SHERIFFS ENJOY ANNUAL MEETING

Convention Urges Study of Fee System by Legislature.

Virginia State Sheriffs' Association met July 14, 1937, with sixty seven members present, which included the following: G. M. Gilkerson, Sheriff Augusta County, President; Geo. T. Turner, Sheriff Northampton County, 1st Vice President; J. P. Kerlin, Sheriff Prince William County, 2nd Vice President; J. Frank Culpeper, Sheriff Nansemond County, Treasurer, and Chas. C. Curtis, Sheriff Elizabeth-City County, Secretary.

Addressing the Association Convention were Hon. George T. Huff, Mayor Charlottesville, Va., welcome; Hon. W. O. Fife, Commonwealth Attorney, Charlottesville, Va.; Hon. J. H. Boyce, President Chief Police Association State; Hon. R. B. Jordan, Chief Police City, Richmond, Va.; Mr. A. S. Wright, Captain of Detectives, Richmond, Va.; Hon. A. G. Berens, Special Representative Federal Department of Justice.

The Hon. Russell B. DeVine consultant of the Page Fee Commission, delivered a very interesting address on the jail situation throughout the State with reference to present compensation of sheriffs and what he believed to be an improvement in compensation by placing all sheriffs and city sergeants on an equitable salary basis, which address was very interesting and instructive.

The Department of Justice representative, Mr. Berens, gave a very interesting talk in which he offered the services of his Department to every sheriff and law enforcement officer in Virginia, and said it would be his pleasure to serve them at all times.

Chief Jordan also gave a well received discourse with reference to police and sheriffs cooperation, and also placed his Department at the service of all sheriffs and law enforcement officers. He strongly urged full cooperation by the public in all law enforcement.

At the banquet the Hon. Ben Chapman, member of the House of Delegates from Roanoke County, acted as toast master, presenting the following gentlemen: Hon. Geo. L. Browning, Justice Supreme Court, Orange, Va., Hon. John S. Battle, Senator from Charlottesville, Va., Hon. E. O. McCue of the House of Delegates, Charlottesville, Va., and others. All (See SHERIFF, page 12)

CHEST CLINIC RESULTS

At the chest clinic held at Court House on Monday, July 19 twenty patients were examined by the State specialist. The reports of the examinations have been sent to the referring physicians and all positive and suspicious casts advised to consult their family physicians for advice and treatment. Some of them will doubtless go to the State sanatoria, but most of them must remain at home. Doctors report that it is easier to get well at a sanatorium because people at home do as they please and not as the doctor advises. The advice of the family doctor if followed out in the home is just as effective as the advice of a doctor at a hospital. People with tuberculosis should realize this when they must remain at home with the disease, act sensibly and obey the doctor. Medicine is not needed. Plenty of rest, good food, and fresh air will work the cure if they begin soon enough.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

