KIWANIS TEACH PATRIOTIC IDEAL

Entertain Number of High School Students.

The Kiwanis Club celebrated Americanization Week on Friday evening in the company of a number of the young people of the county as their guests.

The program was begun by Samuel Hottle who recited for the benefit of the guests the five principles of the Kiwanis organization. This was followed by a harmonica solo by Dicky Haydon.

For the benefit of the present generation and posterity to come, Fred Hynson displayed a map showing the strategic ages of man. Bill Cocke added a colorful story to stress the point.

Following this, Col. Hutchison, to whom the program had been given at this time, called on Miss Margaret Burdette of the Occoquan High School for a historic reading on General Washington. After her capable rendition, Henry Peters read a statement made by Abraham Lincoln who had been requested on one occasion to tell something about himself. After this Arthur Boatwright presented an armful of cherry-tree hatchets to the club as a present from their former associate, Ray Hall, now secretary of the Fredericksburg Chamber of Commerce. Arthur's entrance at this stage of the program was very apropos as he was a member of the road building firm which constructed the new highway from the old bridge to the Ferry Farm from whose shores George Washington is credited with having thrown a silver piece to the west bank.

After this Fred Hynson collected up the names of all the guests and Jackie Martin drew out the slips. It looked as if the boys had a corner on things as Frank Parrish's name was the first drawn and then Jackie had to pull out about a dozen more before he drew one carrying the name of Miss Virginia Newman. Both of the lucky visitors received door prizes.

The most interesting event of the whole evening was the salute to the U. S. flag as an individual recitation by Jackie Martin, age three. Jackie will make a good radio announcer when he grows up as he certainly knows how to slip in the advertising.

Before the evening closed Col. Hutchison made an appropriate address to the visitors to which Miss Madeline Dawson of the Occoquan High School replied.

It may be noted in conclusion that, although Frank had promised his proteges that they would not be called on, two of the three were drawn into the evening's entertainment and performed very credibly.

The following list includes the guests who were present at the evening's entertainment: Thelma Ward, Madeline Dawson, George Pierce, Margaret Burdette, Elizabeth Davies, Charles Lyon, Jr., Kite Roseberry, Harry Davis, Jr., Marvin Gillum, Dickie Haydon, Jr., Shirley Hynson, Henry Peters, Jackie Martin, Henry Henry Peters, Jackie Martin, Miss Rose Ratcliffe, Virginia Newman, Elizabeth Lloyd, Frank Parrish, Mildred Parrish, Warren Hynson, Samuel Hottle, John Roseberry, Connie Kincheloe and Mrs. Dudley Martin.

WILSON AND WEBER

RE-ELECTED

Lloyd B. Wilson was re-elected president and Charles H. Weber, general manager of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia by the board of directors at its regular monthly meeting held in Richmond, February 26. Marshal D. Sedam, John C. Koons and Philip O. Coffin were re-elected vice presidents, Walter B. Clarkson, vice president and secretary, and Thomas B. Clarkson, treasurer.

Other officers elected were Ralph A. Van Orsdel, general counsel; Franklin H. Kenworthy, general auditor; T. Stanley Vanneman, auditor; George I. Berkeley, assistant to general manager; Lloyd M. Griffin, general commercial manager; J. T. Graft, chief engineer; S. F. Merriam, general traffic manager; and V. B. Fitzpatrick, general plant manager.

A CORRECTION

We regret a typographical error last week which caused us to state that a fine of $10 and costs had been imposed for driving drunk. The item should have read $100 and costs. It costs money to mix liquor and gasoline in Prince William, the fines ranging from $100 to $1000.

GARDEN CLUB PLANS FLOWER SHOW

The regular meeting of the Manassas Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson on Tuesday afternoon.

It was decided that the club will have a spring flower show, the date to be announced later. Conservation work was discussed, as well as other club activities.

It was announced that the winter review—"The Leap-Year Fiesta"—a very large and brilliant affair directed by Mrs. Mary Calloway and given under the auspices of the Garden Club of Alexandria has been postponed, and will be given on March 7, in the auditorium of the new George Washington High School. Over one hundred children will participate in this review, as well as an act, "The Gay Nineties," with many prominent people taking part, appearing in fashions of that period.

ROBERT TYLER DIES IN WEST

Two Brothers of Distinguished Family Survive.

Mr. Robert Carter Tyler, brother of Hon. George Tyler, Clerk of the Prince William County Court, died at his home in Absarokee, Mont. He had been at his usual place of business the day before and his death, February 22, was very unexpected. His was the second bereavement in the family since the first of the year, another brother, Mr. Ben Tyler, having died in New York on January 12.

Mr. Robert Tyler was born in Virginia at historic Mt. Airy, a colonial home near Richmond, where his mother was refugee while her husband was in service in the Confederate Army. His earlier years were spent in Prince William County. The Chinn House, on the Manassas Battlefield, belonged to his grandfather, Benj. Tasker Chinn. Leaving many years ago for the west he had become a successful rancher in Montana where his fine qualities of character had endeared him to a wide circle of friends. He was a gentleman of the Old South, in the very finest sense, and his passing is the occasion of widespread regret both in his native State and in the community where he had chosen to live. He was unmarried.

Mr. Tyler is survived by two brothers, Hon. George Tyler and Mr. Bailey Tyler of this county, and by five sisters, the Misses Mary A., Caroline C., Edmonia N., and Matilda, and Mrs. Grayson Tyler, of Haymarket.

MRS. HYNSON ENTERTAINS MUSIC-LITERATURE SECTION

The Music-Literature Section of the Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. F. R. Hynson on Monday evening. In the absence of Mrs. Smith, the meeting was presided over by Mrs. Hynson. Plans for transporting the children to the National Symphony Students concert on Thursday were made.

The book review was given by Mrs. Hitchcock who reviewed "LaFayette" by Andreas Latzko in a most interesting manner, bringing out facts about the home and personal life of LaFayette, seldom learned in history.

The current music was ably presented by Mrs. Hyatt, who stressed the possibilities of radio music and urged us to listen to the programs of the finest in music as presented from time to time on our radio.

The current news reviewer being absent, a short discussion of current news followed and a delicious salad course served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Nathan Briscoe.

