STUDENT GROUP AT CONVENTION

Cooperative Association Active in Prince William.

Thelma Ward and Jack Herrell, of Osbourn High School, are attending a Student Cooperative Association Convention being held in Roanoke, Virginia on October 21 and 22. Thelma Ward is a representative for the County while Jack Herrell represents the school.

Accompanying them is Reverend DeChant, President of the Parent-Teachers Association who is attending meetings of the S. C. A. and also, those of the Parent-Teacher.

The purpose of these meetings to afford an opportunity for each school to present its problems of student government and to discuss ways of improving its system. Well-known speakers are present who are offering suggestions and plans for each school and who are attempting to show the delegates what should be done, to overcome their various problems. Reports are being presented by the delegates from each school. The following is a summary of the report of work accomplished in Prince William County during the past year, which was submitted by Thelma Ward.

"The Prince William County Federation of Student Cooperative Association is composed of thirteen-Banner organizations with a membership of 2400.

The Federation has coordinated the work of the associations by setting up objectives for the county-wide program tending to fulfill the ideal of the school and the community growing together."

Money was raised during the year and expended in the work of the community. Standing committees on Health Building and Ground Improvement, Library, Programs, Civic Improvement, Red Cross, and Publicity exist in nearly all the schools and act as the working agencies for the realization of the set of objectives.

The Federation has emphasized the development of student participation in the government of the school and has one school in which student government has existed for several years, that school being a charter member of the State Association for Student Participation in Government, and two schools in which student government is being inaugurated this session for the first time. All schools are creating some form of student government.

The District S. C. A. has appointed a committee from the County to conduct a study of student government in Northern Virginia for the purpose of creating greater interest throughout the District in this form of school control.

The Chairman of the Northern Virginia S. C. A. is from the County and the next annual meeting of the District will be held at the Osbourn High School, which is in Prince William County.

On Thursday night the delegates are being entertained at a party given at Jefferson High School. During the program a play will be presented in which Jack Herrell plays the part of Aladdin.

CHURCH MEETING VERY EVENTFUL

Winchester Conference Hears
Great Preacher

The last Annual Conference recently held in Winchester, Va., is regarded as one of the best, most inspirational and most spiritual of any conference held in recent years. The old question of Unification so bitterly argued during the past 10 years, had worn itself out and clerical and lay members were at peace. Undoubtedly however, the greatest influence of all was the Bishop himself. Bishop Moore is of the younger type of men and thinkers: a man full of the Holy Spirit and a desire to have the church move forward for the salvation of all mankind and impressing upon the clergy that their one and only business in the ministry was the saving of souls; nothing else to be considered.

Before the Conference was 24 hours old, it was realized that the church building, large as it is was unable to accommodate all who wished to attend its sessions. The fame of the bishop had spread thruout the city, not that "advanced agents" had circualized his coming, but because any one getting within hearing distance were impressed by the man and the things he had to say. So great was the interest taken by the general public, that the Handley school auditorium seating 2700, the largest hall in the city, was tendered the Conference for its Sunday morning service at which the bishop was to preach. This hall was filled to capacity and overflowed into the adjacent gymnasium, resulting in the largest audience ever assembled in the city for a religious service. To show the capacity of the man and his willingness to serve, it is stated that in addition to all his other work, he will preside over 10 different conferences this year located on four continents. All sessions of the conference were full of interest to the extent that all its members, both clerical and lay, received an inspiration which will help thruout the coming year's work.

At the closing session on the last day the appointments were read sending the "workers" forth into the respective vineyards for another year's work. Among others the Rev. A. B. Sapp was returned to the Sudley charge where he will be welcomed by his people as he begins his fifth year of service in this field.

REPUBLICAN OPEN CAMPAIGN

Salvos were fired at Democrats last week as Virginia Republicans opened their campaign for votes at the Nov. 2 general election. In a statement issued in Floyd County, J. Powell Royall of Tazewell, Republican candidate for governor, posed more than a dozen questions which he said had not been answered by the Democrats. He declared that his Democratic opponent, (James H. Price) has not "taken his fellow Democrats into his confidence by telling what he stood for". He said "no one desires to prod Mr. Price into making any indiscreet or unwise commitments, but I am unwilling to believe that the people of Virginia are willing to elect a man to the high office of governor who refuses to tell what he stands for, if elected."

Traveling together on a speaking tour that started last week in Southwest Virginia, are Royall, Dr. S. A. Reynolds of Pittsylvania County, candidate for lieutenant governor, and Gerould M. Rumble of Norfolk, for attorney general. Included in the tour are speeches to be given at rallies in Hillsville, Independence, Harrisonburg, Woodstock, Winchester, Culpeper and Norfolk.

SCHOOL BENEFIT

Mr. Ben Pitts is allowing sale of tickets by local scholars for the shows on Monday and Tuesday night.

