After the banquet was over Sheriff John A. Clark gave an old fashioned square dance which was enjoyed by all members and guests.

The next morning Hon. J. Gordon Bennett, Assistant to the Auditor of Public Accounts, spoke briefly on the recently installed auditing system set up for sheriffs in this state, thereby placing these officers in better position to keep correct record and generally increasing the efficiency of all sheriffs offices.

Hon. Sidney C. Day, jr., Assistant Comptroller, gave an interesting talk on the handling of sheriff's accounts. By unanimous vote J. Preston Adams of Norton, Va., was made an honorary member of the Association.

Several very valuable and instructive resolutions were passed two of which are quoted, the first being to urge the extension of radio service and the other an expression of appreciation for the co-operation of the federal bureau of investigation.

MANASSAS BAPTIST CHURCH LOSES PASTOR

Sunday, August 9, closes twenty-two months of a very successful pastorate of Rev. C. B. Jones who was called October 22, 1934, for a period of one year and was later unanimously called for an indefinite time.

Rev. Jones' stay with us marks one of the most successful periods of the Manassas Baptist Church. Our church has been largely attended by all denominations and he has given us inspired messages and scores have been inspired to better things of life by this messenger of God. Fifty-six have been added to the church and twenty-eight reconsecrations.

Rev. Jones is a man of high ideals, a fine personality, speaks with authority, preaches the truth without apology, and lived as he preached. Although his labors have been attended by many trials and disappointments, he has carried resolutely on. Our church has grown and prospered under his leadership. Hundreds have felt the influence of his teachings.

It is with much regret that we lose our beloved pastor. Our loss is another's gain and our prayers go with him in his new field. We feel very fortunate in having had him even for this short time. His good work will live on a stime rolls on down through the ages.

MRS. MCBRYDE ENTERTAINED U. D. C. AT JOINT MEETING

The Manassas Chapter, U. D. C., was beautifully and graciously entertained by Mrs. Stuart McBryde yesterday.

Contingents from Culpeper and Marshall had been asked for a joint meeting.

The guests were greeted by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. W. Hill Brown, sr., and her sister, Mrs. Daisy Williams.

Mrs. McBryde's home was tastefully decorated with red and white flowers and the color scheme was carried out in the cream and cake. Other delightful refreshments were served.

An account of the meeting will be published next week.

FIELD DAY AT HAYMARKET

Nearly all arrangements are completed for the big Field Day at Haymarket on Friday, August 14, beginning at 10 a. m.

The committee plans to secure a sound outfit which will provide music and add to the enjoyment in several ways. At this time the horse show and tournament promise to be much ahead of last year. Good speakers will be present to give the charge to the knights and to give the coronation address.

This event which has been growing in popularity promises to surpass former achievements. Baseball is being stressed this year with two games. One at 10:30 between married and single men. The other at 2 p. m. between Bethel and Haymarket.

Ample games are being arranged for the girls and boys and for older people with a youthful spirit. Mr. Hawes Davies will give the coronation address and Mr. Ed. Conner will give the charge to the knights or secure some one to do so.

ALBERT THOMAS SIDES

Albert Thomas Sides, Spanish War veteran and retired Metropolitan police officer, died at his home in Cherrysdale July 26 and was buried with military honors at Arlington on July 28.

Mr. Sides, a native of North Carolina, was born at Tobacoville February 12, 1874. Some time after the Spanish War, he came to this country and soon after (September 5, 1905) married Lucy L., daughter of Ezekial and Ann Pridmore Lynn, by whom there were three children, Albert, jr., who is married and lived near his father and two younger children who live at home, Anna L. and Donald.

At the home funeral which preceded the interment at Arlington, Rev. Klein Haddaway of Mount Olivet Church, Ballston, officiated and the honorary pall bearers were Dr. Milburn E. Colvin, Dr. H. Lynn Colvin, Mr. Hazen M. Colvin, Charles E. Lumsford, John S. Lunsford, jr., and Kenneth Lynn.

The deceased had been living in Arlington for the past seven or eight years. His desire to be neighborly and helpful had thoroughly endeared him and his family with everyone. The expressions of sympathy given the bereaved were widespread, not only in Arlington County but here in Prince William where his widow was born and reared.

Evening services will be held at Woodbine on August 9 at 8 p. m.

FIRE WARNING

The fire department is issuing a warning that the streets and roads must be cleared instantly upon the sound of the siren either in the town or upon the apparatus, as it passes along the road.

Death or serious accidents may result from loitering, and the public must observe this notice.

CHICKEN FEAST

AT LINTON HALL

Catholics of Prince William are making extensive arrangements for a Chicken Dinner for the benefit of All Saints' Church, Manassas, to be given Saturday, August 22, from twelve to four o'clock, at the Benedictine Guest House, adjoining Linton Hall, Bristow.

This is only the second time that the congregations of Manassas, Haymarket, Gainesville, Bristow, Minnieville and Hoadly have united for a purpose of this type, and the tempting occasion affords a chance for many persons to motor to an attractive spot; partake of a good meal, and see the Military School for boys conducted by the Benedictine Sisters.

The hours for this dinner have been arranged to suit even those from distant points and a large attendance is expected from Richmond, Washington and other towns. Those who cannot attend may at least aid the good cause by purchasing tickets at fifty cents each from the pastor, Father Kociela, All Saints' Rectory, Manassas.

FRATERNAL NEWS

The Order Fraternal American, District, No. 5, held a rally at the courthouse on Saturday evening at which time State President Alvin Shade, Past State President E. L. Alger, Past State President O. B. Hopkins, Past District Deputy George D. Baker, State Secretary C. E. Babcock and others spoke. Rev. J. M. DeChant, president Bull Run Council, presided.

Refreshments were served prior to and following the meeting.

An unfortunate conflict with the Fire Carnival prevented the original plans from being carried out, and except for the visitors who were expected, the meeting would have been adjourned. Many thought that this had been done and failed to attend for that reason.

District Five will be the guests of Greenwich Council at 8:30 p. m., Thursday, September 10.

The date and place of the annual picnic are yet unsettled, awaiting word from the various councils.

POST 158 WILL MEET

American Legion Post, No. 158, will hold its regular meeting Tuesday evening, August 11, at 8 p. m. in the town hall.

