MANUAL ART WORK IS INSPECTED

Bennett and High School Patrons' Leagues Visit Class Rooms.

A joint meeting of the patrons Leagues of the Bennett School and High School was held at the High School on Monday, November 16, at 2:30. Preceding the meeting the members visited Mr. Griswold's Industrial Arts class and found the work being done by the boys in wood working and metal working most interesting. A beautiful Cedar chest, end table, book shelf, hobby horse, or some of the other attractive pieces were exhibited showing the excellent work done in this department.

Mr. R. C. Haydon, superintendent of schools was the first speaker. He told of the cost of operating the schools in the county dividing the expense under the various heads. In comparing the per capita cost of Prince William County with adjacent counties, it was found that our schools rank well with others and that we are furnishing a splendid type of education for our children. Our greatest present need is to have a little more money to keep the schools in better repair and more books for the school libraries.

Miss Sue Ayres was the next speaker and told us in a most interesting way of the changes being carried out today in the school curriculum and how differently the child today is trained from the days when most of us went to school. Today the child is taught to think for himself and to solve his problems in school so he may better understand the world about him. He is taught to get along with other children and to work for the good of the group instead of self. Less stress is placed on just passing examinations. School work is a means to an end and not the end itself. The first aim is for good citizenship that we may understand the community in which we live and more emphasis is being placed on the "Three R's" and in addition creative work has been added in teaching art, music, poetry and dramatization. Parents can help in this broadened curriculum by visiting school often and cooperating with the teacher for the teacher is more of a guide than just a hearer of lessons.

In summing up, Miss Ayres quoted from The Prophet, "Kahil Gibran: 'Your children are not your children. They are the sons and the daughters of Life's longing for itself. They come thru you but not for you, And though they are with you, they belong not to you. You may give them your love but not your thoughts, For they have their own thoughts. You may house their bodies but not their souls. For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams. You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you. For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday.'"

Mrs. Edgar Parrish was the last speaker and gave a most interesting report of the State Parent-Teachers Meeting which she recently attended as a delegate at Bristol, Virginia. Her report of the meetings and entertainments made us all wish we might have also gone and gained a like inspiration.

The next meeting will be a joint meeting with the Junior League and will be held at the High School on Tuesday, December 15th. All patrons note the change from the regular date. A large attendance was most gratifying and it is hoped we may have every meeting as full of interest and inspiration as this one, and as well attended.

The Bethel Junior League met November 10, 1936. The following officers were elected:

President, Jeannette Briggs; vice president, Robert Upton; treasurer, Mary Hedges; secretary, Leonard Barbour; reporter, Luther Turner.

The class decided that our year's objective should be "Beautifying our school and grounds."

The following committees were appointed:

Grounds—Peggy Taylor, Dickie Duval and Howard Bailey.

Program—Ezelle Williams, Mildred Arrington and Myrtle Reid.

The League is having a Thanksgiving Program. Leonard Barbour is secretary.

JOIN THE RED CROSS

About half of the merchants in Manassas having signified their intentions to join the "Shop in Manassas" campaign, a meeting is hereby called for the town hall for four o'clock Monday afternoon. If unable to be present at the meeting, some advice in advance will be appreciated. The Chamber of Commerce is collaborating as of last year.

BRADFORD NAMED 1937 PRESIDENT

Kiwanis Club Holds Annual Elections.

Safe driving and methods of study leading thereto were discussed at length before the Kiwanis club at its meeting last week by Rev. John M. DeChant.

Mr. DeChant gave a number of interesting examples, with statistics and various data. He claimed that the address was extemporaneous but it was mighty good at that.

Breaking a tie vote, W. L. Lloyd was named vice president over C. C. Lynn. In the run-off, Bill Jones got a vote. Jim Bradford was named president without opposition, as was Mons Ledman, the budget director. (He really directs it, too.)

Jim Bradford got in a little practice by welcoming Ralph Sharrett as a new member. Jim did it mighty gracefully, and Ralph got a real hand on his pledge of co-operation.