The fund is for the health fund, including the dental clinic and hot lunches for underprivileged children.

THE TRAP

NATIONAL DAIRY SHOW LURES FARM BOYS

Osborn High School was very proud to have three representatives, Gilbert Rollins, Selwyn Smith and aris Collins, at the National Dairy Show held on the State Fair Grounds at Columbus, Ohio.

Gilbert Rollins of Manassas, W. T. Berry of Texas, Bryce Wycker of Ohio, and Harry Smith of Kansas were participants in a humorous discussion of crops and the products of different sections of the country which was broadcast over station W.O.S.U. The discussion was headed by Mr. Blackman, chairman of Extension Work at Columbus University.

Two awards were won by Selwyn Smith. The first, a fourth prize for the judging of Ayreshires, and the second, a third prize for the judging of Brown Swiss.

While in Columbus, the delegates were entertained with races and games, a horse show, and an extensive tour of the Ohio State University.

In expressing their opinions the boys stated that such an interesting event should be looked forward to with greater enthusiasm and plans should be laid for a bigger and better time.

AN ENJOYABLE EVENING

The teachers of Prince William County, dressed in unique and attractive costumes, were entertained at a "Children's party" on Wednesday evening, October 13, at Manassas High School Auditorium. The decorations followed the theme of Halloween. During the evening, entertainment was provided by the faculties of the various schools presenting stunts. ## MERCHANT-COCKE

The wedding of Miss Evelyn Harrison Cocke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fauntleroy Cocke, and Mr. John Holt Merchant, son of Mrs. William Merchant and the late Dr. Merchant, was solemnized Friday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at Trinity Episcopal Church, Manassas. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, rector, and the Very Reverend Noble C. Powell, Dean of the Washington Cathedral. Lillies, ferns and cathedral candles were used on the altar and served as a background for the ceremony.

The bride entered on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. Her gown was of white satin made on princess lines. Her only ornament was a pin of pearls and a diamond, a family heirloom, worn at the neck. Her train length fell from a simple coronet of white satin. Her bouquet was of lillies.

Her matron-of-honor was Mrs. Walter Camden Whitehead, of Chatham, cousin of the bride. Her dress was of rose taffeta made on old fashioned lines with which she wore a Mary Stuart hat of the same material. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of garden flowers.

Miss Mary Fauntleroy Cocke, sister of the bride, was her maid-of-honor. Her dress of old blue was made along the same lines as that of the matron-of-honor.

Capt. John Wood, of Washington, was his cousin's best man. The ushers were Mr. Sedrick Saunders, Mr. R. Jackson Ratcliffe, Mr. P. J. Arrington, and Mr. J. E. Bradford, all of Manassas.

A reception at the home of the bride for the wedding party, relatives, and out-of-town guests followed the ceremony. In the receiving line were the bridal couple, Mrs. Cocke, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Merchant, mother of the groom.

After a trip to Bermuda the couple will be at home in Manassas.

REV. HALPENNY DIES AT HOME

Beloved Minister Attained Age of 96.

The funeral of Rev. Jacob Halpenny, who died Sunday, October 17, was held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the United Brethren Church, with the Pastor, Rev. O. R. Kesner, in charge of the service. Other ministers having part in the service were, Rev. H. Paul Baker, Pastor of the M. E. Church South, and Rev. U. S. A. Hevener, Pastor of the St. Paul's M. E. Church, Kensington, Md., who delivered the sermon.

Pall bearers were Messrs. M. J. Hottle, Charles Fisher, W. L. Coverston, Paul Cooksey and J. L. Bushong. A choir composed of members of the different church choirs of the town, sang at the service. Mr. Carl Orbaugh, of Washington, D. C., sang as a solo "How Beautiful Heaven Must Be." Interment was in the Manassas cemetery.

Rev. Mr. Halpenny was born in Ontario, Canada, August 14, 1841, and was honored with an exceptionally long and fruitful life, having passed his ninety-sixth birthday, when the call came to "come up higher." On Sept. 22, 1869 he was married to Miss Annis Dorothy Stevens of the Province of Quebec, who died in 1914. A second marriage was to Miss Callie Bell of Manassas, Va. She, with three of his six children survive.

Very early in life, Mr. Halpenny became a Christian, and when but twenty years of age was made an exhorter by the Wesleyan Methodist church, and a few years later, at the age of twenty-six, was given his first pastorate. His seventy years as a minister of the Gospel led him into two provinces of Canada, and seven states of the United States, including Vermont, Alabama, Kentucky, Maryland, Virginia, and West Virginia. His last appointment was at Bloomington Circuit in West Virginia of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He retired from the active ministry in 1914, continuing to preach whenever called upon in any church, as his strength would permit, until 1932 when his health failed so that he was no longer able to preach.

