GARDEN CLUB FLOWER SHOW

Mrs. Margaret Lewis Wins Sweepstake Prize.

The annual flower show held by the Manassas Garden Club on Tuesday afternoon was one of the most artistic and colorful ever exhibited by the local club.

One of the most interesting features of the show was an exhibit showing a highway before and after road beautification. This same set up was an illustration of the main project of the Club for the year. The stage of the Parish Hall was resigned into a miniature highway with one road side representing the way many of our highways look today and the opposite side decorated in lovely shrubs, roadside flowers and appropriate plantings.

The sweepstake prize went to Mrs. Margaret Lewis with 66 points. Mrs. Paul Cooksey was close second with 58 points, and Mrs. Maude Marsteller, third with 30 points.

The ribbons were awarded for specimens as follows: Class 1. Pink Rose, Dr. McBride; blue, Mrs. J. L. Bushong; red, Mrs. Bushong; white, Class 2. none. Class 3. Red Rose — Mrs. J. L. Bushong, red and white. Class 4. White Rose — Dr. McBride, blue, Class 5. Climbing Rose Spray (feet) — Mrs. Lewis Carper, blue. Classes 6 and 7, out. Class 8. MAY MEETING OF BETHLEHEM CLUB

The Bethlehem Club met Wednesday, May 26, with Mrs. Maude Kincheloe and Mrs. Viola Proffitt, co-hostesses. The house was artistically decorated with a wide variety of very lovely flowers.

Mrs. Dennis Baker was a guest of the club and Mrs. Boteler was present after a winter in Washington.

The educational committee reported the purchase of two new books for the library with the prize money from the spelling bee. The books were "In the Footsteps of St. Paul and Rudyard Kipling's autobiography, Something About Myself."

The following books were given by the Bethlehem Club to the library during 1936-37.

Poems, Burn; Poems, Mrs. Browning; Queen Victoria, Strachery; When It All Comes True Beauty of the Purple, Davis; Men of Iron, Pyle; Friend to Caesar, Pyle; Let the King Beware, Merrow; Lantern in Her Hand, Aldrich; Star in a Well, Turner; Gen. Jackson's Lady, Red Badge of Courage, Crane.

A contribution was made to the summer playground project.

Mrs. Maude Kincheloe assisted by Mrs. E. D. Wissler presented an entertaining program. Mrs. Frank Gue gave a reading, "How a Young Mother Taught Her Children 'Courage'."

Mrs. Dennis Baker discussed woman's field in modern poetry.

Following a sketch of the life of Edna St. Vincent Millay, several of her poems were read. Upon being pressed by an appreciative audience, Mrs. Baker then selected a few poems by Amy Lowell.

A delicious chicken salad course was served and a pleasant social hour spent before adjourning.

HEALTH EXAMINATION FOR CHILDREN

Parents of children beginning school next fall for the first time are urged to take their child to the Doctor as soon as possible for his health examination treatment against diphtheria and vaccination.

This should be taken care of not later than June 15th. Before the hot weather and too, it will cost less now as the present supply of serum is being furnished and when this is out of date the new supply must be paid for extra.

Your child will enjoy his first school days much more if he does not have to suffer the discomfort of a sore arm. So do get in touch with your Doctor now.

WOULD LEARN PUBLIC FEELING

U. D. C. in this Area Desires Poets of Confederate Sentiments.

The respective Chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy of Fairfax, Manassas and Warrenton are sponsoring movements in their counties calculated to poll the sentiment of as many as possible of lineal descendants of Veterans of the Confederacy, with respect to the Henry House property now being held by certain trustees for the Manassas Battlefield Confederate Park, Incorporated.

The chapter in each of these towns has a memorial to the forthcoming conventions of The United Confederate Veterans, The Sons of Confederate Veterans, and the United Daughters of the Confederacy, the first of which conventions is scheduled to be held June 9 to 12, 1937 in Jackson, Mississippi. Printed below is an exact copy of the proposed memorial.

The proposed memorial is fully self-explanatory, but it is believed that the Veterans, Sons and Daughters of these immediate towns and the embracing counties are in far better position to judge as to the accuracy of the restoration so far on the proposed Manassas Battlefield Park, than are Veterans, Sons and Daughters and all lineal descendants of Veterans further removed from the scene of activity. It is there-fore urged that every Veteran and every lineal descendant of a Veteran get in touch immediately with the President of the United Daughters of the Confederacy Chapter of his or her respective town and sign the proposed memorial. The name of the President of the Chapter of Manassas is Mrs. Lewis J. Carper, who has designated Cocke Pharmacy, Dowell's Pharmacy, and Prince William Pharmacy to hold copies of this petition for signatures, and it is hoped that Veterans and lineal descendants of Veterans will immediately co-operate to the greatest extent in contacting one of the above de-vision of getting as broad an expression of sentiment as possible for presentation to the forthcoming conventions. It should be borne constantly in mind that the earliest of these conventions will begin June 9, which is not far away.

HOLD ENJOYABLE SESSION

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rexrode, Mrs. Odie Warren and Miss Louise Hibbs of Bethel Lutheran Sunday school in Manassas attended the Lutheran Sunday School Association of the New Market which convened in New Market, Va., on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Mr. Rexrode was re-elected president of the association, this making fifteen successive years for him to serve in this capacity. Different phases of the much needed and all-important work of Christian Education were discussed.

Rev. C. P. Wiles, D. D., of Philadelphia, who is a member of the Am-erican Board of Christian Education, was in the discussions which were very interesting and instructive. Would that more people availed themselves of the opportunity afforded by such conventions.

TWELVE MILLION FEET OF BINDER TWINE

Prince William Farmers Service, of Manassas, has received a full car load of binder twine, one of the largest shipments of twine ever to be consigned to this area. End-to-end, Mr. Sadt states, this twine would extend twelve million feet, or approximately 2,274 miles, a distance probably reaching from Manassas to Denver, Colorado.

Memorial

To the United Confederate Veterans and the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

WE, the undersigned, citizens of Prince William County, Fauquier County, and Fairfax County, Virginia, the former county wherein is located the famous and sacred soil of the Battlefield of Manassas, all of us being descendants of men who wore the gray uniform of the Confederacy, do respectfully submit to you, for your judicious consideration, the following facts:

(1) Because of our blood relationship with men who lived and served the Southland during the War Between the States, and because of our devotion to those men and the land they served, we feel a reverential interest in the Manassas Battlefield, the place where so many of the South's finest made the supreme sacrifice.

