POPPY DAY HERE AS ANNUAL EVENT

Prince William Post to Award Prize.

Prince William Post 158 will again hold its annual county-wide "Poppy Day" on May 25.

General Chairman Margaret Lynch, adjutant, Prince William Post 158, has an able committee appointed throughout the county to help in the county-wide sale of poppies.

The active committee is as follows: Mrs. Cleveland Payne, Haymarket; Mrs. John R. Sweeney, Jr., Gainesville; Mrs. Charles R. McDonald, Catharpin; Mrs. Ernest Spittler, Nokesville; Mrs. Fred Lynn, Occoquan; Mrs. E. L. Herring, Independent Hill, and Mrs. James Payne, Centerville.

Chairman Margaret Lynch and Mesdames John Hynson, Stuart McBryde, Howard Jamison, Stewart Pattie, Edgar Parrish, and H. E. Pickeral, Manassas.

Each one of these ladies sponsors two young ladies to sell poppies in their respective communities. This year the Post is awarding a very attractive prize to the young lady selling the most poppies.

As this is entirely a benefit drive to help the disabled veterans, every loyal citizen of Manassas and Prince William County is requested to buy a poppy and help a worthy cause.

DR. EZEKIEL TO ADDRESS PR. WILLIAM WHEAT GROWERS

In the nation-wide referendum on May 25, Prince William growers will vote on whether they favor continuing wheat production control measures under the Agricultural Adjustment Act after 1935.

The initial adjustment contracts between wheat growers and the Secretary of Agriculture, signed in 1933, expire with the close of the crop year 1935.

Like the 1933-35 program, the plan now under discussion would be based upon voluntary contracts signed by farmers, in which they would agree to adjust their wheat acreage to meet consumption needs in this country and possible export outlets during the crop years 1936, 1937, and 1938.

Dr. Mordeacci, Ezekiel, economic advisor to the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and W. H. Byrnes, extension agronomist, V.P.I., will address Prince William wheat growers at the Manassas Town Hall, Thursday evening, May 16, at 7:45 o'clock, on the present wheat situation and the plan proposed for the future. Dr. Ezekiel's familiarity with the foreign situation should make his address especially interesting.

GERIS-MAYHUGH

Two families long identified with this section of Virginia (Bristow, Va.) were united May 8 when Miss Alice Grace Mayhugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Mayhugh, became the bride of Thomas Lee Geris, son of Joseph and the late Mrs. Amanda Geris.

The pretty, young bride looked unusually attractive, robed and veiled in white. She wore her grandmother's wedding gown. Miss Thelma Mayhugh was the bridesmaid and Andrew Breen attended the groom as best man.

The nuptial mass, celebrated by Father John C. Ryan, pastor of All Saints' Church, Manassas, assisted by Father John Smith, O.S.B., was in St. Joseph's Church adjoining the Benedictine Novitiate, in which edifice the bride was received into the Catholic fold a few years since, by Father John.

A beautiful feature of the service was the music of the mass rendered by the Benedictine Sisters with Sister Helen at the organ.

ADEN WOMEN TO MEET

The May meeting of the Aden Home Demonstration group will be held on Wednesday, May 22, at 1:30 o'clock, in the library of the school building. The topic for study is "Linen for the Dining Room."

All women of the community are invited to come and to bring a handmade article; also work basket.

MRS. FOSTER TO ENTER TAIN GREENWICH WOMEN

The Greenwich Home Demonstration group will meet on Thursday, May 23, at 1:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Doc Foster. Mrs. John Ellis and Mrs. Raymond Ellis will have charge of the demonstration of "Cushions and Slip Covers."

All women of the community are cordially invited to attend.

HAYMARKET FLOWER SHOW, WEDNESDAY, MAY 22

Plans for the fourth annual flower show of the Haymarket Woman's Club were completed at the last meeting, when it was decided to hold the show in the Parish Hall instead of the club rooms.

The show has grown in popularity and has outgrown the club rooms, and this decided the club in changing the place of the show.