M. F. D.'S TO DRIBBLE WITH D. C. QUINT

The Manassas Fire Department's winning basketball team will play the Second Baptist Church quintet from Washington, D. C., on the local hardwood Monday night, March 2.

The M. F. D.'s, boasting a string of eight consecutive wins, will meet a formidable foe when they clash with the D. C. basketweavers. Whether or not this will be the tenth try for undefeated honors, will depend on tonight's game with the McLean A.C. tossers whom the locals downed on a previous occasion.

It is rumored that the turnstiles have not been clicking to the satisfaction of the fire boys in the past. It is hoped that a goodly number of fans will be on hand Monday night when the M. F. D.'s make their tenth bid (we hope) for undefeated fame.

Play begins at 8 p.m.

BRENTSVILLE DISTRICT MEETING TUESDAY NIGHT

The regular monthly meeting of the Brentsville District Community Association will be held next Tuesday evening, March 3, at 7:45 o'clock at the high school at Nokesville.

An interesting program is being arranged and the evening's business will include the planning of the annual school exhibit by the educational committee and the making of plans for a community surplus sale by the agricultural committee. M. S. Kerlin will lead a discussion of the topics, "Should American Agriculture Seek Recovery of World Markets or Arrange to Live at Home?" and "Do Farmers Want High Tariffs on Farm Products? On Industrial Products?"

The co-operation of all in the district is needed for the success of the work planned by the various committees for the year and everyone is urged to attend the meeting Tuesday night.

MRS. FAIRBANKS ENTERTAINS BETHEL CLUB

Twenty members of the Bethel Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Eva Fairbanks of Bethel on February 20. The purpose of the meeting was to complete the reed and splint baskets begun at Mrs. Payne's in January. A large number of the baskets were completed and each owner was quite proud of her accomplishment.

There was a brief social interval during which the hostess, Mrs. Fairbanks, assisted by Mrs. Mabel Schwab, served delicious refreshments.

HONOR STUDENT

Advices have been received that Eddie Conner of William and Mary College made an outstanding average in his first semester's work and has become an honor student of the Senior class.

AN EXPLANATION

By the courtesy and through the columns of the Manassas Journal, I wish to explain the recent order as issued by me as President of the Manassas Volunteer Fire Department.

We, the members of the fire department, are always ready and willing to answer calls for help, whenever we can, and these calls under favorable conditions, PROVIDED that the roads are in such condition to permit the running of our heavy piece of apparatus over same. But due to the impassable condition of all roads, which are not macadam or hard surfaced, it will be useless for us to try to get our apparatus off macadam or hard-surfaced roads.

As I suggested, now is the time for all parties interested, to see your SUPERVISOR, or better still, appear before the board at their next regular meeting, ask them to appropriate money for the purchase of a lighter piece of fire-apparatus, to be placed at a convenient point in the county, to be used for county calls.

Should the voters care to have this apparatus placed here in our station-house, we, the members of the Manassas Volunteer Fire Department, will man same and answer all calls coming from within Prince William County.

GEO. B. COCKE, President.

KLING HERD AGAIN LEADS VIRGINIA

The dairy herd of Wilmer M. Kline, Manassas, again lead the 575 dairy herds, on test in dairy herd improvement associations in Virginia, in average butterfat production per cow in January. The average production per cow was 1,067 pounds milk and 43.2 pounds butterfat. As reported last week, this herd also led all herds on test in butterfat production in December.

Mr. Kline has used herd sires from the Beltsville Experiment Farm for the past several years.

The high cow in the Prince William Dairy Herd Improvement Association in January belonged to the District of Columbia Work House Dairy at Occoquan. This cow produced 72.1 pounds of butterfat during the month.

MANASSAS HIGH CONTINUES TO WIN

More Victories Added During Past Week.

On Friday, February 21, Manassas High School took both ends of a doubleheader from Occoquan High, the girls winning 8-7 and the boys winning 30-17.

The girls got their second win of the season and also their second over Occoquan. The game was slow and because of the intense cold, neither team played at its best. The Manassas girls were handicapped by the short floor and couldn't seem to get going. The score at the end of the first half was 6-3 in favor of Manassas. The high scorers were Sheppard of Occoquan with seven points and Davies of Manassas with four.

In the boys' game, Manassas took its seventh victory easily, experiencing no difficulty. Manassas used two entire teams and all but three players scored. The game was rough and there were many fouls called. Manassas went away at the start and at the end of the first half had run up a 19-8 lead. Occoquan managed to hold them fairly even in the second half. The high scorers were Bowers of Manassas with nine points and Vetter of Manassas and Shively of Occoquan with eight.

On Tuesday, February 25, Manassas High won another doubleheader from Lee-Jackson, the girls winning 16-13 and the boys 26-20. Manassas took a lead in the girls' game almost at the start and managed to hold it despite Lee-Jackson's rallies. At the end of the first half Manassas had an 8-3 lead. Lee-Jackson rallied in the second half to outscore Manassas but couldn't quite catch up. The high scorer was Davies of Manassas with fourteen points.

In the boys' game Lee-Jackson started off well and had a 4-1 lead in a few minutes. Manassas rallied to go ahead 5-4 but Lee-Jackson held a 6-5 advantage at the quarter. Manassas began to go ahead then and by end of first half had an 11-8 lead. In the second half Manassas ran wild for a time with five field goals to make the score 21-8. Here Lee-Jackson rallied but Manassas managed to hold them from a win. The high scorers were Bowers of Manassas with nine points and Koci and Flick of Lee-Jackson with eight.

MANASSAS BATTLE

CELEBRATION

Mr. Ed Conner, who was in Richmond last week in connection with plans to commemorate the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Second Battle of Manassas, reports considerable progress. A modest appropriation has been asked from the General Assembly and it is believed that public interest in this project will steadily increase as plans mature.

It is generally accepted that the Second Battle of Manassas was a greater military achievement for the Confederate Armies than the First. Demoralization of the Northern forces is difficult to compare because in both instances the route was complete, but the military strategy of Second Battle of Manassas is believed by military students to have been one of the most brilliant in battle history.

