JUDGE SMITH AT CHARLOTTESVILLE

Introduces Postmaster General Farley at Dedication

On Wednesday the Postmaster General of the United States journeyed to Charlottesville, Virginia, to dedicate the new post office, and contrary to the prognostications of Washington newspapers, played no favorites in the Eighth District Congressional Campaign. Questioned directly on the subject Mr. Farley replied, "The Democratic national chairman takes no part in local primaries."

The Postmaster General was introduced by Hon. Howard W. Smith, who praised Mr. Farley's "statesmanship, fine qualities and genius for organization."

Much had been made in Washington newspaper columns of the fact that Postmaster General Farley and Judge Smith's opponent had gone to Charlottesville on the same railroad train. This means, Washington newspapers stated, that Jim Farley has entered the Democratic Primary in northern Virginia.

The Governor of Virginia, Hon. James L. Price, who also has been slated by Washington newspapers to take sides in the Eighth District Primary was also present, and like the Postmaster General, and President Roosevelt, made no gesture of personal favoritism in the primary campaign.

Speaking before a large audience, Chairman Farley stated in reference to the post office department that its 1938 receipts so far were more than $1,000,000 more than the annual receipts for 1937.

MOTHER OF RADFORD

COLLEGE DEAN DIES

Mrs. Mary S. Moffett, 79, widow of William Ledgerwood Moffett and Mother of Dean M'Ledger Moffett of Radford State Teachers college, died there last week.

She was born near Warrensburg, Missouri, but moved in infancy to Cincinnati, Ohio, where she was reared and educated. She was a principal of schools in Cincinnati and after her marriage to Mr. Moffett, she moved to Virginia where she was a pioneer in teacher training in Rockbridge county, and was supervising principal of schools at Lincoln, Manassas and Herndon. For fifteen years she taught in the summer school at the University at Virginia and was active in the educational work of the state for over 30 years, having held many offices in state associations.

Mrs. Moffett came to Radford in 1916 and for many years was identified with the Women's club, church work and particularly with the war relief movement in Radford.

She is survived by one daughter, Dean Moffett and ten nieces and nephews who make their homes in Ohio.

Services were held at Tyler Memorial Presbyterian church last week, conducted by the Rev. G. A. Daniel, pastor of the Tyler Memorial Presbyterian church. Interment was at Sunrise Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were: J. P. Whitt, H. C. Graybeal, H. M. Stafford, Tom Jones, S. L. McConnell, C. K. Howe, Jr., all of Radford, and J. M. Baker, the latter of Salem. Honorary pallbearers were members of the faculty of the college.

MOSES A.C. DEFEATS HUME

Sunday Moses A. C. traveled to Hume for a double header. They won both games by a score of 10 to 7 and 17 to 7.

Snoddy and Spain were the winning pitchers.

In the second game Godfrey, Bradshaw and Snoddy knocked a home run.

The Moses A.C., of Haymarket plays two games against Catlett on July 10th, at Haymarket. They come home after a fine road trip, winning all five games.

The team is improved 100 per cent and headed for the top. It received some fine pitching from Spain also from Snoddy last Sunday. The club is hitting and fielding like a big league club, and with the four new players added for next Sunday you can look for two good games. Be sure and come out and see us.

MAYOR FRANK IN TOWN

Our esteemed friend, Mayor Tom Frank of Warrenton, paid us a call today. We are always glad to see him. He is looking fine.

YOUNG DEMOCRATIC DANCE

The Young Democrats of Prince William County will hold a dance at the Haymarket High School on the evening of Wednesday, July 13.

Mrs. William Taylor, president of the Prince William Young Democrats, has arranged for refreshments to be sold for the enjoyment of the dancers and spectators.

Due to the recent membership increase and renewed enthusiasm shown in the county club, and to the unusually fine orchestra engaged for the occasion, a record crowd is expected to attend.

MILLER REUNION AT NOKESVILLE

Friends and Relatives of S. J. Miller Until on July 4

The family and nephews and nieces and a few friends of S. J. Miller held a reunion with him July 4, four generations of the family being present. He is the only one of his generation living. Mr. S. E. Garber originated and promoted the idea. Seventy-one names were registered, Harrisonburg furnishing twenty-one.

Mr. Miller and family moved from Bridgewater to Prince William County March 23, 1904, on Mrs. Miller's birthday.

The day was ideal, and it seemed every one enjoyed the occasion to the full. Being a deeply religious and socially inclined group the fellowship was rich and sweet. The high peak was reached at noon when a wonderful basket dinner was spread on improvised tables under the trees on the side lawn. An expectant pause, a hymn of fervent thanksgiving by Elder L. S. Miller, a nephew, and then, but what's the use, words are futile things with which to attempt to express the pleasure and satisfaction of the hour that followed.

