AGRICULTURAL SHOW NEXT WEEK

Flowers, Poultry and Stock to Be Shown.

The Brentsville District Dairy and Poultry show will be held at the High School in Nokesville on Friday, October 19th. Exhibits will be placed during the morning and judges will award the ribbons. At noon everything will be thrown open to the public. It now seems that exhibits will be numerous and competition keen. All exhibits of dairy animals and poultry will be confined to 4H and F. F. A. members. Many of these members have been carefully making plans for the exhibition of their products.

Features of special interest will be discussions by Mr. A. L. Dean, poultry specialist of V. P. I., and Mr. Keithley, dairy specialist of V. P. I.

Problems of great importance in successful poultry and dairy production will be considered. Opportunity in these informal discussions will be given for poultry keepers and dairymen to ask questions and secure information of great value. It is hoped that the people of the district will attend in large numbers and avail themselves of opportunities presented on this occasion.

A committee from the community Association has been quite diligent in selecting articles which will be awarded or premiums in the various classes. It is only through the good cooperation of this committee, headed by M. J. Sheppard, with the 4H Club and Future Farmer members that the show is being staged.

The ladies club is sponsoring a flower show in connection with the general program. This feature should be very attractive and interesting if the frost line is kindly delayed until after the 19th. Exhibits in this class will be in the interest of a better appreciation for flowers:

 - Best Guernsey bull
 - Best Holstein bull

Several features of entertainment are being arranged. These will include afternoon and evening attractions. All premiums will be awarded at the evening meeting the school auditorium.

GAIN IN RED CROSS MEMBERSHIP REPORTED BY CHAIRMAN

Volunteer workers for the Prince William County Chapter of the American Red Cross are making plans now for the annual Roll Call membership which opens on Armistice Day, Sunday, November 11, according to a statement today by Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, chairman of the local chapter. The quota assigned to this chapter is 500 members, and Mrs. Lloyd says there is every indication that the goal will be reached, if not passed, during the roll call campaign.

"A gain in membership was reported by the national organization for last year. The organization did not suffer a serious loss in members at any time during the period of stress; such decrease as occurred was checked last year, and the response to the roll call this year is expected to be well up toward the pre-depression figure."

Mrs. Mamie Lynch Delaney heads the Prince William County Roll Call in Prince William County.

MANASSAS A. C. LOSES PENNANT

Local Team Ends Season of Brilliant Performance.

Lengthening shadows creep across the undulations that mark the Middleburg diamond as a hapless, disappointed Manassas nine picks itself out of the dust and silently trudges toward the exits and home. The last hesitant rays of a waning summer sun seem to accentuate the gloom that pervades the Mac dugout. For their fondest hopes have vanished in the thin purple mists that seep down from the foothills and slowly engulf the field. We watch, misty eyed, and are sorry, for we share their emotions; feel the sting of unexpected defeat. It seems incredible but it's true. Reeves; Dreifus; Wurdemann; seemingly dazed, watch the departing crowds as if unable to comprehend the turn of events that has taken from them the coveted honors for which they so earnestly fought. They had given their best to no avail. The fact that a stirring ninth inning rally fell but one run short of a tie appears, at the moment, of little import. Surely, no mere defeat could so effectively crush a team as this one has. And we think we know the answer. Not because they have been guilty of half a dozen costly errors; not because they have been the victim of a poor decision at the plate that cost them a run but in the dubious tactics of their opponents who have displayed, at times, as smutty a brand of baseball as the writer has ever witnessed. And through it all, the breaks are in the favor of the home team. They couldn't miss, impossible stops, two of which came during the Macs desperate ninth inning stand, constantly thwarted them in their efforts to break through their opponents stonewall defence. Dreifus was hit hard and frequently. His fast ball lacked the customary zip that characterized his previous performances and it seemed the harder he bore down, the harder it came back, a tribute to the power in those Middleburg bats. Their ten hits include three doubles and a triple. Only one of them go down swinging, a new low mark for Dreifus in this re-

ANNUAL REPORT OF U. D. C.

