HEALTH BOARD RELAXES ORDER

Moving Picture Theatre Permitted to Open for Adults.

A special meeting of the County Board of Health of Prince William County was called at Manassas, August 3, at 11:30 a.m. Present: J. L. Dawson, chairman; Dr. Wade C. Payne, secretary; Dr. Stewart McBryde, appointed to act for Dr. Marshall during his absence; there were also present at the meeting Dr. A. E. Biddoe and Dr. T. C. Anderson of Quantico Marine Base.

The meeting was called to consider a petition from the business men of Manassas regarding the action of the local Board of Health of July 25, asking the Board to reconsider its action of that date and restrict children from entering moving pictures or other amusement places under the age of sixteen and that the moving pictures and other amusements be allowed to operate with these restrictions.

A motion was made by Dr. McBryde and seconded by Dr. Payne to rescind the action of the Board of July 25 and in its stead passed the following resolution:

All children under the age of sixteen years be prohibited from attending all places of amusement, or public gatherings of all kinds, such as, school, Sunday school, church, moving pictures, shows, swimming pools, public beaches and dance halls, public speaking or any other public gatherings.

It is further recommended that all children under ten years of age be kept off the streets after 8 o'clock at night and visiting and traveling with children be curtailed as far as possible.

We also urge all hotels, restaurants, soda fountains and other public eating places to take every precaution in sterilizing dishes, glasses, etc.

J. L. Dawson.

CIRCUS IN WASHINGTON

TON NEXT WEEK

The great Hagenbeck-Wallace and Forepaugh-Sells Bros. Combined Circus will present afternoon and night performances in Washington on Thursday, Aug. 15 and Friday, Aug. 16, and circus enthusiasts of this vicinity will be on hand to participate in the gala event.

To commemorate the combination of the famous old Forepaugh-Sells Bros. show with the largest trained wild animal circus in the world, many startling new features have been added for the 1935 program. These include Maria Rasputin, sensational European wild animal trainer and daughter of the famous Russian monk, Grigori Rasputin who ruled the Ramonoffs with the power of his hypnotic eyes prior to his demise in 1916; Bert Nelson, youngest of the wild animal subjugators, with more than a score of fighting, jungle-bred lions and tigers; John Helliot, renowned German trainer of savage beasts; Maximo, comedian of the slack wire; the famed Christiani troupe of bareback riders in somersaults from horse to horse; the Flying Codonas, the Hills and a great group of aerialists; Rudyoff, noted equestrian and his educated horses; the Merkels, who walk upside down on lofty mirrors in the dome of the big tent; "Cheerful" Gardiner and twenty performing elephants; scores of clowns led by Earl Shipley, Paul Jerome and the Paul Jung Clown Acrobatic Trio; dozens of pretty equestriennes, a huge oriental spectacle and a big contingent of Indians, Cowboys and Cowgirls from the Pawnee Bill Ranch at Old Town, Okla.

Performances will be presented at 2 and 8 p.m. with doors open one hour earlier in each instance to permit leisurely inspection of the world's largest and finest traveling wild animal menagerie which boasts among other zoological marvels a baby giraffe.

The Hagenbeck-Wallace and Forepaugh-Sells Bros. Combined Circus is a railroad show, moving on two trains of double-length steel cars.

Mr. D. W. Buckley, popular supervisor of Centreville district, Fairfax, was in town today.

APPOINTMENT CONFIRMED BY SENATE

It will interest the many friends of Mr. Owen Lynch in Prince William County to know that his appointment as postmaster in Alexandria has been confirmed by the Senate. The President's secretary notified Mr. Lynch by phone.

Mr. Lynch was born and raised in this community and is very much liked by everyone.

STATE PROGRAM IN HOMECRAFTS

Classes Start This Fall in Connection with Adult and Youth Projects.

The State Department of Education will launch this fall an elaborate program of education in home arts, crafts and trades, to be organized in connection with adult education and out-of-school youth classes, Dr. Sidney B. Hall, State superintendent of public instruction, announced this week.

