DIES IN FLORIDAFormer Manassas Resident was Widely Beloved.

Major Joseph Nourse Hornbaker, retired, died at his home in St. Petersburg, Florida, on July 30. He was buried in Arlington National Cemetery, Wednesday, August 4, with full military honors, after a short but impressive service in Fort Myer Chapel.

Major Hornbaker was born in Manassas, Virginia, October 4, 1876 and was a brother of the late Dr. Frank W. Hornbaker, resident physician of the District of Columbia penal institutions at Lorton. He was educated in the public schools of Prince William County, Smithdeal Business College and the College of William and Mary. In 1907 he married Mary W. Price of Washington, D. C. who died last November. He was graduated from George Washington University with a D.V.M. degree in 1911, and entered the Army in 1913 with the Quartermaster Corps. From 1913-1918 he was Inspector of Animals at the Front Royal Remount Station and in 1919 served in the office of the Surgeon General. Later he was stationed at Manila, Philippine Islands, and was Meat Inspector with the China Expedition in 1921. After returning to the United States, he served at Fort Bliss, Texas, and at Fort Huachuca, Arizona until his retirement in 1924.

In 1925 he established his residence in St. Petersburg, Florida. On July 5, 1927 he was appointed Director of the Bureau of Sanitation in the Department of Health in that city and established a reputation by his work in mosquito elimination in St. Petersburg and Pinellas County. In recognition of his work in that field, he was elected first vice-president of the Florida Anti-Misquito Association at the state meeting in 1932.

He was a member of the Kappa Sigma Fraternity, the Kiwanis Club, Army and Navy Club of St. Petersburg, American Legion, the Masonic Fraternity, having taken his 32nd degree at the Temple of Heaven in Peking, China, and was a member of the Egyptian Temple of the Mystic Shrine.

Major Hornbaker is survived by an only daughter, Mrs. John E. Metzger of St. Petersburg, Florida, a sister, Mrs. James E. Bradford of Manassas, two half brothers, Fred B. Hynson of Philadelphia, and a half-sister, Mrs. W. G. Powell of Alexandria.

CLARA MERTON LAMB

Miss Clara Merton Lamb, a former resident of Manassas, passed away Wednesday, August 4, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robert Gulick, near Aldie, Va. She was a daughter of George F. and Eliza Lamb and was born January 5, 1874, in Manassas.

Miss Lamb was a member of the Manassas Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy and leaves many friends and relatives in this section. She is survived by one brother, John T. Lamb, one sister, Mrs. Robert Gulick, and a nephew, George Gulick.

Rev. H. H. Lefferts will conduct the funeral services at the home, at Lenah on Friday at 2:30 p.m. She will be buried in Manassas Cemetery about 3:45 p.m.

LOCAL DEALER IS PRAISED

Mr. Franklin Hibbs, well-known electrical dealer for this area, is in receipt of a letter from the sales headquarters of Westinghouse, specially citing him for sales promotion in Manassas.

The communication is from R. C. Cosgrove, manager of refrigeration sales, in which Mr. Cosgrove states that he will take special pleasure in watching the progress of Mr. Hibbs in the refrigeration field.

MURDER SUSPECTED

Luther Beale, a colored youth of the Gainesville vicinity, was found dead on Sunday morning, just off the Lee Highway, a short distance west of Gainesville.

Beale bore evidences of rough handling, and his death is said to be attributed to the results of a free-for-all the night before.

Two colored men are under arrest for questioning but no formal charges have been placed against anyone as yet.

ROAD LEAGUE
AIDS COUNTYIncreasing Membership Adds
Influence in Getting Road Improvements.

Virginia has a right to be proud of what has been accomplished in highway development and construction during the past fifteen years under the "Pay As You Go" plan of financing. Our highway system compares favorably with the systems of our sister states who have incurred large bonded indebtedness in reaching a stage of highway development about equal to our own. However, we can not afford to flatter ourselves with the thought that our highway system is complete. With our Route 234 and Route 223 unbuilt we have a striking illustration of the urgent need of more and still more highway construction. Furthermore, a modern road is no sooner completed than it becomes necessary to widen and further improve to cope with the increase in traffic.

If we are content to operate our highway department upon the "Pay As You Go" plan we must jealously guard our sources of highway revenue from diversion of any nature and use every means to insure that overhead is kept at a minimum to the end that our money be spent for actual miles of road.

The Citizen's Road League of Virginia has been formed for the purpose of fighting any diversion of highway funds by either direct or indirect means and under its leadership every county and city in the State has been organized and members enrolled under local chairmen. G. Raymond Ratcliffe, of Manassas, is Chairman for Prince William County and reports membership in the League to date, as follows:

Manassas—J. Dennis Baker, Jas. E. Bradford, E. R. Conner, W. F. Cocke, L. L. Carter, C. W. Fitzwater, Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, R. S. Hynson, A. A. Hooff, J. H. Stauff, W. C. Sadd and Hunton Tiffany.

Dumfries—Mrs. Janie C. Abel.

Triangle—C. C. Cloe.

Occoquan—Thos. F. Joyce.

Cherry Hill—H. O. Russell.

