Achievement Program Replete with Interest.

The annual 4-H Club Achievement program was held in the Manassas High School auditorium and gymnasium of the afternoon and evening of October 13.

The day's program began with the display of exhibits showing work of club members. The vegetable gardening and hobby exhibits were pronounced unusually good by the judges, Miss R. Belle Burke and Miss Veta Marie Draper.

The recreational hour, in which Miss Virginia Frazier and Miss Boudard directed musical games for the girls and Mr. Raymond Davis and Nelson Lynn organized and umpired game of baseball between boys of upper Prince William and those of lower Prince William; was enjoyed by all.

Reports given of the work in the various 4-H clubs showed interesting and outstanding achievements. Hayfield 4-H Club reported a very excellent program of community activities; Woodbine report told of excellent accomplishments in gardening and canning while Nokesville and Occoquan Clubs ranked high in accomplishments of individual members.

Reports by Dorothy Linton and Stanley Harpine told of the accomplishments in the Food for Health, Gardening, Dairying, Poultry and Pig projects. Special mention was made of Philip Reading, who has made outstanding accomplishments with his partnership dairy project.

Jack Amphlett and Charlotte Thompson gave interesting reports of activities in the State and District 4-H Club Short Courses.

Mrs. E. W. Thompson presented 4-H club members who have been recognized as having done outstanding work during the year.

Following the intermission during which picnic lunch was enjoyed, the group reassembled around an improvised camp fire. After a short period of community singing which was led by Wilda Bourne, Bill Hedrick took charge of the challenges which were enthusiastically entered into by the different groups. Manassas, Greenwich and Buckhall 4-H Clubs ranked high in points won on challenges.

An interesting motion picture of the Dairy Festival parade was shown by Harry and Frank Parrish.

The Kiwanis prize was divided between the first and second best vegetable gardeners; first place being won by Isaac and Nathan Posey, second by Evelyn and Violet Gallahan. Mrs. Robert Hutchison presented the prize.

Mrs. Paul Cooksey, representing the Woman's Class of Manassas, presented a prize of two dollars and one-half to Lucy and Joseph Johnson for the best fall garden.

The Homemaker's prize was presented to the two girls who have done most outstanding work in the Food for Health project. Dorothy Linton's work was pronounced best in the older girls group and Rennie Dean in the younger group. Each was presented with a prize of two dollars and fifty cents.

Minnie Murrell Squires of Greenwich 4-H Club was recognized as having done most outstanding work with her flock of turkeys. Minnie Murrell supports herself with her turkey project. She will be presented fifty chicks at the time designated by her.

The county banner was presented to Hayfield 4-H Club as the group having made most outstanding accomplishments during the year. For the first time in the five-year history of the club one of the members has dropped out of the club before completing her project; other than this Hayfield's record met the standard requirements. It scored highest among the clubs of the county.

The day's program closed with the impressive 4-H Club Candle Lighting Ceremony which was led by Wilda Bourne.

Mrs. E. W. Thompson was assisted by Mrs. Charles Linton in presenting prizes provided through the All-Star Chapter to the following boys and girls who displayed best products:

GOLDEN RULE BROUGHT HERE

Clarendon Presents Travel Token of Good Will.

The Capital District Golden Rule, a metallic symbol of Goodwill, was brought to the Manassas Kiwanis club Friday night (October 19) by the Arlington County club headed by President Frank H. Rowe. Accompanying the delegation were Lieut. Gov. Irving Diener, Alexandria, and Edwin F. Hill, Washington, international trustee and former governor of the Capital District. President O. D. Waters received the Golden Rule on behalf of the Manassas club.

The Golden Rule will visit all Kiwanis club in Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, and the District of Columbia as a means of encouraging interclub visits and fellowship between the organizations' membership. The idea of the Golden Rule was originated by Mr. Hill while district governor last year. Inscribed on the bottom of the rule for the benefit of all who accompany it from place to place are the words, "Travel with the Golden Rule as a guide and your circle of enduring friendships will be greatly enlarged." Spaces on the back of the rule indicate the clubs visited and the date it was received by each.