The program will be put in charge of an expert in the homecraft field, Dr. Hall said, with J. L. Blair Buck, director of the emergency education program, and Dr. Walter S. Newman, Virginia director of the National Youth Administration.

"This program will be promoted in order to reach tens of thousands of Virginians for whom instruction in homecrafts will be more useful than the conventional vocational education," Dr. Hall said.

The new director of home arts, crafts and trades probably will fill the vacancy in the State Department of Education which was created when C. J. Hyslop, supervisor of vocational education, left July 1 to join the faculty of Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

Dr. Hall said that the home arts, crafts and trades would include such things as basket weaving, rug-making and rug weaving, cabinet making and wrought iron work.

The State superintendent also announced this week that Dr. Walter S. Newman will be given the larger quarters in the State Department of Education now occupied by the Emergency Education Program in order to house the office force which will be necessary for the out-of-school youth program.

A MESSAGE TO VETERANS IN PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY

The regular meeting of the American Legion, Prince William Post 158, which was to be held on Thursday, August 8, has been postponed to Thursday, August 29, at which time the election of officers will take place.

Commander Howard W. Jamison has served for two consecutive years at this command, and has been very active and has exhibited much leadership in this official capacity.

It is hoped that every member of the Post will be present at the meeting on August 29, and take an active part in the election of capable men for incoming officers.

The American Legion is becoming more nationally organized every year, and each member owes it to himself to take a deep interest in the election of officers of his local Post, for the incoming year. The money derived from benefit affairs is given namely for charity, both civic and to the families of veterans. Help your Post and let us help you.

Margaret Lynch, Adjutant.

RESOLUTION

Since God in His wisdom has seen fit to remove from our midst our brother, R. L. Sadd, who was president of this association, (Prince William County S. S. Association), we bow in humble submission to His Divine will, but are very much grieved at his sudden demise.

While we keenly feel the loss of our brother, in the work as he had planned it, we trust that we, the Association, under God's direction, may be able to provide a man equal to the task.

We express our sympathy to the family, and pray that God will be a real father to them.

We recommend that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, recorded in the minutes of this convention, and a copy to The Manassas Journal.

Colbert Acts Dramatic Role In "Private Worlds" Picture With Great Skill and Feeling

In her first motion picture appearance since she won the Motion Picture Academy Award for 1934, Claudette Colbert proves her right to that prize and again demonstrates her startling versatility in a role entirely different from her past ones. The picture is Walter Wanger's psychological love drama, "Private Worlds," which opens at the Dixie Theatre in Manassas next Monday.

Cast in the leading role of a daring and intelligent picture that sweeps aside all the old illusions about love to show the inhibitions, complexes and repressions that are the true villains of romance, Miss Colbert appears as a trimly efficient, cool and capable woman doctor; a woman seemingly without personal affections but with a great love for the suffering.

Miss Colbert and Joel McCrea are carrying on important scientific work in their posts at a hospital for the insane when the appointment of a new doctor, Charles Boyer, as head of the hospital, disrupts their little world.

Finally Joan Bennett, who has learned of her husband's infidelity, collapses and is faced with a possible loss of her mind. In her desperate and successful effort to unshackle the tangle of all their lives, Miss Colbert reveals herself in her true colors. She learns that she has taken refuge from love in the memory of a dead sweetheart and that her apparent hatred for Boyer actually conceals a growing love for him.

Big Jim Tennant Pitches Macs to Victory over Ballston Nine

Blackwell's Single in Seventh Scores Buckner from Third to Give Macs Win by Single Run.

After two unsuccessful tries this season, the Macs, behind the steady hurling of Big Jim Tennant, finally upset the strong Ballston nine in a close and exciting game by the score of 3 to 2. Tennant limited the hard-hitting visitors to five hits and struck out nine. Owen, the Ballston hurler, proved a worthy opponent giving up but eight hits but successive hits by Buckner and Blackwell in the seventh sent him down to defeat. It was the second successive loss for Ballston, the first half champions, who previously had piled up an impressive 12 game winning streak. Middleburg's defeat of Arlington raised the Macs' hopes and sent them into a tie with Falls Church for first honors in this section of the league.

