CULPEPER HORSE SHOW TO BE LARGE

Officials Announce Entries Rapidly Filling

The Culpeper Horse Show and Races—which will hold its 36th annual exhibition on Monday and Tuesday, July 3 and 4, promises to be one of the largest ever held here, for entries are coming in from some of the most outstanding stables in the State and in the District and nearby Maryland, and it is a matter of comment that local interest is greater than for many years.

The 60-acre grounds have been put in order, whitewash and paint being used lavishly, fences have been repaired, all of the steeplechase jumps repaired and rebuilt, and the outside course conditioned. Most important of all, for the comfort of the visitors, is the improvement on the roads leading into the grounds, which has been covered with sand and gravel to harden surface and eliminate both dust and possible mud.

The officials of the show are working on a plan which will save time and aid in running classes to be run off on schedule time, this being to have conformation judged outside the show ring while another class is being shown, the winners being brought back into the ring to receive their ribbons. The same splendid sound system as used last year will be installed and the decorations of bunting and national colors, especially in keeping with the "Glorious Fourth," will be used on the grandstand and other places.

Indicative of the increased interest in heavy draft horses, is the decision of the association to have a new class, one for draft stallions, which is expected to attract wide-spread interest. Two more new classes in the list of 31 for the two days, are for ponies, one of these being a pumping class for these little animals that are always grandstand favorites, and who, with their small and determined riders, always get a ringing hand.

Prospects are rosy for the Aberdeen-Angus cattle show, which was given last year for the first time and proved such a success that it will be repeated on July 3 and 4, and the six classes as listed will be filled from the best herds in the East, and with cattle that are ready to go into strong competition anywhere. It is expected that two Grand Champions—who were awarded this honor on successive years in the National Live Stock Show, will be shown in Culpeper, and the fine herds of Northern Virginia counties will be well represented. A parade of these cattle will be held each day during the noon intermission before the grandstand.

Entries of unusual excellence have been received for the steeplechase, and this last event of each day's program is expected to be good. There are also a number of entries for the flat races, although ordinarily these entries trail those of the exhibition classes.

ALUMNI PICNIC AT HAYMARKET, JULY 9

The Alumni Association of Haymarket High School will have a picnic on Ellis Brothers' Run, near Greenwich, on Sunday afternoon, July 9th, beginning at 4:30. This is a good time for all those who have finished at least two years of high school at Haymarket to get together and show their interest in this organization. Swimming, games and other amusements will be the order of the afternoon.

As we have not been able to get a complete list of addresses for those who should be members of the organization, it will be much appreciated if those who see this notice will try to bring it to the attention of as many others as possible. Each married member will, of course, bring husband or wife, and each other member may invite a guest.

With the help of all we should be able to make a real organization of this, so let's try to get together next Sunday and see just what we can do about it. The date was set for Sunday because we felt that this would give more of you an opportunity to attend and we hope that you will take advantage of it.

ANNIVERSARY OF GASOLINE TAX

Mr. Parrish Opposes Tax Diversion and Urges Reduction

June 27th was the sixteenth anniversary of the Virginia gasoline tax, which became effective in 1923, it was pointed out by E. G. Parrish, Prince William County Oil Chairman. The tax on gasoline had been levied by a special session of the Virginia Assembly in January of that year and was at the rate of three cents per gallon. It was subsequently raised to 4 1/2 cents and later to five cents, where it remains at present.

E. G. Parrish commemorated the sixteenth anniversary of the tax by calling on candidate, E. R. Conner, for the Virginia Assembly and expressing his opposition to diversion of highway funds and urging that a constitutional amendment preventing diversion be submitted to the people.

Mr. Parrish informed Mr. Conner that the gasoline tax has grown from a total collection in 1923 of a million and a half dollars to a total collection in 1923 of a million and a half dollars to a total collection in Virginia for 1938 of seventeen million dollars, making a sum total for the sixteen years of $166,838,260.

As a result of this, Mr. Parrish informed Mr. Conner that the average motor vehicle tax bill in Virginia last year was $64.49, which is 22 per cent over the national average of $51.13. Of this amount, each Virginia vehicle paid $44.37 in gasoline taxes, of which $37.65 was the state gasoline tax.

