BOOK REVIEW DELIGHTS CLUB

Kiwanians Present Report on Underprivileged Child Work

The Kiwanis Club was greatly delighted at its regular meeting on Friday evening when Miss Nancy Waters presented a book review of novels featuring Southern life and progress since the War between the States.

The address was not only scholarly but delivered with that same ease and grace which so often features meetings of the Club when a near relative of hers presents his remarks before the Club.

Hearing that Mrs. May Smith, former sponsor, is ill in a Washington hospital, the club voted to send her flowers.

The underprivileged child committee made a complete report of its proposed activities, showing an unusually alert preparation for all phases of requests that might come before it in 1939. Father Jim Widmer presented the report which reads as follows:

The Underprivileged Child Committee of the Manassas Kiwanis Club met with the following members present: R. C. Haydon, chairman, Walter S. Sadd, Dudley Martin and Father Widmer.

The program for Underprivileged Child Committee was considered for the year beginning January 1. After due consideration, the committee decided to sponsor the following activities:

1. To continue its payment to the Episcopal Eye, Ear and Throat hospital in Washington for clinic and operation services.

2. To continue to furnish glasses to children recommended by Miss Sabina Neel, the County Nurse, in cases where the families are not able to pay for the glasses.

3. To continue to pay $12.50 per month to the Manassas Community League for free lunches served in indigent children, this amount to be paid for the months of January, February, March, April, November and December, or a total of $75.00 for this purpose.

4. In addition, the committee members agreed to consider any other phase of underprivileged child work that could be included in the program and to report to the chairman on this point.

In order to assist the County Nurse in the transportation of children to and from the clinics and the hospital, Walter Sadd was appointed chairman of the Transportation committee, the purpose of which is to assist the nurse in providing transportation whenever she needs it.

The committee feeling that it's work was not receiving the proper amount of publicity, appointed Father Widmer a committee of one to see that the activities of the Underprivileged Child Committee are publicized, and that the work be kept before the club members as well as before the general public.

Dudley Martin was appointed to be responsible for assisting in getting children from the lower end of the county to the clinics and also to give his special attention to the clinic which has been opened by the Health Department in the vicinity of Triangle.

The chairman is to take general supervision of all projects, with special attention to the lunch projects at the Manassas Schools.

There being no further business, the Committee adjourned.

P-T. A. TO SPONSOR MOVIE

"Idiot's Delight," featuring Clark Gable and Norma Shearer, is to be sponsored by the Manassas Parent-Teacher Association. The picture will be shown at the Pitts' Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, February 20 and 21. Tickets are in the hands of patrons and a few older school children, and may be purchased at the usual price.

The P-T. A. respectfully solicits public support in sponsoring this picture. The only way you can help the P-T. A. in this is to actually buy a ticket. Simply attending the show is not enough. The P-T. A. receives benefits only from tickets actually purchased before the box office next Monday night.

See other columns of this paper for reviews of the picture. It is an entertainment feature, by the screen's most popular players. Remember, buy your ticket before Monday night if you want to help the P-T. A.

Miss Mary D. D. Lynch

Miss Mary D. D. Lynch, a senior at Mount Holyoke College, was on the air Wednesday afternoon in the second program of a new Mount Holyoke Collegiate Quiz series, being broadcast weekly over station WSPR in Springfield, Mass. Miss Lynch competed against four other students in a quiz on sociology conducted by Dr. John Lobb of the department of economics and sociology.

This was Miss Lynch's second appearance on the Collegiate Quiz series, as she took part last week in the history of art quiz given by Miss Marian Hayes. These programs are completely unrehearsed.

BABY CONTEST AT HIGH SCHOOL

Manassas Sophomores Sponsor Unique Campaign

The Sophomore Class is holding a Baby Contest, beginning on February 22nd and closing on March 16th. Put your baby in and prove that it is the prettiest and the most popular baby in Manassas. At the same time you will be helping by showing your interest in the school.

These are the rules: Any child under school age may be entered. He or she may be sponsored by any individual, an organization, a business firm, or a class. The one sponsoring the baby pays a quarter and then tries to get votes for his contestant. The relatives, friends, and admirers are to carry on the campaign. This is done by the purchase of votes for one cent. These votes will be sold by the sponsors of the various babies. To show off his baby, the sponsor may put its picture and articles about it in the paper; he may also use posters or radio advertising.

