

Young Democrat's Club Disclaims Alleged Insults to Virginia Senators

Neither Senator Harry F. Byrd, Senator Carter Glass nor any member of the Virginia delegation in the House of Representatives was omitted from the resolutions adopted by the Young Democrats of Virginia, in convention at Charlottesville last Saturday, despite confusing reports sent out of Charlottesville, John A. Currie, executive secretary of the Young Democrats, declared this week.

Mr. Currie, who was re-elected for a two-year term, said the widely-distributed reports were hardly fair to the Virginia senators and some of the House members. He requested that the action taken by the convention be made clear.

The confusion was due, he said, first to an amendment offered by E. V. Walker of Charlottesville, to the original resolution that came from the resolutions committee. The original paper was an unequivocal indorsement of the Roosevelt administration and commendation of the course of the entire Virginia membership in the two houses of Congress.

Mr. Walker sought to modify the general resolution by giving the Virginia senators and congressmen commendation "to the extent that they had co-operated with the national Administration."

A second amendment, offered by Charles Pickett of Fairfax gave commendation to the members of Congress "to the extent that they followed out the policies of the national Administration," Mr. Currie said.

Both amendments were tabled on motion of Frank Tavener of Woodstock, Mr. Currie said, and the general resolution was adopted finally exactly as it had been written.

OCOQUAN AND VICINITY

Mrs. Grace Hornbaker spent the week-end with relatives at Manassas.

Miss Mary B. Joyce, of Occoquan, spent several days visiting Miss Ann McNeal and family at Washington.

Mrs. George B. McNeal and daughter, Ann were callers on Capt. and Mrs. Joyce at Occoquan. They also attended the wedding of Mildred Hornbaker and Harold Wilcher on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 23rd.

The Ladies of Pohick Church will give an oyster and chicken supper at the Church Hall on Thursday October 7, 1937, commencing at five o'clock, for the benefit of the Church Rectory. Come and enjoy a good supper and meet with and renew old acquaintances.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Pohick Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Emma Byington at Lorton on Wednesday, October 6th at noon. It is hoped to have a large attendance. All you ladies interested in church work are urged to join with us in having a pleasant meeting.

Occoquan Lodge of Masons held a special meeting on Monday evening, September 27, for the purpose of commemorating the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution of the United States. Several papers on the Constitution were read, and intricate passages explained so as to be more easily understood. Mr. S. Ellis Davis of Occoquan gave an excellent talk, as did Messrs. Allen Green and Alvin Davis of Lorton.

There will be a dance at the Lorton School on Friday evening, October 1, given by the school league. All are welcomed to come and enjoy a pleasant evening. We will try to make the evening a very enjoyable one for all who come.

Mr. C. B. Roland, a member of the County Supervisors from Gainesville District, is to be commended on his article in the Manassas Journal of 23rd instant, with regard to the expenditure of County Monies. It is hoped all members of the Board of Supervisors will take notice and follow Mr. Roland's advice.

The article of Mr. W. E. Garnett, rural sociologist at V.P.I., in the Washington Evening Star recommending the merger of the County Supervisors and School Boards is well worth considering. It would seem that County Supervisors elected from citizens having the interests of their communities at heart and who could devote sufficient time to their duties would be able to look after the interests of every activity in the county, including the public schools. That would also be a saving to the taxpayers, which saving could be used to other purposes more beneficial to the counties.

SUBMARINE RAIDS

The word "submarine" always has a sinister connotation, and this has been emphasized by the raids of mysterious "pirate" undersea craft in the Mediterranean. Germany, as every one knows, was the first "submarine" power, but she has been surpassed in this respect since the World War, and today the United States has the most submarines.

An engrossing report on world submarine strength is contained in an article appearing in next Sunday's Star. —The Evening Star.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE STARS IN WEE WILLIE WINKIE

Kipling's colorful characters live glamorously, adventurously and courageously on adventure's last frontier in the Twentieth Century-Fox picturization of his famed "Wee Willie Winkie," Oct. 7-8 at Pitts' Theatre, at Manassas, with Shirley Temple and Victor McLaglen in the starring roles.

From the heart of mighty India, where all the world is wild and strange, where the British ends at Khyber Pass, in the land of the Bengal Lancers comes this glorious adventure of the Scottish Highlanders in action and of the little girl who won the right to wear their plaid.

The most spectacular production in which Shirley Temple has yet appeared, "Wee Willie Winkie" gives Victor McLaglen a powerful role as a fearless, fighting fool, and provides splendid opportunities to C. Aubrey Smith, June Lang, Michael Whalen, Cesar Romero, Constance Collier and young Douglas Scott.