There will be classes of: iris, peonies, roses and garden flowers. Also table arrangements, baskets and miniature gardens. Mrs. J. N. Kerr and Mrs. Charles Allen are in charge. There are no entry or admission charges.

The judging will be in the morning and the show will be open to visitors at 2 p.m.

Light refreshments will be served during the afternoon, and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

BETHLEHEM CLUB CELEBRATION

Mother's Day Observed at Home of Mrs. Hutchison.

The hospitable home of Mrs. Robt. A. Hutchison was the scene of an interesting gathering when members of the Bethlehem Club were greeted by Mrs. Hutchison and her assistant, Mrs. E. M. Boteler, on Wednesday afternoon, May 15.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. R. L. Sadd, who is sojourning in New York, the vice-president, Mrs. M. E. Hart, presided. A call for meeting to come to order at 2:30 o'clock was followed by opening prayer, reading of minutes and roll call. A variety of verse and prose was contributed in response to names called. A well-known writer, Nancy Byrd Turner, was represented in a short poem "Legacy" which appears in her latest book "Star In a Well."

Reports from civic and education committees were given by Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson. Mrs. Johnson stated that a much needed encyclopedia had been purchased for the library for use in the school.

A subscription to the Southern magazine was adopted. By request of Mrs. R. L. Byrd, the subscription will be forwarded through the Manassas Chapter, U. D. C.

An invitation to attend memorial exercises on June 3 was extended to the assembly by Mrs. R. A. Hutchison. Mrs. Emily Round proposed the name of Mrs. E. D. Wissler for new member. An entertaining program typical of Mother's Day was presented by Mrs. Maud Kincheloe and Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson. The numbers throughout were impressive and full of pathos, appealing to the tender emotions of those who were privileged to be present. The first number was a reading "Mother of an Angel Speaks" by Mrs. Frank Gue, Jr., followed by Mrs. Thomas Broadus in voice, "Mother McCrae" accompanied by Miss Florence Kincheloe at the piano. Mrs. L. L. Lomas selected for her topic the supreme Mother, Mary, mother of Jesus, reading from the nineteenth chapter of St. John beginning with the twenty-fifth verse. Mrs. Lomas read from noted writers as an emphasis on this glorious subject. Her talk was concluded by reading from Edgar Guest's "Let Every Day Be Mother's Day." The program closed by a song "When Mother Prays" very sweetly rendered by Mrs. Broadus.

A meeting full of enthusiasm and harmony came to a close. The social hour was happily spent while the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth Wine and little Miss Mary Louise Wine, served a delectable salad course.

Among the guests were Mrs. C. B. Jones, Mrs. W. M. Compton, Mrs. L. L. Lomas, Mrs. G. O. Wood and Mrs. E. D. Wissler. Other club members were Mrs. B. F. Knox, Mrs. W. M. Johnson, Mrs. Lucy D. Washington, Mrs. Percival Lewis, Mrs. Nanie Middlethorn and Mrs. W. S. Athey.

SEEKFOR WOLFE

Saturday evening, May 11, at 6 o'clock, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Barrett, near Manassas, Va., Miss Gladys Wolfe and Mr. Elmo Seekford were united in marriage by Rev. C. B. Jones of Manassas.

Miss Wolfe was the daughter of Mrs. Effie Wolfe of Mt. Jackson, Va., and sister of Mrs. John Barrett.

The home was very prettily decorated in spring flowers of white and green. The bride was dressed in dark blue with hat to match. Mrs. Barrett, assisted by Mrs. Lewis, served a very dainty lunch, after which the young married couple left for a short honeymoon.

Macs Defeat Middleburg, Winner of Last Year's Championship, By Score of 6 to 3

Timely Hitting, Coupled with Visitors' Poor Defensive Play, Enables Macs to Score Second Win.

Middleburg, winner of last year's title, barged into town Sunday; remained champions for exactly four and one-half innings and then folded up to absorb their second consecutive beating of the current campaign. Furr held the local sluggers in check for the most part, limiting them to a pair of singles over the first three innings but his defense crumbled around him in the fourth and fifth, enabling the Macs, with the aid of some timely blows, to push across all of their runs.