The directors named for next year are, in order, A. A. Hooff, W. F. Cooke, A. H. Roseberry, J. C. Kincheol, F. R. Hynson and R. Worth Peters.

December 18th was named as ladies night, and the place of meeting the high school.

LIBRARY SOCIAL

A recent issue of the Washington Star said that the unprecedented popularity of Nutshells "gone with the wind" indicated that many persons throughout the country are interested in the present-day South, and then gave a list of books on the economic and social changes of the South since 1861.

The Ruffner-Carnegie Library at Manassas High School has "one with the wind," together with much interesting Southern fiction and biography, and a number of the books given in the Star's list.

Come out to the Library Social and Silver Tea next Tuesday night, November 24, at 8 p. m., to see these and many other interesting books, including a number of the recent best sellers, both fiction and non-fiction.

Among the latter (according to the New York Times' most recent list) are Hillis' "Live Alone and Like It," Carrel's "Man the Unknown," Brande's "Wake Up and Live," Anne Lindbergh's "North to the Orient," and Finks' "Return to Religion. Besides these and a number of other recent purchases, the Library is also expecting with the next few days a hundred new books of current interest which it has borrowed from the State Library at Richmond.

In addition to the interesting book exhibit, a pleasant social hour can be enjoyed including an attractive literary and musical program. An opportunity will also be presented for all interested to contribute to the Library book fund. With a little concerted effort to add to what the Library already has, good library facilities would soon be assured the town and community as well as the School.

STATE SEC. IN MANASSAS

Rev. Minor C. Miller, of Bridge-water, Va., secretary of the Virginia Council of Religious Education, was in Manassas on Wednesday. Rev. Miller visited Bennett School where Miss Emma Perkins is teaching Week-Day Religious Education in fourth and fifth grades. He sat in at the classes and commended her work. Miss Perkins is teaching in eleven schools in the county, giving instruction for one period per week to pupils in fourth and fifth grade. She is employed by the county Council of Religious Education, an undenominational body composed of the various churches and Sunday Schools of the county.

Miss Perkins is one of seventeen teachers of Religion who are working in the public schools of Virginia. During the Thanksgiving recess, Rev. Minor Miller will meet these teachers in Richmond for a conference on their work. Individuals and organizations are contributing to the support of this work.

"Sky High" Cast Ready for Revue

The big community entertainment which the Junior Women's Club is sponsoring for the benefit of charity, and which is being given on Friday and Saturday, November 20 and 21, at exactly 8:13 p. m. in the High School auditorium, promises to be the best play which has been staged in Manassas for several years.

The play has a cast of approximately fifty people, and some of the prominent residents of Manassas are participating.

The role of Walter Stephens, the designer of the plane, Sky High, will be taken by Earl Griswold, teacher of manual arts in the local high school. Walter is in love with his secretary, but is engaged to an airhostess, Eve Card. The role of his secretary, Shirley Shields, an attractive, capable, and intelligent young girl, will be played by Miss Esther Warren Pattie, while Miss Kathryn Luck will interpret the part of the conniving and mercenary Eve. In the character of Harry Hunter, the pilot of Sky High, who proves susceptible to the wiles of the villainess, will be Thomas Kite. Bedford, the important government man in charge of the World Super Race, will be played by Frank Staples. Mr. G. R. Ratcliffe will announce by air the exciting progress of the airplane race in which Sky High is entered.

The character roles will be of particular interest since it is through them that the comedy element of the play is developed. Mrs. Stephens, Walter's Irish mother, who is constantly in dread of a "smash up," is the character assigned to Mrs. Ayleene Guthrie. Her brother, Sidney Carney, owner of "Fleet Wing," will be played by Norval Sillings.

