CHURCH GROUP WILL INSTRUCT

Presbyterian Young People Meet This Week.

Outstanding Christian leaders from all over America and from abroad are flocking to Shenandoah Valley of Virginia this week with the opening of the Massanetta Springs Bible Conferences, a series of meetings extending throughout the summer and participated in by almost every Christian denomination. The first of these conferences, the Presbyterian Young People's Conference, begins next Monday, June 25, and will continue until July 1. The eleven conferences scheduled for the summer months will bring between 20,000 and 40,000 visitors from all sections of America to the Shenandoah Valley, according to the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce.

The conferences will be interspersed with addresses by such noted religious celebrities as Dr. James Black, of Edinburgh, Scotland, Dr. Fred W. Norwood, pastor of the City Temple, in London, Dr. William Evans, outstanding Bible teacher, Dr. William L. Stidger, pastor of the Church of all Nations, Boston, Dr. Leyton H. Richards, of Birmingham, England and dozens of others.

The second group to meet will be the Methodist Young People's Conference, which begins its deliberations on July 2 and will continue until July 8. On July 9 the School of Sacred Music will begin under the leadership of Dr. John Findlay Williamson, of Westminster Choir. It will continue until July 15, and will be followed by the Sacred Music Festival, July 16 to 22. The Sacred Music Festival has become a national institution. Choirs from fifteen areas compose the chorus of 2,000 voices which will sing under the direction of Dr. Williamson on the evening of July 20. Folk music, concerts of a religious nature by orchestras and bands and many other features are a part of the program.

MAKES FINE RECORD

John Hopkins, '30 Manassas High, has just returned from Duke University where he majored in electro-physiology and received his science degree with honors.

John is in line for continued research at the University if he does not go with Uncle Sam on the big job in the Tennessee Valley.

This is just another instance where Manassas grads are constantly making good on the outside. John gives credit to his former principal and says she advised him on lines to study before he was aware himself of his inclinations.

BARBECUE AT BURKE

An old time Barbecue will be given by the Lee District Improvement Association July 4 on Staub's lawn at Burke, Va., starting 5 o'clock.

Does Honesty Pay?

Some months ago when President E. I. Carruthers, of the Capitol District, Kiwanis International, visited the Manassas Club he made an appeal to the Club that they sponsor a contest among the high school students relative to an hypothetical letter which appeared in a recent issue of a national magazine.

This letter is supposed to have been written by a young man just entering life who has become somewhat embittered and discouraged by the apparent success of dishonesty in this world.

His letter reads in part as follows: Dear Editor: I am eighteen years old, and I have been thinking about what to do after I graduate from high school next spring. I want to study law, but Mother objects. She says it is a crooked profession. She says I can't make a living at it unless I am dishonest or at least take advantage of people.

Whether she is right or not doesn't make any difference, because I would go into the profession with the intention of being dishonest or, at least, not too scrupulous. Why should I, or any other young fellow, be honest? That's the question I want to ask you.

Mother believes honesty is necessary for business success. She believes honesty pays. I think honesty is not necessary for business success and dishonesty pays, at least sooner. Mother thinks your magazine is just about perfect; so I told her I'd write to you, and if you could give me just one real, substantial reason why a young fellow should be honest, I'll be honest.

This question is pretty important because I'm not the only one trying to decide it. A lot of other young fellows are, too. Not many choose to be dishonest because they can't help it. Most of them choose to be dishonest because they think it pays. Please understand that I'd rather be honest if I thought it would actually pay.

You understand, Mr. Editor, I don't mean to say that honesty is the so-called good people of this world cared enough about it to patronize it. But good people do not practice what they preach. Consequently, honesty does not pay.

So one good reason, please, Mr. Editor, why an ambitious young man should be honest. It's got to be a real, practical reason, too. And don't talk to me about great men having been honest. I don't want to be great. I want to be comfortable.

