CLUB PLANS RELIEF WORK

Bethlehem Club Guest of Mrs. T. J. Broadus.

On Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 21, Bethlehem Club was cordially and cheerfully greeted by Mrs. T. J. Broadus at her home on Grant Avenue.

The business session was promptly opened at 2:30 P. M. with the president, Mrs. R. L. Sadd, presiding. The reading of minutes and roll call followed.

In response to her name on roll Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson read in her usual pleasing manner, a humorous selector "Gals is Born on the Dark of the Moon" written by Nancy Byrd Turner.

The name of Mrs. B. F. Knox was presented for membership to fill a vacancy made by a resignation in October.

A full report of civic relief work was given by Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson. The Club immediately subscribed to a $5.00 Red Cross membership. Also an established fund toward a hospital bed in a nearby city will be the club project for next year.

Mrs. Broadus, committee on flowers, reported that a wreath had been given for Mrs. Westwood Hutchinson, a charter member of the Club; also a very attractive basket of fruit had been sent to an ill member, Mrs. John Lyons.

Again this year baskets of eats will be given to the needy at Christmas.

Numbers of baskets and to whom given will be decided at the December meeting. Meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. R. L. Sadd with Mrs. Frank Gue assistant hostess.

The business session ended, Miss Florence Kincheloe, Mrs. Hebe Jackson and Mrs. Frank Gue presented the following program:

America by assembly accompanied on piano by Mrs. M. M. Washington.

Reading, "Cheerful Caller" by Mrs. Florence Gue.

Vocal Solo, "You Can Smile", Mrs. Broadus accompanied on piano by Mrs. John Broadus.

Piano Solo, "Liebestraume", Mrs. John Broadus.

Perhaps the outstanding feature of the program was an excellent paper on Thanksgiving written by Miss Carolyn C. Jackson and read by Mrs. R. L. Sadd. The story as characterized by Miss Jackson portrayed talent and skill and the Club feels indebted to her for this unusual entertainment.

The hostess assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Broadus, and Mrs. R. A. Hutchison served a delicious salad course much to the enjoyment of all present.

Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. E. D. Wissler and Mrs. Florence Gue.

A motion for adjournment ended a most delightful occasion.

RESULTS OF RECENT TUBERCULIN CLINICS

At the tuberculin and x-ray clinic held at Manassas during the week of October 29 41 children and 32 adults were examined by the State specialist, and 4 were found to have the disease. 40 were suspicious.

These cases were referred back to their family physician for advice and treatment. 11 were recommended to go to the State sanatoria, but most of them must remain at home. Doctors report that it is easier to get well at a sanatorium because people at home do as they please and not as the doctor advises. The advice of the family doctor if followed out in the home is just as effective as the advice of a doctor at a hospital. People with tuberculosis should realize this when they must remain at home with the disease, act sensibly and obey the doctor. Medicine is not needed. Plenty of rest, good food, and fresh air will work the cure if they begin soon enough.

None of the cases recommended from our clinic for sanatorium care have the means to go. Some are not able to have the necessary food at home. The County Tuberculosis Association helped to keep several cases in the sanatoria during the past year. Their work is financed by proceeds from the sale of Christmas seals. Buy as many seals as you can this year and help take care of the cases already affected and prevent the further spread of the disease in our county.

BYRD LED STATE TICKET, WON BY 79,674 VOTES

In the race for the United States Senate, Harry F. Byrd won over his Republican opponent, Lawrence C. Page of Norfolk, by 109,963 to 30,389 votes, it was disclosed in the official canvass of the recent election made public this week by Colonel Peter Saunders, secretary of the Commonwealth. Byrd led the Democratic ticket by more than 10,000 votes in each of the six districts in which there was Republican opposition.

MANY TEACHERS AT CONFERENCE

Virginia Education Association Now in Session.

Many teachers from northern Virginia are attending the annual conference in Richmond this week of the Virginia Education Association.

This section of Virginia is organized as District H, which includes Arlington, Culpeper, Fairfax, Loudoun, Prince William, Rappahannock, Alexandria, and is headed by Prof. P. B. Smith, of Warrenton.

Among the topics under discussion this year are the question of abolishing interscholastic literary and athletic contests, State teacher training, the future of one and two room schools, State supervision.