The ever hospitable home of Mrs. the chapter. R. L. Byrd was thrown open to the Daughters of the Confederacy for their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, October 9. Assisting her were Miss Nolie Nelson and Miss Florrie Kincheloe. The meeting was opened at 2:30 p.m. with the new president, Mrs. Leonard L. Lonas, presiding.

After the usual opening exercises a review of last year's activities was heard with much enthusiasm. Outstanding accomplishments were as follows:

Completion of the chapter's quota on Stratford, Jefferson Davis Historical Foundation, and the L. H. Raines Scholarship Fund. A sum of eighty-six dollars was raised for the museum on the Manassas Battlefield Park. The chapter erected and dedicated the boulder for the 4th district on the Jefferson Davis Highway at Woodbridge. By the intervention of this chapter the Oak Council Tree on the John Marshall Highway was preserved—under this tree Generals Lee, Hill and Longstreet planned the second battle of Manassas. Dues were paid for Ewell's Camp C. V.'s One dollar was sent to the chairman of the Tennessee Book Committee, and one dollar toward the portrait of Dr. Lyon G. Tyler. A contribution of two dollars was sent to the soldiers' Christmas dinner at Richmond. Baskets were sent to all County Confederate veterans and widows at Christmas, and in illness. We added to our Southern shelf in the library. A typed roster of all known volunteer Confederate soldiers from Prince William County (39th battalion) was sent to Richmond. Twenty-five pictures of Sidney Lanier were bought and placed in the county schools, and a talk on Lanier was given to 150 students. Silk flags were placed on the caskets of two veterans.

The usual Jefferson Davis and Lee-Jackson memorial services were observed. A lot was purchased on which to erect a chapter memorial hall. An appropriate representation was entered in the Dairy Festival parade. Correction of the term "Civil War" was stressed. Two historical sketches were printed in magazines. An entertainment by Nancy Byrd Turner was sponsored by the chapter and the other community clubs. We were honored with visits from Mrs. Nottingham, Mrs. Cary and members from three other chapters in December. The U.D.C.'s 40th birthday was celebrated, also the 38th birthday of

A treat of unusual character was given the Kiwanis Club last Friday evening when Master Harry Parrish gave an exclusive showing of a motion picture which he had produced of the recent dairy festival.

The color reproduction and general clearness was excellent. The artistic work of the young photographer was applauded vigorously.

Town Manager Cocke gave a brief talk on the advisability of closer organization for the dairy festivals of the future and highly complimented Dick Hynson, president of the association, and Mrs. Bob Smith, one of its most energetic workers.

Bob Hutchison said that one of the two outstanding features of the Festival parade was Joe Wheaton, mayor of Canova, stopping the procession to sell one of the District Commissioners a copy of The Journal. (We regret our photographer was not on the spot.—Ed.)

Thornton, entertained with appropriate selections for the day, reading President Roosevelt's message to the state convention. Mrs. Marsteller read an article on the Klu Klux Klan.

All enjoyed a delightful social hour while delicious refreshments were being served.

CANCER CONTROL FUND PLANNED

Woman's Club Hears Interesting Talk by District Head.

The Woman's Club of Manassas held their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 10, at the high school, with Mrs. Paul Cooksey presiding. The meeting was opened in the usual manner by repeating the club collect—following which the president explained a new feature, which is to be carried out at future meetings. Feeling that a touch of religious atmosphere might be a pleasant addition to the meetings, the president in co-operation with the club chaplain, Mrs. A. S. Gibson, has arranged through the Ministerial Association to have one of the local ministers give a brief talk at each meeting, using the various phrases of the club collect as his subject. This idea was carried out on this occasion by Rev. A. S. Gibson, who gave a most appropriate and effective discourse on the value of not placing oneself before the great things to be accomplished, and cautioned the members to "beware of pettiness and leave off self-seeking."

Splendid reports were given by the chairmen of the sections. Mrs. Harry Love for the music and literature section gave a brief resume of their plans and urged all members to attend the meetings, held on the fourth Monday of each month, the programs of which are being devoted to the study of operas and their composers.

Mrs. Guthrie, chairman of the garden section, also made a most interesting report of the recent Reciprocity meeting, held by this section, and spoke of the fine things in store for those who feel the urge to garden.