During the afternoon part of the group gathered around the piano, led by Olin Miller, with Miss Edna Miller playing many old familiar songs were sung with enthusiasm.

Those present: Mrs. Ira S. Flory and Frances of Baton Rouge, La.; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Miller of Roanoke; Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wright and Leon and Loren J. Miller, and Misses Regina Pifer, Waltine Crickenberger, and Brida Miller; Mr. and Mrs. John S. Wright, Vernie Ethel of Mt. Crawford; Mrs. R. A. Bauserman of Spring Creek; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Garber, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Garber, and Mrs. Mary E. Miller and Cora of Bridge-water; Elder and Mrs. L. S. Miller, Leo and Howard, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Miller and Lloyd F., Mrs. J. W. S. Myers, Tressie V., Myrtle A., Anna Mae; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin P. Myers and Alvin Lee, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Adams, Ora Adams and Lucille, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Miller and Anne Marie of Harrisonburg; Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Miller, Hazel and Ruby, Mr. and Mrs. Leo G. Miller and Patricia Ann of Herndon; Mr. and Mrs. David Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, Miss Edna D. Miller, Mr. Wilbur E. Miller of Wash., D. C., Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Garber, Mrs. Lena M. Shirkey and Gertrude, Mrs. Alverta E. Beahm and H. Early, Elder and Mrs. N. J. Miller and Cornelia, and Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Miller of Nokesville.

OBJECTS OF ART EXHIBIT

The committee in charge of the proposed art exhibit, which is to be held next Wednesday, are much encouraged at the response they are receiving. It is surprising how many of real artistic ability have been quietly exercising their talents. Oil paintings water colors, crayons, pen and pencil sketches have been brought to light in considerable numbers. Hooked and braided rugs, and such things as patch worked comforters in unique design should be shown. Even antiques like the samplers of our grandmothers help to make the exhibit interesting. In handcraft, woodcarvings and inlays are to be brightened up for the exhibit.

The place decided upon is the newly decorated Sunday School Room of the Presbyterian Church; the time, next Wednesday, July 13, from 2:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. A silver admission is asked to help pay the expenses. No prizes will be offered as it is believed there are none here competent judge between the displays.

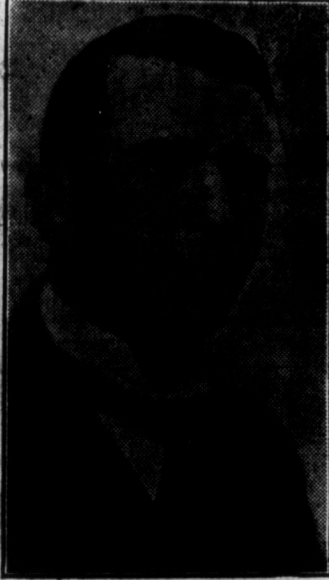

Exhibitors will please notify Mrs. J. L. Bushong and arrangements will be made to take the art object to place of exhibition.

HON. HOWARD W. SMITH PRESENTS AWARDS

James A. Farley

Post master General of the United States

Howard W. Smith
Congressman

Hon. James A. Farley, who was introduced by Judge Smith at the Post Office Dedication at Charlottesville Wednesday, stated that, "The Democratic National Chairman Takes No Part in Local Primaries."

THE RUFFNER-CARNEGIE "FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY"

At the High School Alumni banquet this June a plan was put before the members by the school librarian to organize a group of "Friends of the Library". Such groups are now being formed by many college and city libraries. They range from compact organizations like those of the University of Chicago or the New York Public Library, with extensive constitutions and annual membership dues, to the simple plan used by Princeton University which has no constitution, no membership dues and no officers except a recording secretary. The one qualification for membership in the Princeton plan is to be interested in the Library.

Since Manassas is already well supplied with clubs, it was proposed that the Ruffner-Carnegie Library should form a group of the "Friends of the Library" on the Princeton plan with the Alumni Association as sponsor, but with membership open to any one interested and willing to give some assistance to the Library if occasion should arise. This assistance, which would be optional on the part of the member, might take any of the following forms:

1. Gifts of money for the purchase of books.
2. Gifts of books (Suggestions as to books which could be obtained at any time from a list kept by the librarian).
3. The location of books not in use or of duplicate books whose owners might be willing to part with them to the Library as a gift or at a small cost.

Such books might be of a type to interest the general public, or to better the facilities of the Library as a workshop for students and teachers.

INNO MCGILL

Prince William County lost a notable citizen in the death on Tuesday last of Miss Inno McGill, of Haymarket.

The deceased was born on December 27, 1873, in Georgetown, D. C. She was the daughter of John B. and Mary Jane Nolan McGill.

The funeral was held this morning at All Saints Catholic Church, Father Widmer conducting the mass. Interment followed at Holy Rood Cemetery in Georgetown. The pallbearers were T. E. Didlake, H. T. Davies, Sr., F. R. Hynson, John Sweeney, Wade C. Payne, Jr., and Sam Bleight.