More than three thousand teachers are said to have enrolled at Richmond, necessitating the use of the City auditorium for general sessions instead of the John Marshall High School.

All members of the Missionary Society and any others who will come are urged to attend these meetings. Come on Friday, bring your youth and spend the day. The "Lottie Moon Christmas Offering" will be taken at these meetings.

Members of the Senior and Post-graduate classes of the High School visited Washington on Saturday last. The morning was spent in the Nero Folger Library and the afternoon at the National Theatre where Walter Hampden and his cast of noted actors presented Macbeth.

This "day with Sheakespeare", which combined both pleasure and study, was a fitting climate to an English unit of work on the Elizabethan Age in literature in which the English students have been "browsing".

The class was in charge of Miss Lulu D. Metz. Misses Pauline Smith and Abbey Lutes also accompanied the party and enjoyed the day's activities.

DISTRICT COMMUNITY ASS'N WILL ELECT OFFICERS

The first meeting of the Brentsville District Community Association under its new officers will be held at the high school auditorium at Nokesville next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Speakers will be Professor R. C. Haydon and Miss Sue Ayers. They will discuss the "New Curriculum," a matter of great interest to all school folks.

All people of Brentsville district are invited and urged to attend this and other monthly meetings during the coming year and take an active part in the work of the association.

1935 CORN-HOG PROGRAM

The Corn-Hog adjustment program for 1935 to be offered by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration has been announced.

The corn provisions of the new program are:

The maximum corn acreage that may be planted under the 1935 contract is 90 per cent of the average for the two years 1932 and 1933. Individual signers may, if they wish, hold out of production up to 30 per cent of the two-year base average and receive corn benefit payments in proportion. For complying with the corn control provisions of the new contract, the individual signer will receive an adjustment payment of 35c per bushel of yield estimated for the number of acres by which the corn land area is kept below the 1932-33 average. This yield for basing payments will be the average yield determined by the community committee (elected by contract signers) for all crop land in the farm which has been in corn for at least once during the last five years. The change in yield basis removes the necessity for setting aside a definite tract of land on the farm as "contracted acres." The corn payment will be made in two installments; the first amounting to 15c per bushel on the estimated yield on the number of acres that are to be shifted from corn, to be paid as soon as the contract is accepted by the Secretary of Agriculture. The second installment of the remaining 20c per bushel, less the producers pro rata share of local administrative expenses, will be made (according to the announcement) about January 1, 1936.

The hog provisions are:

The individual contract signer is to limit the number of hogs produced for market from 1935 litters to 90 per cent of the adjusted average number produced from 1932 and 1933 litters. For complying with the contract, the participating producer will receive a hog adjustment payment of $15 per head on the number of hogs represented by the 10 per cent adjustment. One-half of this payment, that is, $7.50 per head, will be made upon acceptance of the contract by the Secretary of Agriculture. The final payment, less the contract signer's pro rata of the local administrative expenses, will be made on or about January 1, 1936.

In 1935, as in 1934, the corn-hog adjustment program will be voluntary, and will be carried out largely by the contract signers themselves through community and county committees elected at community and county meetings. The new sign-up will start as soon as the necessary contract forms are received and instructions given by the corn-hog section to begin. Notice of this will be given through circular letters, community meetings and the local newspaper.

MORE MONEY FOR BOOKS

Hall Urges Better Reading for Children.

State Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Sydney B. Hall, this week recommended to the State Board of Education the transfer of $12,500 to the State Aid Library Fund, stating that more money should be spent on reading matter for children, rather than for increased salaries for teachers.

Books for the public schools in Virginia are being purchased at the rate of $10,000 per month, Dr. Hall said. The State adds 10 cents to each 30 cents expended by local schools for books and the additional $12,500 is needed at this time, particularly on account of new books required in connection with the new curriculum.

The cost of school books at the present time is estimated at 2 cents out of each dollar spent on public schools. Dr. Hall believed that the best returns cannot be secured from the other 98 cents unless better library facilities are provided.

OCTOBER GOOD MONTH FOR PRINCE WILLIAM D. H. I. A.