Commander Howard Jamison will preside over the meeting and the evening will be turned over to the installation of the incoming officers.

In listing the new officers last week, one name was omitted, the same being Mr. Cleo Fitzwater who was re-elected Finance Officer.

As this is the last meeting prior to the State meeting in Roanoke August 24, 25 and 26, every member is requested to be present and express themselves relative to new issues and the election of new State officers for another year.

R. F. PERSONS

R. F. Persons, aged 48, and a resident of Triangle for the past twenty years, died in Fredericksburg last Sunday after a brief illness.

Funeral services were held at the Quantic chapel on Tuesday, Rev. A. H. Shumate, officiating, with interment in the old Dumfries cemetery. It was one of the largest funerals ever witnessed in this section. Mr. John Adams directed the traffic in Quantic and Sheriff Kerlin at Dumfries.

Both Mr. Persons and his wife are natives of Alabama, coming here during the World War. Mr. Persons had been associated with Mr. Cloe since that gentleman started in business at Triangle.

Besides his wife there are three children, Mrs. B. F. Warren, and Virginia and R. F., jr., at home. Virginia was an honor graduate at Occoquan last Spring and Junior is still in school.

As an upright citizen and a man full of human understanding, Mr. Persons had no superior. His qualities are written in his life at home, at his office and in the community. Truly may it be said that his untimely passing leaves a tragic void in the neighborhood.

SKYLAND DRIVE OPEN FRIDAY

Visitors to Warren Centennial May See Beautiful Road.

Visitors to the Warren County Centennial on Friday of this week are being accorded the opportunity of seeing the wonderful Skyland Drive. If they have no automobiles, the committee at Front Royal is making arrangements for their transportation.

Every sort of entertainment has been arranged over the week end for those who attended this colorful celebration. All sorts of amusements for young and old have been provided and the various exhibits, particularly those depicting the industries of the county, are attracting much attention.

On Saturday will take place the big parade with its splendid array of floats representing the history and progress of the county. With every hour full of excitement and entertainment, the Warren County Centennial at Front Royal promises to be the mecca of thousands of visitors over this week end.

CATHARPIN AND BUCKHALL SCHOOLS CLOSED BY BOARD

The School Board met yesterday with all members present. Advertisement of the Bradley and Woodlawn schools was authorized subject to action of the court.

Rev. John M. DeChant spoke in behalf of the County Sunday School Association requesting permission to introduce a course in the schools on character instruction.

Wood bids were let as follows: Antioch, Will Stewart; Woodbine, Community League; Manley, colored, Warren Griffith and the following schools to Mr. A. D. Arrington of David, Va.; McCrae, Thornton, Greenwich, Aden, Brentsville, Kettle Run, Joplin, Hickory Ridge, Cabin Branch, Cherry Hill, Quantic (colored), and Bristow.

The board having under advertisement the matter of rescinding its previous action to close the Buckhall and Catharpin schools, decided to allow the resolutions to stand as the study showed an enrollment of 17 at Buckhall and 15 at Catharpin.

It was also stated to the Board that the children could be transported without the use of additional buses and there would be no additional teachers employed at Manassas and Haymarket where the children will be taken.

YOUNG CONFEDS TO PICNIC

Misses Leachman Entertain Chapter.

Misses Molly and Nancy Leachman, Master Jack Leachman assisted by their mother, Mrs. William Leachman, entertained the Manassas Chapter of the children of Confederacy at the home of Mrs. Robert Smith near Bristow on July 31, 1936.

The spacious living room was thrown open to the large number of children in attendance and here the business meeting was held. The vice-president, Roger W. Cross, jr., presided. Opening prayer was followed by flag salute and reading of June minutes by Molly Leachman.

The treasurer, Bobbie Byrd, reported on finance and called the roll of forty-six members and nine associate members. Harry Parrish and Frank Browning, jr., were enrolled as new members.

The registrar, Leonard Lonas, jr., was requested to send application papers to Wallace Bolding, Jane Marshall and Bobbie Jones.

During the historical program, Lelia M. Dowell read her prize essay on General Beauregard. This paper won the Sinclair Memorial prize offered last year to the seventh grade through the U. D. C. Chapter.

The children sang Dixie, with Mrs. William Leachman piano accompanist. Under the able leadership of Mrs. E. H. Hibbs, the Chapter membership is steadily increasing and much enthusiasm is evident.

Plans for the August picnic will be perfected shortly under the chairmanship of Bobbie Byrd.

After the business session every one was invited out on the lawn where a lovely garden party was arranged. Sandwiches, iced punch, nuts, ice cream and candies were daintily served by the hostesses and a most pleasant time was spent.

The guests included Mrs. E. H. Hibbs, director; Mrs. V. V. Gillum, Mrs. R. L. Byrd, Mrs. Harry P. Davis, Misses Jane Law and Vira Kelley.

SPEAKER TALKS ON LOCAL LIFE SAVING WORK

Edwin Beachley was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Kiwanis on Friday evening. The young athlete, who is in his second season of life saving work at Lake Jackson, told of the various phases of his instruction among the little ones, stating that fifty-seven had enrolled in the different groups.

He also thanked the Club for having given the training to fit him in this work and expressed the desire that additional equipment might be had to broaden the scope of the work. After much questioning by his interested audience, Mr. Beachley was given hearty applause. (This made a perfect month for the program committee.)

Ray Hall, who was promised an interclub meeting with Fredericksburg during August.

Other speakers included OD Waters and Arthur Boatwright who indulged in local witticisms.

Mr. Howe Eilers of the Public Health Service at Richmond is expected to address the Club tomorrow evening on matters pertaining to the operation of the public health service.

FIRE AT BUCKHALL

The Manassas Fire Department was called to the farm of Carrol Weaver near Buckhall Tuesday afternoon by a serious fire which started in a straw stack, the wind blowing in the direction of the barn.

Using the booster tank the buildings were hastily wetted and the blazing straw stack was literally lassoed with a chain and dragged away.

Speedy head work and effective cooperation kept the destruction to a minimum.

Loitering in the roads and failure to clear the way came near resulting in a bad collision and the public is being urged to immediately vacate the right-away upon hearing the sound of the siren.

VACATIONING IN ENGLAND

A very interesting message was received this week from our dear friends, Miss Eugenia Osburn, who is at present in London, England.

