MANASSAS, VIRGINIA THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1935

SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 A YEAR

CROP LOAN APPLICATIONS

Supervisor Beverley Issues Interesting Statement.

Field Supervisor J. Gray Beverley of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Office at Warrenton states that applications for emergency crop loans and feed loans are now being received.

In accordance with the Act of Congress authorizing the loans, and regulations issued by Governor W. I. Myers of the Farm Credit Administration, loans will be made only to farmers who are unable to obtain elsewhere seed, fertilizers, supplies, feed or the necessary credit to purchase such items. Loans will not be made to applicants who can obtain credit in the amount needed from any other source, including the production credit association.

Any farmer who has the necessary security should apply to the production credit association first. If the association is unable to make him a loan in the amount needed the farmer will receive a statement to that effect and will be considered eligible to apply for a loan from the emergency fund.

The regulations provide that the largest loan to one farmer this year is $500 and the minimum $10, but no loan may be made in an amount greater than is actually needed to cover the cash cost of purchasing seed, fertilizers, supplies, feed, etc. Loans will be made for the purpose of growing and harvesting crops, for summer fallowing, for purchasing feed for livestock, but not for the purpose of purchasing livestock or machinery, or for the payment of debts or taxes.

Loans will be made only to applicants who are co-operating with the Production Control Program of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

As in the past, the security for an emergency crop or feed loan will consist of a first lien on the crop financed or on the livestock to be fed. A tenant must also give a first lien by getting the landowner to waive his claim in favor of the crop lien; but the landowner is in no way obligated for repayment of his tenant's loan.

Checks in payment of approved loans will be issued by the Regional Emergency Crop and Feed Loan office at Baltimore; and not by the field supervisor or the loan committee.

Mr. Beverley announces he will be at the County Agent's office in Manassas, for the purpose of taking applications, Monday and Tuesday, April 15 and 16, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

WILL STOCK MORE STREAMS

Game Body Told That Fish Should Be More Plentiful.

The Prince William County Game and Fish Protective Association met last Friday night in the Town Hall with President Otis O. Holler presiding and Mr. Jack Stauff in the secretary's chair.

Mr. Holler called on Mr. Webb Midyette, district game warden, who gave a live and interesting talk on many of the problems of the local game wardens. He introduced to the club Mr. A. M. Mills of Accotink and rated him as one of the best wardens. He showed how their compensation had been fixed since 1930 and what they are frequently called on to do for this compensation. He also explained in considerable detail the import of the proposed changes in game regulations.

Mr. Midyette told considerably of the work being done by the State hatcheries who keep the fresh water streams stocked with game fish.

Considerable was said about the proposed legislation by which a uniform state license will be fixed instead of the dual license now in effect. Mr. Midyette showed how the bag limit in the state was abused often through sheer ignorance and indifference. He also told of other abuses by persons applying for local licenses who were actually out of the state residents.

The matter of summer and weekend visitors was taken up and President Holler stated that the Commonwealth had ruled that anyone who allowed himself to be assessed for poll tax and paid the same, could be classified as a local resident, but that in so doing his privilege in voting elsewhere would be immediately nullified.

Mr. Holler next called on Mayor Davis who introduced Hon. John W. Rust, State Senator, who came over from Fairfax to grace the meeting with his presence. Senator Rust presented himself thoroughly in sympathy with much of the work being done by the game commission and told impending legislation bearing thereon.

FIRE AT HAYMARKET

Fire of unknown origin which was supposed to have started in the basement of the house, completely destroyed the residence and most of the contents therein belonging to Mr. A. W. Amphlett near Haymarket, Va., early this morning.

The blaze had gained such rapid headway that the Amphlett family were only able to get out a few articles of furniture. Mr. Amphlett carried some insurance on the building.

NATIONAL GROUPS LAUNCH PROGRAM TO SAVE WILD DUCKS

Faced with reports of an alarming depletion of several species of wild ducks, heads of the U. S. Bureau of Biological Survey, the Izaak Walton League of America, Conservation Committee of the Federation of Women's Clubs, the More Game Birds Foundation and officials of other national wildlife organizations today joined in an announcement of the first migratory bird-refuge program of its kind ever launched.

