CLUB WORKS FOR COUNTY ROAD

Hopeful of Having Same Included in Federal System.

The Kiwanis Club at its regular meeting on Friday evening decided to have as many of its members as possible to go to Fredericksburg next Tuesday to carry the Golden Rule to the club in that city.

Raymond Ratcliffe read a very interesting paper in which the membership of the club since its organization was outlined and discussed. It is hoped that several of those who have dropped out can be urged to return.

Wm. F. Cocke, chairman of the roads committee, reported on the successful series of meetings which had been held regarding the improvement of the cross-county road. According to the tenor of this report it appears that there is an excellent chance of having this road included in the Federal system within the State which would call for decided improvement within the next few years.

This committee went to Richmond this week and reports a satisfactory interview with Hon. Harry Shirley, Highway Engineer.

COUNTY CORN AND GRAIN SHOW TO BE HELD DEC. 15

The County Corn and Grain Show will be held at Manassas on December 15.

At a meeting in the near future, detailed plans will be made for the show.

Tentative plans call for classes for white and yellow field corn, ensilage corn, a utility corn class in which germination and disease tests will be made, a shelling class, clover seed, Korean lespedeza hay and orchard grass seed.

Among the premiums to be offered will be State certified seed corn, soil reaction testing kits, approved seed treating materials, and inoculating cultures.

Prof. T. B. Hutchison, who has accepted an invitation to judge the exhibits at the show, will speak on the subject of crop improvement. James Godkin will discuss means of controlling corn and small grain diseases.

U. D. C. PLAY

The U. D. C. benefit play which was held at the high school on Thursday and Friday evenings of last week was a success from every angle. The director adapted herself to the personnel of the cast and trained them quickly and efficiently, with the result that everything passed off very smoothly and very prettily both evenings.

Getting up an amateur play is always a difficult matter, but it seems that in Manassas such things are done with great facility.

It would be difficult to enumerate the stars in the play as everyone carried out their parts mightily nicely. Those who had the brunt of the work to do, however, were undoubtedly Miss Helen Lloyd and the Messrs. Sedrick Saunders and John Henry Burke. The dance numbers were extremely beautiful. As a director of the Hill Billies, Dr. Newman also had a difficult part and his interpretation of "Melodrama" assisted by the pathetic solo of Jenkins Davies, plus the unfortunate actors involved, received a great hand. The solo numbers of Miss Compton, who was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. W. L. Compton, were professional in their execution.

The dancing and singing of the kiddies had its part too while the patriotic ensemble was colorful and inspiring.

The musical numbers throughout the whole show were rendered to perfection and the rhythm of the dances was equally precise and enjoyable.

ARMISTICE DAY SPEAKER

The Manassas Woman's Club will have as Armistice Day speaker at their November meeting next Wednesday afternoon, the 14th, Dr. Elmer Louis Kayser of George Washington University.

Invitations have been extended to the senior classes of the county high schools and the public is also invited to hear this address on "International Relations" by one of Washington's most popular speakers.

The hour scheduled for Dr. Kayser's address will be from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m.

ROLL CALL PLANS COMPLETE

Plans for the annual Roll Call of the Prince William County Chapter, American Red Cross, have been completed according to announcement of Mrs. J. A. Delaney, roll call chairman. Workers have been appointed in every community, and a great deal of interest and enthusiasm has been shown by interested persons, a number having already sent in their subscription. The goal set by National Headquarters for the county chapter is 500 members but it is the hope of Mrs. Delaney that the results will far exceed this amount, as funds are very much needed by the chapter to carry on its program and to give its usual financial support to the nursing service.

A special effort is being made to enroll $5.00 members, $4.50 of each such membership staying in the county chapter treasury for local use. All donations, above the $1.00 membership fee, are also kept by chapter.

Your support is most earnestly solicited. Memberships may be given to your local solicitor or mailed to Mrs. J. A. Delaney, Manassas, Va.

Make your Thanksgiving offering a membership in the local Red Cross Chapter.

JOHN HARPINE TO HEAD GROUP

Brentsville District Community Association Had Successful Year.

The November meeting brought the work of the Brentsville District Community Association for 1934 to a close. Under the leadership of Mr. Mahlon Seese, the association has had a very successful year. Seven committees—agricultural, home making, civic, educational, social, religious and publicity—have carried out to completion the program of work set up for Brentsville District early in the year.

The following officers for 1935 were elected Tuesday evening: John Harpine, president; M. J. Shepherd, vice-president, and A. Armstrong, secretary.

Members of the seven committees for the coming year were also elected from the district at large. An intensive district improvement program for 1935 will be planned by the officers and these committees before the end of the year.

MANASSAS U. D. C. CHAPTER MEETING

The Manassas Chapter, U. D. C., met November 7 with Mrs. Robert Gulick. Miss Clara Lamb and Mrs. Gustavus Hutchison were assistant hostesses.