The Macs got away to a one-run lead in the second when Shedy singled to center, stole second and scored on Brenner's drive to right. Ballston tied it up in the third with the aid of a pair of errors. Owen opened the inning with a slow roller down the third base line and reached second when Brenner threw past first. Woodward backed up to take McQuinn's long fly but dropped the ball permitting Owen to score and the batter reach second. The latter was sacrificed to third by Eaton but Tennant disposed of Tonker on an easy roller while holding the runner at third and forced Miller to pop up to Shedy.

The Macs took the lead again in the sixth when with one out, Vetter singled to center. He was trapped off first but reached second safely and scored on Tennant's vicious drive past third. The winning run came across in the seventh when Buckner tripled to deep left center and scored on Blackwell's hot smash through short. The visitors added a run in the eighth on a walk, a stolen base and a double by Biggs and gave the home fans a real scare with a late ninth inning threat. Tennant disposed of the first two batters and had two strikes on Owens before finally walking him. Saunders came in fast for McQuinn's low liner but dropped the ball. However, he recovered the ball and with a perfect throw to Brenner nailed Owen standing up as the latter tried to take third on the error.

BOARD TO USE W. P. A. FUNDS

Plans Submitted for Improvement Work.

The County School Board held its regular August meeting yesterday. As September opens the new year the Board re-organized, re-electing D. J. Arrington, chairman; W. L. Lloyd, vice-chairman, and R. C. Haydon, clerk.

Professor Haydon explained to the Board that money would probably become available for improvements under the Works Progress Administration and a number of repairs were ordered for several of the schools contingent to this fact.

Arrangements were completed with the Nokesville Community League for the construction of the agriculture building. This structure will be erected on a co-operative basis.

In response to the resolution from the Bennett Community League certain improvements were ordered in the kitchen at that school.

In discussing the bus routes for next year it was decided to extend the Sweeney bus to Hoffman's gate.

Certain sanitary improvements for Dumfries school were ordered to be built on a co-operative plan.

Prof. Harry Love was granted a one-year leave of absence without pay in order to attend the graduate school at Cornell University.

Screens were ordered for the Aden school to be paid on a co-operative basis with the Aden School League.

The Board adjourned to meet again on Wednesday, September 4.

BUS COMPANY DENIED PERMIT

J. Leslie Hooker Delivers Important Decision.

The State Corporation Commission has entered its first denial of an application for interstate passenger bus service.

Specifically, the commission refused to grant an application of the Monumental Lines, Inc., for a permit to operate on U. S. Route One between Alexandria and Washington. The opinion, written by J. Leslie Hooker, commissioner, said that to grant the certificate "would unduly endanger the life and property of the general public traveling over this route." The present flow of traffic over the road was termed "excessive."

Commissioner Hooker indicated that some opposition to the ruling was expected, but said it was based on long and careful study. It is the first time, he said, that such an application has been turned down.

The application was heard by the commission April 26 of this year. It was opposed by the city of Alexandria, the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce, the Arlington Board of Supervisors and the Alexandria, Barcroft and Washington Company.

JOHN MARSHALL CENTENARY

The story of this eminent Virginian, who served as Chief Justice of the United States for 34 years, describing his homes in Washington and his residence and burial place in Richmond, Va., including a review of the famous case of Marbury vs. Madison, decided by him in 1803, will be related by John Clagett Proctor, noted historian of the District of Columbia, in The Washington Star, next Sunday, August 11.

Rust, Moncure, Kerlin and Nash Declared Winners.

All Prince William Officers Will Be Returned.

Tuesday's election returns brought many surprises as veteran prognosticators saw their predictions swept into discard as the returns came piling in from the various county precincts and from surrounding counties.

