SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 A YEAR

LOCAL BANKER DIES SUDDENLY

Was Also Devoted Church Worker and Active in Schools

Our entire county, but especially Catharpin community, suffered a great loss when Charles Russell McDonald passed to eternal rest at his home, "Oakwood," at 2:10 p.m. February 18, 1939.

Being stricken, only the day before, with acute illness caused by intestinal obstruction, his death came as a great shock to his family and friends.

Mr. McDonald was born April 7, 1862, at Perryopolis, Pennsylvania. He was the son of James Guthrie McDonald and Margaret Russell McDonald. He is survived by his wife, who was Mrs. Netta Phillips Burke, of Pennsylvania; one son, Charles Paul McDonald, of Norton, Va.; three grandchildren, Misses Russell and Jean McDonald, of Norton, and Charles Paul McDonald, Jr., of New York City.

Two sisters, also surviving, are: Mrs. Annie Cunningham, of Belle Vernon, Pa., and Mrs. Harry Brewer, of Perryopolis, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald came to "Oakwood" as bride and groom in July, 1911. Identifying themselves at once with the church at Sudley, they soon made a host of friends. Soon afterward, he was appointed superintendent of the Sunday School, which office he faithfully filled until his death. Upon the death of the late Frederick H. Sanders, Mr. McDonald was appointed to fill the vacancy as steward and trustee of Sudley church. He was prominent in the work of the Baltimore conference and served for several years as District Lay Leader.

Succeeding the late George G. Tyler, he served ten years as superintendent of public schools of Prince William County.

Soon after taking up his residence here, he became identified with the National Bank of Manassas. In recognition of his executive ability, he was made president for several years. About two years ago he was again elected, and was serving as president at the time of his death.

He became a 32nd degree Mason while a resident of Pennsylvania, and afterward had his membership transferred to the Manassas Lodge, A.F. and A.M. at Manassas, Va.

The funeral was held from his late residence on Tuesday afternoon. The services at Sudley church were beautifully conducted by his pastor, the Rev. John S. Schwartz, assisted by three of our former pastors, the Rev. A. B. Sapp, of Linden, Va., Rev. Clarence L. Beard, of Wilkens Avenue, Baltimore, Md., and Rev. Charles F. Phillips, of St. Paul's Washington, D. C.

Interment was made in Manassas Cemetery.

The active pall-bearers were Messrs. Henry Maddox, William H. Dogan, Luther J. McIntosh, Luther L. Lynn, J. Worthington Alvey and L. Jett Pattie. The officials of the National Bank served as honorary pall-bearers.

Our Church, which he loved so much, and the entire community extend heartfelt sympathy to those bereft of his love and companionship.

Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark,
For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear far,
I hope to meet my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

TOM THUMB WEDDING AT BENNETT FEB. 24th

A Tom Thumb wedding will be presented by the Bennett School in the high school auditorium in Manassas on Friday evening, February 24th, beginning at 8:00 p.m.

"Your support is our success" reads the notice of this charming entertainment for the benefit of the school and those in charge have labored diligently to reward the kindness of their friends by putting on a most pleasing adaptation of this popular ceremony.

MAYOR DAVIS SPEAKS ON OLD AGE ASSISTANCE

The Kiwanis club heard an interesting address on the old age assistance program last Friday evening, when Hon. Harry P. Davis, chairman of the board in Prince William county, told of the progress of the work since the law became operative last July.

Mr. Davis cited numerous cases of misunderstanding, due to a general misconception of the law that gave many people the impression that the whole project was an old age pension proposition. He stated that the average assistance so far had been less than $10 per month per person assisted.

It was a very instructive talk and much enjoyed. One interesting fact developed that virtually all the aid given had been to white cases.

The program tomorrow evening by Worth Peters promises to be one of the best so far. It will be musical.

A letter of appreciation from Mrs. May Smith was read by the secretary.

W. L. Lloyd, chairman, of the publicity committee, presented his report of work done by the committee so far this year.

SUPERVISOR ROLAND URGES TAX PAYERS TO STUDY BUDGET AND ATTEND HEARING ON APRIL 5

Editors of Manassas Journal
Manassas, Va.