While in active service he never missed an appointment unless he was ill. On one circuit he had to swim his horse across the James river several times to reach an appointment. On another circuit he walked 1500 miles to carry on the work of the circuit. While in active service as a minister, he travelled as many miles as it would take to circle the world five times. He held revival services at every appointment where he was pastor, and had the joy of witnessing over 2,250 people accept Christ as their Savior.

Since his retirement, he has lived in Manassas where he was held in highest esteem by every one who knew him. For many years he was President of the Manassas Ministerial Association, retiring from this responsibility at his own request three years ago, when he was no longer able to attend the regular meetings. He has since then been regarded as Honorary President. Of him it can truly be said: As a Minister of the Gospel, and as a citizen, he has erected his own monument in the lives of his fellowmen, who have been touched and influenced by his noble, Christian life. Though he has responded to the call, "come home," he will continue to live in the contribution he has made to the world in a life well lived.

NEW YORK OCULIST—OPTICIAN MAKES LAST VISIT

Dr. M. Milton Talkin whose interest in better vision has been of inestimable value to scores of people from this and other sections will be here again on Tuesday, October 26th to meet such of our readers who may choose to consult him.
Since this will be his last visit until next March persons whose eyes weak should avail themselves of this opportunity. Long nights are coming when persons read more. This is especially trying to the eyes if they are subnormal. A check-up does away with guessing as to their condition. This is the only way to determine whether or not aid is needed.

Dr. M. Milton Talkin has been coming here upward of twenty years, and his father who was one of the pioneers in optics used to visit Virginia more than a half a century ago. The work that he began is continued by his son.

OUR PEACETIME NAVY

America has a great naval tradition to uphold, and every October 27, the birthday of Theodore Roosevelt, so much of whose life was devoted to establishing a firm naval policy for the United States, is set aside as Navy day. Sea power is a balance in the Pacific or belligerent movements of nations today. What lies behind America's 1937 naval policy is told in a thoroughgoing, informative Navy day article in the feature section of The Washington Star this coming Sunday, October 24.

CATHARPIN

The ladies of the Missionary society are going forward with preparations for their annual bazaar and supper to be held in the dining rooms of Sudley church on Friday, October 22 at 12 M and lasting thruout the afternoon and night until all are satisfied. The menu will consist of turkey, oysters, potatoes, cabbage—w-w-wait a minute; guess they call that "slaw", and just about everything one needs as an accessory to a well ordered dinner. Sudley awaits you with pleasure.

Miss Ann Robertson, a student at State Teachers' College, Fredericksburg, Va., spent the week-end with her parents at Lawn Vale and reports a large enrollment at the institution.

Mrs. L. L. Lynn and daughter, Elizabeth, spent the past week with Mrs. Lynn's sister, Mrs. Stephenson at that fast growing city of Front Royal.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Senseney, of Crovaton, have recently moved to Front Royal where great building projects anent the new factories now being erected in that industrial city are now in order.

Well, the first "killink" frost came our way last week and as a result the trees are beginning to "molt" and put on their coat of many colors and the landscape assuming a most gorgeous appearance. Seeding has been held up by some recent rains but corn shucking is raging and a mighty good crop it is. Last spring our weather prophet brigade forecast a wet summer, which in a measure was realized. Now being encouraged by past successes, these same prophets and seers are predicting a wet winter.

We used to hear an old saying away back yonder when signs, omens and the Hagerstown almanac used to rule the weather, that when horns built high or low that the winter would be either mild or boisterous accordingly; but we have forgotten just which way around the prophesy went. At any rate, we are the proud possessor of a large horns nest about the size of a 3-gallon wooden pail, beautifully shaped and hanging well to the top of one of our tall poplars, which position, we believe, may safely be rated as "high". So we now present this all important "omen" for the careful consideration of all professional and amateur prognosticators for final "adjudication" as to what sort of weather we may expect during the coming winter months.

Mrs. Paul Allison, a granddaughter-in-law of Marble Hill, who has been a patient in the Emergency hospital, Washington, suffering from a severe attack of peritonitis, is now reported much improved and may be able to return home this week.

Mr. Frank W. Brower and son, Junior, of Price, Md., were week-end visitors in the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Brower of Lone Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Collins, of Marble Hill, had as recent guests, Mrs. J. H. Tolley and sister, Miss Mamie Baker of Hampton, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hawkins of Lexington, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Barge, of Washington.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Julia Fair, which occurred at her home near Canora, Va., Oct. 9th.

WATERFALL

It seems too good to be true, but folks, we are getting out of the mud. The road from Woolsey to Antioch has been treated to a layer of crushed rock, and the good work still going on. At present it makes rather rough traveling and hard on tires, but we hope all this will soon be rolled and packed to a smooth surface. Immediately after the State took over the highways, this road was graded and surfaced with road building soil and mountain shale, which for a time was fine, but did not survive the heavy traffic or the winter freezes and thaws. Still it was a wonderful improvement over the old system and extended to the old pike, now the John Marshall Highway.