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robert Humphreys, ("Scotty") are receiving congratulations on the birth of a seven-pound daughter at Alexandria Hospital last Friday. The young lady will be called Mary Anne. Mrs. Humphreys will be remembered as Miss Roselle Hyde. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

HOME CLUBS TO HELP H. D. WORK

Bethlehem Housekeepers Entertained by Mrs. Jackson and Miss Kincheloe.

The Bethlehem Good Housekeeping Club met on the afternoon of February 19 at the home of Mrs. Hebe Jackson, with Miss Florence Kincheloe assistant hostess.

Outstanding among the reports was that of the educational committee. Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson announced three new books bought for the library, "I Live in Virginia," "Mystery of the Poor Man's Shilling" and "Greenwood is Best." A motion was carried contributing $15 to the library fund.

Mrs. Johnson also made a splendid report of the civilian relief from December 1934 to January 31, 1936.

Mrs. R. L. Byrd was made custodian of "The Southern Magazine," to which the club subscribes.

At least twelve members responded to Miss Pitts' appeal for quilt pieces. These were left at Miss Pitts' office or brought to Mrs. Jackson's. Sixty cents was contributed by members for thread.

The program committees and topics were announced for the year.

The corresponding secretary was asked to send a card of sympathy from the club to Miss Lillian Gilbert's family.

After the remaining business details were disposed of, the meeting adjourned to spend a pleasant social hour, during which a refreshing salad course and coffee were served.

ROBERT M. WATERS

Early in the morning of Feb. 25, died Robt. Mickum Waters, at his home in Manassas, in the 88th year of his life. He was born in the city of Washington on the 25th day of January, 1849, being the eldest child of Robt. Alexander and Anne Mickum Waters. After his graduation from Georgetown College, where he had majored in journalism, he came to Manassas in 1869 and established the Manassas Gazette. He came from a long line of newspaper men as in his father's office in Washington was printed the first edition of the Evening Star. We may say that the history of Mr. Waters' life is a history of Manassas. He was a contemporary of all those early settlers, Mr. Geo. C. Round, Oliver Newman, C. L. Hynson and "stood up" with Dr. B. F. Iden at his wedding to Miss Hooe.

On May 10, 1871, he married Anna Bladen Weir, daughter of Robt. Carter and Mary Thornton Weir, who died in 1908. From this union the following children survive him: Miss Robertine and O. D. Waters of Manassas; Mrs. A. M. Crigler of Baltimore; Mrs. D. M. Pitts of Columbia, Va.; Mrs. J. L. Elliott, Charlotte, N. C., and R. Weir Waters of Takoma Park, Md.

He was buried at the Manassas cemetery this morning. Mass was sung for the repose of his soul at the All Saints Catholic Church at 10:30. The pallbearers were P. L. Proffitt, R. M. Jenkins, H. T. Davies, sr., R. M. Weir, Noel Lynn, jr., and J. B. Lynch. Interment was at the local cemetery.

Mr. Waters was affectionately known as the "Colonel" and was one of the most beloved men in the community. His mind was a storehouse of the old things that have passed and he shone as a conversationalist. One of the interesting things that he related to the writer was that the day after Mr. Lincoln had been assassinated his father's house was stoned because no mourning had been displayed. Now that he has gone we shall miss companionship and his friendly way. Not many are left who can like he did, connect us with the great past. "After life's fitful fever he sleepeth well."

MANASSAS DISTRICT FARMERS TO MEET SATURDAY

"Will Crop Adjustment Be Necessary or Desirable in Years to Come?"

THE POOR IN SPIRIT

"Blessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." (Matt. 5:3). To some this seems like a bit of idealism which does not work out in practice. Observation seems to indicate that the prizes of life go to the proud and selfishly aggressive rather than to the humble and meek.

What does Jesus mean by the poor in spirit? Certainly He does not intend to rebuke proper self esteem and ambition. Christian meekness has nothing in common with cringing obsequiousness like that of Dickens' character Uriah Heep. Moses is called meek, but he had spirit enough to kill the Egyptian who was abusing a Hebrew. Jesus is called meek and lowly, but His eyes flashed anger when he drove the racketeers from the temple and when He sent the defiant reply to the threat of Herod. Paul modestly spoke of himself as "less than the least of all saints" but he demanded and received a public apology from the magistrates of Philippi who had unjustly imprisoned him.

Christian meekness may be defined as the spirit which leads one to submerge his own interests in the larger interests of others. It is the direct opposite of the spirit of selfishness which prompts many to build up their own fortunes by exploiting their fellow men. It finds its highest expression in the example of our Lord of whom His enemies said, "He saved others; Himself He cannot save."

Inheriting the earth does not mean gathering up the largest pile of gold. The millionaires are often the greatest paupers. They utterly fail to acquire the things which are most worthwhile. Wealth is not a matter of outward condition, but of inward character. We are rich or poor according to what we are in ourselves and not according to what we have in the bank.

The highest and best gifts of nature are as accessible to the poor as to the rich. A dime held close to the eye will obscure a beautiful landscape, and a man without a dime can fully enjoy the beauties of earth, sky and sea. All true happiness is on inside and is more abundant among the humble and obscure than among those whom the world calls great.

"Who drives the horses of the sun Shall lord it but a day; Better the lowlier deed were done And trod the humbled way

The happiest heart that ever beat Was in some quiet breast That found life's common duties sweet

MRS. MARTHA EDMONDS

Mrs. Martha Edmonds passed away on Sunday, February 26, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. V. Claggett at Ijamsville, Md. She was 82 years of age, and had been in bad health for two years. She had been in bed since November 10 but was brighter than usual when she passed into her sleep peacefully.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Lora Walls of Manassas and Mrs. Nonie Claggett of Ijamsville, Md. She also leaves thirteen grandchildren to mourn her death.

She will be greatly missed by her many friends and relatives. She had lived in and near Nokesville most all her life and was a member of the United Brethren Church at Aden.

Funeral services were held in Hyattstown, Md., at 10 o'clock Wednesday and she was laid to rest in the cemetery there, beneath banks of lovely flowers which evidenced the affection and esteem of the relatives and friends.