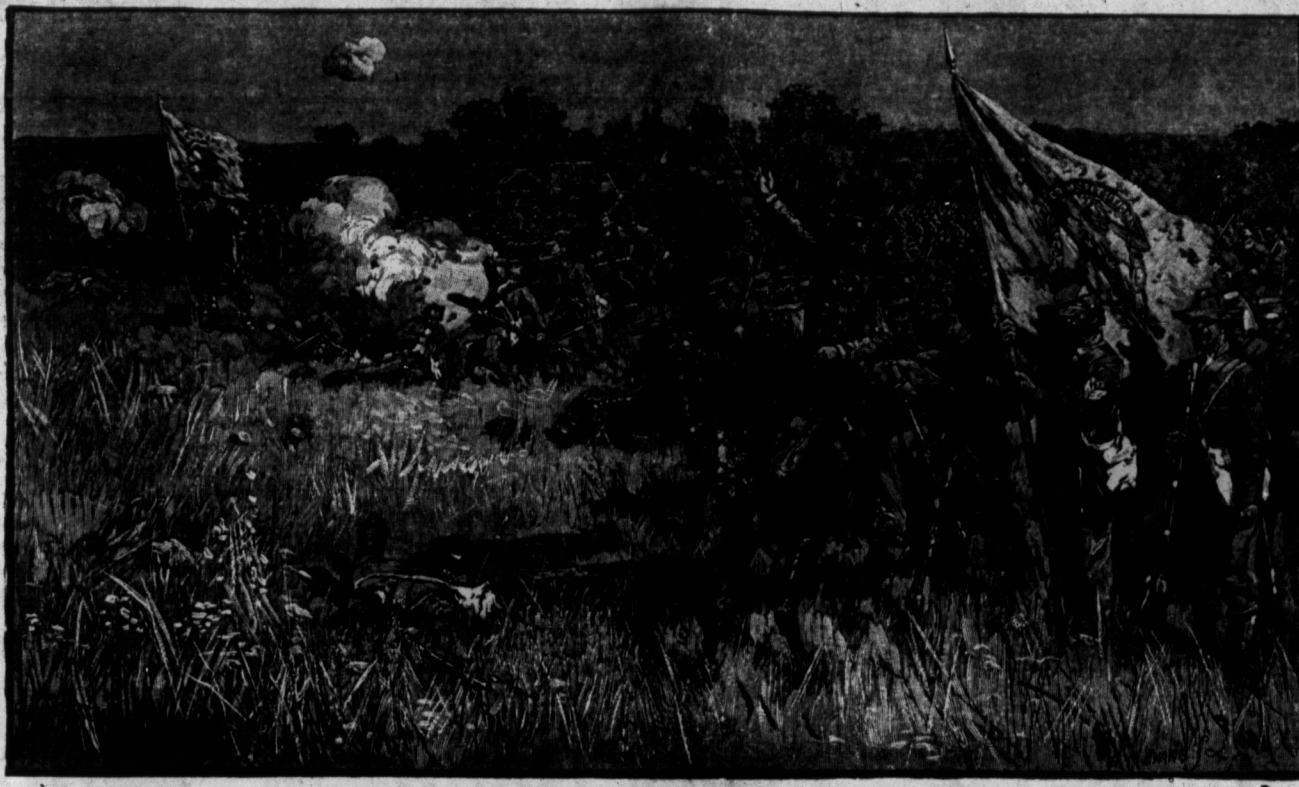

Mr. and Mrs. William Fauntleroy Cocks announce the engagement of their daughter, Evelyn Harrison, to Mr. John Holt Merchant, son of Mrs. W. F. Merchant, and the late Dr. Merchant.

The wedding will take place in the early fall.

A lawn party will be held at the Odd Fellows Hall at Dumfries for the benefit of the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, July 27. The candidates for the General Assembly, Hon. Geo. Herring and Hon. Frank Moncre, and other candidates have been invited to speak.

Mr. W. C. Sadd leaves for New York this evening on a business trip.

THE FIRST BATTLE OF MANASSAS, JULY 21, 1861

76th Anniversary of First Manassas Celebrated at Historic Old Henry Farm

EYE-WITNESS OF BATTLE IS HONOR GUEST.

It was an all-Southern day at the 76th anniversary of the First Battle of Manassas which took place as usual in the Henry Farm grove. Rather a small crowd was in attendance, probably not over two hundred people. This was due in part to the apparent uncertainty of the celebration, it being reported that the property was going into the hands of the Federal Government and that there would be no more anniversary celebrations.

State Senator Rust, president of the Battlefield Association, was the presiding officer. Guests included Mr. Robert Cushing, Company A, Prince William Cavalry, C.S.A., and an eye witness of the famous conflict, Congressman J. Ridley Mitchell, of the 4th district of Tennessee, (which is also the home district of Secretary of State Cordell Hull, who formerly sat for this district in Congress), Mr. Herbert Williams, of Vienna, and the following members of the Washington Opera Guild, Marie Morris, accompanied, Dorothea Cutting, Ida Wood, Maria Nabholz and Dorothy Freeman.

After a delightful picnic, the meeting was called to order by Mr. Rust who introduced Mr. Mitchell as the speaker of the day.

The gentleman immediately established himself as a bonafide Southerner from the "deep South". His voice was fervent with genuine emotion as he spoke of Virginia's heroes, George Washington, Patrick Henry, Thomas Jefferson, Robert E. Lee, "Stonewall" Jackson, and others.

In passing, he gracefully paid homage especially to Howard Smith, Congressman from our District, and also praised our Senators.

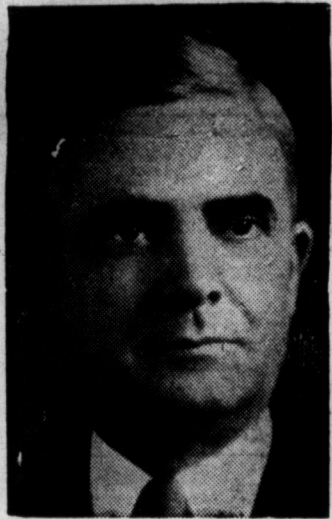

The speaker declared that "all war is not unnecessary". He urged respect for the man who fights for his home. He characterized the spot in which he himself stood as "sacred ground."

Leading up in the State's history, he stressed the sacrifices made by our pioneer forefathers. In referring to the matter of the State's sovereignty, he averred that it is still a very live issue.

Much applause echoed his statement of the "Southern Army fought the greatest battles ever fought in the defense of local self government" and "for bravery and self sacrifice no people has ever witnessed the like."

Proceeding he added, "These men left us a heritage never exceeded on any battlefield in the whole world. The dispassionate historian will always honor them and their peerless leaders, Lee, Jackson and the rest of their heroes. It was just a few yards (See CELEBRATION, page 12)

NEXT GOVERNOR

Lieutenant - Governor Price was in town today in company with Hon. James U. Kincheloe, of Fairfax and Senator Ed. Conner. We hope he will visit us again.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS WIND UP MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS

Tomorrow evening (July 23rd) the Young Democratic Club will hold a business session and dance at Occoquan. A splendid orchestra has been promised by the committee.

Next Friday evening (July 30th) the final meeting will be held here at the High School gymnasium, also to be followed by a dance. Special committees are arranging for prominent speakers of note, whose names will be published next week.

The membership drive, with Judge Brown as chairman, has met with flattering success thus far, and the next two meetings, it is believed, will give them even greater success.

VISIT OF FIRE MARSHAL

Mr. Samuel Steiner, Deputy Fire Marshal, of Richmond, has been making an inspection of the business district of Manassas, in co-operation with Fire Chief, Arthur Vetter.

Mr. Steiner expressed himself as highly pleased with the co-operation extended by citizen's of the town in reducing fire hazards. He stated that there has been much improvement and expressed the hope that fire hazards will be eliminated to the fullest possible extent.

