Mrs. R. B. Larkin, Mrs. George Dessler, Mrs. Will Larkin and Mrs. T. J. Ashford were hostesses on Wednesday to the Manassas Chapter U. D. C., Mrs. R. L. Byrd presiding. The attendance was unusually large. Mrs. Murray Hawkins of Washington was a house guest.

The historical topic was Founder's Day, the United Daughters of the Confederacy being founded in Nashville, Tenn., September 10, 1894. The Manassas Chapter was organized on July 27, 1896, at the Cannon House by Mrs. James Mercer Garnett, with ten members. The first meeting was held the next day at Mrs. E. E. Meredith's, who was elected president.

Mrs. Newman read the original minutes of that first meeting. She also exhibited her Confederate Scrap Book, which will be presented to the Richmond Convention. A poem, "Keep A-Goin'," by Frank L. Stanton, was read, and an article about the Jefferson Davis Highway which now reaches across the continent.

Mrs. Newman read an original letter, found at Arlington House, from Gen. Lee to his son, written as Gen. Lee was leaving for New Mexico. It was a beautiful letter of counsel, and contained the expression so often quoted "Duty is the sublimest word in the English language."

Mrs. Hutchison read a recent clipping from a Washington paper, regarding the G. A. R.'s reaction to the film, "Gone With The Wind."

Mrs. Byrd told of going to Mrs. Albert Nelson Speiden's grave on the anniversary of her birth, August 7, with other members of the chapter, and placing the Confederate flag and flowers on her grave, with a simple heartfelt service of what she meant to the chapter, concluding with the singing of "Blest Be The Tie That Binds."

The president, Mrs. Byrd, presented Mrs. Dessler with her membership certificate and the chapter gave her a hearty welcome. The names of Misses Marie and Mabel Latimer of Washington were presented for membership. They will give as their Confederate ancestor Major Jo Latimer, known as the Boy Major.

Mrs. Douglas, a member of the Blue Ridge Grays at Ruckersville, wishes a demit to this chapter.

Letters were read from Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Slonaker in regard to the Division Convention in Richmond, October 3-6. All meetings will be held in the Jefferson Hotel. The following delegates were elected: Mrs. R. L. Byrd, Mrs. McDuff Green, Mrs. Maude Kincheloe, Mrs. Guy Allen. Alternates: Mrs. C. B. Compton, Mrs. C. W. Rector, Mrs. T. J. Ashford, Mrs. R. A. Hutchison. Delegates to the General Convention in November in Charleston, S. C. are R. L. Byrd, Mrs. L. J. Carper, Mrs. McDuff Green, Miss Florence Lion; Alternates: Mrs. R. A. Hutchison, Mrs. George Dessler, Mrs. Jenkyn Davies, sr., and Mrs. A. C. Washington.

Election of chapter officers resulted as follows: president, Mrs. McDuff Green; 1st vice-president, Mrs. E. H. Marsteller; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. E. H. Nash; 3rd vice-president, Mrs. R. S. Hynson, recording secretary, Mrs. L. J. Carper; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Margaret Lewis; treasurer, Mrs. J. T. Broadbush; historian, Mrs. R. L. Byrd; recorder of crosses, Mrs. C. W. Rector; director of C. of C., Mrs. J. D. Baker; registrar, Mrs. B. F. Knox and custodian, Mrs. W. A. Newman.

Mrs. Byrd in retiring from the chair expressed her appreciation of the loyal support of the chapter and urged that the loyalty be continued to the incoming president. A vote of thanks was given Mrs. Byrd for her capable and untiring service during the two years of her presidency.

The chapter adjourned to meet the second Wednesday in October with Mrs. Guy G. Allen and Mrs. Benjamin F. Knox as hostesses.

It being the birthday of Mrs. A. C. Hart, all present sang, "Happy Birthday To You," and felicitated her upon the occasion.

The delicious refreshments served by the hostesses and "The feast of reason and the flow of soul" much enjoyed by the many present.