Middleburg bunched a pair of hits in each of the first, third and fourth innings and each time scored a single run. Downs opened the game by lining Dreifus' first pitch into center for a single, was sacrificed to second, reached third on an infield out and scored on James' triple to deep right field. They added another in the third on hits by Downs and Furr, a sacrifice and a wild pitch, while a single, a stolen base and a double by Murphy accounted for their third and last run in the fourth. Thereafter Dreifus pitched excellent ball, getting into difficulty only in the sixth when the visitors lifted the bases with one yone out. Godfrey, however, gathered in both Furr's and Downs' high infield flies to end the threat.

Manassas broke into the run column in the fourth, Middleburg in the meantime having amassed a three-run lead. Godfrey opened the inning by beating out a bunt and on an attempted sacrifice Waddell dropped Furr's throw and both runners were safe. Furr then hit Brenner to fill the bases. Godfrey raced home following Saunders' fly to right and Vetter followed him with the second run when the throw to the plate bounded past James. They added four more in the following inning which Buckner opened with a double.

CONFEDERATE DAY ANNOUNCED

Veterans' Memorial Day will be observed June 3. A splendid program is being arranged, including ex-Governor Charles A. Brough of Arkansas, who will be the main speaker for the occasion.

A full program will appear next week. The exercises will be held in the Manassas High School auditorium at 3 p.m.

MARVIN GILLUM AND MOLLY LEACHMAN STAR IN 'BOY BLUE'

The Bennett School operetta, "Boy Blue" in which Marvin Gillum and Molly Leachman take the leading parts, will be presented at the Manassas High School auditorium Friday night, May 17.

The cast is made up entirely of graded school children and the story of the operetta is very interesting.

Between acts the primary rhythm band will render several selections and the scout brownies will sing Bhram's "Lullaby."

The public is cordially invited to attend this well-directed and entertaining operetta.

FORD COMPANY HAS SPECIAL EXHIBIT

The Prince William Motors, authorized Ford dealers in the Manassas area, are staging an unusual open-air display of Ford products, especially the latest model of passenger cars.

Mr. Hughes, of the Prince William Motors, states that every effort has been made to create an attractive setting for this display. He desires every reader of The Journal to call some time this week during the hours specified at which times trained factory representatives and demonstrators will be on hand at all times to answer any and all questions.

This exhibit will contain more specifically such unusual features as cut-away chassis, cut-away bodies, etc. These displays show the innermost workings of the car and have been made available to the public through the activities of boys in the Henry Ford Trade School at Dearborn, Mich.

It is anticipated that many hundreds will visit the show lot this week and avail themselves of the privilege of close contact with the manner in which Ford cars are built.

STUDENT RECITAL

Mrs. Beatrice L. Leachman will present her pupils in a recital Saturday evening, May 18, at 8 p.m., at the Parish Hall. The public is cordially invited.

Dreifus fled out to deep left but Woodward lined a single to center scoring Buckner and reached second on the throw to the plate. Frame tossed out Lynn but Godfrey came through with his second hit, a double over the rightfielder's head to score Woodward and place the home team out in front. Godfrey scored all the way from second when Furr and Mankins ran together going after Vetter's pop fly. Vetter then stole second and scored on Brenner's single to center.

Next Sunday the local team engages the Herndon nine on the Herndon field.

MANASSAS HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Last Saturday five delegates from the high school attended the Student Government Convention held at Roanoke. A state-wide association was formed there with Miss Esther Akers of Manassas as secretary.

The senior civics class paid a recent visit to Washington to see Congress in session and were much elated at hearing Senator Harrison and Senator Huey Long discoursing and tilting on the Harrison Compromise Bonus Measure. A few days later, the second year history class went on a Washington trip to the Smithsonian, the Corcoran Art Gallery and the Congressional and Folger Shakespearean Libraries.

On Friday night, May 3, the County Spelling match, sponsored by the "Washington Post," was held at the high school with seventh grade and first year high school pupils in the contest. Shirley Hynson of Manassas won first place with Eloise Frederick of Nokesville second and Herbert Burke of Manassas third.