Life at a frontier army post in India is not too happy for Shirley and her widowed mother June Lang, for her grandfather, C. Aubrey Smith, is a gruff old disciplinarian. The youngster decides that the only way to win the Colonel's approval is to become a soldier herself, and her friend, Michael Whalen, a young lieutenant, turns her over for training to the burly sergeant Victor McLaglen who dubs her "Wee Willie Winkie" because of the quaint way she has of screwing up her elbow when she asks questions.

THE WORLD AROUND US

By O. J. Schuster

WORLD AFFAIRS ARE A MESS. The rampant savagery in Spain and China is horrifying to all decent minds.

TO DENOUNCE JAPAN, hurl verbal bullets at Mussolini and Hitler, is no more effective than pop-guns on a battleship.

ENGLAND IS NOT the only nation guilty of such banditry. The record of our own nation is far from spotless.

WHAT SHOULD BE DONE in the present world crisis? We are hopelessly stupid if the World War, four years of wholesale slaughter of men, women, and children, has not taught us that war settles nothing.

A NATION CAN BE REFORMED only by itself. No nation can reform another nation, any more than one person can reform another person.

BREEDEN-WOLFE

Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe, of Brentsville, announce the marriage of their daughter, Olive Marye Wolfe to Mr. Morgan Henry Breeden.

NOKESVILLE

On Monday evening, Sept. 27, the members of the Church of the Brethren gave a complete Birthday Surprise for their Pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. N. J. Miller, whose birthdays are only a couple days apart.

We all met at the Club Room, then Mr. Clyde Summers went over to escort the Pastor and his wife to, what was believed to be, a business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller were seated at a beautifully decorated table in center of the room.

Mr. W. F. Hale called the meeting to order. Bro. George Beahm took charge of the devotion period. Then we were favored with several numbers of musics which were enjoyed by all.

At this time there was the presentation of two special gifts. Mrs. A. D. Sines representing the Women's Organization, presented Mrs. Miller with a lovely many blue silk dress.

Mr. W. F. Hale, representing the Men's Organization, presented Rev. Miller with a beautiful blue serge suit, and hat.

There were many other smaller but useful gifts along the line of household needs.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Miller expressed their thanks and deep appreciation for the gifts and for the splendid spirit which exists among the people.

Everyone enjoyed a very socialable evening together.

The meeting was adjourned after tasteful refreshments were served by the women.

Those present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brahm, Rost Lee Brahm, Robert Brahm, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Beall, Mrs. R. S. Britton, Albert Carr, Mrs. Ida B. The regular meeting of the Community League will be held Wednesday, October 6, at 8:00 in the High School Auditorium.

WATERFALL

(There interesting notes from our Waterfall correspondent were omitted last week.)

We read it in the papers that Saturday, September the eighteenth was the coldest eighteenth of September recorded in history. Surely Monday the twentieth can be recorded as the most ideal. Was there ever a more perfect day? So lovely it was, we forgot our infirmities and wondered down the hill, drinking in the beauty of the cloudless sky, the landscape, and the remote distance clear as a crystal glass.

An ancient crab apple tree with its scarlet fruit beckoned us on, as we remembered the delicious jelly it had furnished the family for generations. Then it seemed only a step across the pasture to the edge of the forest, where once grew a clump of hazel nut bushes; yes, we would try it. On our way a flock of quail feeding on elder berries flew almost from under our feet into the thicket of wild grapes that festooned the undergrowth, which seemed to be teeming with life. Cautiously parting the weeds and brush, we took a peep, expecting to see an army of squirrels. Tell-tale hazel nut husks were all we found.

Not a sound to be heard, in a moment everything was silent as the Arctic wastes. All around we saw that Nature had bountifully provided for her children of the wild. We saw a beautiful spice wood resplendent with berries, nearby was a bunch of hawthorn also laden with fruit. Then a sugarberry, wild grapes and acorns. And how we missed the chestnut trees where dozens once grew on the hill side nearby, which after the passing of the chestnut blight were no more. Is there anything to make up to the children of today who know nothing of the joy of chestnut time? Can we recall anything that gave us more pleasure, from tots to teens, than to be up at the break of dawn, and away to the trees, to be the first to arrive, and back in time for breakfast with loads of delicious brown nuts? Remember the feasts we had roasting them before the open fire place? Oh Joy! We saw a chestnut sapling growing by an old stump, Blight please don't come back and get it.

Too soon we realized how much easier it is to go down the hill, than to climb up. Laboriously we started back to our perch on top of the hill, which commands a view from the mountains all around to the sea, which makes it hard to realize we are so near to nature and the primitive. The memories of this delightful morning so fills our being, we put it down and pass it on. What matter if we served Sunday left overs for lunch. We had had a feast that satisfied the soul.