So far the Golden Rule has visited the Washington, D. C.; Baltimore, Towson, Westminster, Havre de Grace, Elkton, Annapolis and Prince George's County, Maryland, clubs; Wilmington, Seaford and Rehoboth Beach, Delaware, clubs; and Alexandria and Arlington County, Virginia, clubs. During the recent Capital District Convention held at Richmond, the Golden Rule was presented by President Rowe to Governor E. I. Carruthers for the duration of the three-days session during which time the rule was in evidence back of the presiding officer's chair. The Golden Rule is 3 inches in width by 36 inches in length.

President O. D. Waters and a delegation from the Manassas club are expected to take the Golden Rule to the Fredericksburg club at an early date.

The meeting last week was held at Linton Hall, Bristow, where the club and its visitors were entertained royally.

CLUB TO GIVE 4-H PRIZES

Homemakers Hear Interesting Stories on Ghosts.

On Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 17, the hospitable home of Mrs. P. A. Lewis was the scene of an interesting social gathering when members of Bethlehem Club met at the appointed time to carry on the aims and objects of the club, namely, good housekeeping, civic relief and social relationship. The meeting opened promptly at 2:30 o'clock. Reading of September minutes and roll call followed. A very worthwhile poem entitled "I know something good about you" was read by Mrs. M. E. Hart in response to her name on roll.

An annual prize of $2.50 for an achievement in the 4-H club was established by a majority vote. The director, Miss Pitts, will place this prize in a suitable department of the club.

Mrs. T. J. Broadus presented a program on Halloween. In a reading by Mrs. R. L. Byrd it is stated that October 31 is a day of superstition, witches and hobgoblins. The weird and strange customs of Halloween must have been handed down from pagan times and the exact origin is not known. Many of the mysterious customs known to us originally came from the countries of Great Britain.

Mrs. Washington spoke on Halloween according to the cyclopedia of Britannica. Mrs. R. L. Sadd gave a story telling about "Bob and the Jack o' Lantern." "The Price of Halloween" was read by Mrs. Broadus.

In November, the Thanksgiving program will be arranged by Mrs. Hebe Jackson and Mrs. Frank Gue, according to an appointment by the president; meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. T. J. Broadus on Grant avenue with Mrs. George McDonald assistant hostess.

Mrs. May Dogan and Mrs. C. C. Lynn, associate members, were present, also Mrs. E. D. Wisler, a former member. Other guests were Miss Sally Lewis, Mrs. A. A. Hooft, Mrs. Higgs Lewis and little Miss Bonnie Lynn.

The assembly, grouped before the radiating glow and warmth of an open log fire, was regaled by a delicious salad course with all accessories, daintily served by the hostesses, Mrs. P. A. Lewis and Mrs. Emily Round, assisted by Mrs. A. A. Hooft and Mrs. Higgs Lewis.

Other club members present were Mrs. Nannie Middleton, Miss Florence Kincheloe, Mrs. Maud Kincheloe, Mrs. Kyle Lynn, Mrs. W. M. Pierson and Mrs. W. M. Johnson.

DAIRY AND POULTRY SHOW

Brentsville Event Well Attended

The Brentsville District Poultry and Dairy Show was held at Nokesville last Friday with exhibits which were regarded by the State Experts as one of the best to be seen anywhere in Virginia.

After the official events the citizens of the community entertained friends and patrons who had made donations for the stage and playground equipment.

The Future Farmers and 4-H Club sponsored the event. Prof. C. O. Bittle was chairman of the entertainment committee, assisted by Mrs. M. J. Shepherd and Mrs. Joe Hale. It is said that about 90 gallons of Brunswick stew passed between the hosts and their enthusiastic guests. The judges were Professors Dean and Keithley of V. P. I.

Awards were made as follows: Best Holstein heifer, Clifford Bear; best Holstein bull, Ted Shepherd; Guernsey under 12 mo., Harry Fitzwaterfi over 12 mo., Philip Reading; second and third, Billie Hale; Barred Rocks, Robert Beahm; white leghorns, Cleveland Flory; Rhode Island Reds, John Bear; best pen pullets, Leo Garman; Brown Leghorn pullets, Roy Frederick; Rhode Island red pullets, Vance Sommers; Rhode Island red cockerel, Ted Shepherd; white leghorn pullets, Cleveland Flory; ducks, Leo Garman; turkeys, Eugene Allen; best cockerel of show, a white leghorn, Max Shepherd.