Weekly accounts will be placed in this paper showing who is ahead. The final report will appear in the March 17 issue.

There will be a meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association on March 16th and the contest will be brought to a close at this meeting. Then the final results will be announced. The baby who receives the greatest number of votes will be acclaimed "The Beauty Princess of Manassas" and will be awarded a Gold-lined silver cup. There will also be a prize for the runner-up contestant.

Following the business session Mrs. Morris and Mary Jane served delicious refreshments.

RUFFNER-CARNEGIE LIBRARY

A number of interesting new books have recently been received at the Library. Some of special popular interest perhaps are: Rachel Field's "All This And Heaven Too," DuMaurier's "Rebecca" and Rawling's "The Yearling." This last is a moving and beautiful story of the development of an adolescent boy. Then there are the latest books of the two popular writers, Lloyd C. Douglas and Bess S. Aldrich, "The Disputed Passage" and "Song of the Years." These two authors, as a recent critic has said, turn aside from the cynical and rather disarming trend of the modern novel to hammer earnestly on the plan home spun Christian virtues. This may account for the wide popularity of their books. Another book of great interest in Van Loon's latest volume, "Our Battle"—a most vigorous arraignment of the Nazi theories of worship of the state and of their suppression of all liberty of the individual. Van Loon draws in this book a striking parallel between Hitler and that other most unpleasant character in modern history, Robespierre.

The Library has also received some interesting gift books lately; among them a four volume copy of Jefferson Davis' History of "The Rise And Fall of the Confederate Government." This book was presented at the Lee Program of the U.D.C. by Mrs. Robert Hutchison as a memorial to her father-in-law, Mr. Westwood Hutchison. Besides this beautiful memorial gift, several volumes of recent fiction and non-fiction have been presented by Mr. Clarence Wagener. Mr. Wagener, at one time editor of the Manassas Journal and now for a number of years on the Staff of the Baltimore Sun, is the author, as our readers know, of the series of book reviews that have been appearing in the "Journal" for some weeks past. He is also not only giving this very considerable service for our reading public but in the cases where the Library does not possess the book he wants to review he presents it with a copy. A number of expressions of approval of his reviews have come in lately, one of especially warm appreciation from a Washington, D. C., reader of "The Journal." Another library patron sent lately and asked "any of the books reviewed in Mr. Wagner's articles."

The Friendship Class will meet with Dr. and Mrs. Lyle Hedman Tuesday, February 21, at 7:45 p.m.

POST OFFICE HOURS

On Wednesday, February 22, a legal holiday, the window at the Manassas Post Office will be open from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. The Money Order and Registry windows will not be open.
Hawes T. Davies,
Postmaster.

GRANGE AGAINST TAX INCREASE

Session Held in Anticipation of Higher Levy

The Bull Run Grange held an open meeting on the evening of February 14th to discuss the rumor that the Board of Supervisors was about to place a special levy to take care of the balance due on the County's new office building, and find means to head it off if possible.

The discussion at times became lively enough to be interesting. The consensus of opinion was that something is wrong with our present set-up of county government when it will allow the Board of Supervisors to set up a project without ascertaining the cost, then go ahead and spend until they find themselves in a jam and expect the taxpayer to stand and deliver.

Those present suggested that it would be to the interest of the Board to shave the 1939-'40 budget to take care of the deficit and forget about the special levy. They also wish to remind the Board that agricultural markets are not good; that the present antics of Congress are not going to improve the market any. Therefore, they advise retrenchment until economic conditions are improved, to spread out.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

The regular monthly meeting of the Junior Woman's Club was held last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. A. A. Hooff.

Plans were discussed for the March meeting of the Club at which Mrs. Willis, of Fredericksburg, State chairman of Juniors, will speak. Mrs. R. J. Ratcliffe, Club president, urged that all members be present at this meeting.

The Club voted that $2.50 be contributed to the student loan fund sponsored by the Junior Federation of Woman's Clubs.

Mrs. Lewis Carper was the guest speaker for the evening and gave a most interesting talk on the life of Mendelssohn. Mrs. Carper also played several of Mendelssohn's compositions which were greatly enjoyed by the Club members.

At the conclusion of the meeting the hostesses, Mrs. Stewart McBryde, Jr., and Miss Rose Ratcliffe, served delicious refreshments.