Sincerely yours, J. W. COCKE

The following letter by Miss Mary Cocke won first place in the contest. The other letters will be published in sequence in the near future.

Manassas, Va.
May 2, 1934

Dear J. W. You have written a startling challenge to American youth of today and it cannot be casually overlooked. Your questioning rings true but your reasoning cannot stand as it is a slander on American morals, and must not pass. Your problem is perplexing, and as it confronts many other young people of the same age, we must therefore give it serious consideration.

In the first place, in the building of our life honesty plays a part which unconsciously or not we must consider. It is the cornerstone of character, and as you see character is necessary for a well rounded individual. A person without a character is like a shack that a group of us built. We built it hastily of driftwood on the beach. It protected us against the mild, salty breezes and served its purpose well for the time, but one night there was a terrible gale that blew from the northeast and we thought our shack couldn't stand. We were right. Can't you see that character is the same way? A person lacking character is like our little shack; is not strong enough to battle the forces of the elements, and sooner or later is overwhelmed and falls.

Personality is a driving force in human affairs. There are always those whose personality shines above others. Both the honest and the dishonest may have personality, but personality built upon character is substantial enough to face the elements. A crook is not going to get along for long if he does not have personality to cover up his misdoings. You say to be a crook is simple, all you have to do is to make people believe that you are honest. (Please turn to page 8)

B. T. Thornton. As all the white people of Prince William County to be heard be present on that date.

MANASSAS WINS LEAGUE OPENER

Brilliant Pitching Brings Local Club Victory.

Manassas opened the League season Sunday, in an auspicious manner scoring an easy 10 to 0 victory over the Clarendon nine. A goodly crowd was present including His Honor, the Mayor who tossed out the first ball. Behind the three hit pitching of Dreifus and Bradshaw, the M. A. C.'s coasted to an easy win. Dreifus, who started on the mound for the locals, turned in a sterling performance, allowing but two hits and fanning fourteen during his seven inning shift. Bradshaw, who assumed the pitching duties in the eighth, continued the good work, also blanking the visitors in the two innings in which he worked.

Manassas needed but a pair of hits to push across four tallies in the second, being materially aided and abetted in their efforts by a walk, two errors and a passed ball. They bunched four hits in the following inning knocked all semblance of opposition into a cocked hat with a four run spurge, bringing their total to ten. Bragg pitched the last three innings for Clarendon and though nicked for a pair of doubles, escaped being scored on.

The lower end of the M. A. C.'s batting order proved most damaging to the visitors cause, Wurdemann and Kidwell each connecting safely three times and personally accounted for half of the local's runs.

With fifteen of the visitors being retired on strikes, the M. A. C.'s, from a fielding standpoint, had a comparatively easy afternoon. They contributed the two outstanding catches of the game, however, Woodward coming in fast to take Bridge's high fly in the second and Saunders grabbing Hart's long foul, as it was sailing over his head to open the ninth.

W. H. Woodward, who arrived on a visit to his son, J. S. Woodward on Sunday, has gone with him on a fishing trip in the Northern Neck, the two having left at noon on Tuesday.

HEAR REPORT ON TORONTO MEET

Col. Hutchison Reports on Convention.

The main feature of the last week's Kiwanis met was a report by Bob on the Toronto International Convention last the second week in June.

Bob stressed the extreme courteousness and cordiality with which the delegates had been treated from the Canadian border to Toronto and back.

The peace issue was the echo that Bob brought back. The picture which he drew of the convention was quite realistic, particularly where he nominated Ed Hill as an international trustee.

Tomorrow evening the boys will go to Aden where the school and church folks are preparing a feast for them to be served at the usual hour at the school house.