On Tuesday, May 7, Miss Speiden's music class presented a charming musical program in honor of the observance of National Music Week.

The week's activities closed Saturday night with a very enjoyable party of games and refreshments given to the school athletic teams by the High School Senior League.

4-H CLUB PARTY AT GREENWICH

Miss Dorothy Snedegar will have charge of recreation at the 4-H Club party at Greenwich on Wednesday, May 22, to which the young people of the community are invited. The program will be held at the school building beginning at 8 o'clock.

FUTURE FARMERS TO DISPLAY HANDICRAFT

The Future Farmers of the Manassas High School will display many phases of their work on Wednesday, May 22, in the Agriculture Building. Articles made in the shop will be on exhibit and class activities will be portrayed. The Agriculture building will be open from 4 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:30 to 10:00 o'clock in the evening.

It is felt, by those observing the work of these young men, that they are presenting many features which will be of interest to the general public. Parents of the boys are especially urged to visit the display in order that they may become better acquainted with the work being done in this department of the school. Refreshments will be served and Future Farmers will be present to assist the guests.

BATTLE PARK PLANS PROGRESSING

The latest advices from Richmond indicate that Mr. Hall is making a strenuous effort to give Prince William County and Western Fairfax a National Park. Coincident with this announcement is the meeting of the Fourth District U.D.C. tonight at which time Senator Rust, who has long been at the head of the Battle Park Association, may be expected to voice the sentiments of that group with regard to relinquishing their rights to the Federal Government.

The matter has progressed so far that it is stated that private property holders have already been approached and some have given options, the purpose being to include not only the Henry farm but all of the area on which the battle took place.

FLOWER EXHIBIT NEXT WEDNESDAY

Garden Section of Woman's Club Plans Stellar Display.

The annual flower show of the Garden Section of the Manassas Woman's Club will be held on Wednesday, May 22, in the Parish Hall, Manassas.

Programs and prize lists are in the hands of committees and section members. The exhibit is as usual open to all flower lovers who wish to exhibit and is not confined to members of the club. Due to the generosity and co-operation of local merchants and prominent seedsmen and nursery men, an unusually valuable and attractive lot of prizes are being offered. Forty-nine separate classes have been arranged for, with several new classes, among those being a class for best collection of blue flowers; one for potted plants, and another for a living-room decoration, arrangement. The class for old-fashioned bouquets, which has proved so popular, will be continued; this has proved a most attractive and artistic class in past shows, many exquisite beautiful entries being exhibited in this feature.

Junior flower lovers have not been overlooked as a special children's exhibit, with several classes having been arranged to take care of this phase. Valuable prizes are being offered in this class also.

The committee on judges is most fortunate in having obtained as judges Mrs. Amos Chilcott, of Fairfax Courthouse; Mrs. James Tayloe, of Vienna, and Mrs. D. B. Smith, of Alexandria.

As the judging will start promptly at 11:30 a.m., all exhibits must be in place by 11 a.m. A small fee will be charged each exhibitor, to defray necessary expenses, this fee also admitting the exhibitor to the show, which will be open to the public between the hours of 2 to 6. Every committee is actively at work in seeing that everything will be in readiness, and it is hoped that the public will reward their efforts to promote the cultivation and love of beautiful flowers by attending.

Mrs. Ayleene Guthrie is general chairman for the exhibit, and will be glad to furnish further information. Programs and prize lists may be obtained from Mrs. Eli Swavely, chairman of the program committee.

CLUB TO SPONSOR SCHOLARSHIP

Kiwanis Committee Raises Necessary Funds.

Walter Sadd demonstrated to the Kiwanis Club last Friday night that they had not degenerated into an eating club as Jim Bradford feared they had.

It seems that Walter thought up an idea all by himself relative to life-saving which is merely a furtherance of the addresses on the subject made by officials of the American Red Cross within the last six months.

