JUDGE SMITH AT CHARLOTTESVILLE

Introduces Postmaster General Farley at Dedication

On Wednesday the Postmaster General of the United States journeyed to Charlottesville, Virginia, to dedicate the new post office, and contrary to the prognostications of Washington newspapers, played no favorites in the Eighth District Congressional Campaign. Questioned directly on the subject Mr. Farley replied, "The Democratic national chairman takes no part in local primaries."

The Postmaster General was introduced by Hon. Howard W. Smith, who praised Mr. Farley's "statesmanship, fine qualities and genius for organization."

Much had been made in Washington newspaper columns of the fact that Postmaster General Farley and Judge Smith's opponent had gone to Charlottesville on the same railroad train. This means, Washington newspapers stated, that Jim Farley has entered the Democratic Primary in northern Virginia.

The Governor of Virginia, Hon. James L. Price, who also has been slated by Washington newspapers to take sides in the Eighth District Primary was also present, and like the Postmaster General, and President Roosevelt, made no gesture of personal favoritism in the primary campaign.

Speaking before a large audience, Chairman Farley stated in reference to the post office department that its 1938 receipts so far were more than $1,000,000 more than the annual receipts for 1937.

MOTHER OF RADFORD COLLEGE DEAN DIES

Mrs. Mary S. Moffett, 79, widow of William Ledgerwood Moffett and Mother of Dean M'Ledge Moffett of Radford State Teachers college, died there last week.

She was born near Warrensburg, Missouri, but moved in infancy to Cincinnati, Ohio, where she was reared and educated. She was a principal of schools in Cincinnati and after her marriage to Mr. Moffett, she moved to Virginia where she was a pioneer in teacher training in Rockbridge county, and was supervising principal of schools at Lincoln, Manassas and Herndon. For fifteen years she taught in the summer school at the University at Virginia and was active in the educational work of the state for over 30 years, having held many offices in state associations.

Mrs. Moffett came to Radford in 1916 and for many years was identified with the Women's club, church work and particularly with the war relief movement in Radford.

She is survived by one daughter, Dean Moffett and ten nieces and nephews who make their homes in Ohio.

Services were held at Tyler Memorial Presbyterian church last week, conducted by the Rev. G. A. Daniel, pastor of the Tyler Memorial Presbyterian church. Interment was at Sunrise Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were: J. P. Whitt, H. C. Graybeal, H. M. Stafford, Tom Jones, S. L. McConnell, C. K. Howe, Jr., all of Radford, and J. M. Baker, the latter of Salem. Honorary pallbearers were members of the faculty of the college.

MOSES A.C. DEFEATS HUME

Sunday Moses A. C. traveled to Hume for a double header. They won both games by a score of 10 to 7 and 17 to 7.

Snoddy and Spain were the winning pitchers.

In the second game Godfrey, Bradshaw and Snoddy knocked a home run.

The Moses A.C., of Haymarket plays two games against Catlett on July 10th, at Haymarket. They come home after a fine road trip, winning all five games.

The team is improved 100 per cent and headed for the top. It received some fine pitching from Spain also from Snoddy last Sunday. The club is hitting and fielding like a big league club, and with the four new players added for next Sunday you can look for two good games. Be sure and come out and see us.

MAYOR FRANK IN TOWN

Our esteemed friend, Mayor Tom Frank of Warrenton, paid us a call today. We are always glad to see him. He is looking fine.

YOUNG DEMOCRATIC DANCE

The Young Democrats of Prince William County will hold a dance at the Haymarket High School on the evening of Wednesday, July 13.

Mrs. William Taylor, president of the Prince William Young Democrats, has arranged for refreshments to be sold for the enjoyment of the dancers and spectators.

Due to the recent membership increase and renewed enthusiasm shown in the county club, and to the unusually fine orchestra engaged for the occasion, a record crowd is expected to attend.

MILLER REUNION AT NOKESVILLE

Friends and Relatives of S. J. Miller Until on July 4

The family and nephews and nieces and a few friends of S. J. Miller held a reunion with him July 4, four generations of the family being present. He is the only one of his generation living. Mr. S. E. Garber originated and promoted the idea. Seventy-one names were registered, Harrisonburg furnishing twenty-one.