(2) We live in the territory surrounding this field. It is a part of the scene of our daily life; and, more than that, an inspirational part. To us, it is a symbol of the finest human qualities: courage, sacrifice, and devotion. Accordingly, we feel a deep gratitude to the sons of Confederate Veterans organization for its commendable service to us and to the Nation in contributing to the purchase of this Battle-field, "The Henry Farm", in order that it might be made a public shrine.

(3) We have been deeply impressed by the work done by the National Park Service in this vicinity and elsewhere in Virginia during the past few years in developing famous battlefield areas and conducting in them sound historical memorialization and educational services. A patriotic Virginian and descendant of Confederate soldiers, we heartily endorse the intelligent, skillful, and unprejudiced policies practiced by the National Park Service in its historic preservation program; and, accordingly, we do commend to you the National Park Service as an agency capable of carrying on into perpetuity the very splendid work which you have begun. The National Park Service, with its extensive facilities, has prov-

OFFICIAL DIES AT HOME HERE

Signal Tribute Rendered at Funeral of C. E. Nash.

Mr. Charles Emery Nash who died at his home in Manassas last Thursday evening was buried with full Masonic honors last Sunday morning. Services were conducted at the home by Rev. H. P. Baker. The large gathering filled the street outside and the attendance of Masons to honor their departed brother was one of the largest in the history of the local lodge.

Following the services the flowers were carried to waiting automobiles by six of the honorary pall bearers and several cars were required to carry the lovely tributes of affection and esteem which had been placed around the casket by relatives and a multitude of sorrowing friends.

Mr. Nash had lived all of his seventy-five years in Prince William County, having been born at "Star-nell Place" near Dumfries. He engaged in business in Quantico for several years, moving to Manassas in 1904 where he was engaged in the hardware business for thirty years. At one time he was associated with Mr. I. E. Cannon, of Alexandria, and later with Mr. C. E. Fisher of Manassas.

Since his retirement from active business he had held many positions of responsibility in the community. He was a director of the National Bank of Manassas and since last January, its president. He held positions on the Town Council and on the School Board, and at the last election was selected to represent Manassas District on the County Board of Supervisors.

Mr. Nash was a trustee of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Manassas, and a prominent Mason, being a member and also a trustee of Manassas Lodge 182, A. F. & A. M.; Royal Arch Chapter and Old Dominion Commandery of Alexandria, Va., and Aeca Temple, Order of the Mystic Shrine.

The honorary pall bearers included Judge Walter McCarthy, the members of the County Board of Supervisors, Dr. Stewart McBryde, members of the Board of Directors of the National Bank and of the Central Mutual Telephone Company, and members of the Prince William County School Board.

The active pall bearers were Mayor Harry P. Davis, Hon. T. H. Lion, Col. Robert A. Hutchison, Mr. A. A. Hooff, Mr. R. S. Hynson and Mr. D. J. Arrington.

At the grave the final rites were conducted by Manassas Lodge of Masons with worshipful Master Howard Luck officiating, as the last tribute was paid the impressive manner in which Masons for centuries have honored their departed brethren.

Mr. Nash is survived by his wife, Philothia Merchant; two daughters, Mrs. George B. Cocke and Mrs. W. Adamson; a grandson, Robert W. Adamson, 2nd; one sister, Mrs. Maria Wheat of Dumfries, and a sister-in-

MOCK WEDDING AT PARADISE

Mrs. Lynn and Mrs. Ratcliffe Are Hostesses.

"Paradise," the lovely country home of Mrs. C. C. Lynn, was the scene of much merriment Tuesday evening, May 25, when Mrs. Lynn assisted by Mrs. G. R. Ratcliffe, acted as hostesses to the Music-Literary Section of the Manassas Woman's Club. This meeting, being the last one until September, was a purely social one, as has been the custom of the Section in the past. Under the able direction of the Entertainment Committee, namely, Mrs. T. J. Broadus, Miss Margaret Lynch and Miss Sue Ayres, a most enjoyable program was planned and carried out, in the form of a Mock Wedding.

The wedding party assembled in the dining room at "Paradise" while the guests were being seated in the spacious living room by two ushers, Mrs. Charles Linton and Mrs. Wade-Dalton, faultlessly dressed in strict formal attire including "high-toppers." Mrs. Robert Smith attractively gown in royal lace with large picture hat of peach moire, played soft sentimental music while the guests arrived. Just prior to the entrance of the bridal party, Mrs. Dennis Baker in humorous costume sang in a deep and effected baritone voice, "Just Before the Battle, Mother." The immediate members of the fam-

DEMOCRATIC MEETING AT CULPEPER

The Young Democratic Clubs of the Eighth Congressional District will meet in Culpeper on Saturday, June 5. The meeting will be in the nature of a District convention and is open to all Young Democrats in the District.

The chairman of the District, James C. King, of Fairfax, will preside over the sessions which will begin at 8:30 Saturday afternoon. Following the business meeting a banquet will be held, after which an informal dance concludes the program. The entire program will be held at the Williams Tea Room, located about three miles from Culpeper on the Orange Highway. Among those expected to attend are the State officers of the Young Democratic Clubs of Virginia as well as most of the candidates for the primary election in August.

As the State Convention is being held this year in Charlottesville in September the Clubs of the Eighth District will play an important part, and a good portion of the Culpeper meeting will be given over to plans for the State convention.

All Young Democrats of this district, and especially those of Prince William County, are urged to attend the Culpeper meeting.

PRINCE WILLIAM CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETS

Prince William County Chamber of Commerce met last Thursday, May 20, with a good attendance on hand to hear the speaker of the evening, Hon. Jay W. Johns of Charlottesville. Speaking from his experiences as president of the State Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Johns discussed the industrial and educational advantages of the State and pointed a number of ways in which the various chambers of commerce could co-operate to advantage. His inspirational message was greatly appreciated by everyone.

Mr. C. C. Cloe introduced the speaker and presided, and Mr. Stanley Owens formally took his new position as secretary of the local chamber.

The meeting was opened for general discussion and it was stated that suggestions would be gratefully received from anyone regardless of whether he belonged to the Chamber of Commerce or not, as to what industries would be suitable for this locality. It was stated that the Chamber intended to do some advertising in leading industrial publications and a committee composed of Mr. Cocke, Mr. Boatwright and Mr. Owens was designated to determine the most effective method of advertising the industrial possibilities of Prince William County.

KINGSWOOD SCHOOL HAS DELIGHTFUL CLOSING EXERCISES

The Annual Senior Class Supper of Kingswood School held Thursday, the 20th was a very enjoyable affair. It was prepared and served by the girls of the school, the tables were beautiful decorated with flowers and candles, the class colors, old gold and royal blue were effectively carried out.