The program proposes the making of every suitable public park water area a waterfowl refuge. "Here's a way to have a zoo without benefit of a bond issue—and at the same time help save America's wild waterfowl," the announcement states.

The availability for refuge purposes of thousands of both public and private ponds, streams and coastal water area is pointed to. Use of these can be obtained by individuals and organizations "simply for the asking" it is stated. Sportsmen's organizations, farm, service, nature and civic groups of all kinds are to be enlisted in the movement.

"America's migratory waterfowl need homes—and need them badly," according to the sponsors. "Over 17,000,000 acres of marshes have been fruitlessly drained by man with little thought of the effect upon a great natural resource of tremendous economic, recreational and esthetic importance to millions of people."

The More Game Birds Foundation, with headquarters at 500 Fifth Avenue, New York, offers $500.00 in cash,

Smith and Miss Minnie Smith, with whom she makes her home, and Mr. William Smith, all of Bristow, Mrs. Robert Huddle of Elkton, Va., Mrs. Frank Ruffner of Occoquan, Va., Mrs. Clyde Wolfe of Brentsville, Va., and Mr. John Smith of Shenandoah, Va., twenty eight grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren met at the home at Bristow to enjoy the occasion with her, which has been a family custom for many years.

PLENTY OF FISH FOR PRINCE WILLIAM

On Monday, April 1, Mr. G. W. Buller, superintendent of fish propagation of the Department of Game and Inland Fisheries, sent to Prince William County nearly two million (2,000,000) young yellow or rilling perch from Fort Belvoir Hatchery. These fry were planted in the following streams by Game Warden Reading and Mr. Ramsey of Front Royal: Cedar Run, Board Run, Bull Run, Occoquan Creek at Lake Jackson, Kettle Run, Chestnut Lick, Little Bull Run, North Fork, Catharpin Run and Slaty Run—two hundred thousand (200,000) in each stream.

Attention is called to the fact that May 6, next, will be the final day on which capitation taxes can be paid to permit one to vote in the general election in November. It is respectfully suggested that any one who expects to vote in the primary and general elections and who may be in doubt as to the payment of capitation taxes for years prior to 1934, communicate with the office of the county treasurer.

C. A. SINCLAIR, Treasurer.

20 silver cups and certificates of merit illustrated by "Ding" Darling as prizes for the best refuges established during 1935. The awards are to be made in a National Waterfowl Refuge Contest. The foundation is conducting the general program and is distributing three free booklets describing how to establish a refuge. State game officials have agreed to co-operate in the work.

The program contemplates voluntary establishment of chains and miniature happy landing places for wildfowl, patterned after the famous Jack Miner refuge near Detroit. "What the nation's waterfowl need is the setting aside of thousands of these places where the birds may rest, food and nest in contentment. Given these opportunities, wildfowl can be restored successfully to their former plentitude," the announcement states.

Members of the Committee of Judges for the refuge program are: Hon. Jay N. Darling, Chief of the Bureau of Biological Survey, Chairman; S. Barry Locke, Conservation Director, Izaak Walton League; A. C. Camerle, Director of Waterfowl Activities, More Game Birds in America; Mrs. William L. Wilson, Conservation Chairman, General Federation of Women's Clubs; Manly F. Minor, Secretary, Jack Miner Migratory Bird Foundation; Nathan Moran, California member U. S. Migratory Bird Advisory Board, and Edward A. McIlhenny, author and conservationist, Avery Island, La.

MARY D. W. LIPSCOMB

After a lingering illness, death came to Mrs. Mary Dabney Weir Lipscomb on Friday evening, the 30th of March, and in the 73rd year of her life.

She was born near Richmond, Va., Oct. 8, 1862, at the home of Major Dabney where her family were refugees from their home at Sudley which had become a battlefield in the War Between the States. She was married in 1887 to the late Wm. N. Lipscomb who died in 1918.

She was the daughter of the late Robt. Carter and Mildred Thornton Weir and is survived by two children, Mrs. Howard W. Jamison of this town and Mr. Wm. Harold Lipscomb of Washington City and Leesburg, Va.

She was laid to rest in the Manassas cemetery and the following friends were pall bearers: Messrs. A. M. Crigler, Robt. Weir, C. A. Sinclair, H. Thornton Davies, R. Weir Waters, and O. D. Waters. The Rev. A. Stuart Gibson conducted the last rites of the Episcopal Church of which she was a member.

