Young Democrats Stage Seventh Annual Convention

By Nelle Hyde Holmes

Saturday night at a late hour the Young Democrats of Virginia, concluding, for the time being, their efforts to make the world safe for democracy, brought to a close their two-day annual convention at the John Marshall Hotel in Richmond, and viewed with pride their accomplishments, chief among which was the election of Robert Lane Anderson of Marion to the presidency of the state organization.

This was one of the most successful and best attended conventions held since the organization was founded in 1932. More than 2,000 delegates and guests from all over the State, and almost as many Richmonders, attended the sessions and until the wee small hours of Sunday morning "whooped 'em up" and imbibed freely at the sparkling fountains of Jeffersonian democracy.

There was plenty doing in the round of entertainments, the outstanding social features being a boat ride down the James River on the palatial Robert E. Lee, with music, dancing and refreshments on Friday afternoon, and a dance that night, followed by a banquet and grand ball on Saturday night.

The well-oiled machinery of the organization, by threshing out its problems in committee meetings and district caucuses, prevented any highly controversial issues, other than the contest for the Presidency, from being brought to the Convention floor.

John Tabb DuVal, prominent attorney and former member of the House of Delegates from Gloucester was defeated by Robert Lane Anderson, son of Sherwood Anderson, well-known, of Marion, to head the state organization for the coming year.

The questions of opposing a third term for Roosevelt and protesting intervention in State primaries created considerable interest and heated discussion before the Convention got under way, but both these highly controversial resolutions were promptly killed in committee, and substituted therefor was a group of resolutions praising the President and paying tribute to Senators Carter Glass and Harry Flood Byrd, the House of Representatives, the Governor and the General Assembly. A delegate from Fredericksburg promptly opposed the resolution on the ground that "it mentioned nothing whatsoever about the weather," but it was adopted when Delegate "Pat" Collins, of Smyth County, a member of the Resolutions Committee, explained that it was designed to avoid "stormy weather."

Special committees reported their findings and recommendations on various proposals, including a study of the poll tax as a prerequisite to voting, the diversion of road funds, revision of election laws, a safety program to reduce highway accidents, and a study of the jails in the state.

A resolution was adopted advocating restoration of the rule repealed in 1936 by which candidates for President and Vice President must receive a two-thirds majority in the Democratic National Convention.

At one point the restless crowd rebelled against the routine resolutions, and turned the place into a state of good-humored disorder by shouting "no" to them all, but Chairman James C. King, of Fairfax, controlled the situation by alternately telling the Convention to be order, and stating that the "ayes have it." Whereupon a wit in the audience suggested that the chair be in order.

Congressman Dave Satterfield of the third District, in his keynote speech touched upon the national aspects of Democracy and sounded a warning that the Democrats have had title in fee simple to Thomas Jefferson since he wrote the Declaration of Independence, and that "if John Hamilton is caught snooping, to nab him; if there is anything that would make the blood of a Democrat boil, it is for a Republican to claim Thomas Jefferson, now that they have thrown overboard all their own idols."

Congressman Satterfield warned of the menace of elections controlled by Federal money and stated that "unless checked this soon may be carried to the point where we shall find our government controlled by officeholders maintained in power by the votes of those who are the objects of (Continued on page 8.)

On Labor Day, September 5th, the windows of the Post Office will be open during the following hours: 9:00 a. m.—1:00 a. m. Money Order and Registry will not be open.

PUBLIC WELFARE FUNDS ANNOUNCED

Old Age Assistance and General Welfare Program for Prince William County

Prince William county's board of public welfare will have $15,739.27 available for old age assistance, aid to dependent children and general relief between now and July 30, 1939, Dr. W. H. Stauffer, commissioner of public welfare, announced today.

The board, appointed by the circuit judge, with Harry P. Davis, Manassas as chairman and J. W. Alvey, Catharpin and G. C. Russell, Woodbridge as members take over the administration of this fund this week.

In the old age assistance work in Prince William county, the board has fixed 97 as the maximum number of possible cases and this work the federal government has appropriated $4,658.22 to which the state adds $2,911.39 and Prince William county will only have to appropriate $1,746.83. This does not include administration expenses.

For aid to dependent children in Prince William county the federal government has appropriated $400.00 and the state has allocated $500.00. Prince William County will pay $300.00 for a total of $1,200.00 for this work. There may be as many as 15 children available for this aid in Prince William county.