Imma Ball will be Mazie, the stupid and ugly cleaning girl at the airport. She is in love with "Mocky," as she calls Detective Mockshaw. The part of the fake detective will be taken by Sedric Saunders. The role of the winsome little gypsy fortune-teller will be pertinently interpreted by Miss Margaret Hottle. The part of Sam, the slothful negro porter at the airport, will be portrayed by Stewart McBryde.

In the clever dance choruses the following girls will perform: Troopers Chorus: Nancy Leachman, Maxine Ball, Frances Miller, Elizabeth Miller, Mary Mason Davis, Mildred Parrish, and Sally Proffitt.

Airhostess Chorus: Molly Leachman, Virginia Newman, Hilda Lyon, Janet Newman, Jocelyn Gillum, Jessie Lee Bolding, Lelia Montague De-well.

Hi-Hat Chorus: Martha Grimes, Elizabeth Davies, Margaret Blackmore, Mary Louise Robinson, Lucy Morris and Althea Hooff.

Dutch Chorus: Nancy Parrish, Betty Parrish, Anna Marie Hibbs, Margaret Blackwell, Rosabelle Blackwell, Lenore Miller, Allene Miller, Christine Miller, Jane Marshall, Genevieve Wilt, Virginia Papa, Nancy Lee Dillake and Betty Gore Dillake.

There will be a "Sweethearts' Chorus" in which Shirley and Walter will take part. The vocal solo will be sung by Miss Esther Warren Pattie. Sam will give a musical monologue, "Ah Ain't Lazy, Ah's Just Dreamin'." The finale will be sung by the entire cast.

Preceding the raising of the curtain for the play will be a special Shirley (See "SKY HIGH" on back page)

PROGRESSIVE DINNER PLANNED BY JUNIOR WOMEN'S CLUB

The monthly meeting of the Junior Women's Club was held on November 12 at the home of Mrs. J. P. Lyon. Misses Irma Ball and Rena Bevans were hostesses for the evening.

After the reading of the secretary's minutes and the treasurer's report, the chairmen of the various committees gave their reports.

Miss Walser Conner, president, asked each member to make an article for a sale which will be given sometime before Christmas. The proceeds of this sale will help buy Christmas gifts for the needy children.

Miss Esther Warren Pattie, chairman of the play, Sky High, gave a detailed account of the play, and the progress which has been made. It is hoped that this play will be a great success.

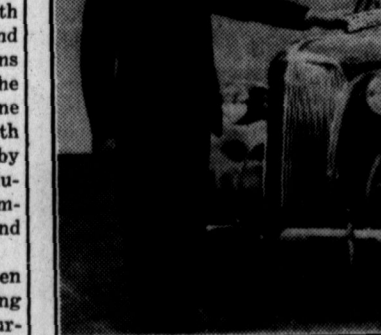

The club decided to give a Progressive Dinner sometime during the Christmas holidays, and the president appointed Mrs. Stanley Owens as chairman of this affair.

Misses Jose and Rhett, directors of the play, were guests at this meeting. The meeting was adjourned and the hostesses served delicious refreshments.

GRACE CHURCH TO GIVE RECEPTION TO BUCKHALL METHODISTS

A splendid program is being provided and all the former members of Buckhall and Grace Churches are expected to be present.

1,500 FARMERS ATTEND MEETING

Local Cooperative Buyers Enjoy Program in Baltimore.

A party of 22 boarded the 7:00 a. m. train at Manassas to join another group interested in co-operative buying of farm supplies at Washington, enroute on special cars to Southern States Cooperative annual meeting at Lord Baltimore Hotel, Baltimore, Md.

Today proved to be one rarely experienced, with addresses by such leaders as Dr. F. B. Bomberger, president Baltimore Bank for Cooperatives; Mr. John R. Hutcheson, director of Extension Service, V. P. I.; Dr. T. B. Symons, director of Extension Service, University of Md.; Mr. H. H. Nuttle, president Maryland Farm Bureau; Mr. C. E. Wise, Jr., secretary Agricultural Corp. of Maryland; Mr. T. Roy Brook, master Maryland State Grange; Mr. M. G. Mann, gen. mgr. Farmers Cooperative Exchange, North Carolina; Mr. E. R. Bowen, gen. secretary Cooperative League; Mr. H. E. Babcock of the Grange League Federation of New York State; Mr. W. G. Wysor of D. K. Wolfe of Southern States Cooperative. The two later organizations are closely affiliated and reported a combined business of 47 million dollars for the year just ended.