GARDEN SECTION HOLDS FIRST MEETING OF NEW SEASON

The Garden Section of the Woman's Club of Manassas opened its 1939-40 season with a meeting at the home of Mrs. Margaret Lewis on Tuesday evening of this week. Plans were discussed for the year and numerous civic projects were proposed for consideration. The section will concentrate its efforts on additional planting at the High School, and at the entrance to town.

Instead of holding a Fall Flower show the Section decided to have an exhibit of flower arrangements at the September meeting of the Woman's Club. All members of the Women's Club are invited and urged to exhibit their choice blossoms at this time.

Mrs. Marie Larkin gave an interesting paper on "Making The Most of a Small Garden." She gave some very useful information on just how and what to plant in one small space to insure a succession of bloom through the entire season.

Mrs. Lewis was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Charles Linton and Mrs. Mamie Lynch Delaney.

WAR HAS BEGUN!

On September 1, 1939, Adolph Hitler, the self-styled German Fuehrer, ordered his troops into Poland against the positive assurances from both England and France that they would immediately fulfill their guarantees to the invaded nation. On Sunday, September 3, the German Chancellor was duly notified that unless he immediately withdrew his troops from Poland, England and France would fight. A deadline was fixed which ended at 11 a.m. London time, and as this time expired without reply from Germany the British Prime Minister proclaimed by radio to the British Empire and the listening world that a state of war existed between England and Germany.

Twenty minutes later Herr von Ribbentrop handed the British Ambassador at Berlin, Sir Neville Henderson, an eleven page refusal, which presented specious arguments placing the war blame on England. A few hours later, on this same fateful Sunday, France followed England in proclaiming a state of war with Germany.

In the fearful war which began in 1914, the blame was not immediately fixed, but eventually settled where it belonged, upon Germany. In this war, however, with the advent of radio communication, world opinion immediately crystallized against Adolph Hitler, who apparently had made up his mind to strike at Poland regardless of humanitarian appeals or possible consequences, and has already bombed defenseless towns and torpedoed an unarmed merchant ship without warning and with great loss of life.

It is possible that Hitler's assurance is derived from an understanding with Russia which as yet is unknown to the world. The Russian plan to destroy democratic government by revolutions throughout the world has proven a dismal failure and that inexplicable country is turning again to nationalism for accomplishment of its notorious objectives. It is therefore entirely reasonable to believe that Hitler and Stalin have pledged their mutual support to destroy the common foe of communism and nazism, namely the democracies of Europe, and of the world.

In any event it is obvious that the very principles upon which perpetuation of the American form of government depends is at stake. If such a nefarious combination of ruthless power succeed in obtaining its obvious objectives, the security of the United States would so surely become endangered that we cannot be neutral in sentiment in this fearful conflict which is beginning.

Every American, however, should fully endorse President Roosevelt's proclamation that there will be no black-out of peace in the United States," but also every God-fearing man and woman in this country re-echoes the concluding words of Prime Minister Chamberlain's proclamation of war, wherein he says:

"Now may God bless you all and may He defend the right. For it is evil things that we shall be fighting, against brute force, bad faith, injustice, oppression and persecution. And against them I am certain the right will prevail."

WARNING TO HUNTERS

Game Warden Brower is anxious for the public to realize that the squirrel season in Prince William is not identical with that of some other counties.

This has been brought about by the fact that a change has been made in the hunting laws of which citizens have not familiarized themselves.

Hunting of squirrels in this county runs concurrent with the rest of the season, namely from November 15 to December 31, inclusive.

Warden Brower would appreciate the cooperation of everyone in publicizing this fact for he will have to enforce the law as it is written.

RELIGIOUS FUND APPEAL ISSUED

Average Cost Per Pupil is Only $1.40 for the Year.

With the opening of school this fall, the County Council of Religious Education begins its fourth year of week day Bible instruction. Once again children in the lower grades of all our schools will begin their study of the Old Book. Every week Miss Hazel Saunders, the teacher, will reach over 600 boys and girls with a carefully planned program of Religious Education.