Dear Sirs:

There is always a clamor by each group in the community for funds for their pet interests. Also, there is an insidious tendency to increase the salaries of the county officials whose standard of living is far above that of those who feed them. To me these conditions must be held in check unless we are to find ourselves in the same condition as the parent who indulges his child while he himself starves.

In the last four years we have raised the county officials salaries over $1,500,000 a year. We have raised the school allocation from $50,000 to $73,000 a year due to elimination of part of the District school levy. This means about a $15,000 increase.

We are at the same time paying for health and relief work about $1,500 a month. For health we are paying for much that we do not get. In saying this there is no reflection on any of our health officials. To illustrate what I refer to the $250.00 compensation set up in the budget for doctors holding clinics should be taken care of by the health doctor, but due to the ethics of the medical profession it is wrong for a doctor to practice for a salary paid by the public. At the same time it is perfectly proper for him to receive a salary from a corporation or an individual for the same kind of work.

Due to increases in taxable values we have been able to meet these increases in spending and maintain a surplus without any increase in the levy. Our county is growing and, if equitable assessments are made, we shall have sufficient funds to finance any improvements we may need without any increase in the present levy. My advice to the tax payer is to familiarize himself with the budget of the last four years, compare it with the budget of the last four years, and, if it does not meet with his approval, be present at the hearing. Do not say "there is no use." You will find the Board glad to hear your criticisms or recommendations.

In closing, I will say that I am proud of the part that I have had in the relief work done in this county.
(signed) C. B. Roland.

BABY CONTEST IS GOING ON

Who is going to get the cup? That is what the Sophomores intend to find out in the "Popularity Contest" which takes place from February 22 to March 16.

The contest has begun. The classrooms and some of the business firms have registered. There are still many left to be registered. The voting is to be carried on until March 16. Then we will find out who will receive the cup. Make your contestant or the one you admire win.

Votes will be sold by the sponsors of various babies. They will be deposited in the boxes found throughout the town. The sponsors may boast their contestants by posters, articles, pictures, or radio advertising.

The ones registered are: Barbara Clark, Miss Thomas' room; Harold Lawes, Jr., Miss Lula Metz's room; Doris Ann Kline, Miss Van Deusen's room; Bobby Jones, Miss Grace Metz's room; Phyllis J. Vance, Miss Smith's room; Kathryn D. Baker, Miss Johnson's room, and Ruth Thomas, Miss Lutes' room.

O.D.H.S. NEWS

Dr. Lyle Hedman, the dentist sent to the schools in Prince William County, has begun work at Occoquan. This work is being done at greatly reduced prices, due to help from the county.

A beautiful new maroon and gold curtain has been purchased by the Ways and Means Committee and now hangs in the auditorium. This curtain is offset by a light gray cyclorama, and the effect produced by the two is very striking.

Twenty new members to the House of Representatives have been chosen for the next semester.

On Friday, February 3, Occoquan High was honored by the visit of sixteen teachers and Mrs. Ruth W. Hooper, supervisor, who came to observe the school. Twelve of the group were from Warsaw's Elementary and High School and the remaining four were from Newland School.

William Barnett, of Pennsylvania, called at the school several weeks ago and photographed the entire student body. The pictures have arrived, and, strangely enough, they satisfy.

On February 8, Occoquan dropped a double header basketball game to Lee Jackson by the scores of (ladies first) 22-13; 20-13. The Indians and Squaws then journeyed to Manassas February 14, and met defeat again, this time by the tallies of 19-8; 37-19.

The High School opera has been postponed until this Friday evening—Misses Keller and Piland are directing.

MANASSAS GARDEN CLUB TO BE GUESTS AT VIENNA MEETING

The February meeting of the Manassas Garden Club will be held at the home of Mrs. V. V. Gillum on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30.

Members of the club have been invited to meet with the Ayr Hill Garden Club at the parish hall in Vienna, Va., on Monday, February 27, at 2:00 p.m. The topics to be discussed are "Roadside Beautification" and Elimination of Signboards."

