

WOODRUM PRAISES THE PRESIDENT

Democratic Groups Hear Roosevelt Eulogized.

The Democratic Committees of Arlington, Fairfax, Prince William and Alexandria City held a get-together banquet on July second at the Washington Golf and Country Club on the Glebe Road. There were present some fifty members of the Committees and their guests.

Charles R. Fenwick, chairman of the Arlington Committee, and recently appointed to the State Boxing Commission, was toastmaster. The leading speaker of the evening was the Hon. Clifton A. Woodrum, one of the most important members of the National House of Representatives. Prior to his address, Representative Howard Smith, of the Eighth District, made a very brief statement which was largely devoted to a hearty word of congratulation to the Arlington Committee for promoting such an affair and also a very complimentary resume of Mr. Woodrum's work in the House and his importance to the State of Virginia.

Mr. Clifton Woodrum declared that Smith had been honored more than any other young member of the House of Representatives and that all felt happy and glad that the District is sending him back without opposition. In passing, the speaker also highly complimented Mr. Haley, Judge Smith's present secretary and who was Mr. Woodrum's secretary when he was first elected from the Sixth District in 1922.

Launching directly into the heart of his remarks, Mr. Woodrum said "It is an encouraging sign for Democrats to come together in peaceful times. Any organization can hold together in the stress of combat but it bodes well for the next conflict that you folks show such co-operative spirits now."

Continuing he said, "I am thinking tonight, my friend, of another Fourth that generations to come will be celebrating. That Fourth is the Fourth of March of 1933. Never before in the history of the people had they gotten together as on this occasion. It was a war for economic freedom and not for political freedom. It was a struggle to remedy the conditions which had almost over-come us."

The speaker gave a brilliant eulogy of President Roosevelt, referring to the leader's characterization of the Four-Horsemen of Despair which held sway over the American people when he came into office. He recalled, the President's words when he stated that there was nothing worse to fear than fear itself.

"By his matchless leadership we have gone on and up. There are yet obstacles but we re on the high road to success. In the dark days of 1932 when the whole order had broken down, and America was prostrate, the people wanted a Captain who was not afraid to take his ship into uncharted seas. They wanted the New Deal, and the New Deal was nothing but Roosevelt's declaration of Economic Independence."

"Has the New Deal succeeded? Has the NRA been perfect? Certainly not—but if we want to get the real answer, let us look into the whole picture and see the satisfaction which has been registered by the America people."

"In 1932 Roosevelt was a Democrat. On March 4, 1933 he became President of one hundred and twenty million people and on his shoulders rest their hopes and happiness. His ideal is our rejuvenation and he will not be dominated by any class or set of politicians."

Referring more directly to attacks on the so-called 'Brain Trust', Mr. Woodrum said:

"It is ridiculous to criticize Franklin D. Roosevelt for the use of brains in Government. Certainly, during several administrations which had immediately preceded him, there was not getting away it—we are striving for the kind of Government that Washington sought to build."

"Recently I gave to those who criticized along these lines, my answer in this fashion. 'Let us summon to the Council (meaning Congress) the great Democratic leaders of the American history, — Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Jackson, Cleveland and Wilson. Let us lay the situation before them. Doubtless, they will not agree and their opinions are bound to be varied for each of them was a man of his own mind.' (continued on page 4)

DIES OF SPOTTED FEVER

Linwood Arrington of Woodbridge, 18 months old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arrington, is dead of spotted fever, contracted from the bite of a tick.

The illness lasted about three weeks. Health authorities of Prince William and adjoining counties are said to be working on plans to check spread of the disease.

COCKE TALKS ON NEW DEAL

Kiwanis Listen to Interesting Dissertation.

Bill Cocke gave the Kiwanians a dissertation on side lights on the New Deal last Friday, using poetry to complete his arguments and prove his case. Certain known dignitaries of the town were seen and heard loudly applauding him thereafter.