"Miss Eugene" states that she had visited many points in England and was going to Paris for a short stay next week.

Mr. C. W. Holmes of David, Fauquier County, brought in a double cantaloupe this afternoon which is of unusual interest. It may be seen at the Journal Office.

A SPECIAL MEETING

A special meeting of the County Sunday School Association will be held in the Presbyterian Church tonight at 8 o'clock. The meeting is called to consider the possibility of placing a Bible teacher in the public schools. A large attendance is desired.

REV. B. D. KERLIN

Word has been received here of the illness and death of Rev. B. D. Kerlin of Twin Falls, Idaho.

Rev. Mr. Kerlin had been in ailing health for several weeks and was taken to the Twin Falls County General hospital where death claimed him July 16. He was ill for nearly three months.

He went to Chicago, Illinois, in 1916 to attend Bethany Biblical seminary to better qualify himself for the Christian ministry to which the Church of the Brethren elected him.

Later he held pastorates in Cedar Creek and Markle, Indiana, and at Lewiston, Minnesota. He was also engaged in the Evangelistic field. In 1925 Rev. Mr. Kerlin returned to Twin Falls, serving the Church of the Brethren as opportunity offered. He preached his last sermon Easter Sunday.

Funeral services for Rev. Mr. Kerlin were held in the Church of the Brethren at Twin Falls. He was the eldest son of the late David F. and Anna Bowman Kerlin. He was born in Lima, Ohio, May 1, 1877. His parents moved to Virginia and he was reared to young manhood near Nokesville, Virginia.

He is survived by his widow who was Miss Charlotte Miller of Waterloo, Iowa, two daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Holloway and Miss Virginia Kerlin, and one son Dwight Kerlin, all of Twin Falls. Three brothers, John P., William B. and Mark S., all of Nokesville, three sisters, Mrs. Kenny Bradshaw of Bristow, Mrs. Amos Smith of Nokesville and Mrs. Grove Duling of Gorman, West Virginia.

He leaves many relatives and friends in this community who join in sympathy to the bereaved family. How fitting to his Christian life are these verses:

"How blest the righteous when he dies,
When sinks a weary soul to rest;
How mildly beam the closing eyes,
How gently heaves the expiring breast.

Life's labor done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies,
While heaven and earth combine to say,
How blest the righteous when he dies."

MOTORISTS URGED TO CHECK OWN CARS

Dealer Points Out That Tires and Brakes Are Keys To Care-free Driving.

A plea for motorists to look to the effectiveness of their own car and equipment as the first and most important contribution to local safety campaigns was made today by Manassas Motor Co., Inc., Goodyear dealer here at Manassas.

"Safety campaigns are important means of focusing public attention and interest on safety problems, but even the most safety-minded driver is helpless to avoid an accident if his brakes give out or his tires skid on slippery pavements," he said.

"Consequently, to become a truly safe driver a motorist should, first, get 'safety-minded'; second, see that his brakes are good and his tires have the traction necessary for a quick stop; third, drive carefully."

He explained his emphasis on brakes and tires by pointing to the number of accidents caused by the inability to stop suddenly.

"If brakes won't hold, the car won't stop," he explained. "Next, it must be remembered that the car touches the ground at only four points—where four tires meet the road. Therefore, if the tires are smooth, the car will not stop although the brakes hold like bulldogs."

"Furthermore, tire traction must be such as to keep a car from skidding. The elbowout is another hazard created by weak and worn-out tires. In the final analysis, the tire is probably the most important point to be checked on the car. Strudy new tires, engineered for today's driving pace, are probably the best single accident preventative a motorist can adopt as his own personal safety campaign contribution."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Love" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 2.

The Golden Text was "He that loveth not knoweth not God, for God is love" (I John 4:8).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins" (I John 4:9, 10).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus' teaching and practice of Truth involved such a sacrifice as makes us admit its Principle to be Love. This was the precious import of our Master's sinless career and of his demonstration of power over death" (p. 26).

TODAY In Politics . .

by Geo. Dent

According to the Institute of Public Opinion, as carried on by Dr. Geo. Gallup, the No. 1 man of indoor sports, the stern and rock bound coast of the Pilgrim Fathers is somewhat touchy when it comes to a dictatorship . . . Dr. Gallup sends out his runners, and gives Mr. Farley a few three cent stamps, the runners and the stamps carry the following question: "Do you believe the acts and policies of the Roosevelt administration may lead to dictatorship?" A fair question . . . A question bubbling over with vim and vigor . . . But, answer the question "Yes" or "No" . . . And the Pilgrim Fathers go over the top on the affirmative side . . . Massachusetts, an Algonkin Indian name from Massachusset, meaning "Great-hill-small place" hands in a 54% "Yes" . . . Connecticut (Quonectacut) dittoes, but New Hampshire, of 1629 fame, named by Captain Mason of the Plymouth Council reached out and dropped in a 59% of "Yes" votes . . . The Green Mountain state pushed all others out of the way and seriously and pathetically went over the top by registering 69% "Yes".

As a whole New England voted 58% "Yes" to 42% "No" . . . "No".

The complete vote for the 48 states gives 55 per cent "No", to 45 per cent "Yes". But for one thing such a large minority vote would be serious.

On the surface or beneath the surface this vote "YES" should be taken as a grain of salt . . . For the most part, it is, strictly speaking, a party vote . . .

In this poll the Democrats vote "NO" and the Republicans vote "YES".

The Middle Atlantic States, vote 53 per cent "NO".

The East Central States, vote 54 per cent "NO".

West Central States, vote 53 per cent "NO".

The South don't even feel shaky, 69 per cent "NO".

Alabama, the Lizard state, the state that Tom Hefflin made famous in the twentieth century, seems to be the least frightened of any state in the Union, votes 80 per cent "NO".

Mountain States, 58 per cent "NO". Pacific Coast States, vote 63 per cent "NO".

I have no more fear for a dictatorship by the present administration than I had in 1928 when I was told that if Al Smith were elected the Pope would take full charge of America . . . I did not vote for Smith and do not approve of Roosevelt's entire administration . . . If this country ever has a dictator it will not be brought about by such laws as the National Security act, the Wagner Labor act, the TVA; the 1935 Gold Devaluation act; the Guffy Coal act (Since decided unconstitutional) and a few more laws that really help the underprivileged man . . .

