"FIRST LADY" TO GREET DEMOCRATS

President Leigh Announces Committee.

The Young Democrats of Fairfax County are arranging an afternoon meeting on the date of their regular June meeting, which is Tuesday, June 29th. The hour will be 3 p. m., instead of the regular evening schedule.

The change is due to the fact that on this date they will entertain Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt on the courthouse green in Fairfax, at which time the general public will also be welcomed.

President Leigh has announced the following reception committee to function on this occasion: Miss Mary Walton McCandlish, Mrs. J. E. Staub, Mrs. Mildred Mackall, Mrs. Paul E. Brown, Mrs. Florence Jodizes, and Mrs. Mary Hutchison.

Mrs. Roosevelt is a very gracious speaker and a large crowd may be expected to attend. President Leigh will preside.

MARY H. HOOKER

Mrs. Mary H. Hooker, age 67, Nokesville, Va., died at 9:00 a. m. Tuesday, June 22, at Roanoke, Va., after about three weeks of illness.

Mrs. Hooker was the wife of John A. Hooker, of Nokesville, an before marriage was Mary Bishop Houchins, both of them being natives of Patrick County, Va., where they were married in 1888.

In 1897 they moved to Philadelphia and in 1905 they moved to Washington, D. C., and in 1909 to Nokesville, Va., where they have resided ever since.

Mrs. Hooker was a devoted Christian, a life long member of the church of her faith, The Church of the Brethren, having become so identified when a small girl. She was very active in her religious life and beloved by a host of friends who were shocked by her sudden and unexpected passing away.

Her death was very unexpected, even to her husband and children. She had been ailing for about three weeks and had gone to Roanoke to seek medical aid of her husband's brother, who is a prominent physician there, but none of her family nor her husband anticipated that her condition was alarming.

Mr. John A. Hooker, her husband, left immediately by automobile for Roanoke and will accompany his wife's body home to Manassas for burial, which will be at Valley View, near Nokesville at 1:00 p. m. Friday, June 25. Services will be at the home at 2:00 p. m. of that day.

Mrs. Hooker is survived by her husband, John A. Hooker, and three children, Walter R. Hooker of Belle Glade, Fla.; Edmond S. Hooker of Nokesville, Va.; Mrs. May Miller of Hartford, Conn., and fourteen grandchildren. Eight by the oldest, Walter R., four by Edmond S., and two by the daughter, Mrs. Miller. She is also survived by two brothers, T. Y. Houchins, Roanoke, Va., and K. A. Houchins, Berryville, Va., and four sisters, Mrs. Winifred Morrison, Holdenville, Okla.; Mrs. Etta Terrell, Crewe, Va.; Mrs. Dovie Ross, Roanoke, Va., and Mrs. Myrtle Bryant, Philadelphia, Pa.

Active pallbearers will be: M. J. Shepherd, G. E. Garman, O. L. Mars-teller, John Miller, A. A. Bell and R. S. Britton.

The Hookers are widely known throughout the State and their host of friends extend their sympathy to Mr. Hooker and the rest of the family in their very sad and sudden bereavement.

TO HOLD FAMILY NIGHT

The Misses Molly and Nancy Leachman were the star entertainers of the regular Kiwanis Club meeting last Friday evening. The two young ladies sang a duet, tap-danced a difficult military march and offered a delightful violin solo. The club is always pleased to see them and this occasion was no exception.

Little business was transacted except to reannouce the "family night" to be held at the high school auditorium tomorrow evening at 8:45. The Manassas 4-H Club will serve the banquet on this occasion.

Attendance seems to be falling off considerably during vacation weather. Table number 1, which has had an almost perfect record for months past, showed a considerable decline last week. Several families are expected to be missing tomorrow evening.

TO ALL Spanish - American War Veterans:

You are requested to attend a meeting of Spanish - American War Veterans to be held at Manassas, Va. on Saturday, June 26th, 1937, at 3 P. M.

This meeting is called at the request of several comrades who are anxious to get together. The meeting will be of mutual benefit to all concerned.

Please have your discharge or some other identification with you. If you can not possibly attend this meeting, kindly send your name and state your connection with the service.

HAD PLEASANT REUNION

Sunday was a happy day for the Misses Annie and Maggie Monroe, at Wellington.

On this occasion, their nephews, and their families brought baskets and all sorts and kinds of food and goodies. A big "spread" on the lawn was a feature of the afternoon.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Monroe, Accotink, Va., and their children, Ruth, Dorothy and Edward; Mr. and Mrs. John Monroe, of Fairfax and children, Jacqueline, Josephine and James; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Monroe of near Manassas and children, Catherine, Margaret Ann, John, Franklin, James and Jasper; (Rebecca could not attend).