It was a delightful meeting with a large attendance. Mrs. Sanford Misses Gulick of Lenah. Mr. L. W. from the 8th Virginia Chapter were present, also a number of guests and a member of the Manassas Chapter from Washington, Mrs. L. W. Kasehagen.

Among the guests present were Mrs. James I. Coffey, Mrs. L. M. Truman, Mrs. M. A. Johnson, and the Misses Gulick of Lenah. Mr. L. W. Kasehagen and Mr. L. L. Lomas were the gentlemen present.

Mrs. L. Lomas, our new president, presiding, the salute to the Confederate flag was given and Dixie sung. Mrs. Herbert Nash was given a hearty vote of thanks for her work in putting on "The World's All Right," and the chapter is grateful to the assistance from the schools and community. Mrs. Maude Kincheloe reported $30.50 made from the rummage sale.

The chapter is to hold a silver tea in the near future. The chapter stood in silent tribute to the memory of a valued member, Mrs. Westwood Hutchison.

Delegates elected to the general convention in New York were Mrs. L. L. Lomas, Mrs. L. W. Kasehagen, Mrs. Robert Gulick, Mrs. Herbert Nash. Alternates, Miss Virginia Speiden, Mrs. T. J. Ashford, Mrs. R. A. Hutchison and Mrs. Lucy Washington.

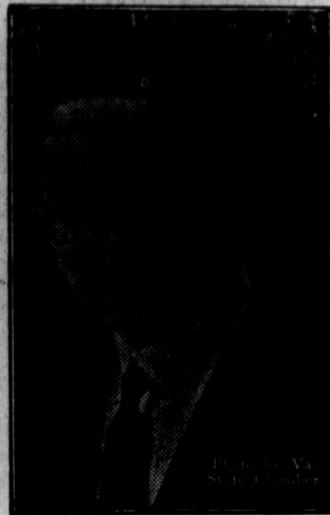

Mrs. R. A. Hutchison was introduced as chairman of the 4th District and gave her report of the State convention held in Petersburg, Va., a city famous for its history and historical places. Mrs. Robert Gulick read a splendid article on what the United Daughters of the Confederacy stood for.

After the social time thanks were expressed to our hostesses for their lovely hospitality and entertainment.

"DOC" DREIFUS HONORED BY LOCAL FANS

The members of the Manassas Athletic Club, together with a goodly number of local fans, gathered around the festive board Wednesday evening to honor "Doc" Dreifus, whose efforts on the mound were largely responsible for the success of the local club during the past season. More than sixty attended the dinner which was served by the Eastern Star in the rooms of the latter organization. Among those present were Mayor Davis, Town Manager W. F. Cocke and Superintendent of Schools, Richard Haydon. Mr. Fred Hynson, president of the club, acted as toastmaster.

Mayor Davis, in reviewing the events of the past season, pointed out that baseball, when played in a clean and fair manner, was an asset to any community. And he was of the opinion that the local club, by consistently playing that type of baseball, had established an enviable reputation. In conclusion he expressed the wish that the club strive in the future to keep that good name.

"Doc" Dreifus was presented with an appropriately inscribed silver pitcher, a gift of the fans, in appreciation for his services to the local team. Silver baseballs were awarded to members of the team, including Reeves, N. Bradshaw, Lynn, Wurde-mann, Dreifus, W. Kite, Saunders, T. Kite, Kidwell, Woodard, M. Bradshaw and Vetter. The presentation of the cup and of the baseballs were made by Mayor Davis.

Mayor Davis, Mr. Cocke and Mr. Haydon each briefly discussed the efforts being made to provide a new diamond for the team adjacent to the high school. The club was assured that both the School Board and the Town Council were favorably inclined towards the proposition. They expressed the belief that the co-operation of all parties concerned would insure the success of the project.

Coach Reeves expressed his appreciation for the co-operation he had received from the members of the team during the past season. The viewpoint of the fans was ably expressed by Mr. Davies while Mr. Buchanan, the secretary of the Northern Virginia League, briefly told of the plans for the coming year. Jack Tulloch, a member of the staff of the Alexandria Gazette, gave a very interesting talk on athletics in general and baseball in particular. He was warm in his praise for the local fans for the hearty support given the team. Among those who spoke briefly during the course of the evening were "Doc" Cocke, Lynn, Bradshaw, Woodard, Douglas Merchant, Kite and Vetter. Mr. Hynson read an interesting story concerning three former big league stars, Ray Chapman, Tris Speaker and Wilbert Robinson. In closing Mr. Hynson stated that a meeting would be called in the near future for the election of officers and to perfect plans for the ensuing year.