MISS BRADFORD ENTERTAINS

Miss Ann Bradford entertained at tea on Sunday afternoon from four until six o'clock. She was assisted by her mother, Mrs. James E. Bradford, and Mrs. Harold Wilcher and Mrs. Frank W. Hornbaker, of Occoquan, Mrs. A. Stuart Gibson, Miss Lucy Arrington and Mrs. James E. Bradford, Jr.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Frederick H. Morhart, Jr., Miss Ruth Marlow, Miss Josephine McCormack, Miss Marie Mullen, Mrs. Orrin Bartlett, Mrs. Joseph Rogers Young, Miss Myra Holt, Miss Gene Faherty, Miss Virginia Cullen, Miss Maude Larkin, Miss Muriel Faherty, Mrs. John Foscoe and Miss Maria Drane, of Washington; Mrs. Otho J. ### WORK TO START ON ROUTE 234

Mr. Shirley Promises Activity This Spring

The people of Prince William interested in improvement of Route 234 between Lake Jackson and Dumfries, have been somewhat puzzled, not say discouraged, over the delay in starting work on that section of road under the allocation of funds which became available last July 1st.

There have been rumors to the effect that this first allocation of $80,000 had been withdrawn, and that only the second allocation of $160,000 would be expended on this project; this second allocation not being available until next July 1st.

These good people will be much reassured by the following letter received from Mr. H. G. Shirley, chairman, State Highway Commission, in which he states in very definite terms that the full amount of both allocations, totalling $240,000, will be expended on this project.

Following is the full text of this letter:

Richmond, Va., Feb. 9, 1939
Hon. Frank P. Moncure,
Stafford, Virginia.

Dear Mr. Moncure:

Don't get alarmed, keep your even keel. The $80,000 is available for 234 and the camp should be in on the job to expend the same, sometime in April or May, and the entire appropriation plus the $160,000 will be expended on this road by the convict camp coming in.

You can assure your people they are going to get the full allotments on this Route.

Very cordially yours,
H. G. Shirley, Commissioner.

NORMA SHEARER AS PHONY COUNTESS

Tickets Purchased in Advance Will Benefit Local Parent-Teachers Association

Norma Shearer and Clark Gable, supported by a group of notable players, co-star in the screen version of Robert Sherwood's Pulitzer prize-winning stage play, "Idiot's Delight," which comes to the Pitts Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, February 20-21.

Sherwood wrote the screen play, which has been brought to the films by Hunt Stromberg, with Clarence Brown directing. He was also the director of "A Free Soul," in which Miss Shearer and Gable appeared in 1932, she as the star, he had won his first real screen distinction.

The screen version of "Idiot's Delight" is essentially the same as the memorable stage play which starred Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne, but Sherwood has taken advantage of the camera's wider range. In the picture the initial meeting of the shabby vaudeville girl and the hooper in Omaha provides a new opening. On the stage the incident could be established only by dialogue.

The story follows these obscure people to Europe where Gable, as the hooper, again meets the girl who has become, outwardly, at least, a countess. She is toying at the moment with a munitions maker but she has never forgotten the fellow troupier of Omaha. War crashes into the scene and with a group of frightened travelers the two are trapped in a border town during an air raid. They realize then that nothing matters except the love that began on the road tour back in Omaha.

Behind President Roosevelt's request to Congress for an expansion of more than 700 per cent in this Nation's aeronautical research program is a story of international rivalry, espionage and striving which forms one of the outstanding romances of aviation history. That story is told in The Star next Sunday by Joseph S. Edgerton, well known aviation writer, who describes the thousands of research engineers and scientists of many nationalities and international spies and agents behind the scenes. Patriotic volunteers such as Col. Charles A. Lindbergh loom large in the background of the American effort, according to Mr. Edgerton.

Tributes to a GREAT AMERICAN

In selecting April 30, 1939, for opening the New York World's Fair, "The World of Tomorrow" pays homage to a great citizen from the world of yesterday—George Washington. That date marks the 150th anniversary of the First President's first inaugural, at New York.

And by their very existence and daily operation, Chesapeake and Ohio Lines pay homage to the same man as Father of American Transportation. Prophetic, he foresaw the vital need of magnificent transportation to unify the east and west. Practical, he organized the James River Company in 1785 to construct great east-west highways and canals.

Chesapeake and Ohio Lines are proud to be direct descendants of that Company of which George Washington was founder and first president. And, as a part of the Transportation he dreamed of for America, we will continue to carry on in the spirit of service exemplified for all by George Washington.