The herd of registered and grade Holsteins of C. F. M. Lewis ranked fourth during October in pounds of milk per cow among the herds on test in dairy herd improvement associations in the State. The association with an average production per cow of 23.2 lbs. butterfat was slightly below the 23.4 lbs. average for the state. The herd at Clover Hill Farm led the local association in butterfat production with 32.6 lbs. per cow.

Prince William County with twenty registered bulls entered in the Virginia Bull Improvement Registry, stands second among the Virginia counties in this project.

At the State Dairymen's Convention at Norfolk on January 17 and 18, recognition will be given to all proved sires and to all herds that during the past year produced 300 pounds or more of butterfat.

CLUB HEARS NEW MINISTER

Rev. Jones Entertains Kiwanians with Excellent Discussion.

The Kiwanis Club had the pleasure last Friday night of listening a very human address by the new Baptist minister, Rev. C. B. Jones. The talk was really an excellent exposition of business ethics. Interspersed with this were a number of humorous stories which added greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion. It is hoped that anyone with such good Kiwanis ideals will soon apply for membership.

This was the first meeting which Bish Gibson had attended for several weeks and the club heartily applauded Bob's eulogy on the return of our friend.

Mons Ledman spent the evening fitting around the room arranging for a ways and means committee for Christmas eve duty. It is rumored that Mons scored a hundred per cent. Arthur Boatwright was a welcome guest while the absence of the new president was much regretted, the latter being away on a business trip in the South.

The club has a new membership on file which the Board will act on tomorrow night. While the name has not yet been made public, he is a well-known citizen of the town who should have been a Kiwanian long ago and his presence will add much to the ability of the club to carry on its great work in the county.

STATE OFFICIAL DENIES CLAIM

Attorney-General Indignant at Federal Encroachment.

Virginia's claim to jurisdiction over property extending to low water on the Southern Shore of the Potomac River opposite the District of Columbia will be filed with the boundary commission in Washington on Monday, Attorney-General Staples said yesterday, following completion of his answer to the district's claim to title up to high water mark in the disputed area.

The case is said to involve property valued at nearly $5,000,000, much of it "built-in" land on which persons who have always assumed themselves to be residents of Virginia have been paying taxes to the State for years.

Staples denies flatly the Government's claim to high water mark rights, declaring that the boundary line between this State and the District has never been officially adjudicated since Virginia was never a party to judicial proceedings involving the boundary line either directly or indirectly. And he added that if Congress had thought the line irrevocably fixed it would scarcely have appointed a commission to study the question.

Citing numerous authorities to show that from the earliest days of Virginia history the State boundary line on the Potomac had extended to low water mark, the attorney-general says in his statement:

"The State of Virginia, as well as private persons claiming property rights in the lands here involved, have at all times acted upon the assumption of the correctness of the said boundary line and, until very recent years, the United States and the District of Columbia have acquiesced therein."

"It is difficult to perceive, therefore, how any material benefit can be derived by this commission from an effort to ascertain where the said low water mark, or high water mark, of the Potomac River existed in the year 1791, the date of the cession of certain property by Virginia to the Federal Government."

ACTIVE TERM AHEAD

The special grand jury for the December term was drawn yesterday. It includes the following: F. M. Lynn, J. H. Flory, R. Jackson Ratcliffe, Ernest T. Evans, Eastman Keys, Nelson R. Dickens, Allen H. Barbee and Geo. W. Gosson.

With several major criminal cases in sight, the term promises to be quite active. Probably no cases will be tried prior to December 10.

Closing Music.

CATHARPIN

Thanksgiving will be in order about the time you are reading this or perhaps it may be a thing of the past and you standing around with an aching "tummy" by reason of over-indulgence of the day before. However this may be, we feel sure you "gave thanks" when thanks were due. If you didn't, why didn't you? If all the stories one hears about the millions of unemployed and hungry folk throughout the country are true, we think that some how, some way, either in person or by proxy, with cash or potatoes, with love or sympathy, we should have shown a spirit of gratitude for the blessings of life so freely bestowed upon us. You remember that old Pharisee, do you? who was so thankful he was not like those other fellows? You do? GOOD! So GLAD you remembered that. But that is not the way to show our appreciation. Just how we are to give "thanks" must be left to the individual to determine. Hope we have all done something to make some one feel better for the interest we have taken in them.