She had lived to see Manassas develop from a battlefield into a thriving community and most of the land had been taken from her father's estate. She loved and was loved by her friends and now that she has gone on me thinks of Burroughs' lines:

What matter if I stand alone?
I wait with joy the coming years:
My heart shall reap where it has sown
And garner up the fruit of tears.

NOTICE

Attention is called to the fact that May 6, next, will be the final day on which capitation taxes can be paid to permit one to vote in the general election in November. It is respectfully suggested that any one who expects to vote in the primary and general elections and who may be in doubt as to the payment of capitation taxes for years prior to 1934, communicate with the office of the county treasurer.

A CALL-TO S. S. WORKERS

U. D. C. HOLD APRIL MEETING

Dr. Freeman's Life of Lee Presented to Library.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Margaret and Miss Katie Lewis were hostesses to a well-attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Manassas Chapter U.D.C.

Guests present were Miss Nina Hayes, Mrs. Norvell Larkin of Fairfax, and Mrs. Phillips, niece of Miss Eugenia Osbourn.

Miss Hays led the opening prayer, and the president, Mrs. Lomas, led the salute to the Confederate Flag, which is as follows: "I salute the Confederate Flag with affection, reverence, and undying remembrance." The historian, Mrs. Newman, had made a visit to Haymarket, accompanied by Mrs. Harry Love, who gave a lecture on Lanier at the high school.

Mrs. Maude Kincheloe, chairman of the ways and means committee, reported an Easter sale would be held at Dr. Dowell's store April 20. The remembrance committee had sent cards and flowers to Mrs. Hodge, Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Knox, Mrs. Peters, and Mrs. Middlethorpe. Mrs. Elinor Johnson told the chapter of relief work done by the local Red Cross, 273 pairs of shoes had been bought and given to school children in this county, to enable them to attend school, and had also aided in hot lunches and emergency work.

Mrs. Johnson reported having purchased the other two volumes of Dr. Freeman's Biography of Lee, with money given her by the chapter. The Memorial Society presented the library with the first two volumes. Mrs. Weedon was directed to write letters of sympathy to Mrs. Ransdell and Mrs. Jameson. Mrs. Lucy Washington presented the chapter with a lovely silk U. S. flag. Mrs. Lomas stated all the Virginia objectives for the year had been met by the chapter.

A message from Senator Rust was brought to the chapter to the effect that funds were available with which to place a marker at the entrance of the battlefield, and wished the chapter to suggest an inscription. This was turned over to Mrs. Newman, Mrs. Marsteller and Mrs. Hibbs, the historical committee.

A letter to Mrs. Lomas from Mrs. Hutchison, chairman of the 4th District, was read, inviting the chapter to attend the district meeting at Fairfax May 16 and 17.

Miss Florence Lyon gave some interesting reminiscences of Woodrow Wilson. Mrs. Newman, in the historical hour, asked questions about Lanier, Davis, and Lee. Mrs. Dowell read Garden Week in Virginia by Eva Noble during which "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" was most effectively sung by Mrs. Norvell Larkin.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Margaret Law and Mrs. Phillips, after which the members wended their way homeward, to meet in May with Mesdames Thornton, Hibbs and Dowell.

JAMESTOWN 4-H SHORT COURSE AUGUST 12 TO 17

Plans were made for the annual northern Virginia 4-H short course at a meeting of the participating home and farm agents at Culpeper Monday. It will be held at Jamestown during the week of August 12.

It was decided to offer courses in insect control, handwork, nature study, gardening, dairying, poultry, good seed, life saving and engineering.

Counties represented at the meeting Monday were Warren, Page, Orange, Prince William, Greene, Culpeper and Madison.

With the other counties that may join in with the northern Virginia group, it is anticipated that approximately 200 club members will attend the short course. The usual trips to Jamestown Island, Williamsburg and Yorktown were included in the program for the week. Prince William has led all counties in the number attending this camp for the past three years and present indications are that this summer's enrollment will be larger than that of last year when more than fifty went from the county.

ALL SCHOOL BIDS OUT OF REACH

Figures Range Up to $30,000 over Estimates.

