KIWANIS MARK 12th BIRTHDAY

Many Guests Present to Take Part in Exercises.

With an admiring cohort from Washington, Alexandria and Fredericksburg, the Manassas Kiwanis Club last Friday night celebrated its 12th birthday with appropriate ceremonies in which the ladies took part obligingly.

Harry Kimball, past governor of the Capitol District, produced a wonderful chart which Ed Hill, of the "grand-papa" club (Washington) hung on the walls above President Dick's head and which immediately became a part of the chattels of the local Club. Harry left it there as a sort of "lest we forget."

It would be inappropriate to recite the glowing praise that was showered on the host club by its visitors. Everybody rejoiced that such a successful organization had so prospered in the county seat of Prince William.

Incidentally, Mr. Corbell, editor of the Leesburg Times-Mirror, was present at the invitation of Bill Coker, to learn something of the workings of Kiwanis so that possibly Leesburg might go forth and do likewise.

Ray Ratcliffe, first president of the Club, gave some interesting statistics on the membership of the Club and told the story of just how the Club came to be started.

All past presidents were on hand except the beloved Bobby Johnson, since deceased. On the suggestion of Ed Hill, who presented a formidable and legal appearing document, and on motion of Jim Bradford, a club to be called the "Doc Johnson Boys and Girls Club" was ordered incorporated, with all officers, past and present, acting as the incorporators. It was a very sweet gesture in memory of Doctor Johnson, and Mrs. Johnson, who was present, expressed her keen appreciation.

Except for some cracks by Harry Kennedy and Irving Diener of the Alexandria Club, nothing more of importance was transacted. A list of members and guests follows:

CHEST CLINIC TO BE HELD HERE

At the chest clinic held at Manassas on October 22, 12 adults were examined by the State specialist. The reports of the examinations have been sent to the referring physicians and all positive and suspicious cases advised to consult their family physicians for advice and treatment. Some of them will doubtless go to the State sanatoria, but most of them must remain at home. Doctors report that it is easier to get well at a sanatorium because people at home do as they please and not as the doctor advises. The advice of the family doctor if followed out in the home is just as effective as the advice of a doctor at a hospital. People with tuberculosis should realize this when they must remain at home with the disease, act sensibly and obey the doctor. Medicine is not needed. Plenty of rest, good food, and fresh air will work the cure if they begin soon enough.

M. H. S. WINS OVER NOKESVILLE AND HAYMARKET

M. H. S. soccer team was victorious in another tight game this afternoon when they won over Haymarket with a score of 1-0. On Tuesday they played Nokesville in which they won, the score then being 1-0 in favor of M. H. S.

Mark your ballot carefully next Tuesday.

Voters will please observe that that Attorney General A. P. Staples has ruled that if a name is scratched out on the ballot as previously required that the ballot will be declared invalid by the judges. Only ballots with the cross marks properly placed will be counted and ballots marked in any other way will be thrown out.

Thousands of informative ballots have been distributed by parties and the facts certainly should not be confused by this time.

PREPARES FOR 1936 ROLL CALL

President DeChant to Have Well Organized Group of Aides

Although escaping the full fury of the storms and floods which swept through Eastern and Southern states last spring, Virginia's disaster activities increased over the previous year and Chapters throughout the state maintained a high record of Red Cross service to the public. Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, chairman of the Prince William County Red Cross Chapter, said today in her annual summation of Red Cross accomplishments in Virginia.

In March as rivers swollen by early rains and melting snow raged out of their banks all over the East, several scores of families in Virginia counties bordering the Potomac river received Red Cross assistance, when they were forced to flee from their homes.

The assistance they received in everything from food and clothing to household furnishings, building repairs and actual reconstruction of houses in some instances. Those communities affected were in Arlington, Henrico, Shenandoah, Rock Bridge, Fairfax, Campbell and Rockingham counties.

Through the co-operation of the Kiwanis Club of Manassas, a large amount of clothing, bedding etc., was collected in Prince William county, and shipped to these sufferers. In addition the Chapter, through voluntary contributions, was able to make a very splendid contribution in cash to National Headquarters, to assist with the work of rehabilitation.

At the same time the state through the support of Virginia citizens all but doubled its disaster quota.

Throughout the country the American Red Cross in the past year, was called upon to assist some 445,000 persons, victims of 105 disasters in 39 states. In the Spring floods and torandoes alone the Red Cross gave assistance to 370,000 people.

Although less spectacular than disaster relief, other Red Cross achievements in the past year are much more pleasant and gratifying to contemplate. Mrs. Lloyd states, "In Virginia these include a very substantial increase in Red Cross Life Saving institution, and equally gratifying progress in Junior Red Cross membership. Virginia chapters have contributed active in behalf on war veterans."

"In First Aid classes throughout the state last year, 3,977 were women and children were taught proper emergency treatment in accidental injuries.

In the field of health, nursery care was given 10,861 persons by the Red Cross Public Health Nurses in the state, and a total of 38,392 visits to or in behalf of the sick were made. At the same time 395 women and girls received Red Cross certificates for successfully completing the course in home hygiene and care of the sick.

These are but the highlights, many other activities were carried on by special volunteer service and workers; including the making of hundreds of garments for the needy and sick, surgical dressings, remodeling of clothing for disaster victims, purchasing Braille books for the blind and many similar activities.

The Prince William County Chapter has participated in all of these activities, thus work goes forward daily in your name, made possible through your membership dues. The goal for the Prince William County Chapter is 500 members for 1936-37. The Rev. John M. DeChant is chairman of Roll Call which starts on Armistice Day, and will have assisting him, a number of outstanding citizens and volunteer workers.

This is your organization—The Peoples Red Cross. It represents you, and in times of emergency it does for the victims of disaster that which you yourself would do, were it possible for you to visit each of them individually. A worker will call on you. Be prepared—we need your help.

LOCAL CAMPAIGN ENDS AT NOKESVILLE

LEGION TO AID DEMOCRATS

In the interest of the Democratic Party, the National Democratic Committee has added a unit to its progressive work, the same being a Veteran county chairman who will work within the American Legion Posts for the Party.