TEACHERS HEAR SYSTEM PRAISED

The New Curriculum Is Center of Discussion at Manassas.

The annual meeting of the public school teachers in District H was held Friday and Saturday, October 19 and 20, at Manassas, Prof. P. B. Smith, Warrenton, Va., presiding.

In opening the convention Mr. Smith dwelt on the high rating which the local school system in Prince William County had acquired in the State of Virginia and commented on such a condition having been brought about in such a large county.

In giving the address of welcome, Prof. R. C. Haydon of the Prince William County Division stated, "I bring to you this morning the greetings of the children, teachers, members of the school board and all of those directly having anything to do with educational work in Prince William. I also bring to you the greetings of the many members of the Community League, residents of Prince William and especially the Town of Manassas."

In response to the address of welcome, Mr. G. Tyler Miller, Supt. of Schools in Rappahannock County, referred to the history of Prince William since the War Between the States, stating that the accomplishments of the school system in that period were an inspiration and pride for the Southern people. Referring directly to the new curriculum, the speaker declared that he was proud of it and the wonderful prospects it offered in educating and preparing the children of Virginia.

During the day solos were given by Mrs. Robt. Logan and Rev. John DeChant.

Miss Lucy Mason Holt, president of the State Co-operative Educational Association, was an impromptu speaker on the program. She introduced a new thought into the meeting by stressing the importance of every teacher exercising her right of

E. H. HIBBS

(Editorial)

As we go to press the banks and business houses of Manassas are closing out of respect to the memory of E. H. Hibbs whose funeral is being conducted at this hour.

The Divine Power has called from our midst, in the prime of his earthly life, our beloved fellow townsman. We will miss his quiet, gentle influence in the affairs of this community. We will miss his cheerful, helpful presence.

We grieve with his heartbroken widow and the relatives who loved him so much. During years of association with him he has been our very dear friend and we bow our heads in sorrow.

May the comforting voice speak to the hearts of his loved ones those words of hope "As thy days thy strength shall be."

E. H. HIBBS LAID TO REST

Business of Town Stops as Services Are Held.

In the death of E. H. Hibbs this town has sustained an irreparable loss. Since the fall of 1897 he has been a resident of Manassas. He came here from Philomont, Loudoun County, where he was born in 1868, being the son of Wesley and Elizabeth Walker Hibbs. In 1901 he married Miss Madie W. Davies, niece of the late Judge Thornton.

Mr. Hibbs was a director in the Peoples National Bank and one of the best known merchants of northern Virginia. He was prominently connected with all civic enterprises and a devoted member of the Episcopal Church.

The funeral, conducted at the residence, Rev. W. F. Carpenter officiating, was attended by just about everybody in the town.

Musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Newman, Mrs. Dorrell, Mrs. Logan, Mrs. Marsteller and Mr. Ratcliffe. The pall bearers were Doctor E. H. Marsteller, Dr. V. V. Gillum, Hon. Harry P. Davis, Hon. C. A. Sinclair, Mr. A. A. Hooft and Mr. Kyle Lynn. Members of the baseball team carried the masses of floral tributes.

All the town police, Sheriff Kerlin and several others were needed to guide the traffic during the procession to the grave.

Amid the banks of roses, and just to the north of the old stone Confederate monument, was laid the remains of one of the most popular men who ever lived in Manassas. As a final and fitting tribute, a little Confederate flag was nested at his head.

And thus he passed from our midst.

POPULAR RESIDENT OF LOUDOUN KILLED AT RICHMOND

Those attending the funeral of Ratcliffe Merchant at Purcellville on Tuesday included Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Merchant, Mr. and Mrs. G. Walker Merchant, and Mrs. R. J. Adamson.

Young Mr. Merchant was one of the most popular young men in Loudoun County. The business houses of Purcellville were closed during the funeral. The floral tributes were said to be the most profuse and lovely of any funeral held there in recent years.