There were some laws that cast a shadow of dictatorship, for instance, the "TRIPLE A" was a humdinger and the Potatoe Act was worse than a flea between the shoulder blades where you are all dressed up for your first party . . . Mr. Landon approved, in part if not in whole, the farm ACT . . . And it was a much mooted question as to how far the Republicans should go in approving the AAA . . .

Mr. Landon was an oil man, made money as an independent oilproducer, and as Governor of Kansas, was very much interested in oil, and in 1933 he, Landon said: "Even the hand of a dictator is preferable to a paralytic stroke."

Coolidge made political mistakes . . . Hoover made political mistakes . . . Roosevelt has and continues to make political mistakes . . .

As long as any man is in the flesh and doing things he will make mistakes . . .

I, for one, do not fear that the Executive side of our government is running us heels over head into a dictatorship when the law making body is told to pass a law and let the Supreme Court decide its Constitutionality . . . I do not agree with Senator Glass nor with Senator Byrd nor with the late Senator Huey Long that the law making body should decide whether a law is constitutional or not . . . If Congress is to decide on the constitutionality of a law then why have a Supreme Court?

When the Supreme Court hands down a split decision there is still a question in the minds of the masses; and that question is "DOUBT . . ."

We don't want the voters to get a wrong slant on what is going on in the political arena . . . Give them facts and let the average voter draw his or her own conclusions . . . Mr. Landon in his speech of acceptance did not deal in generalities; he did not give us any flowery language to think about; he did not use a sleeping portion to deaden the alert mind of an average voter, he gave us an outline to be widened and talked over in a sane and common sense manner . . .

No, we are not in any danger of a dictatorship . . . In fact, we are further away from a dictatorship than we were when Insull ruled as power King . . .

It is capital in the hands of a few, misused and abused, that will cause the average citizen to cry aloud . . . Industrial slavery must disappear . . . Mr. Roosevelt agrees it must and Mr. Landon's letter to Norman Thomas is a masterpiece that the industrial worker can truthfully hail with delight . . .

FOURTH FILM IN "CASSIDY" SERIES DUE

Fourth of the exciting movie adaptations of Clarence E. Mulford's famed "Hopalong Cassidy" stories in "The Call of the Prairie," which opens Friday and Saturday, August 7-8, at the Dixie theatre, with William Boyd in the role of "Hopalong" and Jimmy Ellison as his young friend and fellow rider.

"Call of the Prairie" is based on Mulford's novel, "Hopalong Cassidy's Protege." Produced for Harry Sherman, under the direction of Howard Bretherton, it is a dramatic action story of the trials and tribulations of Johnny Nelson, "Hopalong's" frisky young cow-poke pal, and of the efforts of "Hoppy" to aid his protege.

Involved in bad company, accused of attempted murder, although innocent, "Johnny" finds himself an outcast of Twin Rivers and Bar 20 until he can prove his innocence. Fighting back single-handed, unaware of "Hoppy's" unwillingness to believe his guilt, he hits the trail to bring the outlaw band to account, with "Hoppy" coming to his aid at the critical time. Both are reunited and together they prove Johnny's innocence.

Other members of the cast include Muriel Evans, George Hayes, Alan Bridge, Chester Conklin and Howard Lang.

HOLLYWOOD HOYDEN

To take Hollywood by storm is the dream of millions of America girls but Jean Harlow was different. She allowed Hollywood to do the storming and after a long period of casual indifference toward its importuning, finally yielded.

That is the kind of person Miss Harlow is—quite different than her screen career has pictured her. Just how strikingly different is this screen favorite of millions, this pet of Film-land and its best-dressed woman, is told in a brilliant biographical sketch in This Wee, in the Sunday Star, August 9.

UPSET IN 1st DISTRICT

Of the two Congressional campaigns in Virginia which terminated this week, the election of Norman Hamilton to represent the First District was an outstanding political event. The re-election of Congressman Montague in the Third District was somewhat conceded, but the defeat of Congressman Darden was somewhat unexpected, particularly among conservative Democrats who believed that the weight of the organization would carry Darden over the hurdle.

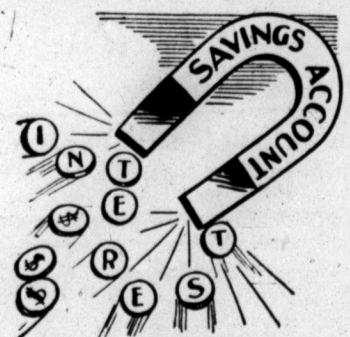

Although Darden carried every county and town in his district except Norfolk County and South Norfolk, yet the heavy majorities for Hamilton in these metropolitan areas where the New Deal is most popular, decided the election.

THE INDIANS' PRAYER

The folk-lore program which was a feature of the Bucknell Univ. broadcast on Thursday evening was one of the best, to which the public has been treated in recent months.

This is a terse statement for the many items which proved so entertaining. In passing there was one, peculiarly sad and tense in its emotional qualities. This was an Indian prayer chanted by three full blooded Senecas, offspring of one of the bravest and bloodiest tribes of North America.

In introducing his trio, the chief uttered a weird plaint against the white man who had despoiled his people. It was not a vengeful threat but a submerged wrath that only centuries yet will entirely dispel.

To listen to it needed but a breath of imagination to know how those bronze warriors felt some two centuries ago when they saw their all slipping from them, inch by inch.

Futile resistance, savage retaliation and bloody warfare ran its course but in their hearts today still rings true the proud vision that graced their less civilized forebears who roamed upon these York and Pennsylvania hills and plains. It is a magnificent gesture in this day and time but one that demands admiration from all.

ELLEN SELECMAN CROSS

On July 31, 1936, at Alexandria Hospital, Mrs. Ellen Selecman Cross passed into eternal rest. Surviving her are her beloved and devoted husband, William Sherman Cross and two sons, George Thomas and William Duty Cross, and many other and dear relatives.

Her third son, Henry Elmer Cross died suddenly within his mother's arms exactly two months prior to the death of his mother.

Her funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Morrison at her home at Occoquan, Va., August 2. Her remains were laid to rest beside her son at Cranford Memorial Cemetery amidst numerous tributes and attended by her many loving relatives and friends.