Commander Howard Jamison of Prince William Post No. 158, has been named to work for Prince William Post, No. 158. Co-chairmen have been named to work in large districts. Mr. Moss Jacobs of Haymarket will work in Gainesville District and Mr. Joe Elliott in Nokesville District.

During the day of November 3, Commander Jamison will have other voters at the polls for the purpose of interesting the voters in the Democratic platforms.

DEMOCRATIC SUNFLOWERS

Mrs. Mowry of Brentsville is in receipt of a letter from her brother, Frank, who is resident of Coffeyville, Kansas, which is in a normally Republican County and usually gives the Republican nominees about a three to one majority.

The writer encloses a clipping from the local daily paper showing a poll of 1119 votes in favor of Mr. Roosevelt as opposed to 184 for Mr. Landon. Coming from the Sunflower State, this fact reveals a rather unlooked for State of affairs.

The writer states further, that Mr. Landon, who claims to be running on his record as having balanced the budget in canvass, cannot be credited with this fact as certain fundamental laws under the state constitution have prevented any governor in recent years from unbalancing the state budget.

He says that "poor bonds" are issued to take care of the indigent and that Mr. Landon has done nothing about this. Just who will eventually pay the "poor" bonds back in the state of Kansas, no explanation seems to be forthcoming.

BANK DIRECTOR ELECTED

At a recent meeting of the directors of the National Bank, Mr. W. T. Thomasson was elected to fill the position as director, formerly held by Mr. O. E. Newman.

Mr. Thomasson is a well known dairy farmer in this community.

The Bennett School League held a card party at the home of Mrs. Frances Lewis last evening. Mrs. Frances Lewis and Mrs. Edgar Parrish were hostesses.

HIGHWAY GROUP COMPLETES ORGANIZATION

With an interested delegation present, all along the line of the proposed Battlefield Trail from below Fredericksburg to Point of Rocks on the Potomac River, the road meeting held at Leesburg last night proved to be very successful and quite satisfactory to those who are promoting the idea.

President Ray E. Hall and secretary W. F. Coker, who were elected at the recent meeting at Herndon, had charge of the meeting and the following personnel was added. Vice-president, George Harrison, Herndon; treasurer, Frank Moncre, Stafford. A complete list of directors will be published later. There will be five from each town or community along the route of the proposed road.

One of the most important steps taken was the decision to act in a concerted manner to secure the improvement of weak links along the trail which is to run from Gettysburg to Petersburg. One of those very weak links is in Prince William County, hence the importance of the step taken.

The organization will be expanded to take memberships all along the route. A fee of $1.00 per member was set up, and the new treasurer was immediately showered with one dollar bills.

The next meeting is subject to call of Mr. Hall.

BENNETT LEAGUE WILL SPONSOR AMATEUR SHOW

The Bennett School League will sponsor an amateur contest on the evening of October 30 in the Manassas High School auditorium.

This contest will be made up of purely local talent of which the town and community has a wide variety. Tap dancing, fiddle tunes, yodelling and many other entertaining numbers will be featured in this contest.

A prize will be given to the best entry. This show is open to everyone desiring to enter. Your co-operation is needed in helping make this evening the most entertaining of the season and to help this worthy organization, the Bennett League, in promoting its excellent work.

Come out and see your town put on a real show.

LARGE SWEET POTATO

The Journal Office has on display a five pound sweet potato which was grown on the farm of Mr. E. M. Roof.

CHANGE IN VIRGINIA VOTING LAW

At the last session of the Legislature the voting law was changed to provide for affirmative marking of the ballot as contrasted with the old negative method whereby the name of the candidate not desired was scratched.

In voting under the new law it is only necessary to place a check or a cross mark or a line in the square provided for such purpose, leaving the square preceding the name of each candidate one does not wish to vote for unmarked. In other words, the voter indicates by a mark in the proper square his intent.

On the ballot to be used in the Presidential Election on November 3, 1936, only three boxes can be marked. A mark placed in the box opposite the presidential candidate carries with it a vote for the vice-president and all of the presidential electors. The voter then passes down to the candidates for the United States Senate, placing a mark in the box, voting, however, for only one, and the same is true in regard to candidates for the House of Representatives.

HON. HOWARD W. SMITH

Howard W. Smith, our popular Congressman, has been called upon by the National Democratic Committee to make four addresses in Ohio this week. This is a tribute to his unquestioned ability and the National Committee recognizes that Judge Smith has been making many strong and effective speeches in behalf of the Democratic ticket with the record of the two Parties to back up what he says.

DEATH CLAIMS GEORGE ALLEN

Postmaster For Years at Gainesville.

George Jackson Allen died on Tuesday, October 21, at the family residence near Gainesville, Va., in his sixty-sixth year, after an illness of several weeks.

This announcement brings sorrow to his many relatives and the large circle of friends by whom he was highly esteemed. His kindly presence will be missed from the neighborhood where he lived. The good deeds of men are not always recorded in public. Those of George Allen may not be generally known but they shall be long and gratefully remembered by the men and women whom he befriended.

Born in Woodstock, Va., the eldest son of Judge George Henry C. and Julia Gatewood Allen, he was educated in Washington and Lee University at Lexington. On completing his college course, he went to Roanoke where he accepted a position with the Roanoke Iron Company and, later, in Pittsburgh, became affiliated with the Olive Field Iron Co.

After following for several years the profession of mining engineer in Idaho, he returned to Virginia; became engaged in farming with his brother, Charles B. Allen, and served as postmaster of Gainesville from the time of his appointment under President Wilson to the date of his death.

Surviving him are five brothers and three sisters: C. B. Allen of Gainesville, W. B. Allen, Woodstock, Henry C. Allen, Montgomery, Ala.; Evelyn W. Allen, Savannah, Ga.; James W. Allen, Jefferson, N. C.; three sisters: Mrs. W. A. Freret, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Mrs. W. M. Kemper of Danville, and Mrs. Emily Allen Baird, Woodstock, Va.