MANASSAS MASON'S MEET

In accordance with a proclamation issued by the Grand Master of Manassas in Virginia, Manassas Lodge No. 182 held a special communication in their Lodge room on the evening of June 25th for the purpose of reconsecrating themselves to Masonry. The elaborate program prepared by the Grand Master was participated in by the Haymarket, Herndon, and Clifton Lodges. The program was concluded by a radio address by the Grand Master, William Mosely Brown, broadcast from the George Washington Memorial in Alexandria, followed by a Master Mason's Degree conferred by the Manassas Lodge. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the ladies of the Eastern Star.

HOME MAKERS ASSOCIATION

On June 14 the women of the Home Makers Association and the Home Demonstration Workers were addressed by Miss Bella Burke of the State Extension Division. Winners of the "Make Your Own Dress Contest" were announced as follows:

Sport or House Dresses—first Mrs. Robert Mooney, Dumfries; second, Miss Geraldine Shepherd, Nokesville; third, Mrs. John Fearnynough, Nokesville.

Street and Church Dress—first, Mrs. Egbert Thompson, Woodbridge; second, Mrs. Robert Mooney, Dumfries; third, Mrs. M. M. DeNicola, Bethel; Mrs. R. L. Persons, Quantico; Mrs. Randolph Branner Dumfries.

Church and Street Dresses—first, Lillian Wenfree, Dumfries; second, Wilda Bourne, Occoquan.

The committee in charge of prizes was composed of Mrs. Edmund Roland, Haymarket; Mrs. John Ellis, Greenwich; Mrs. M. M. DeNicola, Bethel and Mrs. Robert Mooney, Dumfries.

BALL CLUB TO SPONSOR DANCE

On Wednesday, July 11 the Manassas Athletic association will hold a dance in the Manassas High School Gym for the purpose of raising funds to assist in defraying expenses incurred this year. A committee has been appointed and is busy at work on plans for making the dance a successful affair. Music will be furnished by a well-known orchestra and it is hoped that the people of the community will turn out for this occasion.

NOTICE

Owing to a revision in the schedule of the Northern Virginia League the Manassas team will travel to Herndon this Sunday, July 1, where the strong Herndon team will be met. This is contrary to the announcement made at the game here last Sunday. However, the local fans will not be disappointed, as the other team sponsored by the Manassas Athletic Association will meet the team from Warrenton Springs. Play will begin on Swavely field at 3 p. m. and according to information, the Manassas team will have against them on the mound, Newton one of their former pitchers of this season.

WARDEN MUST VIEW

Claimants for benefits under the game laws must hereafter notify the game warden in order that he may inspect the remains of the sheep or fowls killed by dogs.

MISS SHEARER AT HER BEST IN "RIPTIDE"

Incomparable Norma Shearer reaps new laurels as the glided heroine of "Riptide," her glamorous new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring vehicle which comes to the Dixie Theatre in Manassas, Va., next Monday and Tuesday.

In a daring role reminiscent of her triumphs in "Divorcee," "Strangers May Kiss" and "A Free Soul," Miss Shearer plays the part of Lady Rexford, an American girl who married a title and found, to her dismay, that she had sacrificed the freedom and good times she loved so well.

Appearance in her hour of marital discontent of a former New York sweetheart, provides motivation for the sensational romantic triangle upon which the film story is based.

Edmund Gohding wrote and directed the sparkling production, giving the picture an elaborate mounting in pictorial interest as well as in supporting cast.

Robert Montgomery and Herbert Marshall share leading man honors as the sweetheart and husband, respectively, both registering magnificently in these roles.

Included in the cast are Mrs. Patrick Campbell, Skeets Gallagher, Ralph Forbes, Lilyan Tashman, Arthur Jarrett, Earl Oxford, Helen Jerome Eddy, George K. Arthur, Baby Marilyn Spinnert, Phyllis Cochran, Howard Chaldecott and Halliwell Hobbes.

ORANGE BI-CENTENNIAL

Orange County, Virginia, will hold a big Bi-Centennial Celebration, Sept. 25 to 28 to memorialize the founding of that County two hundred years ago. Cut off from Spotsylvania in 1734, Orange County Virginia once included an area extending to the Mississippi River and embracing the present sites of Chicago and St. Louis.