The Class consisting of eight night school and 4 Junior College graduates were hostesses to the following guests: U. S. Congressman Robert P. Secrest from the 14th Ohio District, his Secretary, Mr. Garber, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Lion, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sadd, Miss Florence Lion and Mrs. Mary A. Kengla. The President of the school Mr. A. E. Wachtel, Mrs. Wachtel and family, the members of the faculty and student body were also present.

After partaking of a bountiful repast, Mr. Wachtel introduced Mr. Thos. H. Lion and Mr. Walter Sadd and spoke of their loyalty and assistance in terms of appreciation. Mr. Wachtel then introduced Congressman Robert P. Secrest.

Mr. Secrest made a forcible and instructed address: he stressed the advantages of high school students visualizing their future lip work and directing their energies and work towards becoming the best in their chosen vocation, also the necessity of laying a good foundation, during school years to become good citizens by learning and practicing to work and play in a spirit of kindness, cooperation and fair mindedness.

Miss Anna Biesecker, of Del. Ohio who is in charge of the music Department sang beautifully a solo "My Task".

At the conclusion Mr. Wachtel spoke briefly of the difficult problems of carrying on such a work with no backing from any organized body as well to do individuals he stated, "That by the Grace of God when the school year ends June 1st, its obligation for the current and preceding year will have been met in full." following these remarks, the regular devotional exercises were conducted after which a delightful social hour was enjoyed by all present.

QUANTICO

Quantico was honored Saturday afternoon by a visit from President Roosevelt, Vice-President Garner and Lt. Commr. James Roosevelt. The President arrived in an open car and he and his party were caught in one of the worst storms of the season. The baseball game and the Sunset parade which were planned in his honor were both called off. The President made his return trip by boat.

Mr. Hunt Moncure, Mr. Pete Pandizides, Mrs. Gratz and Mrs. Ira Hill attended the Chamber of Commerce meeting in Manassas Thursday night.

The ball game Sunday afternoon of Manassas and Quantico Indians was won by Quantico, 10 to 6.

Mrs. Isabelle Rison Lewis was given a surprise party at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. W. Rison. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Rogers of Washington, Sgt. and Mrs. Davis of Quantico, Mr. and Mrs. Evans of Quantico, Mr. and Mrs. Moore of Dumfries, Sgt. and Mrs. Bartley of Quantico, Sgt. and Mrs. Young, Mr. Reginold Kincheloe, Mr. and Mrs. Bushey, Miss Margaret Powell of Manassas, the Misses Maxine and Ione Rison and Mr. J. W. Rison.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Young had as guests Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sisson.

Mrs. Joe Sisson of Quantico died last Tuesday at her home in Quantico. She was buried Thursday at the cemetery on the Joplin road. She is survived by a husband and nine children.

Mr. Roy Kelley and Mr. Jim McInteer, both of Randolph Macon College, were home for the week end.

While motoring through the Shenandoah Valley, W. A. Lee, and Heien Lee of Quantico visited the famous Endless Caverns, New Market, Va.

STUDENT COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION INSTALLS OFFICERS AT HAYMARKET

On Wednesday, May 19, an installation service for Federation officers was held at Haymarket High School. After the processional by Miss Anna Blough, Reverend Sapp delivered the invocation. The group then sang "S. C. A." Jack Herrell, of Manassas, gave an interesting and inspirational talk on "The S. C. A. and Its Work." Following this, Haymarket High School rendered a musical number, "Barcaralle."

All former and new officers of the were S. C. A. were present. The S. C. A.'s former chairman, Miss Mary Jean Holloway, of Occoquan, installed the new chairman, Amos Wood, of Haymarket after accepting his office and promising to do his best by abiding by the constitution of the S. C. A., installed the following officers for the year.

Vice - chairman, Winifred Swank, Nokesville; secretary, Warren McInteer, Occoquan; treasurer, Helen Lion, Manassas, and reporter, Genevieve Garman, Nokesville.

These officers pledged to carry out their assigned duty to make the County Student Co-operative Association a successful one.

"I COVER the Philadelphia WATERFRONT"

The TRUE Story of Bill Wilson, a Philadelphia reporter, who found "scoops" can be made in more ways than one.

IT'S MY JOB TO GET THERE FIRST WHEN THERE'S NEWS ALONG THE SCHUYLKILL AND DELAWARE

LONG AND SHORT RUNS, CHASING NEWS... A HOLD-UP... A FIRE...

MAYBE IT'S AN ACCIDENT, OR A FERRY SMASH... BUT, BELIEVE ME, THEY ALL EAT INTO MY FUEL TANK

I'VE STOPPED AT PRETTY NEARLY EVERY SERVICE STATION AND TRIED THEM ALL...

ONLY TO LEARN A TANKFUL OF ESSOLENE CARRIES ME ON TWO OR THREE MORE STORIES THAN THE REST

AND THAT NEWS IS AS VALUABLE TO ME AS MAKING A "SCOOP" A WEEK

WRITTEN testimony of thousands of motorists is your assurance of extra mileage with Essolene. This regular priced motor fuel gives more miles per gallon than even most premium priced gasolines and no gasoline at any price gives more.

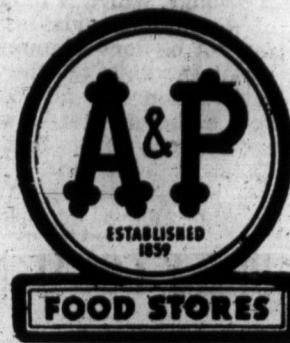

Essolene is different... so different it's actually been granted a U. S. Patent. Different, patented, loaded with extra miles. Try one tankful and see why Happy Motoring starts at the Esso Sign.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

It is a privilege to have their children memorize the daily Bible scriptures, it will prove a precious heritage to them in after years.

QUICKENED BY THE LAW:
I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast quickened me.—Psalms 119:93.

CHARLES EMERY NASH

The passing of a public official such as Emery Nash can not be passed over without an expression of regret by this paper and a public acknowledgment of his sterling character and accomplishments in this community.

Mr. Nash belonged to the transition period between the old South of the antebellum days and the terrible reconstruction era that followed. He was close in step with those men who did so much to help retrieve Virginia from the terrible slough produced by the war.

His days were full of accomplishment, even to the very end. He bore his suffering quite nobly and passed as quietly as he had lived in the town he had served and loved so well.

Deeply do we regret his loss and extend our heartfelt sympathy to those whom he loved and has left for a while.

THE BATTLE PARK

Now that public sentiment has been asked for in the matter of turning the Bull Run Battlefield over to the Federal Government, a word on that subject is not amiss.

With the general disposition of the government to give belated honor to Confederate heroes, the plan on the surface seems quite feasible. Added to that is the expressed sentiment on the part of some who have had a leading hand in taking over the property.