This work has the hearty approval of the County School Board and of the faculties in the various schools. Its popularity in Virginia is attested by the fact that it is now carried on in 22 counties and 168 communities, and that over 20,000 children are enrolled in classes.

Through the courtesy of the Manassas Journal Rev. John M. DeChant, president of the County Council, makes an appeal for the support of Week Day Religious Instruction in Prince William. The budget of $1,100.00 is raised entirely by voluntary contributions. These come from Sunday Schools all over the county, from all kinds of local organizations, and from individuals. The annual cost of this instruction is about $1.40 per pupil. Contributions range from $1.00 to $50.00. Your gift may be sent to the president, or to Mr. J. J. Conner, treasurer.

This is the most outstanding piece of cooperative religious work undertaken in the county. Here all denominational labels are laid aside, and the Bible, "the best loved book of all" is the only text. This work merits the support of people of every creed and of no creed. How many children will you provide for this year?

TO ALL WHO ARE INTERESTED IN RELIEF AND WELFARE WORK IN OCCOQUAN DISTRICT: An effort was made a couple of weeks ago to organize a Community Chest in Prince William County, but it does not seem to have been received with much favor by our county officials. Information has been received that a town or district may organize a Community Chest if sufficient people are interested in it to warrant such organization. This is a matter that could very well be taken up by the P.-T. A., at their first meeting in Occoquan High School. We are losing four or five hundred dollars a year by not having a community chest organization. All Government employees, both D. C. Employees and other Government workers allot funds each year to the community chest, all of which goes to the D. C. Community Chest. If we had such an organization here we would get one half of this money. It is worth looking into and trying to get. It costs nothing but a little effort.

The few Occoquan taxpayers who have not as yet paid their Corporation Taxes will have to be posted very soon. We feel sure you do not wish to have your name posted as delinquent, and we do hope we will not have to post you as being delinquent.

A few careless ones have not cut the weeds, etc., on their vacant property in Occoquan. Your Town Council hopes you will cut them and eliminate the necessity of the Council having to do it and charge it against the property.

The Occoquan-Woodbridge - Lorton Fire Department have received a NEW Fire Engine and it is a beauty. It would be well worth your while to set your house on fire in order to see it. The President, of the Fire Department, Mr. R. S. Hall, Occoquan, Va., is making an appeal now for donations to pay for this Fire Equipment, and hopes everybody who is able will donate what they can. It is we are sure a great source of ease and comfort to everybody in the community to know they can call on this Fire Department in case of fire; so let us donate what we can to pay for it, NOW.

VIRGINIA LEADS IN BANGS CONTROL

The Old Dominion continues to maintain its lead over all other States in the control of Bangs disease, the contagious infection that causes abortion in cattle. Officials of the State department of agriculture have been informed by the Federal bureau of animal industry that 59 Virginia counties will be designated as "modified accredited Bangs disease-free areas" as of September 1. Of the 41 counties still unaccredited, 31 have made such progress that they may be added to the cleared area within the year, it was stated at Richmond. Virginia has made a drive against Bangs disease since 1934 in cooperation with the Federal government. It has been estimated that the goal for the State as a whole can be reached at an additional cost of the Commonwealth of $290,000. Of this sum, $190,000 would be spent in the 10 counties in which so little work has been done, while the remaining $100,000 would be used for re-testing in the other 31 unaccredited areas. It has been estimated that in the 10 counties there are 120,000 cattle remaining to be tested.

"ON BORROWED TIME" OPENS ON PITTS' SCREEN

One of the outstanding Broadway stage successes of last season, which bids fair to be even more successful as a motion picture, comes to the screen of the Pitts' Theatre on Monday and Tuesday in the picturization of "On Borrowed Time."

The simple story of an old grandfather who fights Death in order to prevent the young grandson whom he adores from falling into the clutches of a scheming and unscrupulous aunt, "On Borrowed Time" presents Lionel Barrymore in one of his finest characterizations as Gramp. The mysterious stranger, Mr. Brink, personification of Death, is enacted by the British stage and screen star, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, with eight-year-old Bobs Watson, most talked-of youngster of the year, as the grandson, Pud.