Miss Frances Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Smith, of Gainesville, was a week-end guest of Miss Bertha Pattie of Belle Farm.

The "drought" of the past several weeks almost slipped by unnoticed until a good shower came to our relief on Friday last as a gentle reminder that the wheat fields were really needing it. Also cornshucking was a beneficiary as well as wash tubs and small branches. The excitement just now is the debate going on as to whether or not the fine weather we have enjoyed was "Indian Summer". Some say "There ain't no such animal" while others think we always have it about this time and this is it. The affirmative seems to have the decision by about 2 to 1, so we are letting it go at that.

Mrs. W. S. McCarty of Delaplane, Va., has been visiting at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. Holmes Robertson, during the past week.

Well, we are just about to enter upon a buckwheat cake and sausage campaign; in fact the buckwheats are already here and waiting patiently for the sausages to arrive, which from all appearances, will soon be due. Many fat porkers are working over-time turning corn into lard, spareribs, backbones, sauce, and—shall I repeat it—sausage? Buckwheat flour in this section of Virginia seems a little like corn meal in Pennsylvania; neither one appreciates the full value of their food qualities.

A Young People's Union was organized at Sudley last week with an enrollment to date of 30 members. Officers elected as follows: President, Miss Leda M. Sowers; vice-president, Mr. W. H. Dogan, Jr.;

The Union meets in Sudley church on Friday night of this week to complete plans for entertaining a general meeting of all local Unions in the Farrington district which is composed of the Fauquier, Manassas, Nokesville, Warrenton and Sudley circuits. The new union is under the patronage of the pastor and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. Sapp. We are delighted with the prospects of this new activity and shall have more to say later on. The general meeting is to be entertained in Sudley church on Thursday, Dec. 13, 1934.

Mr. L. J. Pattie and daughter, Cynthia, spent the week-end with his daughter, Mrs. Mary Pattie Briggs, in Washington recently.
Mrs. Etta P. Lynn suffered a severe wound on the foot by dropping a sad iron on it causing much pain and consequent slow navigation.

On Friday, Nov. 23, the 7th grade of B. D. H. S. played the 7th grade of Greenwich. The game ended with Nokesville a winner.

On Nov. 26 the 6th and 7th grades and first year children of Nokesville School gave a weenie roast at the school. Several small plays were given and delicious refreshments were served. A jolly time was reported.

The teachers of B. D. H. S. all expect to leave for their homes on Wednesday for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. E. K. Bodine and Mrs. Thurman Cooper spent last Friday at the home of Mr. A. E. McMichael.

Miss Elizabeth McMichael and Miss Elizabeth Payne spent Monday night with Mrs. Ewing McMichael.

Mr. Frame, who injured his eye quite severely last week, is reported much improved.

Mr. Francis Wells of Washington spent the week-end visiting in Nokesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Lue and Miss Lacy Hillsman spent Sunday visiting in Washington.

The many hunters around Nokesville report a great scarcity of game this year.

Misses Hazel Cornwell and Elizabeth Allen are visiting at the home of Mrs. Bob Jones the past week.

Mr. Larrick, formerly of the M. E. Church here, spent the past week with Mr. Luther Payne.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST
The Word of God
 BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER
 If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a precious heritage to them in after years.

SUPPLY IS SURE: Trust in the Lord, and do good; so shalt thou be fed.

Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.—Psalm 37:3, 4.

ERA OF GOOD FEELING

The most hopeful thing that has happened in this country for quite a while is the new teamwork between government and business. The attitude of the President is matched by the changed attitude of the United States Chamber of Commerce, which in turn is reflected through the business world. From the mutual good will now spreading over the landscape, it might seem, in the words of the prophet, that "righteousness and peace have kissed each other."

This may have been what the nation was voting for in the recent election, even though voters were not fully conscious of the fact. If so, the processes of democratic government still function and American principles are as sound as ever.

It has been heartening to read the call of the Chamber of Commerce board upon the country's great economic groups to formulate a program "fair and just to all, which will accelerate the present effort toward recovery." Also its statement: "Utterances by the President encourage the belief that he is fully conscious of this attitude (the determination of business, industry and agriculture to promote recovery), and that he is receptive to suggestions for the promotion of the public welfare."