Both those in favor of the plan and those opposed should say something, not to us but to their respective chapters of the Daughters of Confederacy who are conducting the poll.

The thing to bear in mind, however, is the fact that this battlefield is undoubtedly the most important of all historic battlegrounds in America. It is more than that. It is a heritage to Confederate descendants to see that such a hallowed spot is properly taken care of in every way, and with out proper guarantees to that effect, it would be better to let a wilderness arise than some milk-and-water scheme by which the glories of the Southern heroes of '61 may be dimmed by mistaken idealism.

It appears that the Federal Government does not wish to leave the marking of the Confederate shrine entirely where it belongs, which is in the hands of worthy descendants. If that can not be done in unmistakable language and to the general satisfaction of all concerned, then as before stated, we should try to carry on as best we can. Then, at least, our consciences will be entirely clear from any possible charge of disloyalty.

TO THE VOTERS OF MANASSAS

As an independent candidate for the Council, I offer for your approval the program outlined below:

1. A thorough study of the public utilities operated by the town with the purpose of reducing cost to users, if found feasible.

2. Co-operation by the town with civic organizations in projects having the advancement of the community as their object.

3. Encouragement of the establishing of suitable industrial plants.

4. Settlement of the "Airport Question" by popular vote; and

5. Courteous service by town officials and employees to our citizens and visitors.

If elected to the Council, I will endeavor to have the above program carried out, and I promise to diligently work for those things which will make our town a better place in which to live.

CLUB PREPARES FOR SPECIAL ENTERTAINMENT

The Kiwanis Club had as its honor guest on Friday evening Miss Sula Freeman, who has been conducting a Tuberculosis educational campaign throughout the county, assisted with pictures and other means of imparted knowledge. Miss Freeman gave an unusually good talk in which she stressed the necessity of wide-spread education on the subject of Tuberculosis, a disease that is being brought under control, although, according to her statements, Virginia is still third highest in the United States in the matter of deaths from T. B.

Present, also, at the meeting were Miss Sue Ayres, rural supervisor, and Miss Sabine Neel, county health nurse.

Col. Hutchison offered resolutions of regret at the death of Hon. C. E. Nash, former member of the Club. Tomorrow evening's meeting will be held in the Masonic Temple when the joint ladies night and entertainment of the high school graduates will be the feature of the occasion.

GRADUATES WITH HONORS

Rev. and Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Gates and Mrs. Cook returned Tuesday from Spartansburg, S. C., accompanied by Miss Eleanor Gibson whose graduation from Converse College took place on Monday, and also by Miss Lucy Gibson who has just completed her sophomore course at the same college.

Mr. Gibson conducted chapel at the last regular session of the college on Saturday.

Miss Eleanor Gibson received her bachelor of Arts degree and while a student of the college was made president of the honor society, Alpha Sigma Sigma. She was also president of the International Relations Club and member of the Student Council.

RAIN ENDS GAME IN FIFTH INNING

The Nokesville A. C. lost a hard-to-lose game from the Hume Springs team on Sunday, May 23.

Although the visiting team got off to a lead in the first inning and added several more scores in the next two, it looked as though our team would come on top in the end. However, the rain decided the game when it waited just long enough for five innings to be played to make the game official.

The Virginia White Sox from Bailey's Crossroads will play here on this Sunday, May 30. We wish the boys better luck this game.

STATE FORESTER LEADS FORESTRY TOUR

Thirty-four 4-H Club boys of the Dumfries Club made the forestry field trip, led by Wilbur O'Byrne, State extension forester, and Frank D. Cox, county agent, last Thursday.

A study was made of the growth characteristics of trees native to the Choptank area and of the identification and uses of the trees growing there.

Forestry and Wild Life Conservation was chosen as the community project of the club earlier in the year and a special study has been made of wild life, both plant and animal, and trees.

Being located adjacent to the Chapawamsic National Recreational Park, consisting of approximately 15,000 acres in lower Prince William County, and the Potomac River, an excellent opportunity is offered to the Dumfries boys to make a thorough study of both water and land animal life as well as the great variety of trees and plants of the area.

STORM WRECKS BUILDINGS

Following a very warm forenoon a heavy storm gathered about four o'clock Saturday which assumed almost hurricane-like proportions. North of Manassas there seems to have been a belt of much higher wind velocity. Mr. A. H. Roseberry reports that two silos were taken down on his farm and other damage done a large barn on Mr. Conner's farm east of that locality had its roof taken off and also silos were reported to have been totally destroyed.

Just what the damage to the East in Fairfax County was is not definitely known. To the North and East of Manassas and further toward Washington the storm seems to have been even worse. In Alexandria, traffic was seriously interfered with by falling trees and in Fairfax the home of Mrs. Nora Allison was seriously damaged, so much so that a portion of the chimney will have to be rebuilt and extensive repairs made to the dwelling.

NOKESVILLE SCHOOL NEWS

The Manassas baseball nine was defeated in a hard fought game by the Nokesville boys on May 25. The score was tied until the ninth inning when Harpine knocked a triple into center field and Mayhugh scored the winning run, making the score, 3-2. This is Nokesville's third league victory and a chance for the league pennant is still ours.

On Sunday night, May 30, Rev. Rufus B. Brown will deliver the Baccalaureate Sermon to the senior class. The following Tuesday night the senior class plans to present a very unique pageant prepared by one of its talented members.

On June 4 commencement exercises will be held. Dr. A. L. Maiden will be the speaker of the evening and Supt. R. C. Haydon will present the diplomas to the members of the senior class.

H. D. C. SCHEDULE MAY 31st to 5th.

Monday: Manassas 4-H Club will meet with Miss Flora Bulloch leader, giving the demonstration.

Tuesday, June 1st: Cherry Hill 4-H Garden Club will meet.

Wednesday, June 2: Dumfries H. D. C. will meet at Mrs. Myrtle Keys for a demonstration on cake and cake icing by Mrs. Myrtle Keys and Mrs. Mary Pera, leaders.

Thursday: Brentsville H. D. C. will meet for a demonstration on cake and cake icing by Mrs. Emma Wolf and Mrs. Ethel Breeden, leaders. The agent will be in the office Friday and Saturday.

ily were then seated, namely the groom's mother, Mrs. Paul Cooksey who wore a dress and hat of dull black silk broadloom, the hat being a chic old fashion model, the groom's aunt, Miss Sue Ayres, most attractively attired in glossy black black taffeta with a fichu of rare old lace and a tiny bonnet perched atop her curls coronet fashion and the bride's mother who wore an ultra fashionable model of soft black celanese with an imported scarf of dull white shot with silver.