VIRGINIA PLACES CHEV-ROLET IN LEAD

Virginia's automotive registration figures for the year 1938, made public last week, show Chevrolet in first place in the state, as in the country at large.

Chevrolet, the figures reveal, registered 11,917 passenger cars and trucks in Virginia in 1938. This represents 39 per cent of the state's total registrations in the low-price passenger car group, and 45.6 per cent of the truck registrations in Chevrolet's weight classification.

This showing in 1938 gives Chevrolet leadership in seven out of the past eight years for passenger cars sales in Virginia, while Chevrolet trucks continued their unbroken record of leadership in the state since 1931.

OCCOQUAN*AND VICINITY

Mr. Warthen Hall, of Manassas and Occoquan, who is attending school in New York City, spent the week-end at his home in Occoquan.

Mrs. Hobart Wicker, of Occoquan, is spending several weeks at her former home in Sanford, N.C.

Miss Cecilia Markle, of Quantico, was a Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edson Lynn in Occoquan.

Mrs. F. W. Hornbaker, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilcher, of Occoquan, attended a tea given at the home of Miss Ann Bradford in Manassas, on Sunday. The occasion was in celebration of the birthday of Miss Ann Bradford.

Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Langston, of Pohick, entertained some of the ladies of the community at the Rectory on Thursday, the 9th. Among the guests were: Mrs. Corbin Thompson, and her daughter, Mrs. Mary Thompson Joyce and Mrs. Everard Meade, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. M. M. Barnard and Mrs. H. S. Claggett, of Lorton, and Mrs. C. L. Starkweather and Mrs. Harvey Janney, of Occoquan.

Mrs. Thomas F. Joyce, of Occoquan, spent several days last week visiting relatives and friends in Washington, D.C.

Buck Keyes, Post American Legion in Quantico, Va., has designated the THIRD TUESDAY in each month commencing on Tuesday, Feb. 21, 1939, as a SOCIAL evening day. A day on which all Legionaries and Club House. It is hoped all Legionnaires and Club Members will attend those meetings.

On February 22, Washington's birthday there will be a GRAND parade in Alexandria, Va., by the Veterans' of Foreign Wars. All other Patriotic and Civic organizations are invited to participate. The parade will start at 2:00 p.m. This is a grand opportunity to have the Public School Children take part and learn something about patriotism. Something they do not be taught in our schools. It would be far more beneficial to the children, and to the parents, as well than what they may learn in school on this day. Nothing instills the spirit of patriotism in children or adults as witnessing a Veteran's Organization Parade.

The Rector's Aid of Pohick Church met at the Rectory at Pohick on Wednesday, the 15th. There was a very good attendance, at which all who attended had a very delightful afternoon's entertainment. It is always entertaining for good neighbors to meet and enjoy pleasant conversation.

It is noted that a petition has been made to the Congress to have the U. S. Government take over Mt. Vernon, the home of President Washington and have the Government care for it. This would be a pity, because those in charge now, (The Mt. Vernon Ladies Association, a patriotic organization), are taking excellent care of this Historic Shrine. It is hoped that all who are especially interested in the proper care and upkeep of this historic shrine will raise their objection to making any change in control.

We have just passed thru another day, of oratory and respect for one of our departed martyrs. Lincoln's Birthday. Quite a number of us in the South did not fully understand Lincoln's position with regard to the South. He was not antagonistic to the South as some may have believed, and if he had lived to finish his term as President of the United States he would have proven to all that he was sympathetic with the South. Only a few days before his untimely death, he had requested the Congress to borrow $400,000,000.00, four hundred million dollars with which to help reconstruct the South. Of course a large number of the Congress were not in full sympathy with this, but had Mr. Lincoln lived he would not doubt have made this money available for use in the South. That would have eliminated the damage done by the money lenders and others who caused so much damage in the South after the war. Mr. Lincoln was sympathetic with the down-trodden at all times, and we can feel assured he was for repairing the damage done by the war in a way that all would know he was always in full sympathy with the Southern States.

We are approaching another day on which oratory will have sway. Washington's Birthday, February 22nd. It is hoped that we will show the proper patriotism on that day, and that our children will be given an opportunity to observe some patriotic assemblages, such as mentioned above, to be held in Alexandria.

Let us see the Grand Old American Flag displayed by all true patriotic citizens on February 22nd. That will be best way to show we are neither Communists, Fascists or Nazis.