AUBREY SAUNDERS

Aubrey L. Saunders, the only son of Leonidas and Hattie Houser Saunders, died in Lynchburg on Feb. 20 at the age of 24 years, after several years' bad health. He is survived by his father and one sister, Mrs. H. J. Butler, both of Manassas.

Funeral services were held from Manassas Presbyterian Church. Interment was in the Leesburg cemetery.

MRS. LULA FLORENCE

Mrs. Lula McAllister Florence, wife of John M. Florence, a former resident of Prince William County, Va., but now of Alexandria, Va., died very suddenly at the Alexandria Hospital on Saturday evening, February 15.

Besides her husband, she is survived by seven children, four grandchildren and several nieces and nephews, all of whom were devoted to her. She also leaves to mourn her departure, one brother and two sisters, Mr. Rufus E. McAllister, Miss Mary A. McAllister of Washington and Mrs. George W. Russell of Prince William County.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. P. S. Ellis, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Alexandria, Va. February 18. Her remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground, beside those of her mother at Marshall in Fauquier County.

"A precious one from us is gone, A voice we loved so well is stilled, A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled."

DUMFRIES

The people of Dumfries were quite surprised to hear of the marriage of Miss Hazel Kincheloe to Mr. Clarence Poteet of Ashville, N. C. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kincheloe, February 15, at 7:30 p.m., by A. H. Shumate of Dumfries.

We wish both bride and groom a happy and successful life together.

At this writing Miss Patricia Keyes is very ill in bed at home.

We were all very sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Sarah H. Lynn. She died in Washington at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lucy Smith, with pneumonia.

Mr. W. E. Kincheloe still lingers on in ill health. We are all thankful he is with us after the condition he has been in for years.

Mr. Frank Davis is very ill at his home in Dumfries. We wish him a speedy recovery. He is 86 years old. He is missed greatly around town.

SCHOOL NEWS
(From our Colored Friends)

The patrons, children and teacher of the Neabco school and community thank Miss Penn for her untiring service she is rendering in the school and community. We invite her to visit us at any time. We will assure her that her sound instruction will be carried out.

The children of the Neabco school take this means of expressing their appreciation to Miss Penn, through the poem titled "To Miss Adeline Penn."

Many thanks to Miss Adeline Penn For the race she has helped us win, About our weak bodies she was told; And she set out to make health our goal.

To make our bodies what they should be,
She sent us Vitamin A, B, C and D,
And being impressed with our smiles
Came to see us once in a while.

Watched us study, play and rest,
And some day we'll do our best
Strong men and women we'll grow to be.

We won't forget to help some weak child we see.

Long live Miss Adeline Penn
To help Neabco her goal to win,
And when to humanity she has done her best
Our Father shall take her home to rest.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

To keep up your attendance I find,
You got to make transportation of this kind;
Good morning children with a smile
That is loving and worth the while.

Vary your program with things that are good,
And it will take the same effect as eating proper food.
Make each child know and see and feel,
That he is one of the main spokes in this attendance wheel.

And to your surprise when some are late
Make visits to see what is Jonnie's fate;
Tell him the school room was made for teacher and child,
And is left to us to make it worth while.

Keep your school attractive, clean and neat
Urging the pupils to keep paper from around their feet;
And when the work becomes tire-some and hours long
Brighten the day with a merry song.

And you will find the school a pleasant place to be
Where all the children long to see;
If you solve your problems with wise information
You'll have no trouble with this transportation.

Attendance is a thing of this kind
It like to be fed on things that's fine;
Adopt this slogan, teacher and pupil are alert
And the patrons will come and find you no shirk.

The school and community working as a unit
Solving the difficult problem that arise in it;
The teacher the lighthouse of this ship,
Guiding precious souls that they may not slip.

—Jessie Joyce Alexander.

GOVERNMENT GETS BATTLEFIELD PARK

The Senate has passed and sent to the White House a bill establishing the Richmond National Battlefield Park in Virginia.

THAT EVERYONE MAY KNOW

The many families whom we have served are well aware of the fact that we have a wide variety of caskets from which to choose. They know also that we maintain a very reasonable price range, with figures starting at a low price and gradually rising, so that a family, regardless of its means, can have just what is desired. Many persons have commented favorably upon the moderate prices of our merchandise.

But there are many whom we have had no occasion to serve who do not know about our prices, and their reasonableness. They may even have wrong ideas because of our reputation for fine services. For their benefit we make the statement that we offer our complete service - - - which means service of unsurpassed high quality - - - for a sum considerably under one hundred dollars. In easy steps prices graduate upwards, every service plainly marked, and differences in value evident at a glance.

We shall cheerfully discuss funeral costs and facts with anyone who cares to discuss them with us.

CHEVROLET PRODUCTION FOR JANUARY

Chevrolet Motor Company reported production for January of 104,193 units; an increase of 45,795 over January, 1935, and 12,609 units more than the best previous January (1928) in the history of the company. January marked the third month in succession having production exceeding 100,000 units, and was the seventh 100,000-car month in 11 months.

Production beginning with November, 1935, when the current new models were introduced, through January, totaled 328,553 units. Each of the three months set a new all-time record, as compared with corresponding months, in the history of Chevrolet.

Chevrolet's first 100,000 car month was March, 1927. This year was the first time January reached six figures.

Production figures for January, as reported by Chevrolet, include 100,039 domestic and export units, and 4,154 built in Canada.

FOOD MARKET

Advice-

EXCEPT for a day or two, the period of storms and low temperatures has continued with a consequent real shortage of middle western brown EGGS and of BUTTER. The price of both these commodities is high though egg prices are expected to topple with an real let-up in the weather. The higher price of FLOUR is also due to temporary shortage.

Lamb Much Lower

LAMB prices are much lower than last week and BEEF prices have been reduced to a lesser degree. These two meats are the best values available VEAL and POULTRY continue high.

Fish Prospects for Lent

With most fresh FISH scarce and high and stocks of frozen FILLETS depleted because of the extraordinary demand on them during the past month, the best fish prospects for Lent include frozen SMELTS, MACKEREL, SWORDFISH, HALIBUT and SALMON. Even more dependable from the standpoint of supply is canned Salmon, both pink and red. Red is less plentiful than pink and therefore more expensive. Both have approximately the same food value though red has somewhat more fat and the fat soluble vitamins A and D.