AN OLD FASHIONED

STRAW RIDE

On the evening of Saturday, June 19, a group of young Manassas "night hawks" enjoyed a "straw ride" in Libeau's truck to Glen Echo, Md.

Among the younger set were the following: Misses Margaret Blake-more, Nell White, Lucille Herndon, Irene Dellinger, Eleanor Hottle, Messrs. Herman L. Minton, John T. Wells, Clayton (Ace) Libeau, Lewis (Sport) King and Maury Wells.

The showers failed to dampen the young ones and everything went off swell except that one of the young men was nearly "scared pink" by the ride on the coaster dip.

BENEFIT CHURCH PLAY

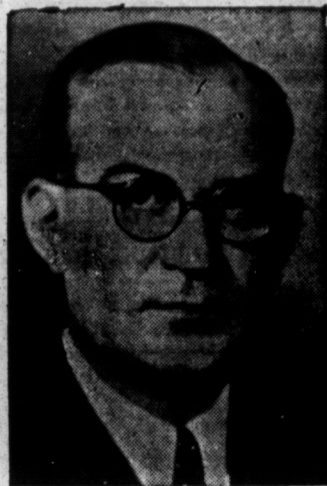

The cast of the play to be presented at the Centreville School tomorrow at 8:00 p. m. includes the following:

King Spindle, Spencer Davis, Stanley Redmond, Joe Robey, Clyde Evans, Sada Wolts, Mrs. James Powers, Doris Fletcher and Miss Lucy Le Gallais who is directing and who also plays the title role.

The play which is titled "Our Awful Aunt" will begin about 8:00. A local orchestra will furnish mountain music and will also play for some square dancing later in the evening.

A very modest admission fee is being charged and it is hoped that a large crowd will turn out to repay the efforts of the actors.

NEW CAMPAIGN MANAGERS NAMED

CHARLES E. POLLARD of Petersburg, who will steer the wheel of the campaign for Mr. Price.

B. DRUMMOND AYRES of Accomac, who will conduct the affairs of Senator Daniels.

JUNIORS PLAN GAY

NINETIES PARTY

The Junior Woman's Club, endeavoring to swell its charity fund, is planning a Gay Nineties Party to be given July 28.

Miss Walser Conner, chairman of Ways and Means Committee, has appointed Miss Mary D. Lynch as general assistant by Misses Jane Lynn, eral chairman of the party and she Lucy Gibson and Mary Fauntleroy Cocke, all members of the club who attend college and are unable to participate in the club activities except during their summer vacations. The party will be their project for the club year. The Portner Estate has been secured by the committee as the setting for its party, and old-fashioned entertainment and refreshments will be offered to the public.

Costumes appropriate for the occasion will be worn, so the Junior Women urge the townspeople to dig down into their trunks and prepare for the Gay Nineties Party next month.

SHEPHERD-COVINGTON

Willowmoor, the home of Mr. W. G. Covington, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, June 16, when his daughter, Mary Jane, became the bride of Mr. Michael James Shepherd of Washington, D.C. White hydrangeas and candles against a background of evergreens formed an effective setting for the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of beige sheer crepe with coral accessories and a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was an asua marine brooch, and heirloom in her family.

Mrs. Ramon D. France of Washington, D. C., matron of honor, and wore brown marquisette over brown taffeta and a corsage of ophelia roses. Mr. Otto Oneale of Washington, D. C., was the best man.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, rector of the Episcopal Church. The wedding music which continued throughout the ceremony was rendered by Mrs. Dan Wood of Warrenton, Va.

A reception followed the ceremony after which Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd left for a wedding trip to Virginia Beach. Upon their return they will be at home at 4007 Connecticut Ave., N. W., Washington, D. C.

JOLLY MAKERS MEET

On Friday at 8:00 p. m. the Jolly Makers met at the home of Misses Vivian and Eleanor Whetzel.

Old and new business was discussed and many things were decided upon.

Those present were Mrs. R. C. Haydon, teacher; Alice and Thelma Swank, Mildred Vance, Stella Bryant, Myrtle Jackson, Virginia Boley and Mrs. James Boley.

Delicious refreshments were served and everyone reported a grand time.

NEW STORE IN FAIRFAX

Mr. C. B. Linton this week placed the finishing touches on the new store building of Mr. Paul Kincheloe in Fairfax, and the store has been occupied since Monday.

The job was started just before May 1 and was finished in record time. The structure is brick and thoroughly modern.

Mr. Kincheloe opened for business in Fairfax several years ago and has been steadily increasing the volume of his trade.

ENJOYED FISHING TRIP

M. J. Hottle and wife, O. O. Hottle and wife motored to Deltaville for a fishing trip last Thursday. While in that section of Virginia, they called on Mrs. L. F. Hough and family at their palatial cottage at Irvington, Va.