Virginia has listed $3,264.27 to aid Prince William county for the general relief program and Prince William county will add $1,958.56 to this amount.

This program, which goes into effect this week, is a result of the public assistance act passed by the general assembly of Virginia last winter which appropriated $1,476,000 for relief work.

While only about $500,000 was left unappropriated of the 1938-'40 budget when Governor James H. Price was inaugurated, he piloted the public assistance act and found funds available for this work so that Virginia could get from the federal government relief agencies a fund of $1,136,000 to match the state appropriation.

Governor Price had said in his inaugural address that "the sentiment of Virginia is apparently overwhelmingly in favor of old age assistance and some favorable action at our hands is very definitely expected. If necessary, we should revise the budget and make room for old age assistance."

With the passage of the act of the federal government matches the state funds dollar for dollar in aid to the aged. The federal government pays one-third of the total cost of aid to dependent children. There is no federal assistance for general relief and this work is taken care of by only state and county funds. General relief estimates are based upon the population of Prince William county.

Besides this the public assistance act has appropriated about $62,000 for aid to the blind to which the federal government matches dollar for dollar.

In a study of this aid to Prince William county as a result of the public assistance act of 1938, the federal government pay fifty percent of the costs, the state 31 1-2 per cent and county 18 3-4 per cent.

OIL COMPANY BEGINS SCHEDULE

The Sinclair Oil Company, of which R. E. Lee, The Plains, is general agent and M. C. Simpson, is local dealer is this week beginning a series of general ads on their products which will extend into the winter.

Sinclair recognizes the great value of a local reading public and co-operates with its dealers.

Mr. Simpson recently constructed a new filling station on Centre Street extended, some what nearer to town than his old stand. His old friends are patronizing him in a very substantial way.

YOUNG DEMOCRATIC MEETING

The Young Democratic Club of Prince William County will hold its September meeting at the Town Hall in Manassas Tuesday, September 6th, at 8:00 p. m. This will be a strictly business meeting and all members are urged to attend.

THE FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT FRAUD

Just as the Wages and Hours Bill is proposed as a humanitarian measure calculated to bring a "more abundant life" to the laboring masses of the South, so the Fourteenth Amendment was framed by the Reconstruction Committee of Congress, allegedly to protect a newly acquired citizenship, but actually to bring to its proponents advantages which could be measured in dollars and cents. Thus while Federal soldiers were standing with fixed bayonets at our voting places an amendment was forcibly ratified which really provided economic protection for the great manufacturing and industrial enterprises which were then rapidly developing in the North.

It was not until long after this protection had been accomplished that the truth leaked out through the unwitting testimony of a prominent member of the Reconstruction Committee, Roscoe Conkling, who revealed the true objectives of the Fourteenth Amendment in arguing a test case before the Supreme Court. He explained in the famous San Matteo County Cases, 1882, that this amendment was really framed to afford protection for Northern industries, and as he was a member of this Reconstruction Committee, his testimony is most material and, in fact, has never been refuted. He explained the clever manner in which this protection was accomplished by calling attention to the fact that corporations were "persons" under the law and therefore entitled to the protection afforded by the Fourteenth Amendment. In substantiation of his theory lay the undeniable fact that the first test in the Supreme Court of the validity of this Amendment had nothing whatever to do with citizenship, but with the demands of a great manufacturing enterprise (The Slaughter House Case of 1873) to be exempted from local regulation and to be allowed to expand under protection of the Federal Government under the immunities provided by this Constitutional Amendment.

Thus we find, then as now, that the underlying purposes of determined national movements to "uplift" the South are not really actuated by the humanitarianisms so loudly acclaimed, but by materialistic purposes which have at heart the degradation of our section of the country to the economic advantage of Northern industry.

The South has made a marvelous recovery from the war and its even more vicious Reconstruction and is again threatening the industrial supremacy of the North, and in this critical period of economic readjustment the Chief Executive of the whole nation has most unfortunately become partisan to one section of the country, marking to a political "purge" those members of Congress who have steadfastly withstood a demand that they legislate by dictation in Washington, rather than in the interest of the folks at home.