When we think of the "good old days" we can also remember the good roads with several inches of dust in summer, and axle deep mud in winter, when usually it was an all day job to hook old "Dobbin to the Shay," drive to store, await our turn to deal, load up with the necessities of life and start the slow trek back home. Little shopping was done elsewhere those days, when wages were less than half what they are today, and train fare twice the present rate. Today we can drive to the city in the morning, do our shopping keep an appointment with our optometrist or dentist, and if we don't stay to a movie or have a wreck, can be back home in time for lunch. The Old Bible prophet had a far vision when he prophesied.

"The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall jostle against one another in the Broadways. They shall seem like torches. They shall run like lightning."

How little we realized when we saw our first auto that it was the beginning of a new era. We would have gladly consigned it to the lower regions for throwing a dust screen that ruined our best clothes and left us sneezing dust the rest of the day.

Interesting stories indeed we have to pass on to our grandchildren of those days when the chinaman said, "Nothing pullie, nothing pushie, run like hellie," when horses jumped the fences still hooked to the buggies, and of the old mare that dropped dead from fright.

Mrs. Margaret Berkeley, widow of the late T. L. Berkeley spent the last several days visiting friends in this vicinity, and seeing to the disposal of her former home, Mountain Rest, after a few days with friends in Washington. She will return to her home in Hartwell, Ga.

Mr. Milton Trumbull, of Washington accompanied by his mother, visited their cousins, Miss Grace Mc Donough and Mrs. G. A. Gossom on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Thomas and daughter, Betty, spent Sunday with friends in Alexandria.

Robert L. Smith celebrated his twenty third birthday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Smith on Sunday, Beside all of the family at the festive board were several of his friends from the city.

CATLETT

The girls' basketball team and the boys' soccer team will play the Calverton teams on Thursday, October 21, at Calverton.

Miss Ramsey spent the week-end at her home in Bassett, Virginia.

An oyster supper was given at Greenwich in the O. F. A. hall Tuesday evening, October 19.

Miss Morris returned to school after being absent for a week.

On Friday, 22, the teachers will attend the District Teachers' meeting at Arlington.

Miss Sloop spent the week-end at her home in Harrisonburg.

Miss Scott spent the week-end at her home in Oamasus.

MANASSAS-HAYMARKET F. F. A. BOYS ATTEND LIVESTOCK SHOW

Twenty-six members of the Manassas and Haymarket F. F. A. Chapters, accompanied by their instructor, Mr. R. R. Fishpaw, attended the Livestock Show and Public Auction in Baltimore, Thursday, Oct. 8th. There were approximately 350 beef calves shown and later auctioned off. The average price was from 16 to 19 cents per pound.

While in Baltimore they were shown through the Greenwalt Packing Plant which is one of the largest slaughter houses in Maryland. Sheep and cattle were being killed at that time and the boys saw the different process livestock go through from the time it is killed until it is ready for the consumer.

On the return trip the members had a very interesting tour of the United States Department of Agriculture Experiment Farm at Beltsville, Md. This is the largest experiment farm conducted by the Government.

Upon returning home the boys felt that they not only had a good time, but the knowledge derived from the trip gave them a greater desire to cure the fundamentals essential for return to school and endeavor to success in modern farming.

SHOWER FOR MISS RUTH SMITH

Miss Smith received many lovely gifts which were presented in a most attractive manner. Miss Elizabeth Davies dressed as a typical negro mammy and Althea and Lucille Hooft as pickaninnies presented Miss Smith with a cotton pickers' sack filled with the gifts.

The Southern Atmosphere was carried out during the evening by the pickaninnies dancing the "Big Apple" and southern songs were sung by Mrs. Howard Rutan of Washington.

HOWARD HAISLIP

Mr. Howard Haislip died at 1 a.m. on Friday morning, October 15th, 1937 at his late residence near Catharpin. Funeral services conducted in Sudley church the following Sunday, October 17th, at 2 p.m. by the Rev. John M. DeChant, of the Manassas Presbyterian church and District President of the Order of Fraternal Americans of which organization the deceased was a member. Services at the grave being conducted according to the ritual of that organization. Mr. Haislip was a native of the Catharpin neighborhood and had spent the whole of the 68 years of his life in the land of his nativity, a quiet, peaceful, unobtrusive citizen who did no one harm but always followed the even tenor of his way through the quiet life he had always lived. In passing he leaves his wife, mother and sister and many friends to regret his demise. Thus again are we reminded that the older inhabitants who during the past half century or more, had much to do with the life of this community, are passing, one by one, to the Great Beyond.