Mr. Parrish presented Mr. Conner with a copy of their Program of Objectives, which, among other things, urged an amendment to the state constitution preventing diversion of highway funds. He stressed the fact that the threat of diversion is ever present, citing that in 1937 a total of $130,918.00, or 17 per cent of the total gasoline taxes collected throughout the United States, was diverted. He urged the candidate to remove from highway progress this danger for all time through a constitutional safeguard.

Other points of the program are to urge that the state gasoline tax be reduced to 4 cents per gal, to advocate repeal or municipal taxes on highway transportation, to render assistance to state and federal authorities in detection and elimination of gas tax evasion, to work toward the abolition of the federal gas and oil taxes, and to oppose all taxes and other proposals inimical to the petroleum industry and its motorist customers.

HAZEN RECEIVES TESTIMONIAL

Banquet Served at Mayflower Hotel in Washington

Nearly a thousand civic leaders, public officials, sportsmen, old employees, personal friends and admirers by the score gathered in the main ball room and the adjoining balconies of the Mayflower hotel, Washington, last night to honor Hon. Melvin Colvin Hazen, native of this county, and Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia, whose service in the employ of the municipal government will see a half century Saturday.

It was indeed an enjoyable occasion. The many speeches, some of which went on the air at a later hour, all recited his life and work, all were congratulatory to say the least.

Robert V. Fleming presided. The main address was made by E. Barrett Prettyman, with the presentation of the lovely cup by Lawrence E. Williams. Mr. Hazen's reply was typical, friendly in its scope and quite simple in its presentation.

Perhaps the most significant remark during the entire evening was the statement concerning the fact that Mr. Hazen had actually laid out most of Washington beyond the old "boundary line" (Florida Avenue). The touching tributes by his old colleague, W. P. Richards, former District assessor, were indeed something for all to treasure.

Miss Margaret Cotter speaking for the ladies said that she had known him as a sportsman since she had been a very little girl. It is with that same idea in mind that the Journal reproduces the accompanying equestrian picture, taken in Manassas not so many months ago.

Mrs. Hazen was present to share the Commissioner's honors. A most lovely assortment of cut roses was given to her at the close of the exercises.

There will be daily tools of the experimental work being conducted at the experimental farm of several hundred acres.

Of particular interest to Prince William County farmers will be the crop and pasture improvement experimental plots, the dairy herd and the poultry plant. Every farmer owes himself a visit to the State Experiment Farm and this annual get-together offers an opportunity to combine an inspection of the results of the extensive farm experimental work being carried on there with a pleasant vacation at the time of the year that it will be most appreciated. Not only will comfortable lodging be provided at a very reasonable cost but excellent meals will be served at the V.P.I. dining hall for 35c each or $1.00 per day.

A town Clerk and town Sergeant should also be appointed at this meeting.

The ladies bridge club of Occoquan, Woodbridge, Lorton and Quantico were entertained on Monday, June 26, at the home of Mrs. Elmer E. Payne in Occoquan. All had a very entertaining and enjoyable afternoon.

The women of the Colored Baptist Missionary Society of North Western Virginia met for a two days conference at the Ebenezer Baptist Church in Occoquan during the week. There were delegates from all the colored Baptist Church within a radius of several miles. These good women do good work among the colored people; such as make arrangements to take care of the needy, provide for the sick who are not able to pay for medical care, etc. They should receive the wholehearted support of all good citizens, colored and white in this good work they have undertaken. This meeting was an annual meeting.

There passed from among us during the past week one who was loved and respected by all who came in contact with him: William L. Timms, of Lorton, Va., who passed to his reward on June 21, and was laid to rest in Cedar Hill Cemetery in Washington, D. C. Whitens False Teeth Restores Gum Color Dispel "Denture Breath"—Stains

This Safe, Easy Way
Don't let your false teeth "shout" they are false. If gums are dark and unnatural-looking with teeth dingy and stained, a Kleenite bath while you dress, or overnight, will quickly give your teeth the clean, bright, attractive lustre of "live" teeth on natural-looking gums and plate.

Here's all you do: Simply put a little Kleenite in half a glass of warm water, stir; put in your denture and leave for 15 or 20 minutes. NO Brushing—just rinse and replace.