During her long residence in Prince William, Miss Inno, as everyone called her, achieved fame as a journalist. She was a sincere and ardent Roman Catholic, having joined that church as a young girl. She was also a club and civic worker of county-wide reputation. Most notable of these were the Catholic Woman's Club and the Prince William Chapter of the National Red Cross.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to her sister, Miss Loretta, and to other relatives.

PIE SOCIAL

A pie social with games and music will be held at Greenwich School, Tuesday night, July 12 at 8:00 p.m. Benefit Greenwich Senior 4-H Club. Everybody come.

TO TAXPAYERS OF TOWN OF OCCOQUAN:

Notice is hereby given that the list of Real Estate in the Town of Occoquan, Virginia, Delinquent for TAXES for the Year 1937, will be published for thirty days beginning next week, after which the said list, or so much thereof as may remain unpaid will be recorded in the delinquent land book in the County Clerk's Office.

EDGAR R. SHANKLIN,
Town Clerk.

WHOSE PANTS DID CLEVE HAVE ON?

According to Cleve Russell, he had to borrow clothes to wear to the Young Democratic meeting Tuesday night. He borrowed, he said, a coat from Senator Ed. but no pants, as Ed said he had just made a trade with Judge Smith and only had one pair left. Hawes Davies, Sr., said that if the Judge traded with Ed the Judge would lose all his clothes.

But Cleve did have on pants at the meeting which were not his. Whom did he trade with?

Upon being asked what he wore to Manassas, Cleve evasively remarked that the weather was warm.

T. B. CLINIC BEGINS JULY 25

Applicants Must Secure Request from A Doctor

Beginning July 25th a tuberculosis chest and x-ray clinic, conducted by a specialist of the Virginia State Health Department, in cooperation with the Prince William County Health Department, Tuberculosis Association, and physicians of the county, will be held in the Court House at Manassas, Virginia.

Tuberculosis is a communicable disease which accounts for its running in families and for this reason, anyone who has been around a person who died with lung trouble should be examined once a year as a precaution, and at any other time he feels bad in any way.

Anyone desiring examination must have a signed request from his family physician and must consult the nurse about an appointment. If any treatment is found necessary, it should be carried out by the family physician on whose care and advice all individuals depend for their health and happiness.

It has long been recognized that tuberculosis in children cannot be found without a special examination in which the tuberculin test and x-rays are used. Consequently, these two laboratory procedures will be used during the clinic. The tuberculin test, a painless and harmless procedure, is performed by introducing a small amount of liquid between the layers of the skin of the forearm. If a red spot develops at this area, the test is positive; and if no redness appears, the test is negative.

A positive test does not mean that the individual has tuberculosis, but does mean that tuberculosis germs have some time during the past entered the body, and an x-ray examination of the lungs is necessary in order to be sure that the germs have not entered the lungs and caused trouble.

A negative tuberculin test means that tuberculosis germs have not entered the body and hence that the individual does not have tuberculosis.

It is a well known fact that 80 per cent, or 8 out of every 10 cases of tuberculosis, are cured when properly treated in the early stages of the disease. Therefore, all individuals having been in contact with persons known to have lung trouble are urged to take advantage of the examinations conducted by a Doctor specializing in this work.

GETS HONORS AT SUMMER SCHOOL

J. F. McInteer, Jr., Quantico, sophomore, and W. V. Bauserman, Manassas, freshman, were among the 182 students at Virginia Tech who were placed on the honor roll for the academic year ending in June, the registrar's office announced last week. Mr. McInteer was awarded the honor scholarship for leading the sophomore class.

WELL BABY CLINIC

The colored division of the Well Baby Clinic, sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club of Manassas, was held at their clinic room on Thursday afternoon, June 30th.

The clinic was well attended and the patients were given complete physical examinations, instruction as to diet and other proper care, and many laboratory procedures were performed.

The next clinic, for white infants and mothers, will be held on Thursday, July 14th, with Dr. Stewart McBryde conducting.

Prince William Young Democrats Win Second Place in State Membership Contest

Hon. Howard W. Smith was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Young Democratic Club of Prince William County on Tuesday night and presented the prizes won by members of the club in their recent membership drive which gave to this county the second place in the State.

Judge Smith was accorded the usual ovation which he receives among his friends and neighbors and in his address he expressed deep appreciation of the life-long friendships which existed in this county which he loves so dearly. Mr. C. C. Cloe, Chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee, introduced the Judge who spoke with his usual clearness and sincerity. He described the struggle which Democracy is having throughout the world, and contrasted the hideous methods used abroad to destroy self-government.