Dues in the League are nominal, $1.00 for two years, but it is hoped that this will prove sufficient to carry the modest office expenses at Richmond. It is not your money but your name and influence that is desired. Therefore, if you are in sympathy with the objects and principles of the League send in your name for enrollment at once. The names of new members will be published each week in the Journal.

Every highway user is a stockholder in our highway system. Let us protect our investment.

MISS MARY DE BELL IS HONORED AT PARTY

Miss Louise Simmons entertained in honor of Miss Mary DeBell of Manassas, house guest of Miss Evelyn Brent Adams, at a party and launch ride last Saturday night.

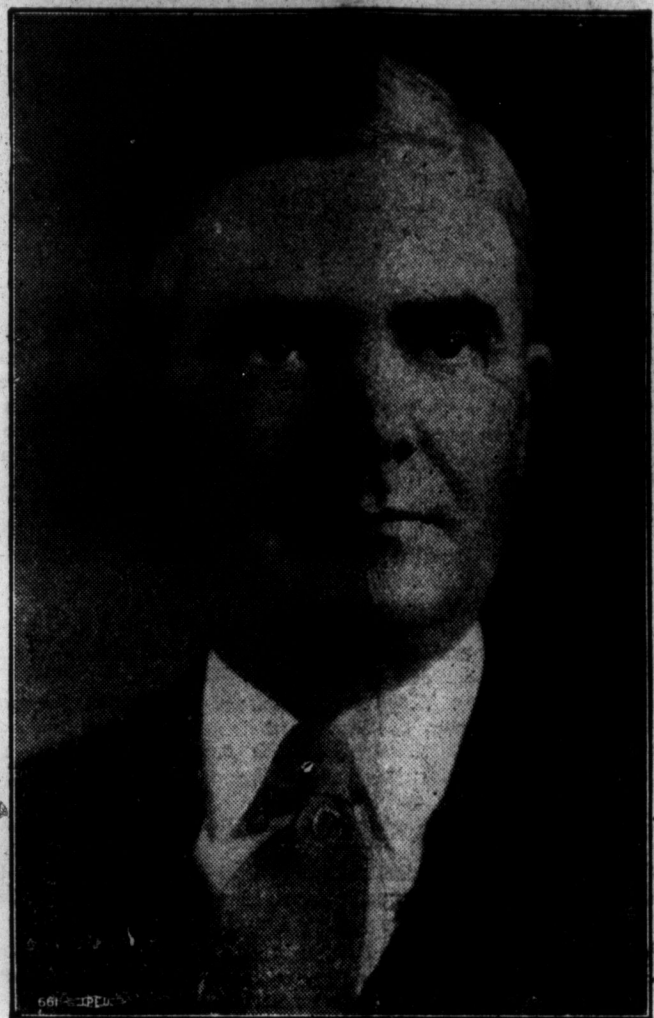

Among those present were Misses Mary DeBell, Evelyn Adams, Audrey Davis, and Ruby Lee Norris. Messrs. Marvin Smith, Samuel Bagby, Latnie Lumpkin, David Winegar and Preston Fairy.—Rappahannock Record, July 29.

MISS SUE CONSTANCE ARRIVES

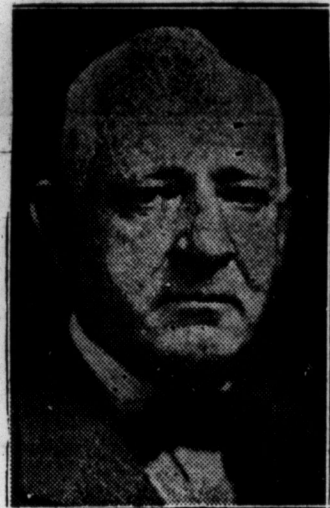

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shepherd of Nokesville are the proud parents of a baby girl. The little lady will be known as Sue Constance.

The members of the Presbyterian Church gave Rev. DeChant a surprise party on his birthday Monday evening at his home in Manassas.

JAMES H. PRICE WINS BY HUGE MAJORITY

HON. JAMES H. PRICE
Democratic Nominee for Governor of Virginia.

HAS HANDSOME MAJORITY

SAXON W. HOLT,

The next Lieut.-Governor of Virginia

The vote in Prince William gave Mr. Holt a pleasing Majority. The sentiment for Daniels spread over from Stafford to some extent but outside of Dumfries District, it was clearly a Holt victory.

Mr. E. R. Conner, campaign manager for Mr. Holt, was in Richmond today and reports that Mr. Holt sends greetings and thanks for the support he received here.

Editor of the Journal,

Dear Sir,

I am in a meeting here in Winchester, among the mammoth apple orchards.

I feel that I should report in summary form about my little trip to the western coast.

9,000 train miles. Gone 101 days. God kept me unusually well.

Expenses cared for. Traveled in 30 states. Visited my 48th.

Will be glad to see old Prince William again.

Br. I. N. H. BEAHM

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Davies, Jr. have gone to Connecticut to spend a three week vacation at the summer home of Mrs. Davies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Smith.