Beulah Bondi appears as the devoted Granny, Eily Malyon is the hypocritical Aunt Demetria, and Una Merkel enacts Marcia, the warmly human maid. Also appearing in prominent roles are Nat Pendleton as Grimes the asylum guard, Henry Travers as Dr. Evans, Grant Mitchell as Lawyer Pilbeam, Charles Waldron as Rev. Murdock, Ian Wolfe as Charlie Wentworth church organist, Phillip Terry as Bill Lowry who shares the romantic interest with Marcia, James Burke as the sheriff, and Truman Bradley as James Northrup.

THE WORLD AROUND US

By
O. J. Schuster

POLAND IS MUCH in the news these days. To understand its affairs we must know something about the country and its people.

POLAND is a little more than half as large as the state of Texas. It is a little smaller than California.

THE POPULATION of Poland is about 35 million, or about one-fourth the population of the United States. Its people represent different races which is one of the causes of her present difficulties. While the Poles are in the majority, there are several other races making up the minorities. It should be remembered too that the Poles are Slavs, or Russians. In fact Poland was a mere province of Russia during the past 150 years, or up to the time when in 1919 it was created a republic by the diplomats who made the Versailles Treaty. Slaves were cut from Russia, Germany, and Austria to set up this new nation.

DURING THE TWENTY YEARS of its existence as a separate nation Poland has had several revolutionary changes in government. In 1921 it adopted a constitution and a republican government was established. It lasted five years, and then, in May, 1926, Marshall Pilsudski, at the head of the army, overthrew the government and set up a dictatorship. This dictatorship is virtually still in operation, although the new constitution which was adopted in 1935 modifies it somewhat. It provides for the election of a president whose term is 7 years, but it gives the president these dictatorial powers:

He appoints and dismisses at will ministers, the head of the Supreme Court, and the head of the army.

He may personally make and ratify treaties with other nations.

He may dissolve parliament at will. He may, at the close of his term of office, name one of the two candidates for the presidency—political parties are abolished.

He may personally appoint one-third of the 96 members of the Polish Senate.

ALTHO A REPUBLIC IN NAME, Poland does not resemble the picture Americans have of a republic. We would consider President Roosevelt a dictator if he exercised the right to decide the question of war or peace—as the president of Poland may—could dissolve Congress at will, dismiss the Chief Justice of the United States whenever he saw fit, could appoint 32 of our 96 senators, and name one of the only two candidates for whom American voters could cast their ballot next year.

ANOTHER OBSTACLE to national harmony in Poland is the religious differences among its people. While the majority are Roman Catholics, about 4,000,000 are adherents of the Russian Orthodox Church, 1,000,000 are Protestants, and about 3,500,000 are Jews. Germany has about two and half times the population of Poland but she has less than one-sixth as many Jews as Poland has. It is therefore evident that if war comes and Poland is defeated that unhappy country will again be divided among the victors, as was done three different times during past centuries—the last time 150 years ago when Russia seized the greater part and Germany and Austria were given a slice each.

THE QUARRELS IN EUROPE are over commercial interests, not over governments. Poland's natural resources, all her commercial interests, are the basis of the present crisis—just as was the case in 1914 when the World War began. Commercial rivalry and greed among the European nations brought on the World War—as President Wilson stated frankly in his St. Louis address in September, 1919. France, Germany, Russia, England, Italy—all of them have commercial and business interests in Poland. American investments in Poland amount to around $200,000,000. If past wars, especially the World War, have not taught that war settles nothing, only creates new wars, increases hatreds and intolerance, and destroys life as savagely as ever did Genghis Kahn or Tamerlane—if men have not learned this plain lesson there remains small hope for Western Civilization.