Announcements have been received in Manassas of the marriage of Miss Mary Margaret Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Bell, of Richmond to Dr. R. Terrell Johnson of this town. The marriage took place in Richmond on Saturday, July 17. Dr. and Mrs. Johnson will make their home in South Main St., in Manassas.

ASKS BATTLE PARK CONTROL BY SOUTHERN MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION

At the Battle Park yesterday Mrs. Clay of the Stonewall Chapter pointed to the work of the U.D.C. in restoring Stratford and asked that the Battle Park Restoration be turned over to the Southern Memorial Association. It would seem to us that the suggestion of Mrs. Clay should be earnestly considered. It must be remembered that, after all, the women of the South have preserved the history and honored the heroes of the War between the States.

GAY NINETIES ARE RE-ENACTED

Many Take Part in Revival of Past Styles and Games.

The party of the gay nineties was given by the Junior Woman's Club was a pronounced success. But for very sweet gowns of that period, the limp and faded aspect of the scene was most realistic.

Throughout the afternoon and evening songs and music of the nineties were rendered by Mrs. Dennis Baker, and Mr. Cleveland Fisher.

The judges of the fashion show were Mesdames Grayson Tyler, W. E. Newman, G. R. Ratcliffe and Messrs, Charlie Cloe and H. T. Davies, Jr.

First prize was won by Miss Walter Conner, Mrs. John Roseberry receiving honorable mention. First prize for men was won by Mr. Jack Ratcliffe.

The outstanding guests were Hon. Geo. W. Herring, Hon. John W. Rust and Mr. Charlie Cloe.

There was a country wide crowd and dancing in the evening.

STATE FARMER'S INSTITUTE

Attention is again called to the State Farmer's Institute to be held on the V.P.I. Campus at Blacksburg on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. Of especial interest will be the tours of the Experiment Farm and the special programs dealing with general crops, soil improvement, better pastures, poultry, fruit, dairying, livestock, etc. Arrangements for rooms may be made at the registration booth on the campus.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Dr. and Mrs. C. Haydon Metcalfe, of Sudlersville, Md., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Frances Gwynne Metcalfe to Mr. Charles Leland Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Harrison, of Rydal Pa., and Land's End Farm, Queen Anne Co., Md.

DATED OF MEETING CHANGED

Attention is called to the fact that the Board of Supervisors has changed its regular monthly meeting from August 5th to August 6th.

GASOLINE EXPERT KIWANIS GUEST

Gives Interesting Facts and Figures to Audience.

E. A. Kyhn, Secretary of the Virginia Petroleum Industry Committee was present as the guest of Edgar Kiwanis Club.

In his capacity as industrial research expert, Mr. Kyhn gave a discerning the origin, development and use of gasoline and its by products.

The special emphasis of his talk was directed, however, at the important position that gasoline holds as a tax revenue producer. Here again Mr. Kyhn gave interesting sidelights on the development of the gas tax since its origin in 1919, when a levy of one cent was imposed by the Legislature of the State of Oregon.

The speaker stated that the average gallonage per vehicle per year in Virginia is 726 gallons and that the average motorist in Virginia pays $43.66 in gasoline taxes each year.

Other guests present for the evening were Mr. Ellis Cornwell, a business man of Manassas, and Col. Hulvey, who is contemplating establishment of a school here.

Mr. Kyhn also dwelt on the fre-taxes for other purposes than road building and maintenance. He stated also that the motorists of Virginia are on the defensive today because of present tendencies to increase the gasoline tax levies and to permit of a diversion of a portion of such revenue.

The talk was very much enjoyed and Mr. Kyhn was thanked for his trouble.

Mr. Geo. W. Herring, of Woodbridge was present at the Battle Park Celebration yesterday.

His Prince William friends were glad to see him and congratulated him on the progress he is making in his campaign for the House of Delegates.

YOUTHS ADMITTED TO BAR

Distinguished young men from this area who were admitted to practice at law through announcements of the Virginia Bar this week are Howard W. Smith, Jr., of Alexandria, Va., son of Congressman Howard W. Smith, of the 8th Congressional District, and Elijah White, Jr., of Leesburg, Va., great grandson of the great Mosby leader.

SAVE YOUR DOGS

The county game warden is again warning all dog owners of the ordinance passed by the Board of Supervisors in June, which ordinance was published in the Journal and copies of which are being distributed to again remind dog owners that their dogs must not run at large during the months mentioned in the said ordinance.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS IN CONVENTION

Coles District Group Hold Interesting.

The Coles District Sunday School convention was held at the Independent Hill Sunday School on the second Sunday in July, after being inactive for the past two years, with the representatives from Belle Haven, Woodbine, and Purcell, and was very well attended.

At 10:00 o'clock all the schools joined in the Sunday School lesson after Bro. Runion delivered a scriptural address on Nehemiah 4th, chapter 6th verse.

The Moderator W. A. Wine arrived and took charge. The program was then followed as was published in the Journal.

The song service by the children was very delightful, rendered with W. A. Wine as leader.

After announcements and adjournment dinner was served on the grounds.

Reassembling at 1:30 P. M. the committee reported their selections of time place and officers, W. A. Wine resigned as moderator claiming lack of time for the duties of the office Bro. Runion was then elected as moderator by the convention. Bro. E. E. Cornwell, Vice Moderator and Bro. Ray E. Wood, Secretary and Treasurer.