The entire school board sat down yesterday with the expectation of awarding a bid for the new Haymarket High School. Upon the opening of the bids, however, it was evident that this could not be done, certainly not at once.

A committee composed of Chairman D. J. Arrington, Mrs. Piercy, Mr. Lloyd and Mr. Haydon will take the low bid under immediate consideration and try to work out a plan by which construction may advance in the near future.

The plans call for an auditorium and nine class rooms. Just whether this will be adhered to is a matter of conjecture at the present.

The high bid was submitted by the Hill Company, of Alexandria, Va., which amounted to $70,480. The low bidder was the C. E. Nuckols Company, of Richmond, at $58,600. Other low bids were Wood Construction Company, of Roanoke, $58,790 and J. H. Bennett Company, of Richmond, $60,000. There were 7 bids in all.

KIWANISANS FAVOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Kiwanis Club held a rather uneventful meeting last Friday night the main decision being with regard to Ladies' Night which has been designated for April 12. Later this was found to conflict with the high school play and may be set forward to April 11.

Dick Haydon, chairman of the vocational guidance committee, gave a very interesting talk concerning the preparatory courses at the high school and the work being done by the graduates both at home and abroad.

The subject matter of his talk brought about considerable interest in the discussion much of which was directed at the proposed meeting called by Mayor Davis this past Tuesday night of a formation of a Chamber of Commerce.

Since you, dear Father, went away. Sometimes now it almost seems You'll come at the close of the day.

Not by the tears at the open grave Can you judge the broken heart; True grief struggles to be brave While carrying on life's part.

We have not forgot you, Father dear; Your loving care of the past Will ever live within our hearts While life and memory last.

ADVERTISE IN THIS NEWSPAPER

CATHARPIN

The Board of Trustees of the Sudley Cemetery Association met at Ben Lomond on Wednesday of last week and completed a permanent organization by electing J. D. Wheeler president, C. C. Lynn vice-president, Chas. R. McDonald secretary-treasurer, and L. J. Pattie superintendent and property custodian. It was also decided to erect section and lot markers for perfect identification and to improve the cemetery property generally.

The Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Sapp dined with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. McDonald on Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Only and daughters of Washington and Mrs. C. F. Feuchsel and son of Modest Town, Va., were Oakwood guests on Sunday last.

Mr. W. S. Brower shipped two truck loads of fat cattle on Monday morning of this week from his feed lot and still there are more to follow. This mode of shipment is another change that "time hath wrought" during the past quarter century. Just a short time ago Gainesville was a noted shipping point for livestock on the Southern R. R. but since the advent of the truck this has greatly changed. We well remember on shipping days it was almost impossible to get near the station on account of droves of cattle, sheep, hogs, etc., "standing by" waiting an opportunity to be weighed and loaded.

It seemed a little like old times last week when Messrs. E. R. Conner and R. H. Florence came driving in and asked a question which, some years ago, was very familiar, but of late was almost unknown: "Are your cattle ready for market?" Well, it was with some little pride that we chaperoned them to the feed lot where they looked the herd all over, commented on this one, and then on that one, until all had been thoroughly diagnosed; and, if we are any judge in such matters, would have to admit that they were mighty good diagnoses. After giving us some good advice as to how to feed them for another fortnight or two, they departed to look over some other herds in the neighborhood.

As things seem to be opening up in the livestock business, one can hardly help harking back to the days when livestock buyers were almost a nuisance because they were so numerous.

They came riding up on horseback, nearly all wearing great, black, high-crowned, four-gallon hats, so that one could spot them a mile away. These men were the farmer's sole outlet for whatever he had to sell especially in the livestock line. But now all that has changed. The big hat has been reduced to a skull cap, and old Dobbin has been replaced by a "V-Eight" so instead of taking days to look over the community it is now done in a few hours and fortunes made or lost in less time than it used to take the buyer to get his dinner and horse fed.