The music then pealed forth "Here Comes the Bride" and the procession started. It was headed by the ushers, then followed the two bridesmaids namely Mrs. Margaret Lewis dressed in a French dotted - swiss with Aqua pink sash and carrying "Dame Helen Edith" roses and Mrs. Ratcliffe in an imported Belgium lace with matching bouquet. Then came the Maid-of-Honor Mrs. Joe Lyon whose unnatural blond tresses were so attractively coiffured, dressed in an outstanding Capucine Rust taffeta model, cut very extreme. She carried the rare iris.

The flower girl, Mrs. Wm. Cocke, then followed. She wore a family heirloom frock of finest linen, hand embroidered and carried a flat basket of Etoile de Hollande roses. The ring bearer came next, Bonnie Lynn, in a period frock of white. Then came the bride, Mrs. Wm. Lloyd on the arm of her aged father, Mrs. A. L. Mylander. The bride's costume was outstanding for it was one of the latest models now being worn of a color and style other than the traditional white. The blouse and tunic effect were deepest "Loyal Blue," under which showed a skirt of rare old family lace. The veil caught back, from the face with orange blossoms was a heavy lace-curtaining type something extremely new in veils and fell to the floor, then caught with ribbon and orange blossoms. For her bouquet the bride chose the orange blossom and expensive imported ribbon. She wore no ornament and was radiant in her simplicity. They were met at the altar, on which were tall burning tapers, by the groom, Mrs. Lewis Carper, whose suit was of the morning type, with dark coat and lighter trousers, with snappy bow tie and the best man in formal attire, Miss Ruth Smith. The ceremony, the uncivil form, was read by the bride's pastor, Mrs. C. C. Lynn who wore a costume of the Clergy, sideburns and goatee.

After the knot was tied and congratulations were received, the bride and groom dashed from the house giving no clue as to their honeymoon destination. In passing the living room, the bride threw her bouquet which was caught by Mrs. Eula-Holt Merchant. After a short honeymoon, the happy couple returned and a reception was held for them, the bridal party and all invited guests in the dining room at "Paradise."

ed in Virginia its ability to develop and to mark battlefield sites in such manner that they may stand for all time as lessons in patriotism for posterity. We understand that individuals within and outside of the organization of Sons of Confederate Veterans who donated funds to make possible the purchase of the Henry Farm on the Manassas Battlefield did so in order that this sacred ground might be preserved in perpetuity as a public shrine. We respectfully and humbly submit that you have at your command an effective means of fulfilling the wishes of those donors, and the purposes of our organization: by conveying the Henry Farm property to the National Park Service, in order that it may become a part of the Manassas National Battlefield Park which is now being developed on land surrounding the Henry Farm. We believe that you, in your patriotic purposes and your high sense of loyalty to the Confederacy, will not wish to see this part of the Manassas Battlefield remain neglected while all the area around it receives appropriate and respectful treatment and administration. Believing this, we feel confident, that you will not deem us presumptuous in hoping that you, in your wisdom, may find it desirable to demonstrate your devotion to the cause of Confederate Memorialization by making it possible for this priceless area to become a part of one of America's outstanding national historic shrines, the Manassas National Battlefield Park.

VIRGINIA: IN THE CLERK'S OFFICE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY, THIS 5th, DAY OF MAY, 1937.

JOHN BACA, Plaintiff.

v. In Chancery.

Heirs, if any, of MARY BACA, made defendants as Parties Unknown, Defendants.

The general object of this suit is to have ratified and confirmed the sale by Mary Baca and John Baca to the United States of America of those two certain tracts of land, containing respectively 70 and 30 acres, more or less, and fully described in the bill of complaint, and in deed book 66 page 341 in the clerk's office of Prince William County and deed book 15 page 457 in the clerk's office of Stafford County; to have Mary Baca's portion of the sale money decreed personal property and as such due the complainant; to provide for the conveyances of said tracts to the said purchaser, and for general relief.

And it appearing by application and affidavit duly filed as provided by statute, that the heirs, if any, of Mary Baca are not residents of the State of Virginia, it is therefore ordered that they, the said defendants, do appear within ten days after due publication of this order, in the clerk's office aforesaid, and do what is necessary to protect their interests.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Manassas Journal, a news-paper published and circulating in said Prince William County, once a week for four successive weeks and that a copy hereof be posted at the front door of the Court House of said County on or before the next succeeding rule day.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Brunt, operators of the Bank Occoquan are on an extended vacation seeing the Good Old U. S. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Barby of Alexandria are occupying the apartment over the bank building at Occoquan. Mr. Barby is in charge at the bany during the absence of Mr. B. W. Brunt.

Mrs. Harvey M. Janney and son and daughter of Occoquan spent the week end visiting relatives at Rosnoke.

Mrs. B. W. Selecman with her daughter and son-in-law have moved into Mr. A. F. Malcolm's house at Occoquan. We welcome them to our town.

We are sorry to report the illness of Mrs. Bernard Cross of Occoquan and hope she will soon be well and out again.

Miss Lula Brydie was suddenly called to her home in Kembridge because of the death of her aunt, Miss Brydie is a member of the high school faculty. Our sympathy goes to her and her family.

There will be an dance at Occoquan High School on May 28, being the last dance of the season prior to closing of the school year. We always have an enjoyable evening at those dances.

Graduation exercises are to be held at the high school next Thursday and Friday.

The officers of the High School Alumni Association of Occoquan high school met at the home of Miss Mary B. Joyce, Occoquan, Monday evening, May 24, at which time they completed plans for the first Alumni dance of the summer. The first dance will be held on June 18, 1937, at the high school auditorium; the hours will be from 10:00 until 2:00. Music will be furnished which has been enlarged, so we can expect excellent music.

The Piedmont Convocation of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church met at Pohick Church on Tuesday, May 25, for their annual conference. There was the largest attendance of the past several years. Several matters of great importance to the church and general welfare of the communities were discussed in all it was a very successful meet-

BUCKLAND

Mrs. E. B. Carter, who has spent the winter months with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Carter of Strasburg, has returned and opened her home, "Ingleside." Mr. Charlie Nalls has purchased from the heirs, the estate of the late Dr. and Mrs. T. G. Brown here. The purchase was made last week. It is understood that the personal property from this estate will be sold at an auction sale in the near future.

The remains of Mr. Gene Compton, for many years a resident of Buckland, who died in Washington, was buried in the cemetery here on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown of Maryland and Mr. Thurston Brown of Romney, W. Va., were Buckland visitors Sunday.

Mr. R. A. Payne had the misfortune to loose a very valuable mare last week.

