ANNUAL FESTIVAL AT WINCHESTER

Apple Blossom Event To Occur About April 25

Plans for the celebration of the Seventeenth Annual Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival, Winchester's city's yearly spring fete heralding the bloom of countless thousands of apple buds, are rapidly being "whipped into shape," according to an announcement by Tom Baldrige, director general of the festival for the third consecutive year.

Director General Baldrige said arrangements are being made to make the 1940 festival "the biggest and best celebration the Shenandoah Valley has ever seen."

This year's festival organization has been extended to include 14 departments. Included are dances, the queen and her court, fireworks, public entertainment, pageant, pageant seating, firemen's parade and grand feature parade with seating for both.

The highlight of the two-day celebration, as in past years, will be the coronation of Queen Shenandoah XVII, following the pageant, which will be held on the spacious 80-acre campus of Winchester's nationally-known Handley high school.

Both days of the celebration will be featured by concerts by the better bands of Virginia and neighboring states; a firemen's parade with mummery section; and a grand feature parade with floats, bands, drum and bugle corps, decorated cars, and hundreds of school children.

There will be two "name" dance bands, it has been disclosed, to furnish music for dances which will be held on both nights of the celebration, ending with the Queen's Ball on the last night of the fete.

Festival authorities are reticent on the subject of festival dates, since the dates are set to coincide with the full blooming of the apple blossoms, but they are said to be pointing toward April 25 to 26.

The club colors, yellow and white were tastefully used both in the floral decorations and the refreshments.

MRS. JOSEPH B. JOHNSON

One of the saddest deaths that has come to Manassas recently occurred on Monday of this week when Sarah Pitts Johnson, beloved wife of Joseph Benjamin Johnson, passed away at the family home near Manassas.

Born at Clinton, South Carolina, May 20, 1902, the daughter of John Henderson and Jane Copeland Pitts, she was reared in that locality, later receiving her college training at Lander and Peabody.

Coming to Manassas some ten years ago, she occupied the office of Home Demonstration Agent for sometime, retiring after her marriage on June 25th, 1936.

A member of Grace M. E. Church, she was not only active in religious life but through her initiative had raised the home demonstration work of this county to a very high degree. She was also quite interested in the work of the clubs locally, being a member of the Woman's Club and the Homemakers' Club at the time of her death.

The funeral took place at her late home yesterday, services being conducted by Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, assisted by Rev. W. O. Luttrell. The pall bearers were Marshall Haydon, R. C. Haydon, Norvel Free, Raymond Ellis, Egbert Thompson and R. M. Weir.

Business houses in Manassas will close tomorrow during the Good Friday Services.

REVIVAL SERVICES AT GRACE M. E. CHURCH

A special series of Revival services will start at the Methodist Church this Sunday and will continue for two weeks or more. The pastor, Rev. W. O. Luttrell, will preach a special Evangelistic Sermon each evening during these meetings at 8 o'clock. The song service will be directed by Rev. Benny Price, and will begin each evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Dennis Baker, the regular organist of the church, will preside at the organ, and Mrs. W. O. Luttrell will assist at the piano. The regular choir of the church will be reinforced by members of several of the other choirs of Manassas.

Virginia Sportsmen Organize For Action On Game Leaders

Last minute attempts having failed to bring the Bustard bill, calling for the complete re-organization of the Game and Inland Fisheries Department headed by H. Carl Nolting, to a vote on the floor of the legislature, sportsmen throughout the State have started a campaign to bring about steps for ridding the department of its political influence by making plans to organize sportsmen in a campaign to "Say It With Votes."

Wilson Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs said that a large group of Richmond sportsmen met last week to talk over possible courses of action.

Meek further stated that the organization of sportsmen's clubs he represents "were in favor of the Bustard bill except for the provision of delay" and that as the Legislature has ended, the sportsmen should show their resentment in leaving the bill in committee, by immediate and effective action back home.