The interment was made in the Massanutten Cemetery, Woodstock, Va., the services there and at the church being conducted by the Rev. F. A. Brown, pastor of the Woodstock Episcopal Church.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLASS VISITS JOURNAL OFFICE

On Monday the Industrial Arts Class of Manassas High School visited the various procedures which enter into the making of a newspaper and also inspected the equipment of the job printing department.

Prof. E. F. Griswold was in charge of the class and those present included Maury Wells, Garland Boatwright, Max Collins, Caton Merchant, Kieffer Wenrich, Clyde Miller, Barton Payne, Roy Runaldue, Herbert Runaldue, Harold Kane, John Cebula, Lewis King, John Marsh, Alva Wheeler, James Vetter, Herman Bryant, John Counts and Warren Rector.

Mark your ballot carefully. The judges will instruct you upon request.

Capital City Officials Urge Re-election of Roosevelt.

Before a capacity crowd at Nokesville last night, orators hailing from both Virginia and Mississippi lauded Franklin Roosevelt to the assembled voters.

In the absence of Hon. Howard W. Smith, Hon. Thomas H. Lion presided and introduced Hon. Melvin C. Hazen, who in turn introduced the several speakers.

Elwood Seal, who recently became corporation counsel for the District of Columbia, spoke first. Launching directly into his subject, he cited the causes of the terrible financial status of the nation in 1932, ascribing most of them to the mismanagement of the Republican Party.

In rapid succession and in answer to attacks from the opposing Party, Mr. Seal noted that "no party has ever lived entirely up to its campaign pledges." He defended the expenses of the Administration in its work of reclaiming the Nation; attacks on the social security law (in which he quoted a recent editorial from the Washington Post that described the action of the Republican National Committee as "indefensible") and other matters now up before the voters.

Mr. Seal declared that it is hardly the privilege of the Republican Party to criticize after bringing the country to the verge of ruin in 1932. He stated that he did not believe that the country could possibly be ungrateful enough not to return Mr. Roosevelt to the White House.

The next speaker was Barrett Prettyman, also active in District of Columbia affairs and son of Rev. Forrest Prettyman of Fredericksburg.

Mr. Prettyman put some real fire into his denunciations of the attacks on the social security law by propaganda among the working men by describing it as "a low trick and one of the dumbest that's ever been done in politics—it's ignorant and cheap. The working men know the law is for their benefit."

The speaker recited the performances of the Democratic Party in the task which it assumed in 1933, especially with reference to the business status of the Nation in 1932.

He gave such interesting statistics as "in the four years preceding one thousand banks had failed which constituted 'material paralysis'; that since Roosevelt had taken office only eight National banks had failed and in the past year none at all."

He urged that all one had to do is to read any newspaper to see the difference. He spoke with emphasis of the seven million men returned to work, and scanned the present day outlook as "a complete picture of material recovery in only three and one half years."

Mr. Prettyman also praised other acts of the Administration, especially the foreign policy of Secretary Hull in rebuilding the broken fences of foreign trade. He ridiculed the alleged attacks on the Constitution, reorganization, etc.

In comparing the national expenses with income, the following figures were cited: Taxes here 9 per cent of the National income as compared with 22 per cent in some of the leading countries of Europe; per capita debt here $2.66 as compared with $6.71 in the same foreign lands; national income in 1932, 38 billion with a national debt of 18 billion while in 1936 the figures have changed to sixty billion and twenty five billion respectively.

"The marvelous thing is that hope has been replanted in human hearts. He has done these things and the miracle of the revival of hope is accomplished."

"On Tuesday next all classes of labor and agriculture will march to the polls to support their friend, Franklin D. Roosevelt. On Tuesday next you will take part in one of the greatest events of American history."

After a warm introduction from Mr. Hazen, in which compliments were mutually exchanged, George E. Allen, one of the Commissioners from Washington City demonstrated his ability as an entertaining public speaker. As a nephew of the famous "Private John Allen," for so many years a thorn to the Republicans in the halls of Congress, he was a chip "off the side of the old block."

In prefacing his remarks, he paid a glowing tribute to our Congressman Hon. Howard W. Smith, whom he stated is looked on as one of the influential men in the Capitol City.

QUIET TALKS ON RELIGION

By Dr. James T. Marshall

THE CIRCLE

The circle is the symbol of all that is beautiful. The Creator has filled heaven and earth with circles. We see them in the orbits of the planets, the shape of the earth, the form of the rainbow and in the curves given to trees, flowers and fruits.

It naturally becomes the symbol of all that is glorious in the realm of the unseen and the infinite. There is no end to a circle, hence it suggests the illimitable power and wisdom of God. Do not get gloomy and fearful lest civilization end in failure and ruin. The final success of the Kingdom of Heaven has been assured us and the King of Kings is stiff on His throne. Just as naturally the circle symbolizes the illimitable love of God. There is no heart so stained that He cannot cleanse it, nor any grave so deep that He cannot fathom it.

"Stronger His love than death or hell; Its riches are unsearchable; The first-born sons of light Desired in vain its depths to see; To solve the dreadful mystery, The length and breadth and height." The circle is the symbol of moral perfection in human character. "Be ye perfect even your Father in Heaven is perfect." So our Savior taught. Christian character should not be angular and jagged, but gracious and lovable like that of Him who was "altogether lovely and the chief among ten thousands."

The Christian should imitate the broad-mindedness of his Master. There is nothing in His teaching or example to encourage us in our bigotry and hatreds. Surely bigotry was not born in Bethlehem. It germinated in the minds of men who never caught the spirit of the Christ Child. Any one who calls Jesus narrow or bigoted has never read the New Testament. Every person who is weary of sin and is trying to find his way to peace has his place within the circle of the Savior's disciples. There are no doctrinal conditions appended to His great invitation "Come unto Me all ye that labor and are laden, and I will give you rest."

If we follow Him we will lay aside our race hatreds, narrow nationalism class prejudices, theological strife and practical greed, and draw the circle of our love large enough to include the whole big world for which Christ died. Edwin Markham sums it all up in his lines entitled "Outwitted," "He drew a circle that shut me out— Heretic, rebel, a thing to flout; But Love and I had the wit to win; We drew a circle that took him in!"