TO My Friends and Supporters:

I am unable at this time to write a personal letter, as I should like to do, to each of my friends and supporters. I am adopting this medium of expressing to them my sincere appreciation for their loyalty and assistance in Tuesday's primary. I assure them that I shall never forget their devoted work in my behalf.

ROBERT W. DANIEL.

Brandon, Virginia.

ELECTION RETURNS

The county election returns for Prince William will be printed by precincts next week.

LIBRARY NOTICE

The Ruffner-Carnegie Library of Manassas High School is open to the public through the summer every Thursday morning from 10 to 12:30 o'clock.

The library has now a good collection of both recent and standard fiction. It has a full collection of the Pulitzer Prize novels, for instance, and most of the worth-while fictions recently presented in the motion pictures. It has also many of the best recent biographies, and much good material on current questions.

The library readers will, in addition, be interested to know that the State Library in Richmond will send a new loan collection early in September.

CARNIVAL WELL PATRONIZED

The fine weather has greatly promoted the wonderful success of the annual volunteer fire carnival being held throughout this week.

The grounds at Lee and Grant Avenues are packed each evening with merry-makers who play bingo, take the thrilling rides, eat hot dogs or otherwise indulge in festivities.

The cause is good and the firemen are receiving due recognition for their splendid work all season and under all conditions.

CELEBRATES 77th BIRTHDAY

Mrs. James P. Smith, of Culpeper, and her brother, John W. Smith, of Washington, D. C., have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith in Manassas since July 28. Mrs. Smith will return to her home in Culpeper on August 7. On the 29th Mrs. Smith celebrated her seventy-seventh birthday at the home of her son here.

Mr. George Herring called up the Journal office shortly before noon to authorize a statement that he is filing a formal bill of particulars, protesting the recent Primary election in Stafford County.

The alleged nature of the charges is so flagrant that unless Mr. Herring does take such action, it will be a grave injustice to his friends, to Stafford County, and to himself.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB
ENDS MEETINGSConclusion of Campaign Brings Rest for Young Democrats.

The final of the booster series of meetings by the Young Democrats of Prince William County was staged a night earlier than previously advised, this being on account of a similar meeting in Fairfax on Friday evening.

The business session was quite brief, and speaking followed. Mr. Hawes Davies presided, introducing Messrs. John Galleher, Otho Wearin, of the 6th Iowa District, and lastly the local candidates for the General Assembly.

The candidates for office naturally told about their own platforms while Mr. Wearin gave a resume of the new prosperity under the Roosevelt regime. His talk was filled with humor and helped brighten up things.

A dance followed the speaking which was greatly enjoyed by all.

MOSES A. C. WINS
ANOTHER GAME

Sunday Moses A. C., defeated Yellow Cab from Washington, D. C. The score was 7 to 4 in favor of Moses A. C. Runer allowing only 4 hits and 13 going down swinging.

"Doc" Godfrey, who was hurt a couple weeks ago, is improving. Doc is missed by every one. But due to his absents Swartz has been playing in his place. Swartz does his best and fulfills the place, you couldn't help but miss little "Doc" on second base. It is very quiet on second without him. We are hoping "Doc" will be able to play soon.

All the players needs to be praised by everyone. They have not lost a game for so long they wouldn't know how to act.

Moses A. C. will play the Yellow Cab Saturday at the Haymarket field day. This will start at 10:00 o'clock.

Sunday, August 8, Moses A. C. will play the Warrenton Springs. This will be played at Warrenton. It will begin at 3 p. m. You are invited to attend. So if you can't, attend Saturday and Sunday.

The gate prize was won by one of the young men of Haymarket.

MARY J. DAVIDSON

Mrs. Mary J. Davidson, 69, widow of Roland L. Davidson, died Saturday, July 31, at her home, 950 Shepherd St., Washington, D. C. She was a member of the Petworth Baptist Church, Joppa Lodge of the Order of the Eastern Star, and Lodge No. 11, Mayflower Council, Daughters of America.

Mrs. Davidson was Mary J. Matthews of Manassas, Va. In 1907 she married Roland L. Davidson and moved to Washington. She is survived by three brothers, J. P. Matthews, Los Angeles, R. M. Matthews, Roanoke, Va., and B. F. Matthews, Manassas, and four sisters, Miss Mattie S. Matthews, Manassas, Mrs. Ada C. Hoal, Roanoke, and Mrs. Icy Hawkins and Mrs. Laura Moncrief, both of Washington.

Funeral services were held in Washington on Monday, August 2. Rev. Dr. Henry J. Smith, pastor of Petworth Baptist Church, and Rev. Dr. Thomas E. Boorde, pastor of the Ericson Memorial Baptist Church, East Riverdale, Md. and the Wilson Avenue Baptist Church, Colmar Manor, Md. officiated. Special services were conducted by the lodges of the Eastern Star and Daughters of America. She was buried at Bristol, Va. on Tuesday.

Holt Overcomes Daniels for Lieut.-Governor.Staples Defeats Galleher for Attorney-General.Prospect of Contest in Stafford Holds Moncure Victory in Doubt.