Beginning with uncertain success this year, the "purge" will undoubtedly be steadily pursued through 1940, with control of the National Democratic Convention at stake and its attendant possibility of a Third Term attainment, particularly if world conditions at that time should favor a campaign argument of not changing the Chief Executive in the midst of grave world conditions which by the time of the next Presidential campaign may have exploded into a new World War.

CHURCH PROJECT IS UNDER WAY

Interesting Old Construction Details Revealed

Work has begun on the refurnishing project in the Presbyterian Church. The chancel platform is being re-designed. New floors will be laid. The old pews are being removed.

With the removal of the old platform, interesting details of construction have come to light. The building was constructed about 1870. At that time wire nails were unknown and iron cut nails commanded the high price of $100 per keg. These nails were used throughout, but sparingly, due to their high value. They are not rusted and appear in as good condition as when new.

What appears to be a moulding at the foot of the wainscoting is actually a two-inch board, grooved in the center by hand, with the outer edge bevelled upward. The bottom ends of the wainscoting are fitted into the groove, thus holding the pieces in perfect alignment, the bevel giving the appearance of a moulding. Stone for the building was given by Elias Goode, a member of the Church from 1867 until the time of his death in 1899. The stone came from his farm south of town, now known as the Slusher farm.

Several pews and one pulpit chair have now been subscribed. A number of former members of the church have become interested in the refurnishing project and are planning to make contributions toward it.

LOSS OF PET

A sad loss of a pet animal took place about ten days ago when the beautiful white pointer, belonging to E. B. Roland, of Haymarket, left his truck sometime, after he was at Centerville on his way home.

The animal is believed to have jumped from the truck near the Cub Run school. It stands some three feet in height and has a liver-colored head and spots. It was a pet much beloved in the Roland household and the loss is occasioning considerable grief. Mr. Roland posted a reward, as advertised in last week's Journal, and it is hoped that the person to whose premises the animal strayed will let Mr. Roland know about it at once. The dog answers to the name of Jeep.

TRI-COUNTY BASEBALL GAME

The Vienna Crackers with their ever reliable pitcher, Shorty Taylor, will be on hand Sunday, September 4th, on Swavely Field to battle manager Vetter's Baseball Warriors.

A great game is expected, judging from the results of the last two games played between these two clubs, which resulted in the following scores of 5 to 4 in twelve innings and 8 to 7 in regulation time.

Vienna took the decision each time, but manager Vetter vows the worm has turned and things will be different on this occasion.

Mrs. Janie Abel

Supervisor of Dumfries District, whose death last week was the occasion of sincere sorrow throughout the county.

SCHOOLS OPEN NEXT THURSDAY

All Details Carried Out Relative to Preparation for Session

Ding-Dong, Ding Dong Ding!

Yes, that's the school bell which hundreds of children on Prince William will hear at 9 a. m., one week from today. Some of them will walk, some will drive in their own cars but most of them will ride in the county-operated buses which have just been put into the pink of condition and which will be officially tested next Wednesday morning on the Manassas High School athletic field at 11:30 o'clock.

On arriving at the seats of learning, they will find for the most part the same faculty as last year. There have been some transfers and a few vacancies, all of which have been carefully filled with experienced teachers. (The list is published in another column.)

Already, the offices of the school board at the court house are loaded with the necessary text books waiting for the demand which will so shortly come. Mrs. Marian Dickens will preside over this important function of distribution.

When contacted late today, Superintendent R. C. Haydon said, "All of the school plants have been completely renovated, repairs taken care of, grounds cleaned and everything in readiness for the opening of school. The home economics cottage at Manassas is virtually completed and will be ready for occupancy sometime this month."

"Extensive grading and landscaping has been done on the Quantico school grounds."

In co-operation with the county health department all toilets have been sanitized and in most cases represents the most modern plans of sewage disposal. The health department has also co-operated in extensive improvements of the water supplies, with emphasis in the matter of protection against surface water."

The teachers institutes will be held on Wednesday, beginning at 9:30 a. m. The colored teachers will meet at the Brown school while the white teachers will meet as usual at the Manassas High auditorium. Professor Haydon is extending a cordial invitation to the public to attend either of these meetings, and also the bus inspection, which has become an annual feature.

The institute will divided into two sections with respect to high and graded schools.

