CHRISTMAS PRIZES AWARDED DEC. 27

Mr. Owens Announces Plan For Drawing Shopping Campaign Numbers

The drawing of tickets to determine the winners in the Christmas Shopping Campaign will be conducted at 3:00 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, December 27th, 1939, in Pitts' Theater in Manassas.

There are a greater number of prizes this year than in previous campaigns, so a greater number of tickets will be drawn. There are 44 prizes, but a list of 75 numbers will be drawn (to avoid necessity of a redrawing,) and should there be any of the first 44 not represented by a holder, the number or numbers not represented by a holder will be eliminated and the whole list of numbers moved up accordingly.

As in previous years, numbers will be drawn in the presence of anyone who wishes to be present, under the supervision of impartial judges, and the numbers will be placed on a list, exactly in the order as drawn.

This list will be on file in the office of Stanley A. Owens, and will be published in The Manassas Journal the issues of December 28th and of January 4th.

Presence at the drawing is not necessary to get prizes if lucky tickets are registered.

Holders of any numbers shown on the official list must present same for registration at Mr. Owens' office not later than noon of January 8, 1940. No prize money can be demanded until after that time, and must have been registered by then, years were unanimous in their belief or the number will be eliminated.

LOST CHILD IS FOUND UNHARMED

Dickey Williams, age 5, of Washington, who wandered away from a forded the fullest constitutional propicnic party Sunday afternoon near Independent Hill, was the object of an all night search throughout the called "Terrapin Forest" area, only to be found near the place of his disappearnce the following morning. Fortunately he was warmly dressed and although chilled, seemed none the worse for the experience.

A posse said by some to number as many as 300 spent the night searching the dense undergrowth and forested area and bloodhounds from the reformatory at Lorton were called in, but after becoming exhausted, Dicky apparently slept through the night who must have repeatedly passed near the log at the edge of the forest where he had decided to take a nap.

He was found by Stanley Lanieski, a member of the near-by C. C. C. Camp.

KIWANIANS ALL SET FOR CHRISTMAS

John Wilson, dairy machinery expert, was the guest of J. C. Kincheloe at the Kiwanis club meeting last Friday night. Two interesting movies were shown on the most up to date milk marketing conditions. Preparations are about complete for the children's Christmas. Public spirited citizens wishing to assist with toys or otherwise may call Mr. Kincheloe, Rev. Graham or Walter Sadd, as to where such contributions may be left. Carol singing will be the order of the day tomorrow evening.

SMITH COMMITTEE IS COMPLIMENTED

Courtesy And Fairness Wins National Approval

After eight days of hearings packed with intensely interesting developments, Rep. Howard W. Smith, Chairman of the Special Committee to Investigate the National Labor Relations Board, announced a Christmass recess Tuesday and declared that hearings would be resumed in Washington January 5th.

MOSBY IS THEME OF U. D. C. HOUR

Interesting Historical Discussion At December Meeting

The December meeting of the Manassas chapter, U. D. C., was held on the 6th, was held with Mrs. Luther Alpaugh and Mrs. E. B. Giddings, Mrs. Hebe Jackson and Miss Carolyne Jackson being assistant hostesses. The president Mrs. Mc-Duff Green presided.

This date being the anniversary of the birth of Col. John S. Mosby a part of the historical hour was devoted to him. Mrs. A. C. Hart read a brief biography, and Mrs. C. W. Rector of Upperville gave an interesting account of Mosby's activities in and around here present home.

Chattonooga was the Southern City selected for this month's study and the historian, Mrs. Byrd gave a resume of the city's early history. She then called on Mrs. Ashford who read an account of "The Andrews Raid" and on Mrs. Giddings whose topic was "The BattleBowl." Chattanooga has served as the ground on which approximately 600 battles

This historian also announced that during the week of January 14, a short movie, "Prophet without Honor," would be shown here in commemoration of the birthday anniversary of Mathew Fontaine Maury.

Mrs. E. H. Marsteller announced that the Lee- Jackson- -Maury program for January would be held in collaboration with the High School.

Mrs. Weedon, chairman of the building committee, turned over to the treasurer a nice sum realized

The chapter passed a resolution requesting our delegate to the legislature to support the bill relative to the purchase of the Sayler's Creek Battlefield. It is hoped that the state will purchase the Battlefield so that it can be turned over to the federal government for development and beautification.

The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. E. H. Nash served delightful refreshments and a pleasant social hour was enjoyed.