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Probation after Death" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 25.

The Golden Text was "The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger." (Job 17:9)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory." (I Corinthians 15:54)

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law,"—the law of mortal belief, at war with the facts of immortal Life, even with the spiritual law which says to the grave, "Where is thy victory?" But "when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory." (Page 496).

SUNDAY SCHOOL DISTRICT CONVENTION

Centreville District Sunday School Convention met Sunday afternoon at the Southern Methodist Church in Centreville with the president, Mr. C. H. Wine presiding. Talks were made by county president, C. C. Carr, and Miss Fannie Ferris, who has charge of the week-day religious instruction in the public schools.

Special features included a playlet entitled "The Ladder to Church Membership" by the group of the young people of Clifton and a quartette from the Clifton Presbyterian Church. The choir of Methodist Church at Centreville had charge of the music.

Mr. Carr emphasized the county convention which will be held on the evening of November 5 at Oakton at which time the state secretary Rev. Minor C. Miller will be present and also the following county instructors: Arlington, Miss Martha Bennett; Prince William, Miss Emma Perkins; Fairfax, Fannie Ferris.

The program of this convention will be built up around the week day religious educational project.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Randolph Buckley of Clifton; vice-president, Alvin Birch of Pender; secretary-treasurer, Ruth H. Pyles, assistant, Esther Davis of Clifton; superintendent of Adult Department, Mrs. Bess Gooding of Pender; superintendent of Primary Department, Mrs. Jack Detwiler of Clifton; and Home Department, Mrs. Brinckmann of Clifton.

IF SHADOWS NEVER CROSSED OUR PATH

If shadows never crossed our path and skies were always blue; If never tears bedimmed our eyes and friends were always true; If n'er we saw another's needs or had a chance to give, We'd never know the blessings of a Christlike life to life.

It's only after tempests that we know that peaceful calm. And after heartache that we find in Jesus healing balm; 'Tis only sorrow that can bring that comfort sweet and sure, While trials draw us close to Him and strengthen to endure.

It takes a bitter and the sweet to make of life a whole; The disappointments and the tears to help us reach the goal. Yea, heaven will seem fairer for the battles fought and won; Eternal rest the sweeter when we hear that glad "well done."

Dear Mr. Editor:-

You and many of your Journal readers are rejoicing over the promising prospect for a wider distribution of electric current in Prince William County through the operations of the Bull Run Power Company. However, here in the upper part of the County there is some misunderstanding of the situation which it would be well to have removed; and as my own attitude to the project has been misunderstood, I seem to be the logical party to provide the facts necessary to a better and clearer comprehension of the steps by which this progressive enterprise has been made possible.

About eighteen months ago the Bull Run Power Company made application to the REA for a loan to finance the cost of increasing their plant and extending their rural lines. A few weeks ago they made a survey through Catharpin, Hickory Grove, Wolsey, Waterfall, Thoroughfare and on to the colored settlement. In this area enough applications were secured to warrant building the line. About October 1 Mr. J. H. Rogers of the Virginia Farm Power Board appealed to Mr. C. B. Roland and myself to call a meeting of all interested to see if a cooperative might be organized to build a line to serve the area already surveyed by the B. R. P. Co. On October 8 such a meeting was held but poorly attended. After an explanation by Mr. Rogers there did not appear to be any real desire to form a cooperative. On October 13 a largely attended meeting called by officers of the B. R. P. Co. manifested a decided desire to have the project continued by that Company. I had no fault to find with that decision but at this meeting it was manifest that many were irritated by an alleged unwarranted interference with the plans of the Company and with the desire of its prospective patrons. This feeling was revealed by some vocal criticism of the Grange and by mental criticism against Mr. Roland and myself as officers of the Grange. This attitude I felt to be due chiefly to the fact that few, if any, possessed the facts necessary to arrive at a just appraisal of the matter in hand. Accordingly on Friday, October 16, I had a conference with officials of the REA in order to obtain first hand information and more light on this somewhat mysterious situation.

Mr. Fisher and Mr. Winder assured me that neither the Grange nor any officer thereof could justly be held responsible for the interference and delay complained of. They assured me that the said delay was due to the desire of the REA and the Virginia F. P. B. to have a cooperative formed which desire was based on the fact that the money was appropriated primarily for co-operative rural electric lines. Mr. Rogers has consistently opposed the loan applied for by the B. R. P. Co. because there are co-operatives asking for this money which if granted to the said company must be denied to the cooperatives. Now, lest any should think the REA was indifferent to the needs of this section, it ought to be generally known that the prospect for electric current in the near future is due chiefly to the refusal of the REA to make the loan to the B. R. P. Co. unless their rural mileage and patrons were considerably increased. In justice to the REA it should also be stated that they had planned compensation for the B. R. P. Co. in case a cooperative should be organized. It was a great pleasure to discover in the REA a very high degree of zeal and ability and a keen sense of justice.

A letter in hand from Mr. Rogers makes it clear that the motion at the last meeting of the Grange declaring itself in favor of the B. R. P. Co's. project had much to do with the final decision of the REA to make the loan to the said Company.

As the matter is now settled to the satisfaction of the B. R. P. Co. and its patrons this seems to be the proper time to place this statement in their hands.

Gratefully yours,
W. F. Carpenter.

OCCOQUAN & VICINITY

Miss Mayme Davis, Occoquan, is taking a couple of weeks vacation, visiting some of the New England States and points in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Manson of Washington, D. C., spent the week end with Mrs. Manson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Leary, Occoquan.

Mr. John Powell has moved from Woodbridge into his own new home on the outskirts of Occoquan. We are glad to have the Powells as neighbors, but we sorry at this time that Mrs. Powell is sick in Alexandria Hospital and hope she will soon be home to enjoy the comforts of her new home.

The Lor-Occo-Wood-Quan bridge club met at the home of Mrs. T. Powell Davis, Woodbridge, on Monday, October 26.

There will be a turkey shoot at the Red Brick Tavern, Dumfries, on the afternoon of November 7, under the auspices of the American Legion. Only twelve gauge shotguns may be used, with any ammunition. Come and enjoy an afternoon's shoot. You will get a square deal, and may take a turkey home.