Fishing was good and 104 specimens of the finny tribe of more than average size was brought back to Manassas and proudly displayed as evidence.

J. M. KLINE, JR., WINS HONOR AS INSTRUCTOR

At the recent F. F. A., which was held at Blacksburg, Mr. J. M. Kline, Jr., and two of his F. F. A. boys won State recognition in the crops judging contest, and each won a free trip to Kansas where the boys will participate in the National among a total of 56 teams—168 boys in the crops contest. Since Mr. Kline was the only instructor with two high individuals winning in the contest, he was automatically selected as Out-of-State Coach.

In presenting the teams and coaches at the Rally, Dr. Walter S. Newman, State Supervisor Agriculture Education, stated that this was one of the highest honors that could be bestowed upon F. F. A. boys and instructors—to represent the State on the Out-of-State teams.

Mr. Kline taught a number of in the County, and after taking his graduate work at V. P. I., took charge of the two agricultural departments at Port Republic and McGaheysville in Rockingham County. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kline of Manassas.

O. H. S. ALUMNI DANCE

Numerous Alumni in their gayest Almo Mater spirit turned out for the biggest social event of the year to welcome the class of '37 into the O. H. S. Alumni Association on Friday night, June 18. The dance was a great success as was evidenced by the swiny tunes which transformed the seventy-five couples into a merry mood.

The orchestra for the occasion made its initial bow in this section of the county. The girls in their bright, colorful summer evening dresses made a picturesque setting for the warm June night. When the clock struck two, the dancers turned homeward after a most enjoyable evening.

Attention is called to a call meeting of the O. H. S. Alumni Association to be held on June 30 at 8 p. m. at the school house at which time plans will be made for a public dance at the school on July 9.

CULPEPER HORSE SHOW WILL DRAW BIG CROWD

The first of a series of district meetings sponsored by the Young Democrats will be held at the Haymarket High School auditorium, tomorrow evening, (June 25).

A dance will feature the social hour that follows the business session at 8 p. m.

The second of a series of meetings will be held at Dumfries on the evening of July 2. This will also be featured by a dance. This will be at the Masonic Hall.

Judge Brown, chairman of the membership committee, has an active body of assistants that should aid materially in making this a very successful year.

WILL NOT DELAY APPOINTMENT

Governor Peery To Name Game Commissioner Soon.

Governor Peery this week declined the suggestion of a group of Virginia sportsmen that appointment of a chairman of the State Game Commission be deferred until after July 1—when the new term begins—in order that the group and other sportsmen, whom they proposed to enlist, might recommend a "qualified" successor for Commissioner Carl H. Nolting.

A delegation's request that the appointment be postponed three months was refused flatly by Governor Peery.

Any sportsmen's associations desiring to express their views on the matter will be heard gladly "within a reasonable time," Governor Peery declared. He made it clear, however, that under ordinary circumstances, he thought that the period between now and July 1 constituted "a reasonable time."

Members of delegations said that they did not just now have any one to recommend as a successor to Mr. Nolting. They propose delaying action until a "qualified" man could be found.

COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS MAKE GOOD

In a business competitive examination including high school children in the senior classes for Fauquier, Prince William and Stafford Counties, Prince William Schools placed seven in the first ten.

A total of fifty-four seniors took the examination. By virtue of getting the highest grade, Marshall Johnson won a year's scholarship.

AVIATION SERVICE RESUMED AT MANASSAS AIRPORT

When the flying season closed last year Manassas boasted a total of five local pilots, who had advanced beyond the solo stage, with others under instruction. Greater activity is expected this year, especially since a privately owned plane is now hangered at the field. The number of visiting and transient planes stopping by the field has increased noticeably this spring, and we wish the local fellows happy landings.

Student training, sport flying, and passenger hopping activities have been resumed at the airport with a plane available from Beacon Field, operated by Mr. Francis Compton, for one-half day each week end.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hottle announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret E., to Mr. J. Jerome Frampton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Frampton, of Federalburg, Md. The wedding will take place in the autumn.

DEATH OF FORMER BUS MAN

The friends of Linden Shenk, who formerly drove one of the Luray busses, will regret to learn that he died in a Government Hospital in New York recently and was buried in that city. He was a World War veteran, and a native of Luray.

MACS LOSE SLOW GAME TO DC TEAM

Unique Story Reveals Unhappy Happenings.

Trailing in the ninth inning four to two, with two men out and runners on second and third—only a hit was needed for Manassas to tie the old ball game.

Saunders was up! He had traipsed to the plate amid the cheers of his admirers. He tipped his cap, scowled at the pitcher and dared him throw the ball. Down the alley came the apple. The batter smashed it with all his might—a beautiful blow—a driving wallop—in fact, a creeping, sickly roller straight into the hands of the first baseman for the final out—and the game was over.