Meek did not hesitate to emphasize the fact by summing up the situation as follows:

"We are being shelved all around, apparently, and we must do something. There are about 600 voting members of sportsmen's clubs in Richmond; there are between 10,000 and 20,000 in the State. Last night we talked over the idea of getting together and seeing that we get representation."

"This is all a very old matter. It goes back to something Americans traditionally have opposed: Taxation without representation. We pay the freight; we want representation. We want it now. If necessary, we'll turn this thing into a political arena to get what we want," concluded Mr. Meek.

Much interest is being displayed by sportsmen in all sections of Virginia to the suggestion of Dr. W. S. Whitmore, Staunton, president of the Shenandoah Game and Fish Protective Association threatening to "boycott" on purchases of hunting and fishing licenses. Dr. Whitmore says that he is highly pleased to that so many Virginia sportsmen approve of his club's suggestion and feels that if such a course is necessary to get game and fish matters righted that many throughout the State would join the strike, until Nolting's department is changed and put on an efficient basis and free from its controlling political influence. The Virginia Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs' co-operation was very pleasing to Dr. Whitmore, who is one of the State's outstanding sportsmen and a life-long advocate of game preservation and conservation.

Commander P. T. Wright, speaking for the Falls Church Chapter of Izaak Walton League of America says his association is ready to continue the fight to help restore wildlife in the State and to join the sportsmen throughout the Commonwealth in righting conditions which have aroused the interest of the people throughout the entire Commonwealth.

AN AGRICULTURAL SUB-STATION

(Editorial)

Farmers of northern Virginia will be pleased to learn that through the untiring efforts of Hon. Burnett Miller, Delegate to the General Assembly from Culpeper and Rappahannock Counties, a bill passed this Session authorizing the establishment of an agricultural sub-station for northern Virginia.

The appropriation for the project is $6,475.00, with an additional $3,900.00 for each year of the biennium for operation. There are now several of these sub-stations in various sections of the State engaged in research of local nature, and the establishment of one for our area fills a decided need.

Northern Virginia is a definite area geologically and biologically and the requirements of our soil are distinctive. In recognizing this important need, and in securing this sub-station, the Delegate from Culpeper has earned the gratitude of all farmers and dairymen of the area benefitted, and it is unnecessary to add that our own Delegate, Mr. Conner, aided Mr. Miller in securing this valuable asset for our local agricultural improvement.

Advertising Helps Both The Consumer And the Advertiser

WATERFALL

Several from this neighborhood made the pilgrimage to Washington to see "Gone With The Wind" during the closing week at Leow's Palace; while it is acclaimed by the public to be one of the greatest pictures ever shown, we are sure we have seen just as good, and ones that we did not feel jittery sitting by our boy friend; things are not as they used to be, when we were so puritanically brought up. Surely those who had not read the book could scarcely grasp what it was all about, so quickly do the scenes shift from one period and place to another. But what the South suffered at the hands of her tormentors during that awful period is truly portrayed, according to tales told us by those who went through it all; and to see it pictured, those days are more vividly impressed upon us. Strange too, those four hours seemed no longer than the usual run of pictures. We felt that mammy was worth the trip and the price.

The teachers of our Sunday school are planning an Easter egg hunt for the little folks after Sunday school on Sunday, providing it does not rain and we can tie up the goats that infest the church yard, eating every thing gnawable even the parked cars. We always heard they eat tin cans, must be so.

Miss Peggy Pickett celebrated her ninth birthday last Thursday evening by entertaining a number of her school friends after school hours, at a jolly little party. The annual birthday dinner given by Miss Florence Smith, was on Sunday. Those from a distance to partake of the feast were Peggy's grandmother, Mrs. E. E. Pickett, of Seat Pleasant, Maryland, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Fish, Miss Beverly Galbreath, and Miss Lula Yeatman, of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Yeatman and Miss Betsy Yeatman, of Hyattsville, Maryland, also several neighborhood relatives and friends. Besides being a happy birthday celebration, it was a most enjoyable family reunion.