These men, nationally known in the field of cooperation, indicated that the cooperative was the most logical and practical way known for the American farmer to raise his standard of living and that American cooperatives had passed their experimental state and that the American Nation was in the dawn of a gigantic cooperative social movement.

While the farmers feed bill had paid for many feed mills that they do not own, several hundred farmers took the opportunity to visit their own feed mill and at Baltimore located on both deep water and rail facilities with the capacity of 40 cars a day.

Among those who attended were Messrs. Cox, Estes, House, Kline, Roseberry, Conner, P. A. Lewis, Hurst, King, C. F. M. Lewis, Rolands, May, Counts, Dodge, Sadd, Wamsly, McNair, Schneider, Rogers, James, and Hutchison.

THANKSGIVING DANCE AT OCCOQUAN

At the last regular meeting of the Occoquan High School Alumni Association on November 11 it was decided to have a dance during the Thanksgiving holidays on November 27. The dance will be held in the school auditorium from 9:30 'til 1:30 with music by a popular orchestra. It is for the benefit of the new gymnasium being built at the school.

A good time is in store for all those who attend. Don't forget—a dance at Occoquan High School on November 27 from 9:30 'til 1:30. Let this help you enjoy the holidays!

ROLL CALL SEEN AS PROGRESSING

Rev. DeChant Says Workers Are Enthusiastic.

Prince William Chapter of the American Red Cross is in the midst of its annual membership Roll Call. Workers are busy all over the County inviting the citizen to join. Roll Call chairman, Rev. John M. DeChant, says it is too early in the campaign to give out figures on the progress made, but the chapter is well on its way to the goal of 500 memberships set for this year. Remember, out of every membership fee, no matter how large, only fifty cents goes to National Headquarters, and the remainder stays at home for use in our own County.

As we approach the Thanksgiving season, let us think of the Red Cross as a suitable object for our thank offering. "The Greatest Mother" merits our hearty support on the basis of its record in relieving human misery during the year 1936. The Red Cross brought permanent help to more than 131,000 families affected by disasters which struck 39 states. One hundred and five times the American Red Cross rushed trained and volunteer workers into the field of action in the wake of flood, fire, wind, earthquake and other catastrophes. The hungry were fed, the homeless sheltered, the destitute clothed and the injured cared for. More than this, the Red Cross stayed on the job until all persons unable to help themselves were assured of a livelihood. These things are possible because people all over America support the Red Cross with their membership.

The Roll Call chairman wishes the workers to make their reports to him as they have canvassed the territory assigned.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING SCHOOL

The Leadership Training School was started in the Brentsville District High School auditorium on Monday, November 16.

It will convene every Monday and Thursday night for the following three weeks.

An attempt is being made in the school to raise sufficient funds to obtain the services of Mr. Weimer, a vocal teacher.

The Chamber of Commerce is holding a meeting at Nokesville Church Seminary. This group will have dinner served to them by the Ladies Aid Society of Nokesville.

Mr. Edmund Hooker is in the Emergency Hospital at Washington. We all hope that he will soon be enjoying better health.

Mr. Oather Landes was seriously injured when his hand was crushed by a corn shucker. He is now in the Emergency Hospital.

The Brethren Regional Conference at Roanoke was attended by Cornelia Miller, Helen Nelson and Robert Beahm.

We extend since sympathy to Margaret Dodd, one of last year's graduates, because of the death of her brother.

Mrs. J. M. Spittle of Greenwich was taken to Alexandria Hospital two weeks ago for typhoid fever. She is expected to return next week.