The county teachers association will meet at 1:30 p. m., with the president Prof. Frank Sigman, presiding. They will elect officers for the coming term and formulate other plans.

No estimates have been placed on the enrollment expected. Miss Ayres, the rural supervisor, will give these to the Journal as soon as they are reported.

And so, good luck to the school folks, one and all.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME LABOR DAY

A game of great interest will be played Labor Day on Swavely field for the Championship of Prince William County, between Haymarket and Manassas. There is great rivalry between these two clubs, and fire is expected to fly, but we are hoping that the losing team is big enough and sportsmanlike enough to be able to take it.

NEW INDUSTRY LOCATED HERE

Magnetic Control Corporation Is Perfecting Its Product

One of the most recently established enterprises in Manassas is the Magnetic Control Corporation which now maintains offices and laboratory facilities at 113 Main Street. The concern is chartered under the Virginia State laws and is largely owned and officered by citizens of Prince William County.

The Directors of the company are: Lester F. Huff, William F. Hale, P. L. Trenis, H. W. Herring, all of Nokesville, S. F. Spitzer, of Midland, C. H. Green, of Arlington, Edgar N. Brawner, of Washington, D. C., Stanley A. Owens, R. S. Hynson, of Manassas.

The Officers are: H. W. Herring, President, C. A. Crowell, Secretary and Managing Director, Lester F. Huff, Treasurer, Stanley A. Owens, General Counsel.

This company manufactures a system of traffic light signals for street and highway intersections. It is what is known as a vehicle-actuated system, that is, the lights are controlled by the automobile itself, instead of arbitrary time placed on the ordinary signal. The company manufactures a magnetic detector, which is buried in the street, and the presence of the car passing over this detector, operates the change of light from red to green.

The advantage of such a system is that the intersection has no long waits for either street. If no car is on the cross street, the main thoroughfare keeps the green light and a clear right of way indefinitely until a car approaches on the cross street. It will then give the cross street the right of way, and revert back to the main highway again. This speeds up traffic, delays the main highway only when there is cross movement, avoids long waits on the cross street, the motorist receiving his signal by the mere presence of his car, and with no action of any kind on his part.

This magnetic detector is composed of cores of laminated transformer steel, on which are imposed coils, primary and secondary. The current coming into these coils causes the magnetic flux to flow in a figure 8. The presence of the car over the detector disturbs this flow of magnetic flux, and drops the relay in the timing box which proceeds to change the lights.

The detector is housed in a concrete structure and buried in the street, over which is placed two or more inches of asphalt, concrete or of whatever material the surface of the street is composed. It is rugged, and will withstand heavy traffic movements, is not affected by snow or ice, and lasts indefinitely. Many of these detectors have been in use over a period of years in important cities, and have operated without interruption or maintenance, and the whole system has proven itself to be reliable, and to greatly improve traffic conditions.

This magnetic detector is also used for opening of garage doors, elevator leveling, heat treating ovens, and other purposes.

This company is now the sole owner of all patents relating to this system, and will start manufacture in the next sixty days. Research work, looking to certain minor improvements is now being carried on in the company's laboratory on Main Street.

CLUB HEARS POLITICAL FARCE

Frank Sigman was the speaker at the Kiwanis Club on Friday evening.

He had on tap one of his erudite expositions, this time very much on the order of an old George Ade fable. He titled it "Dictators and Fascinators".

Historiographically, Frank registered about 99.44 per cent correct. Incidentally it was quite interesting, as President Bill commented.

Carl with there with the gang, bustled collar bone and all.

Al, the faithful, had something to say about attendance. He called attention to the fact that new members often do not realize how absences cut down the Club's averages.

ALEXANDRIA PHONE OFFICIALS VISIT TOWN

Mr. C. F. Cross, Commercial Superintendent, and Mr. J. S. Dunn, Alexandria Manager, of the C. and P. Telephone Company were in Manassas this afternoon and spent a few minutes in the Journal office.

HARVEST BALL AT SOUTH BOSTON

Tobacco Festival on Sept. 8-9 to be Especially Attractive

The "jitter bug" has bitten the younger residents of South Boston vicinity. Almost every night youngsters of Halifax County may be found "swinging it" anywhere they can find floor space; in road houses, taverns, inns, and at home. It is not an unusual sight to see a half-dozen lightfooted youngmen swing their partners through the air with the greatest of ease on the same dance floor. But there is method in their madness, for they are preparing for the "Big Apple" contest to be held at the Harvest Ball of the National Tobacco Festival here on the night of September 8.