But things will change and the old saying that "One man's meat is another man's poison" seems destined to ever obtain. Our city "cousins" are now complaining about the high cost of living; how meat has gone sky-high and the price of eggs more than they have been for a long time, and how this, that and the other have gotten so "uppish" that they can not reach them. Some condemn the Administration for boosting prices and shortening hours so that life has become unbearable for the salaried man by raising his rents, fuel costs, light and water supplies, all, he says, have gone sky-high since the advance. Well, that's one side of the equation we country Jakes know nothing about. When an advance in prices of farm products is announced we are happy; the cityite is depressed. We have no rent to pay, pump our own water, cut our own wood, fill our lamps with coal oil or go to bed in the dark if the can is empty; and a thousand and one other things in the course of a year that costs the city dweller many dollars which we never hear tell of. So there you are. Now "count your blessings."

Trying to get all men to see alike is a problem never to be solved. The rich man and the beggar can never view things from the same angle; neither can a drunk man and a sober man agree on a temperance policy. A farmer and a "white collar" man have very different conceptions of a manure pile; and a great yawning gulf lies between the educated and the ignorant. So there you are again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Alvey were Washington shoppers on Friday of last week.

Mr. Charles Hall was given a happy birthday reception at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ellsworth Senseney, on Sunday last when a number of neighboring school friends were invited to partake of a delicious dinner served in honor of the young man's 16th birthday. A happy time was experienced by all.

Since the "uppishness" in the hog market gives promise of better times in that industry, some of our progressive farmers have conceived the idea of feeding large herds and are making preparations to try it out. Mr. W. Holmes Robertson has recently purchased a fine new V-8 garbage transport which, with its bright, red "riding hood" and its long, black, protruding garbage body surely looks "sporty" as it hikes up and down the highway. This section is noted for its broad acres and its wide open spaces so that odors which offended the astute smelling apparatuses of the city dweller will not obtain to any great extent out here. May success crown their efforts.

INDEPENDENT HILL

Though it has been a long time since you have heard from us, we are yet on the map. We do feel as though we are mud bound sometimes but we manage to climb over and here we are again.

We are indeed sorry to hear of Mrs. E. L. Herring being very sick. We do hope her a speedy recovery and that she will soon be back to her post of duty.

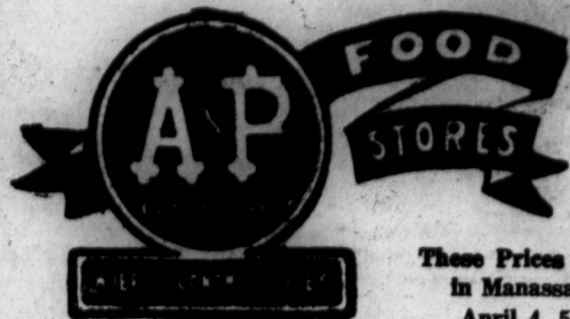

There will be a health program at the O. F. A. Hall, Thursday evening, 7 o'clock, April 4.

The Adult Elementary Education class which was organized at Independent Hill January 3 is going full force despite the bad roads and sickness. New members are continually coming in and we are glad to see so much interest and enthusiasm shown. These schools are proving to be a benefit and great help to many, in that it is teaching some to read and write, thus making the way clear for better citizenship and by so doing; good citizens make better communities.

I also wish to take this opportunity to thank Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Herring for their hospitality and kindness shown us during the cold weather by throwing open their doors and inviting us to have the classes in their home. I feel sure that each one enjoyed the comforts of home by their fireside and we are very grateful to them for their co-operation.

The class now meets in the O.F.A. Hall on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights from 7 to 9:30. Visitors are welcomed.

CHERRY FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHERRY
The Manassas Journal
 BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

THE RICHEST FRUITAGE:
 The fruit of the Spirit in love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance! against such there is no law. — Galatians 5: 22, 23.

THE GRACE OF FORGETTING

Forgetting is often a misfortune and more often an inconvenience, but it is also a blessed and healing grace. What is remembered lives—even when it ought to die. "Forget the offence," said Marcus Aurelius, "and you will forget the offender. Forget the offender and the offence ceases to be." Too many of us drag down the lengthening years some chain of bitter, brooding memories which do no good and much harm. The nations today are arming themselves for their future destruction because they will not forget. The world needs an absolute of forgetting. We can never truly forgive unless we forget. Why let memory keep alive lod fires of enmity, or chain us to a vanished past? "The glory of life," says St. Paul, "is to forget old failure—and go on."