INDEPENDENT HILL

Mr. John S. Gaba of New York spent the holiday here with his family. Mr. and Mrs. John S. Gaba had as their week-end guests, Miss Annie Sedmak, Mr. Joseph Kubasky of New York, N. Y., Mrs. Gaba's sister, Mrs. S. Belstak and daughter, Annie, of New York, N. Y.

Mr. Claude L. Oleyar has returned home after spending several days in Buffalo, N. Y., Niagara Falls and Canada sightseeing and visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Oleyar, their son, Carl, Miss Evelyn Price spent Sunday in Cherrydale, Va. and Washington, D. C., visiting friends and relatives. They were accompanied by Miss Annie Belstak of Newmark, N. J. They were accompanied back home by Mrs. Orville Stras and Mrs. Lillian Price.

We were very sorry to hear of the death of our friend, Mrs. Irving J. Breeden. The family have our heartfelt sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Dannie Abel and family have left for a two-week's stay in Pittsburg, Pa., with Mrs. Abel's parents.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Storke and son, Billy, of Shiloh, Va., spent Friday and Saturday with Mrs. Storke's parents, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wine.

New York . . . New in everything but name, the S. S. Mauretania, successor to the famous old Cunarder of the same name, is equipped with the latest in ship-to-shore telephone service. This modern 30,000-ton luxury liner recently completed her maiden voyage across the Atlantic and is now in regular service. Rates to this ship are $9.00 when the ship is within 1,500 miles of New York and $18.00 when she is more than 1,500 miles distant.

Moscow . . . The entire link of the telephone-telegraph line between Moscow and Khabarovsk has just been completed. It is alleged that it is the longest direct telephone and telegraph line in the world, being 5,425 miles in length, or 1,130 miles longer than the Vancouver-Halifax line, which was the longest in the world prior to the completion of the Moscow-Khabarovsk line. It will be possible to transmit simultaneously three telephone conversations, 19 telegrams and 1 telephoto over one pair of wires on this line.

Manchester . . . Crown Prince Olav of Norway and Crown Princess Martha, while on a visit in Manchester, Mass., held a surprise transatlantic telephone chat with their children in the royal palace at Oslo. The ocean-bridging telephone conversation was arranged by their host, according to the Associated Press, and for several minutes the touring royal couple talked with their three youngsters back home.

Colombo . . . Three dial telephone exchanges have been installed in Colombo, Ceylon. Climatic conditions necessitated the treatment of parts of the equipment with a special tropical finish and rooms in which the dial equipment operates are air-conditioned. The service, which serves a city of about 285,000 people, has been fully converted to dial operation.

New York . . . When a subscriber wrote to the magazine "House Beautiful," asking for a good way to hide the telephone, she was advised in no uncertain terms not to do it. "Hide the telephone? Never! I wouldn't even consider doing it," was the published reply. "The telephone is a functional part of modern life and is accepted in decorative schemes for its usefulness."

Palestine . . . The development of Palestine has been greatly accelerated by the progress of electric communication. Since 1932 the number of telephones has been tripled, the country has been connected with the international network and a radio broadcasting service has been created. During the last 4 years aerial lines have been completely reconstructed, and a central office for establishing connections with foreign countries has been erected at Er Ramle. Urban lines have also been placed underground.

Concord Grape Jelly

NO "SOUR GRAPES" for home-makers who use the short-bolt jelly recipe.

With these foolproof directions, there's never a chance of failure—for they were specially developed for fully ripe Concord grapes. You'll have eleven glasses of perfect jelly ready for the paraffin just fifteen minutes after preparing the fruit—and the spread has that extra delicious flavor of sun-ripened grapes just picked from the vine.

Better make several batches while the fruit is ripe and plentiful! Here's the recipe, to be followed exactly:

RIPE CONCORD GRAPE JELLY
(Makes about 11 medium glasses)
4 cups juice
7½ cups sugar
½ bottle fruit pectin

To prepare juice, stem about 3 pounds fully ripe grapes and crush thoroughly. Add ½ cup water, bring to a boil, cover, and simmer 10 minutes. Place fruit in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice.