The contest, which will be one of the features of the Harvest Ball, has aroused much enthusiasm because of the prize to be awarded the most proficient couple by Senorita Erma Castillo Najera, daughter of the Mexican Ambassador to the United States, who will reign over the festival as Regina Tobacco IV. As originality will be one of the factors entering into the decision of the judges, many new steps are being worked out by the prospective entrants.

Furnishing the music for the Harvest Ball, which will be a combination square and round dance, will be the Cross Roads Symphony, considered one of the finest string orchestras in the country. This orchestra has just completed a three-year contract with the National Broadcasting Company and has already been secured by the Columbia Broadcasting Company for a series of broadcasts.

The Harvest Ball will follow the first showing of "Salute To Tobacco", dramatic spectacle featured by the National Tobacco Festival. On the evening following the Harvest Ball, September 9, Hal Kemp will play for the Coronation Ball, which will conclude the activities of the festival.

THIEVES SENT TO GRAND JURY

Thievishness and housebreaking has been going on more or less liberally around the new section at Lake Jackson for some time past but Sheriff Kerlin, on Monday of this week brought the proceedings to a sharp halt.

Armed with search warrants, a series of raids were conducted among nearby residents and considerable property was brought to light. A hearing before Judge Compton sent the offenders to the grand jury for trial at the next term of court.

This type of petty offense is certainly most obnoxious and hard to run down. Sheriff Kerlin deserves a great deal of credit for his excellent police work.

PAROLE LOVE IS THEME OF "YOU AND ME"

Love on parole is the dramatic theme of the new film that opens next Thursday and Friday, September 8-9 at the Pitts' Theatre. The picture, "You and Me", starring Sylvia Sidney and George Raft is a powerful treatment of the much discussed question; should paroled convicts be allowed to marry?

Raft and Miss Sidney, last seen together in Paramount's "Pick Up" several seasons ago, are the perfect pair for this type film. Raft is seen as an ex-convict, determined to keep on the "straight and narrow," while Miss Sidney plays the part of a department store girl who hungers for the right kind of love.

Working together in a large metropolitan department store brings the pair together many times a day, and their casual acquaintanceship blossoms into real love. Raft confesses his shady past to Miss Sidney and is humbly grateful when she overlooks this and marries him. In spite of their poverty, the marriage is ideally happy, until the day that Raft discovers that his wife has hidden from him the fact that she is a paroled convict, and by the regulations of the probation authorities, she is not allowed marry.

Raft is bitterly disillusioned by this trickery on her part, and despite all her efforts to hold him drifts back to his old life of crime. With his former gangster pals, he plans a hold-up of the department store where he is employed.

In the meanwhile, Miss Sidney, who has done all in her power to rectify the wrong she has done him, gets wind of his plans, and throwing everything, else overboard, goes to the owner of the store, Harry Carey, and pleads for her husband. Carey, a philanthropist at heart, agrees to let him off easily, providing she guarantees to stop the hold-up. She agrees to this, and when the night of the robbery comes, is there on the scene, and catches the gang red-handed.

"FAST COMPANY" AT PITTS'

Romance and adventure are combined with hilarious results in "Fast Company," new mystery drama which opens next Wednesday, September 7, at the Pitts' Theatre, which reveals the inside of the stolen rare book racket.

Melvyn Douglas, Florence Rice, Claire Dodd, Shepperd Strudwick, Louis Calhern, Nat Pendleton and Douglas Dumbrille are featured in the cast of capable performers.

"Fast Company" is an unusual background for a mystery drama revealing the activities of racketeers who steal and duplicate rare volumes that are sold for enormous prices.

The lead roles as portrayed by Douglas and Miss Rice are an ultra-modern young couple who believe in combining their domestic and business careers. They are paired in a series of hectic adventures involving a murder and the final breaking up and capture of members of the stolen book ring.

Deft comedy and fast action is maintained in the direction of Edward Buzzell.

STEVENSON'S "KIDNAPPED" COMES LAVISHLY TO SCREEN

"Kidnapped," the story which Robert Louis Stevenson is said to have considered his best, comes to Pitts' Theatre spectacularly produced by Darryl F. Zanuck, with a cast of 5,000, and pretty much of the pick of 20th Century-Fox's "hit-making experts."