McIntosh Apples Cheap

McIntosh APPLES now cost only half as much as they did last season at this time but other popular varieties are also moderate in price. Florida Valencia ORANGES are now coming to market and fortunately large sizes predominate and represent the best value. The GRAPEFRUIT season has passed its peak but they will be plentiful for several months. Anjou PEARS are being called to the attention of the public. This sweet dainty or salad pear adds to the variety of winter meals.

Good Vegetable Values Available
In spite of a severe frost in Texas there are still many excellent vegetable values in market from that state as well as from Florida and California. CUCUMBERS, EGGPLANTS, TOMATOES and the more exotic vegetables are coming from Cuba, Puerto Rico and the Isle of Pines.
Here are menus planned around foods which are seasonal and moderate in price.

Dinner
Roast Lamb, Browned Potatoes, Glazed Carrots, Green Peas, Pear Salad, Rolls and Butter, Chocolate Pudding, Coffee.
Lunch or Supper
Creamed Salmon, Boiled Rice, Cole Slaw, Bread and Butter, Fruit Cup, Cookies, Tea, Milk.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST
The Word of God
The word is a lamp unto our feet, and a light unto our path.—Psalm 119:105
BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER
If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

UNIVERSAL FATHERHOOD: Have we not all one father? Hath not one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?—Malachi 2:10.

ROBERT MICKUM WATERS
(Resurgam)

Our dear old friend has entered the Gates Beyond.

We shall remember with pleasure his merry smile and cheerful conversation.

He possessed a fine personality and the charm of an old-fashioned gentleman. He was highly intelligent and well read. These qualities, combined with his very retentive memory of historic persons and scenes, made him an instructive and pleasing conversationalist.

When last we saw him, in response to a complaint of the weather, he said, "Spring will be here again."

Dear old friend, Eternal Spring has dawned for you.

BYRD AND RITCHIE

The passing of Albert Cabell Ritchie leaves Byrd the only presidential timber in the South. These two men descended from Virginia's oldest and best, present many similar qualities. Both introduced modern and efficient government in their respective states while holding firmly to the ideals of early political beliefs.

Both demonstrated large and dependable capacity for expansion and modern innovation that would strengthen and not destroy the basic structure of iron-clad state's rights.

All Virginia regrets the passing of Ritchie as one of the outstanding sons of this State. Virginia presents another of her sons as worthy of National honors—Harry F. Byrd.

MONCURE SUPPORTS AID
FOR LOCAL SCHOOLS

The only attempt to increase the appropriation for rural schools culminated this week in the adoption of an amendment by the House of Delegates in Richmond making a substantial appropriation for transportation in the counties. The vote was 44 to 41. The measure now goes to the Senate.

Hon. Frank P. Moncure, who represents Prince William and Stafford Counties, was active in the introduction and passage by the House of the amendment and voted for it.

This favorable action by the lower branch of the General Assembly is widely viewed as a healthy sign that at last the legislature is recognizing that transportation is a school function and a responsibility of the State. Up to the present time the localities have had to carry the entire burden of the cost of transporting the school children.

ALBERT C. RITCHIE

Virginia was peculiarly interested in the career of Albert Cabell Ritchie. He was born in Richmond and his ancestral roots, through his charming mother, struck deep into the best traditions of the State. In late years he often visited the city of his birth, where many of his Cabell relatives now reside. Each time he was hailed as a distinguished native son who had shed new luster on Virginia's escutcheon.

Mr. Ritchie, who held the all-time record of having been Governor of Maryland for four terms, was often cited as the spirit incarnate of his adopted State. He reflected its tolerance, its hatred of sham, its love of freedom which would not be denied, even in the darkly fanatical days of national prohibition. He was one of the country's outstanding laissez-faire liberals. He was a rare combination of the conservative-progressive. One of the most stubborn and determined defenders of State's rights, yet he was quick to recognize any reform which promised a better administration of the government of Maryland. He was among the first Governors to outline, and have adopted, a modern form of State administration, designed with an eye to efficiency rather than political expediency.

Mr. Ritchie spoke for millions of his countrymen who would have preferred a broader outlook and less restriction upon their personal conduct than was permitted during the prohibition era. His voice was one of the most persistent and persuasive in opposition to sumptuary laws. The people knew that he was above corruption. Even his bitterest enemy did not dare assert that he was animated by any ulterior motive.

The public life of America is the poorer for the passing of Albert Cabell Ritchie. His whole career was a protest against sham, hypocrisy and intolerance. Virginia joins with the Free State in deploring his sudden and untimely death.—Times-Dispatch.

MRS. MARGARET BEALE

All Quantico was greatly shocked yesterday morning when it became known that Mrs. Margaret Beale, age 38, who had kept the general store there since her husband's death in 1932, had apparently committed suicide by shooting. It is stated that she called Dr. B. F. Phillips on the phone and told someone to come over that she needed help.

It is also said that Mrs. Phillips, who answered the phone, heard something that sounded like a shot while she was attempting to discover the identity of the party that was calling. Mrs. Phillips called up Judge Lloyd who awakened the colored helper in Mrs. Beale's store. They found her on the floor dying.

Judge Lloyd issued a certificate of suicide and Coroner Marsteller verified the verdict.

Mrs. Beale was a native of the Glendie neighborhood in Stafford and a daughter of W. B. Armstrong.

She was very popular and said to be quite successful in business. Friends have noticed an increased tendency toward despondency particularly in the past few months and this is most likely the cause of the trouble.

Funeral will take place tomorrow but arrangements are not yet complete.

MISS DRAPER'S SOPHOMORE CLASS ENTERTAINS PATRONS

The Patrons League of the Manassas High School met in the library with the vice-president, Mrs. W. M. Johnson, presiding, due to the illness of the president, Mrs. Robert E. Newman.

After the regular business was concluded, Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, chairman of the program, presented a most enjoyable series of speakers. The principal, R. Worth Peters, spoke interestingly and at length of curricular changes at the Manassas High School outlining the history and growth of the school since it started as a secondary school and sketching some of the changes that will come in the near future.