The following ministers and Sunday School leaders gave 5 minutes J. M. Bell talked on the Sunday talks on Sunday School work, Rev. School as a connecting link between the home and church.

Bro. Sigman's topic was talking to the absent.

Rev. John M. DeChant talked on similar problems and needs of the different Demonstrations and the work and accomplishments of Miss Perkins, the Bible School teacher in the schools.

Rev. J. Murray Taylor talked on the need of encouraging the Sunday School officers and teachers and the need of studying the Bible.

Bro. C. H. Wine talked on the general subjects of the day especially expressing his regrets of anyone not attempting to do in religious work, and gave a few words of encouragement to the new moderator.

HOMEMAKERS HEAR COURT DISCUSSION

The Bethlehem Club was entertained by Mrs. M. M. Washington and Mrs. N. R. Middleton at the home of the former near Greenwich on Wednesday, July 21st. The members were pleased to have as guests Miss Eugenia Osborne, Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. John Broadus and Miss Lou Moxley.

After all business was disposed of Mrs. Hutchison brought out an old in Charlottesville, "Dixie" and interesting to note the changes since that time.

Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson, program committee chairman for the month presented the July topic, contemporary History". The opening numbers were "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner." Then each member was asked to contribute an item of outstanding interest during 1936-'37. This was instructive as well as entertaining especially Miss Osborne's discussion of the proposed change in the Supreme Court.

Mrs. Broadus and Mrs. Lloyd gave an interesting report of the Institute of Public Affairs which they attended in Charlottesville "Dixie" and "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" brought the program to a close.

The hostesses served delicious ice cream and cake. The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Wheatley Johnson and Mrs. Pierson in August.

CATHARPIN

Within a radius of a mile or so of each other, four threshing machines have been on duty during the past ten days or two weeks watching a chance to slip in between showers and thresh somebody's wheat; but as we write this Monday morning, several fields on as many different farms still remain unfinished after several "starts." As Woodrow Wilson once suggested, it has been a case of "watchful waiting" among the farmers and considerable anxiety as to the outcome. Just now when wheat prices are well above the dollar mark, is a bad time for the producer to flirt with wet weather.

Miss Marguerite Latham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Otis Latham of Snow Hill, has returned home after taking a special course at the State Teacher's College, Fredericksburg, Va. during the summer term. This in addition to her regular college work at Mary Baldwin during the past year. Miss Marguerite, as usual, returns with very high credits for her work.

Mr. Walter Lee Sanders, a native and long time resident of the Catharpin community, died at his home in Arlington, Va. on Thursday evening, July 15, 1937 after a prolonged illness of several years duration. Funeral services were conducted at Arlington Funeral Home on Saturday afternoon, July 17 and interment thereafter in the family plot in the Sudley cemetery where the committal service was read by the Rev. A. B. Sapp, pastor of the church. The deceased leaves his wife, two sons and a daughter and two grandchildren of the immediate family to mourn his loss; also one sister, Mrs. Dr. Brower, and one brother, Mr. S. B. Sanders and a number of nephews and nieces to revere his memory. The deceased for a number of years owned and operated Mt. Pleasant farm near Catharpin, but for the last few years has been a resident of Arlington, Va.

Beginning next Sunday, July 25, a two-weeks protracted service will be inaugurated at the Sudley church during which various pastors will participate. Each nite during the first week the pulpit will be occupied by a different speaker, while the Rev. H. P. Baker of Manassas, Va. will be the pulpit orator during the second week. During these services it is hoped that the entire congregation will participate and make this one of the most helpful series of meetings ever held. It will be remembered that last year was the beginning of the Bishop's Crusade to clear the Missionary Board of its indebtedness. This accomplished, the present year's crusade is for the upbuilding of the church and the salvation of men. Since the Sudley circuit did well last year in a financial way it should now do well in a spiritual way.

Mr. J. E. Kidwell of near Sudley, has been somewhat under the weather for the past fortnite or so, possibly due to too much warm atmosphere and over exertion in the harvest field. There are a number just like him who are complaining of not feeling just as well as they would like to feel if they had their choice.

school friends, Betty and Frances the Catharpin Good Housekeeping Club held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. L. L. Lynn of this city on Friday, July 16, 1937 with full attendance. While this was a regular meeting, the club indulged in an "irregular" program to do honor to one of its "daughters" in the person of Miss Frances Lynn Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Halmes Robertson of Lawn Vale, who is about to take unto herself the aid, comfort and blessings of a husband. The club naturally felt that this worthy young lady, who is just launching off into the "Ethereal world," might be in need of some of the practical things of every day life; so, true to conviction, a beautiful shower consisting of the many gadgets pertaining to the culinary department, was the event of the day. After following the long, long trail of cord which lead her into every room of the house, the searcher found its termination in a large receptacle in the living room, filled with the many "tools" so necessary in any well regulate kitchen, and wrapped in tissue paper and ready for inspection. It is hard to tell which were the happier; the recipient or the donors. But if we were permitted a guess, we would say that both were just about as delighted over the affair as any one could be and live. So another little community gesture has passed into history leaving in its wake fond memories of a most delightful occasion and of the many delicious refreshments served by their accomplished hostess.