Unlike several other Stevenson stories, "Kidnapped" never before has appeared in either silent or sound films—something of a record. In its debut next Thursday and Friday, September 1-2, however, the stars, director and supporting cast appear to have been assembled with a lavish hand for the patrons of the Pitts' Theatre.

Every person conversant with so much as high school English has thrilled to the adventure in "Kidnapped," so the picture is destined to meet a host of familiar friends.

It will be these "friends" who will remember that the story had little or no "feminine interest"—being chiefly the tale of the escapades of Alan Breck and David Balfour (portrayed on the screen by Warner Baxter and Freddie Bartholomew).

Purists may try, therefore, to quarrel with Hollywood's introduction in to the story of a Jean MacDonald, Highland lass who becomes enamored of Alan Breck. The role is portrayed by an astonishingly vivacious and beautiful screen discovery, Arleen Whelan.

Please look at your address label and see if you should not send us a remittance.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Word of God

My word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.—Psalm 119:105

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in later years.

Behold, now is the accepted time, behold now is the day of salvation.—2 Corinthians 6:2.

"I HAVE PURGED THEE, AND THOU WAST NOT PURGED"

Public opinion, like a great pendulum, changes the direction of its movement very slowly at first, but finally rushes with ever increasing momentum toward the reversed position.

Thus at this time we are witnessing the turn in a great tide of popularity, which will unquestionably become greatly accelerated as "purge" after "purge" fails of its purpose and the electorate of America becomes more and more aroused over this invasion of the constitutional right of local self government.

This week the Democracy of South Carolina sternly rebuked the demand that their Senator be selected in Washington, and in California Senator McAdoo goes down to defeat under the Presidential endorsement. There is also every probability that the "purge" will also fail in Georgia and in Maryland.

From every standpoint this attempted "purge" has been indefensible and unfortunate. It has driven a wedge deep into the heart of our Democracy and has aroused resentments which will grow until the supremacy of the New Deal itself may finally be challenged under circumstances which would result in the placing of the federal government in the hands of those political conservatives who unite in sufficient strength to effect the overthrow.

SCHOOL IS HERE

Soon hundreds of our school children will be on our highways, going and coming from school and playing in and near the school grounds at various times.

They are under the best supervision that our school authorities can give and subject to the best regulations that our efficient police can enforce but that does not remove the human element of carelessness and chance taking.

The radio stations and the daily press have been striving to stop the increased loss of child life, but with all their efforts children continue to be killed and maimed.

Two of our local garages have recently thoughtfully inserted advertising trying to arrest the public eye as to safety at a period which is quite critical—a public holiday almost coinciding with the opening of school.

It means being everlastingly mindful, for one never knows just what a child is going to do and oceans of regret will not undo bodily harm.

Take no chances whenever children are involved. Look for them to do the unusual and then feel a sense of pride in having done the right thing yourself.

MORRIS MARTIN BOYLES

Morris M. Boyles passed away August 24, at Casualty Hospital, Washington, D. C., at the age of 91 years as the result of an accident August 5. Mr. Boyles was born in DuBois County, Ind., August 17, 1847, son of James and Catherine Boyles. At the age of 16 he removed with his widowed mother and younger brothers and sisters to Illinois. There he was married April 3, 1870 to Miss Ella Jane Branch, daughter of Newton and Maria Branch. In 1875 he moved with his wife and one daughter to South Dakota, where he lived until 1916 when he came to Manassas, where he made his home first with his daughter, Mrs. M. D. Brown and later with his son, C. W. Boyles. In 1936 he moved with his son to Washington, District of Columbia.

He was buried in Manassas cemetery beside his wife who preceded him in death in 1921. He was active up to the time of his accident.

JUNIOR WOMEN STAGE FAREWELL DANCE FOR STUDENTS

The Junior Woman's Club will again sponsor one of its lively dances which have come to be a great source of pleasure to the Manassas young people. The dance will be held at the high school gymnasium on Friday night, September 9th, beginning at 10 p.m. The same well-known orchestra which made the spring dance such a success will furnish the music.