Mr. Miller and family moved from Bridgewater to Prince William County March 23, 1904, on Mrs. Miller's birthday.

The day was ideal, and it seemed every one enjoyed the occasion to the full. Being a deeply religious and socially inclined group the fellowship was rich and sweet. The high peak was reached at noon when a wonderful basket dinner was spread on improvised tables under the trees on the side lawn. An expectant pause, a hymn of fervent thanksgiving by Elder L. S. Miller, a nephew, and then, but what's the use, words are futile things with which to attempt to express the pleasure and satisfaction of the hour that followed.

During the afternoon part of the group gathered around the piano, led by Olin Miller, with Miss Edna Miller playing many old familiar songs were sung with enthusiasm.

Those present: Mrs. Ira S. Flory and Frances of Baton Rouge, La.; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Miller of Roanoke; Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wright and Leon and Loren J. Miller, and Misses Regina Pifer, Waiine Crickenberger, and Brida Miller; Mr. and Mrs. John S. Wright, Vernie Ethel of Mt. Crawford; Mrs. R. A. Bauserman of Spring Creek; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Garber, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Garber, and Mrs. Mary E. Miller and Cora of Bridgewater; Elder and Mrs. L. S. Miller, Leo and Howard, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Miller and Lloyd F., Mrs. J. W. S. Myers, Tressie V., Myrtle A., Anna Mae; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin P. Myers and Alvin Lee, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Adams, Ora Adams and Lucille, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Miller and Anne Marie of Harrisonburg; Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Miller, Hazel and Ruby, Mr. and Mrs. Leo G. Miller and Patricia Ann of Herndon; Mr. and Mrs. David Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, Miss Edna D. Miller, Mr. Wilbur E. Miller of Wash., D. C., Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Garber, Mrs. Lena M. Shirkey and Gertrude, Mrs. Alverta E. Beahm and H. Early, Elder and Mrs. N. J. Miller and Cornelia, and Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Miller of Nokesville.

OBJECTS OF ART EXHIBIT

The committee in charge of the proposed art exhibit, which is to be held next Wednesday, are much encouraged at the response they are receiving. It is surprising how many of real artistic ability have been quietly exercising their talents. Oil paintings water colors, crayons, pen and pencil sketches have been brought to light in considerable numbers. Hooked and braided rugs, and such things as patch worked comforters in unique design should be shown. Even antiques like the samplers of our grandmothers help to make the exhibit interesting. In handcraft, woodcarvings and inlays are to be brightened up for the exhibit.

The place decided upon is the newly decorated Sunday School Room of the Presbyterian Church; the time, next Wednesday, July 13, from 2:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. A silver admission is asked to help pay the expenses. No prizes will be offered as it is believed there are none here competent judge between the displays.

Exhibitors will please notify Mrs. J. L. Bushong and arrangements will be made to take the art object to place of exhibition.

HON. HOWARD W. SMITH PRESENTS AWARDS

James A. Farley

Post master General of the United States

Howard W. Smith
Congressman

Hon. James A. Farley, who was introduced by Judge Smith at the Post Office Dedication at Charlottesville Wednesday, stated that, "The Democratic National Chairman Takes No Part in Local Primaries".

THE RUFFNER-CARNEGIE "FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY"

At the High School Alumni banquet this June a plan was put before the members by the school librarian to organize a group of "Friends of the Library". Such groups are now being formed by many college and city libraries. They range from compact organizations like those of the University of Chicago or the New York Public Library, with extensive constitutions and annual membership dues, to the simple plan used by Princeton University which has no constitution, no membership dues and no officers except a recording secretary. The one qualification for membership in the Princeton plan is to be interested in the Library.

Since Manassas is already well supplied with clubs, it was proposed that the Ruffner-Carnegie Library should form a group of the "Friends of the Library" on the Princeton plan with the Alumni Association as sponsor, but with membership open to any one interested and willing to give some assistance to the Library if occasion should arise. This assistance, which would be optional on the part of the member, might take any of the following forms:

1. Gifts of money for the purchase of books.
2. Gifts of books (Suggestions as to books which could be obtained at any time from a list kept by the librarian).
3. The location of books not in use or of duplicate books whose owners might be willing to part with them to the Library as a gift or at a small cost.

