Five Club Interclub Pilgrimage
Made Last Week.

The secret connected with Ed Hill's request to change the meeting date last week developed when Ed and a squad from four of the neighboring clubs drove in on Wednesday evening thirty minutes before the usual hour with the net results that only about one-third of the club was there to break bread with them and the program went in reverse so to speak.

Having already visited Washington, Alexandria and Clarendon, the weary pilgrims still had Prince George, Md., ahead of them.

Having first distributed some mysterious little pieces of glass, Ed started his program with the following words:

"Stars since time immemorial have guided mankind in his innumerable undertakings. Today, as in the early days, stars guide the traveler from port to port over the seven seas and across the desert wastes. From the stars in the heavens man calculates time and distance and if he reads his horoscope properly he may foresee his destiny on this earth and endeavor to fulfill it accordingly.

"Tonight my associates will view their horoscopes and present for your entertainment and edification a feature—'Seeing Stars.' The influence of stars on Kiwanis objectives is very real as has been brought out in the five-star programs of Kiwanis International.

"Now I present George P. Mangan, vice-president of the Washington Kiwanis Club."

Mr. Mangan (using red glass): "How bright the world looks; if you could view it as I do you would see the possibilities of continuous frivolity and fun. Fun should rule the universe. But wait, a change is taking place, so before it spoils the picture I yield to former President James B. Edmunds of Washington."

Mr. Edmunds (using green glass): "My horoscope tells me that fellowship continues to aid man in his undertakings. At weekly club meetings and at interclub meetings such as this, many enduring friendships are formed in Kiwanis. 'Friendships would rule the world if the nations would only meet in friendliness, so let there be more friendliness. With this thought I yield to Arthur C. Keefer, former president of the Prince Georges County, Maryland, Club."

Mr. Keefer (blue glass): "Frivolity and friendship are all right in their places, and both are necessary in Kiwanis, but my horoscope shows the need for greater interest in the objectives of our organization. Such interest will result in better attendance at club meetings and will encourage greater opportunities for extending Kiwanis service. With this thought I yield to former Governor of the Capital District, Harry G. Kimball, of Washington."

Mr. Kimball (amber glass): "Service is the object I see most prominently before my vision. Service to others is the principal foundation stone on which Kiwanis is built. It is this spirit of the Golden Rule that keeps up interest in Kiwanis and increases fellowship and makes possible the fun necessary to lighten the work of carrying on Kiwanis activities. Think that over as I yield to John F. Webster, past president of the Arlington County, Virginia, Club."

Mr. Webster (purple glass): "Boys and girls work is an activity that is ever before my vision. The more Kiwanis can do for the youth of North America the better its citizens will be. Here, on the eve of our Nation's birthday is an opportunity to expound the virtues of good citizenship, so I yield to former Lieutenant Governor Irving Diener of Alexandria."

Mr. Diener (clear glass): "What you gentlemen have had to say is all true, I grant you, but remember that your visions have ranged from rosy red to pale blue. What this country needs today is a clear vision and as I view my horoscope I see before me a constellation of stars, white stars on a background of blue enriched by alternate red and white bars.

"It is the vision of a flag, the symbol of home, of country, of liberty, of opportunity, of humanity, and of service. It is the vision of a banner which a proud nation ever holds aloft, as an example of a democracy where individualism becomes a collective force fostering the sublime principle of giving primacy to the human and the spiritual rather than to the material values of life.

"We look through the horoscope and each catches a glimpse of a different vision of the future of this country. (Please turn to page 8)

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The Smallpox Vaccine now in the hands of the doctors of the county will soon be outdated and all children to enter school in September who have not been vaccinated must be taken to the doctor at once. The Public Health Nurse is not allowed to vaccinate.

The teacher will expect the child beginning school in September to bring a slip from the doctor to tell whether the child is a Five-Pointer.

It is urged, too, that all children who have not been protected against Diphtheria go to the doctor for the Toxoid which is given this year in one dose. This is as important for children under school age as for school children as all are reminded when the birth certificate is sent.

M. SABINA NEEL,
County Reed Cross,
Public Health Nurse.

MANASSAS BATTLE PARK PREDICTED

Wilbur Hall Believes Success Is Assured.

Following conferences with National Park officials in Washington this week, Hon. Wilbur C. Hall, chairman of the Virginia Conservation Commission, stated to representatives of the press that the establishment of a national battlefield park to commemorate the two major battles fought along Bull Run is virtually assured. The Manassas Battlefield Park Association has agreed to turn over to the State Conservation Commission 146 acres in the vicinity of the historic Henry House for conveyance to the federal government as soon as the necessary assurance is made that it will be developed by the National Park Service.