In short Walter introduced the head of the Prince William Unit of the American Red Cross, Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, who cited the advantages to the county which would result if a life-saving scholarship be given to some one person at Annapolis in June, the idea being that this young person would in turn train others upon returning and build up a considerable knowledge of life-saving, particularly with reference to Lake Jackson which has become quite a water resort in the county.

In response to questions, Mrs. Lloyd made it plain to the club that the idea was all Walter's and that she was merely using her information to lighten the club members.

Upon the expressed desire of Frank Sigman, also a member of Walter's committee, and on motion made by Ray Ratcliffe, the club unanimously authorized the committee to use its own devices to secure sufficient pledges to guarantee the scholarship and to report the result of their efforts at the meeting tomorrow night.

O. O. Holler, president of the Prince William County Fish and Game Protective Association, will address the club tomorrow night on matters relating to sports of that nature in the county.

PROGRAMS AT BRENTSVILLE DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL

The quartet of Bridgewater College will present a program in the Brentsville District High School auditorium on Saturday, May 18, 8 p.m. This will consist of classical and spiritual songs, and of the present-day college hits and songs. A small admission will be charged.

On Tuesday, May 21, 8 p.m., an operetta entitled "Day Before Yesterday" will be presented in the B. D. H. S. auditorium by the school children directed by Mrs. Leachman. The themes of songs and dances are from following periods of history: Grecian, Medieval England, Colonization in the New World, Indian wars, Colonial days, War Between the States, and Present Day.

Come because this is an easy way to learn history and to enjoy it.

BRIDGEWATER MALE QUARTET TO GIVE PERFORMANCE

On Saturday night, May 18, 8:00, the Bridgewater male quartet will give a concert of secular music at the high school auditorium. No admission is charged but an offering will probably be lifted and everyone is urged to come and hear this famous quartet.

On Sunday morning, they will render programs of sacred music at Cannon Branch Church of the Brethren, 11:00; Sunday afternoon at Nokesville Church of the Brethren, and Sunday night at Oakton Church of the Brethren. The public is cordially invited to attend these concerts also.

YOUNG PEOPLES ANNIVERSARY

A one-act play entitled "I Count" will be given by the young people at the Aden U. B. Church Sunday night, May 19.

This play portrays the wholesome Christian adventure of missions and shows the personal missionary responsibility resting on each individual.

The characters are Dr. and Mrs. Fred Grant played by John Hively and Gladys May.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray, William Partlow and Anna Smith, Martha Murray, Gayle Bowman, John Murray, Claude Smith, Misses Letha, Lucille and Louise Foster of Nokesville and Miss Harriet Bozarth of Manassas will give several special selections of music.

GERTIE MCINTOSH

CATHARPIN

A matter of great interest to the farmers of Prince William as well as to those of the nation, is the vote to be taken on Saturday, May 25, to decide whether or not the farmers now engaged in the Wheat Reduction Program wish to continue same for another 4 years. Meetings will soon be announced for a full discussion of the program to be held in all parts of the county and all farmers, whether at present engaged or those wishing to engage are requested to attend. The Department of Agriculture is taking this method of learning the wishes of the people and desires that a 90 per cent vote be cast. If you have not already been advised as to time and place of your meeting, please inquire for it is coming soon.

Sudley came unto her own last Sunday morning when a large congregation had assembled to enjoy a Mother's Day program as rendered by the young people of the church. Mother's Day, Children's Day and Christmas can always be depended upon to fill the house to overflowing, and this was no exception. It was one of those occasions that reminds one of other days. The weather was perfect, bright, clear and comfortable; just the kind of a day to make one feel like shaking off those old, lathargic, no-account spells which creep in on us unawares during cold weather and muddy roads. One of the unfortunate things we experience is that when it begins to get cool our religious enthusiasm begins to get cool also; so it takes something like a Mother's Day to thaw things out again, and if we are any judge we would say that Sudley got pretty well warmed up for the summer's work and seems to have started off with a lot of "good intentions" anyway. It was one of those days that after the benediction had been pronounced, the people could not get themselves dismissed; they stood around, talked, visited and wondered who this one was and who that one was, for a number of strangers, as usual, were within the fold for the day. It reminded us a little of the Easter service in one of the Washington churches which we mentioned a few weeks ago. Some had not been there since last Mother's Day so we were wishing them a "Merry Christmas" lest we might not see them again for another year.