Miss Audrey Nalls, of Alexandria, is spending this with Mrs. R. R. Smith.

Miss Ruth Gossom visited Miss Frances Howdershell of The Plains on Sunday.

Miss Mattie Matthew of Sudley is spending sometime with Miss Florence Smith.

Mr. Howard Bell, Jr., and Miss Ann Mercer of Pennsylvania announce their marriage, which took place on Saturday, March 9th. They are residing in Washington, where he is employed by the Sanitary Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashton Bell and Mrs. Ethel Cox of Washington visited Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bell on Sunday.

Uncle Robert Lansdown, an old and esteemed colored citizen has passed on at the age of 89. He was born and spent his boyhood on the Harrison plantation, and has resided in this community all his life. Being in the employ of Col. Edmund Berkeley at Evergreen for many years. He is survived by his aged wife, three daughters and two sons.

CHEVROLET SALES GOOD LAST MONTH

A 65 per cent gain in new car and truck sales during the last nine days of February, as compared with the corresponding period in February, 1939, enabled Chevrolet dealers to finish the month with the highest February total of all time, 1929 alone excepted, it was announced at the company's headquarters here today. New car sales for the month totalled 74,932.

During the last nine days of February, 28,323 cars and trucks were sold, as compared with 17,137 in the same period last year. Volume for the final period of the short month just ended was substantially more than half that for the whole month of February, 1939, when 50,788 units were sold.

Significant, as an index of Spring business, is the fact that even in the face of this sharp upturn in new unit sales, Chevrolet dealers reduced their field stocks of used cars during the last nine days of February. A rise in used car stocks normally accompanies an increase in new car sales. Reversing this trend, however, Chevrolet dealers lowered their stocks nearly 1,000 units in spite of the new car gains. Sales of used cars totalled 60,050 in the last nine days, bringing the months aggregate to 146,605, the highest February used car figure in the company's history with the exception of 1936.

"EAT MORE EGGS"

CAMPAIGN OPENS

In response to requests from Virginia poultry raisers, chain stores will conduct two "Eat More Eggs" sales campaigns to stimulate consumption and help relieve the overburdened egg market, J. M. Dyer, agricultural counsel, Southwestern Chain Store Council, said today in announcing the opening of the first campaign. The second campaign will start April 11.

Mr. Dyer pointed out that there is always a fresh egg surplus during March and April which depresses the egg market. During this "flush" production period, consumers can enjoy economies and add to the food values of their family menus by using more eggs, he said, and at the same time help stabilize the market for producers.

Fresh eggs are now being featured in advertisements and sales promotions of food stores, he stated, and at the fountains and lunch counters of other stores.

Mr. Dyer explained that this "Eat More Eggs" campaign is one of the producer-consumer campaigns sponsored by chain stores to stimulate consumption of surplus farm commodities.

THE GAME WARDEN'S LAMENT

By
Gilbert Russell Brackett

If the game warden asks to see your license, he's insulting;
If he takes your word for having one, he's corrupt.

If he arrests a violator, he's showing favoritism.

If he labors day and night to enforce the law, he's a tyrant.

If he relaxes at all, he's a shirker and a crook.

If he talks fish and game conservation he's maudlin.

If he keeps quiet, he's not interested in his work.

If he accepts suggestions or advice, he's incompetent.

If he works out problems for himself, he's a know-all.

If he acts firm, he's unfair and a rascal.

Ashes to ashes,
Dust to dust,

If the sportsmen won't do it,
The game warden must!

DEMAND CONTINUES FOR FARM PROGRAM LIME ORDERS PLACED BY PRINCE WILLIAM FARMERS FOR MORE THAN SIX THOUSAND TONS TO DATE

The demand for ground limestone, available as a grant of aid under the Agricultural Conservation Program, continues and orders for delivery of more than six thousand tons have already been received at the County Agents office.

Particularly gratifying, from the standpoint of progress in soil improvement, is the large number of applications for ground limestone from farmers who have not heretofore used lime on their soils.