Development of this and similar historic tracts in Virginia have been engaging the attention of the Virginia Conservation Commission for some time, it is stated, and recent assurances have been made in Washington to justify an optimistic viewpoint on the realization of the enterprise.

U.D.C. WELCOMES FORMER MEMBER

Mrs. Warren Moser Keith of North Carolina Renews Old Friendships.

The Manassas Chapter, U.D.C., met July 3 in the Parish Hall with Mrs. Lonas, president, in the chair. Mrs. Warren Moser Keith, of Rock Hill, N. C., and a member of this chapter, was warmly welcomed. Mrs. Keith said she was glad to renew old ties of friendship, and brought greetings from the Annie White and S. E. Barron chapters. She spoke of some of the objectives of these two chapters—awarding of medals to college girls and assisting the D.A.R.'s erect a monument to Andrew Jackson. In the historical hour, Mrs. Keith read the beautiful poem, "Marse Robert's Asleep."

Mrs. Newman read the following extract published in the June issue of The Southern Magazine from the able pen of Dr. Freeman, writing of Lee: "His greatest achievement in arms was, however, of a value less enduring than his daily life after Appomattox. His own face was turned to the future: his lips were sealed on any discussion of the past. He deplored bitterness, and encouraged industry. His ideal was that every man should take such employment as he could find, should qualify himself to participate in the Government, and should work with all his energy for the economic, the moral and the cultural restoration of Virginia."

Mrs. Lonas read a letter from Senator Rust saying the Memorial services on the Battlefield would be held on July 20, instead of the 21st, which comes on Sunday.

Mrs. Hutchison reported the Winchester Chapter's invitation for the district meeting next spring.

The name of Mrs. George Byrd was presented for membership.

A motion by Mrs. Weedon, chairman of the building committee, was carried, that each member save a penny a day for a year for the Memorial Hall.

Mrs. Hutchison and Mrs. Nash will be hostesses for the August meeting of the chapter.

LAWN PARTY AT GREENWICH

There will be a lawn party on the Green, Presbyterian Church, Greenwich, on Wednesday evening, July 17. An interesting program of music and games is being arranged. Refreshments will be on sale for the benefit of the Greenwich 4-H Club.

Macs End First Half of Season, Losing To Arlington By Score of 3 to 2

Visitors Score Three Unearned Runs As Dreifus' Support Falters
At Inopportune Times.

The Macs, who must sit up nights thinking of ways and means to lose ball games, discovered a new one Sunday, handing Arlington a perfectly good game which should have terminated with the score five plus to zero in favor of the local team. Fortunately, the second half of the split season starts next Sunday, giving the Macs a new lease on life and another chance to go places and do things.

Dreifus pitched a creditable game, limiting Arlington to seven hits, all singles, but a pair of walks, a wild pitch and a pair of errors by the usually reliable Vetter enabled the visitors to score three unearned runs, one more than the Macs were able to garner off Wesley over the nine-inning stretch.

The umpiring was of the variable sort; was of no particular benefit to the home team and almost precipitated a riot in the ninth when Cooper's catch of T. Kite's foul pop over the ropes between home and first was ruled legitimate and ended the game with the home folks trailing by a run.

Poor base running proved damaging to the Mac cause. W. Kite walked to open the third, went to second as Woodward beat out a bunt, wandered aimlessly off base in the general direction of third and was promptly run down in a futile effort to reach third. In the sixth, Dreifus drove the ball to deep right center and was tagged out at the plate on a close play. Brenner followed with a hit to left, and catching the spirit of the thing was erased at second when he attempted to stretch it to a double. The Macs threatened mildly in both the eighth and ninth but Wesley tightened in each instance to turn them back without a score.

Arlington scored single runs in each of the third, sixth and eighth innings, the first coming as a result of a pair of hits and a wild pitch. Cooper opened the sixth with a single to left, was sacrificed to second and scored when Vetter fielded Bradford's hard bouncer and threw past first. The winning tally was scored in the eighth when with one away Dreifus alked Cooper and C. McPherson. Bradford forced the latter at second and when Vetter, trying for a double play, threw past first, Cooper scored.

The box score:

STATE FARMERS' INSTITUTE AT BLACKSBURG

The next session of the Institute of Rural Affairs will be held at Blacksburg from July 30 through August 1. The central theme of the program this year will be "Adjustments Affecting Rural Life." Speakers on the programs include Secretary Wallace, Dr. Carl Ladd and Dr. F. A. Pearson of Cornell University, and other outstanding leaders. As usual, the programs will provide for special sections in which technical information will be given on subjects in which those attending are particularly interested.