The meeting being the annual celebration of Founders Day, a former president of the league, Mrs. C. C. Lynn, read an article outlining the "National Organization of the Parent-Teacher Association" as started by our founder, Mrs. David O. Mears. Another past president, Mrs. A. A. Hooff, told of the state organization of the Co-operative Education which is not the Virginia branch of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The patrons then adjourned to the school dining room where they were delightfully entertained by Miss Draper's sophomore class. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. R. C. Haydon and Mrs. R. Worth Peters and they were ably assisted by the following girls: Louise Carter, Lillian Marsh, Rosa LeFevre, Hilda Lion, Katherine Jacobs, Dora May, Virginia May, Margaret Goode, Dorothy Thorpe, Kate Thomas, Genevieve Randall, and Dorothy Gilroy. Delicious refreshments were served, all prepared by the girls.

The patrons were all interested in a specimen of Mr. Griswold's work which consisted of a tiny German silver scone in which burned a single candle.

ASH WEDNESDAY

By Inno McGill

With this day's commemoration, on Wednesday of this week, the Christian world inaugurates the fast observed in preparation for Easter, or the season we call Lent from the Anglo-Saxon word signifying Spring.

Traced back to Apostolic times, at first Lent varied both in length and severity but, after the example set by Christ Himself, a Lent of forty days has since become practically universal, although the rigour of the fast has been greatly mitigated; allowing, on most days of Lent, the use of flesh-meat.

The rubric of the Catholic Church prescribes that the ashes blessed on this day be obtained by the burning of the palms that were blessed on Palm Sunday of the previous year.

Thus, by making the ashes for Ash Wednesday from palm leaves, the fact is stressed that everything in this world is fleeting; that the man who has climbed to the highest pinnacle of success must go down with him who has walked in the shadows; that every life, sooner or later, must crumble into dust.

As Ash Wednesday would be meaningless without Easter, so, too, the struggles and sorrows, the fasts and prayers of our life are but a prelude to the Easter morn of eternity. If the Incarnation means revelation, then the Resurrection means glory.

But glory cannot come to any man who is unwilling to pay the price in sweat and in trials during the days of his sojourn in this valley of tears.

FORD PLANT ATTRACTS MANY SIGHTSEERS

The rising tide of prosperity brought a great increase during 1935 in the number of visitors to the Ford Motor Company's Rouge plant, largest industrial plant in the world, it was announced recently at the home office in Dearborn, Mich. During the year, 91,091 visitors were conducted through the plant, as compared with 63,603 in 1934.

It is expected this year, with the forthcoming opening of the Ford Rotunda and its elaborate permanent exhibits at Dearborn, that the number of visitors may exceed the present record, which was 121,811 in 1929.

In the course of a year, visitors from almost every country in the world arrive at Dearborn to see the Rouge plant, which is generally considered the outstanding example of a self-contained industry and of large-scale production in the world today.

The increasing number of visitors has exactly followed the course of recovery during recent years. In 1932 there were only 49,775 visitors; in 1933, as the skies began to brighten a little, the number increased to 52,712. In 1934 and 1935 the rate of increase was more rapid, in time with the quickening tempo of recovery.

The things which most impress visitors, according to the guides at the plant, are, first of all, the final assembly line, and the amazing cleanliness of the 1,100-acre establishment. The elaborate safety precautions, the well-regulated traffic, and the Trade School for boys also attract much comment.

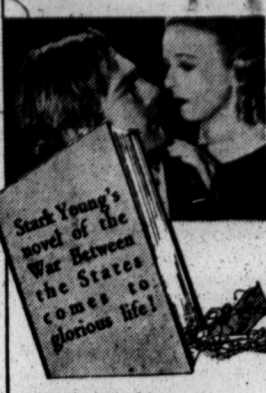

Visitors go through the plant on the regular conducted group tours of the plant, which leave the home office every half hour of the day from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The trip requires 1 3/4 hours.

To handle the large number of daily visitors, which reached a peak of 22,940 in August of last year, six 21-passenger Ford V-8 buses and two Ford V-8 station wagons were used.

Mr. Spencer Buckner has been on a visit to his old home here. Mr. Chas. McAll on a visit to relatives.

Mr. Bronson Cave and Justin Kearney motored to Warrenton on Friday.

Hip! Hip! Hooray! The boys and girls basketball teams went to Haymarket on Feb. 25 and the boys score was 19 to 18 in favor of Haymarket. The girls score was 25-23 in favor of Nokesville.

Last Friday, Feb. 21, the boys and girls went to Warrenton. The boys score was 15 to 14 in favor of Warrenton but the Nokesville girls won 32 to 27.

Notice! The 4-H Club and Community League will be Mar. 3. Everyone is welcome.

Thursday, Feb. 27, the girls will play Fredericksburg there. The game was announced previously but it was postponed.

It looks as though there will be plenty of pupils who will have to "dig and scratch" to pass exams this last semester because there are so many absentees.

CATHARPIN

A number of Catharpin people attended the league meeting at Haymarket on Thursday night of last week and report a very interesting session. They debated that old, never dying question—"Resolved: That there is more pleasure in the pursuit than in the possession." The negative won. ? ? ? ?

Mrs. Mary E. Wilkins, the dean of Sudley women, celebrated her eighty-seventh birthday on Sunday, the 23rd. This little lady is always on time as a rule, but she let Mr. George Washington beat her by one day; his "annual" having been celebrated on Saturday. Mrs. Wilkins was the recipient of many tokens of love and many good wishes for her continued health and happiness. This column extends heartiest congratulations.

Mr. W. Holmes Robertson and daughter, Rita, have been confined to their rooms during the past week suffering from flu. This community seems to have its full share of that particular ailment just now.

Miss Bertha Pattie of Belle Farm has been confined to her home for several days as the result of a sprained ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lynn and Mrs. J. H. Akers were Manassas shoppers recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Alvey were Clarendon visitors on Thursday last calling on Mrs. Alvey's uncle, Mr. Walter Sanders, who is now convalescing and home from the hospital where he has been a patient for a number of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Pattie spent the week-end with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Briggs of the Capital City, motoring on Sunday morning to Baltimore where they attended services at Frederick Ave. Methodist Church where the Rev. C. F. Phillips is pastor.