Owing to a factional fight in Alexandria and further complicated by a local upheaval occasioned by the candidacy of the local Delegate to the General Assembly, who was defeated, the expected co-operation between Alexandria and Arlington, did not materialize and the Fairfax candidate for the Senate was swept into office by the same vote obtained in the metropolitan area which had been conceded to his opponent.

In Prince William County, where Delegate George W. Herring was widely believed to have the upper hand, the outcome was likewise upset by a local cleavage in the adjoining county of Stafford, where a Senatorial fight, in which Prince William was not concerned, created the unusual upset and swept Moncure into office to represent Prince William and Stafford in the next session of the General Assembly.

The local sheriff fight between two popular candidates was concluded favorably for the incumbent when the Haymarket vote brought in a crushing blow for his opponent. In Haymarket also occurred the unusual circumstance of a winner by one vote, as Mr. C. B. Roland scored over his nearest opponent in a three-cornered contest by a single ballot, and Senator Rust had a majority of but two votes.

In Manassas district a spirited contest had been waged between C. C. Lynn, the present Supervisor, who lives outside of the town, and C. E. Nash, a veteran business man and former school trustee of the town. In addition to the personal equation was the old-time, but apparently friendly contest between an incorporated town and its contiguous county area, in which, as so often, the central area, with its organization work, more often than otherwise wins.

Hugh Reid's vote of 2726 in Arlington to 1865 for Rust was not sufficient to overcome his opponent, despite the strength which Reid developed in Prince William and Fairfax. The Fairfax vote was Rust 2050, Reid 1022. In Prince William, the vote was Rust 911, Reid 599.

Unopposed and therefore the unanimous choice of the party for the offices which they are now occupying are Hon. C. A. Sinclair, county treasurer; R. M. Weir, commissioner of revenue, and George G. Tyler, clerk of the court; Mrs. Janie Abel, Dumfries; Rev. J. M. Taylor, Coles, and L. W. Huff, Brentsville, the last three being nominees for the Board of Supervisors.

Some of the hotly fought contests in surrounding counties included the fight for county treasurer in Fairfax, which was won by Dr. F. W. Hudleson, the present incumbent, and that between Judge Paul Brown and Examiner of Records George B. Robey for the office of commonwealth's attorney, vacated by Mr. Wilson Farr, who is retiring. Judge Brown won by a vote of 2,288 to 1,054. An unusual feature among local contests in Fairfax County was the election of a lady, Mrs. Edith Rogers, as supervisor for Dranesville district.

In the 27th Senatorial district, which includes Stafford, Louisa, Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania, H. H. Walton was declared defeated by narrow margin of 15 votes. It is stated that a contest may reverse the outcome.

ANNUAL MEETING OF CATHOLIC WOMAN'S CLUB

The Catholic Woman's Club will meet at the home of Mrs. L. E. Pope, retiring president, on Tuesday evening, August 13.

As this is the annual meeting for election of officers, it will be greatly appreciated if all the ladies of All Saints Church Parish will be present.

Mrs. Pope, president, and Mrs. Robert Bisson, vice-president, have served in their official offices for two consecutive years, and upon their retirement from office, it is very important that every lady of the parish be present at this meeting to vote in the election of new officers.

CATHARPIN

The hot, dry weather during the past few weeks is now getting to the point where it will either have to change its ways or the cornfields, gardens, etc., will have to make other arrangements if they wish to stay in this part of the country. Some of the fields are now beyond recovery, streams dried up and people beginning to talk about "The year of the drought." Thermometers during the past week ranged well in the nineties creating a desire on the part of the citizenry to go aloft and board some of the numerous airplanes gliding so peacefully and comfortably away up out the blistering heat experienced below. Well, we guess there is no use taking a vote on the question since we presume we shall just have to take it as it comes.

Miss Lizzie McIntosh of near Catharpin has been confined to her home during the past week suffering from heat and nervousness and not yet able to be about but very little.