This statement may be read both ways, forward and backward, from business to government and government to business. The effect is greatly reassuring. Now we can go ahead.—Exchange.

VIRGINIA CRIME COST STILL WITHIN BUDGET

Director of the budget J. H. Bradford revealed figures this week that showed the State's crime cost bill, which last year contributed to a large degree to the State's deficit, has totaled $270,000 for the first three months of the fiscal year—a figure approximately the same as that for the same period in 1933.

A FARMER'S THANKS

Now gather round the table, folks, and settle in your place, But leave your forks a minute until we say the grace. We've got a lot of thankin' which really should be said, So git your mind off eatin' fer a while an' bow your head.

Lord, in humble manner we give our thanks to Thee— Our thanks fer all the kindness you show such folks as we. You've given us a fertile land that we are proud to till; A land that's teemin' over with the spirit of good-will. You've given us our neighbors, who are ever standin' by To lend to us a helpin' hand when trouble's flyin' high. You've given us our happy home, and clothes to keep us warm, And guided us from day to day, protectin' us from harm. You've given us our kith and kin to cherish and to love, Our mothers, sons, and daughters, you've sent us from above. And now, dear Lord, we bow our heads, in humbleness, to Thee; About to feast on food which Thou hast given bountif'ly. We want you to look down from high and hear us as we pray To thank you for your lovin' care, on this Thanksgivin' day; To know we're thinkin' of you, as we carve the turkey hen, And to know we dearly love you and thank you, Lord, Amen.

Now folks, I know the Lord has heard our humble thanks to Him. I ain't right sure, but I don't think that eatin's any sin. So tuck your napkin in your neck and start to stow away— There's a mighty lot of eatin' to be done Thanksgivin' day. —A Junior Subscriber.

RESOLUTION

Wherefore God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove from our midst our sister and co-worker, Mrs. Westwood Hutchison, who for so many years has been a faithful member of our Woman's Missionary Society; therefore be it resolved, First—That we shall always cherish her memory and try to emulate her Christian character and faithfulness to her Lord. Second—That we extend to her family our sincere sympathy and pray God's blessing upon them. Third—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her family, a copy to the Religious Herald, a copy to The Manassas Journal and a copy be placed on the minutes of our society. EMMA J. SOUTHERN MANNERS RULE IN "CAROLINA"

A number of South Carolinians, members of the exclusive St. Cecilia Society, have roles in the Fox picture, "Carolina," coming to the Dixie Theatre in Manassas next Wednesday. They were used to instruct the huge cast in the ballroom etiquette of the society, which dates back to the Charleston of 1737. One glance at the rules discloses: There must be no sitting out. No hiding away in corners. No petting. Maidens must be chaperoned. Girls must be returned to their chaperones after each dance. Grandma and grandpa, as well as the youngsters, must attend and participate. Supper is served on the stroke of twelve.

From the very beginning, Director Henry King was determined to recapture the spirit of the deep South for this film, which depicts the romance of a tobacco plantation in South Carolina, and into which is woven a beautiful love story. King flew to South Carolina, taking cameramen, technicians and Reginald Berkeley, who adapted "Carolina," with him. Thousands of feet of film were taken, and Fox Film artists copied buildings, plantations and backgrounds. Months were spent in research. Recently, as King neared the grand ball sequence—a flash back into Civil War days—he determined to follow the etiquette of

RELIEF FOR VIRGINIA TEACHERS

Census Reveals Need of Aid in 86 Counties.

Virginia has a total of 2387 unemployed school teachers, of whom 2,037 are in acute financial need, a census directed by J. L. B. Buck, supervisor of the Emergency Education program, revealed this week.

The census covered 86 counties and some cities of the State. The total of unemployed teachers in the counties was 1,479 and in the cities 805.

Mr. Buck said that the census showed that there were 1,143 unemployed teachers in the State who had been certified by the local emergency relief administrators as in actual financial need and 894 more who in the opinion of the local superintendents of schools could be certified as in need if they chose to apply for relief.

A third group of unemployed teachers, comprising 247 all told, was composed of those who had some financial resources and could not be certified for the relief rolls.