Col. Charles D. Winn, Orange, Va., desires to locate all descendants of the original English settlers and the German Protestants who found Germanna, many of whom settled in the middle west, once a part of the original county grant.

CENSURE FOR ALL—ALL FOR CENSURE

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible lessons, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

FELLOWSHIP We took sweet counsel together and walked unto the house of God in company.—Psalm 55:14.GOOD PICTURES FOR CHILDREN

Discussion of movie censorship comes and goes in waves of popular indignation and apathy. Many intelligent persons who want better movies are opposed to arbitrary censorship and would find a more constructive way to improve this entertainment.

The British Educational Film Guild has sponsored the organization in London of the Children's Film Society. This group arranges for special children's programs of good films. The idea is to develop taste and discrimination in youngsters by a high type of screen entertainment.

The first program of the newly organized society included a Silly Symphony, a fascinating natural history film about badgers and Douglas Fairbanks' version of Robinson Crusoe.

Older than this British experiment is a similar one in Macon, Ga. For nine years a Better Films Committee in that city has been presenting selected motion pictures for children on Saturday mornings. So successful have they been, from the standpoint of entertainment, that many parents have been lured into attending along with their children. The admission price is only 10 cents, with free tickets for children in institutions.

In addition to this special children's performance, the committee gives radio reviews of all pictures every week and distributes information about them by telephone and through the local library. The only safe censor, they say, is the box office, and the committee hopes to make box office receipts attract more good movies and banish the offensive ones.—Cumberland Times.

JUNIORS HOLD ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

The local Council, Order Fraternal Americans, held a fine meeting on Tuesday night. Applications are in the hands of a number of the members. As the class initiation is proposed for August 14th, the applications should if possible be presented to the Council on July 10th.

THE HAWAIIAN CAULDRON

What does President Roosevelt face on his trip to Hawaii? This question is answered in a special article in the magazine of next Sunday's Washington Star. This is one of a score of splendid features in The Star's Magazine, so order your copy from your news dealer today.

CUTS HAND

Miss Violet Herring of Nokesville cut her hand badly with a scythe this afternoon while trimming the hedge. After a hurried trip to Manassas, the wound was dressed by Dr. McBryde.

CENTREVILLE

Services were held on Sunday at St. John's, Rev. H. J. Leinbach officiating in the absence of Rev. A. S. Gibson.

The Guild of St. John's Church will not meet until July 11. A special program is being arranged for that meeting.

The new stone garage of Mr. A. P. Holmes is almost ready for occupancy. It is up-to-date in every respect.

Mr. Ben Cross has his log house well towards completion.

The marriage of Mr. Cecil Cross and Miss Margaret Marshall Haynes, of Alexandria, has been announced. Mrs. Cross is a great grandniece of Chief Justice Marshall.

ADEN

The Young People's of the Christian Endeavor organization are presenting a special Missionary program next Sunday evening, July 1, at Calvary U. B. Church. A special feature of the program, in addition to music, reading etc., will be an appropriate Missionary play entitled "Two Master." This will be a service of inspiration for this great work. Be sure and attend.

The New York Life Insurance Company of New York, a corporation of the State of New York,

By

To Benjamin F. Iden, John H. Iden, and Mason Iden Benoist:

Please take notice that on the 22nd day of June, 1934, the above notice of motion was filed in the Circuit Court of Prince William County, Virginia, and docketed by order of this Court entered on that day and by said order the above notice was ordered to be published in some newspaper in Prince William County, Va., once a week for four consecutive weeks.