He was a freshman at Richmond Medical College. Two professors and forty students came all the way to attend the obsequies.

Young Merchant was killed in an auto accident on Saturday night in Richmond after returning from the V. M. I. game.

MONTHLY SUMMARY REPORT
Prince William Dairy Herd Improvement Association
September, 1934
W. Jennings Hunnicutt, Tester
Manassas, Va.

The report shows a total of 641 cows with 77 dry. 52 cows made over 40 lbs. of fat and 19 made over 50 lbs. of fat for the month.

The high cow was a G. Holstein owned by C. F. M. Lewis, producing 1650 lbs. of milk testing 3.7, making a total of 61 lbs. of fat.

The high herd was owned by Broadview Farm with a total of 22 cows and 2 dry. They produced a total of 17204 lbs. of milk and 721.2 lbs. of fat making a herd average of 32.8 lbs. of fat.

C. C. Lynn ran a close second with a herd average of 32.2 lbs. of fat at the Paradise Farm.

The high herd in milk production was owned by Francis M. Lewis with a herd of 27 G. Holsteins and Jerseys, 4 being dry. They produced a total of 2257.7 lbs. of milk making an average of 834 lbs. of milk for the month.

C. C. Lynn again ran a close second on the Ben Lomond Farm with a herd average of 826 lbs. of milk.

These high averages were made on very little grain but excellent pasture. This shows the value of good pasture to the dairyman.

CLIFTON BOYS ENLIST IN NAVY

WILLIAM AND JOHN R. KOONTZ

William E. and John R. Koontz, twin sons, of Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll Koontz entered the W. S. Navy on October 2, and are now stationed at Norfolk Training Station. Bill and John as they are called are known throughout this community as the quiet twins. They have inherited the love of the sea from their forefathers for generations back they have been navy people. They are closely related to Admiral Winfield Scott Schley famous in the Spanish American War. Their grandfather John William Koontz of a prominent Frederick, Md. family was in the navy in the Civil War and was active in G. A. R. circles until the time of his death in 1921. Their father John Carroll Koontz served in the navy in the Spanish-American War, and was offered a commission in the wardmaster but did not accept on account of his family and his work at the Naval Gun factory. An uncle Claude Berkeley Koontz Asst. Treas. of Capital Transit Co. in Washington, D. C. was asst. paymaster in the Navy and two other uncles saw services in the Navy before and during the World War. Bill and John attended Clifton High School. Bill was a member of '34 graduating class. It was very much against the wishes of their parents that they entered the Navy but knowing their desire to do so they did not stand in their way.

That section of Route 234, between Manassas and Dumfries, has included in the primary system of State Highways for a period of six years, and that section between Manassas and Routes 50 and 15 at Gilbert's Filling Station for about three years. However, for only two or three miles in either direction from Manassas can this road be said to be travelable at all seasons of the year.

Nor can it be said that the neglect of Route 234 has been because of its lack of importance. To summarize, it is the shortest and most direct routing for travel from Frederick, Md., and points north and west of that place, to reach Route 1, the Washington - Richmond Highway; it connects the county seats of Loudoun, Prince William and Stafford Counties; it is the only direct highway connection between the Marine Base at Quantico and Manassas, the county seat.

It would seem high time for the people of Prince William and Loudoun Counties to unite in demanding that construction work be begun on this route of the State Highway System which means more to our home people than all of the roads in northern combined.

Let us look to the Highway Commission and hope for the best.

WELL-DONE AT TWILIGHT

John M. Purcell represented about as good a compromise of politics and civil service as a democracy can hope to have. He was for a number of years active in the political affairs of the city, in steadfast support of the state "machine," but he never permitted his sympathies in politics to interfere with his duties cherished the highest Virginia tradition of public obligation. His office was a model in simplicity and in vigilance for the interest of the state.

CONFIDENCE

Your bank is a friend worth having at all times. The Government and the Individual look to the financial institutions of the country for economic stability.

You should insure your own financial stability by cultivating the habit of saving and depositing regularly and by paying your accounts by check.