Prayer: Grant unto us, God of forgiving mercy, who promised no longer to remember even the sins of which we have repented, the grace of forgetting. Forgive us the old enmities we cherish and the old sorrows in whose shadows we linger. Cleanse our memories of yesterday's shadows and turn our faces toward tomorrow's light. Amen.

Prepared by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

The Editor of The Manassas Journal, Manassas, Virginia.

Dear Sir:

You published a statement in the Catharpin items last week that Mr. dent of Catharpin neighborhood, has William Hoffman, formerly a resident in the Capitol City for a number of years as a motorman on the street car, which is wrong, as I am an employee of the Railway Express Agency Inc. and never was a motorman on the street car.

Please correct this mistake.

Very truly yours,

The Manassas Journal

Manassas, Va.

Dear Sir:

I was real glad to get a copy of your paper last night. It made me feel at home. I think I have read everything in it. I am glad to note some evidences of progress and a stirring activity in the town and county. For instance, the organization of a band. For a time this band will be only a group of "noise makers" but that need not discourage them. For a noise is the first thing we make when we come into the world. We wish this band of young men great success in the way of putting Manassas on the map.

As I write from a second-story room this morning the thermometer is 70, with a gentle sea breeze blowing. I am only 2 blocks from the beach and I visit it daily. As I look out on the ocean, at high tide, I am very forcibly reminded of the 11th verse of Job 38, which says, "And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further; and here shall thy proud waves be stayed." The ocean is a wonderfully attractive creation to me, with its ever restless waves constantly lashing the shores. The people here seem to enjoy its constant call to don their bathing suits and meet its waves and afterwards to take their sunbaths on the beautiful sands. Daytona Beach is divided by the large Halifax River. The business section is confined to one side and also many residences, but apparently the territory between the Halifax River and the ocean is mostly a residential section. Between the sea and the river is a higher point of land running from where the river empties in the ocean 14 miles below Daytona Beach and runs up the river for about 27 miles. This strip of land over the 27 miles will average about 3-4 of a mile wide.

From the inlet up beyond Ormond this peninsula is dotted by beautiful homes overlooking the ocean. These homes have been built by the wealthy from colder latitudes and are so artistically laid out and built in such wonderful variety of architecture and the grounds prepared by efficient landscape gardeners, with a wonderful display of rare flowers. Every foot of this 27 miles is a beauty spot. John D. Rockefeller lives at Ormond. It would seem that this territory between the ocean and Halifax River was specially created to be made into a garden of beauty—for that is just what it is.

I miss more than any one thing, the meeting of the Men's Class at the Baptist Church on Sunday morning. It seems odd not to be with these friends and this class which I attempted to teach for 11 years, but I go to Sunday school and church every Sunday, but I go with son who is a Presbyterian and is teacher of the Men's Bible Class of his church. It is refreshing to think that he is a better teacher after only 2 or 3 months than his father, after 11 years experience. That, however, is the law of progress, for if our children are not an improvement over their parents, they have made little headway.

I note some Virginia people writing back home have wonderful tales to write about the warm weather. I have not found it unpleasantly warm for as yet I have not changed from winter to summer clothes. The Atlanta Baseball Team is training here. The ball ground is a very picturesque park on an island right in the heart of the city. They have a game here next Saturday with one of the big league clubs. No fish tales yet to write about. If I stay here long enough, I, too, may lose my veracity and write about some imaginary fishing fete. Until then "So long till tomorrow."

Yours truly,

THOS. H. COBB.

Dr. M. Milton Talkin, eye specialist, will be in Manassas on Monday, April 8.

MYSTERY THRILL IN ACTION
FILM BY ZANE GREY

The new Zane Grey adventure picture, "Rocky Mountain Mystery," produced by Paramount and coming to the Dixie Theatre in Manassas tomorrow, is a blend of the famous Grey, rip-roaring outdoor action with the added element of a gripping murder mystery.

Adapted from Zane Grey's "Golden Dreams," "Rocky Mountain Mystery" features Randolph Scott and Ann Sheridan in the romantic leads and a supporting cast that includes such well-known actors as Charles "Chic" Sale and Mrs. Leslie Carter, who makes her debut in this film.

The action of "Rocky Mountain Mystery" is set in a deserted mining town in the West where an aged recluse has summoned his family to distribute his wealth before he dies. Sole owner of a fabulously wealthy radium mine, he hires Randolph Scott, a mining engineer, to start operations.