Since practices for payment under the 1940 program must be carried out by August 31, two months earlier than in past years, and because of the reduced allowance for spring legume and grass seedings, it is necessary that farmers carry out additional practices this coming spring and summer to obtain maximum benefits from the program. By obtaining lime, either through the county office, from the State Grinding Plant or commercial sources, farmers may still be able to earn the maximum amount allotted for their farms either in ground limestone received in lieu of payment or in cash benefit payments.

It will be to the advantage of every farmer, who has not already done so, to call at the County Agents office at his very earliest opportunity for assistance in making his 1940 farm plans to derive maximum benefits from this year's Agricultural Conservation Program.

I Like This Book

One of a series of book reviews by students of Osbourne High School, Manassas—Session 1939-40—in competition for W. C. Wagner Memorial Prize

THE PATRIOT
By Pearl Buck

This novel was written by Pearl Buck and was published by the John Day Company in New York. It was copyrighted in the year of 1939.

Pearl Buck has written many novels, of which "This Proud Heart" and "The Good Earth" are the best known. In her books she writes about the lives of everyday people in foreign countries.

This particular book portrays the life of I-ko, the elder son of a wealthy banker, who gained the reputation of a revolutionist in school. I-ko tries to help the poorer class who work in the factories by trying to make them believe as he believed.

Pearl Buck brings out the social and realistic points of life in Japan when I-wan, the younger son, was sent to Japan because his father thought he might be killed in the war.

After living in Japan awhile, he became very friendly with the people. He learned their customs, dressed like them, and even observed their holidays. He fell in love with the very beautiful daughter of Mr. Muraki, the stockholder.

I think this book was named "The Patriot" because I-wan showed his love and appreciation for China, his native land, by going back to China and fighting to help his own people.

This book was interesting because it brought out the friendly relationship which existed at the time between China and Japan; it also stresses great love for a native land. It is very different from the other books I have read in that it brought out the innermost emotions of the novelist.

This book may be borrowed from the Ruffner-Carnegie Library.
—Jean Coverston.

THE FATE OF FINLAND

The inevitable has happened, and the undeclared Russian-Finnish war has come to a dramatic end, under terms dictated by Stalin, and possibly Hitler, in whose respective countries the outcome is wildly hailed as a colossal victory.

The first reaction, after recognition of the unparalleled skill and bravery of the Finns, is unquestionably in the direction of criticism of England and France for their apparent failure to save their gallant little friend.

However it must be borne in mind that the Scandinavian Countries, especially Sweden, would not give the necessary permission for an Allied expedition to cross their territory, and Finland itself never officially asked for rescue, realizing that a military expedition of rescue would doubtless plunge the whole northern area in a welter of blood and ashes from which none of the lesser nations would ever emerge.

In justice to the Allies it must be borne in mind that they did not create nor guarantee the national existence of this brave little country. It achieved its independence from Russia shortly after the Bolshevik Revolution and although deserving no such fate as this, the Allies who are in a death grip with the most fearful combination of dishonorable and ruthless power ever consolidated, can not weaken their vital and main defense no matter who calls in distress, for if the main line fails, all free people in the world will surely perish, and conversely, when they finally win, democracy throughout the world will be assured.

NOTED VIOLINIST AT SYMPHONY CONCERT

Ossy Renardy, the 18-year-old Viennese violinist who scored the most outstanding personal success of any soloist on last summer's Water Gate concerts of the National Symphony Orchestra, will appear with that organization, Hans Kindler conducting, for the second time in eight months on the Sunday afternoon concert of March 24, at four o'clock in Constitution Hall. For his solo number, Renardy has chosen Tchaikovsky's Violin Concerto in D major.

On Wednesday evening, March 27, the beloved Percy Grainger returns as soloist with the National Symphony. The distinguished composer-pianist will play with the orchestra two novelties, John Alden Carpenter's "Concertino," and Gabriel Faure's "Ballade." One of Mr. Grainger's works, "Duke of Marlborough Fanfare," will be included in the orchestral part of the program with the composer himself wielding the baton.