OLD LANDMARK CHANGES HANDS

This week Dr. George B. Cocke, popular pharmacist of Manassas, announces the purchase from Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson of the Prince William Pharmacy, which will be continued under the competent management of Dr. R. M. Callis, who has been in charge for some time.

For more than thirty years this well known establishment has served the community and surrounding areas. The business was purchased by the late Dr. C. R. C. Johnson in 1909 from Dr. S. S. Simpson, a well known medical practitioner of his day. Dr. Johnson gave the firm its present name and conducted the business for approximately a quarter of a century until his death.

As announced elsewhere in this issue of the Journal, the old establishment will be continued, but with greatly enlarged facilities, including day and night service.

HANSBOROUGH PERISH IN FIRE

Father and Seven Children
Die as Home Burns

Ed: Hansborough, well known manager of the Moses Athletic Club, died, together with seven children, in the fire which consumed his home late Friday night.

When discovered the fire had spread beyond control and, there being no night telephone connections with Manassas, little could be done either in the way of rescue or to ascertain the actual facts connected with the cause and unusual rapidity with which the fire swept through the two story frame house.

Only Mrs. Hansborough and one child, John, escaped. The children, who perished with their father and ranged from twelve years in age to an infant, were Harriet, Buddy, Sam, Molly, Beulah, Lena and Effie.

Due to conflicting reports, authorities are investigating the circumstances thoroughly and the inquest has been delayed in order that all available information on the tragedy can be secured.

Funeral services were conducted at the Woodlawn Church on Monday afternoon at 2:00, with interment in the Manassas cemetery. A very large gathering witnessed the last rites and the esteem with which the deceased was held by his friends and neighbors was attested by the profusion of lovely flowers which accompanied the single casket to its final resting place.

MANASSAS STUDENT HONORED

Mr. Samuel C. Hottle, student at Washington and Lee University at Lexington and son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hottle, was honored on Sunday, February 12, by being initiated into the very well-known national social fraternity, Beta Theta Pi. Mr. Hottle was one of fourteen initiates who became members of the Ward L. Alpha Rho Chapter on Sunday. It is interesting to note that Mr. Hottle becomes one of the Centennial members, the Fraternity having been founded at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, in 1839, where a big celebration will take place this summer.

Following the formal initiation ceremonies, the Fraternity entertained the new members at a banquet at the Robert E. Lee Hotel. Among the speakers at the banquet was Mr. Jerome Frampton, Jr., of Fredericksburg, Maryland, brother-in-law of Mr. Hottle and a member of Beta Theta Pi and alumnus of Washington and Lee, who was present in Lexington for the ceremonies.

DEPUTY CLERK APPOINTED

On Wednesday Judge Walter McCarty appointed Mr. John M. Piercy, Jr., Deputy Clerk of the Court of Prince William County.

Mr. Piercy is a graduate of the Haymarket High School and has a fine record at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, and enters upon his duties with the best wishes of the Journal and a host of other friends.

DANCE AT HAYMARKET MAR. 17

The dance committee of the Gainesville District P. T. A. is making plans for their next dance to be held on Friday, March 17, in the school auditorium from 10 till 2 a.m.

The same popular orchestra from Fredericksburg will furnish the music.

ARMY CORPS TO MANEUVER HERE

Now Obtaining Permissions
From Prince William Land Owners

One of the largest army maneuvers to be staged in recent years will take this summer in southern Prince William County, if plans of the War Department are perfected according to schedule.

At a meeting held in the Manassas Town Hall on Tuesday afternoon local committees were formed under chairmanship of Mr. E. R. Conner to secure the necessary permissions from land owners. Little difficulty is anticipated along this line as the maneuvers will release more than a half a million dollars in salary to troopers and there will be expended something like a quarter of a million in supplies, much of which will be expended with local business concerns. Previous experience in this area with the War Department seems to amply justify the belief that much local benefit will result, and that any damages sustained by property owners will be liberal and promptly liquidated.

The local committee consists of Hon. George Herring and Messrs. E. R. Conner, Wm. F. Cocke, Cleve Russell, Stanley Owens and Dudley Martin, and they have been authorized to proceed immediately with the rather difficult task of contacting immediately the hundreds of land owners concerned in the large area of Prince William County lying south of Occoquan and Bull Run, the Southern Railroad to a point nearly as far westward as Nokesville.