Report of the membership committee, by its chairman, Mrs. T. J. Broadus, mentioned a drive for new members as its objective. Charity likewise reported, busy and in need of linens, sleeping garments, and supplies for the sick. These supplies to be sent to Mrs. J. A. Delaney, chairman of this committee.

The programme, which was in charge of the Junior Woman's Club, was a great success. Miss Esther Warren Pattie, Junior chairman, in her usual charming manner, gave a brief sketch of their activities during recent months. Most outstanding among them being their help both financially and personally, given to Miss Sabina Neel, county nurse. A delightful piano solo, rendered by Miss Meaker Burke, was a pleasant feature.

Mrs. Aylor, chairman of the fourth district Federated Women's Clubs, was next introduced, and gave a most inspiring and illuminating address, on the "problems and opportunities facing the women of today, in building better homes, providing better housing conditions for the slum sections of our cities, by taking more interest in public health, the building of good citizens through better movies, more wholesome recreation, etc."

She also spoke of a movement on the part of General Federation to raise a cancer control fund—by having members contribute ten cents, this to be acted on at a future meeting.

Mrs. Aylor then gave a most cordial invitation to the club as a whole, to attend the annual meeting of the fourth district, to be held in Lyon Park Community House on October 23 at 10:30 a.m. Mrs. F. R. Hynson was elected as a delegate to this meeting, with Mrs. William Fauntleroy Cocke as her alternate.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hospitality committee with Mrs. Harvey Steele as chairman.

The following was adopted as a club motto and will be inscribed in the new very attractive year books just issued:

Getting together is beginning, Keeping together is progress, Working together is success.

CATHARPIN

Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Beard of Alderson, W. Va., stopped overnite at Oakwood last week on their way to Baltimore to attend the annual Conference of his church which being held in that city. Mr. Beard is a former pastor at Sudley and well remembered by the people whom he served.

While cutting corn last week Mr.
George Davis, a farmer living near Catharpin, received a bad cut under the knee which has confined him to his room. It may be several weeks before he can go to work again.

Mrs. L. L. Lynn is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Metz, in Manassas this week.

Well, this column is stepping out in the world. We had thought our little "jitterings" were read only by the people around Catharpin, but now comes a letter from away over there in New Jersey, across the great Delaware river from Philadelphia, written by a printer and his wife who is proof-reader on his paper, both very much interested in our discovery that the printing press needed greasing in order to stop its mistakes. The printer wanted to know who furnished the grease, and the proof-reader thought it would be good experience for us to visit a print shop and trace the process from linotype to press and thus gain some worthwhile information. The printer thinks that it might be "sand or grit" that was needed. The proof-reader wanted to know if we were trying an "Arthur Brisbane" or a "Morgan Cook?" Well, as far as the grit and sand are concerned, we have plenty of that down on Catharpin run near Sudley mill and could ship same by air mail upon request; but as to Arthur Brisbane
and Morgan Cook, we are far at sea, for to our knowledge, no one by those names are living in Catharpin, therefore, how can we know? At any rate, our own valued printing press has shown great improvement of late, and, knowing how difficult it is to always be perfect, we can only sit in our "sanctum" and watch the big, bad word go by and pity it because it is not perfect like we are.

The past has been a very exciting week when every "Schoolboy" has been "Dizzy Dizzy" over the World's Series. Radios are at a premium and all have their favorites to win. As we "go to press" this morning the teams stand "three all." Over in Baltimore one finds business almost suspended. Many places have a radio in full blast with its crowd of "fans"
and "rooters" with heart, mind, soul and body in rapturous or tense wonderment as to the result of the next
"hit." Base Ball is truly the American Sport since its patrons reach clear through the "gamut" of civilization from bishop to school children.
May it ever be kept clean.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. McDonald attended the Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Baltimore last week, the former as a delegate from the Washington District.