Mrs. Cross was the daughter of the late Mary Selecman and Albert Alexander Selecman, and like them was widely known for her beautiful Christian character and her entire life's devotion to the cause of good.

She mothered the orphans of the family, administered unto the sick and needy, uplifted the down-trodden and cheerless, fed the hungry and clothed the poor.

Were it a contribution for the church, school fund or whatever good cause, no one left her door empty handed.

Mrs. Cross was born at Occoquan, Va., and was married there at the home of her parents in 1895. She spent her entire life there with the exception of her school days, which were spent at Baltimore, Md., where she was educated at "St. Mary's Star of the Sea" Academy, under the pastorate of Father John Barry and the tutelage of sister Mary Frances.

Mrs. Cross' paternal ancestors established Occoquan about the year 1732 and have lived there ever since. On her maternal side of the family she was a lined descendant of a signer of the Declaration of Independence. Of the Duty family who sailed in the Mayflower and landed on Plymouth Rock, and who fought at Bunker Hill; of Asa Davis, who marched to the Lexington Alarm and served throughout the Revolutionary War, until the surrender at Saratoga, and afterward served eight consecutive terms in the General Council of his State. He was pay master of continental troops. His family home is still standing at Bush Hill, Hudson, N. H., owned and occupied by relatives.

She was a descendant of James Freeman born in England in 1582 and came to Haverhill, Mass., in 1640. She was a descendant of Hannah Dunsan of Haverhill, Mass., to whom the State of Massachusetts erected a monument for bravery.

Among her ancestors were the first of Virginia who were the earliest settlers of historic old Dumfries.

Dear beloved one we mourn you. Your good deeds will live forever. Yours is a starry crown. In the last day many will rise up and call you blessed.

One who loved her,
 Gertrude Selecman,
 Occoquan, Va.

THANKS MANASSAS FIREMEN

Dear Mr. Editor:

Since you are always interested in efforts for community improvement I hope you may print this letter in August 7 issue of your valuable Journal.

About two weeks ago several citizens assembled in Haymarket to discuss the problem of fire fighting equipment for Haymarket and vicinity. After appointing a committee to obtain information it was decided to call a general meeting for August 4. As a member of that special committee I secured two members of the Manassas Fire Brigade for that meeting. They presented valuable information and gave important suggestions based on practical experience.

It was humiliating, however, to find only six people present to meet the two firemen from Manassas. All of those present were convinced that the minimum outfit that would prove satisfactory would be a motor driven pump with booster tank of 300 gal. capacity with ladders, etc., mounted on a new truck. This outfit would cost about $1500 with 1000 feet of hose to reach additional water supply.

It was also felt that such an outfit could be financed by Gainesville district and the town of Haymarket. The only criticism offered against this plan was the danger of a run-down battery. This, however, can be avoided by a simple weekly fire drill to keep battery properly charged.

Some who did not attend the meeting favor a trailer equipment in order to avoid the battery problem. This, however, has difficulties quite serious. Trailers are not equipped with water tanks, ladders, etc. If a special type of trailer were made to order the cost would approximate that of the larger standard type.

Another meeting is called for Monday, August 9, in the Masonic hall at 8 p.m. If this meeting is not well attended, it will be necessary for me to refuse to spend any more time in this project.

Please convey to the worthy citizens of Manassas and particularly to the Fire Department, our gratitude for their courtesy in sending representatives to our meeting and for their valuable suggestions.

—W. F. Carpenter.

(Questions That Are Asked About Banking)

"Why do Banks expect a loan to be paid when due?"

A LOAN is a contract between the bank and the borrower. If it is not repaid when due, the contract is broken. Ability to repay is the best proof that the loan is good.

There are, however, circumstances which sometimes justify renewal. But bankers know from experience that the longer a loan is carried the weaker it usually gets. Bank examiners are, in fact, very critical of a loan which does not turn over at least once a year. Prompt repayment is also better for the borrower—for it strengthens his credit.

A bank cannot tie up its funds for long periods because most of its deposits are subject to withdrawal on demand. Furthermore, bank credit is for the use of the whole community and regular repayments are necessary for making fresh loans.

The daily vacation Bible school, which has been in progress at Calvary United Brethren Church during the past two weeks, will close Friday. A special program by the children is being planned for the worship service Sunday morning, August 9, at 11 o'clock. A special invitation is extended to parents and others to attend this service, and find out something of the splendid work being done in our Bible School.

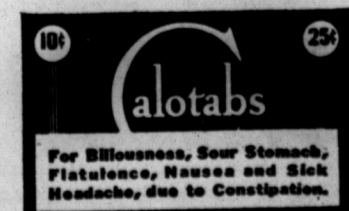

Sunday, August 23, is the date of the Anniversary and Homecoming at Calvary Church. This will be an all-day service with lunch served in the church basement. Conference Superintendent, Dr. U. P. Hovemale, will preach at the morning service, and Rev. R. L. Brill, pastor of Second U. B. Church, Martinsburg, W. Va., in the afternoon and evening.

Prof. J. H. Renbush of Shenandoah College, Dayton, Va., is expected to be present and will assist with the music. Invite your friends, both far

ELECTROLUX

It's KEROSENE Operated!

THE FINEST of modern city refrigerators, Electrolux now comes to the country—operating on kerosene. Today, rural homes can enjoy the same perfect refrigeration that has made Electrolux the favorite for more than 500,000 fine city homes and apartments.

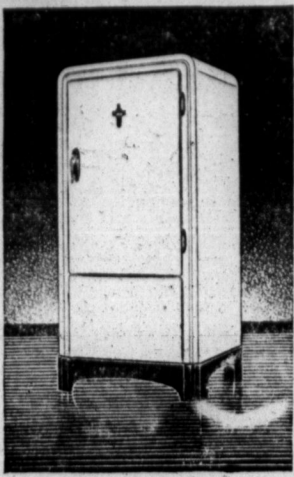

Low Running Cost!
Like all Electrolux refrigerators, the Kerosene model costs amazingly little to operate. Five gallons of kerosene runs this modern refrigerator for a week or more! No daily attention is required.

That's because Electrolux operates without a single moving part! The heat of a wickless glow-type burner circulates the refrigerant. Ordinary air cools it. Electrolux uses no water.