The Misses Frances and Ann Robertson of Lawn Vale and the Misses Virginia and Anne Piercy of near courts, attended a party at Delaplane, Gainesville, together with their es-Va. on Friday night of last week given by Mrs. W. S. McCarty of that city in honor of her granddaughter, Frances Lynn Robertson, who is soon to become a bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brashear of Mount Vernon, N. Y. and Mrs. W. S. McCarty of Delaplane, Va. were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes Robertson at Lawn Vale on Friday of last week.

Where a NUMBER appears following a name, it is to indicate the PARTICULAR farm upon which the higher score was attained.

REMARKS: Summer is here and with it the usual hot weather—this is particularly reflected in the general falling off of the number able to make the grade and hold their position on the "Honor Roll".

The list is the smallest that we have had this year and while we fully appreciate the problem confronting our producers—we believe that the July record will show a much greater number who have been able to hold their product at the desired temperature.

For the first time this year our old friend John B. Armfield failed to make the grade—and he is off the "roll" completely. M. C. Graybeal, who held second and third place respectively during January and February comes right back in June for "FIRST HONORS".

William U. Waters moved up from fourth to second place—accompanied by J. R. Knill, who is making his initial bow for the year.

THIRD HONORS are shared by John R. Clemens—S. H. R. Fred and Martha Ely. Clemens has scored four out of the past six months—Fred, three times and Martha Ely twice.

In FOURTH PLACE—we find two new faces—G. M. Hutchinson and F. M. Irwin—they are sharing honors with two old timers, W. D. Sharrett, who is a four time winner and who started off in January in "First Place" and John H. Blakely, who has held FOURTH PLACE for three out of last six months.

We wish to take this occasion to congratulate those who in spite of conditions have made exceptional showings during June and to wish them continued success during the hot months of July and August.

Sincerely yours,

M. V. Davison
Production Manager

THE WORLD AROUND US

By O. J. Schuster

WHAT A SPECTACLE is represented by the war of words over the Supreme Court bill in the United States Senate. Dignified Senators have become quarrelsome children, wrangling over unimportant personalities and things quite trivial. Calling names, making personal attacks, bespattering each other with mud—such is the quarrel of children, and the wrangling of the Senate leaders is of the same pattern. Senators use bigger words but hardly more effective ones than do children. The whole procedure in the Senate is as remote from the methods of science, from scientific thinking, as the croaking of frogs is from the singing of Lily Pons.

IMAGINE SCIENTISTS BEHAVING like that, when some new idea, like the Einstein Theory of Relativity, is announced. Imagine Max Planck ridiculing the theory and calling Einstein names. Imagine Bohr taking up the cudgel in support of Einstein and lambasting Planck for opposing the theory. Imagine our own Robert Millikan daubing Einstein and Bohr with tar for taking Relativity seriously, and quoting from their views of past years to make them look ridiculous. Imagine all the leading scientists of the world entering the war of words one on one or the other and you have a picture of the wrangling over the court bill. Of course no intelligent person can really imagine scientists stooping to such practices. Were scientists to indulge in such personalities and trivialities we would have few if any of the remarkable discoveries science is making day by day and year by year. Science would be as barren of results as the game of politics has always been.

A NEW SCIENTIFIC THEORY inspires every scientist to humbly ask himself and his fellows: "Is it true?" He at once assumes that it may be true, or it may not be true. He sets to work to apply every possible test to establish its truth or falsity. Patiently and impersonally he studies the findings of other scientists, gives others the benefits of his own experiments and views. He knows the importance of keeping an open mind to new evidence because history shows that even the keenest scientific minds are likely to be mistaken 99 times out of a hundred. He considers dogmatic decisions as the result of ignorance. It is this attitude and these methods that account for the marvelous progress science has made in the last century. It is the lack of a like attitude and the same methods of procedure that accounts for the stupidity and the ineffectiveness of politics.

SCIENCE IN POLITICS would eliminate the cheap braggadocio that claims: "We've got 'em licked." There is a good deal of that war spirit in the Senate wrangling. Sword rattling may be done with words—in fact most of it is. The way of deliberation and understanding would bring the politicians into friendly, impersonal co-operation to find the desired objective, even if experimentation is necessary. The scientific approach would eliminate the inflated egotist. Leadership would go to men whose vision is fixed on paths leading to truth, men who realize how fallible even the ablest minds may be, men who are genuinely democratic no matter what party label they wear, men who believe that government is for all the people alike and that the most vital political issue may be safely entrusted to the voters for decision. The scientific spirit is needed in politics.

Ocoquan & Vicinity

Mr. H. Caldwell Slack, of Ocoquan has returned after spending a couple of weeks vacationing, seeing America. A patriotic duty of all who can afford the time and expense.

Mr. H. L. Mooney, of Ocoquan and his family spent a few days visiting in the Carolinas and other points South.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Barnes, of Rock Ledge have returned from Wyoming, Pa., where they attended at the funeral of Mr. Barnes, mother.

We are pleased to have learned that Miss Jane Randolph Haar, of Lorton is improving, and hope she will soon be able to come home from the hospital.

We are sorry to have learned that Mr. M. M. Barnard, former superintendent of District Prisons is very ill at his home on telegraph road near Newington. We sincerely hope he will soon be better. He has a host of friends who wish him speedy recovery.