Hon. James Hubert Price was swept into office Tuesday by an unprecedented majority. Returns from 1628 precincts out of the 1704 precincts in the State this morning gave Price 164,373 and his opponent, State Senator Vivian L. Page 26,634.

The veteran Saxon W. Holt, of Newport News polled 108,168 to 81,583 for his opponent for Lieutenant-Governor, Senator Robert W. Daniel. Attorney-General A. P. Staples was re-elected by 97,922 to 74,218 for John Galleher, of Leesburg, who developed unexpected strength, especially in Northern Virginia, carrying Prince William, Fairfax and other nearby counties.

The only congressional contest was that to fill the vacancy created by the recent death of Andrew Jackson Montague. The winner was Dave E. Satterfield, former Commonwealth's Attorney of Richmond, who was opposed by State Senator Gordon B. Ambler.

The contest for Delegate to the General Assembly for the combined counties of Prince William and Stafford was the outstanding feature locally. Both candidates have served previously in the legislature. The incumbent, Frank Moncure, carried both counties over his opponent, George Herring, in the last election, but Prince William County, this time, gave its own citizen a lead of 772 to 548. In Stafford County Moncure lead by a vote of 646 to 406.

However the Moncure margin of approximately 150 votes, is jeopardized this morning by the definite prospect of a contest in certain large Stafford County precincts, where alleged irregularities, if proven, would completely upset the results and send Mr. Herring to the General Assembly.

HOME COMING AT ANTIOCH

The annual home coming day at Antioch Baptist Church, which will be held on Sunday, August 8, will be exceptionally interesting this year, as it commemorates the 100th anniversary of the church.

The Anniversary Sermon will be preached at 11 a.m. by the Rev. P. H. Chelf, of Flint Hill, who will assist the pastor, Rev. Barnett Grimsley, in a series of meetings, to be conducted at the church each evening, at 8:00 p.m. during the week.

After lunch and social hour on August 8, a memorial service will be conducted, at which time pictures will be presented to the church, of the Rev. V. H. Council, late beloved pastor of Antioch, and an early founder of the church, a layman, Mr. James Smith, of "Hagley". The Revs. Grimsley and C. Wirt Trainham will conduct these services respectively.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Miss Virginia Lois Cornwell celebrated her sixth birthday on July 29. After her little guests had played games, they were invited into the dining room, which was decorated with yellow and green cut flowers and crepe paper, where delicious refreshments were served. The favors were lovely little baskets of candy, balloons and crackers. Those present were Misses Katherine and Martha Ann Graham, Betty Lee Jenkins, Norma Jean Wells, Louise Wine, Mary Blakemore, Richard Graham, Benjamin Cross, Jackie Weatherall, Jackie Martin, Robert Wine and Billy Gue.

OLD TIME CAMP MEETING OPENS AT FALLING WATERS WEST VIRGINIA

Potomac Park Camp Meeting held under the auspices of the Potomac District Council of the Assemblies of God opens on Friday for a three weeks of spiritual fellowship and old time preaching. The Camp is located across the River from Williamsport, Md., on Route 11 and is the site historically noted as a camping ground for the soldiers of George Washington during the Revolutionary War. People from the New England States, the deep South, the Mid West and the entire Atlantic Seaboard attend Potomac Park Camp spending their vacation there and leaving refreshed for the exacting tasks that are again theirs.

The Camp Evangelist is Pastor Guy Shields of Fort Worth, Texas, a well known editor, author, camp meeting and convention speaker, the founder and president of Shield of Faith Bible Institute, a preacher of great zeal and ability. He will speak each evening and will be ably assisted by Pastor Allen Swift, of Elizabeth, N. Jersey, a former missionary to China founder and pastor of the Pentecostal Church at Elizabeth, N. J., and well known as an expositor of the Word of God. The Bible studies will be held each morning at ten - thirty.

Special musical program is in charge of Harry L. Penn, of Alexandria, Virginia, accompanied by his wife, and daughter. The children who are present have their own tabernacle and their own instructors in their own service. Between sessions they can enjoy themselves on the local playground. Mrs. Robert Beisel, of Allentown, Pa., with her staff of workers will again have charge of this work.

Among the special days at Camp are Home Mission Day, Tuesday, August 10; two Foreign Mission Days, Friday, August 13 and Sunday, August 15; Sunday School Rally Tuesday, August 17; Christ's Ambassadors' Rally, Saturday, Aug. 7.