Charles Barton, director of Paramount's "Wagon Wheels," was responsible for the direction of "Rocky Mountain Mystery." Kathleen Burke and George Marion, Jr., are featured in the supporting cast.

IT PAYS*GENERAL MOTORS TO FEATURE SHOW

The spring showing of General Motors products, a story of the year's progress in automobile engineering as written by the Corporation in terms of improved transportation, will open at 7:30 on the night of Saturday, April 6, in the Washington Auditorium at 19th and New York avenues.

The Washington showing is the first of a nation-wide exhibit in the most important cities in the United States. The local display will run one full week, starting April 6 and continuing through April 13, and will be open daily from 10:30 in the morning until 10:30 at night. There will be no admission charge.

More than four-million persons attended a similar General Motors exhibition in one week's simultaneous showing in sixty-one cities in June of last year. How well the 1934 show challenged interest is attested by sales figures showing a 42 per cent increase in sales of cars and trucks over a similar showing of products in 1932.

The 1935 show for General Motors will be introduced with appropriate ceremonies now being arranged by a general show committee headed by A. C. Tiedemann, jr., Washington manager for the Pontiac Corporation, as general manager; McCleod Maurice, district manager for the General Motors Acceptance Corporation, will be assistant general chairman. Working with them to make the Washington show an outstanding success are the following sub-committees:

F. D. Akers, president of the Capital Cadillac Company, assisted by W. A. Kolb and W. J. Haskett is in charge of the committee on products, decorations and buildings.

The entertainment committee, which even at this early date has made unusually successful arrangements is headed by P. W. Budworth, assistant general manager of the Frigidaire Corporation. Working with him is M. C. Gibson.

J. B. Woodside, chairman of the publicity committee, has W. A. Rogers and F. S. Pohanka helping him. Mr. Woodside is the manager for the General Motors Fleet Sales Corporation.

The prizes which are to be awarded to those attending the Washington showing are the charge of F. A. Palmer, president of L. P. Stewart, Inc. H. H. Smith is assisting Mr. Palmer.

The exhibit sales managership is in the hands of W. T. Agee, manager of the Olds Motor Works. Aiding Mr. Agee are K. S. Rufe, M. C. Nourse, J. H. Powell and W. A. Kolb.

L. W. Kolb is chairman of the committee in charge of all the General Motors dealers. E. L. Yates and William Emerson are helping Mr. Kiefer.

Decorators are at work on interior settings to match the completeness of the exhibit. Yellow Venetian blinds, flanked by orchid drapes and backed with green velvet, will screen the walls of the show building, with the name of each exhibit lettered in deep orchid on the blinds. The spring flavor of the scene will be accented by white dogwood, giant palms and sprays of yellow wisteria.

As an illuminated centerpiece, the show will have a revolving, hexagonal twelve-foot cylinder with panels bearing the name and car emblems of the General Motors Division and the familiar slogan, "Body by Fisher."

The cars shown will represent the last word in General Motors design. Pontiac's new de-luxe and standard sixes, and the more powerful and improved straight eight, acclaimed the "most beautiful thing on wheels" will be prominently displayed, as will also the new master de-luxe and standard models of Chevrolet which sold 534,906 passenger cars and 157,512 trucks in 1934 to lead the entire industry in sales for the fourth successive year. And standard sixes, and the more powerful and improved straight eight, acclaimed the "most beautiful thing on wheels" will be prominently displayed. The sweeping lines of the roomier new Oldsmobile, "the car that has everything" will be shown in both the six and eight, and the new master de-luxe and standard models of Chevrolet, which sold 534,906 passenger cars and 157,512 trucks in 1934 to lead the entire industry in sales for the fourth successive year.

Although emphasis is to be placed on automobiles, household products of General Motors will compete for the visitors' attention. Besides refrigerating units and water coolers, Frigidaire will exhibit the newest fashions in air conditioning, and there will also be shown United Motors Service Accessories and Delco Corporation Appliances, such as vacuum cleaners, electric fans and water systems, and Delco heating and lighting plants for farm homes.