The Peoples National Bank

was assuaged in an unusual way. About a month ago, it became generally feared that he would never return to his desk. The governor took advantage of an official audit of the treasurer's office to pay tribute to Mr. Purcell. One newspaper after another, learning of his physical condition, wrote editorials commending him. Those who have the idea that the press is callous in its dealings with human misery might get a different opinion were they to read all those editorials. Many of our contemporaries shared our feeling that Mr. Purcell's end was near, yet they phrased their comments in cheering terms, expressed their hopes for his recovery and, in a word, made him realize in the last days of his life that he had not labored in vain for the commonwealth.—News Leader.

RECEIVES COMMENTATION FOR RECIPE

Susan Rogers Hayford, Haymarket, Virginia has just been awarded a Certificate of Recipe Endorsement by Better Homes & Gardens for her recipe, "Old Fashioned Southern Raisin Bread."

Miss Hayford's endorsed recipe follows:

OLD FASHIONED SOUTHERN RAISIN BREAD

This recipe has been in my family for several generations, and was always made for Christmas and Easter, and served at the evening meal before the celebrated day. However, it is so delicious that we do not now confine ourselves to making it during the holidays, but have it throughout the year.

1 quart of scalding milk
 1 pound of shortening (butter and lard mixed)
 1 pound of sugar (2 cupfuls)
 1 tablespoonful of salt (less if butter is salty.)
 1/2 teaspoonful of nutmeg
 4 beaten eggs
 2 yeast cakes
 About 15 to 16 cupfuls of flour
 2 pounds of raisins

Combine the scalding milk, shortening, sugar, salt and nutmeg in a large bowl and let stand until the shortening is melted and the mixture is lukewarm. Add the beaten eggs and crumbled yeast and enough flour to make a smooth soft dough which will stir with a spoon. The mixture may be mixed in the evening and allowed to rise until morning, but if compressed yeast is used, it may be made in less time. When the bread is very light, turn out on a floured surface, divide into 4 equal parts and roll each part as in making cinnamon rolls. Press raisins into the dough until the surface is entirely covered, then roll in jelly-roll fashion and place one roll in each greased loaf bread pan. Set to rise when light or about double in bulk bake in a moderate oven (350 to 375 degrees) for about 45 to 50 minutes. This makes 4 large loaves, and 1/2 the amount is sufficient for a small family. The bread is also delicious toasted.

AQUIA SCENE OF 5TH FIELD MASS

Catholic Shrine Celebration October 28.

Aquia, first shrine of Virginia's early Catholic history and burial place of courageous English Catholic settlers of the seventeenth century, will be the scene of the fifth annual field-mass on the Feast of "Christ the King," Sunday, October 28, at 11 o'clock, at the elegant Memorial Altar dedicated last year in old Brent cemetery, just east of the great bronze Crucifix on the Jefferson Davis Highway.

This mass, permission for which has been granted by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Kaup, administrator of the Diocese, will be celebrated by the Rev. Edward L. Stephens, diocesan director of the Pontifical Society for the Propagation of the Faith, and will be offered for the success of the missions in Virginia. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Father Benno, a Benedictine Monk, who is chaplain of Rock Castle, Va.

Music will be furnished by the Girls' Choir of Saint Peter's Church in Richmond, under the direction of Mrs. Martin-Anderson. Cadets from Benedictine High School will serve as ushers, and Miss Mary Gill will have charge of arranging and decorating the altar.

Visitors from Maryland, Washington, and distant sections of Virginia have traveled to Aquia each year to participate in this solemn event, and last year over fifteen hundred people of various denominations attended the dedication there of the new Memorial altar erected in the old cemetery by the priests of the Diocese of Richmond in memory of the late Father Walter J. Nott, who contributed much labor towards developing this shrine to preserve the memory of Giles Brent, Margaret Brent and the other Catholics who came from Maryland in 1647 and established at Aquia a lone outpost of white civilization against the savage and the wilderness.

Six years ago this old cemetery was but a part of Virginia's wilderness. The late Archbishop Denis J. O'Connell purchased the land for the Diocese of Richmond expressing the wish that the place be developed into a shrine of early Catholic History and that a field mass be celebrated there each year.