The Rectors Aid Ladies of Pohick Church held their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, July 21, at the home of Mrs. Allen Ed. Allen at Newington. There was an excellent attendance. Much important business was transacted. Delightful refreshments were served and all had a very pleasant and instructive afternoon.

Pohick Church Sunday School had a picnic at Davis' Beach on Saturday afternoon, July 17. It was a very fine day for such an event. All had a very pleasant day. The Junior members of Ocoquan Methodist Church Sunday School also held a picnic at Davis' Beach Saturday afternoon. Both parties had an excellent opportunity to make acquaintance, which they did. The senior members of Ocoquan Methodist S. S. held a picnic at Mr. Hunt, and they report having a very fine time. Mr. Hunt is well arranged for picnic, the C. C. C. men having improved the area with that in view.

Two new dwellings are well on to completion just outside the corporate limits of Ocoquan. From the number of new homes being built so near the Corporation it would not be much of a surprise if they requested the extension of the Corporation in order to get the conveniences and protection of a Corporate town. We welcome our new neighbors. We will see them often, as they all come to our town to purchase necessary supplies.

Buck Keyes Post No. 28, American Legion will hold election of officers at the next regular meeting, August 3. All members are urged to attend that meeting, and help in selecting your officers for the coming year.

QUANTICO

Mrs. Ira Hill and Mr. Hunt Monture were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Evalyn F. Keys Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Flowers and family of New Jersey are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Godsey.

Sgt. and Mrs. Frederick Lewis and Mrs. Lewis' parents spent Sunday afternoon in Ocoquan. Sgt. Lewis was most unfortunate in that he seriously mashed his right hand under a cake of ice and is under medical care in the Quantico Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carden had as their week-end guest Miss Laurine Billings.

There was a very serious accident two miles from Triangle on the highway towards Richmond early Saturday morning. A coupe with two Marine occupants and two girls collided head on into a truck loaded with oil. Three were killed instantly. Pvt. Norton was hurled under the truck and his changed body was not found until the fire was out seven hours later. Vincent Plotz escaped with minor injuries but his companion, Alice Oulette died in Alexandria Hospital. Miss Hectorine Morris of Connecticut also died several hours later of injuries received when she was hurled from the car. The occupants of the oil truck who were burned while trapped in the cab were Johnny Long of South Carolina and Reggie Gillespie, a negro helper.

LEST WE FORGET

July 21 marked the anniversary of the great Southern victory, the First Battle of Manassas.

On Prince William soil that day the blood of Southerners paid a price for that victory. Let us pause at every point and consider before we risk the loss of the effect of that proud hour of the South and the men in gray.

PRICE'S ALTAVISTA SPEECH

In the course of his Fourth of July speech at Altavista, Lieutenant-Governor James H. Price called attention to the 35 years of "conscientious and faithful service" that Senator Saxton W. Holt, who is a candidate for lieutenant-governor, has rendered to the people of Virginia as a member of the State Senate. This cordial reference to the veteran senator has been widely interpreted—and properly, we think—as an effort on the part of Mr. Price to "balance" the complimentary references made by him to the other candidate for lieutenant-governor, Senator Robert W. Daniel, in the much-talked-of Hopewell speech some months ago.

It is entirely fitting that Senator Holt's long service to Virginia should be kept constantly in the minds of Virginians. He ranks second in point of continuous service only to Senator W. A. Garrett of Henry county. His record, like that of Senator Garrett, is unusual even in a state where faithful and conscientious public servants traditionally are rewarded by their constituents with continued favor at the polls. It is a record for which any Virginian might well be proud.

But it is not the rewarding of faithful service alone that should concern the people of Virginia when they consider Senator Holt's aspiration to crown his long career with election as lieutenant-governor. This very "conscientious and faithful service" over a period of 3 1/2 decades could not have been performed without lending to Senator Holt unusual equipment for the office he now seeks. On that point turns Senator Holt's most compelling appeal to the people of Virginia.—Richmond Times—Dispatch.

The friends of Mr. Winston Upsyke are glad to note that he is back among us, much improved in health and spirits.

BARRIER-BALENTINE

A wedding of interest to Manassas as well as to the former parsonage of the bride's father, Timberville, Virginia, took place on Thursday, July 15, at six o'clock in the evening, when Miss Pearl Eran Ballentine became the bride of Mr. George Lewis Barrier, Jr. of Mt. Pleasant, North Carolina. The double ring service was read at the Lutheran Church on Lee Street by the Reverend Arthur Wellington Ballentine, the bride's father.

The bride wore the ground length wedding gown in which her mother had been married, a most becoming soft white net of those days, interlaid with bands of white-lace. Her lovely hair bore a coronet of twisted orange blossoms.

The very simplicity of the wedding arrangement was its rare beauty. The pulpit, banked with ferns back of which gleamed the soft lights of not only the regular candelabrum of the church, but also of specially made high slanting frames which held extra dozens of white candles each side the altar, was a vision of unstudied grace and dignity. High vases of Queen Anne lace intermingled here and there with the green of the ferns against the immaculate white of the altar cloth. The only thing comparable to its entrancing simplicity is the tranquil beauty of the desert at night.

As the ceremony was about to begin the candles were lighted by the attractive younger sister of the bride, Miss Anna Margaret Ballentine, who was gowned in an enticing frock of white mousseline de soie over blue. We hoped the bride had borrowed something for her wedding, thus bowing to the tradition of "something old and something new, something borrowed and something blue" for her coronet was of a new shape and of our age and time.