In response to a request for detailed facts, Mr. Cocke has received a letter from Col. J. A. Baer, Chief of Staff, which is herewith published in full:

Baltimore, Md.
February 16, 1939

Mr. Wm. F. Cocke, Town Manager, Manassas, Va.

Dear Mr. Cocke:

In accordance with your request to the Corps Area representatives at the meeting at Dumfries, Va., on the evening of February 15, 1939, the following information in connection with the corps area maneuvers proposed to be held in the Manassas-Dumfries area is furnished you to be used in any manner that you see fit.

The number of men and officers participating in this maneuver will be approximately 23,000 from the Regular Army and the National Guards of Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia. The maneuver will cover the period from August 5 to August 19, 1939.

There has been allotted by the War Department $200,000 for expenses in connection with this maneuver and in addition thereto there will be spent for perishable foods, i.e., fresh vegetables, milk, etc., approximately $75,000. These items will be purchased through bids, local residents of course having the opportunity to bid.

The pay of the troops will amount to approximately $625,000 for the time they are in the maneuver area.

It is not anticipated that the troops will be able to operate post exchanges. These facilities should properly be furnished by the residents of the area.

In connection with the permits to be signed by the residents in the maneuver area, this permits gives permission for the troops to enter upon and pass through the property and does not in any way take away the right of the owner to present a claim for damages in the event that any damage occurs to his property because of its use by the troops.

In the past where damage has occurred to fences, private lanes and private culverts, it has been customary to have Engineer troops make repairs. This method was found entirely satisfactory to both the government and the property owners. However, in the case where the property owner does not desire these repairs made but does desire to present a claim for damages, this, of course, is his privilege.

While there is stated in the body of the body of the form of the permit that claims for damages should be submitted at Fort Belvoir, Va., there will be provided a number of boards of officers, these boards accompanied by local representatives from the community and paid by the government, to meet with those persons suffering any damage and pass upon their claims.

The Janneys were as surprised as Mr. McClasky. Games were played before serving refreshments; presents were given Mr. McClasky which he was required to open then. Some of the presents

"BURN 'EM UP O'CONNOR"

A Hitherto neglected field for motion picture thrills has provided the dramatic background for "Burn 'Em Up O' Connor," opening Saturday, February 25, at the Pitts' Theatre. The new field is that of midwest automobile racing which has suddenly swept the world of sports and in which junior speed demons risk their lives daily to offer exciting moments to speed-crazed galleries.

"Burn 'Em Up O' Connor" is the first in a series of sport features which M-G-M will produce. It teams Dennis O'Keefe and Cecilia Parker for the first time and also marks the return of Edward Sedgwick to M-G-M's family of ace directors.

O'Keefe, who virtually leaped from the extra ranks to the romantic lead in "The Bad Man of Brimstone," portrays a farmer boy with an appetite for speed and becomes a sensational race driver. Miss Parker plays the daughter of a jinxed racing auto manufacturer who finally learns to love him for his honesty and courage.

Others in the cast include Nat Pendleton as O'Keefe's comic pal, Harry Carey of "Trader Horn" fame, Addison Richards, Charley Grapewin playing his first "heavy" role in a score of years, and Alan Curtis who will be remembered as Joan Crawford's husband in "Mannequin."

Participants in the exciting racing sequences include Louis Meyer, thrice winner of the Indianapolis 500-mile classic; Kelly Petillo, 1937 winner; Rex Mays, Fred Frame, Art Sparks, Joel Thorne and Ronnie Householder.

"Burn 'Em Up O' Connor" is the story of a farm boy with a craze for speed. In each of his races one of his teammates is always killed. Believing that they are being deliberately murdered by an enemy of his employer, O'Keefe solves the mystery when he discovers that his team's trainer has been washing the drivers' eyes with a poison solution that blinds them and causes the crashes. Throughout the story runs a delightful love story involving O'Keefe and Miss Parker, daughter of his employer.