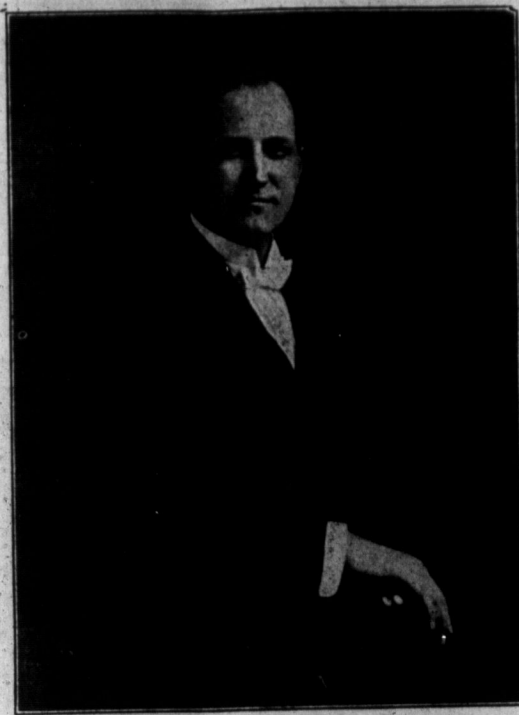

LOCAL PASTOR GOES TO MISSION CONFERENCE

A Training School for Church and Sunday School workers is being held this week at Massanetta Springs under the direction of the Lutheran Synod of Virginia. At this time and place the Board of American Missions is conducting a school for Missionary Pastors. The Rev. A. W. Ballentine, Pastor of Bethel Lutheran Church, is attending this training school for Missionaries. He will be away from home for the whole week. Some of the best speakers and leaders in the American Lutheran Church will be at this school as teachers.

A SATISFIED CUSTOMER

Our friend, Mr. John T. Hyde, of Bristow, was in for a brief chat on Saturday. Mr. Hyde, who is back in his old home community to enjoy a well earned rest, says that his classified advertisement of two weeks ago brought him immediate results. In fact, he states that so many replies have come in since that he doesn't know what to do about it.

The McLean Volunteer Fire Department's Annual Carnival began on Saturday evening, July 31 with a with a very nice crowd attending.

REV. W. D. MITCHELL

You will want to mark the week of August 16-22, on your calendar, and plan to be at Calvary United Brethren church at Aden, Va., each night at 8 o'clock. During this week Rev. W. D. Mitchell, of Reliance, Va., will be conducting a series of Evangelistic services there. Rev. Mitchell will be remembered by some of the older residents of the community, as having held a revival meeting in the United Brethren Church during the pastorate of Rev. Geo. W. Stover. The ministry of Brother Mitchell during these years has taken him into many of the larger churches, as well as rural communities, and God's blessing has been upon his soul-winning ministry in a marked degree, whether as pastor or evangelist.

There will be services at Calvary Church also, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights, the 11th, 12th, and 13th. The pastor, or some other local minister will preach these nights.

JERRY BREEDEN, of Washington, D. C., will direct the singing each night and will organize a "Sunshine Choir". The children are asked to come at 7:30 each night for practice.

Watch for announcement next week concerning the Anniversary and Homecoming at the same church on Sunday, August 22.

This outing is for all adults, children and all friends and interested parties. Announcements will be made later as to starting time, meeting point and other arrangements.

This column has always tried to be fair, and conservative in its reports as to happenings, news items, etc., which are thought to be of interest to the people in the community for which it is written. It is really no small task to get things together in true chronological order and try to give a proper, conservative slant to our utterances so that no harm may be done nor false impression given. In other words, our weekly letter is just a little, friendly chat with our friends and neighbors, telling them of things which they possibly do or did not know. So while we try to get things right, we naturally think our printers should do the same and at least, keep things in their natural order. Now try to imagine our surprise to find our last week's main "editorial" so distorted, mixed up and scattered hither and yon that jig-saw and crossword puzzles were mere child's play in comparison. Now, knowing as we do, that many of the interested friends desire to keep a copy of this particular item, we are asking you to please reprint same this week, being careful to have it appear just as it was sent you originally. By so doing, you will confer a favor upon more Journal readers than you possibly think. This, then, shall be your excuse.

The time of year is at hand when young turkeys are beginning to inspire hopes within the breasts of their owners when some 90 days hence they shall contribute to the family exchequer and thus liquidate their obligation for the many hours of care, desperation and cuss word's bestowed upon them during the trying period of "childhood." But with what bitterness and woe doth the said "owners" view the "remains" when from day-to-day they find the carcass of another of their hopefuls out in the field with nothing to tell the tale but some wing feathers where once stood a future hope. This is happening almost every day and one can readily visualize the temper of the beholder upon each occasion. In nearly every case the destruction is caused by some hungry, ill-fed dog who goes prowling over the country. A near neighbor has lost about 40 young turkeys before the destroyer could be located and shot. While the amount received from the county may about pay feed cost, yet it still leaves the raiser with his expected profit and labor on the reverse side of an unbalanced budget.

As a closing feature of the two weeks special services at Sudley, an all-day meeting with dinner on the grounds, will be held at the church on Sunday, August 8, 1937 to which all friends of Sudley, both at home and abroad are cordially invited to attend and make this a reunion of the entire membership. The nitely services during the past fortnite have been full of interest and the meetings on Sunday are looked forward to with interest.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Word of God

It is a duty to read the Bible daily and to pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

At parents will have their children come to the daily Bible lessons, it will prove a precious heritage to them in their youth.

SPIRITUAL BLESSINGS:

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ.—Ephesians 1: 3.

GOVERNOR PRICE

For many years the popular Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia in his attitude toward a balgionia has been familiarly addressed as "Governor". On Tuesday of this week the Democratic electorate of the Old Dominion formally conferred this title upon James H. Price, who was practically unopposed, and who will take the office of Governor of Virginia with an endorsement as overwhelming as that which recently voiced the national preference for President Roosevelt.