The bride and groom, unattended, entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by the bride's older sister, Miss Evelyn Ballentine. At the close of the service, and as a part of the invocation, the bride's brother, Mr. Luther Ballentine, sang "Oh Perfect Love"—not as a hymn but as a prayer. Mendelssohn's Wedding March ended the ceremony.

The bride, daughter of the Reverend and Mrs. Arthur Wellington Ballentine, has been a teacher of musical appreciation in the public schools of Ritchfield, North Carolina. She is the second of the three interesting and attractive daughters of the new pastor of our Lutheran Church. The bridegroom, who is the son of Mrs. George Lewis Barrier, Sr. of Mount Pleasant, North Carolina, is an instructor in the Jackson Training School at Concord, North Carolina.

There was a reception immediately following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, the parsonage of the Lutheran Church.

NEW BATTLESHIPS
 Is the battleship gone with the wind on which ride naval aircraft; Has the development of swift and powerful fighting planes sounded the death knell of the picturesque mar-o-war, floating fortress of thousands of tons of steel?

The United States Navy says no. And to prove its faith in super-dreadnaughts it will soon lay keels of two capital ships, forerunners of other giant "battle wagons." Other navies also adhere to the battleship as a prime naval weapon. The history of American battleships, past and future, is discussed in an article which will appear in next Sunday's Star. adv.

HAYMARKET

Miss Florence Reid, of Richmond, formerly of Haymarket is spending this week with Mrs. W. M. Jordan. Mrs. A. R. G. Bass is visiting relatives in Staunton.

Miss Jane L. Carter, of Washington visited friends here this week.

The ladies of St. Pauls Guild are arranging for an entertainment to be held at the Parish Hall on this evening of July the 28th. The program includes Tableaux, illustrated songs and a "Tacky Wedding," an interesting feature of the evening will be a door prize, which will be given to the one holding the lucky number on their tickets.

Mrs. W. W. Gillis and Rev. Carter Gillis, of Hartford, Conn., and Haymarket are spending some weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilliss.

Home Coming Day was most happily observed at St. Pauls Church on Sunday last with many former members and old friends in attendance. Rev. J. C. Carter, of Clarksburg, W. Va., a native of Haymarket and a member of St. Pauls when a little boy received a warm welcome and interested his hearers with a fine and appropriate sermon, on "Home Coming." The service and celebration of the Holy Communion was taken by the Rev. Carter Gillis of Hartford, Conn., assisted by the Rector. Rev. W. F. Carpenter. Mr. Gillis was formerly a resident of Haymarket, and his having a part in the Home Coming Service was a matter of much interest and pleasure to his many friends of this parish.

Following the service the larger part of the congregation assembled at the parish hall for a picnic luncheon and social hour which was a most pleasant feature of the day is planned that the Home Coming Day for St. Pauls be an annual event and its hoped that 1937 brings even a larger number to the celebration including those who were unable to attend this year.

Funeral rites for Miss Katie Belches, who passed away early Friday morning the 16th inst. At the Warrenton Hospital were held at St. Pauls Church at Haymarket on Saturday morning. The service was read by the rector. Rev. W. F. Carpenter, at the conclusion of which she was laid to rest in the family lot in the church yard. Miss Belches was the daughter of Frances Berkeley and Richard Belches, late of Maple Spring farm, Haymarket, and granddaughter of the late Col. and Mrs. Edward Berkeley, of "Evergreen". She was the last surviving member of the well known and beloved families of the house of Berkeley and Belches to reside in this neighborhood and her death has brought sorrow and regret to her many friends of this community. She is survived by two sisters, Miss Elizabeth Belches, of Washington, Mrs. Stuart Brezee, of Rapidan, two brothers, Peter Belches, of St. Louis, and Richard Belches of Washington.

MARKED WOMAN AT PITTS IS TOP IN ENTERTAINMENT

Packing a terrific dramatic wallop. "Marked Woman," the First National film starring Bette Davis, which opens at the Pitts Theatre Monday, and Tuesday, July 26-27, is entertainment of the highest calibre.

Eduardo Ciannelli, the smoothest villain in pictures, takes over the night club "Intime," changes it into a "clip joint," and forces its hostesses into helping him rob the patrons by luring them into the gambling rooms. Miss Davis, Isabel Jewell, Rosalind Marquis, Lola Lane and Mayo Methot play the hostesses.

When a patron of the club is killed by one of Ciannelli's henchmen, a city-wide protest against the racketeers gathers force. Humphrey Bogart, as the young attorney, arrests and prosecutes the gang. Aided by Bette, who turns against Ciannelli's gang when her sister is murdered, he is able to break up the racketeering mob and place the leaders behind bars.

As the hard and cynical hostess whose one vulnerable point is her devotion to her sister, Bette Davis turns in a performance that tops the one in "Dangerous" which won her the Motion Picture Academy award. Ciannelli does one of the most capable bits of villainy the screen has seen to date, and Humphrey Bogart upholds the law in his role of attorney as superbly as he defied it in "Petrified Forest" and "Black Legion."

WELLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Botts, of Odenton, Md., Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bradfield and family, of Alexandria, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Victor Ritenour and children of Wellington, Va., motored to Front Royal on Sunday and visited the Fish Hatchery and the George Washington National Forest and the tower returned home by way of Woodstock.

of them gave remarks apropos of the situation, and spiced them with considerable humor.