A. A. DRIVE

The Athletic Association of Manassas High School Tuesday closed a very successful membership drive. The school was divided into two teams, The Blues and Golds. The drive resulted in a tie with 81 memberships for each team. This is the highest membership number reached in recent years. The money will be used from time to time thruout the year for the various teams of the high school.

The ladies of the M. E. Church will hold an oyster supper in the Creamery building at Gainesville on Friday, the 16th, beginning at 4 p.m.

Democrats swept away the last substantial barrier to absolute control on Tuesday when the election gave them a gain of 9 seats in the Senate and 5 in the House, placing the majority party in a position to control three fourths of the House vote. Latest returns give the Democrats 309, Republicans 98, Farm Labor 3 and Progressives 7.

Pennsylvania, traditional fortress of Republicanism, went Democratic. Even the Republican victory in California, is not regarded as a party triumph, because Democrats joined in administering a smashing defeat to Sinclair and his Communist program.

Latest returns from Maryland are unfavorable for Governor Ritchie, however, although the vote there is so close that the result is still in doubt and a recount may result.

In Virginia the Democratic ticket carried by the traditional majorities, despite the very light vote, which had been thought to be advantageous to the opposition. Senator Harry Floyd Byrd and Congressman Howard W. Smith received the unequalled endorsement of Virginia Democrats.

With the Republican strength at its lowest since the War between the States, it is widely predicted that there will be a division in Congress this winter more on economic than political lines, the various recovery measures having aroused widely differing points of view. In the meantime Republicanism faces a very gloomy prospect for the next national campaign.

DELIGHTFUL PARTY FOR RECENT BRIDES

Mrs. Vivian V. Gillum and Mrs. Robert F. Logan were joint hostesses at bridge on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gillum, honoring two recent brides, Mrs. Benjamin Higgs Lewis and Mrs. James Edward Bradford, Jr.

A variety of autumn flowers and leaves were used to decorate the lower floor, where five tables of contract were in play. Miss Madeleine McCoy, holder of high score, was awarded a bottle of Coty's perfume. The hostesses presented Mrs. Lewis with an attractive vase in yellow and amber, and to Mrs. Bradford, a brass barnacle lamp. At the conclusion of the game, a salad course was served.

Those playing were Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Bradford, Misses Veta Marie Draper, Loriece Carter, Virginia Frazier, Lucy Arrington, Madeleine McCoy, Eleanor Douthat, Frances Bushong, Virginia Conner, Janet Trusler, Evelyn Cocke; Mesdames Robert Smith, J. P. Lyon, Richard Haydon, F. R. Hynson, J. E. Bradford, Margaret Lewis, Grace Hite and Conway Seely.

Miss Anne Bradford, Mrs. Percival Lewis, Mrs. Fred Dowell, Miss Virginia N. Speiden, Miss Gladys Ball and Mrs. Stuart Gibson came in later for refreshments.

NEWS BULLETIN

Early this afternoon the Board of Supervisors passed a resolution permitting the County School Board to borrow $25,000 for the immediate construction of a modern high school near the town of Haymarket.

This resolution was not passed until it was demonstrated that 185 qualified voters had signed the petition on requesting the passage of the resolution. This was apparently a majority of the qualified voters in the entire district.

The total list contained 282 signatures while a petition carrying 130 signatures was presented requesting a bond issue.

MR. J. J. DAVIES MUCH BETTER

Friends of Mr. J. J. Davies of Culpeper will be glad to learn that he is on the road to recovery.

SCHOOL BOARD FIXES AGE RULE

Will Not Allow Entrance Under Six Years.

The County School Board met yesterday with all members present and transacted quite a bit of important business.

The committee which was appointed to confer with the Manassas Athletic Club, reported favorably on the co-operative plan for the use of a portion of the high school lot at the edge of the Corporation. Under this plan the athletic group would erect a stand and construct an up-to-date ball park for the use of the same on Sundays during the spring and summer, the school reserving the use of it at their own convenience on week-days. The Board took no final action on this matter, although tentatively approving the same.

Resolutions of sympathy were forwarded to the family of Georgia Berry, a teacher at Manley's for twenty-nine years.

A study of the children now enrolled in the first grade throughout the county shows that pupils entering the first grade who are under six years of age are not making the same progress as others who were six years of age when the school term opened. The Board passed a resolution as follows: Beginning with the school term of 1935 and 1936, no children will be allowed to enter the first grade who had not passed their sixth birthday prior to September 1, 1935.

J. L. Mauck was appointed janitor at Manassas vice Harry Runaldue resigned. O. R. Hersch was appointed an instructor at Greenwich vice Alvin Kline, resigned.

School Leagues offering to pay to the extent of at least 50 per cent of the cost in each case, the following improvements were authorized by the Board: Woodbine, guttering in front; Greenwich, chairs for auditorium; Woodlawn, window sashes, and Haymarket, duplicating machine.