"MAN'S GAME" WITH McCOY IS THRILLER OF FIRE - FIGHTERS

Columbia Studios has provided Colonel Tim McCoy with a thrilling story in "A Man's Game," which opens at the Dixie Theatre next Friday, Nov. 2.

Ever portrayed as a man of action in the thick of adventure, McCoy crashes through with honors in this vehicle, wherein he immortalizes the fire-fighters of the world on the screen.

A rich young idler in search of thrills, Tim encounters Dave Jordan, son of a fire chief, who convinces him that the life of a fireman is replete with danger and heroic situations. They join the department, working as an efficient and fearless team at fires.

The love interest enters with the rescue of Judy Manners from a burning office building. Tim and Dave are both smitten, and pursue their respective suits.

Thrilling battles involving Tim, Dave and conspirators, breathtaking rescues and a variety of other suspense-producing situations speed the picture to a satisfying conclusion.

The entire cast has combined to offer their best, with outstanding performances by Evalyn Knapp as Judy; Ward Bond as Dave; DeWitt Jennings, Alden Chase, Arthur Rankin and Frank O'Connor.

"WILL ROGERS UPROARIOUS IN 'HANDY ANDY'"

Will Rogers is uproarious in "Handy Andy," which opens at the Dixie Theatre in Manassas next Monday, according to reports from the Coast previews. In the picture his wife, Peggy Wood, wants him to play—and he does! And thereby hang most of the hilarious situations that go to make this his funniest picture.

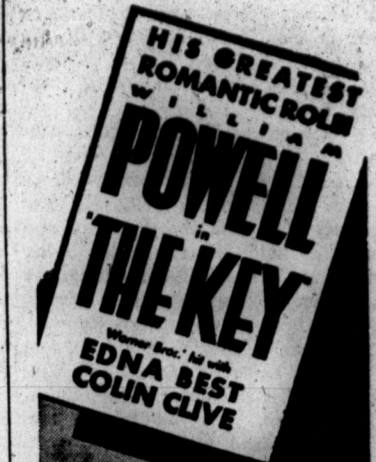

Things run smoothly as long as Rogers is in his drug store. But when he sells out and starts to play, he finds life complicated. First he raises pigeons, until they escape into the house. Then he tries golf, with screamingly funny results.

But the climax comes when he goes with his wife to New Orleans to attend the Mardi Gras. He refuses to attend the ball with her. Later, however, wandering around alone, he encounters a fellow druggist and his lovely girl friend, Conchita Montenegro.

Mellowed by a few cocktails, Will decides to attend the ball after all, and he chooses a leopard skin as his costume. A few more cocktails lend him the courage to try an adagio dance with the lithe Conchita. Then the fun begins. His rough and tumble dance starts a fight that ends in

Mrs. J. W. Alvey and Mrs. L. L. Lynn visited the Capital city last week in the interest of some new fall wear such as hats, dresses etc. a la la the newest fashion plates.

Mrs. L. J. Pattie and daughter Herriet were Washington visitors last week calling at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Briggs. The Briggs are another Washington acquisition from the city of Catharpin.

Misses Rose and Bettie Tribble of Tecumseh were week-end guests of Bettie and Frances Brower last week.

Mr. S. B. Sanders of Atlanta and Washington was visiting among friends and relatives in the Catharpin neighborhood last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes Robertson were Washington shoppers one day last week.

We heard a little conversation between two colored boys the other day that amused our "funny bone" a whole lot. They were commenting on the fact that so many went to Washington to get hats and dresses. The remark was something like this — "It do beat all how so many of dese folkses go to Washington to git dare hats and dresses when dare is two five and ten cent stores in Manassas; I guess day don't want people to know where day gits 'em at." Well that was a good one. "Murder will out."

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Brower returned home last week after several weeks' visit to their son Frank over at Price, Md.

Misses Frances and Anne Robertson of Lawn Vale spent a very pleasant week-end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. McCarty, of Delaplane, Va., recently.

The fall seeding season for wheat is about a thing of the past insofar as the Catharpin neighborhood is concerned; and all "signors" are adhering closely to the Wheat Reduction Program as agreed upon last year.