Stains vanish like magic and gums regain their natural color—denture breath disappears. Get Kleenite today but be sure you get Kleenite. Lenthists use it and recommend it.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a precious heritage to them in later years.

Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free—John 8:32.

DOLLAR DEVALUATION

This week the United States Senate, in a surprise action, moved to end the President's emergency power to devalue the dollar. The public is not advised as to whether this action is based upon knowledge, or fear, that he will again exercise this power, but in any event it is a move in the right direction.

With leadership at stake, the President will undoubtedly use the great power of his high office to overturn this action in the House. His possible failure, however, will be viewed complacently by business, large and small. If the power is ended, the Secretary will still have ample control of the currency—too much power in fact.

Dollar devaluation, so far, has failed to accomplish the wonderful results predicted by its advocates. Likewise none of the calamities have befallen which were predicted by its opponents, but if carried further there is no foundation for a belief that serious evils may not ensue. At present the existence of this power, as much as its use, has a retarding effect upon recovery. The fear that it may again be employed promotes a widespread lack of confidence in investment values and this in turn promotes continuance of unemployment.

FOR COMMONWEALTH'S

ATTORNEY

To the Voters of Prince William County:

For the past fifteen months I have served you as Commonwealth's Attorney. When I was appointed by the Judge of the Circuit Court from the membership of the local bar to fill this position I felt personally gratified and have endeavored at all times since assuming this post to perform the duties incumbent upon the occupant without fear or favor, in the manner as dictated by my conscience.

At the very first I found the duties much more difficult than I anticipated but have become acquainted with them since my appointment. My aim has at all times been to serve the people of my county honestly and to the best of my ability.

I am sorry that I will not be able to visit every voter in person before the August Primary, but have been and will be prevented, owing to the fact that I have been and am engaged daily in performing the duties devolving upon the office.

If my record, while serving you, has met with your approval then I would greatly appreciate your support in the coming Primary. You know my capabilities in so far as this office is concerned from my record and I assure you, if elected, I shall continue to perform my duties in the manner that I have done while serving you as Commonwealth's Attorney.

Sincerely,

W. Hill Brown, Jr.

Did you attend your church last Sunday? Then if you did your church received a blessing; if not, life will ever be poorer. Get back into the habit of attending the preaching services morning and evening. You will make some happy and will be happier yourself.

Stonewall Jackson had very strong notions about Sabbath Observance. He would not even write a letter on Sunday. If he was too rigid, surely we are too loose about our regard to the Lord's Day.

We wonder why the promise made to the W.C.T.U. and the preachers was not kept by the Board of Supervisors of Prince William County? They did not have to make the promise—once the word is passed it should be kept. That is what is wrong with this country now—We were told when the question of prohibition repeal was up that the saloon should not come back. It has not come back as a saloon in Virginia but something infinitely worse. Under the old saloon regime a woman nor minor could not enter its portals—now anybody who has the price can enter and bar-maids are being used to draw men customers. Now the Sabbath day is no different than any other day and the old business goes on. Why did not the Supervisors keep their word to the preachers and the W.C.T.U.?

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear son, Jimmie T. Bean. A year ago, June 23, he was called away.

How we missed you it is sad to tell I know not when the day will come, I know not when our eyes may meet

What welcome you may give to us Or what your words be sad or sweet.

It may not be till years have passed And our eyes are dim and tresses gray The world is wide but, Jimmie, Our hands, our hearts must meet some day.

I know not, are you far or near, I know not who the blame should bear Or who should plead or who forgive But when we meet we shall be content.

Some day our eyes, clearer grown, The truth may see And every cloud shall roll away That darkens love 'twixt you and me.

Some day, Jimmie, we will meet you I know not how or when But we love you and always will Our minds are as clear as the day That you were called away And hope to meet you some day.

Grade "A," Raw and Pasteurized Milk

DARI-RICH CHOCOLATE

Protect your family health with pasteurized quality milk—same price as raw.

Our latest test by the District of Columbia Health Department was 800 c.c. bacteria score.

We have installed one of the latest modern pasteurizing units. The milk is pasteurized, bottled and capped with the same unit without being handled by hands.

We are pleased to serve you with modern methods.