Little Miss Marion Graham Lee of Washington very delightfully celebrated her eighth birthday at the home of her grandparents here on Sunday, May 16, from 2 to 4 p. m. when she entertained her small friends at a party.

Mr. J. A. Raynes, who has been making his home in Trenton for some months, was around these parts this week visiting his many friends. Before going back, he made a trip to the Valley.

BRING ON THE HOT DISHES—

My Zan-Z-Lac Super Spar Varnish Won't Show Rings

A COAT of my Zan-Z-Lac Super Spar Varnish is like a protective covering of solid plate glass; hot dishes, alkalis, alcohol cannot get through to mar the wood.

That's why I always think of it as my protective varnish; no matter how careless guests may be in setting down a beverage glass—or how often you forget to put that little pad under a hot dish on your dining room table—you don't have to worry about scars or ugly rings, if you've used my Zan-Z-Lac Super Spar.

There's a lot of difference in varnishes. I've seen all the good, bad and in-between ones in the 39 years I've been a paint maker, but my Zan-Z-Lac Super Spar is the best I've ever seen for table tops, home bars and other surfaces, inside or outside, that should have this "plate glass" protection. It's the only varnish that can stand the 5-hour test in boiling water.

This week my authorized dealer is making a special price on the handy quart size of my Zan-Z-Lac Super Spar Varnish and including a fine varnish brush with it. Visit him today and take advantage of this special offer.

HAYMARKET

The Baccalaureate Sermon for the graduating class of Haymarket High School will be preached by Rev. Mr. Knox, pastor of Falls Church Baptist Church, at Haymarket Baptist Church on Sunday evening, May 30, at eight o'clock.

The music will be furnished by a local choir with Mrs. John Carter as organist.

The Community League held its last meeting for the current term on Thursday, May 20. The seventh grade, under the direction of Mrs. Maude Jordon, presented a very amusing one-act play entitled "The Haymarket Sewing Circle." Mrs. Jordon had a lovely exhibit of work done by the boys and girls of her class during their activities period. The girls had made hand work and the boys had made metal work and bird-boxes. Refreshments were sold by the students.

The nominating committee made its report, nominating Mrs. John Sweeney for president, Mrs. W. M. Foley for vice-president, Mrs. Charles Caton for secretary and Mr. Henry Dulaney for treasurer.

The yearly installation of the county officers of the Student Co-operative Association was held in Haymarket on the night of May 19 in the school auditorium. Amos Wood of Haymarket was installed as chairman for the coming year. Jack Herrell of Manassas gave a very interesting talk on the work of the organization, emphasizing particularly the student government activities. After his talk the new officers were installed by candlelight procedure.

The Junior class entertained the Senior class at a banquet Friday night, May 21. A color scheme of red and white was effectively carried out in the table decorations. Covers were laid for thirty-four.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolfe Robertson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dulaney, Mr. Blayden Dulaney and Miss Elizabeth Hicks at dinner Saturday night, May 22.

Miss Sally Massey, Mrs. Sprigg (formerly Miss Kathryn Foster) and Mrs. E. A. Willis were joint hostesses at a party for Miss Ellen Eskridge and Mr. Walter Sanders whose wedding will take place in June. The party was held at Stone House on Lee highway Saturday, May 22.

The ladies of St. Paul's Church Guild will hold their annual ice-cream and strawberry sale at the Parish Hall on Wednesday, June 8, beginning at five o'clock p. m.

"WHEN YOU'RE IN LOVE," STARRING GRACE MOORE, DESERVES LUSTY CHEERS

Do off your hats to one of the most completely captivating pictures ever to grace a local screen. At the Pitts Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, Columbia's new Grace Moore vehicle, "When You're In Love," unfolded itself to the undisguised pleasure of those gathered for the occasion. It was easily as triumphant an event as the star's "One Night of Love" three years ago.

Grace Moore could start her career from this moment on, so admirably does she acquit herself in "When You're In Love." There is a freshness, a newness about the opera star that is entrancing, and she has never been in lovelier voice. Happy, too, are the selections she sings. For sheer appeal there are few numbers more exciting than "Siboney," Schubert's "Serenades," and the "Waltz Aria" from Verdi's "Romeo and Juliet," and "One Fine Day" from "Madame Butterfly."

Add to these two extremely good new members by Jerome Kern and Dorothy Field, "Our Song" and "Whistling Boy," as well as "Vissi Darte" from "La Tosca," "In the Gloaming" and — guess! — "Minnie the Moocher," and you have Miss Moore literally running the well-known musical gamut. All are carried off delightfully.

Serving as Miss Moore's leading man in this film, is tall - dark - and handsome Cary Grant. In the pleasing role of a two-fisted, hard-drinking American artist in Mexico. Grant gives his best portrayal to date. He serves the picture well.

But the surprise is yet to come. The film treats its audience to a story that would be welcome even without music. It is a deliciously cock-eyed yarn cooked up by that master of screen writers, Robert Riskin, who penned such comedy hits as "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town" and "It Happened One Night." With this film, too, Riskin makes his debut as a director, and he can well be proud.

In a nutshell, the story is that of a vain Australian opera star who is forced to leave America when her passport expires. As she has set her heart on singing at a song festival in the States on a certain date, she goes to Mexico with a scheme for re-entering the country. The plan doesn't work out, and as an alterna-

HISTORY OF MANASSAS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Before the year of 1848, occasional services had been held in private houses in the vicinity of Nokesville by the Rev. Dr. Harrison of the Alexandria church, and Rev. Stoddard of Winchester.

In the year 1848 the families of Messrs. Hornbaker and Rube and other Presbyterians having moved there from New Jersey request, appointed Rev. J. M. Henry to organize a church, which was effected July 20, 1850. At the outbreak of the War the people were scattered and the church was closed. This church, at Nokesville, Va., in which services had previously been held, was set on fire during the War between the states (1861-65), but the pews and communion services were saved by a Mrs. Kline who lived nearby. This was the first Presbyterian Church in Prince William County. This particular church was rebuilt after the War, and was used for a few years. The framework of this old church is still standing, and there is a marker on it which discloses its identity.

It was in 1852 that the Presbyterian Church was organized in this immediate community with about eight members. This organization was in the brick house on the Bradley Farm, which belonged to Mr. John W. Hornbaker, the father of Mr. John Rube Hornbaker. Services were held there for about three years, during which time several members were added to the church. The members of this early church helped to build a union church on the Bradley Farm where worship was held until 1861. Ministers were sent from Washington, D. C., as supplies for this church, and Dr. Balch, who at that time lived near Green- wick, Va., preached quite often. The late John R. Hornbaker, of Manassas, quoted from an article written by as, Va., "I would drive across the country (from Bradley to Green- wick), and bring him to preach. There is one trip, the last one I made with him, which I will never forget. It was in the spring of 1861. I had gone after Dr. Balch on the evening preceding the Sabbath, and as we came back by the way of Bristow, we were confronted by a new scene, which was in the form of cavalry soldiers. This was the first I saw of the Civil War. Services were held the next day, and that was the last preaching in this church for before another week it had been destroyed by soldiers".