Hot weather had everybody in its grip and much ice tea disappeared during the evening.

An invitation to dine with the 4-H Club girls was accepted and the Club will be their guests tomorrow night.

P. A. LEWIS WILL GREET DAIRYMEN

Holstein Breeders Complete Plans for Meeting Here.

The annual field day of the Holstein breeders of Virginia will be held at the farm of Percival A. Lewis, near Manassas, Thursday, July 19. The breeders of Prince William County are providing arrangements for the event. The Holstein breeders club and the dairy department of the Virginia Agriculture Extension Division are providing the program.

An address by Prof. J. W. Bartlett of the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station will be one of the main features. Prof. Bartlett has done a great deal of research work toward increasing the fat content of Holstein milk, and this subject, says Prof. P. N. Reeves of the Virginia Extension service, should be of interest to all Holstein breeders, especially to those in this state.

Mr. Allen Crissey, eastern fieldman for the National Holstein Association, will speak on marketing milk. Dr. L. E. Starr, assistant animal pathologist of the Virginia Agricultural Extension Division, will present data on investigation of Bang's disease. The program also includes entertainment features and demonstrations.

Prof. Frank Cox, local County agent, is taking an active part in the arrangements.

The days program will be as follows:

10:30 A. M. Welcome—P. A. Lewis.
10:45 Remarks of the president—C. Nelson Beck, president, Va. Holstein-Friesian Club.

11:00 Marketing Holstein Milk—Allen Crissey.

11:45 Some Phases of the Bang's Disease Problem—Dr. L. E. Starr, Va. Agricultural Experiment Station.
12:15 P. M. Basket Picnic, Each breeder bring a basket lunch. Ice cream and milk will be furnished by Prince William breeders.

1:15 Report of National Holstein-Friesian Convention—Frank S. Walker, vice-pres. Va. Holstein-Friesian Club.

1:30 Increasing the Fat Content of Holstein Milk—Prof. J. W. Bartlett, New Jersey Agr. Experiment Station.
2:30 Demonstration, Cow and Daughter Comparison. Inheritance Through the Female Line—R. G. Connelly, Extension Dairyman, V. P. I.

3:00 Business Session.
(The Lewis farm is located two miles N. W. of Manassas on the Stone House road.)

GROCERY ENTERTAIN LARGE GATHERING

One of the largest crowds attending any recent commercial event witnessed the opening of the Manassas D. G. S. Market today.

Music and gifts packages contributed substantially to the occasion.

MARRIAGE RECORD

MANASSAS A. C. DEFEATS WHITE STAR MARKET FOR THIRD LEAGUE WIN

Dreyfus Yields Five Hits, Fans Fifteen to Earn M. A. C. 7-1 Victory over White Star Marketmen

With Dreyfus pitching five hit ball, the M. A. C.s continued their winning ways, defeating White Star Market, one of Ballston's representatives in the Northern Virginia League, by the score of 7 to 1. Dreyfus added fifteen strikeouts to his total, which in the twenty three innings he has worked, has reached the impressive total of thirty-eight. The Locals continued their heavy hitting connecting safely fourteen times. Included in their total were doubles by Saunders and Dreyfus.

Burch started on the mound for the visitors and was raked for nine solid blows during his four inning shift, giving up three runs in the second and three more in the third. He was replaced by Donaldson, a left hander, at the start of the fifth. Though frequently in trouble, Donaldson, with the exception of the fifth, in which he was nicked for an unearned run, kept the home team from scoring.

The visitors scored their lone run in the second, which Woodward opened with a single. He was trapped off base but reached second safely when Vetter dropped Wurdemann's not-so-good throw. He scored when Wright dropped a hit into right field, the latter taking second on the throw in and continuing on to third when the ball took a bad bounce over Dreyfus' head. Futher damage was averted when Dreyfus threw out Messer while holding the runner at third; fanned Foster and forced Harrell to roll out, Vetter to Wurdemann.