D. C. AUTO LICENSING

With the rush now on to issue automobile license tags for the Nation's Capital by March 1, the District of Columbia Traffic Department is engaged in the colossal task of distributing tags for more than 215,000 automobiles. A story appearing in The Star next Sunday describes some of the special problems that confront officials of Washington, second only to Detroit among American cities in the number of vehicles per capita.

Among these problems are the numerous courtesy licenses issued for cars owned by members of the diplomatic House, and other official and privileged groups. Twenty years ago there were only about 35,000 automobiles in the District, a figure that has been multiplied by six in two decades.

"STAND UP AND FIGHT" DEPICTS RIVALRY BETWEEN RAILROAD AND STAGECOACH LINES

A new co-starring team of Wallace Beery, veteran of twenty-six years of film service and Robert Taylor, top male name among the younger group, makes its first appearance in "Stand Up and Fight," outdoor action drama describing the bitter rivalry between the railroad and stagecoach lines of the 1850's. The be shown at the Pitts' Theatre next Thursday and Friday, March 2 and 3.

Making the team a triumvirate, Florence Rice, by virtue of outstanding work in "Fast Company" and "Sweethearts," wins her most important assignment to date as Taylor's leading lady. Miss Rice is seen as the owner of a stagecoach line of which Beery is manager and for which Taylor, a bankrupt young Maryland aristocrat, is forced to go to work.

Based on Forbes Parkhill's novel, "Stand Up and Fight" stresses rapid-fire action throughout, with two bareknuckle fights between Taylor and Beery, a saloon brawl, jail dynamiting, gunfight, covered wagon wreck and a race between a train and stagecoach providing plot complications. A distinguished featured cast includes Helen Broderick as Aunt Amanda, Miss Rice's chaperon; Charles Bickford and Barton MacLane as suspected slave-runners; Charley Grapewin as Beery's aide; John Qualen as Davey, freight wagon driver and bosom friend of Taylor; Robert Gleckler as the Sheriff; Clinton Rosemond as Enoch, fugitive slave and Taylor's former butler.

We wish to thank our various correspondents for sending their notes early this week.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

We love him, because he first loved us.—1 John 4:19.

APPROACHING MILITARY MANEUVERS

If the necessary permissions can be secured from the respective property owners the War Department will hold military maneuvers in southern Prince William County this summer which will exceed anything of the kind which has been witnessed in this section since the fiftieth anniversary of the Battle of Manassas. More than twenty thousand troops will gather here for war practice and a great deal of money will be expended locally for supplies and entertainment.

In Europe military authorities do not bother about permissions from land owners, nor do they worry about reimbursements to civilians, but in our democratic land property owners are accorded every courtesy and are fully compensated for any materials used or damages resulting from occupations by troops, and no land is utilized except by duly authorized permission.

In these days when unprepared nations are ruthlessly victimized by aggressor powers, it becomes a matter of patriotism that full co-operation should be accorded our relatively small military organization, in order that our country may be as well prepared as possible for any eventuality that may occur in a world heavily overhung with the clouds of war, and it is hoped, and fully anticipated that the citizens of southern Prince William will co-operate heartily with the local committee in their really gigantic task of securing these necessary permissions within the short time required.

HOLD HIGH THE TORCH

On Monday night there gathered in New York City a group named the "Nazi-Bund." Without going into any excessive emotion we would like to call attention to the fact that these crackpots and windjammers met under the protection afforded them by a civilization that they seek ultimately to destroy.

They are calling on youth to crush the work of their fathers and to fling defiance at the achievements of the past.

There is something grotesquely ironical about this, and yet it is no worse than things that have happened in the past century, fermented by turbulent restlessness inspired by theorists who are just as dangerous now as their forebears were two or three generations ago.

Twenty years before war broke out between the States of the Union, the most pessimistic person in any section would never have predicted the breakdown of civilization that ensued.

And now for fifty years the Federal Government has been trying to gloss over that awful era by almost canonizing some of the worst fiends of history and simultaneously offering a sop of flabby praise of the heroes who fought to repel Federal invasion. As long as our veterans were alive to push the lies back down the throats of the sycophants who prate for money, there was not much danger of a collapse of the stern spirit of the old Southern patriot.