Said order of June 22nd, 1934 is in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

"This day came the plaintiff by counsel and showed the Court that due and legal notice of its motion had been served upon all of the above named defendants, except John H. Iden, Benjamin F. Iden, and Mason Iden Benoist;

"And it being made to appear to the Court by affidavit this day filed that the said Benjamin F. Iden, John H. Iden and Mason Iden Benoist, are non-residents of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that the Clerk of this Court do cause to be published once a week for four successive weeks in some newspaper published in Prince William County, Virginia, a copy of the plaintiff's notice of motion, together with a copy of this order, provided, however, that said notice when published shall notify the aforesaid three non-resident defendants, that plaintiff's motion to substitute a trustee will be addressed to this Court at the Court House on the first day of the August term, 1934, which will be Monday, August 6th, 1934;

"And it is ordered that the plaintiff's notice of motion served upon the other defendants above named, returnable before this Court on this day, be filed in the Clerk's Office and docketed."

A Copy Teste:

CAGNEY COMING TO DIXIE
IN "JIMMY THE GENT"

"Jimmy The Gent," the Warner Bros. picture starring James Cagney, will be the feature attraction at the Dixie Theatre in Manassas, Va., next Wednesday and Thursday.

The picture is based on the hilarious comedy romance by Laird Doyle and Ray Nazarro and concerns two crooks who are both trying to expose the other to impress the girl they both love.

The story unfolds in humorous vein the unique racket of heir chasing, that is, the hunting down of lost heirs in order to inherit unclaimed estates. And the two notorious heir chasers, James Cagney and Alan Dinehart, do not stop at bribing persons to act as heirs and coaching them into perjured testimony.

Bette Davis is the feminine lead opposite Cagney and the girl over whom Cagney and Dinehart do battle.

for her love. Alice White, Allen Jenkins and Mayo Methot are said to supply much of the comedy element although the fast talking and fast acting Jimmy always turns up with his share.

The romantic angle is not neglected and is supplied by two couples, Cagney and Miss Davis and Allen Jenkins and Miss White. Other prominent members of the cast include

CATHARPIN

Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Polen of the "Hob Nob" Inn, Washington, were visiting friends in the neighborhood on Sunday last.

Mrs. Etta P. Lynn of Catharpin and Miss Anne Robertson of Lawn Vale were both on "sick leave" during the past week but are reported better as we write.

The Church School Day program rendered at Sudley last Sunday morning was one of the most beautiful and entertaining ever presented by the Sunday school. Warm the it was, the house was filled to capacity and every child and performer was perfect in his rendition. As usual many strangers and friends of other days made it a point to revisit Sudley upon this occasion to enjoy the program and renew acquaintances. Sudley is ever glad to welcome any who come within her gates.

Mrs. J. W. Alvey and sons, Robert and Lynn, who went to visit Mrs. Alvey's sister, Mrs. E. S. Clary in Lawrenceville, Va., are still detained in that city by reason of the illness of little Robert, who is now suffering an attack of pneumonia which has confined him to his room for the past ten days or more. He is now reported better and they hope to return home this week. Thus the visit which had been so happily contemplated had its sad features as well as the pleasant ones.

The "Golden Grain" is rapidly being harvested and this week will perhaps see the whole country-side in shock. As a rule farmers are expecting a good yield this year and there complaint is heard that it is not filled as well as they would like. Be this as it may, the crop is looked upon as average and no one is complaining. The officers of the "Wheat Reduction Program" have been around checking up on the acreages planted preparatory to sending out checks as per contract. So many changes have been made, orders given and rescinded, so that it hard for the farmer to know exactly just what is going on. The drought in the West has changed the Washingtonian mind so often in order to fit up with the needs of the hour so the producers will have to be patient and be content with "last minute rulings" and be satisfied. Of course they do not know how to handle things down in Washington like we do out here at Catharpin so we shall just have to be magnanimous in the matter and forgive them for they know not just what to do.

You know we said something about potatoes awhile back, how they came up, grew and had their being generally. Well, we are eating them now by the peck. This applies to all and singular, the people of the neighborhood. When two producers get together they are sure to compare notes as to size, quality and each, upon ending the debate, feels he is the victor. The crop in general gives good promises of a big yield.