Recent improvements noticed in Occoquan and vicinity:

Mr. William F. Woodyard, known to us all as Fred is making extensive improvements on his bungalow in Occoquan, including an additional room, porch, and installation of toilet and bathing facilities.

Mr. Leo Beach had completed digging a well, and is now installing toilet and bathing facilities in his home at Occoquan.

Mr. Ogle Harris is digging a well, and will no doubt install modern conveniences in his home at Occoquan.

The gymnasium for the High School is getting to look like a building now since the outside boarding is being put on. It is hoped to have it so far completed as to enable games to be played in it this winter.

The dance by the Junior League last week was a great success. All the dances given at Occoquan High School attract young and old, because they are properly conducted, and the music has always been excellent.

LET US HAVE A BIG VOTE

We earnestly beg our Democratic voters to turn out next Tuesday and vote. We know and they know that our county will cast a majority for Roosevelt but what we want is a big majority vote.

A NEW FALSE FACE

What is a Jeffersonian Democrat in 1936?

What was a Hoovercrat in 1928?

What was a Gold Democrat in 1896?

As Andy would say, if it isn't one thing it is some more of the same. "Sons of wild jackasses" is a highly dignified term to what these hybrids are. Every party has them, and every organization which is large enough to do anything.

The use of the name "Democrat" is an ever-present insult to which they cling, the tools of those Tories who would make them catpaws in their own cunning desire to rule or ruin.

We shall never have a perfect political party in this nation, nor in any state of this nation. The sooner the State of Virginia and the balance of the South realize, to the third and fourth generation, just what species of "Democratic" asses have existed under the tutelage of the Republican Party since the year 1860, the sooner they will entirely dispel the clouds of special privilege, hard times and other national evils.

JOHN ALLENBY MORGAN

On Thursday, October 22, John Allenby Morgan died in the 77th year of his life. He was born in Queen Anne's County, Md., October 29, 1860.

He married Mary Virginia Beaven of Hillsboro, Md., January 6, 1885, who survives him.

In the year of 1903 Mr. Morgan moved to Manassas and bought the firm of the late Harry Hilleary who engaged in the livery business. After disposing of this he bought a farm on the outskirts of this town and had since been giving it his attention.

Besides his widow he is survived by three daughters and one son; Mrs. Maude Waters of Manassas, Mrs. W. M. Brown of Dallas, Texas, Mrs. Channing Yarborough of Baltimore and Mr. Gordon Morgan of Manassas. Also three brothers and one sister: Mrs. Nettie Seward and Mr. Gilbert Morgan of Baltimore and Barton and Hackett Morgan of Occoquan, Va. Also three grandchildren: Robert and John Waters and Bettie Yarborough.

He was buried from Trinity Episcopal Church with the Rev. A. Stuart Gibson officiating. The following friends acted as pall bearers: Active: H. T. Davies, E. R. Conner, P. L. Proffitt, Bryan Gordon, J. H. Burke and O. D. Waters. Honorary: Robert Saffer, James Birkett, James Birkett, Jr., G. Raymond Ratcliffe, R. M. Weir, Frank Whitmer, Ernest Trusler, W. F. Cocke and A. A. Hooff.

Mr. Morgan will be very greatly missed by the entire community, for by his unflinching courtesy, kindness and affability he had won a host of friends. An let this be said of him, that he was a true friend who loved his God and his neighbor as himself. "On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." May he rest in peace.

Nokesville

just ooze confidence and good cheer, and if there were any doubting Thomases, he certainly gave them a boost.

He started off by declaring that "there just isn't any argument in the election" and that he did not see how any one could oppose Roosevelt. He declared that the only excuse that Mr. Landon has for running is to keep the Republican Party in the running, and further that he was the only available candidate.

Brushing over the Jeffersonian Democrats and Liberty Leaguers, he described them as a "bunch of has-beens and will-be's" who are afraid "red grass" growing in the streets now just as some of them feared "that green grass would grow in the streets if Roosevelt was elected in 1932." He declared that Roosevelt had pleased neither group of extremists, having followed a more sane course.

He described the foreign policy under Hoover as a "series of ridiculous blunders."

On the relief question, he accused Mr. Landon of wanting "to duck the responsibility either way." (As Governor or as President).

He voiced the firm belief that only an overwhelming victory for Roosevelt should be given him, and stated that Landon would carry but two states, Maine and Vermont.

In closing the meeting, Mr. Hazen also paid tribute to Judge Smith, who, he said, "is just one of us, a plain dirt farmer. We never had a finer, more conscientious Representative in Congress and he deserves your vote. You can't raise a finger against him, and I urge all of you to work for him and make him feel that you have his interest at heart."

Others present to take part in the event were a number of the Committeemen, Supervisor Huff of Brentsville District; former Delegate George W. Herring, who was on hand to greet all of his old friends; W. T. Sweeney, and Mrs. Nelle Hyde Holmes, president and secretary of the local Young Democrats.

Prior to the gathering and for some time after, those present mingled together and talked over old times and present political issues to their hearts' content. It was a highly gratifying meeting from the standpoint of the Democrats, and is always one of the features of a campaign in Prince William.

RESOLUTIONS

Sister Georgette Taylor Weir was called to her Heavenly home on October 7, 1936.

She was a Charter Member of our Chapter and an ever faithful and loyal worker. Truly a Christian wife, mother and friend has gone to her reward.

A light has gone out of our Chapter. Our loss, we believe, was her gain; Her patience will be an example to us. Being cheerful in spite of her pain.

We'll miss your light laughter, dear sister,
We believe you knew of our love,

So we'll carry on till God calls us home

To meet round His Altar above.
Be it resolved:

First—That we bow in submission to God's will.

Second—That our Chapter extend to her family our heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement.

Third—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, a copy be spread upon our Minutes and a copy be sent to our local paper for publication.

PROMINENT GUESTS AT MUSIC PREMIERE

The National Symphony Orchestra opened its sixth season in the Capital's Constitution Hall last Sunday, October 25th, before a large audience in which sat many distinguished Washingtonians.