However, a new generation is now arising. They are young people far removed from the scene of carnage and outrage and they do not understand all of the real facts of history.

To make matters worse, our schools have been honeycombed with insidious propaganda under the guise of a new youth movement until the day may be reached when the descendants of Confederate soldiers will apologize for what their forebears did in 1861. And what did they do in 1861? They stemmed the tide of Federal Tyranny and raised the banner of State Rights which is today the basis of American Democracy.

Something must be done to wake up the Young South, or they, like the ancient Trojans, may believe the "Greeks bearing gifts." The scene has changed, but not the motive behind the crackpot who would tear down and destroy what he cannot dominate. He cannot now accomplish by force what he tried to do seventy-five years ago, so he is patiently campaigning to undermine the self-respect of a section of the country that in itself largely made possible the government that has so far lasted as a Democracy despite the heavy blows caused by erraticism, greed and envy.

Something indeed must be done to awaken the Young South to its danger. There is as much difference between the ideals of the South and those who would "Americanize" us as there is between light and darkness.

LAMOUR-NOLAN TEAM TOPS BIG-NAME CAST

Dorothy Lamour's many local fans will see their favorite star with a new leading man and a highly original screen story, when the Paramount romance with music, "St. Louis Blues," opens next Monday and Tuesday, February 27-28, at the Pitts' Theatre. Teamed with rugged Lloyd Nolan, Miss Lamour plays dazzling theatrical celebrity who runs away from fame and glamour and finds love on a Mississippi river showboat.

The story, by John C. Moffitt and Malcolm Stuart Boylan, two writers who know the Mississippi region from first-hand experience, plots Miss Lamour's exciting experiences from the dramatic moment when she rebels against her manager's insistence that she always appear in public in a sarong, palming herself off as a South Sea native, and decides to make her getaway once and for all.

From this point on, most of the action of "St. Louis Blues" takes place aboard Nolan's rather down-at-the-heels show-boat, one of the few such heels show-boat, one of the few such 1939. Not knowing who Miss Lamour is when she arrives in a much-bedraggled state, the hardboiled Nolan gives her a job as singer.

The showboat sequences offer Miss Lamour and other members of the cast ample opportunities to sing Hollywood's newest and most popular song hits, written especially for the film by such outstanding tunesmiths as Leo Robin, Sam Coslow, Hoagy Carmichael, Frank Loesser, Matty Malneck and Burton Lane. The five new numbers are: "Kind'a Lonesome," "I Go For That," "Blue Nightfall," "Junior" and "Let's Dream In The Moonlight."

"St. Louis Blues" boasts one of the year's most talented casts of supporting players. Tito Guizar, the charming young Mexican who won feminine hearts everywhere in "Tropic Holiday," plays a Mississippi planter in love with one of the showboat troupe, Mary "Punkin" Parker. Maxine Sullivan, the dusky songstress who has made swinging the classics a national pastime, renders her versions of "Loch Lomond" and the famous Russian folk song, "Dark Eyes."

Two motion picture actors, staging a fight on the Kernville, California location for the new "Hopalong Cassidy" picture, "Sunset Trail," smashed up a jail and added $60 to producer Harry Sherman's production costs. That was the cost of repairing the wall when the two actors unintentionally smashed out the hoosegow in the course of the fight.

Director Lesley Selander had rented the tiny, ramshackle jail as a movie set for the picture. But neither the director, nor the producer—nor the sheriff himself—had counted on the ravages made by sun and storm on the ancient calaboose.

We wish to thank our various correspondents for sending their notes early this week.

A car that SAVES DOLLARS without PINCHING PENNIES ...

ECONOMY is one famous Ford word. Quality is another. And no Ford car has ever linked the two more clearly than the present Ford V-8! It marks a new high in fine transportation at low cost.

Its price is lower than Ford prices a year ago. Operating economy is now a matter of record with over 5 million Ford V-8 owners. Low upkeep cost is doubly assured—once by the stamina of Ford parts, and again by low cost Ford service.

For over-all economy, no Ford car has ever equalled this one. And with its thrift goes quality.

It is big, good-looking, easy-riding. It has fine appointments, generous luggage space, big hydraulic brakes. Passengers enjoy a quiet ride, as well as triple-cushioned comfort.