Mr. Buck reported that up to October 25, some 750 of these unemployed teachers had been given work under the Emergency Education Program. It is expected that 1,000 or more can be employed in this way when all projects are under way, he said.

The census showed that in Richmond there were 219 teachers certified for relief, 94 more who in the opinion of the superintendent could be certified if they applied, and 12 who could not be certified.

Petersburg reported 25 in the first group, 17 in the second and none in the third, while Hopewell reported 11 in the first group, none in the second and three in the third.

The figures were compiled by Mr. Buck for submission to William E. Smith, director of the Virginia Emergency Relief Administration.

The Fauquier National Bank, et al.

v. H. Thornton Davies, Trustee, et al.

IN CHANCERY

The general object of the above styled cause is to enjoin and restrain H. Thornton Davies, Trustee, from making sale of certain property known as Beverly Mills, as set forth and described in a certain deed of trust executed by C. C. Furr, J. N. Kerr, M. P. Furr and Audrey F. Kerr, as of May 20, 1929, and recorded in deed book 87, folio 3, securing R. B. Swart the sum of $6,000.00, with interest from May 20, 1929; to ascertain what real estate C. C. Furr, J. N. Kerr, and Audrey F. Kerr are seized and possessed, where located, and the liens binding the same in the order of their priorities; to ascertain whether or not any of the 12 acre tract known as Beverly Mills is located in Fauquier County, and if so, what portion thereof; to ascertain whether or not the land advertised for sale by H. Thornton Davies, Trustee, covers any portion of the real estate of said Furr and Kerrs, taken by the State Highway Commission for the use and benefit of the Commonwealth of Virginia, as a highway; that all creditors of C. C. Furr and J. N. Kerr be conveyed before the proper officer of said Court; that a receiver, or receivers, be appointed to take charge of the real estate known as Beverly Mills and operate the same under the order of said Court until final determination of the issue raised in this cause, and that said receiver, or receivers, be authorized to borrow a sum, or sums, of money for the operation of said Milling business, and for general relief.

It appearing by affidavit filed according to law that Robert B. Swart, one of the defendants in this cause, is not a resident of the State of Virginia; that the said Robert B. Swart's last known address was 4016 14th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.; it is therefore ordered that the said Robert B. v. R. B. Swart, et al.

IN CHANCERY

The general object of the above styled cause is to set aside and annul a certain deed executed by Robert B. Swart, dated August 16, 1932, recorded in deed book 91, at folio 181, whereby the said Robert B. Swart conveyed two tracts of lands in Gainesville Magisterial District, the first containing 175 acres, more or less, and the second 107 acres, more or less, the two tracts containing in the aggregate 282 acres, more or less, to John Cameron Crewe; also a certain other deed located as aforesaid and executed by said Robert B. Swart as of February 18, 1933, and recorded in said deed book of Prince William County Clerk's Office, folio 489, whereby the said Robert B. Swart conveyed to John C. Crewe a tract of 333 acres, more or less, said two deeds, or copies thereof, being filed with papers in this cause and marked, respectively, "Exhibit A" and "Exhibit C," said "Exhibit C" having been made subject to a deed of trust therein mentioned, which said "Exhibit C" also conveyed and transferred certain livestock and farming machinery therein mentioned, upon the ground that said two deeds were fraudulent and without valuable consideration for the purpose of hindering and delaying said complainant in the collection of a debt due by said Robert B. Swart to said The Fauquier National Bank of Warrenton in the amount of $9,700.00, with interest from January 1, 1934, and to make sale of said two tracts of land and livestock and farming implements, and the proceeds derived therefrom applied to the payment of said debt, also counsel fees for instituting and conducting said suit and for a decree, or judgment, against the said Robert B. Swart for any balance that may be due on complainant's said demand, and for general relief.

It appearing by affidavit filed according to law that Robert B. Swart, one of the defendants in said cause, is not a resident of the State of Virginia, the other non-resident defendants having filed an answer in said cause, that the said Robert B. Swart's last known address was 4016 14th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.; it is therefore ordered that the said Robert B. Swart do appear within ten days after due publication of this order, in the Clerk's Office of our said Circuit Court, and do what is necessary to protect his interest in the above styled cause. TWO CHANGES IN LAWS ON INSURANCE URGED

Two important changes to Virginia's existing insurance laws have been proposed by the Virginia Commission to codify and suggest revisions of State insurance laws held in the offices of the State Corporation Commission.