Judge Smith's speech was largely confined to extolling the work and needs of Young Democratic Clubs. He stressed the fact that the name bears a wide significance. He continued by asserting that Democracy is being assailed from many quarters, both from within and without, and that the battle is being fought in the bitterness and hatred of other times, a thing that is not necessary.

He reassured the Young Democrats by saying that the people are armed with the ballot and that all can speak and no man nor dictator can say them nay. He repeatedly urged use of the ballot.

He further asserted that the independence of the South is the thing upon which rests the security of the American people and of the Constitution.

He congratulated the Prince William Club upon its notable achievement and called attention very forcibly to the fact that the future of our country depends upon realization of the younger generation of the importance of their task in carrying on the basic traditions of the Democratic Party. His address was frequently punctuated with applause.

Mrs. Janie Abel, of Dumfries, was presented with the C. C. Cloe $25.00 prize and an anonymous $25.00, and will receive further awards at the Eighth District Convention in Alexandria on Sunday. Mrs. Jane Lyon of Gainesville District received $10, and Mr. Bonham Ayres, of Manassas District also was awarded $10.00.

Following the presentations by Judge Smith, Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, President of the local club, called upon Mr. John Currie, State Executive Secretary of the Young Democrats. In congratulating Prince William, Mr. Currie expressed the high esteem in which Congressman Smith was held over in the Third District on account of his distinguished services to the whole State and to the Nation.

Others recognized by the Chairman included Mr. James King, of Fairfax, Chairman of the Eighth District Young Democrats. Mr. King made a number of announcements of interest to the Club.

A large number of other Young Democrats were called upon to say a few words or make a bow. Included in the list were John Ferguson, John McCauley, Edward Jones, Dick Moncure, Frank Moncure, J. J. Davies, Wm. Hill Brown, Lacey Compton, Ed Earhart, Hawes Davies, Jr., Wheatley Johnson, Cleve Russell, C. B. Roland, Rev. Murray Taylor, E. R. Conner, O. D. Waters, Hawes Davies, Sr., John R. Earhart, Dr. E. H. Marsteller and John McCauley.

At the conclusion of the meeting a motion was made by Mrs. Nelle Hyde Holmes, and duly passed, qualifying all members of the Club, up to the limited number of fifty, who attend the State Convention, as official delegates.

A chance guest, whose presence at the meeting was not a part of the official program (as stated by Washington newspapers) was Mr. W. E. Dodd, of Round Hill, who came with a small group. He was courteously recognized by the Chairman as a visiting Young Democrat from Loudoun County. He spoke from the floor, congratulating the local Club and made no reference whatever to a political campaign.

"Hell Drivers" Find Natural Proving Grounds

Nature again provides the toughest proving ground, this time not far from Detroit, in the guise of an innocent cornfield that now is the scene of some of the most brutal tests of automobile endurance ever staged by "hell drivers."

Out beyond the fringes of town, test drivers of Chrysler Corporation have located an open field that duplicates the most punishing terrain in their nationwide proving grounds. This palm they award to the notorious St. Francis river bottoms of southern Arkansas.

Now they are able to conduct, close to central engineering headquarters, additional torture tests of Plymouth "Roadking" springs, body and frame that dovetail with their complete reports on Roadking performance over hundreds of thousands of miles of trial runs from coast to coast.

Bouncing, pounding and sloshing along (top and center, right), hour after hour through a Michigan cornfield, these professional "hell drivers" are tabulating effects and piling up additional data in the endless quest for further improvement of the American automobile. There's scientific method in their apparent madness of day-after-day torture and abuse. One Plymouth test car pauses after every five miles of pounding, for observers to note the readings on a potentiometer in the driver's seat (center, left). This is linked with electric thermocouples attached to the shock absorbers, to record exact temperatures of the fluid controlling spring action at all four wheels. These temperature readings supply accurate proof of how well Plymouth airplane-type shock absorbers maintain control under extreme conditions.

Detroit police soon learned about the supplementary proving ground near the city when the "hell drivers" first started using it this winter. One scout car was dispatched to investigate a report that a crazy driver was trying to wreck his car in a frozen cornfield near the road.

"The engineers told me," the driver explained, "that I couldn't snap this Plymouth axle with the full force of the motor. Looks like they might be right!"

NATIONAL SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA ON AUGUST 10

In a setting of unexcelled beauty at the Potomac Watergate near Lincoln Memorial the National Symphony Orchestra will, Sunday, July 10, launch its series of "Sunset Symphonies" when Conductor Hans Kindler raises his baton to signal for the opening measures of Beethoven's "Egmont" Overture.

The concerts, first presented in 1935, are being revived this year by the National Symphony Orchestra Association in response to widespread public demand. The National Capital Park Division of the National Park Service is cooperating in the presentation of the six-week series. Concerts will be presented every Sunday and Wednesday night at 8 o'clock through August 17.