We feel it is unfortunate that so few of the membership at large are privileged to really know how it feels and just what it means to attend the sessions of an annual conference. Aside from its regular business affairs and the carrying out of disciplinary duties, it has so many "sidelines" especially to those who have had the privilege of attending them often enough to become pretty generally acquainted. To one who keeps himself posted on the workings of his church by means of its literature,
church papers etc, it becomes a matter of profound interest. It is always a thrill to see and hear a new bishop, more especially if that bishop is of the younger variety. At the conference just closed it was the delight of the whole membership to see and hear bishop Kern who presided
for a time in the stead of Bishop Mouzon who was absent on account of illness. Bishop Kern is about fifty years of age; small of stature, bright, neat, affable, loving; a fine parliamentarian, energetic, sympathetic and full of business; in fact he seemed to have everything a bishop and presiding officer should have. Every one loved him and, if we are any judge, Bishop Kern is an ideal official to represent his church both before his own people and to the world at large.

To have had him in their midst was,
perhaps, the greatest delight of the whole session.

Again a very important and pleasant sideline is the contact with friends of long standing who, probably, had had no other opportunity during the year, to meet and renew acquaintances. One can hardly get him or herself seated until he or she or both begin to look around. Then, all of a sudden, handshakes of all sizes, colors and previous conditions of servitude, are brought out in a general Chautauqua salute. This process is just a mild preliminary prelude to what is to follow, for as soon as the opportunity offers, they rush at each other, hug, kiss, (that is the women do) and then the "conference" has begun in earnest, and each intermission finds new seat mates and thus it continues as long as you are there—all just as happy as children on the playground. Can you imagine anything to beat it?

Then, again, we saw our former pastors. W. P. C. Coe was present looking quite old and feeble; Mr.
Welsh looking as neat as ever; Mr.
King with his smile of contentment;
Mr. Beard, always in earnest, and one of the secretaries; Mr. Phillips with his "How's everybody?"; Mr. Atkins with his always pleasant greeting;
with Mr. Swecker our latest "X" pastor and our own Mr. Sapp. It certainly was a pleasure to meet them all with their running fire of questions wanting to hear all about everybody. Its no easy job meeting so many of our "X" preachers and answering their questions. Conference, itself, was as full of life, energy, anticipation, anxiety, etc. as usual. It always has before it things of interest to the whole church and it is a pity that more of the membership could not avail themselves of the benefit of its sessions.

DEFINES DUTIES OF

LOAN REPRESENTATIVE

A statement just received by J. Alfred Austin, secretary-treasurer of the Warrenton Production Credit Association, from J. K. Doughton, Acting President of the Production Credit Corporation of Baltimore, defines the official status of Mr. W. Hill Brown, Jr. as the official correspondent for the Warrenton association in Prince William County. Mr. Brown recently was appointed the association's correspondent in this county.

Boughton's statement is as follows: "In order that there will be no misunderstanding or misinterpretation of the official duties of the county correspondents for the Production Credit Associations in the Baltimore farm credit district, it is desirable that their duties be briefly outlined."

"Each correspondent of a Production Credit Association is authorized to help any farmer in his county to make out an application for a loan from the association. This includes the filling out of application papers and any work required in the completion of such papers. Each correspondent is authorized to supply information concerning the various types of loans his association handles."

"No Correspondent can guarantee the closing of any loan. No correspondent is authorized to pass upon the merits of any application for a loan. His work is confined primarily to the writing of, and compiling information for, application papers. The merits of an application for any and every loan are determined by the loan committee of the local Production Credit Association; it is understood, of course, that the application and the note are submitted to the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Baltimore."

The office of the correspondent for Prince William County is located in Manassas, Virginia.

COUNTY AGENTS COLUMN

by
F. D. COX

The present crop year is nearing an end. The 1934 corn-hog contract will terminate this fall. It is now time to consider the question of whether or not farmers want the Agricultural Adjustment Administration to develop a program for controlling livestock numbers or crop acreage, or both, for 1935.

Assuming normal yields in 1935, an acreage somewhat below the average prior to 1934 will maintain the most desirable balance between supply of and demand for both livestock and crops.

There are certain factors which may tend to stimulate the planting of an acreage to feed crops in 1935 in excess of actual requirements that will exist. With the temporary premium on feed supplies it seems probable that, without a control program of some sort, feed grain production in 1935 may be excessive and another upswing in livestock production may be stimulated by 1936. Checking back on statistics, we find that the acreage of corn planted on the years following the droughts of 1894, 1901 and 1930 was increased by an average of seven percent. A study of corn yields for the years following these three drought years shows that the yield of corn was higher in the season after the drought in three out of the three instances, with an average increase from 19.6 bushels to 27 bushels per acre.