Mr. A. B. Rogers, Occoquan's general Postmaster is on the sick list. We hope to see him at work again. His able assistant, Mrs. Fred Woodyard is carrying on, so you have no reason to fear that your mail will not be properly cared for.

Mr. S. Ellis Davis, Mr. Elden Carter and Mr. Marshall Davis are attending the Grand Lodge of Masons in Richmond representing Occoquan Lodge No. 310. We hope they will bring home stores of information.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

POPE PIUS XI

This week Christian people, Catholic and Protestant alike, mourn the passing of a great and good man, Pius XI, the supreme pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church.

Rising from an humble station in life, Achille Ratti reached his sublime position by personal qualities of spirituality, mental and physical vigor and purity of purpose.

In these days of governmental dictatorships, Communism and Fascism, all Christian people have a common cause and heritage, and it is an occasion of universal mourning among all followers of the Prince of Peace, that the spiritual leader of the world's oldest and largest Christian organization should have been called to well earned reward, when, in his dying words, "There is still so much to do."

For a thousand years the Popes of Rome had exercised independent sovereignty. Then in the decade following the year 1860 the independency of the Papal State was erased by the Civil Government of Italy. But Pius XI, the two-hundred and sixty-first Pope, was successful in again restoring Vatican City to the status of an independent Papal State. This outstanding achievement was accomplished in 1929 by the Lateran Treaty with Mussolini. Pius XI won imperishable fame on this achievement alone, but his greatest accomplishment lies deeply imbedded in the hearts of the millions who pay him homage.

As the result of the life work of this great and good man, Christianity itself, as well as his own particular Church, is immeasurably fortified in its steadfast purpose to preserve inviolate the sacred teachings of the Master against the ever increasing assaults of wicked pretenders who would supplant the ideals of the Sermon on the Mount with their hideous inventions of Communism, Fascism, Hitlerism and similar manifestations of Satanism.

CEMETERY IMPROVEMENT (Contributed)

All intelligent people will agree that rural church cemeteries are not kept in as good condition as they should be. Some are grossly neglected and even those well cared for could be much improved. They will also agree that a very large sum is spent on flowers for funerals. Amongst such intelligent people there are many who feel that if half the money thus spent could be used to beautify rural church cemeteries it would be a great gain. The amount spent on funeral flowers during 1938 in Prince William County is conservatively estimated at $8,000. Four thousand dollars or even one thousand dollars spent annually on rural church cemeteries in this county would make a pleasing transformation. We shall all agree that the departed deserve all the consideration that can be shown but it is also true that money donated, in the name of the departed, for beautification of the cemeteries where they rest would carry a more enduring tribute.

Surely it would not be difficult for each church to establish a Cemetery Improvement Fund whose treasurer could receive donations in lieu of flowers and notify the family of the deceased that he had received such donations.

If people give this suggestion due consideration they will see its merits and once they act upon it they will be pleased with the results.

GAY, ROMANTIC COMEDY
COMES TO PITTS' THEATRE

Marking her third American screen appearance, Francisca Gaal, noted European stage actress, has the starring feminine role opposite Franchot Tone in "The Girl Downstairs," which opens Wednesday, February 22, at the Pitts' Theatre.

In the new picture Miss Gaal has the role of a scullery maid in a home of wealth in Switzerland. The story is a modern comedy romance written by Sander Hunyady, famous Continental dramatist. Norman Taurog directed.

The supporting cast includes Walter Connolly, Reginald Gardiner, Rita Johnson, Reginald Owen and Franklin Pangborn.

Miss Gaal, an accomplished vocalist, sings one song, "When You're in Love," written especially for her by Bob Wright and Chet Forrest.

In "The Girl Downstairs" Tone, playing a wealthy young playboy, falls in love with Rita Johnson. Rita's father, Walter Connolly, decides that he doesn't like Tone and orders his servants to refuse him admittance into the house. To outwit Connolly, Tone strikes up a friendship with Francisca Gaal, the scullery maid. He poses as a chauffeur and Miss Gaal falls in love with him. When in a series of amusing complications Tone pretends to have lost his job as chauffeur and Miss Gaal uses her life savings to buy him a taxi, he realizes the true character of the pretty scullery maid and transfers his affections from mistress to servant.

AMERICAN BOY MAGAZINE
COMPANION TO THOUSANDS

Hundreds of thousands of boys and young men read THE AMERICAN BOY Magazine every month and consider it more as a living companion than as a magazine.