A special effort is also being made to provide a good recreational program. Jimmy Gheen, one of the foremost humorists of the country, is expected. On the second night a colored quartet of special note has been engaged while on the third night the Southwest Virginia Mountain Musicians will be present. It is planned to have the Harrisonburg Boys' Band of forty members for afternoon concerts during the whole session.

Prince William County has always been well represented, even though it is one of the most distant counties from Blacksburg, and present indications are that there will be a good-sized delegation going down over the end of the month.

The Institute offers an opportunity for a pleasant and profitable vacation at the time of the year that it is most needed.

OCCOQUAN CLUB ENJOYS OUTING

The members of the Occoquan 4-H Club met at the home of Jean Morrison on Monday afternoon to make a tour of inspection to the projects of club members. All club members were visited and projects and flower and vegetable gardens, dairy and canning inspected. After visiting all members the group met for a weenie roast and recreational hour. The new club song was sung. Club members enjoyed the outing so much that it was decided to hold another following the meeting on August 5.

The girls are to meet at the home of Sara Jellison on Monday, July 22, for a canning demonstration with Mrs. Thompson in charge.

POLITICAL RALLY AT OCCOQUAN

There will be a political rally at Occoquan District High School on Friday, July 19, at 8 o'clock, to which all candidates and interested friends are invited.

JOHN DEWITT COX

John Dewitt Cox, of Haymarket, Va., died at his home, July 5. His death resulted from a tonsil operation and pneumonia.

Mr. Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cox of Catlett, Va., was born June 3, 1900, in Fauquier County. He was married January 6, 1926, to Mrs. Mabel Partlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Reading of Aden, Va. Interment was in Antioch cemetery, July 7, his brothers acting as pall bearers and his sisters and sisters-in-law acting as flower bearers. The procession was led by his two little children, John Elwood and Margaret, carrying bouquets of lilies and sweet peas.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Mabel Cox; two children, Margaret and John Elwood Cox; his step-children, William and Mary Partlow, of Haymarket; his mother, Mrs. Herbert Cox, Catlett, Va.; six brothers, Charlie, Edgar, Sherman and Clinton Cox, of Washington, Sumpter Cox of Morrisville, Va., and Clarence Cox, of Lomax, Midland, Va., and two sisters, Mrs. Willie Griffith, of Washington, and Miss Elizabeth Cox, of Youngstown, Ohio.

The services were officiated by Rev. T. D. D. Clark, Manassas, Va., assisted by Rev. Ernest Northern, a relative of the family. The favorite hymn of the deceased, "The Old Rugged Cross," was sung by Rev. Northern.

"He hath showed thee, O Man, what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God."

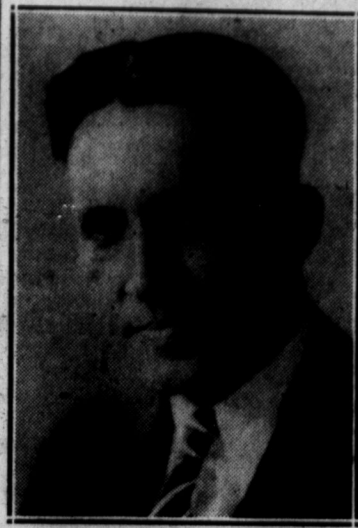

TOURNAMENT AND FIELD DAY AT HAYMARKET

Friday, August 9, has been announced as the date of the annual Bull Run Grange Field Day and Tournament at Haymarket, Va. As in past years, the riding or jousting tournament will be featured on the program.

There will also be a baseball game, horseshoe pitching, catching the greasy pig and other contests.

A well-known thirty-piece band will provide music for the occasion. The "Queen of Love and Beauty" chosen by the winning Knight of the Tournament will reign at the Coronation Ball to be held at Haymarket on the evening of the tournament.

Route 28, between Manassas and Centerville, is being given a preliminary repairing this week, to be followed later in the summer with a heavy bituminous re-tread treatment.

JUDGE WALTER MCCARTHY.

JUDGE MCCARTHY TO SPEAK ON TRUTH

Will Address Trial Justice Convention at Virginia Beach.

Hon. Walter T. McCarthy, Circuit Judge of the Sixteenth Judicial Circuit of Virginia, will be one of the principal speakers next Monday at the annual convention of the Association of Trial Justices of Virginia at Virginia Beach.

Judge McCarthy's subject will be "The Law's Search for Truth." Judge McCarthy, although one of the younger jurists of the State, has made a record on the bench which has been pointed to with pride, not only by members of the bar but by citizens generally who admire the manner in which justice is administered in Prince William, Fairfax, Arlington and Alexandria courts, and his address on such an important subject will be the occasion of much interest.

U. S. CHAMBER SENDS SPEAKER

Ralph Bradford Presents Interesting Facts at Dumfries.