All the spectator (a careful search revealed only one) had a sneaking suspicion the home boys would win the game, but he wouldn't admit it. For even as late as the eighth inning the opponents were nursing a goose egg. However, the Macs rose up in a body and proclaimed that fact that they were the worst of the two teams, didn't want the game and, furthermore, wouldn't have it.

Though it was a good game nothing very exciting happened until the sixth inning. Then Plumb, the visitors, right fielder, socked the old potato a terrific wack into right field. Woodard, running with the speed of a wounded snail, ricocheted through the bushes in a desperate effort to make a leaping one hand catch. He dived—a beautiful play—the spectator roared—but he missed the ball forty yards and it bounded on out into the thickets for a double.

Woodard practically stole the show for the day. He contributed a trio of one basers in four trips to the pater and, in addition, after being caught off base thirty feet in the ninth, outsmarted his opponents with some sensational reverse-gear baserunning.

The eighth inning had seen the Macs with a one to nothing lead. But then James, first baseman for the Star Radio Outfit, sent an easy grounder to Roseberry at second. Not wishing to disappoint the spectator, Roseberry carefully fell down. Meanwhile, the batter, as is sometimes the custom, hotfooted it for first. Wells and Wurdemann strolled out and assisted he second baseman to his feet. Roseberry, ever alert, grabbed up the ball and hurled it to first base to catch the runner. But the runner wasn't there. He had rounded first, wizzed past second, left third in a cloud of dust, and was leisurely crossing home.

Bradshaw who had done a noble job of relief hurling in the ninth, came up to bat with a runner on first and none out. He, a veteran of ten seasons, along could bolster the hopes of the home team. Dashing to the plate he became the victim of a curious affliction. He could hear the ball wizz by but he couldn't see it. He quickly swung his three swings and dashed back to the bench to receive the congratulations of his team-mates.

The game was played in the exceedingly short time of one hundred and nine seconds although it was held up for ten minutes in the fourth frame. Libeau was pitching. Star Radio's catcher was at the plate. The first pitch was wild. The second was behind the batter. The third bounded into the dust. "Hey Son" yelled the batter, "Can't you pitch to me!" Libeau and Umpire Davis found themselves seats and after a short consultation arose and confessed that the batter could not be pitched to. So he was given a free ticket to first.

Sunday will find Manassas playing the Capital Transit Company nine of Washington, D. C., on Swavely Field at three p. m. Though this powerful aggregation boasts a remarkable record for the season the Macs are so certain of a win that they will forego all practice for the week. Come out early and get a ringside seat for the big show.

POST OFFICE HOURS

Since Independence Day, July 4, 1937 falls on Sunday, the next day, July 5, 1937, will be observed as a holiday and the windows at the Post Office will be opened during the following hours: 9 a. m. to 11 a. m. The money order window will not be opened.

DIETRICH-BOYER SCORE IN DESERT LOVE STORY

For his second independent effort, David O. Selznick, the brilliant young producer who last season inaugurated Selznick International Pictures with the delightful "Little Lord Fauntleroy" has gone into the technicolor field. The result is a truly breath-taking production of the great Robert Hichens love story, "The Garden of Allah," co-starring Marlene Dietrich and Charles Boyer, that magically catches the mystic, romantic atmosphere of the desert that pervades the novel.

The use of technicolor miraculously transforms both stars into new and more exciting personalities, and the air beauty of Dietrich provides a perfect foil for the dark-eyed handsomeness of Boyer. Truly you have never seen the exotic Marlene until you see her in technicolor! She is dazzling in the newly-revealed glory of golden hair, blue eyes and flawless creamy complexion.

The immortal romance of a man and woman from different worlds who found a great love under the spell of the desert moon offers both stars roles that are made to order for them and both give the best performance of their careers.

Marlene Dietrich is divinely feminine and alluring as Domini Enfiladen, the lovely heroine of Hichens' novel, the European girl who, at the death of the father to whom she has devoted several years of her life, goes to Beni-Mora, the parish of the kindly Father Roubier in the Algerian desert, seeking a new life.

Here she meets the strange, brooding handsome Boris Androvsky, who is obviously disturbed by a deep secret sorrow.

Unknown to her, Boris is actually a Trappist monk who has fled from the monastery after taking the eternal vows and is torn by the terrible inner struggle between his duty to his God and his love for this fascinating woman.

Following a glorious desert romance, Boris forgets everything but his love for Domini and the pair are married by Father Roubier and go off on an idyllic honeymoon in the heart of the desert.