The Orchestra will play from a specially constructed acoustical stage erected on a 110-foot steel Navy barge. The stage has been constructed by the District Works Progress Administration on plans drawn by the branches of plans and design and of engineering of the National Park Service which sponsored the W.P.A. project.

Two American compositions, one being given its world premiere and the other being heard for the first time in Washington, are on Sunday's program. The former is the tone-poem, "Enchantment," by John Alden Pinckel, distinguished Washington composer, and the latter, "Processional of the Royal Scot Guards," by Armand Balendonck, of New York. The "New World" Symphony by Dvorak is the central work on the opening program. Other works to be played are Strauss' "Artists' Life," Waltz, Moussorgsky's "Chang Russe," adapted by Dr. Kindler from a violin and piano composition, and the Coronation Scene and Love Music from the same composer's opera, "Boris Godunov."

Dorothy Kemp Roosevelt, well-known Detroit pianist, will be the soloist on the Wednesday evening (July 13) program, playing the difficult and brilliant leading part in Richard Strauss' important early work, "Burlesque." Other compositions on this program include Respighi's "Pines of Rome," Mozart's a Major Symphony (K. 201) and Frescobaldi's Toccata. A special surprise group not to be announced in advance but to be introduced by Dr. Kindler from the podium will also be played.

COUNTY AGENTS COLUMN

LENGTHEN GRAZING SEASON WITH PHOSPHATE AND LIME

W. H. Bryne of the Virginia Agricultural Experiment Station states: "Pasture is the cheapest feed that can be produced on the farm, therefore meat and milk produced from pasture is made at the lowest feed cost. This is particularly true of fertilized and limed pastures. In addition to improving the amount and quality of pasture, phosphate furnishes the phosphorus and lime furnishes the calcium essential for growing animals and milk production. Farmers in Virginia have increased the carrying capacity of their pastures twofold and lengthened the growing season at least two months after topdressing with the equivalent of 300 pounds of 16 per cent superphosphate per acre for two or three years in succession where lime has also been applied when needed."

1938 RAM SALES

Eight purebred ram sales are being held by the State Purebred Sheep Breeders Associations and the V.P.I. Animal Husbandry Department.

Eighteen Hampshires, six Southdowns and five Shropshires have been consigned for the sale at the Culpeper Stock Pens on July 14. There will be a sale at the Berryville Horse Show Grounds on August 4.

GOVERNMENT TRIPLE

SUPERPHOSPHATE

Attention is again called to the Triple Superphosphate available to farmers participating in the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program. This triple strength phosphate fertilizer may be obtained in value up to 80 per cent of the soil building allowance due an individual farm for use on permanent pastures and meadows with a cash outlay for only the freight from the Baltimore plant. It is hoped that many will take advantage of the opportunity to obtain this material, particularly for improving their pastures.

STATE FARMERS INSTITUTE

An open forum on fertilizers, a tour of permanent and supplementary pasture experimental plots, a molasses silage demonstration, a visit to the poultry plant and tours of all experimental plots at the Experiment Farm at Blacksburg are included on the program of the State Farmers Institute to be held at Blacksburg on July 26, 27 and 28.

AMERICAN BOY MAGAZINE
COMPANION TO THOUSANDS

Teachers, librarians, parents, leaders of boys' clubs and hundreds of thousands of boys, themselves, enthusiastically recommend THE AMERICAN BOY Magazine for all boys over twelve.

"It's more like a companion than a magazine," remarked one high school student. "It gives advice and entertainment on every subject in which a young fellow is interested. I made our school basketball team solely because of playing tips I read in THE AMERICAN BOY."

Trained writers and artists, famous coaches and athletes, explorers, scientists, and men successful in business and industry join with an experienced staff to produce, in THE AMERICAN BOY, just the sort of stories and articles boys like best.

THE AMERICAN BOY sells on all newsstands at 15c a cop. Subscription prices are $1.50 for one year or $3.00 for three years. To subscribe, simply send your name, address and remittance direct to THE AMERICAN BOY, 7430 Second Blvd, Detroit, Mich. adv.

JANE WITHERS PANICS
HER FANS

America's effervescent Number One mischief maker will land in Manassas next Saturday, July 9 with a gypsy caravan and pitch camp at the Pitts Theatre in an appropriately named 20th Century-Fox production, "Rascals."

This dimpled imp has been a jockey in a recent picture, an orphan in another—but not until "Rascals" has she pulled all of her juvenile jack rabbits out of the hat at once.

Aided by Borrah Minevitch and his refugees from a musical madhouse, the harmonica gang, Jane cavorts through the picture with the skill of a seasoned troupier and leaves her movie fans hysterical with mirth while Robert Wilcox and Rochelle Hudson untangle the skeins of a love that is hampered by a jealous tzigane and a titleseking mother.