SPECIAL PROGRAM AT HIGH SCHOOL

A combined Armistice Day and Education program will be held at Manassas High School on Friday afternoon, November 9, from 2:30 to 3:30. The program will be presented jointly by the High School and the Manassas Patrons Leagues. The speakers will be Commodore Longfellow, national chairman of the Red Cross Life Saving Committee; Rev. W. M. Compton, and Captain H. W. Jamison, commander of the local post of the American Legion.

The school patrons and the public are cordially invited to attend.

Commodore Longfellow will also be a guest speaker at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club tomorrow evening.

CATHARPIN

Well, as we go to press this Tuesday morning Catharpin is in the "Throws" of an election. The Catharpin News Press Forum, after an interview with all its reporters, correspondents and pressmen, has about come to the conclusion that this precinct will go Democratic. For further details see next week's issue of this paper.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Roland of Haymarket paid Oakwood a friendly call on Saturday evening last.

The Catharpin neighborhood extends its sympathy to Mr. A. M. Smith on account of the loss sustained by the burning of his barn outbuildings, etc., which occurred last week on his farm near Gainesville, Va. From reports all feedstuffs, grains and hay stored therein were a total loss. Mr. Smith is well known to our people as a livestock dealer and are sorry for his misfortune.

Mr. John Griffith of Luray, Va., was visiting his son, Luther P. Griffith, and other friends in this neighborhood last week.

A la Will Rogers, we saw in the papers last week that President Roosevelt was mightily pleased with Henry Ford's statement that he, Henry, was through with hard times. Well, we hasten to advise that Franklin is not the only one pleased with Henry's attitude, but that Catharpin is just about as tickled over anything that sounds like prosperity as any one on this terrestrial ball can possibly be. Like the old flag, we say let her wave, Henry, and make your million cars cheap enough so we can junk our old model "T's" and buy a new one.

Mrs. C. C. Lynn and mother, Mrs. E. May Dogan, and daughters, Nancy and Bonnie, of Ben Lomond, were Sunday afternoon callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Alvey of Catharpin.

A society note of interest to this community appearing in the Sunday papers was the announced marriage of Miss Sara Virginia Buckley to Mr. John Warwick Daniel 3d, all of the capital city. Miss Buckley is well remembered by many in the Catharpin neighborhood as a resident of Bushy Park some time ago.

Strange as it may seem both the wheat fields and the fodder shocks began to complain anent to threatened dry weather of last week-end, but both were happily relieved when Old Mother Nature took pity on them and sent copious showers on Sunday morning which relieved the situation very much. Now they are happy.

The first quarterly meeting of the Sudley charge was held at the parsonage, Gainesville, on Saturday last, which was attended by most of the officials who are members of that body. The usual business transacted and the pastor reporting as looking good for the new year. Protracted meeting at Gainesville was well attended during the past week. Salary and other financial matters were adopted as per last year's schedule except the benevolences which were reduced to about one-third of former assessments. Sudley is now all set to go and there is no reason why the new year should not be a prosperous one for all concerned.

Well, Catharpin seems right up and going. No sooner had Henry Ford announced that prosperity was here than we all began to fail to recognize our neighbors as they passed by. For a long time we were enabled to know who was who by the shape, size, color and previous condition of servitude of the cars they drove; not only that but another element—sound, was a vital factor in determining ownership, for each make had a characteristic rattle all its own and a ting-a-ling that no one could forget; but now that's all changed; all these have passed away—some to the junk pile, some by trade-in, and some sold; now their successors, both new and second-hand, are so quiet, bright and shiny that one has to wear dark glasses to keep the luster from blinding him. Well, that's mighty fine. Just as one feels best when he is dressed up, so he seems to feel best when he can slip by without exciting the neighborhood by the commotion he makes. Certainly prosperity must be here.

Mrs. Etta P. Lynn was a Washington visitor last week for a few days to say adieu to her daughter, Mrs. Gussie Lynn Webb, who left that city for Chicago, Ill., on Saturday for an indefinite stay. Mrs. Webb is in government employ and the department to which she belongs was moved to the great city on Lake Michigan together with all its employees who wished to go. One never knows sometimes, just where their interests may lie. It was only a short time ago that the Misses Mildred and Irene Smith were comfortably situated with the Southern Ry. in Washington when their offices were moved to Atlanta, Ga., naturally taking their employees with them. Catharpin is a small community, yet it would be quite interesting to know just where all her sons and daughters are now scattered upon this broad land of ours.

We note that it is becoming quite the fashion now-a-days to celebrate centennials of various kinds, particularly of old churches. Maryland, of late, has been very prolific in this respect and now Virginia is catching the fever and is resurrecting some of her old landmarks whose history and importance to the Christian world have long since been forgotten. We are wondering if any of you ever thought that Old Sudley might be a fit subject for just an observance? Many of the churches now celebrating can only boast of a hundred years of service while Old Sudley, if she does not soon observe something, will soon be ready for a "Sesqui-Centennial," since she is so far past the century mark that her next observation point is the "Sesqui." As near as we can ascertain, Sudley is about one hundred thirty-one years old. It is now up to the present generation to make her worthy of her history.