As announced, Mr. Ralph Bradford, of the United States Chamber of Commerce, was the guest speaker at the July meeting of the Prince William Chamber of Commerce held last night at the Odd Fellows Hall in Dumfries.

The speaker was highly entertaining and graphically instructive in his talk. Citing ancient Bible history as original source of present-day chambers of commerce, Mr. Bradford showed how committee work was the strongest stone in the structure.

In order not to confuse his audience, he stated that he was making a study of the needs of the county and that of the wealth of information now on file in his office that he would mail out specific articles that would greatly assist Mr. Cloe and his assistants.

Hon. Thomas H. Lion, commonwealth's attorney and always a booster for civic affairs, gave an unusually fine but brief address.

A short talk by A. S. Boatwright, another chamber booster, concluded the session.

The next meeting will meet at Mr. Alpaugh's pavilion at Lake Jackson on August 8, the September meeting to be held at Haymarket.

DAIRY JUDGING INSTRUCTION GIVEN 4-H CLUB MEMBERS

Fourteen boys reported at the farm of P. A. Lewis, Wednesday morning, where instructions in judging Holsteins were given by R. P. Keithly, State dairy club agent. In the afternoon, the boys went to Clover Hill Farm where Jerseys were judged.

After receiving more instruction in the county and at the State 4-H Short Course at Blacksburg, a team of three boys will be selected to represent the county in the State dairy judging contest at the State Fair at Richmond in October.

The winning team at the State Fair will represent Virginia at the National Dairy Show at St. Louis next fall.

LAWN PARTY AT BRENTSVILLE

The Brentsville Community League will hold a lawn party at the old historic Court House at Brentsville on Saturday evening, July 13.

A four-piece band from Washington has been engaged to music for the occasion and all candidates are invited to attend at which time they will have an opportunity to address the public.

Refreshments will be served throughout the evening.

ANNUAL PICNIC AT BATTLE PARK

Confederate Veterans Especially Invited.

The annual picnic commemorating the Battle of Manassas will be celebrated at the Henry House on the Manassas Battle Park, Saturday, July 20.

A program has been arranged and prominent speakers will make patriotic addresses. Refreshments will be on sale and everybody is invited to bring along their lunch.

In charge of the program are Hon. John W. Rust, president of the Manassas Battle Park Association; Mr. J. Roy Rice, of Shreveport, La., and Mr. F. R. Fravel, of Ballston.

On account of the strong probability of the establishment of a National Battle Park at the location of the two battles of Manassas, the celebration will attract more than usual interest.

POLITICAL MEETING AT INDEPENDENT HILL

Under auspices of the Order of Fraternal Americans a political rally was held last Saturday night at Independent Hill which was well attended and greatly enjoyed.

Hon. D. E. Earhart, chairman of the Democratic party in Prince William County, presided and introduced the speakers.

Candidates for the State Senate, Hon. John W. Rust, present incumbent, and Hon. Hugh Reid, former member of the House of Delegates, spoke at considerable length. Mr. Painter of Fairfax County also stated that he was a candidate for the Democratic nomination.

The candidates for the House of Delegates were both present and addressed the gathering. Hon. George W. Herring is the candidate for reelection and is opposed by Mr. Frank Moncre, of Stafford.

The candidates for sheriff also spoke. Mr. John W. Kerlin is candidate for re-election. He is serving his second term as sheriff, with a previous experience of twelve years as deputy-sheriff. Mr. T. Russell is opposing Mr. Kerlin's re-election.

Following the formalities of the evening refreshments were served and the occasion went into local history as one of the most enjoyable in recent years.

Employment Office at Manassas

A branch of the Re-employment Office at Richmond has been set up in Manassas in addition to Mr. Tommie Lynch's office at Quantico and the relief office in Manassas under the supervision of Mr. Bernard Cooke of Alexandria who is supervisor of the Northern Virginia Re-employment Agency.

This office has been opened to assist those desiring employment in filing application cards, and in turn remove from the relief rolls as many people as possible. Mr. Dulaney is in charge of this office.

It was through the courtesy of Mr. William H. Leachman that his office in the Peoples National Bank building was secured for this set-up.

O.F.A. LAWN PARTY

On Thursday evening of next week beginning at about 6:30 o'clock the Order of Fraternal Americans and the Daughters of America will have a lawn party on the courthouse green. Food and refreshments will be on sale all evening. There will be an amusement booth, the nature of which will be determined upon at a committee meeting to be held tomorrow night at the council hall.

All of the candidates in the August primary are expected to be present and have something to say to the citizens who may be present at that time.