NATIONAL ADVERTISERS TO ELIMINATE BILL BOARDS

Three large national advertisers—two oil companies and an automobile manufacturer—have decided to remove all their sign boards from rural highways in Virginia, according to an announcement just made by Mrs. George Sloan, of Warrenton, chairman of the Associated Clubs of Virginia for Roadside Development.

Practically every county in this State has been organized, Mrs. Sloan said, and a survey has been completed showing the exact number of roadside sign-boards with a classification of the products they advertise. Not only are sign-boards declared to mar the scenic beauty of the countryside, but some, particularly at curves and road intersections, are considered a menace to safe driving.

Mrs. Sloan expressed her appreciation of the public spirit shown by the three advertisers which are to discontinue rural highway advertising in this State. They are the first to give such endorsement to the movement. Similar action on the part of others is shortly expected, Mrs. Sloan said.

Sheep Treatment

The life history of the stomach worm given below explains why regular monthly treatment of sheep is needed during the summer grazing period.

The stomach worm is a parasite of the fourth stomach. In size it is from one half to one and one quarter inches long, and about as thick as an ordinary pin. The eggs produced by the female pass out in the manure and hatch in a few hours under favorable conditions of warmth and moisture. Under less favorable conditions, they may require days or weeks to hatch. The hatched embryo becomes an infective larva resistant to cold and long periods of dryness. When the grass is wet, these larva crawl up the blades and sheep become infested as they graze. In the stomach the worms become mature at two or three weeks, and at a month produce eggs in large numbers.

Better Pastures

The liming and fertilizing of permanent pastures will pay dividends through lengthening the grazing season and increasing the quantity and quality of pasture grasses and legumes. Other practices as harrowing to distribute droppings over the fields will help. Clipping will help to control weeds and preserve the succulence of the grass. By clipping frequently enough to prevent seeding, most of the weeds may be eradicated from pastures.

One of the main reasons for cultivating any crop is to keep down weeds. Clipping to keep down weeds is a way of cultivating pastures.

Side-Dressing Corn

The side-dressing of corn with nitrate of soda should be a profitable practice this year, especially on land that was not manured. There is a wider than usual spread between the price of corn and the cost of nitrate of soda. When applied as a side-dressing, nitrate of soda is used when the corn is from thirty to forty days old at the rate of from one hundred to two hundred pounds per acre.

Poultry Lice

Poor laying of hens is often caused by the presence of body lice. Few flocks are entirely free of lice unless checked regularly. Dust beds of road dust or fine ashes help to prevent infestation but when they are once present, the use of commercial lice powders, sodium fluoride or Black Leaf 40 is recommended. Nicotine Sulphate or Black Leaf 40 painted lightly on the roosts just before the birds go to roost is very effective in killing poultry lice.

State 4-H Short Course

Prince William boys who attend the annual State 4-H Short Course at V. P. I., July 19 to 24, will have the opportunity of enrolling for courses in beef cattle, sheep, dairy, swine and horse husbandry, soils, crops, poultry, farm engineering and dairying. This year's short course is arranged with particular consideration of the practical interests of the attending 4-H delegates.

FARMER KILLS ALLEGED CHICKEN THIEF

Irritated because his poultry house had been raided by chicken thieves several times this summer, Farmer Bennie Sullivan of near Richmond hailed Sheriff Wilson Seay, Saturday afternoon with the declaration, "Sheriff this thing has got to stop. My henhouse was broken into again last night. I am going to get those thieves if I have to sleep in with the chickens all summer. I'm moving my bed into that poultry house tonight."

"I hope you'll get 'em, Bennie. I wish you luck," said the Sheriff, who received a telephone call early Sunday morning. "It's Bennie, Sheriff," Sullivan said. "I got him. Send an ambulance or a hearse or something out here and carry him away."

Officer Blankenship and Magistrate Bates investigated. They found Farmer Sullivan guarding the body of a dead negro in the chicken yard. The farmer said he had fired the loads of both barrels of his shotgun into the shoulders of the negro as the latter fled from the henhouse with three chickens in his hands. The chickens, lying near the corpse, were perforated with shot. They body of the negro was identified as that of James Few, 35, of Newport News.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER
If parents will have their children know the daily Bible selections, it will prove a precious heritage to them in later years.

SENDING OUT MISSIONARIES: Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. And when they had fasted and prayer, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.—The Acts 13: 1-3.

THE RUSSIAN FLIGHT

The progress of aviation has been marked by a series of daring exploits, each vastly surpassing the preceding accomplishment, as mechanical improvement and skill in aerial navigation has increased.

From the day when a Wright airplane remained aloft for sixty minutes, and since Bleriot made his historic crossing of the English channel, there have been so many heroic exploits of aviation that even most of the names have faded from the public mind.

All major bodies of water have been spanned; the globe has been circumnavigated and the polar regions conquered, leaving only two major accomplishments—a non-stop flight around the world and the connection of eastern and western hemisphere across the top of the world.

