him all he knows. In "Strawberry Roan", Tarzan is said to perform more daring exploits than ever before, which is saying plenty. In this picture, he battles the strawberry roan, the equine "villain" of the range, who turns out, as Ken phrases it, "to be a pretty good guy after all."

And the strawberry roan virtually plays "second lead", for he puts up a splendid battle against Tarzan and, as a wild horse who is king of a tribe of equine outlaws, he manages to put each and every one of them in their places. On one occasion the animal, virtually untrained, saves Ken's life and the life of his leading woman, beautiful Ruth Hall, when they are about to be trampled by a stampede of wild horses.

BUCKLAND

Death has claimed another of Buckland's residents in the passing of Mr. Thomas Murdie, whose death occurred at his home "Piedmont Belle," on April 10. Mr. Murdie had been in active health until only a short while before his death when he suffered a stroke of paralysis. He was a native of Michigan, but had made his home here for many years where he was engaged in farming. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Raleigh Strother, of Fairfax County, and a son, Will, who lived at home. Funeral services were conducted on Thursday afternoon from Gainesville Methodist Church by the pastor, and his remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Gainesville.

We are very sorry to report that Mr. P. H. Lee has been a patient at the University Hospital at Charlottesville for the past two weeks.

Miss Lillian Carter and Mr. Carl Carter, of Oatlands, spent the weekend with their grandmother, Mrs. E. B. Carter, at "Ingleside."

Mrs. A. B. Lee, little Miss Marion Lee, Mrs. M. H. Sims and Mr. Chester Graham, all of Washington, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Graham.

We are sorry to report that Miss Belle Carter suffered a second stroke of paralysis on Tuesday last, and at this writing there is little change in her condition.

Mrs. Ludwell Glascock accompanied her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Downs, to Marshall recently to visit her sister, Mrs. Henry-Mack Glascock.

Miss Audrey, Margaret and Ethel Moore spent Sunday at their home here.

Mr. W. H. Butler visited his old home here on Sunday.

Mr. Raleigh Strother left Wednesday to join his parents at their home in Fairfax County, after spending some time at "Piedmont Belle."

Mr. and Mrs. J. Welton Graham and son, Junior, were guests on Sunday of Mrs. Graham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Jacobs, of Thoroughfare.

Right at the peak of Chevrolet popularity—with nationwide demand sending production to new all-time "highs"—comes the second big announcement of the year from Chevrolet: Four additional models join the Chevrolet line! New cars that America has never seen before. Identical in quality with all 1934 Chevrolets. And the prices have been set at such low figures that you can now buy a Chevrolet for $490! "A Chevrolet for $490!" That's the world's lowest price for a six-cylinder car. And a price that sounds even more impressive after you find out what it buys: A great big, full-size, long-wheelbase car, 169 inches from bumper to bumper. A beautifully streamlined automobile, styled like all 1934 Chevrolets. A cushion-balanced SIX of surprising smoothness, power, snap and dash. The most economical full-size car that money can buy—a record-breaker for gas and oil mileage, as well as long, dependable service. And every closed model in this newest group of Chevrolets has a Body by Fisher, with Fisher No Draft Ventilation. Nobody interested in motor cars can afford to let another day slip by, without seeing this "Chevrolet for $490."