Hans Kindler, founder and conductor of the Orchestra, was welcomed as he stepped to the podium, with salvos of applause and throughout the program his listeners were enthusiastic in expressing their delight over his return and that the Orchestra for another season of concerts. An ovation was accorded him at the close of the concert.

Tito Schipa, the famed Italian tenor of the Metropolitan Opera, was guest soloist, and the gifted singer was hailed on this, his first concert appearance since returning to America last week from a year's stay in his native Italy.

The newly arrived envoy of that country, Ambassador Surovich, and Signora Survich were in a box to hear their distinguished countryman. And in a box nearby were the Ambassador of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, Alexander Troyanovsky, and Mme. Troyanovsky.

Also in the audience was Mrs. Walter Bruce Howe, a Washingtonian known musically as Mary Howe, whose composition "Spring Pastoral" was given an enthusiastic reception by the large audience. The performance given the work by Dr. Kindler was its world premiere.

Dr. Kindler opened the concert, and the Orchestra's winter season fittingly with that stirring passage of triumph, the "Entrance of the Gods into Valhalla" from Wagner's "Das Rheingold." He also conducted Haydn's Symphony No. 88, "Rumba" by Earl McDonald, and Liszt's "Les Preludes."

The season continues with another Sunday afternoon concert this week, November 1, when Howard Barlow, young American conductor, will be guest conductor, and with the first of the Orchestra's midweek concerts the night of November 4, when Guimaraes Novaes, the Brazilian pianist, will be guest soloist.

CATHARPIN

Fifty years ago on October 26, 1886, Dr. Charles Ford Brower, a young physician recently located in the Catharpin neighborhood, led Miss Sadie Sanders to the altar in old Sudley Church where they were united in wedlock by the then pastor, the Rev. H. M. Strickler. Fifty years later on October 26, 1936 this same couple celebrated their Golden Wedding at which the whole community turned out en masse to participate. It is rather a misnomer, however, to limit the attendance to this neighborhood when in fact it should have included all Northern Virginia since there were representatives present from every place almost from Roanoke to Washington City. A constant stream of cars during the hours from 2 until 9 p. m. was moving in and out until guests by the hundreds had called to congratulate the "High contracting parties" upon the accomplishment of half a century's life and service to a community which now was delighted to honor the "Bride and Groom" both by their presence and by their presents which were numerous and beautiful. Everything was of a golden hue emblematic of the occasion; everything save one which owing to the Nation's antipathy to the "Golden Standard," had to assume the silver tint represented by silver certificates in large amount presented in the form of a scroll containing the signatures of the donors. To name those present is beyond our ken, but all were in happy mood to enjoy what it really turned out to be—a Reunion of old friends of the past fifty years.

Fifty-four years ago Dr. Brower began the practice of medicine in the Catharpin neighborhood. It would be a task for the historian to narrate his experiences during these years which have now passed into history; how he traveled on horse-back and a-foot for miles and miles both night and day to reach some one in distress; how he ushered into this world more than three thousand souls, many of whom were among those present to greet him upon this particular occasion. We often think of "specialists" as living in the cities; but Dr. Brower was a specialist who lived in the country and many there be who have had the advantage of expert knowledge far above the average. This, then, is the reason for the great out-pouring of his constituency to lay their gifts of love and appreciation upon memory's altar in commemoration of services rendered them during past years.

Eighteen people were present who witnessed the marriage ceremony fifty years ago. Among them was Miss May Cather, now Mrs. J. D. Wheeler, who played the wedding march that ushered in the blushing young couple which were soon to embark upon the journey which was to lead them across the years to the present time. The "bride" upon this occasion wore a beautiful black gown trimmed in gold, and as the eighteen people were pleased to say, "she looked as sweet and pretty as the day she was married." To describe the coming together of these old friends would be to say that it was one of the most pleasant gatherings of our time. Upon all wedding occasions it is customary to describe the bride in great detail as to her gowns, etc. while the groom is often dismissed with the mere mention of the fact that he was present; but upon this "wedding day" both the bride and groom seemed to be of equal rank; one attracting as much attention as the other and both very popular among these friends of old many of whom had not met in years and all eager to talk over experiences of other days. The home was decorated in golden colors; flowers many, rare and beautiful had been sent in by loving friends to grace the occasion.

The refreshments served were even in harmony with the color scheme of the day. All in all it was a most delightful experience long to be remembered and cherished for the renewed friendships it permitted. The "Bride and Groom" wish to use this column to thank their friends for the many tokens of love sent them and especially to thank the signers of the scroll for the "Silver Lining" so generously awarded them and which it is impossible to acknowledge individually. As a souvenir of the occasion all the guests signed a roll denoting their presence at the Golden Wedding of Charles Ford and Sarah S. Brower upon this particular date; all wishing them everything that is nice, pleasant and beautiful. Perhaps the sentiment of all can not be better expressed than to repeat the message contained on a card addressed to Dr. and Mrs. Brower anent the gift it carried to them: "Long may you yet live in the land you love, to enjoy the friends you have done so much for."

A sad accident occurred near Amosville, Va., last week when the car in which Mr. Henry Tolley of Salem, Va., and two friends were traveling, collided with a truck killing Mr. Tolley instantly and injuring the other two so badly they were taken to the Warrenton hospital for treatment. Mr. Tolley, who was recovering from a recent illness, was on his way to visit his sister, Mrs. R. A. Collins, of this community.

Mrs. Cloe Anderson Keller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Anderson, was recently united in marriage to Mr. C. Elliott of Washington and are now domiciled in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Clary of Lawrenceville, Va., are guests of Mrs. Clary's sister, Mrs. J. W. Alvey, this week after attending the Golden Wedding of their uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Brower.

Mrs. John Patton, a former resident of this community, but now of Colesville, Md., together with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, were recent callers at the home of Mrs. Etta P. Lynn of this city.

It is with sorrow that we note the death of Mr. G. G. Allen, late Post Master at the Gainesville office, which occurred last week at his home in that city. Mr. Allen was always a gentlemanly official, a good citizen and a comfort to his friends and associates. To lose such as he is always a regret.