The visitors lead was short lived. Saunders opened the home half of the of the inning with a hit to center and stretched it into a double when the center fielder fell as he was fielding the ball. Bradshaw scored him with a single to center but was out when he attempted to take second on the throw to the plate, the pitcher cutting off the throw and getting the ball back to second in time for the putout. Wurdemann and Reeves followed with hits and both scored on Dreyfus' double to right. Four hits were good for three more runs in the third when, with one away, Vetter singled, went to second on Bradshaw's hit to right. Wurdemann sent him to third with a single and took second on the throw-in. They both scored when Reeves' Texas League dropped just out of the first baseman's reach close to the right field foul line. The M. A. C.s scored their seventh and last run in the fifth off Donaldson. Bradshaw was safe on Lear's fumble and reached second as Wurdemann beat out a roller to Foster for his third hit. They were sacrificed to third and second, respectively, by Reeves and Bradshaw scored following Kidwell's fly to right.

The White Star Marketmen were able to get but one man past first in the last seven innings. Lear opened the sixth with a single and reached second with the aid of a passed ball. His mates, however, were unable to offer any assistance and he was still there when Woodward took Wright's fly in short center for the third out.

M. A. C. MEETS BALLSTON HERE SUNDAY

Manassas, by winning its third straight game Sunday, clung to the heels of Ballston, who with four wins to its credit, leads in Section A of the Northern Virginia League.

Neither team has suffered defeat. On the basis of past performances, these two teams appear to be in a class by themselves in this Section of the League. Herndon, who was hand to witness the M. A. C.'s bid for swamped earlier in the season by Manassas, 19 to 3, is their closest rival with two wins and a like number of losses. And so, even at this early (Please turn to page 5)

BANK STATEMENTS SHOW RECOVERY

Beginning this week and continuing next week the Journal is publishing the quarterly bank statements as required by the Treasury Department. In this issue are found the reports of the Peoples National Bank of Manassas and the First National Bank of Quantico.

As indicated by these reports and by those of the other Banking institutions of the County, things are looking upward and recovery is actually being accomplished.

The reports of the National Bank of Manassas and the other Banks of Prince William county will follow and show the same encouraging outlook for business and agriculture.

N. R. A. CLOSES NEARBY FACTORY

Ruling Throws 500 out of Work at Fredericksburg.

The G and H Manufacturing Company off Fredericksburg, Virginia, has shut down indefinitely and five hundred employees are out of jobs as the result of an order from the NRA, requiring the firm to pay higher wages.

The shut down with plenty of work on hand, is the first in 21 years for the Fredericksburg factory. Ten other plants in Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania are affected by the order which requires them to pay nearly $200,000 in back wages and to continue the higher scale, or else be deprived of the Blue Eagle.

It is stated that there is no dissatisfaction at Fredericksburg but that the firm, which is one of the largest in the United States has been closed with all its branches. Over 4,000 employees are affected.

FARRAR'S ROCK FUND AWAITS COURT RULE

On Wednesday next, July 18, the question of the disposition of the Farrar's Rock Fund created under the will of the late J. B. T. Thornton for the benefit of the White People of this County, will be passed upon by the Circuit Court. Under Judge Thornton's will Farrar's Rock was left to trustees for the benefit as above stated. This property was condemned by the Virginia Pub. Ser. Co. in connection with its development at Bland's Ford, and the money therefrom derived is being held by the trustees, subject to the order of the Court. Those interested should appear before Judge McCarthy next Wednesday at Manassas, and give the Court the benefit of their views, according to the opinion expressed by Mr. J. Jenkyn Davies, counsel for the trustees.