During the four years that followed, the condition of the whole country was in a state of turmoil and distress. During this time Presbytery and Synod had practically no representation.

In about 1865 a lot was purchased in Manassas, Va., the corner of Church and East Streets and extending to what is now known as Main Street and Quarry Road. The first building, probably 20 by 40 feet, was put on this lot, and faced on what is known now as Church Street. It was a discarded government building and was purchased in Washington, D. C., and shipped to Manassas. This was put up and used as a place of worship until the present native stone church was built, which is on the same lot but fronting on Main Street.

It was in 1865 that the first school was held here. This was a private school, and the teacher was sent here from Presbytery. A drawing school was also held in this building at night. This is evidence that the Presbyterians were interested in education as well as now. Later on, a printing office occupied part of the church building. So at one time this church building was used for a place of worship, a school and a printing office. Rev. Joseph Nourse was the pastor of the church, Miss Sara Newcomb, the teacher of the school, and Mr. E. S. Newman, father of the late Mr. Oliver Newman, was the drawing instructor, while a Mr. Whiting worked in the printing office. It might be of interest to note that the Miss Sara Newcomb mentioned was a sister of Simon Newcomb, the noted astronomer.

In 1872 the Episcopalians asked for the use of this church for services, which request was granted, and they held services twice a month, on the second and fourth Sundays.

It would appear that services were held in this frame building which faced on Church Street while the brown stone church was being erected at the end of the present lot in the center of town. The new organization had been effected July 6, 1867. A committee effecting this new organization was composed of John Chester and J. E. Nourse. Rev. Joseph Nourse was a stated supply for this church from 1867 to 1875. On May 1, 1874 it is noted, "The congregation being engaged in the erection of a house of worship, an enterprise painfully protracted by reason of want of means". The sessional records of the First Church at Nokesville show that forty-five members left Virginia at the outbreak and during the continuance of the returning to the northern states. Few, if any, of these ever returned to Virginia. Besides the reduction in membership, a considerable portion of those in Virginia in 1867 resided at such a distance (10 miles) from the church, that they were often disabled from attending there by reason of the suddenly swollen streams. The village of Manassas was already beginning to rise from the ashes to which it had been reduced by the war, and the portion of the congregation residing near that place, who had formerly worshipped often-times at Bradley, near Manassas, began very naturally to desire the renewal of services nearer home.

It was in January 19, 1868, Miss Sara Newcomb was received as a member of the church on certificate from the Central Congregational Church of Boston, Mass. — Miss Newcomb was unanimously elected teacher of the school, to be kept under the care of the session of this church, her appointment to date from December 1, as she was ready to begin said school on said date, but was kept waiting because the building was not finished.

On November 7, 1869 Miss Sara Newcomb's resignation as teacher of the school was accepted, and Jacob DePue was nominated to take charge of the school.

In the year 1875 Rev. Mr. Carmichael took charge of this pastorate and the Prince William congregation, and served as pastor until 1878, when Rev. F. M. Todd was installed as pastor. The roll of church members at this time was sixty-one (61), and the Sabbath School fifty-seven (57). The officers of the church at this time were as follows: Pastor: Rev. F. M. Todd. Elders: C. A. Snowball, C. H. Worthington, G. Trimmer, E. Goode, and O. Chamberlin.

Rev. Todd was pastor of this church from 1878 to 1891.

On October 7, 1879, Mr. J. R. Hornbaker proposed that if the congregation would pay the church indebtedness and build a belfry, he would give the bell to cost $100.00. It was not until September 3, 1882 that a committee was appointed to get estimates for belfry and spire. The said committee was to ascertain from the Ladies Mite Society if they would direct their funds toward building the belfry and spire. The Building Committee, in its report on May 25, 1885, showed indebtedness on account of building belfry; repairs, etc., to the amount of $117.45, and on June 3, 1890, the Trustees' report showed that the indebtedness had increased to $239.18 for improvements to the church property at the time the belfry was built and the bell purchased.

The following served as pastors of this church: 1867 to 1875, Rev. Joseph Nourse, stated supply; 1875 to 1878, Rev. Carmichael, stated supply; 1878 to 1891, Rev. F. M. Todd, pastor; 1891 to 1893, no record of supply or pastor; 1893 to 1894, Rev. James Bradford, stated supply; 1894 to 1898, Rev. James M. Nourse, pastor; 1899 to 1910, Rev. J. Garland Hammer, pastor; 1911 to 1915, Rev. W. H. Dexter, stated supply; 1915 to 1918, Rev. Alfred Kelly, pastor; 1918 to 1919, Rev. J. DeForrest Wade, pastor; 1920 to 192, Rev. A. B. Jamison, pastor; 1925 to 1933, Rev. W. A. Hall, pastor and 1933, Rev. John M. DeChant, accepted a call and in now serving the church as our pastor, (1937).

INTERESTING FACTS CONCERNING THE PRESENT CHURCH

The envelop system of giving has been used continuously since May 2, 1892.

The Manse was built in the years 1896 and 1897.

Book racks were put on the pews in the year 1901.

The organ now in use was a gift of the late Mrs. John Ruby Hornbaker.

The communion table was given by the Missionary Society.

The carpet was given by the late Mr. John Ruby Hornbaker.

ASSEMBLY ROOM

In the year of 1925 there was offered by the heirs of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Ruby Hornbaker, a very substantial gift, to be used towards turning the basement of the church into a channel for better services.

At the regular congregational meeting in the spring of 1924 this above mentioned plan was brought before the Trustees and the other members present, and it was decided to make these improvements.

The members of the church were very interested and contributed liberally. What had formerly been only a place for the furnace and discarded church furniture was turned into a useful and a comfortable Assembly Room, to be used for Sunday School work and other church activities.

GREENWOOD CHURCH

About 1848 Thomas Clark and his son-in-law, Oliver Chamberlin, moved into the Minnville community from the north. They were dairy-men. With Abram Waldon and others they began to hold services.

In 1855 the Greenwood Church was erected and dedicated with the above three men as the original trustees. Supply preachers came from Alexandria or Washington. These men and a Mr. Transell assisted in the organization of the Manassas Church.

During the war, the church was burned by soldiers. The cemetery at the Greenwood Church has been a burying ground since before the war. The present building was erected by the citizens of the community, everyone donating money, material or labor.