CHARLIE CHAN MYSTERY
FILM Baffles Fans

There's a new twist in "Charlie Chan's Courage," which opens at the Dixie Theatre in Manassas next Monday, that makes it different from any other Charlie Chan picture. As soon as you get into the story, you know that there is skulduggery afoot. Finally, aided by the enigmatic Chan, you see the bloodstains where the supposed murder was committed. But where is the body of the slain man? Any dyed-in-the-wool mystery fan knows that Charlie will find the solution of what appears to be a baffling mystery, but is it an intricate maze of plot and counterplot that leads up to the startling climax. Even if you've seen all the Chan pictures, you won't solve this one.

Warner Oland is even better than usual as the wily Chan. In order to track down his man, he has to wear a disguise for the first time in his career in criminology.

In this picture he has the assignment of delivering a $300,000 necklace of pearls to a man who lives in a magnificent home far out in the desert. Chan's aid is Donald Woods, the engaging son of the jeweler who sold the pearls. Woods is suspicious of the supposed purchaser. Then Chan arrives disguised as a ragged Chinese cook to investigate before delivering the pearls. Further to complicate matters, the lovely Drue Leyton arrives as the representative of a motion picture company scouting a location. Despite the danger, Woods and Miss Leyton become involved in a romance, fraught with exciting adventure.

In a whirlwind surprise finish, which we won't divulge here, Chan solves the mystery. One of the novel touches in the story is a Chinese parrot, whose screams of "Help! Murder!" give Chan an important clue that helps him along toward his solution.

COUNTY AGENTS' COLUMN

Select and Dry Seed Corn Now.
The yield of corn in Prince William County in 1935 will depend largely on the care taken in selecting and storing seed corn during the next few days.

If we are to have a good yield of corn, we must plant good seed corn. We can not get the best seed corn unless we carefully select it before it freezes and store it where it will dry out properly before freezing weather sets in. Frozen seed corn means poor seed, a poor stand and low production.

Careful Selection Is First Step.
The seven cardinal points for seed corn selection are:

1. The ear must be heavy.
2. It must be solid and not twisty.
3. It must have a good luster and proper color for the variety.
4. The butt tissues must be bright and show a good clean break from
5. The germ faces must be bright and the kernels free from mold.
6. The kernels must be well matured and show a large percentage of the shank.

of hard starch without immature soft tips.

7. The cob must be well colored, bright and without dull, dark, discolored areas on it.

Drying and Storing Seed Corn.

One of the best ways to store seed corn is to tie it up with binding twine so that no two ears will touch each other and hang it from the ceiling of a room where the windays can be opened for air circulation and which can be heated if there is danger of it freezing before it thoroughly dries. When harvested, corn usually contains from 30 to 45 per cent of moisture and needs a liberal circulation of air for proper drying. It will take very little space to hang up plenty of seed corn for next year's crop.

MARINE CORPS 159 YEARS OLD BORN DURING THE REVOLUTION

"Leathernecks" they are known as because of the stiff leather collars worn by them several decades ago; "Sea Soldiers" they are called due to their soldier duties while serving at sea; "Devil Dogs" the Germans dubbed them during the World War as they had little or no regard for danger; but, when the First Continental Congress, meeting in Philadelphia, Pa., passed an Act on November 10, 1775, nearly eight months before the Declaration of Independence was signed, authorizing their organization, "Marines" appeared in the official documents.

The personnel of the Marine Corps are landing, building and fighting troops, usually attached to the Navy. Its organization includes practically all army branches—infantry, artillery, aviation, etc., and the Corps as a whole is a complete small army.

Back in the days of flintlocks and fighting tops, the "Sea Soldiers" wore green coats, white waistcoats, and buff-colored trousers that disappeared in leggings reaching above the knees. A three-cornered hat, perched on a white powdered wig, completed the uniform.

Many of the ornate decorations worn by the "Leathernecks" were discarded during the last century, but the Marine of today in his smart blue uniform with red and gold trimmings is still a colorful figure.

The emblem of the Corps is a hemisphere bearing the map of the Americas superposed upon a foul anchor and surmounted by an eagle with spread wings. The emblem is emblazoned upon the Corps standards and worn by officers and enlisted men as insignia. The motto of the Corps is "Semper Fidelis" (Always Faithful).