Measure sugar and juice into large saucepan and mix.

Bring to a boil over hottest fire and at once add bottled fruit pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard ½ minute.

Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in later years.

Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob.—Psalms 114:7.

SCHRECKLICHKEIT!

The Germans have a word which was used extensively in the last World War to designate a species of warfare which turned public opinion definitely against them and contributed definitely to their final defeat.

The idea is to be so frightfully inhuman and so devoid of consideration for the lives of non-combatants that the morale of the foe will be undermined. It has been proven, however, that the conduct of United States troops in our South; the inhumanities of the Germans in Belgium and the atrocities of the Japanese in China only harden resistance.

Before the sun had set on the first day's declared war last Sunday the British liner Athenia was torpedoed without warning and in violation of international agreements to which Germany had subscribed. Distressing loss of life occurred, including the killing of American citizens. The Hitler government with its customary disregard of truth denied responsibility, but survivors saw the submarine which came to the surface and shelled the sinking ship.

This stupid and brutal act will weigh heavily against the Hitler regime in the days to come. Today that nation is jubilant that our unfortunate neutrality law has really made us their most powerful ally in this fearful struggle, but acts like this are calculated to destroy the slender margin by which our arms embargo was secured and restore our normal status as a neutral nation, permitting any belligerent to come and buy for cash whatever he needs so long as he carries it away in his own ships, on his own responsibility.

While other people live under the threat of war, here in Virginia we may save and have money for private use.

"FIVE CAME BACK" IS HAILED
AS YEAR'S MOST SENSATIONAL PICTURE

In "Five Came Back," soon to be shown on local screens, a notable group of stars is seen in what is said to be the most memorable and gripping film of the year. At the head of this group are Chester Morris, Lucille Ball and Wendy Barrie.

The plot deals with the forced landing in a Brazilian jungle of a transport plane carrying eleven persons, and with the drama that surrounds their efforts to escape. A trick of Fate puts forward a confessed murderer as the sole arbiter of the destinies of the little party, thus contriving one of the strongest climaxes the screen has ever revealed.

Twelve persons are aboard the plane when it leaves the United States for Panama. One is hurled from the ship during a tropical storm, and the other eleven, landing safely in a clearing in the wilds, seek to repair the craft and fly out.

Trouble and disaster strike, while two romances spring up between four of the little party. One of the group is captured and killed by Indians, another is fatally wounded holding off a native attack. And when the cripple plane is finally ready to start for the coast and civilization, it is found that it will carry only five of the survivors; the other four must remain behind and face certain death at the hands of the enraged Indians.

How the five who come back are chosen by the only person among them who can make an impartial choice, forms the tense conclusion of the film's story—an ending that will be long remembered!

The various roles, each sharply etched against the steaming background of the upper Amazon, are handled by an all-star cast. Chester Morris and Kent Taylor enact the roles of the two pilots, and Lucille Ball and Wendy Barrie have the romantic leads opposite them, Miss Ball as a politician's girl-friend taking a hurried trip for her health, and Miss Barrie as an heiress.

Joseph Calleia plays the part of an anarchist being taken back to a Central American country by Detective John Carranine to stand trial for a political killing, and Allen Jenkins is seen as a gangster escorting his chief's little boy, young Casey Johnson, out of harm's way during a gang war.

C. Aubrey Smith and Elizabeth Risdon enact a scientist and his wife, and Patrick Knowles, as a selfish young millionaire, round out the little group. The relationships between these oddly assorted persons make for much of the picture's absorbing dramatic scene. Morris and Miss Ball form a romantic pair and Taylor, Miss Barrie and Knowles a romantic triangle, to provide the love interest in the story. Calleia, as the murderer who faces certain death anyway if he returns to civilization, dominates the ending when he makes the decision as to who shall go in the plane and who must remain to face the head-hunting Jivaro Indians who have already slain two of the group.