"It's as much a buddy to me as my neighborhood chum," writes one high school senior. "THE AMERICAN BOY seems to understand a boy's problems and considers them in such a sympathetic and helpful way. It gives advice and entertaining reading on every subject in which a young fellow is interested. It is particularly helpful in sports. I made our school basketball team because of playing tips I read in THE AMERICAN BOY."

Many famous athletes in all sports credit much of their success to helpful suggestions received from sports articles carried in THE AMERICAN BOY Magazine. Virtually every issue offers advice from a famous coach or player. Football, basketball, track, tennis, in fact every major sport is covered in fiction and fact articles.

Teachers, librarians, parents and leaders of boys clubs also recommend THE AMERICAN BOY enthusiastically. They have found that as a general rule regular readers of THE AMERICAN BOY advance more rapidly and develop more worthwhile characteristics than do boys who do not read it.

Trained writers and artists, famous coaches and athletes, explorers, scientists and men successful in business and industry join with an experienced staff to produce in THE AMERICAN BOY, the sort of reading matter boys like best.

THE AMERICAN BOY sells on most news-stands at 15c a copy. Subscription prices are $1.50 for one year or $3.00 for three years. Foreign rates 50c a year extra. To subscribe simply send your name, address and remittance direct to THE AMERICAN BOY, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan.

AVIATION FILM PAYS
TRIBUTE TO BIRDMEN

The men who wrote the history of aviation in heroic letters across the sky during the past thirty-five years are glorified in Paramount's great cavalcade of the air, "Men With Wings." This Technicolor picture, which opens next Thursday and Friday, February 23-24, at the Pitts Theatre, tells a stirring story of mankind's conquest of the air, as reflected in the lives of three young folks.

Opening at the historic moment in 1903 when the Wright Brothers fly their first plane over the dunes at Kitty Hawk, "Men With Wings" tells the story of three young Americans whose lives are bound up with aviation and who share in its struggles, disappointments and triumphs over three decades.

Fred MacMurray, Ray Milland and Louise Campbell play the three pioneers of the air who devote their lives to the progress of aviation from the day the girl's father is killed in one of the first airplanes. Caught up in the surge of aviation's forward march, they are carried by it toward a destiny they cannot escape.

On the day they perfect their first plane and begin to manufacture it, the World War breaks out, separating them for the first time in their lives. All the subsequent epoch-making

MARRIAGE CEREMONY OF 75
YEARS AGO

(Printed in 1895 at Lancaster, Pa.)
About 75 years ago Benjamin F. McClees was elected Squire of Buck District in Lancaster County, Pa., and one of his first official duties was joining in Holy Matrimony a couple of his neighbors. So the Squire, wishing to make a good impression and a good solid job, began to look up in his books in order that he might get the ceremony down to his liking.

So he goes over to his friend and neighbor, who held the office of Justice of Peace before him, to get some pointers. Says he "Squire B., I can't find marriage ceremony in that form book of mine and I don't know what to do. I have to marry a couple tonight and I don't know any Enshation words that'll go with that marriage program I got. I know the Apostle's Creed, and the Ten Commandments, and Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight, and Now I Lay Me Down To Sleep, but that's all too hefty and solemn like to splice Bill Simmers and cross-eyed Sal Johnson, even if Bill is sober. You see, I've got to get something new and original and yet be strong and binding, for I don't know how Bill and Sal is going to work in double harness. They are a queer pair."

So the Squire went home and went to studying and when 7:00 came he was ready, sitting on the Bench looking a solemn as an owl at daybreak. When the couple came into his office, with several of their friends, the Squire arose and without further ceremony he shouted, "All hats off, if you are ready." "Now," says the Squire, "I must swear all of you first. Raise your right hand."

"Me, too?" asked Si Markley, who was best man.

"Of course," says the Squire, "Everybody must swear who wants to be witnesses. Now," says the Squire, "you and each of you do solemnly swear that the evidence you shall here shall be the truth, the Ole truth, and nothing but the truth, so elp you God. And you, Bill Simmers, do you solemnly swear that, to the best of your knowledge and belief, that you will take this yere woman, fer to hev, and to hold, for yourself, for your heirs, executors, your administrators, and assigns, for your and their uses, forever and ever?"

"I do," says Bill.