The record of the Corps is one which will bear comparison with that of the most famous military organizations in the world's history. During more than 90 of the 159 years of its existence, this small body of men has been in action against the Nation's foes. From the battle of Trenton to the Argonne, Marines have won foremost honors in war and, in the long eras of tranquility at home, generation after generation have grown gray in war in both hemispheres, and in every corner of the seven seas, that our country and its citizens might enjoy peace and security. In every battle and skirmish since the birth of the Corps, its men have acquitted themselves in a manner of great distinction, winning new honors on each occasion until the term "Marine" has come to signify all that is highest in military efficiency and soldierly virtue.

It was their service in Mexico and Tripoli that furnished the theme for the Marines' Hymn, "From the Halls of Montezuma, to the Shores of Tripoli."

On their 159th birthday, November 10, Marines all over the world will pause to glance back over their glorious record of deeds and service to the country.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Everlasting Punishment" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 4.

The golden text was "Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein; and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him" (Proverbs 26:27).

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon was the following from the Bible: "Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up" (James 4:8, 10).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "You are conquered by the moral penalties you incur and the ills they bring. The pains of sinful sense are less harmful than its pleasures. Belief in material suffering causes mortals to retreat from their error, to flee from body to Spirit, and to appeal to divine sources outside of themselves" (p. 405).

They Changed the Face of the Earth

IN THE 1900's, about the time when the first rail airplanes appeared in the sky, America started building new and better roads. Good roads quickened the changes that railroads and automobiles set in motion. They connected farms, cities, towns, and isolated regions with a network of city streets.

Just as fast, reliable transportation encouraged the exchange of food between the North and the South, the East and the West—so better roads increased this trade throughout America. In joining the states of the nation still more closely together, modern roads made it more necessary than ever before that such an organization as A&P do the work of getting local foods to the rest of the country cheaply and quickly. Developments of the last 75 years have made A&P essential to modern life.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible solutions, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.
OUR CONFESSION: God is our God forever and ever; he will be our guide even unto death.—Psalm 48:14.

YOU PAY THE BILL

According to a recent survey, the total cost of government in the United States during 1934 will be about $17,000,000. Seven billion of this is being spent by the federal government, $2,000,000,000 by the states, and $8,000,000 by local governments.

In 1933, the total national income was slightly in excess of $40,000,000. Most economists believe that the 1934 figure will be about the same.

As a result, government spending for the current year will amount to 42 per cent of all the money we receive.

The fact that part of the expenditures are being made with the aid of bond issues, which will not have to be paid until some future date, does not affect the principle at stake. The main fact is that cost of government is reaching the point where it will exceed the ability of the public to pay. A substantial part of the cost of everything we buy is represented by taxes. Taxes are part of the cost of a glass of beer or a gallon of gas; of a fur coat or a pair of shoes, of a town-car or a coffee pot. The manufacturer who makes an article, the middle-man who distributes it, the dealer who sells it—all are heavily taxed, and each must pass his taxes on to the ultimate consumer—you.

It is to your interest, whether worker or employer, to demand that all branches of government cut expenses, precisely as businesses and individuals have been forced to do in order to survive.—Winchester Star.

Editor, The Manassas Journal.

Last Sunday, Nov. 4, Mr. Carl Orbaugh of Washington was driving between Nokesville and Manassas and upon arriving at the bridge over Kettle Run found a car overturned in the run and a woman and three children cut about the face and bleeding profusely. He took them in his car and hurried to Manassas, but could find no doctor to administer first aid so he had to carry them to Alexandria before he could secure help for them.

It would seem in this day of organization when accidents are so numerous that some plan might be perfected whereby medical aid might be obtainable in Manassas at any and all times.

THE WORN-OUT FARM

Encompassed by a wilderness of briar and thorn,
Its garden over-run by noisome weeds,
The home round which glad children played
Stands all a-wreck and Ruin claims it for his own.The toppling chimney tells of home-fires dead,
The shattered pane, of light that failed;
The unhinged door unto the broken hearthstone
Now admits the ghosts of those forever gone.Of cruel tragedy the ruin speaks,
Of blighted hopes, of unrequited toil;
And he who for the cause or reason seeks
Needs bus to ask the worn-out barren soil.The fields, once fruitful and benign,
Sparse weeds now yield where once grew golden grain;
Their guttered furrows of old age—the sign
That points where all their youth and strength have gone."Men marks the earth with ruin," sang the bard,
A ruin that engulfs him and his own;
Escape it yet he may by striving hard,
With knowledge as the saving power alone.Oh, foolish man of high or low estate,
Through ignorance or lack of vision clear
Destroying his most precious heritage,
Destroying his Hereafter and his Here!Up, valiant souls who know the race's need,
Proclaim the truth and faint not while you toil;
Write plain the words where all who run may read:
The Nation's life-blood springs from out the soil.J. Gladden Hutton,

SCHOOL BATTLE APPARENTLY ENDS

The opponents of the new Haymarket High School went to defeat finally after a hard-fought battle which may not even yet be over although the end seemingly came this afternoon at the meeting of the Supervisors.