The second day of the convention witnesses a general and free discussion of the proposed Page Fee Commission study by various Sheriffs from all over the State. It was at this session that Mr. DeVine went into considerable detail, giving reasons as to why, in his opinion, Sheriffs would be much better off if they were working under a salary plan. The speaker declared that various Sheriffs were of the same opinion that Sheriffs and Sergeants are not responsible for the method of compensation as the method is more than three hundred years old, and that undoubtedly the principle of compensations to Sheriffs is not right.

The Sheriffs went on record of asking the Legislature to go thoroughly into the question and take such action as will be to the best interest of the public, also passed resolution thanking Mr. DeVine for his address and information furnished the convention.

Other resolutions thanked the Hon. J. E. Hoover, Director of Department of Justice, for the co-operation of his department to Sheriffs; sent messages of condolence to the families of Sheriffs R. L. Boswell, New Kent County; William A. James, Goochland County; Arch Redman, Deputy Sheriff Lee County, these officers having died in the past year.

The following resolution was considered of great importance, and the Journal takes pleasure in reproducing the same. It is as follows:

WHEREAS, the Virginia State Sheriff's Association, assembled at its fifth annual convention at Charlottesville, Virginia, July 14 and 15, 1937, is interested in the eradication of crime, safer highways, and the improvement in law enforcement work in all particulars; and WHEREAS, it is the definite opinion of the members of the said Association that all efforts to obtain a better understanding and better cooperation between the public and law enforcement officers, will make our highways safer, improve enforcement of laws and convince the criminal and would be criminal that crime does not pay;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Virginia State Sheriff's Association most earnestly solicits the co-operation of every man, woman and child in this Commonwealth, in order that highways may be safer, eradication of crime and improvement of law enforcement.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be spread on the minutes of this Association and a copy be mailed to every law enforcement officer on this Commonwealth with the request that it be published in their respective local newspapers.

FARM BUREAU PRESIDENT DISCUSSES LEGISLATION

At a meeting at the Manassas Post Office Wednesday, G. F. Holsinger, President of the Virginia Farm Bureau Federation, discussed at length the features of the proposed Agricultural Adjustment Act now before Congress.

Mr. Holsinger explained that the bill provided for payments for soil building practices; parity prices for normal supplies of the five major agricultural commodities wheat, corn, tobacco, cotton and rice; parity income for the farmer, the establishment of an ever-normal granary; and the prevention of excessive surpluses for which there are no adequate present nor prospective markets. He placed emphasis on the intent of the bill to provide a return from normal supplies of farm products in line with prices paid by the farmers for non-agricultural products in the belief that national prosperity cannot exist if farmers do not share in that prosperity through receiving prices for farm products comparable with industrial prices and wages.

It was also brought out by Mr. Holsinger that the bill rejected a policy of scarcity in favor of the advantages to both farmer and consumer of a stable and abundant supply provided by an ever-normal granary.

CELEBRATION

from here that he stood quietly in the face of terrific odds while his brother General, pointing to him shouted "There stands Jackson, men, like a stone wall. Rally behind the Virginians! Let no carping soul ever criticize these sainted heroes who gave their all to protect their homes and the community".

To the young people present, Mr. Mitchell expressed an ardent wish that they would carry on.

"We have progressed," he said. "The same people who built up these United States in the first place in the War of the Revolution, and again turned back the British at New Orleans in the second war of Independence, were at their post in 1898, and 1917. They have always respected law and the Constitution. Was it not Jefferson Davis who gave Lincoln his first oath of office?"

Coming to the present time, he spoke of the Good Samaritan parable, and urged that the American people take this attitude in standing for Peace at home and abroad.

Following this came a most charming group of Southern songs by the ladies whose names have already been given. Without an organ it was a bit difficult, but Miss Morris "histed" the tunes very well, and there were any number of encores.

Senator Rust next introduced Mr. Cushing, the only veteran present. Mr. Cushing was greeted with loud applause and made a few graceful remarks.

The next speaker, Mr. Herbert Williams, of Vienna, and son of one of the men who raided the old Rectory at Fairfax when Col. Stoughton was captured, gave a straight-from-the-shoulder Southern talk.

He declared that he was always glad to reiterate his allegiance to the Southern cause, that he loved the South, her people, its customs and anything associated with it. He praised the Southern woman for her loyalty and sacrifice, one of the most potent factors in holding the South high in the estimation of the World. Mr. Williams spoke freely and with poorly concealed emotion. He showed resentment on anyone who might breathe the idea that Lee was a traitor.

The speaker showed that division was not destruction and that the South merely fought for independence when partnership became unbearable.

"Let us do what we can to ever perpetuate the memory of those who fought for Southern Independence," he concluded.

At the close of the meeting there was considerable discussion over the matter of turning the Henry Farm over to the National Park Service for inclusion in the battlefield project, and Senator Rust explained much of the history of the battlefield association and his reasons as to why the land should now go to the Federal Government.

The young people of Haymarket are sponsoring a benefit dance and beauty contest on August 6, at Lake Jackson Beauty Contest at eight o'clock for girls and boys. First prize in each $3.00. Second $2.00. Admission 25 cents. DANCE 10 to 2 in Lake Jackson Pavilion. Admission $1.25.