"And now you, Sal Johnson, you take this man, for better or worse, to hev, and to hold, forever and ever?" And you further swear that you have been lawfully seized, in fee-simple, and are in sound health, and free from all incumbrances, and have a good right to sell, bargain and convey yourself to the said grantee, your heirs, assigns, and administrators, for his use only, forever and ever?"

"I do," said Sal, rather doubtful of the meaning of the Squire's big words.

"Now, Bill, that is one dollar and fifty cents."

"Are we married now?" asked Bill.

"No," said the Squire, "not yet, but the fee comes in here."

So Bill fished out the money and handed it over to the Squire, who pocketed it, and resumed, by saying, "Know ye all these presents that I, Squire Benjamin Franklin McClees, of the Buck District of the State of Pennsylvania, elected to this high office without any opposition, now being in good health and of a sound and disposin' mind, in consideration of one dollar and fifty cents to paid in hand, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, do by all these present, declare ye man and wife, during good behaviour or until the Court of this county orders otherwise, and may the Lord have mercy on your souls. Amen."

Wednesday, 7:30 p.m.—Prayer Meeting.

Thursday, 7:30 p.m.—Choir Rehearsal.

Get church minded and then attend Grace Church for a full and real Gospel. We are to be judged out of the Words of His Book and not by man's opinions and wishes. The Judge is the "Man Who hanged on Calvary's Cross"—what are we doing with Him—what shall He do with us? The best friend any man has outside of God and his mother is the preacher who dares preach the Book and not compromise it to suit the whims and living of human beings who desire much to go to heaven after they die but who want to live here in the flesh as they please. These with trimming preachers will have their lot in that great day of accounting. Go to Church Sunday.

"Mind" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 19.

The Golden Text will be "Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one for another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous" (I Peter 3:8).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts" (Isaiah 55:7, 8, 9).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The action of so-called mortal mind must be destroyed by the divine control there is discord, manifest as sin, sickness, and death" (p. 400).

KEEP US OUT OF WAR
(A dialogue compiled by W. F. Carpenter)

Citizen No. 1: "Is another World War drawing near?"

Citizen No. 2: "Things look very threatening."

Citizen No. 3: "Well, I hope this country will stay out of it."

Citizen No. 4: "I hope so too, but hoping will not keep us out."

Citizen No. 5: "What do you mean?"

Citizen No. 4: "We all hope to keep out of the hospital but hoping does not keep us out. In order to escape the hospital, we must possess and use certain powers. For instance the power of rigorous vitality. We must also use scientific power to destroy malignant germs, such as typhoid, smallpox, etc."

Citizen No. 5: "How does that principle work on the complete problem of war?"

Citizen No. 4: "In order to avoid war we must have a plan based on an accurate knowledge of facts. I would like you gentlemen in this group to suggest the plan that appears to each of you as most likely to protect us from the tragedy of war."

Citizen No. 6: I suggest that we show our good-will toward the world by refusing to arm even for defensive purposes.

Citizen No. 4: "One word reveals how complete a failure such a plan would be."

Citizen No. 4: "China."

Citizen No. 7: "Well, sir, I would like to suggest that we not only refuse to arm but that we also rid ourselves of everything that might incite the cupidity of envious nations like Japan, Germany and Italy. To be specific I suggest that we divide our gold and other forms of wealth into three parts and give one to each of these nations. Then we would be so poor that it would not be worthwhile for any nation to conquer us."

Citizen No. 4: "Your plan has two weaknesses. It would mean virtual suicide, and self-destruction is worse than being destroyed by an enemy. In addition another weakness is that the warlike nations might see some advantage in making us their slaves in a more complete way."

Citizen No. 8: "Don't you think we could avoid war by being neutral?"
Citizen No. 4: "Our efforts at being neutral in the cases of Spain and China have proved to be a sickening force. If alleged neutrality is a force under such simple conditions it could not protect us in a world war."

Citizen No. 9: "Well, there seems only one plan still to suggest which is that we equip ourselves with such military power that our enemies will be afraid to attack us."
Citizen No. 4: "We are making progress, but this plan would be good for a few years only."

Citizen No. 9: "Why not always?"
Citizen No. 4: "Because Japan, Germany and Italy could probably overcome all democracies in Europe. Then our wealth, and our existence as the only surviving example of democracy would be a cause for war in the judgment of the Dictators. The United States could not survive an attack by the rest of the world."