"MILLION DOLLAR LEGS"
FEATURES NEW TALENT

"Million Dollar Legs," Paramount's hilarious comedy of college life, coming next Friday, September 8, to the Pitts Theatre, features a roster of brilliant new talent, among them being Betty Grable, Jackie Coogan, Joyce Matthews, Donald O'Connor, Larry Crabbe and John Hartley.

Though they have been in the group has "clicked" with fans. Betty Grable got her first big part in "College Swing," after Paramount executives noticed her accomplished dancing in "Thrill of a Lifetime."

Jackie Coogan, world-famous as "The Kid," blasted a Hollywood superstition that child stars never make good as actors in their adult years. He re-established his reputation in "Home on the Range," and in "College Swing." "Million Dollar Legs" is the second picture in which Betty and Jackie appear together.

Joyce Matthews, member of the Paramount's "Golden Circle," a select group of fourteen talented and handsome youngsters destined for stardom, proved her mettle in her handling of bit parts in such varied films as: "This Way Please," "The Big Broadcast of 1938," "Tip Off Girls," and "Boy Trouble."

Donald O'Connor and John Hartley played with Joyce in "Boy Trouble." Donald captured the hearts of millions in his first big part as a jockey in the Bing Crosby comedy, "Sing You Sinners." Donald plays a jockey again in "Million Dollar Legs."

Hartley has come up quite a way since he played in "Ambush." Other pictures in which Hartley has been featured are "Two Weeks With Pay," and "Persons in Hiding." In "Million Dollar Legs," Hartley plays the part of a college athlete who tries to live down his father's bombastic endowments to the school. John wants the students to like him for himself and not for his father's contributions.

When Larry Crabbe won the swimming championship at the 1932 Olympic games, a talent scout whisked him off to Paramount. Larry made his debut in "King of the Jungle." His first "straight" part was in "Lady Be Careful." For his latest role Larry dons sweatshirt and "sneakers" to play the part of a college coach.

"Million Dollar Legs" is a laugh-provoking film about the less serious side of campus life. Because the college's chief patron is opposed to all sports except basketball, the students take matters into their own hands when their request for a college crew is thumbed down. Pawing their books, bikes, and tennis racquets, they scrimp together a hundred dollars which they bet on a 20-1 turf shot. They have been assured that with Jockey O'Connor riding the nag, they can't lose.

QUIET TALKS ON RELIGION

PRAYING FOR JESUS

"Prayer also shall be made for Him continually; and daily shall He be praised." A modern translation by Horace Howard Furness reads, "Ever pray for Him, and all day bless Him." All of us are familiar with the idea of praying to Jesus, but few of us have ever thought of praying for Him. How can it be possible for our poor prayers to add anything to His power and glory?

Isaac Watts' versification of the 72nd psalm expresses the thought thus:

For Him shall endless prayer be made, And praises throng to crown His head. A moment's thought will convince us that it is both proper and natural that Jesus should be among those included in our daily prayers. While we pray for our families and for our human friends we should pray also for our divine friend and companion.

We pray for Jesus whenever we pray for the advancement of His kingdom, and for the success of those purposes for which He gave His life. Parents, who have children away from home, starting life for themselves and beginning the struggle for success, are accustomed to ask God to prosper them in the things which they desire and for which they strive.

We pray for Jesus in like manner when we pray "Thy kingdom come." We pray for Him whenever we enlarge our vision beyond the bounds of our personal ambitions and desires and plead for His distressed children, for the poor, the suffering, the discouraged, for the millions of women and children who today are the victims of war's barbarism in China, Ethiopia, Spain and elsewhere.

We pray for Jesus whenever we link ourselves with those who live by the law of love, and dedicate every thought and effort to the bringing in of the glad time when there shall be peace on earth and good will to men. When we shall see the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy concerning our Savior—"He shall see the travail of His soul and shall be satisfied."

The naturalness and propriety of our praying for Jesus becomes more evident when we pause to think of His experiences while in the flesh. It is absolutely unthinkable that none of his kin or friends ever prayed for Him. Certainly Mary prayed for him every day. We must not overlook the reality of His humanity and the fact that His mother brought Him the Scriptures, praying with and for Him and taking him to public services in the synagogue.