Rochelle, fleeing marriage to a titled fortune-hunter, stumbles into the camp where Wilcox, a college youth, is seeing the world from the romantic atmosphere of Romany songs and dances.

Matchmaker Jane goes to work in this situation and any one with so much as a nodding acquaintance with her technique can judge the result. A riotous climax is the rascal band barging into a society wedding to break up the ceremony . . . so that everything can end happily, if not hysterically.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS

Since being elected to the National House of Representatives eight years ago, Congressman Howard W. Smith has served the people of this district so intelligently and faithfully that, so far, he has been without opposition in the Democratic primary. Mr. Smith has been active in the councils of the Democratic primary. Mr. Smith has been active in the councils of the Democratic party for thirty years. He conducts a large dairy and stock farm near Warrenton and has had sufficient training and experience in farming to clearly understand the problems of the farmers and dairymen of Northern Virginia.

The opponent of Congressman Smith in the election to be held on the second of the coming August, the date of the Democratic Primary, is a nice young man, of good family—Mr. William E. Dodd, Jr. Mr. Dodd is 32 years of age, without any legislative experience and claims his home at Round Hill, in Loudoun county.

According to information from prominent citizens of Loudoun county, Mr. Dodd, prior to his announcement for Congress last month, was unknown in Democratic circles in the county that he now calls home. That he even voted for President Roosevelt in 1932 or 1936, is a fact that cannot be determined from citizens of Loudoun, and a point on which Mr. Dodd has been signally silent. Congressman Smith actively led the fight for President Roosevelt in 1932 and 1936 in the Eighth District, with the result that every county went for the President.

Young Dodd says, that, after receiving his common school education in Loudoun county, he attended Chicago University and then Harvard University, where he received his master's degree in history.

Perhaps, due partly to Mr. Dodd's years of training in Northern schools, he is not as conversant, or sympathetic, with the troubles of the small business men of the South as he should be, as illustrated by the fact that he joined with Mr. John L. Lewis, C. I. O. leader, of Alexandria, Va., in severely criticizing Congressman Smith for his opposition to the Wages-Hours legislation.

A large majority of the business men, farmers and dairymen of Northern Virginia strongly approve Congressman Smith's stand on the Wages-Hours bill. The farmers and dairymen, while not effected directly by the measure, will be effected indirectly.

Congressman Smith, according to information from well-informed sources in different sections, will carry every county and city in the district, and all by large majorities, with one exception.—Culpeper Star.

VOTING FOR WHAT'S IN IT

Back-room politicians and ward heelers will recognize readily the kind of talk that Aubrey Williams, Deputy Administrator of W.P.A., handed out Monday to the workers Alliance. There is nothing very new in the exhortation to "stick together," and "keep our friends in power." The novelty is in hearing these phrases from a Government official on a rostrum in a public auditorium.

True, the implications may be no more sinister when spoken to a pressure group that call themselves "workers" than when the same exhortations are exchanged in some select circle of businessmen bent on exploiting the advantage of position. But the meaning in either case is bad enough. Whenever people are urged to interest themselves in government for what they can get out of it, instead of for the sake of fairness and soundness in government, the foundations of democratic self-rule are weakened.—Christian Science Monitor.

The population of the United States is 124,000,000; of this number there are eligible for old age pensions, 30,000,000; which leaves to do the work, 94,000,000. People working for Federal, State, City and County governments, 20,000,000; which leaves to do the work, 74,000,000.

Ineligible to work because of child labor, 60,000,000; which leaves to do the work, 14,000,000.

Number of unemployed and on relief, 13,999,998; which leaves to do the work only 2.

The President and myself. The President has gone on a fishing trip and I'll be darned if I can do all the work myself, so I quit.—Federalburg Times.

THE ANNUAL KANE REUNION

The annual Kane reunion was held last Sunday, July 3, at the home of Mrs. J. T. Kane, near Midland, Fauquier County, Virginia.

There were about 100 present from Palmyra, Pa., Washington, D. C., Alexandria, Harrisonburg, Manassas and Arlington, Va.

The day was spent in a social way. The boys played baseball.

About 1 o'clock tables were arranged and everything good to eat was placed on them and every one enjoyed the rich feast.

There was a musical program arranged and given by Everett Kline, Paul Kline, and Eleanor Kline which was much enjoyed by all. The Old Rugged Cross was sung by the Kline Brothers and dedicated to their grandmother, Mrs. J. T. Kane, the oldest person in attendance, being 88 years old.

At the conclusion of the program, an offering was taken and presented to her as a memorial of her wonderful service to her home and community.

She is the only survivor of her generation in that community. May they continue to bless her with health to see and enjoy many more reunions!

Commander MacMillan Heads North Again

THE nose of his stout schooner, Bowdoin, is headed north once again and Commander Donald B. MacMillan, most famous of modern explorers, is off on a 6,000-mile adventure amid ice, snow and the shy people of the Arctic Circle.