But even once a year is better than not attending at all. This non-attendance, however, while it may seem at times like indifference, may be anything but that. There are mothers who busy themselves each Sunday morning getting their children ready for Sunday school and looking after things which can not be ignored about the home, all to the end that the children be properly cared for; thus what might outwardly be called "Indifference" is, in reality, "Mother's sacrifice." No wonder is it that Mother's Day has such an appeal, for oft times the unknown mother is doing more than we think. Hence that profound feeling of respect and love when the name of MOTHER is mentioned.

Since this is the housewife's semi-annual house-cleaning season we saw a little squib in one of the magazines that seemed to cover the situation with all the particularity of an expert. It ran as follows: "A government check-up shows that 67 1-4 per cent of what is called house-cleaning consists in standing around and trying to decide whether the lounge wouldn't look better in the other corner over by the window?" Well, we hardly think 64 1-4 per cent is quite enough.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Onley and daughters of Washington were Sunday callers at Oakwood.

Mr. W. Holmes Robertson of Lawn Vale is improving the driveway to his home by treating it to a coat of gravel.

A government agent visited this community the first of the week looking up all empty houses for rehabilitation purposes. Very few were found, however, for which we are thankful. As a rule it seems that most of the rehabilitationists are what are known as non-desirables and of that class we have a plenty of our own, but we are not averse to doing our share of whatever is needful.

Our reportorial staff seems to have struck a lazy streak the past week which has surprised us very much, since we did not know we had any lazy people in our neighborhood. Nevertheless something has happened to clog the news channels. Perhaps something has gone wrong with the radio stations or the telegraph lines or something else, but we are Hope to have the trouble righted by sure it was not laziness, no indeed, next week.

BOTTOM RAIL ON TOP

A NOVEL OF THE OLD SOUTH

By H. J. Eckenrole

The story of Buck Musgrave, Southern gentleman, who devoted himself, before the Civil War, to the serious pursuits of life, particularly horse-racing, cock-fighting and hard drinking. The searing changes which the War brought to this son of the Old South, and his changed outlook in the Reconstruction period are presented with dramatic force.

The author is State Historian of Virginia. He knows and understands the people of whom he writes, and he treats of the Musgraves as well as the "poor whites" with honesty and vigor. The manners and customs of the time just before and after the Civil War are presented from a fresh viewpoint in this fine novel of the life, loves and adventures of Buck Musgrave, who betrayed his traditions, but found a renewed and finer life under a new code.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Word of God

It is a duty to read the Bible daily, and a privilege to read it in the company of others.

At parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a precious heritage to them in later years.

RIGHTEOUSNESS PAYS:
Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues without right. — Proverbs 16:8.

A SACRED DUTY

The passing of such an eminent figure in northern Prince William as Miss Lucy Berkeley can hardly be overlooked without comment.

Settled in the earliest times by English Cavaliers, the Bull Run section of Prince William has indeed been most fortunate in its history and antecedents.

The atmosphere of those old days has passed unbroken from generation to generation. It was here when the Indian used the Carolina road; it was here when Lafayette passed through on his memorable tour; it was here when Colonel Berkeley led forth the 8th Virginia.

It was from his hands that Miss Lucy grasped the burning torch and it is now for her loved associates to take it from her dying hands and hold high the faith of the long line of gentlefolk who have made Prince William fulfill the prophetic words of Captain John Smith, who touched its shores in the beginning of Virginia history.

TEACHERS' READING EXAMINATION

The teachers' reading course examination for renewal of certificates will be given at the office of the superintendent of schools Saturday, May 25, at 10 a.m.

Those desiring this examination are requested to get in touch with the superintendent's office, Manassas, Va., not later than Monday, May 20.

ALL NEW THRILLS WITH HUGE CIRCUS

With one hundred double-length, silver-hued railroad cars, bearing 1600 people, seven herds of elephants, 1009 menagerie animals and 700 horses, the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus will arrive in Washington May 20 and 21 for afternoon and night exhibitions.