No Moving Parts to Wear!
And absence of moving parts brings you other advantages: savings on repairs—permanent silence, too. For parts that do not move cannot wear or cause noise!

Modern Living at Its Finest!
Electrolux will add beauty to your home! And it will do more! It will keep you supplied with ice cubes, help you make new delicious salads and frozen desserts, and give your food fullest protection.

Miss Lucy Le Gallais spent a pleasant week-end at Maurertown, Virginia.

Mr. Gottfried Beyer and family at Chantilly were hosts last Sunday afternoon at a vesper service to which Mr. Beyer annually invites the members of his Lutheran congregation in Washington.

CATHARPIN

Vacation days are here and many throughout the community, both of the older and younger type of population, have either been or are making plans for this annual indulgence which is now becoming a real mental and physical necessity. It used to be said that they were "going on a visit" to such and such a relative or friend, but now it has taken on a more glorified air and is called "a vacation." Only the other day a little seven-year old boy was heard to say: "Sister same home yesterday and now I'm going for my vacation." And so it goes; ideas, names and situations change with each on-coming generation. It was but yesterday that a "vacation" meant a trip to some far-distant sea shore or upon some high mountain top; but now it may embrace a little walk across the pasture field for a good dinner for the older and some fun in the back yard on an old rope swing for the younger. So what's in a name after all?

Miss Ann Robertson of Lawn Vale is spending several weeks with her uncle, Mr. Dorsey, at Rehoboth Beach negotiating the waves of the "briny deep" and getting the now very popular "coat of tan."

Miss Frances, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brower, was a week-end vacationer with one of her little friends in Washington.

Mr. L. J. Pattie of Belle Farm laying aside that cares and worries of harvesting and farm life, spent most of last week visiting friends in the Capital of the Nation, seeing the sights and hearing the sounds of that great city.

Mrs. J. W. Alvey and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Clary of Lawrenceville, Va., motored over the Skyline Drive last week enjoying the sensations of the rarefied air at those dizzy heights and returning via Winchester where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Noble Pierce of that noted little city of Apple blossom fame.

On Wednesday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. MacDonald "vacated" their home premises long enough for a day's visit with the Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Beard, of Hamilton, Va., where they found one of Sudley's former pastors and his wife in excellent spirits and very happily located in their new home in the parsonage of the Hamilton-Purcellville charge.

Mr. and Mrs. William Walter Ward of Conova, Va., were recent visitors in the Catharpin community calling upon friends of "Billy's" boyhood days. All were glad to see him again and to wish him well in his new venture.

The storm last week was not without its casualties. Hail injured the corn crops to some extent and winds razed the silo on Belle Farm belonging to Mr. L. J. Pattie. No wonder Mr. Pattie felt the need of a little vacation.

Revivals have been announced as the "order of the day" for the last half of August at Fairview and Sudley as follows: Beginning Sunday night, August 16, at Fairview church, protracted services will be held each night during the week closing on following Sunday with an all-day meeting and dinner on the grounds. The same program will begin at Sudley on forth Sunday, August 23, and continue through the week and closing on August 30 with an all-day meeting in the form of a "Home Coming Day" for former pastors and interested members. Dinner served on the grounds from individual baskets and a general get-together meeting enjoyed as in time of old. The pastor will be assisted during the meetings by the Rev. G. G. Oliver of the Hyattsville M. E. Church, Maryland. All cordially invited.

There is no doubt but that the re-enactment of the Battle of Bull Run on July 21, 1936, the 75th anniversary of that great event, was the greatest occasion ever witnessed by the people of Prince William County, not only by the present generation but probably for more generations yet to come. The Bull Run battle field has been reposing in quietude for the past three-quarters of a century while other fields of even lesser note, have been improved to the extent that they are points of interest to the general traveling public as well as to those of immediate concern. The school children of to-day read in their histories of wars, past, present, and we might say future, since the papers are full of foreboding prophesies of others yet to come. So that war seems to be something to be reckoned with as long as people will not agree to agree; or as long as peoples and nations elect to be selfish.

The re-enactment of the Battle of Bull Run gave the present generation a somewhat vivid picture of what war is like; how it is conducted and what it costs in life and money when interpreted in terms of actual conflict.

That it was a matter of interest is easily understood when it is known that between 31,000 and 32,000 people laid aside all other business to give the day unreservedly to witnessing the great spectacle. There are many things of interest connected with this particular occasion that if all could be told would be of much interest to the people; things that really should be known in order that all may realize that Prince William has some very progressive citizens in her make-up who spare neither time nor expense to keep the county and its potentialities before the public—an activity at all times necessary if the county is to progress. That we have such should be the pride of every citizen and no doubt is. This column rejoices that we have men with ability and patriotic initiative sufficient to pursue worthwhile things to a successful finish.

It was but a short time ago that three men stood stalking in Manassas after Kiwanis had dismissed. This, of course, was no strange thing since men and women both have had that habit for a long time; but these men grew serious; they, like Darius Green and his flying machines, had an idea. Darius said: "Birds can fly, why can't I?" These men said: "Other battle fields have big days and why can't we?" Thus the argument continued pro and con until finally the "pro" ideas prevailed and the next day a committee was on its way to Richmond to secure an appropriation which it obtained and from that moment organizations were set up, committees appointed and things set in motion which culminated in one of the greatest events ever witnessed in this part of the State. The personnel of these committees is so well known that it is not necessary to repeat; but it all goes to show that "pep" will win when they have the right kind of pepper. So this was the "embryo" of the achievements of a great day.

The re-enactment was the greatest advertisement that Manassas ever had. The Old Bull Run Battle Field is an asset greater than any one knows. It is the "vehicle" that affords an excuse to do anything consistent with history and the great cause which produced it. It is the one thing that Prince William has that sets her apart from all other counties not having a battle field within their borders. It is the one thing which merits enduring fame and respect throughout the whole country; hence whatever is done there is of interest to the Nation. While we pretend to, and do, hate war, we never-the-less are mightily interested in Battle Fields once they are enriched by the blood of our people; whether it be East, West, North or South, shed blood is shed blood. Who, then, can wonder that people everywhere are interested. The fame of this enactment is now spread abroad throughout the land and beyond. Magazines and newspapers are publishing the story and comment is made; some few opposing the idea while the many treat it as a "News happening" worthy of record and so give it large space on the "printed page" of the Nation.