But Commander MacMillan, in his Arctic expeditions, has been the humanitarian as well as the scientist and explorer.

Eskimo boys and girls will be clothed and fed by the man who for thirty years has been their best friend. They will have their teeth treated in free dental clinics. Their MacMillan-Moravian Mission School will receive new supplies. Warm clothing will be theirs to meet the Arctic winter.

A few days before the Bowdoin sailed from Boothbay Harbor, Me., on June 25, Commander MacMillan interrupted his work for a few minutes to tell of this phase of the expedition.

"We're loading the Bowdoin again with food supplies and equipment for the school at Nain," he said. "I'm endeavoring to feed, clothe and educate forty children there. We have also loaded dental supplies for the three free dental clinics established by me at Makkovik, Hopedale and Nain. Dental work is one of the most acute needs there."

Commander MacMillan built the schoolhouse at Nain in 1927 to shelter, clothe, feed and educate forty little Eskimo children. Miss Katie Hettasch, daughter of the Moravian missionary, volunteered as the teacher. The school became a center of life and social service for the community. Stoutly built to resist the severe climatic conditions, it's well built walls, brightly bordered windows and attractive mineral-surfaced asphalt shingle roof have made the "Farthest North" school a Labrador landmark.

The trim shingles of the roof have added to the appearance of the building but even more important in this isolated community of no organized fire department is the fact that the roof is fire-resistant. Warm fires are necessary to keep the building comfortable through the long,

Arctic winter but warm fires too often mean chimney sparks which, lodging on a non-fire resistant roof, could be fanned into a disastrous blaze. This is a chance the little mission school could not take. It won't happen on the mineral surface of this asphalt shingle roof.

The school, as a result of Commander MacMillan's activity in creating interest in the Far North, is lighted with electric lights, filled with books, supplied with food, clothing and sleeping bags for the youngsters. Children come from all parts of Labrador to live at the school from early fall until summer.

sco thirty years ago, the picture is presented against the romantic background of the colorful gold mine camps of 1850, the romantic missions and villages with their gaiety and music and dancing, the high Sierras and giant redwoods and bandit camps. It is the story of Mary, who runs the Polka Saloon in Cloudy Mountain. She is loved by all the boys, but Jack Rance is the favored one. On a trip to Monterey her stage coach is held up by Ramirez, notorious bandit, who falls immediately in love with her.

He follows her to Monterey and masquerades as Lieutenant Dick Johnson. Mary does not recognize him as Ramirez. In his persistent pursuit for Mary's love he is captured by Rance in her cabin. Mary and Rance play cards for Ramirez' life and she wins, but Rance has caught her cheating. She promises to marry Rance if he will free Ramirez, but before the wedding Rance again finds Mary in Ramirez' arms. He had promised to kill the bandit on sight but gives him an even chance. They circle the chapel in opposite directions, to shoot it out when they meet, but Rance disappears. He had realized that Mary loves no man but Ramirez.

"LOVE ON A BUDGET"

Consistently faster, funnier and funnier as life goes on, America's famous Jones Family cuts loose in an uproarious frenzy of grand comedy in "Love On a Budget" at the Pitts' Theatre next Wednesday, July 13. It is your favorite family's biggest budget of laughs.

This beloved group of 20th Century-Fox players, who have won their way into the hearts of millions of movie fans by their good, clean fun, are at their best in this picture; which for the Jones Family fans takes up the business of Bonnie and her bridegroom starting out where the honeymoon left off.

Bonnie wants to splurge on an installment plan spree of furnishings for their little nest. Her florist husband wants to "wait until they can afford it."

Right here, fast-talking and slow-producing Uncle Charlie barges in with a bright scheme to run a fair in opposition to one which already has been planned.

Top this off with the usual story of a bride's first dinner . . . hubby going in debt and Bonnie spending money they haven't got—and the answer is young love has its heartaches, and the whole family—head-aches!

It takes everybody from Mother and Granny to the kids to straighten things out—and the fortuitous explosion of the exposition hall helps clear—as well as fill—the air.

Birthday Gift for "Uncle Dan"

A formal celebration was held several days previous.

"Sacrament" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 10.

The Golden Text will be "Keep us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth" (1 Cor. 5:8).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you" (James 4:8).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Eddy: "First in the list of Christian duties, he taught his followers the healing power of Truth and Love. He attached no importance to dead ceremonies. It is the living Christ, the practical Truth, which makes Jesus 'the resurrection and the life' to all who follow him in deed. Obeying his precious precepts, following his demonstration so far as we apprehend it,—we drink of his cup, partake of his bread, are baptized with his purity; and at last we shall rest, sit down with him, in a full understanding of the divine Principle which triumphs over death" (p. 31).