Such books might be of a type to interest the general public, or to better the facilities of the Library as a workshop for students and teachers.

INNO MCGILL

Prince William County lost a notable citizen in the death on Tuesday last of Miss Inno McGill, of Haymarket.

The deceased was born on December 27, 1873, in Georgetown, D. C. She was the daughter of John B. and Mary Jane Nolan McGill.

The funeral was held this morning at All Saints Catholic Church, Father Widmer conducting the mass. Interment followed at Holy Rood Cemetery in Georgetown. The pallbearers were T. E. Didlake, H. T. Davies, Sr., F. R. Hynson, John Sweeney, Wade C. Payne, Jr., and Sam Bleight.

During her long residence in Prince William, Miss Inno, as everyone called her, achieved fame as a journalist. She was a sincere and ardent Roman Catholic, having joined that church as a young girl. She was also a club and civic worker of county-wide reputation. Most notable of these were the Catholic Woman's Club and the Prince William Chapter of the National Red Cross.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to her sister, Miss Loretta, and to other relatives.

PIE SOCIAL

A pie social with games and music will be held at Greenwich School, Tuesday night, July 12 at 8:30 p.m. Benefit Greenwich Senior 4-H Club. Everybody come.

TO TAXPAYERS OF TOWN OF OCCOQUAN:

Notice is hereby given that the list of Real Estate in the Town of Occoquan, Virginia, Delinquent for TAXES for the Year 1937, will be published for thirty days beginning next week, after which the said list, or so much thereof as may remain unpaid will be recorded in the delinquent land book in the County Clerk's Office.

EDGAR R. SHANKLIN,
Town Clerk.

WHOSE PANTS DID CLEVE HAVE ON?

According to Cleve Russell, he had to borrow clothes to wear to the Young Democratic meeting Tuesday night. He borrowed, he said, a coat from Senator Ed. but no pants, as Ed said he had just made a trade with Judge Smith and only had one pair left. Hawes Davies, Sr., said that if the Judge traded with Ed the Judge would lose all his clothes.

But Cleve did have on pants at the meeting which were not his. Whom did he trade with?

Upon being asked what he wore to Manassas, Cleve evasively remarked that the weather was warm.

T. B. CLINIC BEGINS JULY 25

Applicants Must Secure Request from A Doctor

Beginning July 25th a tuberculosis chest and x-ray clinic, conducted by a specialist of the Virginia State Health Department, in cooperation with the Prince William County Health Department, Tuberculosis Association, and physicians of the county, will be held in the Court House at Manassas, Virginia.

Tuberculosis is a communicable disease which accounts for its running in families and for this reason, anyone who has been around a person who died with lung trouble should be examined once a year as a precaution, and at any other time he feels bad in any way.

Anyone desiring examination must have a signed request from his family physician and must consult the nurse about an appointment. If any treatment is found necessary, it should be carried out by the family physician on whose care and advice all individuals depend for their health and happiness.

It has long been recognized that tuberculosis in children cannot be found without a special examination in which the tuberculin test and x-rays are used. Consequently, these two laboratory procedures will be used during the clinic. The tuberculin test, a painless and harmless procedure, is performed by introducing a small amount of liquid between the layers of the skin of the forearm. If a red spot develops at this area, the test is positive; and if no redness appears, the test is negative.

A positive test does not mean that the individual has tuberculosis, but does mean that tuberculosis germs have some time during the past entered the body, and an x-ray examination of the lungs is necessary in order to be sure that the germs have not entered the lungs and caused trouble.

A negative tuberculin test means that tuberculosis germs have not entered the body and hence that the individual does not have tuberculosis.

It is a well known fact that 80 per cent, or 8 out of every 10 cases of tuberculosis, are cured when properly treated in the early stages of the disease. Therefore, all individuals having been in contact with persons known to have lung trouble are urged to take advantage of the examinations conducted by a Doctor specializing in this work.