DEMOCRATIC EXCURSION

The Democratic Committee of Arlington County has arranged for a moonlight trip on the steamer "Potomac" on the night of July 26th, leaving Washington at 8:45 p. m. and reaching there about twelve on its return. The boat will also stop at Alexandria about nine o'clock. The cost of ticket is very low. There will be music, dancing and other entertainments on the boat. Any one wishing to buy tickets may procure them from Mr. J. Jenkyn Davies with whom the Arlington Committee has left some.

SECONDARY ROAD FUNDS

District Engineer Hubbard made public the allocation of funds by the State Highway Department for the secondary road system of Prince William County. The total amount is $59,663.10.

The secondary road system of this county includes 366.5 miles, of which 10.07 miles are hard surface, 131.9 are soil-gravel or sand-clay, 44.3 are graded or conditioned, and 179.06 miles are unimproved.

LOSSES AT SUDLEY

Lightning destroyed a fine wheat wheat stack for Mrs. Hundley and two hay stacks for Mr. Sowers during the heavy storm late on Thursday.

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS

The list of delinquent real estate in the Town of Manassas for the year 1933 has been posted at the front door of the town hall as required by law.

It is hoped that those who have overlooked their taxes will call at my office and settle same promptly.

BIG CARNIVAL AT MANASSAS

Manassas Firemen Plan Big Event for July 28-Aug. 4.

The annual Fireman's Carnival will be held by the Manassas Volunteer Fire Department beginning Saturday, July 28 and extending through Saturday, August 4.

Doctor G. B. Cocke is chairman of the Carnival Committee, which is composed of Arthur Vetter, C. W. Fitzwater, John T. Broadus, Jack Stauff and Tom Howard.

Elaborate plans are being made to make the affair the best and the largest ever put on by the local fire-fighters. A big Century of Progress Ferris Wheel will delight the children and there will be many kinds of games to attract folks of all ages.

Every year the friends of the volunteer fire fighters are afforded this opportunity of showing their appreciation of the fire fighters, who serve as a matter of patriotism and who receive little or no support from public funds.

The Carnival Committee will meet Friday night to perfect plans for the big event which will be held every evening, beginning July 28 and continuing through the following week.

ISSUES WARNING TO DELINQUENT BORROWERS

M. Bruce Whitmore, secretary-treasurer of the Prince William County National Farm Loan Association, has just received instructions from Chas. S. Jackson, president of the Federal Land Bank of Baltimore, to give consideration to those farmers who are capable of yet who are not making their due payments on land bank and land bank commissioners loans.

"Call the attention of your delinquent borrowers to the fact that they are very much in the minority," Mr. Jackson said. "Quote to them the figures which show that for the entire Baltimore district 91 per cent of the borrowers from the land bank commissioner are meeting their payments within the month on which their payments fall due. Explain that they are less in number than the remaining 9 per cent, because a number of our delinquents are truly unable to meet their payments on time."

"The land bank is co-operating whole-heartedly with those farmers who are honestly unable to meet their payments, and it is receiving the co-operation of the vast majority of farmers who can make their payments. But—those few farmers who are attempting to 'coast' along on the land bank and the land bank commissioner are not going to be left unmolested."

The states included in the Baltimore land bank district are Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia.

MRS. POPE HEADS CATHOLIC CLUB

Mrs. Mary Pope was re-elected president of the Catholic Woman's Club at the meeting Wednesday evening. Other officers for the coming year include Mrs. Robert Bisson, Vice-President, Mrs. Douglas Merchant, treasurer, Miss Margaret Lynch, secretary.

In addition to the regular business of the club, there was a discussion of details of the dance to be held in Conner's Hall on Labor Day, September 3. The club also endorsed the National move to make moving pictures cleaner.

Mrs. Pope has supported every progressive activity of the club and filled her position as President in a most charming manner and her reelection was the occasion of much gratification.

GUEST NIGHT AT GRACE M. E. CHURCH

Sunday night, July 15, beginning at 7:45 will be "Guest Night" at Grace M. E. Church in Manassas. A special invitation has been extended to all who do not have services in their own churches.