JOHN GOODE

Mr. John Goode, long-time resident of Manassas, passed away at his home on Richmond avenue on Monday, July 8.

The funeral was held from the house this afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. DeChant, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, officiating.

The pall bearers were J. L. Bushong, T. Moore, R. M. Jenkins, Eugene Davis, L. S. Proffitt, and Bruce Whitmore.

He is survived by his son, Calvin; daughter-in-law, Lena, and two grandchildren, Ann and Margaret.

He will be laid to rest in the family burying ground at Limstrong by the side of his wife, Sarah Frances (Cannon) who predeceased him in December, 1933.

A good man has passed away. He was worthy of his name in every respect—a devoted husband, father and worthy citizen.

CATHARPIN

Well the "FOURTH" came along as usual, and, like Christmas, was the occasion of considerable moving about among the people. It is a day when many feel they must "go places" even tho' the temperature is sizzling and bubbling over with heated enthusiasm. We believe this one was no exception to the rule, hence it has supplied this column with a few items which, otherwise, would have been lost to posterity; so we welcome it for what it brings.

We well remember, away back yonder in the days of antiquity, when the Fourth of July was a day to be reckoned with; it was a day when everyone, and "every one" is exactly what we mean, calculated on a day full of joy and festivity; flags would be loosed to the breezes early in the morning and the children, (I don't think they were called "kids" then) with flags and flowers would assemble in their respective Sunday school classes ready for a march to the "Grove" where music, both instrumental and vocal, and speaking, all of a patriotic order, would be the order of the day until noon. This over, all gathered around table cloths spread in the shade of the old oaks where, assisted by the grasshoppers, ants and bugs, they had a most festive outlay of good things to eat. Usually one of the crowd would get a bush and stand guard against flies, and other marauding insects so that the "meal" could be enjoyed a la picnic fashion to the entire satisfaction of all. You know at that time, very few had ever heard of a germ—that pesky thing that has arisen to annoy our modern lives; yet, notwithstanding it all, the population seemed to live to ripe, old ages and to enjoy themselves as only the old-fashioned, country people knew how to enjoy it.

After the dinner was finished, the older element gathered itself in bunches around some friendly shade tree and talked; the younger element would play "ring," "Tap the Rabbit," "Needle's Eye," "Kill-a-me-cranky"—(do you know how to spell that?) and many other games, all to the supreme delight of those concerned. Families attended intact and an innocent, joyful day was the result. All went home, tired but happy. Sometimes we think our modern life is missing much in valor and patriotism by not observing this great day to clinch very important history in the minds of our young people. At least, it would seem that flags should float from every home so that children may never lose the meaning of INDEPENDENCE DAY in our American history.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur King and family of Alexandria were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes Robertson over the Fourth of July.

Much is being said these days, especially by the women folks, about the prospective power lines anent rural electrification as now being talked about at Government headquarters for the betterment of all rural communities. This is a question which appeals to femininity perhaps more than any other since it has such labor-saving potentialities for the home which are so badly needed.

Every day we see by the papers that different counties, districts or communities are holding meetings to inquire just what can be done to promote the project. To date, apparently, not much of a tangible nature has been decided upon altho the country is patiently, or might we say impatiently, waiting to hear something really definite. As we all know, a thing is easily said but sometimes difficult to accomplish.

In rural sections, where homes are widely scattered, the big thing, of course, is the power line and this costs money. We could all have electrification today if we would build the lines to our doors; any company would furnish us with juice at their regular rates, but the big thing is "transportation." If this could be satisfactorily arranged, the balance would be easy; so this "transportation" business is the great obstacle which lies between the rural housewife and her vacuum cleaner, lights, washing machine and dear knows what all.

If the line, then, is the first objective, why can not the Government build lines opening up rural sections so that all could be within a reasonable distance making it possible that connections be made at a cost commensurate or within the ability of the user to pay? The city dweller has no such contingencies to meet; the power is delivered to his home while the country resident must be confronted with expensive power lines or else do the next thing—do without. If the Government wishes to do something for the rural district, it now has the opportunity of putting it on a par with the city dweller insofar as electrification is concerned. What greater or more appreciated activity could be devised than this?

Prince William, as yet, has been very quiet in this respect and has not done much to encourage the project, if in fact, there has been very much she could do. Our public officials might here find a splendid opportunity in a most practical and appreciative way, to help their constituency achieve something they really want. There are many citizens who would be glad to render assistance but have no influence in an official way. Kiwanis has for a number of years provided the machinery thru which much has been accomplished for the betterment of things both locally and thruout the county thus showing the power of organization. It now seems that if the Government really means business about the projected Rural Electrification, it is time for the rural districts, through their officers and various organizations to push the matter to a conclusion. It is either possible and feasible or it is not; it will either pay and benefit a large and important portion of our population, or it might be out of practical reach or beyond rural ability to maintain. Whatever the situation may be, it is worth an investigation.