GETS HONORS AT SUMMER SCHOOL

J. F. McInteer, Jr., Quantico, sophomore, and W. V. Bauserman, Manassas, freshman, were among the 182 students at Virginia Tech who were placed on the honor roll for the academic year ending in June, the registrar's office announced last week. Mr. McInteer was awarded the honor scholarship for leading the sophomore class.

WELL BABY CLINIC

The colored division of the Well Baby Clinic, sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club of Manassas, was held at their club room on Thursday afternoon, June 30th.

The clinic was well attended and the patients were given complete physical examinations, instruction as to diet and other proper care, and many laboratory procedures were performed.

The next clinic, for white infants and mothers, will be held on Thursday, July 14th, with Dr. Stewart McBryde conducting.

Prince William Young Democrats Win Second Place in State Membership Contest

Hon. Howard W. Smith was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Young Democratic Club of Prince William County on Tuesday night and presented the prizes won by members of the club in their recent membership drive which gave to this county the second place in the State.

Judge Smith was accorded the usual ovation which he receives among his friends and neighbors and in his address he expressed deep appreciation of the life-long friendships which existed in this county which he loves so dearly. Mr. C. C. Cloe, Chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee, introduced the Judge who spoke with his usual clearness and sincerity. He described the struggle which Democracy is having throughout the world, and contrasted the hideous methods used abroad to destroy self-government.

Judge Smith's speech was largely confined to extolling the work and needs of Young Democratic Clubs. He stressed the fact that the name bears a wide significance. He continued by asserting that Democracy is being assailed from many quarters, both from within and without, and that the battle is being fought in the bitterness and hatred of other times, a thing that is not necessary.

He reassured the Young Democrats by saying that the people are armed with the ballot and that all can speak and no man nor dictator can say them nay. He repeatedly urged use of the ballot.

He further asserted that the independence of the South is the thing upon which rests the security of the American people and of the Constitution.

He congratulated the Prince William Club upon its notable achievement and called attention very forcibly to the fact that the future of our country depends upon realization of the younger generation of the importance of their task in carrying on the basic traditions of the Democratic Party. His address was frequently punctuated with applause.

Mrs. Janie Abel, of Dumfries, was presented with the C. C. Cloe $25.00 prize and an anonymous $25.00, and will receive further awards at the Eighth District Convention in Alexandria on Sunday. Mrs. Jane Lyon of Gainesville District received $10, and Mr. Bonham Ayres, of Manassas District also was awarded $10.00.

Following the presentations by Judge Smith, Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, President of the local club, called upon Mr. John Currie, State Executive Secretary of the Young Democrats. In congratulating Prince William, Mr. Currie expressed the high esteem in which Congressman Smith was held over in the Third District on account of his distinguished services to the whole State and to the Nation.

Others recognized by the Chairman included Mr. James King, of Fairfax, Chairman of the Eighth District Young Democrats. Mr. King made a number of announcements of interest to the Club.

A large number of other Young Democrats were called upon to say a few words or make a bow. Included in the list were John Ferguson, John McCauley, Edward Jones, Dick Moncure, Frank Moncure, J. J. Davies, Wm. Hill Brown, Lacey Compton, Ed Earhart, Hawes Davies, Jr., Wheatley Johnson, Cleve Russell, C. B. Roland, Rev. Murray Taylor, E. R. Conner, O. D. Waters, Hawes Davies, Sr., John R. Earhart, Dr. E. H. Marsteller and John McCauley.

At the conclusion of the meeting a motion was made by Mrs. Nelle Hyde Holmes, and duly passed, qualifying all members of the Club, up to the limited number of fifty, who attend the State Convention, as official delegates.

A chance guest, whose presence at the meeting was not a part of the official program (as stated by Washington newspapers) was Mr. W. E. Dodd, of Round Hill, who came with a small group. He was courteously recognized by the Chairman as a visiting Young Democrat from Loudoun County. He spoke from the floor, congratulating the local Club and made no reference whatever to a political campaign.