Proceeds from the dance will be used the maintenance of the Baby Clinic, one of the fine charitable projects which the club has sponsored, and by the means of which many county children have been examined, symptoms diagnosed, prescriptions given and even minor operations made. Pre-natal care for mother is also furnished by the clinic.

The date of the dance was set with the view of entertaining the college students before they depart for their respective institutions of learning—a proper send-off preparatory to their tackling the intricacies of college education. It is hoped that the sake of charity and pre-school fun a record-breaking crowd will attend the dance.

Lincoln-Zephyr at Horse Show

THE new convertible Lincoln-Zephyr motor cars, created for people who dislike a roof above them and want the wind and sun in their faces and the blue sky above them, are much in evidence around horse shows and hunt clubs. This photo was taken at the Horse Show at the Bloomfield Hills Open Hunt Club near Detroit while three debs were watching polo pony entries being judged in the ring. The convertible coupe is shown, its top lowered and tucked away. This jaunty type boasts a front seat wide enough for three, with a second seat in the rear for occasional passengers. Upholstery is in leather, with whipcord optional for seat cushions and backs. The rear deck allows plenty of room for storage of luggage or sports equipment. Power plant is a 12-cylinder V-type 110 horse power engine, capable of plenty of speed on the road or a crawl in traffic.

NEW IDEA Model 8 SPREADER

WE are proud to offer you the model 8 NEW IDEA because we know that it is absolutely the finest spreader on the market: Best in design; highest quality in materials and construction; perfect in field performance, and the most durable spreader ever built. Use this machine every day; put it to the hardest kind of service and you'll not wear it out in a normal lifetime.

The NEW IDEA Model 8 has the largest capacity of any axle drive spreader on the market, 65 to 70 bushels. Yet it weighs less than many a smaller machine. Easy on horse and man—and easy on your pocketbook too, because it lasts so long and does such perfect work.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Man" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 4.

The Golden Text will be "Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee... O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee" (Psalms 84:12).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ" (Gal. 4:6, 7).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "We cannot fathom the nature and quality of God's creation by diving into the shallows of mortal belief. We must reverse our feeble flutterings—our efforts to find life and truth in matter—and rise above the testimony of the material senses, above the mortal to the immortal idea of God. The clearer, higher views inspire the God-like man to reach the absolute centre and circumference of his being" (p. 262).

Moonlight on the Mississippi

When the day is done,

Darkies softly singing

With laughter and with fun,

Cotton picking is over

With moonlight on the Mississippi

How the darkies love to play.

The tingling of their banjo's

They are happy as a lark,

And moonlight on the Mississippi

Makes me feel light at heart,

YOUNG DEMOCRAT CONVENTION

government bounty". He urged the Young Democrats to elect to Congress only such representatives as will vote their convictions and be answerable to no will save that of their constituents.

The Virginia Democrat, official organ of the Virginia Clubs, which recently published an editorial opposing New Deal intervention in state primaries was the subject of a resolution that a notice be printed on the cover stating that the expressions contained therein were those of the authors, and not of the organization.

The principal address was made by former State Senator C. O'Connor Goolrick, of Fredericksburg, at a banquet in the auditorium of the John Marshall Saturday night. Mr. Goolrick was introduced by Governor Price, and he, too, dwelt on the interference of the President in state primaries. "With great respect for the President," he said "I submit that such interference violates the spirit, if not the letter of the Constitution, and may lead to disastrous results to the party and the nation". Continuing, he said, "Many Democrats, among whom I find myself, cannot bring themselves to believe, in view of what has just been said, that the Chief Executive of the nation, whether in his capacity as such, or in his capacity as leader of his party, is justified in attempting by the power of his great office, to sway the voters of a sovereign State for or against candidates in party primaries."

Among the prominent party leaders present were Senator Harry F. Byrd, Representative Thomas G. Burch of the 5th District, Representative Colgate Darden of the 2nd, former Congressman J. Murray Hooker, of Stuart, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, and many members of the General Assembly.

A resolution of condolence, as a tribute to the late Mrs. Janie C. Abel, was presented by Mrs. Nelle Hyde Holmes and adopted by the Convention.