VIRGINIA D. HOLT

Mrs. Virginia D. Holt, widow of the late John M. Holt, died Tuesday, November 17th in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mable Holt Wood, at Bryan Park, Richmond, in her 87th year.

Mrs. Holt is survived by three children; Mrs. Eula Holt Merchant of Manassas, Mrs. Mabel Holt Wood of Richmond, and Ralph E. Holt of Chattanooga, Tenn. Also four grandchildren, John Holt Merchant of Manassas, Wilfred Ward and Ralph E. Wood of Richmond, and Capt. John R. Wood of Walter Reed hospital, Washington; two great grandchildren, Sandra Jane of Washington and Wilfred W. Jr. of Richmond.

Mrs. Holt often visited Manassas and endeared herself to many friends here.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

The windows at the Post Office will be opened on Thanksgiving during the following hours:

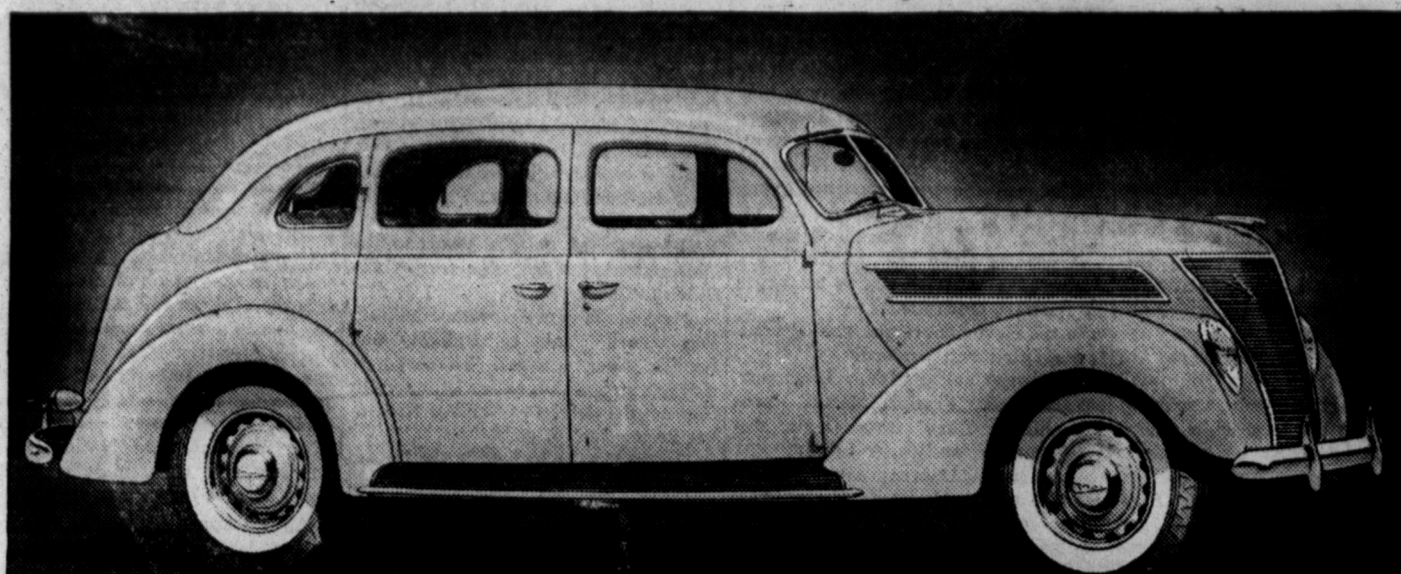

10 a. m. to 11 a. m.
5:30 p. m. to 6:30 p. m.
The money order and registry windows will not be opened.

THE New Ford V-8 for 1937 is the most beautiful Ford car ever offered. It is built in only one size—one standard of roomy comfort and modern appearance. But you may have either the improved 85-horsepower V-8 engine for maximum performance—or the new 60-horsepower V-8 engine for maximum economy. The smaller engine makes possible a lighter car—lower operating costs—and a lower price.