We have not yet learned the true value of the Skyline Drive. To some it is an expensive enterprise fit only for the few; but sooner or later we shall know its full value. People from all over the country by thousands and ten thousands are destined to visit that "Trail of Scenic Beauty" each year with increasing multitudes as time goes on; this, then, shall prove its value. Once there, it is but natural that they will want to visit Virginia's battle fields and Old Bull Run being situated in direct line to the Nation's Capital, would be a point of great interest. How important it is, then, that some agency should improve this noted spot commensurate to its dignity and historical importance. It is a duty too long neglected; and they are "legion" who now wish to see its beautification an accomplished fact.

It is almost unthinkable that ten thousand automobiles and thirty-one thousand people could be mobilized and dispersed without a single accident to either man or machine, but such was the case. All honor to those in charge for the very efficient way in which everything was handled.

Next Sunday night, August 9, Mr. John Howes of Winchester, Va., president of the Young People's Division of the Baltimore conference, will address the Young People's meeting at Sudley at 8 p. m. All the young people of the neighborhood are cordially invited to attend this meeting. Nor is this invitation confined to the young alone. It would be an inspiration to all if the whole congregation would turn out, take a little "vacation" and hear just what the young people of the Baltimore conference are trying to accomplish. The young people shall be looking for you.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brenner of Alexandria, Va., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Payne at Occoquan.

Mrs. Thomas F. Joyce of Occoquan is spending several days visiting friends in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Kenneth Dove of Lorton; Mr. French Fleming of Lorton; and Mr. B. W. Brunt and Capt. Thomas F. Joyce of Occoquan, attended the Northern Virginia Bankers' meeting at Warrenton on Tuesday, July 25. Several matters of interest to banks, and to the general public were discussed an acter on. Banks are endeavouring to give the public better service.

The Women's Auxiliary of Pohick church met at the home of Mrs. Sam Davis of Lorton on Wednesday, August 4, at noon. There was a very good attendance, and all had a pleasant afternoon.

The Bethel Methodist church community will have an all day meeting at the church on Sunday, August 23. They welcome everybody in the community to come and spend the day with them. Bring your lunch baskets and join in an old fashioned community dinner. It is hoped to have the Rev. Mr. Hoyt who at a time had the Occoquan charge, to preach. The Bethel church folks are noted for their fried chicken, so if you come you may have an opportunity to pass on it. They will be glad to have all come who can.

This community has been saddened by deaths recently: Our dear friend, Mr. Tyson Janney left a BIG vacant spot in this community. He always had the interests of this town at heart, even after moving to Alexandria. He was a frequent visitor to our town, and we are going to miss his visits.

Mrs. Cross, a life time member of this town who passed to her reward was dearly loved by all who came in contact with her, and will be greatly missed.

Mr. Gus White, one of our colored friends and one who had the respect of all the white as well as the colored folks, passed to his reward. He too will be missed by our town.

We sincerely sympathize with the kin folks of those who are mentioned above.

"IN OLD KENTUCKY" STARS ROGERS IN TINGLING HORSE RACE ROMANCE

The picture that marks the glorious climax of Will Rogers' career, "In Old Kentucky," pens at the Dixie Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday to bring America's beloved star to the screen in a thrilling picturization of America's favorite play.

Skillfully modernized by the scenarists, "In Old Kentucky" is mellow with the humor that brought Will Rogers fame, filled with the romance and the excitement of racing thoroughbreds that made this story the favorite of millions of Americans.

Rogers has the role of Steve Tapley, a trainer of champions and the skillful guide of young love in a land where all the horses are fast and the women beautiful.

Around the romance of Dorothy Wilson and Russell Hardie much of the picture's action centers. Hardie is the trainer for wealthy Charles Richman, a job Rogers lost when he protected Miss Wilson's grandfather, Charles Sellon, from Richman's wrath.

The task of training Miss Wilson's horse for the Ashford stakes takes up only part of Rogers' time however.

He is at the same time engaged in the courtship of a Southern lady, played by Esther Dale. And Bill Robinson, the famous dancer, is his able aid in both these tasks.

Through plot and counterplot, this delightful story weaves its way, bringing us to the spectacular climax in the race. And here Miss Wilson defies all precedent by riding her mount to victory and a happy solution for all concerned.

"LUCKY TERROR" TYPICAL OF HOOOT GIBSON'S BEST

Comedy with a capital C is the film fare offered by Hoot Gibson, in his latest starring success, "Lucky Terror," which opens at the Dixie theatre, on Friday and Saturday, August 14-15.

"Lucky Terror" is the story of a cow-boy who finds himself in possession of a treasure of gold, which is being sought by a band of desperadoes. Hoot Gibson as Lucky Carson, soon discovers, however, that the gold belongs to pretty Lona Andre, who as Ann, plays the part of a dancer in a traveling patent medicine show.

How Hoot Gibson finally restores the gold to its rightful owner, after becoming involved in a series of complications which lead him almost to prison as a murder suspect—is the basis of this fast moving, laugh provoking drama of the west.

"Lucky Terror" is different from most westerns, in that it offers a goodly portion of comedy, mixed up with its fast rides, thrilling moments, and dramatic scenes. It is the type of picture, in which Hoot Gibson has won his greatest success in the past.

TO serve our Patrons well and make each service a stepping stone towards their perfect confidence, is the desire and constant endeavor of our organization.

QUIET TALKS ON RELIGION

Defective Vision

Many people have bad eyes. It is doubtful if there are any who make a full use of the eyes they have. The average man goes through life in total indifference to the beauties of the natural world though they are all about him in earth and sky and sea.

Few share the enthusiasm of the poet De La Mare when he says, "Oh God, Thou hast made this world too beautiful." Emerson well says, "We are immersed in beauty, but our eyes have no clear vision." Our modern absorption in mechanical progress and commercialism is fast destroying our finer sensibilities.

While a train is speeding along through gorgeous scenery you will observe the majority of the travelers killing time by reading cheap novels or the comic section of a daily paper. This is a real misfortune since a love of the beautiful adds much to the richness and joy of life. Little mentality can be credited to the young girl who having visited Niagara Falls reported her impressions in the words, "I thought it was cute."