The morning session was entirely given over to the discussion, which was more or less acrimonious in spots. Mr. T. E. Didlake was speaker for the "antis." Mr. Amphlett and others also spoke. The leading thought conveyed by the opposition was to the effect that later consolidation would render the new building unnecessary and a waste.

Mr. R. A. Hutchison spoke for the proponents. His discussion was quite able and did not get away from some small legal interpretations as the opposition apparently did. It was a "now or never" thought with this group and they were more determined than ever before. Dr. Wade Payne and others also spoke.

The Manassas 4-H Club was delightfully entertained at a Halloween party on Friday night.

"MAN FROM MONTEREY"
STARS JOHN WAYNE AS
U. S. CAVALRY OFFICER

As a dashing cavalry officer in the columns of Generals Kearney and Fremont, whose troops occupied California in the name of the American government following the war with Mexico, John Wayne comes next Friday, Nov. 16, to the Dixie Theatre in Manassas in "The Man From Monterey," the most pretentious and colorful production he has made under the four-star banner this season.

As Captain John Holmes, U. S. A., Wayne is charged with an ambassadorial errand to the great landowners of California, to persuade them that the United States government, in requiring the registration of their ancient land grants, is doing so to protect their property.

An exceptional cast was chosen to support Wayne in "The Man From Monterey." Ruth Hall, recently seen in the leading role of "The Kid From Spain," starring Eddie Cantor, plays the part of the dusky-eyed senorita who charms the gallant soldier. Luis Alberni, as Felipe, the gypsy companion of Capt. Holmes, is an internationally known actor equally at home in English and Spanish roles, and a Broadway favorite before he came to Hollywood.

Others in the cast include the talented Mexican actress, Nina Quintero, seen in the role of Anita Garcia, daughter of the innkeeper, and the discarded sweetheart of Don Luis Gonzales, played by Donald Reed; Francis Ford, Lafayette McKee, Lillian Leighton, Chris Martin and Charles Whittaker.

"The Man From Monterey" was produced for Warner Bros. by Leon Schlesinger and directed by Mack V. Wright, who has several of the earlier Wayne pictures to his credit. The story is an original by Lesley Mason, who also wrote the continuity and dialogue.

Mr. Morris Keys of Washington spent the week-end here.

MARGARET ANN SOWERS

Little Margaret Ann Sowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Sowers of Washington, D. C., and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wilson of Hickory Grove, died at Children's Hospital on Sunday after a brief illness.

Little Margaret or "Teenie," as she was affectionately called by everyone, was the youngest child, and was idolized by her parents, sisters, her grandparents and all of her friends and relatives. She was a child of charming personality, and though only ten years old, had made a place in the hearts of her loved ones that can not be filled.

After a brief service in Washington, which was conducted by the rector of the Church of the Nativity, where the little child had attended Sunday school, she was brought up to Middleburg, and her little body was laid to rest in the Wilson lot.

A most touching thing at the burial was the singing of a hymn that Teenie had said only last summer that she wanted sung at her funeral, at the time she said this she was in her usual health.

The services at Middleburg were conducted by Rev. Campbell Mayers of Middleburg and Rev. W. F. Carpenter, rector of Haymarket parish. Teenie had attended Grace Chapel Sunday school and had been baptized by Mr. Carpenter.

The funeral was attended by many relatives and friends from Washington and from Hickory Grove, where Teenie had lived for several years with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, and where she had attended school. Among the touching floral tributes were those from her little schoolmates.

The love and sympathy of those who came to pay the last tribute to little Teenie, were a source of comfort to her bereaved family.

ANDREW LOW

(By Inno McGill)

Died: On Thursday, November 1, at his residence in Haymarket, Va., Andrew Low, in the ninety-sixth year of his age.

The passing from our midst of this venerable man brings sorrow to many relatives and countless friends. His gracious, kindly presence shall be missed from the community in which he had spent the closing years of his remarkable career.

Keen of mind and alert to daily happenings in affairs of the world, he was ever the genial guest and the charming host to his circle of friends. Until recently, when death deprived him of two companions, his son Douglas and Statia Meade, Mr. Low, covered from two to three miles in daily walks and credited much of his excellent health to his fondness for exercise.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. John Low, he was born April 21, 1839, near Liverpool, England, and, to the end, remained a loyal subject of his native land. While still a lad, he visited Canada; returned for a year or two to England, and then took up his residence in Savannah, Ga., where he became successfully identified with large cotton interests.

His love for farming prompted him to locate in Virginia, near Greenwich in Prince William County. There he purchased the tract of land known as the Buckner estate where, under the title, "Vint Hill," he made his home to the time when he sold that farm to the late Mitchell Harrison of New York.