When you drive the 1937 Ford with the 85-horsepower V-8 engine, you are master of a power plant that gives everything you can possibly demand in speed and acceleration. Today, improved carburetion enables it to deliver its thrilling performance with unusually low gasoline consumption.

The new 60-horsepower V-type 8-cylinder engine delivers V-8 smoothness and quietness—even at speeds up to 70 miles an hour—with gasoline mileage so high that it creates an entirely new standard of economy in modern motor car operation.

We invite you to see this new Ford car, and arrange to drive one equipped with the engine that fits your needs.

CATHARPIN

If you are genealogically inclined, try this one. Since Edith Maxwell is to be retried for the murder of her father, Trig Maxwell, Judge Skeen who tried the case originally, disqualified himself for further duty for the reason that the defendant's attorney claimed a relationship between the judge and the said Maxwell. The judge denied knowledge of such kinship when the attorneys produced the following genealogical record: "The slain Trig Maxwell was a great, great grandson of Stephen Skeen. Stephen Skeen was a brother of John Skeen and John Skeen was Judge Skeen's grandfather." Now, then, just how close was this relationship?

On Tuesday of last week the pastor and wife of the Sudley circuit, the Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Sapp, were bountifully "pounded" by the people of the Sudley and Gainesville congregations who visited the parsonage well laden with things beautiful, useful and necessary together with their love and respect for the parsonage family. Also at the same time and place, many articles of canned goods, vegetables and most anything one could think of, were delivered to the waiting truck from the Home in Gaithersburg, Md., for use in that institution. Both donations were abundant in quantity, excellent in quality and thankfully received by the recipients.

This community was saddened by the death of little Charles Hughes, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Hughes of near Catharpin, who died Monday evening, November 16, 1936, after an illness of but one week. On Monday, the 9th., the case was diagnosed as scarlet fever, but in a very short time it developed into a very serious form which caused his death one week later. Owing to the contagious nature of the disease, the funeral was private and burial in Sudley cemetery the next day. The family has the sympathy of the whole community in their bereavement. Two other children, Beatrice and Kenneth, have the same disease, but at this writing, both seem well on the road to recovery.

Cases like this one always elicit the sympathy of any community. It is always a sorrowful situation when some one is in need of help and no one, by reason of quarantine and contagion, can go to them. In such cases the County Nurse is one of the most valuable assets a county or community could have. When no one else could, Miss Neel went into the home and ministered unto them; not only in a professional way but with sympathetic demeanor and kindly spirit which gave comfort where comfort was needed. Her presence not only aided the family but the whole community felt a relief to know that she was there. There is no service so loved, so appreciated or so desired as that which relieves one in distress, whether it be mental, moral or physical; and he who administers it is well worthy the title of "Ministering Angel."

Fairview church, belonging to the Sudley circuit, and which was closed for several years, has awakened to new life and now bids fair to prove itself worth while in the sphere of Christian activity. The Church School has been reorganized under the superintendency of Mr. Henry Maddox and while small, is well worth the effort. The outstanding feature is the fine community spirit which obtains and which found expression in a community banquet held in the night of November 7, at which the pastor and wife the Rev. Mr. Sapp, and the Rev. and Mrs. Baker of Manassas were present as well as the membership of the church and the church school. It is just such things as this, coupled with a desire to see the church function in its natural, normal way, that are so much needed throughout the country, especially just now.

Several years ago the Quarterly conference "officially" transferred the Fairview membership to the Sudley congregation and ordered the church building sold. Reason: Bad roads, long drive for the preacher, congregation small, roof leaked, house needed painting and various other things which seemed to indicate that abandonment would be the great "cure-all" for all such cases. As a consequence, things drifted along, a few of the faithful attended Sudley, but the "masses"—the transients and more especially the children, were deprived of any Christian opportunity whatever since no provision had been made for transportation to the new centralized point of worship. No one seemed to feel just right about it all; the public school near by was full of pupils, peoples still lived in the same houses as of yore, the community still farmed, raised cattle and other live stock, and so far as any one could see, nothing was disintegrating but the church.