Last Sunday three intrepid Russians accomplished a flight of approximately 5300 miles, across the north polar region, from Moscow to Vancouver, Washington. They were forced to land 592 miles short of their goal at San Francisco by fog, making their non-stop flight in 63 hours and 17 minutes.

The typically Russian names of these daring aviators mean nothing to us, but their accomplishments have a vast significance to their native country, to the United States and to the world. Russian prestige is immeasurably enhanced by the exploit and we discover that our west coast is vulnerable to military attack from Europe, across the top of the world.

REV. LeROY K. DODGE

EVANGELIST TO USE PRISON GARB

At the evening service on Sunday, Rev. LeRoy K. Dodge, who is conducting evangelistic services at the Pentecostal tent meeting, will greet his audience in regulation prison garb. This realistic method will materially assist in revealing the terrible life of prisoners.

The regular meetings are continuing every evening, with Dr. Dodge, in charge, and Mr. Salter, assisting. The place, as everyone knows is at Quarry and Maple streets in the town.

On Saturday evening, Rev. William Nagel, who has just returned from a tour of the Holy Land and Europe, will give a most interesting address.

A special service is being arranged for Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Sunday evening service will deal entirely with convict life; the awful riots, etc; the making of criminals. Dr. Dodge has preached at Auburn, N. Y., the scene of some of the worst riots, and was for a while the chaplain. He was an eyewitness of the tragic deaths and escapes during the rioting.

Everyone is welcome. Our tent is being filled to capacity with those anxious to hear about the Gospel.

THIS week brings our annual reminder that children's health needs special care and attention. Perhaps the most important single phase of that care is proper food which means plenty of milk, bread and cereals, fruits and vegetables.

Strawberries Plentiful, Reasonable
STRAWBERRIES are becoming more plentiful week by week and their price is now reasonable. BANANA supplies and prices fluctuate very little and when thoroughly ripe, this fruit is not only a favorite with children but good for them. ORANGES and GRAPEFRUIT are still moderate in price. Fresh PINEAPPLE is approaching the height of its season. Outside BLUEBERRIES are gradually becoming available. The APPLE season is practically over.

Peak of Asparagus Season Reached
The peak of the ASPARAGUS season has been reached in districts that supply the country as a whole but local production is still in the future in the northern half of the country. Good STRING BEANS are expensive but PEAS are expected to be very reasonable this week. Spring SPINACH is now in market and it is like a different vegetable. It really is a different variety and is usually much easier to clean than the earlier winter spinach. Iceberg LETTUCE is again relatively cheap.

POTATOES are considerably cheaper than last week. This reduction will be especially welcome where there is a growing family to feed. New Texas ONIONS are very reasonable.

Meat Prices Firm

There are no outstanding values in meats though VEAL and POULTRY continue to offer most for your money. Ducklings, trying and broiling chickens are the best poultry values. EGGS are somewhat cheaper and so is BUTTER. Good values in FISH are anticipated with increasing supplies of fresh whole fish arriving. Fillets on the other hand, are a little less plentiful.

Here is a menu made up of foods which are generally available at moderate cost and suitable for the family which includes children of school age.
Roast Young Chickens or Duckling
New Potatoes Green Peas
Shredded Lettuce
Bread and Butter
Vanilla Pudding with Strawberries
Coffee Milk

HIGHROADS OF HISTORY

THE only monument in Canada erected by Daughters of the American Revolution stands in Fort Chambly which is about twenty miles southwest of Montreal on a conspicuous headland of the Richelieu River. The monument, in the form of a bronze tablet, is to the memory of General John Thomas who captured the fort during the War of Independence in 1776 and, with several of his men, died there of smallpox the same year. Fort Chambly, built in 1665, played an important part in the early history of the continent, its final role being taken in the War of 1812. In 1914 it was made one of the historical sites of Canada, and because of its association with American history it is a point of great interest to many hundreds of Americans annually. The photographs show the gateway to the fort and the spot where General Thomas was buried.

THE GOLDEN RULE

THE Golden Rule, so often quoted as a guide to right conduct, is stated in Matthew's account of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount in these words (7:12): "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets." Jesus' reference to "the law and the prophets" shows clearly that he recognized the origin of this rule as a part of the Mosaic law and the teachings of the prophets.

In the twenty-second chapter of Matthew's Gospel is given the account of a lawyer who tried to entrap Jesus with the question, "Master, which is the great commandment in the law?" Quoting from the ancient writings with which he was so familiar, Jesus said, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind," following this with the declaration: "This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, frequently refers to the Golden Rule, and sums up the right attitude in these words from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 518): "The rich in spirit help the poor in one grand brotherhood, all having the same Principle, or Father; and blessed is that man who seeth his brother's need and supplieth it, seeking his own in another's good."