The Misses Katharine and Mary Currell Pattie spent Washington's birthday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Pattie of this city.

Miss Sallie McIntosh, an aged and highly respected lady of the Catharpin neighborhood, died of pneumonia in the Alexandria hospital on Sunday, February 23, after but a few days' illness. The deceased had been taken to the hospital five weeks earlier suffering a fractured hip from which she was rapidly recovering until pneumonia claimed her. She is the last of her generation of brothers and sisters and of a family noted for its honesty and integrity in every way. She leaves a number of nephews and nieces to remember her for the kindnesses shown them during her long and useful life. Funeral services conducted on Tuesday, Feb. 25, at 2:30 p.m., and interment in the family lot in Sudley cemetery followed by many friends.

The Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Sapp, who have been sojourning among flowers, oranges and Singing Towers down Florida way for the past several weeks, returned home Monday feeling fine and fit after a very pleasant trip. We have not learned whether they found that old, fabled "Fountain of Youth," or whether they were even seeking it; we should not be surprised, however, if some "modernite" might rise up and tell us there were no such animal; that it is all a myth, etc. But be that as it may, we are glad to welcome them home again.

While Washington's birthday comes every year and is always a matter of interest to every one, this year's observance was interesting beyond the average especially thruout this section since this great man's ability to toss a coin across the Rappahannock river at Fredericksburg was to be put to the test for the first time in history. Heretofore, every one accepted the story without question; told it to their children along with that other beautiful little piece of literature about the Cherry Tree that had no "lie" in it and all were happy until some of our "Latter Day Saints" began questioning their veracity thus trying to break down the belief of those who had cherished the stories from childhood. For this effort we can but express regret. We are sorry that in this late day any should try to abuse the legends—if legends they are—so sweetly cherished in loving memory of America's First Citizen. It seems that nowadays, much effort is being put forth to break down some of our most loved historical beliefs which children of past generations have been taught and which they cherish and revere. Among them just now is the tossing of the coin and the Cherry Tree story.

When we consider the source of history we find it to be written by those who lived at the time it happened. This was done either in alphabetical rhythm or by pictures or by words, and all we can do today is to read and accept things as we find them since we can not go back and check up on things which do not exactly tally with our peculiar notions. We, of course, were not there when George threw the "dollar" across the Rappahannock; nor when he cut the cherry tree with his little hatchet; neither were we at the Court of Spain when Columbus applied for authority and funds to cross the Atlantic, nor were we at St. Salvador when he landed; yet we believe he was there. No one living today was present when the dollar was thrown, nor when the little hatchet started that little story rolling down the ages, but shall our absence invalidate the history we have had taught us during past generations on that account? rather, we should think it were better if these critics, instead of breaking down innocent legends of old, would apply themselves to some of the modern, school-book myths and impossibilities of today. For our part we are willing to accept these as they are now believed and let the matter rest forever and anon.

Perhaps no one could have been selected to better prove the possibility of throwing across the river than our own Walter Johnson; and that he should succeed in putting the disk across was the avowed wish of the Nation. Walter, many times, has been the central figure in nation-wide broadcasts during his career on the diamond, but we doubt if he ever had a more interested citizenship than was his on last Saturday when radios all over the country were besieged for news that he had accomplished his objective. If we had our way we should like to vote first prize to the fellow who "invented" the idea of securing him for this particular part of the program. Fredericksburg did herself proud as she always does. She has more historic spots within her domain than any city we know; and she knows how to treat visitors.

WATERFALL

Our telephone lines are still prostrate, with relief not yet in sight. As yet we haven't learned how-ol of our neighbors celebrated Feb. 22. As for us, we did bake a cherry pie.

The old age pension bill seems a subject of much interest, with diversified opinions, also causing much speculation as to its limitations. If this bill becomes a law, it has its virtues, in providing for the unfortunate. But it seems to us it may have a demoralizing influence on the lives of the less ambitious. What is the use to put by any pennies for the rainy day when one is going to be cared for anyway at the expense of the public.

Whichever way the cat hops, we all know the inevitable outcome. Folks who have never saved in their youth seldom mend their ways, money which comes to them, simply puts that much in circulation, which means that it will safely land in the pockets of the more frugal, and everybody will be more or less benefited by this law.

Phil Thornhill thinks fate is being very unkind. Just a few days of school after his recent indisposition, then seized with an attack of flu, we hear this malady is quite prevalent among the school children, as well as grown-ups. Phil says his spirits were somewhat revived by a visit from his mother who came on Friday to spend the holiday with him, bringing those things dear to a boy's heart and appetite.

Mr. Herman Smith, who is now employed by the federal government, spent Sunday at Hagley, the home of his parents.

Mr. Edward Thomas, who is spending some time at the home of Mr. G. A. Gossom, is on a business trip to New York.

Mrs. Susan Morton paid this neighborhood a visit last week in search of historical data, to assist in the recent work assigned her.

R. B. Gossom, jr., who is employed at Rocky Mount, Va., came to Washington Friday for a few days' visit with his wife and young son. On Sunday they motored to Mt. Atlas for the day. This was Richard Herrell's first visit to his grandparents, who are quite convinced that this handsome young chap is just about perfect.

BURKE

Mr. John Fleming died at his home on February 19. Funeral services were held at his residence on Friday, the 21st, by Rev. W. M. Compton. Interment at Fairfax.

Miss Mary L. Kine is spending several days with Miss Sallie Halley.

Mr. and Mrs. Erle R. Kirby and daughter, Anne Fairfax, were Sunday visitors at Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Merchant's.

Mrs. Francis Latham spent Tuesday visiting relatives in Alexandria.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Mind" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 23.

The golden text was "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; and the knowledge of the holy is understanding" (Proverbs 9:10).

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon was the following from the Bible: "God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us. That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations" (Psalms 67: 1-2).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scrip-

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

It's Always Snapshot Time

With a clean lens, plus proper exposure, you should always get sharp, clear pictures such as the ones above.

MANY owners of box cameras honestly believe that they are handicapped in their snapshotting at this time of year. Are you in this class?

Now that question may sound ridiculous to many Guild readers but there are hundreds who believe just that. They think that the sun should be shining in all its glory before trying to take a snapshot.