Mrs. Eliza Dorsey, of Richmond, Va., is now visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. Holmes Robertson, where she will likely remain thruout the month of August.

Every epidemic of whatsoever nature serves to call to mind that disease in its various forms still lurks in our midst. Infantile Paralysis just now claiming attention is a little newer than some of the more common ailments such as fevers, measles, colds, etc., hence every precaution is being taken to combat its progress. Prince William, be it said to her honor, has spared no pains nor overlooked any opportunity to prevent its inception by closing all places where contact might be possible. It is a case where the old adage "Better be sure than sorry" comes into play very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman Cross, of Washington, were visiting friends in the community during the past week.

Mr. J. W. Polen, of the Treasury Department, Washington, is vacationing among friends in the Catharpin neighborhood this week. "Uncle Johnny" as every one calls him, is always welcome among his kith and kin especially the younger ones to whom he is always a Santa Claus. Nor is his welcome confined to relationship; "Johnny" is a welcome guest to all.

Mrs. Bertie Caton, of near Catharpin, was hostess to a number of guests from the Capital City who came out to enjoy a good Sunday dinner at her hospitable home. Among them were noted Mrs. James Riley, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crampton and daughter, Mildred, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Freck and Mr. Charles Motherhead.

Miss Catharine Pattie, of Manassas, was a home visitor over Sunday.

The election or nomination is now over and those designated to receive your electoral support in November are now a known quantity. They have all passed through the flame of Political criticism, won out in their respective official aspirations and now stand approved to receive the suffrage of their fellow men and women. Some, 'tis true, had no opposition and thus escaped the idle slanders heaped upon the "newcomer," and can now pursue the even tenor of their ways without let or hindrance. We have often thought and sometimes expressed it, that if all things said about candidates were true, we should never have anything but a grand rescue to serve us; but fortunately, there are many candidates who are worthy of all trust and confidence and it is from these that the electorate, in the end, may choose its servants. It is also true that sometimes men, not fit for the office they seek, but "hoist by their own political petard," are elected to responsible positions, but fortunately, these are in the minority and the exception rather than the rule. So after all is said and done, we have in Prince William as fine a set of public officials as can be found in any State in the Union. It certainly is fine when officials can succeed themselves from year to year without opposition. It can not all be blamed on "rings," "clicks, parties, etc." It must first rest on ability, then all is easy.

We have often thought that people, as a rule, do not know how to appreciate the services rendered by our county officials; or rather perhaps we should say, do not know how to SHOW appreciation; or again, perhaps, have never learned that we should appreciate at all; or that appreciation is ever due. Well, even though a person happens to be elected to office, he or she is none the less human; they eat and sleep just like the rest of us, go about their business serving the people, and have the same sensibilities toward kind words as any other citizen and know how to appreciate a kindly thought once it is expressed. Perhaps we all know so little about the duties of our "officialdom" that we are unable to formulate a compliment, but the fact that they all keep out of jail is most excellent evidence that they can be trusted with our business. So if you can not think of anything else to compliment them about, just compliment them on their freedom.

Mrs. Mary E. Wilkins, the dean of Sudley neighborhood, who has been somewhat indisposed during the past week, is now better. The people of the community are always interested in her welfare.

GAINESVILLE

A marriage of interest to the community took place last week when Miss Virginia Clara Gaines became the bride of Mr. Roy McCuin. We wish this new couple a happy and successful life.

Mr. Palmer Smith and two daughters, Madge and Virginia, of Mount View, were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Haymarket.

Misses Catherine and Edna Sloper spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sloper.

Miss Frances L. Robertson had as her guest on Sunday Mr. Reginald Morrison, of Berryville.

Miss Frances S. Smith, who has received a position in general accounting office in Washington, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Smith.

OCCOQUAN

Mrs. John Powell is quite ill in Providence Hospital following an operation.