Not always does it seem easy to obey the Golden Rule, for mortal mind may argue that it is useless for one to go out of his way to serve his neighbor. Yielding to selfishness, or the false sense of self, one may argue thus: "I have not the time to do this or that for my neighbor," or, "I cannot afford to do it," or, "It is none of my business, anyway." Whatever the false argument put forth, it should be met by a prompt denial, knowing that one can do whatever love leads one to do for others.

"But I have no opportunities to serve my neighbor," says one whose environment seems cramped and limited. Let such a one look about him with a seeing eye and he will find many helpful things he can do. Beginning early in the day he can give a cheerful greeting to those who prepare the morning meal; and a kindly word of encouragement to members of the family before he leaves in the morning will help wonderfully to make their day's duties lighter. On the way to the office or shop he may perhaps express many a courtesy toward fellow commuters. Then again, a little assistance may show a new employee how to do his work more easily and skillfully. And so on throughout the day there will be found many opportunities to serve his neighbor.

The happy results of applying the Golden Rule in everyday affairs is illustrated in the following incident recently related to the writer. Circumstances had made it impossible for a family to keep up their payments for the purchase of a small dwelling. It was therefore arranged that they should remain in the place for a time, with the understanding that they were to cause no extra legal expenses when the time came to vacate the property. The family were to leave the place in mid-summer; so it seemed almost useless for them to put in a garden, or to plant flowers and shrubs. . . . Discussing the matter among themselves, they reached the decision not only to put in a garden, but to plant flowers and shrubs to make the place as attractive and beautiful as they could, thus helping the owner to dispose of the property. Much real joy was expressed by the members of the family in the beauty and order which prevailed as a result of their decision.

When the appointed time approached, the holder of the contract called upon the family to get their signatures to the necessary papers which he had prepared. When he saw the loving care which had been bestowed upon the yard and garden, he was so impressed with the unselfishness manifested that, instead of having the papers signed which he had brought with him, he made out others setting forth an agreement whereby the family retained their little dwelling on terms which were satisfactory to all. Thus, in lovingly applying the Golden Rule they found themselves greatly blessed beyond measure. . . .

As we let God, good, govern our every thought, we shall no longer think it a burden to serve our fellow men, but shall find such joy in so doing that we shall welcome every opportunity to practise the Golden Rule.—The Christian Science Monitor.

FOOD MARKET

Advice-

IN many homes this week the closing of school brings new problems to the housewife. Summer activities, when not too strenuous, sharpen young appetites. Summer time is also the time when children can acquire the essential techniques of housekeeping which both boys and girls need to know. In addition the care of their own rooms and making beds, helping with gardening or marketing, food preparation and dishes should be part of their routine.

Tray meals on the porch or in the garden, preparing picnic meals for themselves, getting a meal to which they can invite their friends all give point and interest to kitchen activities.

Fish and Poultry Reasonable

FISH continues to be plentiful and very moderate in price. It is a delicious food and by serving it twice a week you may save enough to buy less economical foods on other days. POULTRY continues to be relatively cheap. Among meats BEEF is high, even the forequarter cuts are far from reasonable; SMOKED MEATS are higher, PORK is moderately priced due to slackening demand in the warm weather, VEAL continues to be moderate in price and LAMB, particularly the forequarter cuts, is much more reasonable.

Butter, Cheese and Eggs Unchanged BUTTER, CHEESE and EGG prices have apparently reached their lows for the season. Used with MILK in sauces for vegetables or in entrees they make hearty and delicious luncheon and supper dishes.

Vegetables More Plentiful CARROTS are more plentiful and prices are lower after a record high last week. Among the best vegetable values are BEETS, BEANS, CABBAGE, CAULIFLOWER, LETTUCE, PEAS, POTATOES, SQUASH and SPINACH.

Fruits Lower APRICOTS, CHERRIES, MELONS, PEACHES and PLUMS are all more plentiful and lower in price. BLACKBERRIES are the cheapest of the berries though RASPBERRIES, BLUEBERRIES and GOOSEBERRIES and the remainder of the STRAWBERRY crop are all available. ORANGES are moderately priced. The GRAPEFRUIT season is nearly over. Here is a menu* which children will like and could prepare themselves.

Shoulder Lamb Chops Boiled Potatoes Green Beans Bread and Butter Vanilla Pudding with Berries Milk Coffee

Further notice is given that on or before the execution of said deed, the said land may be redeemed by the payment of all taxes, costs, etc., required by law.