It has always been our experience that each community, no matter how large or how small, is usually wedded to itself; hence hard to break up; so it seems a very serious matter to close a county church unless you are able to go the whole distance and furnish suitable transportation so to that "nothing be lost." It were better by far that if a place gets weak to work it. Fairview, like the country, is trying to recover from the "slump." Every one realizes that it is a serious thing to close a church no matter how small, and with the aid and assistance of the pastor, she is going at things with renewed enthusiasm. Protracted services were held there some time ago and they are now asking that another series of meetings be held in the near future. So this may be the answer to the question after all.

THE SOCIAL SECURITY LAW

Beginning November 24 the United States Government is opening up a social security account for every employee of industrial and business establishments in the United States. The act is designed as permanent cure for the distressing conditions of the past few years and represents one of the greatest undertakings of modern times. There will be no immediate benefits and no annuities will be paid until January 1, 1942, and then only to individuals reaching the age of 65 and no longer regularly employed. The amount of compensation will vary from $10.00 to $85.00 per month, depending upon the amount of wages earned between January 1, 1937, and the 65th birthday. These payments will continue for life.

The task of assigning account numbers to all of the working people of the United States is a stupendous undertaking. It is estimated that between twenty-six and thirty million persons are engaged in occupation covered by the law. The record will follow every worker, wherever, he may go and offers no restriction to his movements or employment.

It will require many years to demonstrate the success or failure of this pioneer effort to establish social security and it behooves all citizens regardless of political affiliations to cooperate in every possible way.

This law will not help elderly people in distress at this time, but it is designed to prevent similar distressing cases in the future. State legislation will be required if assistance of this kind is given immediately and there is quite a number under way to call a special session of the Virginia Assembly. However, there has been no change in membership since the legislature declined to act in this matter and many believe that Virginia will not legislate along these lines until the next regular session.

Are my banking affairs kept confidential?

It is an unwritten law observed in this bank that no employee shall discuss the affairs of our customers with anyone except properly authorized persons. This is one of the first rules every employee of this bank understands and respects.

Banking, like medicine or law, is a confidential relationship. Not only must bank officers respect a customer's confidence when that customer gives information about his business or personal finances, but all other employees do not discuss customers' affairs outside the bank—and in the bank only insofar as is necessary.

Strict adherence to this policy is one of the basic principles in the management of this bank. We know that the only way we can continue to merit the confidence of our customers is by respecting fully their private business matters with us.

There departed from among us on November 8, 1936, one of our most respected and beloved citizens, the Rev. Lewis H. Bailey, better known as Preacher Bailey, from his home at Ocoquan in the 92nd year of his age. Mr. Bailey was born a slave in 1843 at Great Falls, Va. He married Ella Deane Bailey, a graduate of Manassas Industrial School in 1893. Mrs. Bailey was also a graduate of Maryland College. She taught school for a number of years. The Rev. Bailey leaves four, three living in Washington, D. C., and one in Ocoquan. Rev. Bailey conducted services at Ocoquan Ebenezer Church, Ocoquan and the church at Agnewville, Va., for a number of years, until his health forbade him to conduct the services. He was loved by all with whom he came in contact, both colored and white. Funeral services were conducted at Ebenezer Colored Church, Ocoquan, from which he was laid to rest beside his wife at Catharpin, Va. When the District of Columbia Workhouse was first established near Ocoquan, Rev. Bailey was the first minister of the Gospel to offer his services to expound the word of God to the prisoners, and in this work he led many an unfortunate to a straight and narrow path leading to a better life. For this service he never would accept any remuneration. It showed the Godliness of the Rev. Mr. Bailey. We hope he will receive his reward from Him who does not miss the least good act done in His name.

We extend our sincerest sympathy to the family of Rev. Mr. Bailey.