In spite of the rather marked adjustment of meat animals, supplies of small grains, feed grains, hay and pasture, per animal unit are shorter than for many years. As a consequence, prices of all kinds of feeds this summer have been advancing rapidly. This situation is placing a premium on feeds and is setting the stage for a big expansion in feed crops acreage in 1935, far in excess of actual requirements with anything like normal yields. Judging from past experience, without some control of production, an overproduction of feed crops in 1935 followed by an overproduction of meat animals in 1936 may be normally expected.

BURKE

Mr. R. E. Marshall left Saturday for Orlando, Fla., where he will spend the winter.

The oyster supper, given by the ladies of the Good Shepherd Church, was a decided success, about $75 being realized.

Burke 4-H Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Ethel Clark, won the Fairfax County banner for the year, at the Achievement Day exercises at Annandale last Saturday. The club is very fortunate in having Mrs. Clark as leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Holman of Washington were guests Sunday of Mrs. Holman's sister, Mrs. J. M. Fitzhugh.

There is a good deal of dissatisfaction on the part of the patrons of Sydenstricker School, whose children are transported to Burke School this year. They feel that it is necessary for the small children to leave home, too early, and they are asking the School Board to reopen Sydenstricker School for the first three grades.

A new courthouse is under consideration at Fredericksburg to replace the present building.

BUILDING BOYS AND GIRLS

All over the country registration has increased over last year. The highest gain are in the middle west.

How to explain it is a little difficult. Have more parents actually more money to spend this year than last? Have those who find themselves still with a resource or two come to the conclusion that they cannot trust banks or stocks on real estate and that they might just as well build what they have left into their boys and girls? Is there more scholarship aid available? Are boys and girls more willing than those of a few years ago to go to cheaper institutions when they cannot go to the more expensive?

All these questions can be answered in the affirmative. It is also true that parents who have seen the idle youth losing courage have become willing to make any sacrifice at all to keep their son busy until better times.

Winchester Star.

ODD FELLOWSHIP AND RELIGION

Not so long ago I handed one of my friends an application blank. He, being a cautious-minded young man, wanted sufficient time for inquiries and meditation before committing himself. A few days later I accosted him concerning the application. He then asked me these questions: "Does Odd Fellowship substitute for the church; or, in other words, does Odd Fellowship come before the church in the worship of God? Upon affiliating myself with the Order, will any obligation I take prohibit me from worshipping my God as I see fit?"

These questions are in the mind of many prospective candidates and should be given a full answer.

While Odd Fellowship is not a religion, it is nevertheless synonymous with religion, and if Odd Fellowship was separated from its religious element, it would soon be on the rocks. While the purpose of the Order is noble and God-like, it seeks not to supplant the church in its mission of mercy. The Order is subsidiary to the church; it leaves to the church the higher and more sacred duty of pointing men to the way of everlasting life, and contents itself to be the lowly menial of religion, teaches fraternal fellowship and opens the doors of men's souls to a clearer conception of their duties to God, their country, their families and themselves.

Odd Fellowship has its God, and of the millions that have joined the Order, there is not one who has not expressed his belief in this Higher Power, as the acknowledgment of God is the first great requirement for admission to the Order. Odd Fellowship founded upon the Bible, has its Bible which is ever-present in the lodge room.

There should never be any misunderstanding between the church of God and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Good Odd Fellows should make better church members; and good church members should make better Odd Fellows. It is a poor rule that does not work both ways.

MRS. ANNIE E. CARRICO

Mrs. Annie E. Carrico, wife of William C. Carrico, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Ward, at Charlotte Hall, Md., last Friday, October 5, aged seventy-seven years.

The interment was at Cedar Hill cemetery in Washington, on Monday, October 8, the Reverend Metcalf officiating.

spec for the season.