If your camera is hibernating in peaceful slumber on the closet shelf awaiting the arrival of spring and bright sunshine, go get it, dust it off—and be sure you wipe off the lens carefully with a soft, dry cloth—get yourself a roll of film and start shooting. There are more interesting winter pictures waiting to be made with a box camera than you will ever be able to take if you live to be as old as Methuselah. Remember, too, that the old Biblical passage still holds good—"Seek ye and ye shall find"—and it will not take much seeking if your eyes are open.

Under ordinary conditions you can take instantaneous snapshots outdoors in the winter, or, if the day is too dark and dreary, there is always the old reliable time exposure. If the day is clear and bright you can take action pictures providing you snap the picture at the right angle and are not too close to the subject.

Pictures can be taken indoors at night with a box camera if you use one of the inexpensive flash type lamps. A little experimenting may be necessary until you know what you can and cannot expect from your box camera, and if you are a real amateur you will get a lot of pleasure out of the experimenting.

The fellow with a lot of fine equipment doesn't deserve half as much praise for an unusual picture as the real amateur, who owns a box camera and who, through perseverance and thought, gets a "knockout" picture under adverse conditions.

The average box camera on sale today has two stops and a time exposure adjustment. The stop openings control the amount of light passing through the lens. Number one—the larger stop, or opening, is for snapshots of ordinary subjects in sunlight. The second opening, or smaller stop, is for snapshots of distant views, beach scenes, snow without prominent dark objects in the foreground, and clouds, only in bright sunlight. During the winter, on days with hazy sunlight it is best to use the first, or large stop and on dark days use the second stop and a very short time exposure.

When making time exposures the camera must be placed on a tripod, table, fence or something solid so that the camera will not move when the picture is taken.

You are overlooking a lot of pleasure if you are not making use of your box camera, so get it out. If you are really interested you can stop in most any store that sells cameras and photographic supplies and get free literature on taking pictures at night indoors during these long winter evenings, and you will find it is one type of indoor sport the entire family will enjoy.

And speaking of the family—that's a hunch for a mighty important picture. You will have a lot of fun taking a picture of the family group and in later years the result will be numbered among your prized possessions. Try it.

Tea Party - Modernized

IN 1773 BOSTON RESIDENTS, DISGUISED AS INDIANS, BROKE CASES OF TEA AND DUMPED THEM INTO THE HARBOR TO ESCAPE EXCESSIVE TAXATION

BACK in the days before the Revolution, residents of Boston became enraged at excessive taxation and dumped a cargo of tea into Boston Harbor. That became famous as the Boston Tea Party.

Today the citizens must fight excessive taxation, too, but in another way.

It is not the government, or the government's agents they are fighting this time, but enemies of the government—the bootleggers.

Although nearly three years have passed since repeal, the bootlegger and his illicit liquor is still with us to some extent, and every time a bootlegger places a bottle of contraband in circulation, he is cheating the city, state and Federal governments of their rightful taxes.

If the public does not cooperate in putting down the bootlegger, the government cannot collect its full taxes. That may mean that more taxes will have to be added to make up the deficit. So every time you break an empty whiskey bottle, you are striking a blow at the bootlegger and thus helping keep down liquor taxes. For without bottles, the bootlegger cannot ply his trade.

Mr. Taylor is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Reid this week.

Mrs. Ivy Cronkite and granddaughter, Barbara, are visiting Mrs. Cronkite's brother, Mr. Thomas Fairfax at Clifton, Va.

Pineapple Is a Favorite Fruit At White House Meals and Functions

By Jane Rogers

At her desk in her cheerful little office in the White House Mrs. Harry Nesbitt, housekeeper for the President and Mrs. Roosevelt since they came to Washington, picked up a note left by her secretary.

She read: "Only two cans of pineapple juice left on the shelves."

She smiled and said: "That, I think, answers your question as to whether or not we use pineapple in the White House. I had two cases of it only a few days ago and it is all gone."

Canned pineapple juice, she revealed, is just as popular in the White House as it is in hundreds of thousands of humble homes throughout the country. The Roosevelts also like sliced and crushed pineapple, canned or fresh. It is served at breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Mrs. Nesbitt drew out the book in which she records the menus for state dinners, past and present. She pointed to the first of the big dinners this season, the annual dinner for the Cabinet given late in December. Glazed pineapple was served as a garnish for the meat dish, in this case fried chicken. Looking ahead she called attention to the salad planned for the dinner to the Supreme Court—pineapple salad. Again she smiled and said:

"Those are the big parties but we use it even more frequently at family meals."

Sautéed or glazed pineapple, she said, is excellent served with almost any meat dish. She, personally, likes it especially with fowl. Preparing it is simple. Here is her recipe for pineapple glazed:

Use the best canned pineapple slices. Sprinkle them lightly with sugar, dot with butter and put them under the broiler until sizzling brown. Serve on the meat platter or separately in their own dish.

"Pineapple juice she serves as a cocktail, plain or with a dash of lemon. Luncheons at the White House, either for the family or guests, are very apt to lead off with a glass of chilled pineapple juice. And likely as not to wind up with pineapple Bavarian cream or pineapple ice cream."

Pineapple baked en casserole with sweet potatoes is another favorite White House dish. Slice the potatoes, Mrs. Nesbitt says, and place them in the casserole with alternate layers of pineapple. Dot the top with butter, sprinkle with sugar (not too much) and pop it into the oven to bake until brown.

"That is really a grand dish," said Mrs. Nesbitt, "and we all love it."

The President, she says, likes fruit salads. Pineapple, grape fruit or alligator pears are his favorites. He wants them served with a French dressing. French dressing—but that is another story. Mrs. Nesbitt has very definite ideas on the subject. He takes his pineapple salad straight (just the fruit, canned or fresh) but occasionally likes a bit of cheese with it. Cheese was served with the pineapple salad at the Chief Justices' dinner.

Pineapple juice, Mrs. Nesbitt thinks, is essential for a good fruit punch. Those boiling Washington summers, with even the White House sizzling under the sun, make such drinks important.

"Besides," she says, "they are so good for you. The biggest part of my job is keeping the family in good health and the secret of that is plenty of fruit, fruit juices and fresh vegetables."