The suggested revision would do away with the requirement whereby companies licensed to do business in the State are made to post bonds with the treasurer, and the establishment of some regulation, covering the solicitation of business, by mail and otherwise, of companies not authorized to do business in the State.

MRS. B. S. BLANCHARD

Mrs. Belle Simons Blanchard, wife of Howard W. Blanchard, died at her home in Washington Sunday morning, November 25, after an illness of about two weeks. Funeral services were held at the Congregational Church in Herndon Tuesday afternoon at 2:30, the pastor, Rev. George Gee, officiating. The burial was in Herndon cemetery.

Surviving her are her husband, one sister, Mrs. William St. John Blanchard of Herndon; two brothers, Wilford A. Simons of Riverdale, Md., and Arthur Simons of Nebraska; two stepsons, William St. John Blanchard of Herndon and Edward Blanchard of Washington, and two stepdaughters, Miss Martha Blanchard and Miss Mabel Blanchard were formerly residents of Herndon.

DUMFRIES

The Dumfries astronomy class will take their final test Wednesday morning at 9:30. The children are ready for it. They say "Let it come and plenty of it."

We are glad to have Ralph George back in school who has been out a week with a broken wrist.

The seventh grade will look through a telescope at the stars and the moon Tuesday night after the bingo party. All parents are invited to come out to "peep with us."

Miss Barry from S. T. C. in Fredericksburg will explain some of the mysteries of astronomy to the seventh grade.

Mr. J. D. Hardt, a relative of Mr. and Mrs. Patton, gave the 5th, 6th and 7th grades a very interesting talk on Brazil Nov. 21. He is taking interest in the education of the country in which he has been for nearly 9 years.

The third and fourth grades took a trip to Mt. Vernon last week. A vivid picture of colonial life was painted on every mind after seeing the grand old Washington home.

Soil Doctor Needs Eye For Colors

Soils Are Now Made to Yield Their Own Dangerous Signs of Plant Food Deficiency

If samples of your farm soil turn yellow, you need more lime. If it does not turn pink, that is something else again. You need magnesium. In other words, soils have been made to give their own "distress" signals, as readable in their way to agronomists of The American Agricultural Chemical Company as railroad signals to trainmen. Knowledge of soil types and the previous crop history of the soil coupled with the plant food requirements is of course necessary for an interpretation of the results, but soil tests now make it possible to prescribe proper elements within a reasonable limit of accuracy.

The testing of soils today for their plant food deficiencies is a matter of thorough training, the proper chemicals, some test tubes and filter paper—and a good eye for color. Testing solutions have been developed which produce definite shades of color in their reaction with the chemical constituents of various soils, and the soil characteristics which these colors indicate have been carefully investigated and charted. The tests thus yield clues to soil composition which the "soil doctor" can act upon with a fair degree of certainty.

For some years experiment station experts have been accumulating data on plant food elements utilized in the production of various crops and the amount required for maximum yields under favorable conditions. The degree of acidity or non-acidity—the pH value, as it is technically known—the forms of available nitrogen, phosphorus and potash, and the presence of the so-called "rarer elements," best adapted for various crops have been studied in detail, and their effects on crop production carefully determined. How to make this knowledge of practical use to the farmer has been a subject of special investigation, and it is due largely to efforts of experiment stations that simple and fairly accurate methods of analyzing soils have been evolved. The difficulty has been to measure, not the total amount of the element present in the soil, but the amount available to the plant in any single growing season, and to determine it fairly accurately without quantitative measurement.

Small samples of soils are treated with weak chemical solutions approximately the strength of a plant's feeding capacity in order to dissolve out the particular plant food elements tested for and this soil solution, after being filtered, is in turn treated with a "determinant" which changes the solution a definite shade color. One shade of blue indicates the presence of phosphorus at the rate of ten pounds per acre; a deeper shade indicates fifty pounds per acre. These rates are determined by comparing the color of the solution to color charts which have been properly correlated with actual crop yields.