The Ford V-8 comes in 3 body types, each with your choice of thrifty 60 h.p. or brilliant 85 h.p. V-8 engine. Like all Ford-built cars, the Ford V-8 includes in its price much desirable equipment which isn't listed and charged for as extra.

HIS ANNIVERSARY

By Algia A. Martin

George Washington
A mighty man was he,
Was kind and very just
And believed in humanity.
He worked for the good
Of his beloved land,
And in many of hardships
He kept a steady hand.
This is the Anniversary
Of his long ago birth,
But he is remembered
All over this earth.
Yes, George Washington
Was very kind and just,
And a mighty man was he
Because he believed in humanity.

Bronchial Coughs
Need Creomulsion

Just a common cough, a chest cold, or a bronchial irritation of today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. They may be relieved now with Creomulsion, an emulsified Creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medicinal combination designed to aid nature in soothing and healing infected mucous membranes by allaying irritation and inflammation and by aiding in loosening and expelling germ-laden phlegm. The Medical Profession has for generations recognized the beneficial effect of Beechwood Creosote in the treatment of coughs, chest colds, and bronchial irritations. A special process was worked out by a chemist, for blending Creosote with other ingredients so that now in Creomulsion you get a good dose of genuine Beechwood Creosote which is palatable and may be taken frequently by both adults and children. Creomulsion is one preparation that goes to the very seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm. When coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles—due to common colds—hang on, get a bottle of Creomulsion from your druggist, use it as directed and if you are not satisfied with the relief obtained, the druggist is authorized to refund your money. Creomulsion is one word, ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

MILTON HITT LIGHTNER

Milton Hitt Lightner, aged 81, a resident of the Haymarket community since 1904, died last Wednesday after a very brief illness. He was born in Augusta County, Virginia, on January 9, 1858, the son of Thomas and Lucy Ann Lightner.

His earliest recollections were of the "booming guns" of the famous Valley campaigns. As was the case with any other good old Southern family, his father and all other male relations who were old enough saw valiant service in the cause of the Confederacy.

In 1890, he married Caledonia Green, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Green, also of his home county. Of that marriage a number of children survive, his wife having died some time ago. They are Mr. Louis Lightner and Mrs. Grant Lyons, of Haymarket; Mrs. James E. Norman, of Purcellville, Messrs. Wheatley and Nimrod Lightner, of Fairfax, and Dr. Gordon Lightner and Mr. Jack Lightner, both of Kahului, Maui, Hawaiian Islands.

In early life, Mr. Lightner associated with the Presbyterian church. He was always a farmer and remained quite active almost up to his death. In school affairs, he was very interested, being a member of the Gainesville District school board under the late George Tyler. It was under his administration that the "new" high school was erected. For a number of years he belonged to the Grange.

The funeral took place on Friday last at St. Paul's Episcopal church, with Rev. W. F. Carpenter, officiating. The pall bearers were Messrs. John Carter, Buddy Beane, Albert Rust, Buddy Smith, Zeb Clarke and Norville Wheeler.

CENTREVILLE

The vestry of St. John's will meet with the Rector next Wednesday.

All plans for the oyster supper on March 3rd are now complete and the ladies of St. John's Guild are very anxious to see a nice crowd in attendance.

Mrs. Fannie Harrison was taken to the hospital for an operation last week. She is reported some better at this writing.

Miss Sada Woltz was quite ill over the week-end with an attack of flu.

Mr. Holmes has purchased a tract of land below the village and is landscaping it in a very attractive manner.

Mrs. Dorothy Radford and mother will spend the month of March in Florida. Mr. Barbee will occupy "Middegate" during their absence.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Christ Jesus" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 26.

The Golden Text will be "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; . . . And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him" (Col. 3: 16, 17).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this" (Isaiah 9:2, 6, 7).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the scripture," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Throughout all generations both before and after the Christian era, the Christ, as the spiritual idea,—the reflection of God,—has come with some measure of power and grace to all prepared to receive Christ, Truth" (p. 333).