Misses Ninnie and Frances Smith, of Bristow, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Frank Ruffner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Padderson and daughter, Patricia, of Winchester, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lynn.

TUESDAY'S ELECTION

The elections Tuesday were the occasion of much surprise to veteran politicians, both in State and National returns. In the field of national politics much interest centered in the election in Rhode Island where the New Deal was on trial in the first Congressional contest since Roosevelt's recent drive against Constitutional limitation to his recovery measures. In the same election there was the question of heavy state bonding to carry on PWA projects. The outcome is said to have been very disconcerting to administration politicians in Washington, who seemingly view with alarm the election of a Republican congressman in Rhode Island by a landslide and their rejection of bond issues to finance the state's share of PWA work.

In Virginia the apparent turnover in Rhode Island will not be the occasion for much party fright. Southern Democracy has long viewed the federal encroachments upon State rights with disfavor and a national repudiation of the New Deal will strengthen, rather than weaken the cause of Democracy among the masses this side of the Potomac.

The Democratic Primary in Virginia has resulted in the replacement of 47 members of the General Assembly, 33 in the House and 14 in the Senate. The Democratic "Machine" in Virginia is not materially effected by the turnover. Several valuable members of Governor Peery's Advisory Committee were retired to private life, however, including Senator Hunter Miller, of Bedford, an outstanding authority on the State Budget.

Prince William County and many others will lose the services of experienced legislators with place on important committees and will rely upon untried personalities for their representation in the General Assembly this winter, when legislation touching the welfare of every citizen will be under consideration.

THE PARALYSIS SITUATION

Relaxation of regulations of the Prince William County Board of Health, permitting moving picture theatres to open, with attendance restricted to adults, marked developments in the infantile paralysis situation. Writing to the passenger agent of a railway this week, Dr. L. C. Riggan has stated, "There has been unnecessary alarm and hysteria about the whole situation. This does not mean, of course, that I think we should not observe all precautionary measures to prevent spread of the disease."

For the week ending on Tuesday there were reported 100 new cases throughout the State, as compared to 87 for the week previous. It is believed that this indicated that the epidemic has about reached its peak and will presently decline. There have been no reports of any case of infantile paralysis in Prince William County during the past week.

THE GREATEST LIVING VIRGINIAN

Claiming to be "a better Democrat than a lot of others he could name, Senator Carter Glass Saturday confirmed reports that he expected to be a candidate to succeed himself in 1936. Furthermore, and possibly this is the more interesting part of the statement, the senior Senator made it clear that he expects to offer for reelection as a Democrat and, if nominated, will run on the party ticket.

This seems to dispose effectually of rumors that Senator Glass and his colleague, Senator Byrd, might head a bolt from the party in the event President Roosevelt is renominated. Neither Mr. Glass nor Mr. Byrd has ever given out a statement warranting belief that either contemplates leaving the party if Mr. Roosevelt is selected as its standard-bearer next year. Nothing in the political career of either Senator substantiates the rumor.

Both have been lifelong Democrats, of unquestioned party fidelity and loyalty to the tenets of Democracy. The attempt to jockey them into a position of considering any other course than one of unflinching allegiance to the Democratic party assuredly did not originate in quarters friendly to the Senators.

For more than a year it has been known that Senator Glass expected to be a candidate to succeed himself in 1936. He will undoubtedly be renominated without opposition. And he will be overwhelmingly re-elected. Virginia is proud of Carter Glass and appreciative of his deservedly enviable reputation. He is one of the nation's foremost statesmen, as he is unquestionably the greatest living Virginian. — Roanoke Times.

POIGNANT LOVE STORY

DEPICTED ON DIXIE SCREEN

In a story that fairly sparkles with high romance, Helen Hayes and Robert Montgomery comes to the screen of the Dixie Theatre in Manassas next Wednesday as co-stars for only the second time in their respective careers.

The story is "Vanessa: Her Love Story," from the brilliant pen of the eminent novelist, Hugh Walpole. It is definitely listed among the better photoplays of the new season.