QUIET TALKS ON RELIGION

By
Dr. James T. Marshall

WALKING WITH GOD

It is written of Enoch and Noah that "they walked with God." No more beautiful metaphor has ever been used to describe a righteous man. A Christian may well be defined as one who walks with Christ. There is a distinct fascination in the story of the two disciples who walked together from Jerusalem to Emmaus on the afternoon of the first Easter, talking earnestly of the things which lay nearest to their hearts. A mysterious stranger joins them and asks, "what manner of communications are these that ye have one to another as ye walk and are sad?" This stranger is soon discovered to be the risen Lord. Looking back on this scene they said, "did not our heart burn within us while He talked with us by the way?"

This is a perfect illustration of our daily experience as we walk along the highway of life. We also are joined by a heavenly companion who answers our problems and fills us with His peace. Some of you will recall joyous days when you walked over a country road or through a woods with a loved friend. It is unfortunate that this kind of pleasure is fast becoming impossible, because greed has cut down the forests and the shady rural road has been replaced by the glaring concrete highway which is packed with motor cars and speed-maniacs.

Walking with God implies intimacy with God. Dr. G. Campbell Morgan points out that the word which Jesus used when He said "Follow Me," does not mean getting behind another person and placing our feet in his tracks. It means walking in the way with him. This distinction is very suggestive. Walking behind a friend has a great disadvantage because we cannot see his face. We follow Christ in the true sense when we take our place at His side and go where He goes.

Intimacy with Christ is something which is very practical, and remote from pious whining or hypocritical pretense. The people who really enjoy intimate fellowship with Christ do not talk about it, because all true spiritual experiences are too sacred for vulgar display. In the list of the historical characters who have been truly intimate with God I would place St. Peter and St. Paul; missionaries like Augustine and Livingston philanthropists like Elizabeth Fry, Florence Nightingale and Clara Barton; and preachers like Savonarola, Whitefield, Brooks and Moody. The reality of their intimacy is clearly attested in their lives and accomplishments.

Intimacy with Christ involves a transformation of human character. This is true in a measure of all human intimacies. When two men meet on a street corner and talk for fifteen minutes, each does something to the character of the other. Hence we should recognize the importance of seeking companionship which are uplifting, and of avoiding those which tend to drag us down.

It is said of the apostle John that while others imitated Christ, he assimilated Him. We read that when the Jews saw the boldness of Peter and John "they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus." It is simply impossible to associate with Him and remain unchanged.

Following Christ, in a word, means walking with Him in the way of sacrificial love and service.
"So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So cleared light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb."

MOSES A. C. LOSES A HARD FOUGHT GAME

A hard fought, 13-inning game was played Sunday on the Haymarket diamond. This game being between Moses A. C. and the Yellow Cab from Washington, D. C. Both teams played very hard to score. When the 13 innings were ended the score was 5-4 in favor of the Yellow Cab.

Three of our players were unable to play so we think we did fine. E. Ruffner, pitcher; L. Spain, first baseman and G. Dennins, third baseman were the delinquents. Everyone present thought that this was the best game played by Moses this season.

But oh! have we given up?—Why of course not. We are going to try to beat Remington Sunday, June 27 on Haymarket diamond. The game will start about 3 o'clock. Everyone be present. You are invited by us so attend.

SELZNICK'S "STAR IS BORN" TAKES FANS TO HOLLYWOOD

All the thrills of a trip to Hollywood were provided local film fans Thursday & Friday, July 1-2 at the Pitts Theatre in "A Star Is Born," David O. Selznick's glorious technicolor production starring Janet Gaynor and Fredric March.

For this first really modern story to come to the screen in color is so vividly told, so convincingly played and so brilliantly directed by William A. Wellman that you leave the theatre feeling as if you'd actually paid a visit to filmland.

Janet Gaynor and Fredric March have written-to-order roles and have never turned in performances to match these.

Janet emerges a lovely, new sophisticated personality—with a rare flair for wearing clothes—as Esther Blodgett, the little country girl who comes to Hollywood in search of stardom, faces the 100,000 to one odds as an extra, and soars overnight to fame.

And March, as Norman Maine, the hard-drinking screen idol of the moment, who helps Janet get her first break, falls in love with her and marries her, has a grand role which offers him plenty of opportunities for the kind of comedy at which he excels.

The story, which depicts all the thrills and gaiety and heartbreak of a climb to fame in Hollywood was adapted by Dorothy Parker, Alan Campbell and Robert Carson from a story written by Carson in collaboration with Director Wellman.

Adolphe Menjou is at his splendid best as Oliver Niles, the producer, and May Robson is grand as the fiery old grandmother who urges Esther to go to Hollywood and realize her dream of movie fame.

A mass meeting of Democrats was held Tuesday evening in the courthouse at Fairfax for the purpose of electing Democratic Committeemen for the ensuing two years. The meeting was well attended. Chairman Robert Buckley presided.