Let every one be thinking it over; talk about it; investigate fully in order to see just where we stand and what can be done right now while the opportunity lasts.

Born: A young daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Munday on Saturday, July 6, at Sibley Hospital, Washington. Mrs. Munday will be remembered as Miss Audrey McIntosh, formerly of Catharpin but now of the Capital City. Both mother and babe doing well.

The Misses Frances and Ann Robertson of Lawn Vale returned home on Saturday from a few days' visit among friends and relatives in Delaplane, Va.

Misses Harriet Pattie and Eva Garrison and Messrs. Smith Garrison and Mr. Tally motored to Lynchburg on the Fourth to see how Independence Day was being observed in that city.

Lawn Vale, the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes Robertson, was the mecca of many visitors during the week of the Fourth where the following were noted among the guests assembled: Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Moore and sons of Atlanta, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. James Dorsey and Mr. Edward Dorsey of Arlington; Mr. Reginald Morrison and sister, Edith, of Berryville; Mr. Arthur Thweat and four daughters of Petersburg, and Mrs. Eliza Dorsey and grandchildren of Richmond, Va.

A year or so ago, if you remember it, the people voted upon the question as to whether the Constitutional Amendment-banning liquor should remain in the Constitution or be annulled. If you remember, it was annulled by an "overwhelming" majority; but it was explained by the advocates of annulment that "if the constitution could only be rid of such trash that bootlegging would vanish as dew before the morning sun; that no such thing as a saloon would ever be tolerated; that it would keep liquor from the young people and remove temptation from the many then indulging in this most vicious habit; "In other words, the millennium would be just around the corner and drunkenness would forever vanish from the earth. Ye-ah!

CITES LEGISLATIVE RECORD

At the meeting at Independent Hill on Saturday evening one of the most salient and dramatic features of the campaign thus far was introduced by George W. Herring, present Delegate in the Legislature from the Legislative District.

Referring to the statement recently issued by Governor Peery to the effect that $3,600,000 had resulted in profits under the first year of operation of the State ABC Board, Mr. Herring reminded his audience that he was the author of the amendment popularly known as the Herring Amendment by which two-thirds of this amount will accrue to the cities and counties and prorated according to the population of the several communities.

Of this sum $1,000,000 is immediately available for distribution in the counties and cities.

WOMAN'S WORK

Despite woman's persistent effort to become man's equal, man himself still tries to keep her his superior.

Speaking to the graduating class at Radcliffe College, Dr. Alan Chester Valentine, master of Pierson College, Yale University, warned the young women against becoming Amazons and urged them to spiritualize the world which men have so largely mechanized saying:

"Education . . . for women should not be to instruct them in doing men's work, but to fit them for creating a new and better world than the world for men."

"In their struggle to escape the domination of men, women have neglected their spiritual powers to become Amazons by using men's weapons. Here in America the influence of women as an ideal has declined, but to women have been spiritual powers which our leaders of today are not using to advantage."

"Men's demands are too simple and narrow, while to women have been given clarity of vision, respect for intuition, a sense of the practical and the duty of educating the young. Spiritual powers must be developed within the individual which can turn the mechanical economies of man's world into a more human civilization."

Woman's work, it has well been said, is never done. How many self-made men ever realized that they are not self-made at all, but simply the clay that some woman took and shaped.

Dr. Valentine, however, was honest enough to admit before the young Radcliffe women that when they and their sisters shall have breathed a spirit into this material world and made it a better place to live in, men will come forward and "take credit for it."—Raleigh Register.

THOUSANDS VACATIONING IN VIRGINIA

In all sections of the Old Dominion there are to be found many happy and enthusiastic visitors vacationing in and touring through the State. A report from the hotels and tourist homes shows a marked increase in numbers for 1935 over 1934, and from all indications and available information the traveling public are rapidly becoming Virginia-conscious.

The State Commission on Conservation and Development, through its Tourist Bureau recently established in Washington and other agencies, distributed over 70,000 pieces of literature on Virginia during the months of April, May and June, and the results of much of the distributing of these publications will not be realized until the fall, at which season of the year Virginia is most beautiful, and which has heretofore been the time that the greater number of people visit the State.

The Commission is now planning its fall program of advertising, which will be carried in many of the leading magazines and metropolitan newspapers, and is destined to attract many thousands more visitors this year.

The Skyline Drive, restored Williamsburg, and the many tourist resorts are popular and receiving a large number of our visitors.

Freedom of Judgment

—is essential to sound banking policies.