The purely orchestral portion of Sunday afternoon's concert will be comprised of Bach's "Christus Lag in Todesbanden," Wotan's Farewell and Magic Fire Music from Wagner's "Die Walkure," and Alfvén's "Midsommervake."

On Wednesday evening, the National Symphony will play, in addition to the Grainger number, Frescobaldi's "Toccata," Finale of "Das Rheingold" by Wagner, and Brahms' Fourth Symphony in E minor.

Oh that holy, happy morn,
That saw our Lord arise

The song that never dies.

From lilies here to stars above,
We laud our Heavenly King!
From little ones to hoary age,
Our Easter offerings bring.

We'll walk by faith and not by sight,
And pure and holy be,
Then when our work on earth is done,
Our Risen Lord we'll see!

WARNING FROM
WARDEN RUSSELL

Since March 15 is the beginning of the danger period of fires let me again remind each of you of the danger of fires and for an example. I will quote a paragraph from Section 545-a Chapter 314 Acts 1930 of the Forest Fire Law Book of Virginia: "Whoever shall build a fire in the open air, or use a fire built by another in the open air within one hundred and fifty feet of any woodland, brushland, or field containing dry grass or other inflammable material, shall, before leaving said fire, untended, totally extinguish it. Any person failing to do so, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction be fined not more than one hundred dollars."

It is usually dangerous to burn between March 1, and June 1 and from October 1, to December 15, although March and April are the real danger months, therefore, if you find it necessary to burn during this period please take every precaution and do your burning at night or very early in the morning, since the real danger hours are between 9:00 A. M. and 4:00 P. M.

If you will notify the Lookout Watchman, Mr. W. H. Ellicott, Nokesville, Va., or telephone Manassas 187-F-32 of your intention to burn it will save the county and the state the expense of investigating your fire. Your cooperation in this matter will be greatly appreciated by our organization.

Please look at your address label and see if you should not send us a remittance.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Matter" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 24.

The Golden Text will be "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal" (Matt. 6:19).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Very, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father" (John 14:12).

The Lesson-Sermon also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Principle and proof of Christianity are discerned by spiritual sense. They are set forth in Jesus' demonstrations, which show by his healing the sick, casting out evils, and destroying death, 'the last enemy that shall be destroyed,' his disregard of matter and its so-called laws" (p. 210).

HAYMARKET

Spring seems to have arrived at last, and people are busily cleaning up their lawns and gardens and getting ready for Easter holidays.

Services at St. Park's Church on Easter day will be at seven A. M., and at eleven A. M., full service, with sermon by Rev. W. F. Carpenter will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Tyler and Miss Tillie Gray Tyler were Washington visitors on Saturday.

School closes on Thursday, for the holiday, and the non-resident teachers will leave for their homes.

Mrs. Thomas M. Browne and Miss Jane Meade Browne, of Pine Orchard, Conn., are at their home here, and will remain until after Easter.

Miss Mary Price, who has been sick for some weeks, is improving and we trust she will soon be out again.

There is a rumor that several bungalows, which will be for rent, are soon to be built in Haymarket, and we hope that it is so. As houses are in demand, particularly during the spring and summer months.

IN MEMORIAM

"Rest In Peace"

In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Mrs. Emma Woodyard, of Canova, Virginia, who passed away, March 11, 1939.

From this world of pain and sorrow To the land of peace and rest.

God has taken you dear mother, Where you have found eternal rest.

Days of sadness still come over us, Hidden tears often flow,

Memory keeps you always near us Although you left us one year ago.

All to ourselves we think of you Think of the things we used to do

Think of things we used to say We think of you each golden day.

Although we know That you had to go

We miss you dear mother For we loved you so

We soon will join you over there When our life work is ended here.

Your devoted daughters, Mrs. Zora Cornwell

Mrs. Millie Wheaton.