But although the Governor-elect is a supporter of the Roosevelt Administration, yet his election was not gained upon New Deal issues and he is known to be most conservative and budget and a sound financial structure.

In fact the present selection culminates an exceptionally fine alignment of the major forces operating in our political structure. Governor Price has been styled, "anti-organization". Yet he has been twice nominated for Lieutenant-Governor without opposition of the so-called "organization". If he disagrees with the titular head of Virginia's Democracy in certain matters, he is nevertheless assured from Winchester of "my complete co-operation, both at Washington and in Richmond."

In Governor Price the people may find an executive of independent thought and original action; an advocate of good government and an implacable foe to those who would feed fat on the resources of Virginia under the shop-worn pretext of promoting the welfare of the masses.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Love" was the subject of the Lesson - Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 1.

The Golden Text was "Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you" (II Cor. 13:11).

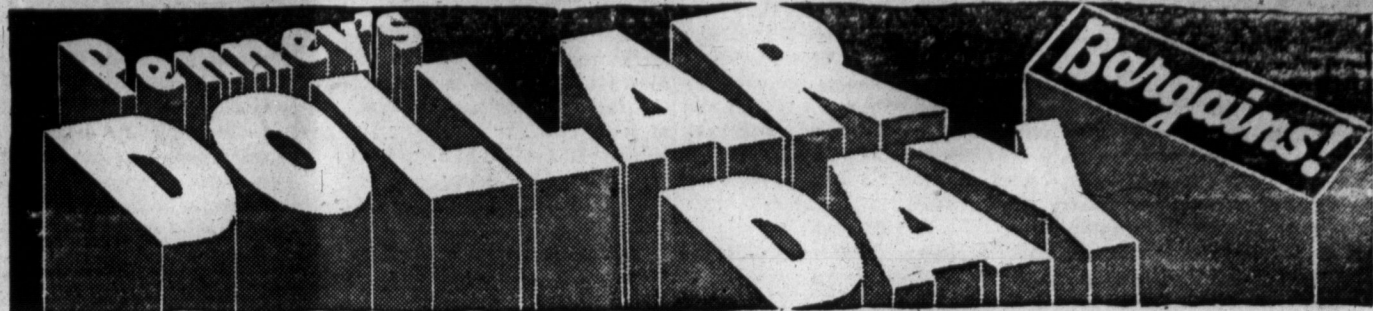

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him" (I John 4:16).

The Lesson Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Love, the divine Principle, is the Father and Mother of the universe, including man . . . The everlasting I AM is not bounded nor compressed within the narrow limits of physical humanity, nor can He be understood aright through mortal concepts. The precise form of God must be of small importance in comparison with the sublime question, What is infinite Mind or divine Love? . . . No form nor physical combination is adequate to represent infinite Love. A finite and material sense of God leads to formalism and narrowness; it chills the spirit of Christianity" (p. 256).

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hartley and family have taken a cottage at Rehoboth Beach, Del., for the month of August.

WOODYARD TO ART GALLERY

A magnificent building of steel and stone, tile and glass soon will occupy the Mall site at Sixth, Seventh, B and C streets, Washington. It is the Melon Art Gallery and will house some of the world's rarest art treasures.

"The woodyard" is being wiped out but it will live a long time in the memories of thousands of "reliefers." It became the best known unemployment relief in Washington during the six years of its existence and there's many a story about it. Some of them are told in an article which will appear in next Sunday's Star.

TYPHOID FEVER

There have been several cases of Typhoid Fever in this and adjoining counties this summer and the chances are strong that there will be more during August and the fall. The cases in our county so far are in the country where they have no sanitation and the drinking water is not protected from surface pollution.

Everyone should be protected against Typhoid Fever. If you live in town with good sanitation and protected water supply you are still in danger from careless handlers of food: green vegetables, ice cream cones, etc. who may be "Healthy Carriers" of Typhoid germs.

You are advised to see your doctor at once about protection. No one need have Typhoid Fever.

LAUREL AND HARDY IN WESTERN FARCE

Here they are, folks . . . the newest desperadoes of the Gay '90's . . . Laurel and Hardy . . . they've come "Way Out West" hitch-hiking on a stage coach!

Laurel and Hardy as a pair of gold prospectors and the prospectors for laughs are great! "Way Out West" is their newest feature-length laugh hit . . . their newest and their funniest!

Can you picture what happens when Stan and Ollie find themselves in the midst of the hardboiled honky-tonks of the gold dust days? No, you can't. You'd have to see it to believe it and even then you won't believe it!

Noble as ever, and as ever full of good resolves, Stan and Ollie come out west to deliver the valuable deed to a gold mine to Rosina Lawrence, daughter of an old companion prospector who had died and left the deed with them.

Getting into a gay honky-tonk they reveal their mission to the unscrupulous owner, James Finlayson. Pretty Rosina had been left in his care and now works as the kitchen slavery. So what does that bad man, Finlayson, do? He tries to pass off Sharon Lynne, his wife, and a song-and-dance queen of the joint, as the rightful owner of the valuable gold mine.