Miss Hayes has never given a more sterling performance than as the heroine, Vanessa, who, blindly in love with Montgomery, is persuaded to accept a more suitable marriage with Otto Kruger. She is not able to forget her first love and manages to spend a few happy hours with him after Kruger, insanely jealous, has ordered her from his home. How she and Montgomery work out the tangled skein of their lives provides absorbing entertainment.

Banks Believe
 —in finding reasons for trusting people.

THE banks of this country are now lending some seven billion dollars to borrowers in what are generally classed as "unsecured loans" for business purposes.

This means that no tangible form of wealth such as real estate, stocks, bonds, or commodities have been pledged by the borrowers to secure repayment of these loans. They are, however, secured by a far more valuable pledge than tangible wealth. Back of each loan is the proven integrity, the good faith and determination of the borrowers to carry through to a successful conclusion the purposes for which they made these loans.

This bank is always seeking new business friendships with men whose character and abilities entitle them to credit.

A NOVEL OF THE OLD SOUTH

By H. J. Eckenrole

The story of Buck Musgrave, Southern gentleman, who devoted himself, before the Civil War, to the serious pursuits of life, particularly horse-racing, cock-fighting and hard drinking. The searing changes which the War brought to this son of the Old South, and his changed outlook in the Reconstruction period are presented with dramatic force.

The author is State Historian of Virginia. He knows and understands the people of whom he writes, and he treats of the Musgraves as well as the "poor whites" with honesty and vigor. The manners and customs of the time just before and after the Civil War are presented from a fresh viewpoint in this fine novel of the life, loves and adventures of Buck Musgrave, who betrayed his traditions, but found a renewed and finer life under a new code.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

F. D. Cox

New Wheat Adjustment Program.

The new wheat adjustment plan, asked for by wheat producers in their referendum, is expected to be ready to offer farmers soon in substantially its present form. It will cover the four-year period, 1936 to 1939, inclusive, but growers will have the option of withdrawing after two years if they desire to do so.

So that growers may make their seeding plans, it is announced that the required reduction for the coming crop year will be 15 per cent of the base acreage. This will permit the same acreage to be seeded next fall as that allowed for the first year of the present contract. Seeding reductions for the remaining years may vary but in no event will a reduction greater than 25 per cent be called for.

As consideration for their performance under the contract, the Government agrees to make adjustment payments to producers in such an amount as will tend to bring producers as a whole a parity or fair-exchange value return on their allotments.

Reasons why wheat farmers may launch their new program with confidence despite processing tax litigation, according to officials, are: first, the new amendments to the Adjustment Act specifically enact the rates of processing tax; second, the provisions in the new contract permitting termination by the Secretary of Agriculture at the end of any year, and allowing grower withdrawal at the end of the first two years, give ample machinery for ending the program in the event of an adverse decision in the Supreme Court; third, signers will be fully protected as to compensation for actual performance of compliance with the contract, up to the time of termination.

Drenching Sheep and Lambs.
Severe losses have been reported from stomach worm infestation of late lambs. Directions for use of bluestone or tetrachlorethylene will be furnished upon request.

Blackhead in Turkeys.
Blackhead is primarily a disease of the intestines and liver. The head may or may not be discolored. An examination of the turkey after death usually shows the ceca, or blind guts, enlarged and filled with a solid yellowish, cheesy mass. The outstanding internal change is in the liver which in most cases is enlarged and spotted with dark-red, gray or yellow areas.

The only practical procedure is the use of control measures to prevent the development of the disease. Since chickens act as a carrier of the parasite causing blackhead disease, turkeys should be kept completely removed from chickens or land ranged by chickens or fertilized with chicken manure.

The tobacco-dust treatment of turkeys, when they reach two months of age, for cecum worms, since the worms play such an important part in spreading the parasite, is recommended. Mash containing two per cent of tobacco dust fed from one to several weeks is effective.