Along with the good, old standby, "Irish Tuber" it now seems that the sweet potato is making a somewhat general invasion of the territory. Many gardens now are not considered complete without these high, vine-covered ridges sending forth their green, trailing tentacles to embrace the on-coming crop of spring chickens. While this has not been noted as a sweet potato paradise yet some fine specimens have been produced and people are learning more and more their value.

We are hearing but very little in these parts about the turkey business. Last year about this time things were all aglow and people could talk nothing but gobblers, hatches, diseases, feeds, etc., but things have quieted down a bit and the only thing that the grapevine and the telephone seem to be doing is to express their condolence anent the poor hatches. Some producers have given it up entirely which may possibly enable those who are still following the "profession" to reap better rewards by way of higher prices next fall. Our best wishes are with you.

There seems to be but very little loose labor in the Catharpin neighborhood. All who want work can get it on new road construction or repairs. It looks as though the farmer is going into harvest and threshing season very short handed, so will have to double up and help each other out as best they can. Modern machinery is bitterly assailed sometimes but if the farmer did not have his binder and tractor he certainly would be in sore difficulty at the present time.

Time, in her passing, certainly carries many things with her. Just the other day a man was hunting a grain cradle to "open up lands" in his wheatfield. At first none could be found, but after a diligent search, one was found at Harry Polen's and was in good order. The farmer's philosophy was that by cutting a swath around his 22 acres of "reduction wheat" he could save about five bushels which would well repay anyone for his two hour's labor. We well remember when this was a common practice but in these modern times the reaper is compelled to open its own path, thus its 10 inch drive wheel lays low a like strip around the field which is never recovered except by hogs or birds, mostly birds, so that the "salvage is never equal to the loss. A search in the big catalogs fails to find such an implement as a grain cradle now on sale; so this former great farm necessity is now destined to be hung up in "Memory's Corner" along with the sickle, both, having served their purpose, must now pass on.

MCCOY TRAVELS FAST IN "STRAIGHTAWAY"

Tim McCoy travelled nearly 2,000 miles at a speed of over 100 miles per hour during the making of his latest Columbia action drama, "Straightaway," which is coming to the Dixie Theatre in Manassas, Va., next week Friday and Saturday.

Since graduating from his western characterizations, McCoy has been dealing with the most thrilling phases of present day life. He made "Police Car 17," in which he was starred as a radio-patrolman, and "Hold the Press," which presented him as a newspaper reporter.

In "Straightaway," he will be seen as a professional auto racing driver, the champion, who risks his life to save that of his younger brother. The picture was made almost entirely on the best known American motor race tracks, and much of the action shows McCoy at the wheel of a racing car.

Before and during the making of the picture, McCoy was trained in the science of race track driving by Ralph Hepburn, noted as a winning pilot of the speedy little cars. It was during the actual shooting of the picture that McCoy travelled his 2,000 miles at the high rate of speed.

NOKEVILLE FUTURE FARMERS ATTEND STATE CONVENTION

The Nokesville Chapter of Future Farmers of America was well represented at the annual State Rally of Future Farmers which was held last week on the campus of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute at Blacksburg. The judging contest was especially interesting and the group representing the local chapter ranked well up in the list of 218 teams entering the various classes. Clifford Bear was the high point man for the local team. Philip Reading and Ivan Fountain made very good scores in all classes. Robert Beahm attended the school for "Leadership" and secured training that should qualify him for an important role in directing Future Farmer activities during the coming year.

The local delegation also attended the meetings of the State Convention of Future Farmers and participated in the transaction of business pertaining to the state organization. The degree of State Farmer was conferred upon 57 candidates who came from various parts of Virginia. Each of these young men had been regularly enrolled in a class in agriculture and developed a piece of work which was worthy of high recognition. The officers for the year 1934-35 were chosen and duly installed before the convention adjourned.