INDEPENDENT HILL

On the second Sunday of October beginning at 1:00, the Sunday School will open. Immediately after Rev. Runion of the Dunkard Church will begin an evangelistic service.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wine have been requested to lead the singing. There will also be special music. The meeting will then be opened for testimonials. All Christian people who can attend are invited to come and we'll have a place on the program for them.

There will be a special talk on the subject of Prayer and the power of Prayer and its place in the church today.

It will close with a special talk on how the Sunday School can be managed in Coles Magisterial District.

All persons who can attend this service are cordially invited, especially the ministry. The Brace Class of Nokesville is specially invited.

Taxpayers

good fortune to have had the government spend nearly half a million dollars in our county buying land that heretofore has not been productive enough to pay the taxes on it. Moreover I call on Mr. Roland to present to the taxpayers of this county just how much revenue the county has been robbed of as a result of the Federal Government coming into the county and establishing two very much desired projects, spending besides the money used in purchasing land, hundreds and hundreds of thousands of dollars in materials, payrolls and the like. Does Mr. Roland mean that we are the worse off for having lost a few unproductive acres of land that will be devoted to worthwhile uses? No observant person will try to delude the people into thinking that we are not better off with these projects in our county than we would have been in had this Government money never been spent. It is my opinion, and it has always been rigidly practiced by me, that a family should not discard a good car, just because a new model has struck the market, just because family pride urges keeping up with the neighbors, unless the purchaser was able to pay the bill. Nothing in business has less of my sympathy than the debtor, unable to prove his solvency, who incurs further debts at the expense of his friends who have already extended him credit. In the case of our county, however, we have a much different picture. The county is not behind with any of its due debts. There is not a single debt owed by the county, and which is now due, cannot be paid.

I am at odds to know just why Mr. Roland has reversed himself in this matter. If he can prove to the Board that enlarging the courthouse will cause pressing social needs to be neglected, I have no doubt whatever that plans for enlarging the courthouse will be delayed until such time as such other needs can be fully provided for. Is Mr. Roland trying to work it so enough of this A. B. C. money will be diverted from the county Treasury, outright, at the expense of the whole county, to relieve his District of repaying to the county Treasury the $2,500.00 which was borrowed by Gainesville District, for District purposes, and which according to the minutes of the Board of Supervisors is expected to be repaid by that District.

If any person is really interested to know whether the courthouse needs to be enlarged, and modernized, let him or her come to the courthouse and look around. It will be seen that the county Treasurer and his staff, with the books, records, equipment and all that is necessary to the treasurer, and the county Commissioner of Revenue, and his corresponding records and equipment are all packed into one small office. All these records are valuable, and their loss because of fire (the present one not being fire-proof) could not be replaced.

The county Clerk's Office suffers even more than the Treasurer's Office. The land records, document files, reading and working counters for the use of the public, are wholly inadequate, and situated so as to make their use interfere with the normal duties and operations of the Clerk's Office.

The county School Superintendent's and Rural School Supervisor's Offices are together, but they are entitled to larger and separate quarters. This naturally handicaps their work.

This is one of the few counties which does not have a Sheriff's Office. The unquestioned importance of this responsibility demands that space be provided for our Sheriff to keep his files and other records.

The county does not now have any space for the county nurse or Superintendent of Public Welfare, except that for which the county pays rent. The Trial Justice should have a separate court room.

A separate room for the Board of Supervisors and the County School Board can well be afforded.

A long drawn out discussion of this

A CORRECTION

We wish to correct certain inaccuracies in last week's account of the tragic death in Manassas of Baxter Blevins and John Burgess, who were struck by a Southern Railway train on Monday, September 20.

The facts were that Mr. Blevins was not taken to the hospital, but received prompt medical attention, dying in a few minutes from his fearful injuries.

Mr. Burgess, who suffered fatal internal injuries and severe skull lacerations, was rushed to a hospital, but died enroute.

Removal Notice . . .

I take this opportunity to thank you again for the hearty and loyal support you have given me during the past twenty years at 118 South Battle Street, where I have served you.

I am now located at 128 South Battle Street, two doors south of my old location. I am now better equipped than ever before to take care of your watches and clocks.

A watch, you know, is a very fine sort of a machine, designed to give you correct time. If not scientifically repaired and correctly adjusted it will not register time properly.

I carry a good line of watches for both men and women, priced from $1.25 to $35. Clocks $1.25 and up. Others from $8 to $15—Elgin, Waltham and Illinois.

Bring in that watch that has failed to give satisfaction. An estimate of the cost to repair will be given without any cost or obligation on your part.