TEMPERANCE MOVIE

On Friday, May 28th, at 1:00 p. m., the movie, "The Beneficent Reprobate", will be shown in the Pitts Theatre. This picture is put out by the Y. M. C. A. and is being sponsored in Manassas by the Ministerial Association. Everyone who is interested in wholesome temperance education is invited to attend.

E. Ruffner pitching for Moses A. C., and I. Hanback catching. E. Ruffner allowing only one hit. No errors were made. Every player needs to be highly praised by everyone. A. the boys are getting better and we borrow no team.

The Moses A. C. will play the Virginia White Sox Monday, May 31st, on the Haymarket diamond. The game will begin 3:00 o'clock P. M. Come and enjoy the game. Help the boys. Come and root for the team you are for.

Hurrah! Hurrah!

Write in or call Ed. Hansborough, Nokesville, Virginia about a game. He will be glad to book games.

MRS. ELIZA POSEY

Mrs. Eliza Jane Posey, age 67, wife of William H. Posey, died at her home on Saturday of last week, after a brief illness of pneumonia.

Funeral services were held at Oak Grove Baptist Church on Monday, with Elder W. M. Smoot officiating. Interment was in the Oak Grove cemetery, near Hoadly.

Mrs. Posey, who was a daughter of John and Virginia Beavers, was a life-long resident of the county. She leaves besides her husband, W. H. (who is very ill in a Washington hospital), two sons, Bub and Cline Posey, a daughter, Mrs. Buck Fair and one sister, Mrs. Ulysses Duval. There are a number of grandchildren.

JUNIOR COUNCIL PERFORMS DUTIES

Students Anxious to Learn Civic Duties.

On Monday of this week a second annual Junior Council was held. The young people were elected at the school and assigned to their duties accordingly.

The junior day was to be this coming Monday but on account of interference with school work, the day was set up one week. For this reason they will convene again this coming Monday evening at the regular session of the Town Council so as to complete their day's experience.

The young people attended those whose positions they represented and expressed themselves as highly delighted at the closing of the day at the education they had had in conducting business of the town.

The day session closed with a meeting of the council. The official lineup is as follows:

Jack Herrell, mayor; Mildred Roseberry, councilor; Thelma Ward, councilor; Charles Lynn, councilor; Ralph May, councilor; Bill Jamison, town attorney; Bobbie Byrd, clerk; Marshall Johnson, treasurer; Herbert Burke, town manager; Herman Bryant, superintendent; Samuel Hottle, street foreman; Kieffer Wenrich, day sergeant; Howard Cooksey, night sergeant, and Maury Wells, health officer.

LOCAL TEAM TO PLAY UNDEFEATED TEAM SUN.

The Manassas A. C. suffered their first loss of the season as they bowed to Quantico by the score of 10-6 in a game halted by rain after seven innings. Rosebud Conner was retired in favor of Lightning Albrite after being outsmarted by the Indian batters for five innings. Albrite carefully walked in a run with the bases loaded and then threw two strikes in succession.

Boatwright is still talking a good game and predicts a win over the, as yet, undefeated Catlett ball team here on Sunday.

The game is called for three o'clock. Saunders reports himself in tip-top condition again and believes he can safely promise a home run to the audience, if weather conditions are favorable.

Shorty Vetter is practicing daily before each meal and years for a repetition of his last year's batting average of 567.03 or thereabouts.

Well folks, come on out and see two hours of hustling baseball with your home team boasting three victories in four starts this season, and maybe your old favorite, Mr. Davis will be officiating behind the plate, if he can borrow a pump for his injured chest protector.

P. S. John Wurdemann was conspicuous by his absence.

MRS. REBECCA BREEDEN

Mrs. Rebecca Lillian Breeden, aged 64, who died last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Ruby in Pittsburgh, Pa., was buried Sunday from the Aden U. B. Church, Rev. O. R. Kesner officiating. Interment was at Valley View cemetery.

Mrs. Breeden left a number of children, only two of whom live in these parts. A son, Mr. I. J. Breeden lives at Bull Run, and a daughter, Mrs. Ray Slusher who lives near Manassas.

AN OLD QUESTION ANSWERED

Despite the fact that the local press in Stafford and Prince William counties notified the voters that May 1 was the deadline on the subject of payment of poll taxes, certain erroneous information was published in papers outside of these counties which misled voters as to the deadline, and the two treasurers of the respective counties have been somewhat embarrassed.

To relieve matters Attorney General Staples has advised Treasurer Sinclair of Prince William County that no taxes received on May 3 can render the taxpayer eligible to vote unless the applicant is one just-coming 21 years of age this year, in which case payment of taxes and registration may proceed right up to the day of the primary.

It is understood that Commonwealth's Attorney Wallace, of Stafford County, has advised the Treasurer there not to post as eligible any voters who did not pay their taxes for 1934, 1935 and 1936 by May 1.

Of course, where those who pay their taxes by mail and the same bears a post mark of May 1, the treasurer has unquestionably honored such payment as being in hand on time.

The actual deadline was, of course, May 2, as this is exactly six months prior to the general election in November, but unless the county treasurer chose to keep his office open on Sunday (and very few have ever done this) then the first Saturday in May constitute the deadline. This has been a mooted subject for a number of years and rulings have been repeatedly asked for.

It would seem that those who have paid taxes for more than one year would understand the situation by this time and not embarrass the public officials in their respective counties.

MRS. ARRINGTON'S SIXTH GRADE COMPLETES BOOK

Mrs. Arrington's sixth grade of Bennett School, in Manassas, has completed its Social Study Book. It was started in latter part of February. It was written because the social studies books, that were being used did not explain things clearly. The book contains fifteen chapters, it also has an introduction, contents, glossary, index, bibliography, and an outline for review. The "master copy" has fifty illustrations. The individual copies have maps and illustrations will be added. The class did its own proof reading. The title of the book is "Growth of Great American Cities."

There were twenty-six copies made. They were made by Mildred Parrish and Judson McManaway of the High School Commercial Department.

The Class is very grateful to the Manassas Journal Office for having the books stapled and bound, and are looking forward to a visit there Friday, where they will see just how newspapers and books are printed.

The authors are: Charles Bean, Baby Ellison, Marvin Evans, James Gregory Lawrence Jarman, Thos. Marshall, Junior Speakes, Archie Thomas, Jimmy Vance, Pearl Corum, Katherine Cross, Mary Ann Goode, Frances Keys, Frances Kline, Velma Miller, Lora Monroe, Delsie Pearson Minnie Speakes Evelyn Reid, Lucy Robertson, Jean Schaeffer, Pearl Weeks and Clara Whitmer.