THIS bank has no special interests to serve or motives to satisfy other than strict adherence to the principles and practices of good, every day banking. It is free to use its best thought and to exercise its honest opinion on the merits of every transaction presented for its consideration. Its judgment as to the loans it grants and the investments it makes are unswayed by considerations that are not directly a part of safe, conservative and constructive banking.

We believe that this is fundamental to sound banking practice—that it is also the friendliest type of service we can render our depositors and our Community.

OUR COUNCIL SONG

Our Council meets at Greenwich
Not far from my old farm.
The lessons that it teaches
To me are quite a charm.

We often meet within the hall
For work as well as play.
As he smiles and looks quite wise
I hear the Warden say:

"Be true, be true,
Is the maxim I would teach,
Remember the password
And practice what you preach."

"Do not let your chances
Like a sunbeam pass you by.
We'll surely miss the Council
If we ever let it die."

"Be true, be true,
To the flag that we adore.
Let enough be enough
And do not strive for more."

"Do not miss a chance
To lend a helping hand,
We're united to believe in God
And to love our native land."

"Be true, be true,
To the order you belong.
Let virtue be your watchword,
And Liberty your song."

"Do not let patriotism
Like a sunbeam fade away.
Remember, we are natives
Of this glorious U. S. A."

—Wallace Wood.

A CARD

Notice of Candidacy

To the voters and citizens of Manassas Magisterial District, Prince William County, Virginia:

At the behest and solicitation of a goodly number of the citizens of my District, I was persuaded to become a candidate for the nomination to the office of Supervisor for Manassas Magisterial District, subject to the Democratic Primary of August 6, 1935, and I have filed my declaration to that effect with the County Chairman.

I retired from the mercantile business, as most of you know, a few years ago, and I have held public office with similar duties, having served as a member of the Town Council of Manassas, Va., for eight years, and as a member of the School Board for about the same period of time. My experience in management of my own affairs, and my record during the occupancy of the two offices above-mentioned is an open book, and familiar to most all of the older members of this community. I refer you to this record without comment.

If I am favored with the nomination, I pledge you my best effort towards an honest discharge of all the duties the office imposes, without favoritism, and void of any partiality to any person, or persons. Therefore, I courteously solicit your support at the coming Primary, and tender my thanks in advance for same.

Respectfully yours,

C. E. NASH.

TWO MORE TRIUMPHS
FOR OCCOQUAN GRAYS

The McLean A. C., leaders of the "Old Dominion League," and the Manassas team fell before the Grays over the week-end.

Manassas was easily defeated Saturday on Swavely field by a score of 7 to 4. Wade rbeen weakened for only one inning, in which they scored all four of their runs. He disposed of the Macs in swell fashion.

On Sunday the league-leading McLean team came down to Occoquan with so much self-assurance that it was pitiful to notice their sorrowful departure. They had won 9 of their ten previous games. When the Grays were leaving the McLean field earlier in the season after having lost 14 to 1, there were mutterings from McLean, "huh, wasn't any game at all." Well they knew they had been in a game when they left the Occoquan field Sunday.

"Dick" Shepherd pitched for the Grays and did a brilliant job, allowing this hard-hitting team 13 hits. In only one inning was he in any trouble, the 7th, when McLean scored 4 runs. Two of these scored when an easy fly ball to Reid in Reid in left field went for a hit when he lost the ball in the sun.

They scored one run in the 9th and stood to score two more when Roy Marshall of the Grays contributed the best catch ever seen on the Grays diamond and proceeded to double a runner off first, retiring the side and winning the game. He raced far back into right field and made a leaping catch of a drive that had a triple labeled on it.

The Grays are steadily climbing in the league and are very much in the race for the championship. They meet the Dumfries CCC boys on the Occoquan field on Saturday at 2:30. On Sunday they travel to Park Lane for a league game.

"LIGHTNING" FINDS HIS REAL ROLE IN
"DOG OF FLANDERS"

"Lightning," the talented dog playing the title role in RKO-Radio's "A Dog of Flanders," featuring the talented Frankie Thomas, is turning handsprings and leaping over fences as a result of his role in this picture.

This is the first time "Lightning," a big German shepherd dog has really played a role in his own environment. He is seen as a kindly, tolerant, faithful domestic animal.

In "Born to Fight," a recent picture, he portrayed an animal that was half wolf and half dog. In "The Case of the Howling Dog," he played a dual role, acting as a household pet and a ferocious watch dog. In "Wings in the Dark," he played the role of a guide for a blind man.

He is more at home in his current role, as it portrays the intimate part played in the domestic life of Flanders by many of his brothers and sisters—and that is one reason why "Lightning" is so happy in his role.