THE PROBLEM OF GOODNESS

Much valuable time has been wasted in discussing the origin of evil. A greater and more important problem is the origin of goodness.

True there are times when we are tempted to question the goodness of the universe. A day or two ago a prominent news commentator began his broadcast with the words, "There is not a ray of light anywhere as far as the news is concerned." The world which we see through the eyes of the reporter is not the real world. It is a mistake to blind ourselves to the millions of good and beautiful things by which we are surrounded. The poet Wordsworth asks,

"When will our presumption learn,
That in the unreasoning progress
Of the world

Even in what seem our most unfruitful hours?"

Think of the countless evidences of goodness and love which God has placed in nature, in blue skies and tinted clouds, in varicolored wild flowers in field and forest, in the gorgeous scenery of mountains and valleys, or in the majesty of the "deep and dark blue ocean."

Beauty and goodness surround all those who have eyes to see it. In the words of Elizabeth Browning, "Earth's crammed with heaven, And every common bush afire with God;

And only he who sees takes off his shoes;
The rest sit round it and pluck blackberries."

There are still more beautiful things in the moral world. The exaggerated prominence given to the criminals in the daily news must not be allowed to obscure the fact that there are multiplied millions of good and pure people who are filling the world with deeds of kindness and love.

Dr. Fosdick says that one person out of every 48 in this country is a criminal, and Mr. Hoover places the number of our criminals at 3,500,000. This is bad enough, but let us be glad that 41 persons out of every 42 are decent and upright, and that 128,500,000 out of our total population of 130,000,000 are law-abiding.

In spite of the evil men in the world, moral goodness is far in the lead. Look back upon the great characters of history. Dr. Robertson Nicoll, for a half century a great moulder of English thought, was always optimistic concerning human progress and this is said to have been due largely to passion for the reading of biography. At his death his library contained no less than 5,000 biographical works. This is only another way of saying that the best cure for pessimism is an acquaintance with the noble and pure people who have lived to bless the world.

Where did all this goodness come from? There is no reasonable explanation except the existence of a good God who has created men and endowed them with His own loving spirit. Sir John Bowring gives the explanation of the origin of goodness in his hymn,

"God is love; His mercy brightens
All the path in which we rove;
Peace He wakes, and woe He lightens;
God is wisdom, God is love."

HESCO RURAL GAS SERVICE

Means clean, workless, instant gas—right there in your kitchen... ready at the turn of your hand.

No matter where you live, in Prince William, Fairfax, Fauquier, Loudoun and Stafford Counties, Virginia, you can

COOK WITH GAS

Don't envy your city friends the convenience and care free comfort of gas for cooking, water heating, and refrigeration. Have it right in your own kitchen—no matter how many miles you are from the gas mains.

Forget that there was such a thing as coal to carry, wood to chop, ashes to empty and smelly liquid fuels to slosh around. No soot, dust or dirt. With Hesco Rural Gas Service and an up to the minute Gas range, you can make your kitchen and cooking all pleasure and no drudgery.

There is nothing "TRICKY" about HESCO RURAL GAS installation either. A simple placing of two bottles or tanks outside the house and piped in to your range or water heater, exactly as if you lived on the Main St. in a city. The only difference is, that HESCO

RURAL GAS is brought to your home in tanks or bottles and the city folks have their gas piped in from the main. Hesco Gas is not a mysterious substitute for natural gas. It is a natural gas, in compressed form, which makes it easy to transport and handle. It is not gasoline or kerosene or carbide. It is not merely "just as good" as city gas, but actually better.

NATURE'S PERFECT FUEL—NATURAL GAS. From wells natural gas is taken and processed to secure only the hottest elements. After all impurities have been removed, the remaining gas is compressed into steel cylinders, ready for use.

The hot blue flame is odorless, sootless and clean. No sooty pots or pans to clean. Hesco lights instantly and gives full abundant heat without delay.

HESCO RURAL GAS is economical, efficient and the most practical way to cook. It costs very little more than kerosene, and it is worth the difference.

We will be pleased to tell you about it without obligation on your part to buy.

THE MAN WHO IS AHEAD

In almost every paper
You are pretty sure to find
A lot of gush and nonsense,
All about the man behind;
The man behind the buzz-saw
And the man behind the gun
The man behind the ploughshare
And the man behind the son,
The man behind the whistle
And the man behind the cars,
The man behind the Kodak
And the man behind the bars;
The man behind the whiskers
And the man behind the fist—
Oh, you read of them often,
For they're always on the list;
But there is another fellow
Of whom nothing has been said;
It's the fellow who is even,
Or a little way ahead;
The man who pays up promptly
And whose checks are always signed,
He's vastly more important
Than the man who is behind,
For every kind of business
And the whole commercial clan
Is indebted for existence
To this honest fellow man.
He keeps us all a-going
And his town is never dead,
So we all take our hats off
To the man who is ahead.