But do Stan and Ollie let him get away with it? They do not! They get into a barrel of trouble . . . they get thrown out of town . . . but in the end our brave heroes return to vanquish the dastardly Finlayson, recover the deed to the gold mine, rescue Rosina and make good their escape to the desert.

The pictures will begin Wednesday, August 11, at Pitts Theatre.

Causes of Unproductive Pastures

In many cases, the productivity of a pasture is much lower than is warranted when the type of soil and climate are considered. The cause for this poor condition may be due to one or all of the following reasons: Lack of lime; low fertility of the soil; poor stand of desirable pasture grasses; and the presence of undesirable plants as weeds and bushes.

After a permanent pasture has been established, with occasional applications of fertilizer and lime to replace that removed from the land in the form of animal products, will keep the pasture in good condition and productive.

Farmers Asked to Prepare Farm Maps

The checking of performance of farms taking part in the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program is now under way. Farm owners and operators are asked to prepare sketches of their farms, in advance of the visit of local supervisors, showing the estimated acreage in each field, the use to which each field has been or is being put to this year, and the approved soil building practices carried out since November 1, 1936. Supervisors are instructed to obtain receipts, check records, or to obtain positive evidence of practices, as liming, seeding, etc., for which payments are provided.

Low Cost Feed

In seven districts where studies were made by the United States Department of Agriculture concerning requirements for the production of market milk, pasturage furnished nearly one third of the total sustenance for the cows. On these same farms the pasture cost, including taxes, interest and other charges, was only one seventh of the total feed cost.

Records obtained on 478 farms which produced beef calves showed that the breeding cows obtained practically their entire living from pasture for 200 days and from roughage and concentrates for 165 days. The pastures which were furnishing more than half of the total sustenance were credited with only one third of the feed bill.

A survey of typical farms in southern Indiana shows that those with half of their farm area in pasture and half in crops made more profit than those which devoted one fourth to pasture and three fourth to crops. Thirty-six per cent of the total feed for dairy herds on these farms was obtained from pasture, and the pasture furnished nutrients at one fourth the cost of nutrients in harvested feeds.

Mineral Content of Pastures
Pasturage produced on fertile land minerals than that produced on poor soil. Pasture grasses, like other crops, are deficient in those elements that are deficient in the soil.

Green, immature grasses are much better sources of minerals than hay or mature plants from the same land. Immature grass is generally about twice as rich in phosphates as mature grass. The dry matter of immature grass contains practically four times as much mineral as the average cereal grain and as much as the average legume hay.

BUCKLAND

A wedding of interest to their many friends here was solemnized in Washington on Monday, August 2, when Ada Lee Davis, (known to her friends as "Billy"), was quietly married to John Chester Graham, second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Graham, a native of Buckland, but for the past several years employed by the Transit Company in Washington, and a resident there. The bride, who is a striking brunette, looked charming in an all blue outfit and was unattended. After a short wedding trip to the beach Mr. and Mrs. Graham will be guests in Buckland for a few days, after which they will be at home to their many friends at 1628 Potomac Avenue, S. E., Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Martin of Washington, D. C., visited Mrs. Martin's mother, Mrs. C. E. Nalls, Sunday.

A series of revival services conducted at the Buckland Church for the past several weeks closed Sunday night.

To serve our Patrons well and make each service a stepping stone towards their perfect confidence, is the desire and constant endeavor of our organization.

OCOQUAN and VICINITY

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Brunt of Ocoquan were hosts to a dinner on Monday, August 2 at their home in Ocoquan. The guests were Mr. H. L. Mooney and Mr. Roy Mooney and Capt. Thos. F. We are pleased to note that Miss Mildred Hornbaker who has been ill is well again.

We are glad to note that Miss Helen Davis who has been on the sick list is well again.

Mrs. H. L. Mooney of Ocoquan who was operated on at Alexandria Hospital last Saturday for appendicitis is reported getting along nicely, for which we are very glad. We hope that she will soon be home and well.

It is with great sorrow that we report the death of Joseph Hornbaker, Major, U.S.A.V.C., retired, at his home in St. Petersburg, Fla. Major Hornbaker was a brother of the late Doctor Hornbaker of Ocoquan. Our sympathy goes out to his many relatives and friends.

This town is all a jitter today on account of the elections of candidates to various offices of the State and Counties. All we can add is that we hope "the best men will win". The best for the public in general; not the best physically. Or, some may be the best physically as well as being the best for the general public's cause.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the P.O. Hick Church met at the home of Mrs. N. S. Lambert at Woodbridge on Wednesday, August 4. There was a very excellent attendance. After the business session, an excellent dinner was served. All had a very enjoyable afternoon.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD
CHILDREN

When taking pictures of children snap them in a natural pose—doing something.

"Stand up straight now and look at me." "Put your hands down, darling, and smile. I want to get a good picture to send to Aunt Minnie."

Haven't you heard these two and many similar expressions on the part of parents when they are taking snapshots of their children? Let's hope you are not numbered among them for unless your child is quite apt at posing the result will be a rather uninteresting snapshot which does not do the child justice.