The Macs are away on the right foot, counting twice in the opening inning. With two away Vetter beats out a hit to deep short and scores as Saunders tags one to right center for three bases. Saunders scores as Dreifus bangs one into center for a base. In the third, they add a pair of runs, this time on an error by Hartman, a walk and hits by Vetter and Wurdemann. In the fifth they fill the bases with none out but are able to push across but a single tally. Vetter scores following Reeves long fly to Downs but Saunders is called out at home after apparently sliding in safely under Waddels throw. Kidwell pops to Mankins to end the inning. Furr replaces Burwell in the box and takes the Macs in order in the next three innings. Comes the ninth, the Macs trailing by three runs and their hopes as low as a Nudists wardrobe. Lynn opens the inning with a loop over second and Frame robs him of a hit, taking the ball over his shoulder while on the run for the first out. Woodward walks, the first Mac to reach first since the fifth inning. He reaches third as Bradshaw lines a single down the right field foul line and scores on Vetter's hit to deep short, the latter's fourth hit of the game. Mankins comes through with the stop that undoubtedly saves the game for Middleburg, taking Saunders hard bouncer with his bare hand and tagging out Bradshaw as he comes into third. Dreifus revives sagging hopes with a line single to center scoring Vetter and bringing the locals to within one run of a tie but Reeves best is a roller to Furr, ending the game.

The home team scores single runs in the second, third and eighth innings, adds two in the fifth and three in the following inning. What proves to be the winning marker is scored in the eighth, when, with one out, Burwell draws a pass and reaches third on Hartmans double to center. Vetter takes James bouncer, bluffs a throw to third and tosses to Wurdemann for the second out. On the throw to first Burwell makes a break for the plate and scores when Wurdemann's throw goes over Kidwell's head. Hartman also attempts to score on the error but is out at the plate on a close play, Kidwell to Dreifus. The box score:

DEPOSITS INSURED
 BY
The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation
 WASHINGTON, D. C.
$5000 MAXIMUM INSURANCE FOR EACH DEPOSITOR $5000

The Peoples National Bank of Manassas has received from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation at Washington the official signs which will hang at all receiving windows as visible evidence that the depositors of this institution are insured.

The Peoples National Bank of Manassas is one of more than 14,000 licensed banks in the country which are receiving these signs. Insured banks are able to offer protection to their depositors up to $5,000. Statistical studies have shown that this maximum fully protects more than 97 per cent of all the depositors in insured banks.

"The purpose of the signs is to let depositors know which banks are insured. Heretofore, although 90 per cent of the licensed banks are insured, depositors have had no easy means of identifying them.

"If, by any unforeseen circumstance, an insured bank should suspend, the Insurance Corporation would begin paying off the depositors just as soon as a receiver was appointed for the closed institution. The depositors would receive their money in a few days instead of waiting months or years as was the case in the former method of liquidation. This is not only a benefit to the depositors, but it saves the community from a terrific economic and social blow. When the depositors receive their insured accounts they assign their claims to the Insurance Corporation. Thereafter liquidation proceeds on a business-like basis with the maximum chance of the Corporation and other creditors being paid in full."

THE TEST OF A PUDDING

The old proverb says, "The test of a pudding is in the eating." So the test of a flour is in the using. Does it make good bread, biscuits, pastry,—that's the test!

White Rose Flour satisfies all the tests. Its price, too, is based entirely on its quality.

WOODBRIDGE

We have been having plenty of rain, but for 3 days now it has been bright and sunny with the temperature just right to make you feel good and like working. It must have gotten under the skin of our local boys because most everyone is working that wants to work.

There is a good bit of building going on here. The new home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Davis is well under way. So is the dwelling being built for Mr. Southworth. There are also two bungalows being built by T. P. Davis.

Mr. Dudley Dawson, who is attending the University of Virginia, was home over the week-end.

WEEKLY LAUGHS FROM WOODBRIDGE

Goog Keeney has, for several weeks, been going in strong for higher education. Well it seems he went around last Friday for a night course. After the course was over, about 11:30, Goog comes out and finds his car on a strike and won't start for any amount of coaxing. So Goog takes Shank's mare and starts off to work and boy don't you think Shank's mare ain't hard on the dogs. Next morning Goog comes by the garage looking dog tired. Dog tired is right for he flopped on a box and propped up his feet before he tells of his hard luck. But boys Goog can take it. He is sticking to his education. Well one thing he likes his teacher.