The local representatives report a good time and seem to have received considerable inspiration. It is to be hoped that next year a larger delegation can avail themselves of the opportunity to participate in the contests and attend the meetings which are sponsored annually by the state chapter.

John A. Sanders, an old resident of Manassas but for some time past in the antique business at Occoquan, dropped in for a few minutes one day last week.

Mr. Sanders knows the county and all the old residents, many of whom he called on. He is a very interesting talker.

Why Visit a Funeral Home?

As we extend this invitation for you to visit our funeral home, the thought arises that you may wonder what reason there is for your accepting it. Briefly, it is no longer customary to wait until need arises before visiting a funeral home. Almost everyone may be obligated to make arrangements for a relative, friend or neighbor. Foresighted people are making it a point to visit and know about the facilities of modern funeral homes, as one of their responsibilities. By doing this they avoid hurried decisions, made in emergencies, that might result in lasting regret. They secure information which helps make their final tribute to loved ones as considerate and beautiful as possible.

Does Honesty Pay?

laugh, sympathize with them, be polite to them. These are qualities of a pleasing personality. Couldn't you still be honest and still practice these things? Did your father do this? When someone came into his store did he slap them on the back and say, "Hello Bill, old boy, what is there for you today?" Was he always optimistic about the weather and talk of the sunshine when the rain was pouring down? Maybe that is why people call him a skinflint and a cheat.

Some people aim higher than others and have more behind their ambitions. Your father probably set goals for success but he never really had the force to attain them. Did not your father use his honesty as an excuse when he did not succeed as he thought he should? Haven't you known people with no ambition in life to sit back and say of one who is successful, "Oh, well, he is probably dishonest." I have—more than once. This successful man may have gained his success just as honestly as the man who has failed, but he is going to be criticized by the less fortunate.

Then again, man's code of ethics varies. What one man may consider right and does, thinking whole heartedly that it is, may be branded wrong or dishonest by another. That does not necessarily make the first man dishonest. Some of the practices of capitalists, politicians, or lawyers, may seem dishonest in the eyes of your father, whereas these acts may be clever rather than dishonest.

You say that it is a question between honesty and dishonesty that makes for success, but I believe that it is the use that you make of honesty in life. Character, which embodies honesty, personality to carry it across, and keeping your wits about you makes a winner.

You're on the right path, J. W., and you have the making of character because right here you are being honest with yourself! Keep on being honest with yourself and you'll be honest with the world.

Your friend,
Mary Cocke

INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Hannah Allen was badly injured as was also another young man who was in the Buick car which left the road at a rough section just opposite Mr. Schaeffer's house on the Centreville road.

The party was said to be on its way to Lake Jackson when young Mr. Allen, who was stated to be the driver, applied his brakes too quickly. The car veered to the left hand side of the road and made a sweeping dive into Mr. Schaeffer's orchard on the west side, badly wrecking the car. Mrs. Allen was given first aid treatment by Dr. McBryde, and then carried to a Washington hospital by Mr. Jack Stauff.

Startling price reductions, just announced, place Chevrolet further ahead of its field than ever—in price, quality and value

CHEVROLET In the face of the biggest demand in years, right when the trend toward Chevrolet is at its peak, Chevrolet reduces prices! No wonder America was startled when this news flashed across the country just a few days ago. And now that the public has had a chance to figure out what this price reduction means in terms of greater value, the news becomes even more important than before. Because it means that Chevrolet now offers you a big, substantial, quality car with the famous valve-in-head engine for as little as $465, f. o. b. Flint, Mich.—making it by far the lowest-priced Six in the world. It means that you can get enclosed Knee-Action, Blue-Flame performance, cable-controlled brakes, and all the other big advancements of the day, for as much as $35.00 less than before—and Chevrolet's former prices were already among the lowest of the low. It means, in short, that Chevrolet now presents America with the finest buy the low-price field has ever seen.