Both field and laboratory soil tests are performed on application by agronomists of The Service Division of The American Agricultural Chemical Company. The analysis of the soil is only half of the job, however. These results of the soil test are taken as indications, fairly accurate though inconclusive, and it requires the skilled interpretation of the "soil doctor" with a wide background of agronomic principles to make recommendations which will be effective. The requirements of the crop to be grown on the soil and the soil type itself must be taken into consideration before prescribing the plant foods necessary. A soil acidity of pH5.4 may be too low for the production of truck or grains, but is advisable for potatoes. Similarly, grain crops thrive best with particular quantities of phosphorus and potash in available forms, and many crops will not grow to healthy maturity without manganese.

Reactions of chemical solutions with soil samples result in a definite color which, checked with tested color charts, gives part of soil analysis.

CROWDS GREET ANNIVERSARY

Exercises at Old Falls Church Are Eventful.

The ancient brick structure loved by thousands and known by all as the "Old Falls Church," the first outpost of religious worship to be added to the central work at Alexandria, was crowded to its overflowing by the many who came to do honor on the occasion of its 200th anniversary, on Sunday last.

The congregation was honored by the presence of such distinguished visitors as Bishop St. George Tucker, Rev. G. MacLaren Brydon of the Diocesan Office of Richmond, and the following priests from the nearby churches: Fairfax, Rev. Herbert Donovan; Pohick, Rev. C. A. Langston; Clarendon, Rev. H. J. Miller; Chevy Chase, Md., Rev. Henry T. Cooke.

The morning service was conducted by Rev. Malcolm Taylor, assisted by Rev. Alexander Galt and Temple Wheeler. The music was played by the organist of the church, Mrs. Katherine Garner Davis.

In the afternoon Dr. Castleman, who served the church for nearly twenty years as pastor, was the minister in charge.

Both Dr. Brydon and Bishop Tucker made stirring addresses concerning the history of the church and the wonderful part it had played in the growth of the community.

Like many other churches in Virginia, the church was looted by the Federal Army, being used for a time as a hospital and later as a stable. Some twenty years ago when the atrocities to European churches were being given liberal publicity, the Federal Government paid its debt to this church as well as to many others in the State, giving the vestry the sum of $1300 which was used very effectively. Patriotic societies also assisted in the more complete restoration.

Located on the road which radiated from Alexandria toward Great Falls the church took its name in that manner and later the Town also. Members of the first vestry included Augustine Washington, father of the First President, and George Mason, well-known as the author of the Virginia Bill of Rights. The present vestry is made up of C. A. Stewart, senior warden; J. Fred Huber, junior warden, and the following: Harry A. Fellows, G. D. G. Nicholson, Julian F. Slade, Dr. E. B. Stiff and Samuel H. Styles, treasurer.

In 1762, George Washington was elected a vestryman and shortly thereafter a parish levy of thirty-thousand pounds of tobacco was laid by George Fairfax and George Washington, the wardens of Truro Parrott. The next year the wardens received bids for the construction of the church which was completed only a few years before the Revolution. After the Revolution the church was abandoned for more than one-quarter of a century but was later restored and put into active service.

A special feature of the celebration was the lovely white chrysanthemums, a gift from Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt, from the White House garden.

GOLD MINING IN VIRGINIA

Modern Methods Making Local Deposits Profitable.

It is stated that more than 250 men are engaged in gold mining in Virginia, using modern methods which are being watched with interest because they give promise of making the gold deposits of Virginia profitable. It has long been recognized that there were large quantities of the precious metal in Virginia, but existing methods of extraction made the mining unprofitable.

One of the projects is the Rapidan Gold Corporation which operates the old Vacluse Mine, 15 miles west of Fredericksburg, where the ore is said to run about $5 per ton. The Franklin Mine, also near Fredericksburg, is being developed. The Melba mine, in the same vicinity, is being worked also.

The companies developing these enterprises are not reported as being interested in selling stock, but are perfecting mechanical and chemical methods which they believe will make these low grade ores profitable.

A century ago gold mining in Virginia was regarded as profitable, one firm in Orange County mining as much as $100,000 worth of the precious metal in a single year.