MRS. SARAH S. CLARKE

Mrs. Sarah Summers Clarke, of Merced City, Calif., died February 3 in the ninety-fifth year of her age. Mrs. Clarke was born in Fairfax County, Va., and her home at the beginning of the war was between Manassas and Centreville, at an old homestead named Level Green which is still standing. Col. Platt and Col. Fisher of the Union army had headquarters there at the Battle of Manassas. Later Gen. Beauregard used the house for his staff officers. Mrs. Clarke's mother, Mrs. Summers, and her family, had to flee.

After the sixties, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke went to California and were pioneers there. Mrs. Clarke lived 12 years after they celebrated their golden wedding. Mrs. Clarke survived him 11 years.

Mrs. Clarke was the eldest sister of the late Mrs. Belle J. Holden, and aunt of Mrs. Robert Hutchison. Mrs. Clarke has written a book of her experiences in Virginia and California one of which is in the Alderman Library at Charlottesville, Va.

LICENSES TO BE RENEWED

A busy season is ahead for the State Division of Motor Vehicles, which is preparing to renew approximately 750,000 driving permits and to issue approximately 450,000 license plates. Col. M. S. Battle, director of the division, has announced that applications for renewal of driving permits and auto license plates will be mailed to motorists on March 10. Under the law, all driving permits must be renewed by July 1, at which time the present permit becomes void. Applications for operators' licenses will be mailed only to those persons who are responsible for automobile license plates. Applicants who do not own automobiles must obtain applications from the division offices, or at any of the authorized license agents throughout the State. Fifty cents must be mailed with each application. The 1939 license plates will be on sale from March 15 to April 15.

QUIET TALKS ON RELIGION

BY
DR. JAMES T. MARSHALL
HIS RIGHT TO HONOR

"Honor thy father and thy mother." (Exodus 20:12) Nowhere in Scripture are the rights of man better summarized than in the second table of the Decalogue. They are all included in the familiar statement of Jesus, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

The first and direct application of the Fifth Commandment is to the relations of parents and children. In our day no command is more flagrantly disregarded than this. Parents now obey their children, not children their parents. When there is no respect for authority in the home we have little reason to expect it in society as a whole. The responsibility rests squarely on the shoulders of the parents who neglect the training of the children whom God has given them. The Scriptures record the divine condemnation of Eli because "his sons made themselves vile and he restrained them not." Where the modern parent falls down most is in the failure to set a good example to the child. When father and mother run around all night and get home in the early morning they cannot consistently reprove their sons and daughters for desiring to follow their example. While the Fifth Commandment requires that child should honor their fathers and mothers, it is clearly implied that these fathers and mothers should be worthy of such honor.

This commandment, in common with the other nine commandments, must be interpreted in the light of the broad principle upon which it rests. We are under obligation to yield proper respect to all our fellow men because they are children of God, whether we think of them as our superiors, inferiors or equals.

This was one of the most striking traits in the character of our Lord. He had a perfect contempt for spiritual pride and snobbery. He welcomed the publican and the harlot and transformed into saints; He received the leper kindly, though society had made him an outcast, and restored him to health; and He took the children in His arms and said "See that ye despise not one of these little ones."

"God is no respecter of persons," This means that His judgments are not based upon outward conditions as ours are. His ways are not our ways, neither are His thoughts our thoughts. We are swayed by our race prejudices, religious disagreements, and class hatreds. None of these baser sentiments have any place in the heart of a Christian. As St. John puts it, if we do not love our brother whom we have seen how can we love God whom we have not seen? Snobbery cannot live side by side with the Spirit of God in a human heart.

The poor man with his shabby suit and humble home is as much entitled to respect as the millionaire with his silk hat and big mansion. In his plea for proper regard for the poor the poet Gray writes, Let not ambition mock their humble toil,

Their homely toil, their destiny obscure, Nor grandeur hear with a disdainful smile The short but simple annals of the poor.

This lesson is peculiarly apt in this day when a determined effort is being made to destroy the dignity of men as individuals and regiment them under brutal tyranny making them mere gadgets in the machinery of the state. Democracy must be defended at all costs, and we of the United States will never surrender the priceless gift of freedom of thought for which our fathers died.