A friend recently told me of his visit to the Canyons of Colorado where the Divine Artist has displayed His finest skill, and spoke of two little boys who happened to be standing near him. One of these turned to his companion and remarked, "God sure shot the works!" You will call this slang, but I would contend that involved no irreverence on the part of the boy but that it showed an appreciation of beauty worthy of emulation. In his boyish way he was giving expression of the same sentiment as the psalmist who cried in more stately language, "Great and marvelous are Thy works, Oh Lord!"

Happy are they who have eyes to see that "earth is crammed with heaven and every common bush aflame with God."

The greatest of all misfortune is the inability to see the glories of the spiritual world. These can be seen only through the eyes of the soul. The soul has eyes as truly as the body. We may allow them to become atrophied through disuse, or we may use them to catch infinite visions of things unseen and eternal, greater visions than have ever been caught by the famous astronomers who have ascended the mountain-tops and pointed their glistening telescopic batteries toward the skies.

Spiritual vision alone can lift us above the trials and worries of earth. See Elisha and his servant as they walk together on the wall of Dothan when it was besieged by the Syrians. The servant is desperately alarmed when he catches sight of the Syrian host, while Elisha is unperturbed. The prophet sees something which the young servant does not see. "Lord, open his eyes," Elisha prayed, and the eyes of the servant were opened and he saw what the prophet had seen, for the hills between Dothan and the Syrian camp were filled with myriads of angels with their horses and chariots of fire.

"Though destruction walk around us, Though the arrow pass us by, Angel-guards from Thee surround us; We are safe if Thou art nigh."

Raymond Ratcliffe of Manassas and Mr. and Mrs. Clay Speake of Dumfries.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Garrison and daughter, Shirley Ann, and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brawner and daughter, Joscelyn, are touring Canada.

Mrs. Belle Rison, who has been very ill, is much improved at this time.

Mrs. Kate Keys and her daughters, Miss Emmet Keys and Mrs. Wilbur Brawner and her daughters, Ann Joyce and Jewell Pratt, and Mr. Elwood McIner have returned home after spending a week at Colonial Beach.

The many friends of Miss Elsie Hill were surprised to learn of her marriage to Mr. Thomas Swift of Quantico, Va. The wedding took place in Elkton, Md., May 28. Mr. and Mrs. Swift are now in Pittsburgh, Pa., where they are visiting friends and relatives.

There will be a dance at camp 26 tomorrow evening. Several of the folks from Quantico and Dumfries are planning to attend.

RAPID-FIRE THRILLS PACK CURRENT FILM

From its opening shot of newspapers hitting the street, screaming headlines, to its bombshell courtroom close, "The Case Against Mrs. Ames," which opens at the Dixie theatre, next Monday and Tuesday, August 10-11, sustains a machine-gun pace of drama and suspense.

The picture, a Walter Wanger production, presents the beautiful English stage and screen star, Madeleine Carroll, in a fast-moving story of a woman charged with murder and later threatened with loss of her only child.

George Brent, who co-stars with Miss Carroll in her first American film, appears as a ruthless district attorney who seeks to send Mrs. Ames to the gallows, yet proves the means of her salvation.

The story opens with Miss Carroll on trial for the murder of her husband, a wealthy California social leader. A mass of circumstantial evidence points to her guilt. Public opinion is against her; her husband's mother is a bitter enemy; her own attorney seems lukewarm in his defense.

The accused woman in a dramatic courtroom sequence pleads for a chance to defend herself. Acquitted, she remains guilty in the public eye.

The subsequent battle for her child, in which she is opposed by the power and wealth of her mother-in-law, makes an unusually powerful screen story.

SMITHSONIAN GETS RELICS

The Smithsonian Institution of Washington has been presented with interesting relics of the War Between the States, including the table on which the conditions of surrender were written by General Grant at Appomattox. Another relic is the flag of truce used by General Lee. The relics come from the collection of General George A. Custer, who was later killed by the Indians at Big Horn, and who enjoyed a very unsavory reputation in Virginia for brutality to prisoners of war.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

PAINTING WITH LIGHT

When lights strike from the same distance on either side the result in a photograph (left) is a balance that tends to "flatten" the subject. In the other picture, the light comes from the extreme left and the extreme right a little to the rear. The dramatic, third-dimensional effect is obvious.

SKILLFUL photographers use light in place of the artist's brush. For with light they can create sharp contrasts, accents and shadows; undesirable features can be eliminated, important points played up.

Above are two pictures showing how a subject may be "painted" by light. The figure and the camera were kept in fixed positions; only the lights, two of them, were moved. And see what happened! The flat, uninteresting representation at the left is, at the right, transformed and enlivened. Form and features have been brought into relief in dramatic fashion. The pathos in the pose and expression have been brought out and an impression of mystery has been introduced. The picture now speaks and stimulates the imagination to a much greater extent.

For the amateur, there is a world of fun experimenting with light "painting." Figures like this, dolls, toy animals, glass globes, spectacles, mirrors, bottles, vases, indeed any small objects that appeal to your fancy, singly or in group, may be used as subjects. The top of a table will serve as your "easel." A portrait attachment for the ordinary camera is essential, because the pictures must be made at close range in order to give a large image. Behind or on the table arrange to have a plain background, dark or light, depending upon the tone of your subject. For your "paint brushes" two or three 25-cent flood-light bulbs and cardboard reflectors (two for a quarter) placed in floor lamps will be sufficient. With these movable lamps around the table, you can bring light to bear on your subject from any angle and vary the distance or elevation of one or the other to produce the light and shadow contrasts that you think will be most artistic or striking. Remember, that you have "everything under control" and can take time to study the effects of the lighting before you snap the camera shutter.

With fixed-focus cameras having relatively slow lenses, and the chrome type of film, make time exposures. With cameras having fast lenses (f.6.3 or faster) a shorter time exposure (1/2 to 1/10 second) for the chrome type and 1/25 second snapshot, for the supersensitive type, should produce good results. Of course, much depends on the volume of the light, the number of lights used and their distances from the subject. Incidentally, it is not difficult to devise a spot light. It is only necessary to use a large cardboard into which a 2-inch hole has been cut, and hold it between a light and the subject during the exposure. With the rest of the room dark, a spot light gives strong, sharp shadows, and if your subject lends itself to such contrast, dramatic effects may be obtained.