To Vint Hill, Andrew Low took his bride, Bessie Moxley of Greenwich. In that home were born their eleven children; four of whom are dead. The living sons and daughters include: Josiah Low of Baltimore, Md., H. M. C. Low of Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. T. B. Dickinson of Fredericksburg, Va., Mrs. A. E. Hardaway of Richmond, Mrs. F. V. Luke of Nokesville, Miss Jeannette Low and Miss Katharine Low of Haymarket, Va. A sister of the deceased, Mrs. William A. Shearson, resides in Switzerland.

Also included in the family group of Andrew Low are twenty-five living grandchildren and thirty-four great grandchildren.

The funeral was Saturday afternoon from the family residence in Haymarket where a brief service was conducted by the Rev. W. F. Carpenter of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, who also conducted the rites at the church in Greenwich during which he paid touching tribute to the deceased. The burial took place in the cemetery at Greenwich.

TREATMENT FOR
WORMS IN POULTRY

There is no greater all-year-round problem in poultry raising than worms. One of the simplest methods for flock treatment is to mix two pounds of good quality of tobacco dust with each 100 pounds of mash. This formula can be used for all ages, from baby chicks to full grown. This mixture must be fed dry, never wet it.

There are three classes of worms: The ordinary round worms which are loose in the intestines. They are white in color, easy to see and frequently two to three inches long. Tapeworms are white in color, flat and jointed or beaded and firmly attached at one end. The small worms cannot be easily seen without the aid of a magnifying glass. They include some species of tape worms and capillary worms.

The round worms can be controlled by tobacco dust, but the tape worms must be treated with Kamala. In flock treatment it is well to use the tobacco dust for three or four weeks. If there are any that do not respond then give them a nicotine and Kamala capsule, as without doubt they are infested with tapeworms.

One N and K capsule, as it is called, is usually sufficient for several months. Then it should be repeated.

Tobacco dust is in no way injurious to poultry, but the Kamala capsules should not be given to emaciated birds, as it may injure them. Better use the tobacco dust until the birds take on weight, then use the Kamala.

Use only a good quality of tobacco.

Why Children Need
a Liquid Laxative

The temporary relief children get from unwise dosing with harsh cathartics may cause bowel strain, and even set-up irritation in the kidneys. A properly prepared liquid laxative brings a more natural movement. There is no discomfort at the time and no weakness after. You don't have to give the child "a double dose" a day or two later.

Can constipation be safely relieved in children? "Yes!" say medical men. "Yes!" say many mothers who have followed this sensible medical advice: 1. Select a good liquid laxative. 2. Give the dose you find suited to the system. 3. Gradually reduce the dose, if repeated, until the bowels are moving naturally without aid.

An approved liquid laxative (one that is widely used for children) is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The mild laxative action of this excellent preparation is the best form of help for children—and grown-ups too. The dose can be regulated for any age or need.

Your druggist sells Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Telephone Directory Library

Company Maintains File of Books for Public Use

Uses of telephone directories are varied—so much so that officials of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company at Washington have installed a library of current books of many of the larger cities of the country at the company's headquarters for the use of the public. Telephone directories are now available for about 75 cities, but, according to company officials, this list will be increased materially.

Telephone directories of nearby cities or those frequently utilized by the public in making calls may be found in all company business offices during office hours. Use of these directories has proved of great value to the public.

In the Bell System about 2,100 telephone directories are issued annually. Of this number 71 issues are supplied by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Companies in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia.

RED CROSS AGENCIES
SAFEGUARD HEALTH

First Aid Life Saving, Nursing
Care, Promote Health and Safety

Five outstanding services make up the health-conservation program of the American Red Cross, according to the annual report just issued in Washington. These services are first aid and life saving, which together have trained more than a million persons; nursing, with an active enrollment of 36,133 registered nurses; Public Health Nursing, conducted by 750 nurses in 424 chapters last year; and Home Hygiene, which has taught more than 709,500 men and women simple ways of caring for the sick at home.

"The achievements of the Red Cross in public health nursing place it among the leaders in this field," said James L. Fieser, vice chairman in charge of domestic operations. "This service was organized in 1919 to meet needs developed by the World War and the ravages of the flu epidemic which in 1918-1919 took so great a toll of life."

"Since that time Red Cross nursing services have been pioneers in more than one half of the counties in the United States. Many services we established were taken over later by civil, state and federal agencies, and the Red Cross continues to establish services in other new fields. Red Cross nurses made more than a million visits to patients last year, and 629,025 children in schools were inspected."

"Red Cross courses in home hygiene and care of the sick are especially important in times of depression, because they teach families to maintain hygienic conditions in their own homes and to recognize symptoms of illness."

To Teach Water Safety

Life saving services offering training in first aid methods for swimmers have been carried on by the Red Cross for two decades. In 20 years, life saving certificates have been awarded to more than a half million people who are interested in water sports. Last year chapters issued 72,503 life saving certificates.