IN RE: CLOSING OF OCCOQUAN STATION ON R.F. & P. RAILROAD:

Whereas notice from the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company has been received that said Railroad has filed a petition before the Corporation Commission and on the 29th day of October, 1934, at 10 o'clock, will request leave to abandon Occoquan as an Agency Station, and

Whereas, to close Occoquan as an Agency Station would necessitate the Occoquan vicinity to go to Quantico, a distance of 14 miles to have and enjoy the privileges and advantages of an Agency Station, and

Whereas, the vicinity of Occoquan is a thickly populated community and are shippers and receivers of large quantities of merchandise as well as passenger traffic;

Therefore be it

Resolved that in the opinion of this Board, for said Commission to grant the prayer of said petition would work a great hardship upon a prosperous community, and deprive them of the advantages of a public utility, be it further ordered that an attested copy of these preambles and resolutions be forwarded to said Commission.

IN RE: EMERGENCY RELIEF:

Be it ordered that the County Treasurer be and he is hereby directed to transfer and turn over the unexpended fund, in his hands, belonging to the Emergency Relief Administration less the outstanding warrants or checks to the bonded Disbursing Officer of said Administration.

AYES: J. L. Dawson, Chairman; D. E. Earhart, C. C. Lynn, J. W. Merchant, C. B. Roland, Rev. J. Murray Taylor.

IN RE: OVERSEER OF POOR FOR DUMFRIES DISTRICT:

Ordered that the Circuit Court be requested to appoint an Overseer of Poor for Dumfries District. This request is made by reason of no one now holding that position.

AYES: J. L. Dawson, Chairman; D. E. Earhart, C. C. Lynn, J. W. Merchant, C. B. Roland, Rev. J. Murray Taylor.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond remembrance of our dear wife and mother, who left us two years ago today, Oct. 9, 1932.

A Tribute to Mother.

Because I feel that, in the heavens above,

The angels, whispering to one another,

Can find, among their burning terms of love,

None so devotional as that of "mother."

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Mount and daughter, Barbara, Miss Grace McDonough, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sinclair and Charles, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Gossom of Washington were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gossom.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bell and family have moved into their bungalow, which has just been completed and makes an attractive addition to our neighborhood.

Mrs. Frank Rupp of Baltimore, Mrs. Ford Anderson, Mrs. James Maxheimer and Miss Ruth Shirley of Warrenton were "Oakshade" guests on Wednesday last.

The fall meeting of Group No. 5, W. M. U., which was held at Oakshade Church at Greenwich on Thursday last, with Miss Ruth Hulfish of Alexandria presiding, was well attended and most interesting.

The Rev. M. G. White, or "Red" White as he is called, for very obvious reasons, missionary located at Bahia, Brazil, was present and gave us a thrilling account of his work there.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith, Mr. and Mrs. James Utterback and family and Mr. and Mrs. Louie Thomas attended the funeral services on Sunday afternoon of Mrs. John McDonald, which were held at her home near Evergreen Mills, Loudoun County, with interment at Leesburg cemetery.

The October meeting of the 8th Va. Reg't Chapter U.D.C. was held at the hall at Hickory Grove on Friday last. Due to the inclemency of the weather rather a small crowd was present, which was just too bad, as the Rev. Mr. Carpenter of Haymarket gave us a splendid talk on "Virginia." "Her past, present and future." As Mr. Carpenter is a Canadian it was refreshing to get a brief resume of ourselves from other than a "native son" and as he did not delve any farther into our past than the days of the 60ths; it all ended happily and we were soon eating cakes and drink-hot cocoa to the cozy accompaniment of the rain on the roof, and discussing plans for a sale of Christmas articles to be held in connection with our next meeting, the first Thursday in November. Refreshments will also be sold.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gossom visited friends in Leesburg on Sunday afternoon and also attended the funeral services for Mrs. John McDonald.

Mrs. Herman Shirley and the Misses Anne and Evelyn Shirley of Cristobal, Panama, have arrived at New Smyrna, Fla., and are spending some time with Mr. C. E. Jordan who has taken a house there.

Mr. Tarleton Thomas of Woolsey, who has been quite ill, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Hulfish of Marlboro, Md., were recent callers in the neighborhood.