Another big community event was the bazaar and supper at Sudley last week when more people were handled and served than has been Sudley's experience at any former time. Each year the demand grows and each year Sudley tries to make provision to meet the increase but it seems the crowd is always a little ahead. This is a mighty healthy condition and the Missionary ladies are proud of the fact that their efforts are so appreciated. Should the ratio of increase continue as in the past several years Sudley will have to increase her facilities or admit only those holding tickets issued from the general office if any one can find such an office to make application. Over 350 meals were served between the hours of 1 and 10 p. m. which is a record. Suddenly appreciates the patronage of her friends and shall always do her best to treat them well.

WHITE HOUSE DRAMA

Beside the fireside where he sat to chat with the American people for four years, the President will listen next Tuesday night as their answer comes back in the form of election ballots. In doing so he will be reenacting one of the most interesting dramas which has been played in the White House—the drama of a President awaiting the verdict of the people.

Election night at the White House is one of those stories which has had many different characters. That story, in all its warm and moving detail, will be told in the feature section of The Star next Sunday, November 1.

Are You in Jim Farley's Bag?

Do you belong to Jim Farley because you have had some work with PWA or WPA paid for out of money which belongs as much to you as to him?

If you are a small business man do you want NRA again with its nose in your business, and asking you a fee for its meddling? Do you want to run your own farm, raise what you please and as much of it as you please, or do you want to take a license from Dr. Tugwell to have a potato patch?

Do you want the cost of living to go up and your taxes be increased? Do you want the Federal Government to put you into debt by borrowing money which you have to pay back and putting a mortgage on all you own or earn?

Thomas Jefferson said: "I am for a government rigorously frugal and simple, applying all the possible savings of the public revenue to the discharge of the national debt; and not for a multiplication of officers and salaries merely to make partisans." Would you rather be a JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRAT or a Jim Farley Democrat?

The New Deal says it is not for the Socialists and Communists, but the Socialists and Communists say they are for the New Deal. They are riding in the New Deal's rumble seat. The Socialists advocate the abolition of private property and the Communists demand the abolition of God and religion. Do you want to be in the bag with that bunch?

Do you favor the abolition of States' Rights, for which your fathers and grandfathers fought? Do you want to see them taken away and turned over to Mr. Tugwell and Mr. Ickes? Do you want to have Virginia ruled from Washington by Federal carpet-bagger, or from Richmond by men whom you elect? Do you want these things? Are you in Jim Farley's bag?

Letters to the Editor

Ocequan, Virginia.
October 26, 1936.

Friends of justice and democracy:-

In order to freshen your memory on some of the benefits you have received the last three and one half years, let us examine the record:

When President Franklin D. Roosevelt took office in March, 1933, there were fifteen millions unemployed. Bread lines had formed in some of the large cities. Farm produce sold at one third of what it is selling now, and cotton sold at five cents a pound. Rioting took place from forced farm sales in the West. Securities were declining rapidly daily. Mortgage holders were foreclosing and numberless people were losing their homes. Banks were closing by the thousands. There was panic everywhere, so much so that the country was on the verge of a revolution. If President Roosevelt had followed Hoover's example, there would undoubtedly be a revolution. But no, President Roosevelt did not wait for things to come to a head because he was well aware of the consequence. He ordered all banks closed as a stop gap to the bank panic, and as soon as those solvent were enabled to convince of their solvency he ordered them opened for business. He knew people were hungry, so he ordered them fed. In a very short time Ship of State which Mr. Hoover let flounder on the rocks was again floated by the Master Captain Mr. Roosevelt. The people did not question the constitutionality of his actions those days, but now, some of those who were mostly benefitted by the President's actions in restoring business are his greatest critics in trying to undermine the public's confidence in him. No panic or depression was handled in a more efficient or humane manner than was that terrible depression taken over from the Republican party by Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1933. Of course, it called for the expenditures of large sums of money; but, would the President be justified in seeing people starve in a land of plenty as was done by his predecessor Mr. Hoover? Of course not. Mr. Roosevelt had the courage, and the entire country was in back of him at that time, and but very few malcontents do not agree now that he was the saviour of our country in time of need.

Some call Mr. Roosevelt a radical or socialist. His actions in 1933 eliminated radicalism and socialism as no other actions could have done. When people are dissatisfied it tends to radicalism and socialism as nothing else does. Mr. Roosevelt could very easily have gotten dictatorial powers in 1933 if he had a desire for such power. Instead he defeated radicalism, socialism, and all isms except Americanism, by defeating the depression. He may have violated some planks of his platform, but he did it for the benefit of the entire mass of our people. He played the game in the open; I am sure he has a clear conscience, because he was and is working for the people's interests.

Mr. Roosevelt's enemies, (his opponents) bray about the amount of money spent during the last three and one half years. Of course a lot of money was spent, but remember, it was all spent at home in the good old U. S. A., on the American people. They should remind us of the expenditures during the Hoover administration, when with a stroke of his pen he declared a moratorium on all foreign debts owed the good old U. S. A. This debt which is very doubtful of collection now amounts to several billions; so we may as well know it was a gift of the Republican Administration of Mr. Hoover to those foreign Governments. Good American Citizen's money given to foreign countries, and the American people were not consulted either. Now: which administration would you support; that which spends our money on our own people in time of need, or that which gives our money to foreign countries? Of course, you will support the administration that spends your money on your own people, that of the Democratic Party.

President Roosevelt did not say, I have plenty, let the people suffer, as did his predecessor. No: He said our people shall not want in a land of plenty. He restored the people's confidence in the banks, and now your money is as safe as if you had it locked in your own vault with a company of soldiers on guard over it. He broke the soup lines left by the Hoover administration: he saved the farmers land and homes from the mortgage holders; he took the idle young men off the streets and gave them clean and wholesome work under good environment; he turned back the tide of socialism and radicalism that was getting hold of the country in 1933. They are ungrateful men and women who dare discredit President Roosevelt for the advancement and contentment now in the good old U. S. A., as compared with what it was when he took office in 1933. Still there are ungrateful people to be found. Every great man, even Jesus Christ have had acts, and President Roosevelt is not the exception.