Relief clients, who have the facilities for subsistence gardens but refuse to accept the responsibility of planting and cultivating them, are relief rolls, according to a ruling of threatened with expulsion from the State Relief Administrator William A. Smith.

Expulsion, however, is to be restored to only as the last recourse and not until every means of persuading the client to co-operate has been exhausted.

In a bulletin sent out last week to all administrators of the VERA, he suggested that efforts on the part of the local advisory committees might serve to bring a recalcitrant relief client into line.

Should such methods fail, however, and no valid excuse be offered for failure to tend a garden, he instructed that such clients' names might be stricken from the rolls.

OCCOQUAN GRAYS ENTER
"OLD DOMINION LEAGUE"

The "Occoquan Grays," led by Mr. Charles Marshall, have been entered in the newly-organized "Old Dominion League" of northern Virginia. The league is composed of the following teams: Virginia White Sox, Park Lane A. C., Clarendon Business Men's Association, Forestville, Clarendon Cardinals, Franconia, Clarendon A. C., Fort Hunt Rangers and McLean, each of whom will be played twice by the Grays.

The record of the Grays last year was ten wins and two losses, and they hope to do as well this season. A game is scheduled with the strong Mt. Vernon Independents on the latter's diamond, for Sunday, April 14. League play will begin on April 28.

The Grays will put practically the same team on the field as they had last year, and can promise the public a good ball game.

They will play their home games on their new diamond near the Occoquan District High School.

A benefit dance will be given by the team on Friday, April 12 in the Odd Fellows Hall at Occoquan.

FAVORITE PLAYERS SUPPORT STEELE

Sharing dramatic honors with Bob Steele, star of the thrill Western, "A Demon For Trouble," are Gloria Shea, the dainty little lady who fills the role of Lita, Bob's sweetheart; and Don Alvarado, playing the part of Gallindo, the Mexican bandit, both of whom won golden tributes from the newspaper critics for their notable performances. As a matter of fact, the supporting cast is unusually rich in talent, for Director Bob Hill believes firmly that nothing ruins a picture like surrounding a star with mediocre colleagues.

Hence the fine quality of the other players who helped to put this unique Western over, as any movie fan will admit who sees in the roster of names the following favorites: Nick Stuart, Walter McGrail, Carmen LaRoux, Lafe McGee, Perry Murdock, Blackie Whiteford and Jimmy Aubrey.

POWER ZONE

V-8 POWER

With the introduction of the 8-cylinder, V-type engine, Ford brought a new standard of performance to the low-priced field.

COMFORT ZONE

Comfort Zone Riding

Gives the ease, smoothness and comfort of a "front seat ride" even to back seat passengers—an important engineering advance.

ECONOMY ZONE

FORD ECONOMY

The 1935 Ford V-8 gives you the most economical car to operate Ford has ever built.

Why take less?

FORD has always aimed to make the automobile-buying dollar go as far as possible.

This was illustrated when Ford brought the V-8 engine to the low-priced field—without increasing operating cost.

This year, the 1935 Ford V-8 gives you traditional Ford low prices, traditional Ford operating economy—and, in addition, riding comfort, body roominess, new beauty and new safety features that will satisfy the requirements of almost everyone.

Consider some of the major improvements in the Ford V-8 for 1935. Take comfort: From this standpoint alone, what a completely rounded car this is! Comfort Zone Riding (explained at right) that gives "front seat comfort" even to rear seat passengers. Deep cushioned, high-backed, wider seats. Big, air-balloon tires. Easier steering and a clutch that responds to the touch of your foot. Consider safety: There's safety glass all around—on all models—at no additional cost. A new, welded all-steel body that's insulated with sound-deadening material. New, more powerful brakes, with an unusually high ratio of braking surface to car weight. And a lower center of gravity that gives increased safety and stability on curves!

Why be satisfied to receive less than this for your money?

Examine this new 1935 Ford V-8. Ride in it. You'll realize that it is not only a new Ford V-8 car—but a new automobile value.

FORD V-8
FOR 1935

Note how the springs of the new Ford V-8 are placed out beyond the front and rear axles and serve only to cushion the load. They provide a long springbase for riding ease, and retain the 112-inch wheelbase for handling ease. Both front and rear seats are cradled between the springs—enabling all passengers to ride in the Comfort Zone.