A number of our people were much disappointed last week upon the receipt of a letter from Richmond advising that no more cattle were to be shipped to Virginia anent the western drought situation. This is a disappointment, indeed, since many had been waiting the fulfillment of their contracted agreement.

"Stir up the gift that is within you."

The Journal always carries at its masthead a quotation from the Bible which is always helpful to the one who reads it; but the above text was selected and very able presented last Sunday morning at Sudley by the pastor and brought very vividly to the minds of all that there was something within every one that needed stirring up. So we are just wondering if you, kind reader, can locate anything within your anatomical structure that might need a little stirring up? We find a plenty of it in ours that not only needs it just now but has been needing it for a long time. Of course, the pastor had in mind a stirring up of Christian activity. Now can you suppose for a moment that there is any one in Prince William County in need of a "little" stirring up about his religious duties? Well, all we know about it is what we see and hear around this neighborhood, and if Prince William County is of like tenor, there would be great need of a "stirring up," not only a "little" stirring up but a real, true, genuine earthquake shock of first magnitude to shake us out of that old, lethargic disposition so inherent in us all that leads to the belief that we are immune, not only to any and all scriptural warnings and injunctions, but to the Ten Commandments as well. We have gone on so long that we have become calloused, case-hardened, flint-locked and brazen in our attitude toward everything religious or moral. Do you think there is anything there in need of a "stirring up?" Let echo answer. Everyone has a gift—a God-given gift. To quote—"If God gave man the gift of intellect, the gift of thought, the gift of action, how does God expect man to use them?" Again let echo answer. Yes! stir up those gifts that are within you. It is God-fearing, decent, respectable, useful, industrious. Again think of the text — "Stir up the gift that is within you" and make the world, the church, the neighborhood, the school and society the better for your having lived in it.

Attendance banner was presented to Ballston Council No. 21, it having the largest membership present. Banner for gain in membership was presented to Molly Pitcher Council No. 43 for showing the largest gain in membership for past quarter.

Business included a victory membership campaign drive contest which was adopted by the district council. CENTREVILLE ASSOCIATION MEETS Centreville District Sunday School Association held its fall meeting at the Centreville M. E. Church South on Sunday afternoon. Mr. C. H. Wine acted in the absence of the district president and Miss Ruth Pyles, secretary of the association, kept the minutes.

franchise—stating, "that you may serve and you must do your part." She declared that the people of Virginia were still fighting as they fought seventy-five years ago, although the fight was along very different lines. Her address was one which also endorsed married women as teachers in the school system. The speaker closed by saying "Please come to Richmond this fall and express yourself on any changes of the Constitution and ask any questions, but express yourself and speak your opinions."

The speaker of the day was Fred Alexander, principal of the Newport News High School, who talked on "The Revised Curriculum—Its Underlying Philosophy."

One of the main ideas brought out in his talk was that teaching is an art and not a science, and that developing the personality to organize is the life of a school system.

The speaker also further stressed the importance of the unity of effort and the complete integration which enables the teachers and the pupils to decide upon the unit, wherein the pupil sets up his own objective under the guidance of his instructor and whereby the brain is encouraged to develop and continue to enlarge its horizon.

On Saturday most of the teachers returned for the half-day session.

Miss Ellen Bisson of the Manassas High School charmed the audience with one of her delightful interpretive dances.

Mayor E. C. Davison of Alexandria, Va., spoke on "What the Public Thinks of our Schools." The talk was very comprehensive and dwelt upon the changing objectives and methods of school management. The speaker showed very forcefully that the pupil must enter life in a courageous manner after leaving school. He gave a plea for the continuance of the high standing of public education and illustrated how crime could be dealt with in a forceful manner through competent instruction.

Gordon E. Smith, principal of the Lee-Jackson High School, spoke on the Achievements of Our Local and State Educational Associations. Prof. Smith dwelt on the importance of the Virginia Association and its capacity to develop educational leadership and to arouse new educational ideas through unified service. The speaker brought out one case in his own county where the demands for the reduction in taxation endangered the safety of the school system in that county and which disaster was averted partially through the unified protest of the teachers and their friends.

After resolutions of the State Association were read and adopted the place of the next meeting was chosen at the Leesburg High School on October 18 and 19, 1935.