Other officers elected were Frank Daniel of Lynchburg, Alvin Fitz Hugh of Arlington, Claude F. Williamson of Staunton, and Jesse Dillon of Franklin County, vice-presidents; Mrs. William D. Taylor, of Prince William, Secretary, and Charles Wilson of Crewe, college secretary. Ray Larcombe, of Warrenton, was chosen Chairman of the 8th District Clubs.

Those attending from this vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. Percival Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Taylor, Misses Marion Lynn, Ellen Bisson, Walser Conner and Nancy Lynn, Mrs. Nelle Hyde Holmes, Hon. William Hill Brown, Hon. Frank P. Moncure, Hon. C. C. Cloe, Messrs. Charlie and Otho Fitzwater, Lester Huff, William T. Sweeney, C. Lacey Compton, George Purvis, and A. S. Boatwright.

The Young Democrats renewed their pledge to become a more unified, vocal and outstanding factor in the promotion of Democracy, in cooperation with other like organizations throughout the State in keeping Virginia in the ranks of the party and in keeping to the front the principles for which the party has stood from the beginning.

GAME GROUP JOINS

STATE BODY

The Fish and Game Association met last Friday evening with the president, Mr. O. O. Holler, in the chair.

The guest speaker was Prof. Leslie C. McNemar, of the Isaac Walter League, of Falls Church, Collins Denny, Jr., and Wilson Meek, president and secretary of the Virginia Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs were also present.

The local group joined the federation after the set-up had been explained. One of the things brought out during the evening was the effort now being made to provide better fishing grounds for the public in general.

The Club hopes to have as its guest in the very near future, Commander P. T. Wright, organizer of the Walton Club in Falls Church, whose hobby, is good sportsmanship. Mr. Wright is working at present with the schools of District "H" to introduce various ways to teaching wild life to the children.

MACHINE DIVES INTO LAKE JACKSON

Last Thursday afternoon a most unusual accident took place on the Lake Shore property recently purchased by Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Levine, of Washington.

It seems that the visitors, who are prominent Washingtonians and have asked for their names to be omitted from this story, parked the car down hill, with the emergency brake set.

Some hours later parties on the water heard a splash and saw the machine settle into the Lake at a point, where the water is about 15 feet deep.

Sunday morning it was dragged along the bottom of the Lake several hundred feet to a point, where hoisting machinery could be set up by the Peoples Garage, of Manassas. The car was recovered by the finance company as it was almost brand new and thoroughly covered by insurance against damage.

PLANNING BOARD TO MEET

A survey conducted by the Home Demonstration Clubs of Prince William County reveals that problems of the county homemakers can be summed under the following heads: making and carrying out money spending plans; what to look for in buying household linens, furniture, electrical equipment and clothing; household activities; and entertaining guest without spending all of the time in the kitchen.

Presidents of the Home Demonstration Clubs, Manassas and Haymarket Woman's Clubs, Manassas Garden club, Good Housekeeping Club of Catharpin, Bethlehem Club, Postal Clerks Wives Club, Prince William Homemaking Association and representatives of the Bull Run Grange, Home Economics teachers, and Welfare Department will meet with Miss Sallye Hamilton, Home Management Specialist, Blacksburg, and Miss Alice Webb, county home demonstration agent, in the Manassas Post Office Assembly Room on Friday, September 2, from 10:00 to 12:00.

A study will be made of the problems of individual homemakers and community needs and county program based on the results of this study will be adopted for 1939.

RELIGIOUS BOARD ELECTS

MISS MIRIAM E. THOMAS

The Executive Committee of the County Council of Religious Education announces the election of Miss Miriam E. Thomas of Fairfax, S. C., as the teacher of Week Day Religious Education in the Schools for the coming year. Miss Thomas is a graduate of Winthrop College, Rock Hill, S. C., and holds the degree of Master of Religious Education from Louisville Seminary. She has had several years of teaching experience and is well qualified to continue the high standards of work set by Miss Perkins, the former teacher.

Associated with Miss Thomas will be Miss Hazel Saunders as part time teacher. Their work will be in the fourth to seventh grades in all the white schools of the County. It will include twenty-eight periods per week and will reach approximately 800 pupils.

The expense of carrying on this work is met by voluntary contributions from Sunday Schools, school leagues, civic organizations and from individuals throughout the County. Committees have been appointed and quotas assigned to the Districts. Classes will begin a few days after the opening of School. Miss Thomas expects to arrive in Manassas the 5th or 6th of September.