First of all, as you know, youngsters are the cutest when they are perfectly natural. If a lot of fuss is made to get them to stand just so, or an effort is made to get them to do a certain thing, the chances are they will look too posed in the finished print.

There are two types of child pictures, I might say; just plain record pictures and the other kind you should strive to get—story-telling pictures. A little tot standing straight as an arrow with arms stiffened against the sides of the body and staring at the camera is a good example of a record picture, but snap a picture of that same little rascal making mud pies, or playing traffic policeman, and you have a story-telling picture with real human interest appeal.

Children's pictures should always be taken fairly close up, rarely more than ten feet from the camera. If you have an ordinary box camera don't get closer than six or eight feet unless a portrait attachment is placed over the lens. With a portrait attachment you can get as close as three and a half feet to your subject and get sharp, distinct pictures that will show every curl and dimple. By moving a lever on the newer type box cameras, however, you can shoot as close as five feet to your subject without a portrait attachment.

With a folding camera of focusing type, the closer the subject is to the lens the more care is required in estimating the distance. Set the pointer on the distance scale at the number of feet between the lens and the child. If you change your position for succeeding pictures, be sure to change the pointer to the proper distance mark.

And watch your backgrounds. A nice, attractive background adds so much to your pictures. Telephone poles, wires, unattractive fences, garages, and what have you, often spoil an otherwise artistic, fascinating human interest picture. In fact, any prominent off-side object in the picture will detract from the interest in what the child is doing.

Here's another tip. Try to avoid having the sun shining directly in the child's eyes, for the poor little fellow can't help squinting under such conditions and neither could you. Let the sun come from the side. This gives an interesting lighting and what professionals call "roundness."

Follow these "tips" and you'll get real joy out of your snapshots.

Vail Medals for Noteworthy Public Service Awarded

3 New Names Added to Long List of Outstanding Telephone Men And Women; Employee Groups Also Honored

There was an echo of the serious emergency created by the floods in March, 1936, in the recent announcement of the National Committee of Award for the Theodore N. Vail medals for acts of "noteworthy public service," according to a recent statement of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. Two of the three individual silver medal winners and sixteen groups of telephone employees awarded bronze plaques performed outstanding services in connection with the flood emergency. One silver medal winner got the award for prompt and resourceful action in caring for seriously injured victims of an automobile accident. Checks for $250 each went to the individual medal winners.

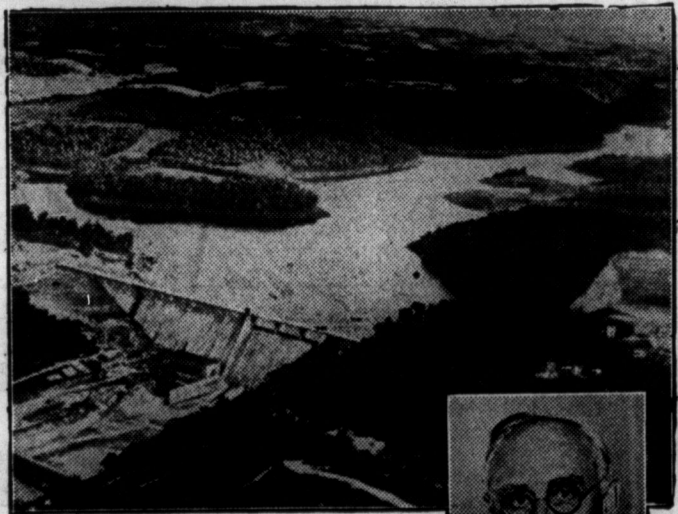

Groups of employees working in eleven communities served by the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania and four groups of employees of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company located in Maine and Massachusetts received plaques and citations. Employees of the Southern New England Telephone Company engaged in flood emergency work throughout the Connecticut River valley received similar recognition.

The individual awards were made to Michael J. O'Connor, a lineman of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company of Concord, New Hampshire, for his courage and prompt and intelligent action in saving lives during the flood at Contocook, New Hampshire, and to John T. Steck, a construction foreman of the Southern New England Telephone Company of New Milford, Connecticut, for performing a similar service.

In both cases the telephone men rode out on cable lines with flood waters lapping beneath them, to effect the rescue of persons caught in positions of peril by the rising river. The third individual award went to Robert Hildebrand, a toll repairman of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company at Fulton, Missouri. Hildebrand, rounding a sharp curve near Boonville, Missouri, came upon a serious automobile accident. Putting out warning flags he climbed a pole and with his test set called a nearby town for a doctor and ambulances. While waiting he gave first aid to the five injured occupants of the car.

Vail medals are provided from a fund created in memory of Theodore N. Vail, who at the time of his death in 1929 was chairman of the board of directors of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. They commemorate acts on the part of telephone employees throughout the United States which conspicuously illustrate Mr. Vail's ideals of public service.

The new Norris Dam Lake on the Clinch River in Eastern Tennessee has an 800-mile shore line. This is just one unit in the great TVA system for power, flood-control and navigation. Dr. Arthur E. Morgan (inset), TVA Chairman, in this week's Saturday Evening Post, urges the public not to lose sight of the manifold benefits of the government project because of the controversy over the power issue.