Citizen No. 10: "It appears, then, that the wisest course would be to let the world know that we will fight with all our might to preserve the democracies of Europe."
Citizen No. 4: "I agree with you. As a matter of fact the only sure way of keeping the United States out of war is by preventing a world war. If Japan, Germany and Italy know that they must fight Britain, United States and France with Russia and Poland thrown in for good measure they are not likely to launch a general war. By such a firm stand we shall most effectively cast our vote for peace. So if we would keep out of war we must be strong as a military power and we must try to paralyze the war microbe by fear lest it should seek to lay low any member of our democratic family. The most effective specific in man's hand to control the war microbe is fear. If we possess a hypodermic needle made of military equipment superior in quality and in quantity, if the hand holding the needle is firm and if the personality behind the

MT. RAINIER METHODIST CHOIR TO VISIT MANASSAS AGAIN

The Sunday Evening Forum of Grace Methodist Church is growing in interest and popularity with the passing of the weeks. No effort is being spared to bring to its platform for the enjoyment and profit of our community the best possible talent in various lines. This is evidenced by the high class of the programs since the opening of the Forum: Honorable Roger Whiteford, with his matchless address on "The Trial of Jesus from the Modern Lawyer's Viewpoint"; Dr. James N. Hillman, president of Emory and Henry College, and Worshipful Grand Master of Virginia Masons, giving his great address on the "Trestle Board"; and last week Judge William Hill Brown delivered a most wonderful oration on "Our Heritage of Freedom and the Insistent Call of the Present Hour to Church and State," these all attest the high order of the program and purpose of those who are directing this Forum. The pastor, Rev. Harry Paul Baker, announces that future programs will be in keeping with the ones already presented, and that it is the mind of the committee in charge to secure the talent in music and public address possible for the evenings ahead.

Two years ago the Mount Rainier Methodist Choir paid a visit to our town and presented a program in the Methodist Church to a packed house. They have been secured to return on the Forum program, and will come to us this Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The Ladies Aid Society and the Choir of Grace Church with Mrs. Dennis Baker in charge, will entertain the visitors at a Buffet supper served at the church.

A BOOK TO READ

by Clarence Wagener

To be alive is a wonderful thing. But how much more wonderful it is to be blessed with a keen awareness of life!

You hear it said that so-and-so is only half alive. That's a neat description of many persons you come in contact with, if you get about considerably. Who is there who doesn't continually wonder at the great differences in the capacities of human beings to absorb the infinite variety of impressions that life offers?

Once upon a time it was believed that a person who went through life more or less indifferently had nobody but himself to blame. The stock explanation for such a case was: The fellow isn't using his will power; he could live zestfully if he wanted to.

We know better today. A person who is vitally alive is that way because of certain inherited and environmental factors, mostly the former. Will power? Experience indicates that a person can do a great deal for himself, provided he wishes to do so. But the wishing must precede the willing, or there is no willing. What is back of the wishing? When they get the answer to that one they will be pretty close to having the secret of life in their grasp.

One thing we do know, however. There are tonic qualities imparted to all who come in contact with a person who lives life up to the hilt. Even the most apathetic are benefited. They are reminded for a brief spell, anyway, that all life is precious, as the late William Butler Yeats so beautifully pointed out in one of his books.

Perhaps at no period in the history of English Society has zestful living been so definitely "out" as during the Victorian era. But you can't bottle the effervescence of the human spirit. That axiom is delightfully exemplified in the splendid biography, "Fanny Kemble—A Passionate Victorian," by Margaret Armstrong (Macmillan, 1938; 382 pages).

Fanny Kemble, as all who are familiar with the history of the English and American theatres know, was a famous actress who detested acting. So great was her ability, however, that for years she won the plaudits of multitudes in both her native England and in this country. Slavery was abhorrent to her, yet she married an American who owned hundreds of blacks. She passionately loved the wild and beautiful in nature. Her ability as a reader of Shakespeare has perhaps never been equalled. She was great, in many ways.

When you come to the last page of "Fanny Kemble," you'll be sorry the book isn't twice as long. You will have "lived" with great people, in a most picturesque period.

hand is intelligent and brave treatment is not likely to fail. If it does, it will be much wiser to fight than to run."

MANASSAS WINS SEVERAL INTERESTING BASKET-BALL GAMES

MANASSAS BEATS LINCOLN

The Manassas Basketeers won two games Friday night. The boys overcame the Lincoln leather tossers by a score of 18-14.