The big top, seating 16,000 persons, covers seven rings and stages a huge hippodrome track and encircling grandstands, and is one of 31 great tents, among them the menageries, sheltering the world's largest traveling zoo. In its center this season will be seen Col. Tim McCoy's Indian Village, with Sioux, Crow, Shawnee and Arapahoe warriors encamped. Col. McCoy, the screen's most outstanding western star, will himself lead his congress of rough riders of the world in the main performances and in the wild west.

LUCY FONTAINE BERKELEY

On Tuesday, May 7, following a brief illness, Miss Lucy Fontaine Berkeley passed away suddenly at the home of her nephew, Richard Belches, in Washington. Broken in health from a long vigil in assisting in nursing her beloved brother, Thomas Lanier Berkeley, through an illness of many weeks, who died just two months before she followed him in death.

Seventy-seven years ago she was born at Evergreen near Waterfall and spent most of her life there. Its broad acres and palatial residence of mountain stone was a wedding gift to her father from his father on his marriage to Miss Mary Lawson Williams. Thirteen children were born to them of which Miss Lucy was the seventh child. Hers was a family of distinguished ancestry, culture and refinement, which the vicissitudes of life could not change.

Her father was Col. Edmund Berkeley, gallant leader of the 8th Va. Regiment C.S.A., honored and beloved in his community and noted for his generosity and kindness to those less fortunate than himself.

When the 8th Va. Regt. Chapter, U.D.C., was organized thirty-five years ago, how fittingly that Miss Lucy should be chosen as its president, in which capacity she so capably and lovingly served all through the years.

Pages could be written of the virtues of this lovely Christian gentlewoman. A life of devotion to her family, ever ready to bring comfort and cheer to the afflicted, to give what she could to the needy, always shedding a radiance that seemed a benediction to those in her presence, a lifelong member of St. Paul's Church at Haymarket. There she was laid to rest in the church cemetery, beside those she loved best in life. Many nieces and nephews with other relatives and friends attended the last rites, the exquisite floral tributes bearing testimony of their love and affection. Funeral service was conducted by her nephew, Rev. Alfred Berkeley, assisted by Rev. Carpenter, rector of the church. Pallbearers were Messrs. Bailey Tyler, L. B. Thomas, E. H. Hunt, W. R. Gossom, W. M. Jordan and R. B. Gossom.

The deceased is survived by three sisters, all residing in the far south, and one brother, Douglas Berkeley, a retired army officer of La Jolla, Calif.

For Those Who Remain—

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. Whatever is done must express all the reverence and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this, a further responsibility rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen, as far as lies within his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them. We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.

Church, South, for many years, and kept in touch with the work of the church tho' not able to be present at services.

The funeral was conducted at her home by Rev. W. P. Good and the body was laid to rest in the Valley View cemetery on May 8. TODAY'S roads accent your need for driving safety. Today's Ford V-8 accents your assurance of it. It is Ford tradition that your driving needs—not our costs, nor the moment's fads—shall build Ford cars.

Safety glass, for instance, is now standard in all Ford doors, windows, windshields—in every model, at no extra cost. Ford bodies are all-steel, welded. The Ford double-channel X-type frame is low, rigid, strong.

The new Ford brakes have greater surface per pound of car weight than comes in any other car today under $1095. And the Ford brake requires 1/3 less foot pressure this year.

Big 6.00 x 16 in. Air-balloon tires, the Ford transverse springs and Torque-tube Drive also guard your safety. They make for firm road-grip on turns or jiggly roads. There's clear-vision ventilation all around.

In a sense, the adjustable front seat and the extra room inside today's Ford V-8 serve a safety purpose, by preventing cramped positions. And the responsive Ford V-8 engine holds large reserves of power on instant call to draw you away from possible dangers.

There are other important accents in this newest Ford V-8—on comfort, beauty, thrift. Go see a Ford dealer. Get into the 1935 Ford V-8. Learn from the car itself what the car will do.