What 360,000,000 People Believe

In every nook and corner of the world there are Roman Catholics—360,000,000 all told—all holding the same religious beliefs—all practicing the same Faith—all willingly under the religious Pope. These people form a cross-section of every country of the world—the poor, the rich, the humble, the proud, the ignorant, the wise—each one satisfying his soul's demands through the Roman Catholic Church.

Wouldn't it be interesting for you to know what these people really do, and do not, believe?—this vast world army, nearly twice as large as all other Christian sects combined.

What you have heard about the Catholic Church, since your school days up to the latest magazine you have bought, very likely comes from sources, either ignorant of Catholic belief, or anti-Catholic in sentiment. It is only just to hear both sides of any story and it is with the thought that you will read our brief statements on Catholic beliefs and actions, that we publish these little articles, will you do us the courtesy of reading them each week? And will you write us concerning things Catholic which seem to you to be against our country, against yourself, or against common-sense itself? We assure you that our reply will be brief, courteous and to the point.

Lenten Talks

By
DR. JAMES T. MARSHALL
THE SECRET PLACE

Secret prayer is prayer in its highest form. It is difficult for one who prays in public to lose his consciousness of his audience. Hence an alleged prayer may in fact be only an oration, or an eulogy of some distinguished man who is seated on the platform. At a certain public meeting I once heard a minister pray to Theodore Roosevelt rather than to God.

Our Savior warned against the hypocrisy of the Pharisees who loved to pray upon the street corners to be seen of men. "When thou prayest," He said, "Enter into thy closet and shut thy door and pray to thy Father in secret." We are compelled to be ourselves when we are alone with Him from whom no secrets can be hid. We would be saved from many a blunder and many a sin if it is impossible to spend even a few moments in secret prayer and emerge unchanged.

By His own example Jesus showed us the value of seasons spent alone with God.

"Cold mountains and the midnight air
Witnessed the fervor of His prayer;
The desert His temptation knew,
His conflict and His victory too."

Love of solitude has been the mark of many a great soul. One weakness of our times is our inability to be happy unless we live in a whirl of excitement. This is bound to result in superficiality of thinking and of character. We learn the art of shutting the doors of our souls, for there are many undesirable thoughts and emotions knocking for admission.

There is no time or place that one may not be alone with God. One may engage in secret prayer when he is walking along a crowded street, or working in a noisy factory, or sitting in a business office or when engaged in pressing household tasks. Every human heart is a portable shrine. "Know yet not," asks St. Paul, "that ye are the temple of the Holy Ghost?" Some of you will recall the time-honored hymn,

"I love to steal awhile away,
From every cumbering care,

And spend the hour of closing day
In humble, grateful prayer.
I love in solitude to shed
The penitential tear,
And all the promises to plead
When none but God is near."

This hymn was written by a Christian woman whose life was compassed by extraordinary cares, but was known for her uniform courage and cheerfulness. At length her friends discovered her secret. Her home was in the country and she formed the habit of slipping out quietly after the house, where she knelt in prayer to the Father who seeth in secret. Thus her hymn is seen to be an expression of her own experience.

Learn the value of getting alone with God. You may kneel in weakness. You will arise full of power.

JR. WOMAN'S CLUB SPONSORS BABY CLINIC BENEFIT

The Junior Woman's Club is sponsoring a movie at Pitts' Theatre on Thursday and Friday of next week for the benefit of their baby and tickets may be purchased from members of the club.

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERRORS

The typographical error is a slippery thing and sly. You can hunt till you are dizzy, but it somehow will get by. Till the forms are off the presses it is strange how still it keeps, it shrinks down into a corner and it never stirs or peeps. That typographical error, too small for human eyes, Till the ink is on the paper, when it grows to mountain size. The boss, he stares with horror, then he grabs his hair and groans; The copyreader drops his head upon his hands and moans— The remainder of the issue may be clean as can be, But that typographical error is the only thing you see. —Knoxville (Tenn.) Express.