President Roosevelt's opponents try to scare the people into believing our constitution will be destroyed and our country be brought to ruin if the Democrats have another four years at the helm of our great ship of state. Any school child knows the President cannot change the Constitution; any change in the constitution has to go before the voters of the country for their approval or disapproval. This propaganda about changing the constitution is ridiculous, and is made for political and selfish reasons. When a person tells you such tales, give him the laugh and ask him if you look silly. Of course, the constitution can be changed, and was changed many times in the past, but not by the President but the vote of the people.

Notice all the has been prominent men who oppose the President. They all have an ex in front of their names; Alfalfa Bill Murray, an ex; Jim Reed, an ex; Alfred E. Smith, an ex, and others of their ilk.

It can be readily understood that the reason those oppose him is because they are exs. Had the administration kow-towed to them they would not be opposing it now.

Others who do not approve all the actions of the administration, openly say so, but they know mistakes were and had to be made in such a gigantic undertaking as President Roosevelt took on when he took office. Our own beloved Senators Byrd and Glass did not always side with everything the administration did, but they re too honorable nd priotic to oppose Mr. Roosevelt's re-election. They know it will be best for the country tht he be re-elected. Surely, we would not want to see the country given back to the nothings we hd prior to Mr. Roosevelt taking office; and the man who guided the ship of state on the rocks Mr. Hoover has the nerve now to go before the public and ask them to turn the good old ship over to his party again. God forbid that we, The American people would be so foolish.

Our salvation now is to re-elect President Roosevelt, and at the end of another four years we will find our good old ship riding smoothly and overflowing with everything that is good.

Thos F. Joyce

To the Editor,
Manassas Journal,

Amid all the political talk and criticism more words seem superfluous but possibly a few from the woman's standpoint might not be out of place?

A word from the women who for various good reasons, must be self-supporting and what is more, has found a job under the present Administration.

It was not only the much talked-of Forgotten Man, but the "forgotten" woman as well, whose need was great four years ago.

It was not so much the well trained business woman, but the inexperienced worker, who was confronted with the problem of often, not only supporting herself, but dependents as well, for such the Sewing Rooms and various activities, provided work that has not only made it possible to carry on the home responsibilities, but has given training that will prove its worth in the future.

In rural communities, especially, there is not private employment for all the women who must be the bread winner—therefore, what was she to do? lose her self-respect and independence by a dole that would stifle the self-reliance which is often latent in the least expected sources, once given a chance.

It is easily proved that the most of the money earned by these women workers has been spent for necessities, and it has also given the woman, who in many cases had had little experience in the actual spending of the family income, a chance to prove, usually, sound judgement.

When a woman will walk for several miles in all sorts of weather to work in a W. P. A. Sewing Room, for the prevailing wage, even the most critical must admit that it is not merely a matter of recreation and spending money.

Can any one lack confidence in a man with the vision and who is large enough to understand that the welfare of even the most humble home is the means of a firmer foundation of any community?

WOMAN'S CLUB

The October meeting of the Music-Literature section of the Manassas Woman's Club was held Tuesday evening, October 27, at the home of Miss Margaret Lynch with Mrs. Nathan Briscoe as assistant hostess.

Mrs. Fred Hynson, chairman, presided and called the meeting to order about 8 p. m. There were sixteen members present and four visitors. Mrs. Hynson welcomed the visitors and told them she hoped they would soon become regular members. During the business session of the meeting, Miss Virginia Speiden stated that she had ordered the eighteen season tickets for the National Symphony concerts. Final arrangements as to the children who will go and the means of transporting them, will be worked out at a later date.

The first concert is to be January 27, 1937. In order to raise sufficient money to pay these tickets and for several other financial obligations it was moved and seconded that this section hold a six table card party on the afternoon of Friday, November 13, at the home of Miss Margaret Lynch. Miss Lynch was appointed general chairman of arrangements with Mrs. Margaret Lewis and Mrs. Duling as assistants.

After disposing of all business, the program of the evening was taken up. Mrs. Merchant had charge of current events. She spoke of the forthcoming presidential election which, of course, all agreed was the most outstanding current event topic at this time. This and several other subjects were discussed at some length. Mrs. Mylander had charge of Book Reviews and gave a summary of "The Inquisitor" by Hugh Walpole, also gave some information regarding Mr. Walpole. A quite lengthy and interesting discussion followed this, not only regarding "The Inquisitor" but several other books that had been read by several of those present. Mrs. Lloyd spoke of the new book shelf being started by Mrs. Johnson at her store, and what an opportunity it presented for members of this section to avail themselves of the latest and best books. Mrs. Hynson had charge of reviewing current music and doings in the world of music and art. After this most enjoyable refreshments in keeping with the season were served by the hostesses.

RUFFNER - CARNEGIE LIBRARY NOTES

During the past few months quite a number of interesting new books in various fields have been added to the Ruffner-Carnegie Library of Manassas High School either by purchase or as loans or gifts.

Among the latest new fiction the Library has Margaret Mitchell's famous best seller, "Gone with the Wind," Walter Edmond's "Drums Along the Mohawk," H. L. Davis' "Honey in the Horn" (the 1936 Pulitzer Prize novel) and Santayana's brilliant, best seller, "The Last Puritan." Recent non-fiction of special interest includes The Brownings, "A Victorian Idyll," by David Loth; H. V. Morton's delightful new travel book, "In Search of Scotland"; Charles A. Beard's "A Century of Progress" which is an education in itself in modern social thinking; Arthur Pound's "Industrial America," an excellent study of great modern business corporations, and H. L. Links, "Return to Religion." This last is one of the recent outstanding non-fiction best sellers. The author, now the director of the Psychological Service Center of New York City, feels with many other physicians and social workers that the best cure for modern individual and social ills is a return to the principles of Christianity.

The latest acquisition to the Library is Hamilton Basso's "Beauregard, the Great Creole" which was presented by the junior Confederate organization, the children of the Confederacy.