LITTLE JADE GOD LOOMS

LARGE IN OLAND'S CAREER

Of course he isn't superstitious, but the good luck he's had on the screen comes from a little jade god.

Given to him by his wife nearly twenty years ago, the bit of green stone, he believes, is largely responsible for making Oland one of the foremost character actors in pictures.

Shortly after he was presented with the memento, he got his first screen role, and every time he wears it in a film, the picture proves to be highly successful.

The actor has just completed the seventh production of this series,

"Charlie Chan in Paris," which comes to the Dixie Theatre in Manassas

next Wednesday. Mary Brian, Thomas

Beck, Erik Rhodes, John Miljan,

Murray Kinnell, John Qualen and

all have prominent roles in this exciting screen version of the story by Philip MacDonald.

ferent star. Our perspectives vary, and it is the angle from which we view things and the color of our glasses that determine men's frame of mind and their attitude on life. There is something of life's romance in stars and we who look are sometimes referred to as those who are but dreaming dreams, but since man emancipated himself, men have been dreaming dreams for man and mankind, and it is in the dreaming of these dreams that has marked the mileposts in human progress during all the centuries past.

"... We may face a temporary defeat or temporary disaster, but never mind, for dreams of honest men ultimately will prevail, for the truth prevails. Sometimes it is as dangerous to preach the truth as to enter the powder magazine with a lighted torch, but nevertheless truth yet exists; and all history has taught us, all people's governments have taught us, that ideals that reflect the purpose of God's kingdom will triumph.

"Are we Kiwanians dreamers? If so, then let it be said that no repose has been so sweet as that which brings before us the beauties of a Builder's Dream. There is more to Kiwanis than the thought of underprivileged children and their welfare, of vocational guidance, of Boys and Girls work. Every man whose privilege it is to wear a 'K' has at some time or other dreamed the dream of ideal citizenship, of an individual whose patriotic impulses seek to promote the dream of ideal government.

"The Fourth of July is truly Independence Day and we of independent thought with no personal axes to grind upon the whetstone of political preferment, should be a phalanx of strength; a legion of Builders, whose love for America prompts us to work for, to perpetuate and to secure the structure of our National Government for our posterity.

"If that be our song by day, and our dream by night, we shall have measured up to that object of Kiwanis wherein we are admonished to co-operate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and good will, and we shall have given the answer to the demagogue, we shall have affirmed our belief in our American institutions, and it may be truly said that Kiwanis has kept the faith."

The group which Ed brought along with him included the following:

From Washington: Edwin F. Hill, Kiwanis International trustee; Harry G. Kimball, James B. Edmunds, George H. Winslow, secretary emeritus, George P. Mangan, vice-president, William N. Freeman, chairman, vocational guidance committee; Z. D. Blackstone, George C. Shaffer, Charles F. Dowd, William F. Smith;

From Alexandria: Irving Diener, former lieutenant governor; David C. Book, former president.

From Arlington County, Va.: John A. Cummins, secretary; John F. Webster, former president; Frank H. Rowe, former president.

From Prince Georges County, Md.: Arthur C. Keefer, former president; John S. White, vice-president.

After some discussion the club set tomorrow night as a time to fulfill an engagement at Haymarket and the meeting will be there at the Parish Hall.

COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION TO MEET

The Prince William County Sunday School Association will hold its annual convention at the Calvary United Brethren Church at Aden on Sunday, July 21, beginning at 10:30.

The general theme for the convention program is "Building for Character." Many interesting speakers will discuss this theme. Among these will be Rev. W. M. Compton, Rev. C. P. Jones, Rev. Jesse Bell, Rev. O. R. Hersch, and Miss Florence Hostetter of Harrisonburg.

Miss Hostetter will be with us for the entire convention. She is director of religious education over a large area of the Valley of Virginia. She has had a wide experience in Sunday school work and promises to be interesting as well as instructive.

Music is being prepared by different schools which will furnish many selections during the day. The sextet from Dunn Loring will be with us and will sing several numbers.

The night program is to be almost entirely musical. Mr. David Weimer, director of music at the Washington City Church of the Brethren, will have charge of the singing. He will lead any hymn the congregation wishes to sing. He is bringing along some instrumental musician which will play several times.

The County Young Peoples choir, which is being organized, will sing several numbers during the day and night sessions.

There will be a picnic dinner at noon in the basement of the church. Everyone is invited to come and spend the day with us. We will be disappointed if you do not come and you will miss a splendid day of fellowship with people from all parts of the county.

Chesterfields do about everything a cigarette ought to do.

Chesterfields have TASTE—yes plenty of it. But not too strong. And Chesterfields are MILD—but they're not insipid or flat.