I am sure that the groups of godly women who followed Him in His ministry in Galilee prayed for Him, as did also His apostles; and what shall we say of the multitude of good people who lined the Via Dolorosa on the morning of His crucifixion and saw Him fall beneath the weight of His cross; and of the loyal group of friends, including John the apostle and Mary Magdalene? Could such awe-stricken and heartbroken souls have done less than pray for their dearest friend in His hour of agony?

The world today by its wickedness and unbelief is "crucifying the Son of God afresh and putting Him to an open shame." It is a critical hour for Christianity. I would like to see the church on its knees in confession of sin and earnestly praying for the hastening of the day.

When o'er our ransomed nature
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

ONCE THERE WAS A WISE OLD CROW JUST DYING OF THIRST—

THE ONLY WATER IN SIGHT WAS SO LOW IN THE BOTTLE HE COULDN'T GET AT IT— BUT—

USING HIS BRAINS AND HIS BEAK HE ROUNDED UP ALL THE STONES HE COULD FIND AND DROPPED THEM IN THE BOTTLE—

AND UP CAME THE WATER!

WASHINGTON DAILY NEWS

Henry Walker Reeves; 3 nieces, Mrs. Edward Beach, Mrs. Elizabeth Struce, and Mrs. Susie Bryant, and one nephew, Basil Reeves, and his wife.

Weep not that her toils are over Weep not that her race is run God grant we may rest as calmly When our work like hers is done

Till then we yield with gladness Our loved one to him to keep And rejoice in the sweet assurance He giveth his loved one sleep

God in his wisdom has recalled The boon his love has given And though the body slumbers here. The soul is safe in heaven.

LEWIS GARLAND REEVES

Lewis Garland Reeves, born September 27, 1908, died August 20, 1939, at Emergency hospital in Washington, D. C. He was better known to his friends as Buster.

He had gone to Manassas, accompanied by his nephew, Russie Beach, and they were on their way home, when Buster was hit by a hit-run car. He died later in the hospital without gaining consciousness. A precious one from us has gone.

A voice we loved is stilled A place is vacant in our home Which never can be filled Sleep on Dear one

Sleep on dear one And take your rest. God took you home He knows best

JOHN ANDREW FRANCIS

Mr. John Andrew Francis, aged 76 years, died at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Floyd, North Oakland Street, Arlington, Va., last Thursday, August 31st. Funeral services were held at the Ives Funeral Parlor, Arlington, on Saturday and burial was in the Presbyterian Cemetery at Greenwich. Rev. Trader, former pastor of the Cherrydale Methodist Church, conducted the services.

(Hebr. 11:13).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scripture", by Mary Baker Eddy: "Substance is that which is eternal and incapable of discord and decay . . . Spirit, the synonym of Mind, Soul, or God, is the only real substance" (p. 468).

ELIZA REEVES

Eliza Reeves, born at the old chapel, near Battle Hill, Bristow, Va., April 17, 1864, the 3rd daughter of Martha Susan Robertson Reeves and Leroy Reeves. She died Sunday, August 20, 1939; 14 hours after her nephew, Buster Reeves, died. She was a great sufferer.

She had a host of friends and will be greatly missed. She was laid to rest in the Bethel cemetery in Alexandria, Va. She leaves one brother,

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Substance" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 10.

The Golden Text will be "Labour not for the meat which perisheth but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed" (John 6:27).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear"

Mr. Francis is survived by his widow, Mrs. Hattie Francis, and one daughter, Mrs. Walter Floyd, with whom he made his home.

He was a native of Prince William County and made his home here until 1911, when they moved to Cherrydale. For many years he was a guard at the District Workhouse in Lorton and retired from active service about six years ago. During his residence in Arlington County he had made numbers of friends and they, together with the many friends he left in Prince William County, extend their most sincere sympathy to his family.
