VIRGINIA SUFFERS BY HEAVY RAINS

Roads, crops and homes were severely hit as floods swept out of southwest Virginia into the south central portion of the State last week. The crest of the James River flood reached Richmond shortly before 11 a. m., August 18. It failed by more than three feet to equal the record of 28 3/4 feet set in 1936.

The Richmond Department of Public Welfare, announced that 200 WPA workers would work throughout the night to clear Richmond streets as the water receded.

The Roanoke River was reported standing nearly ten feet above the highest stage ever recorded. Highway 1 was closed by water four feet deep south of South Hill, the State Highway Department reported, and U. S. 460 was blocked between Petersburg and Suffolk by the Blackwater River. The Appomattox River stood four feet above U. S. 360 between Richmond and Burkeville. Thousands of acres of corn were damaged along the James River above Richmond. Two highway bridges costing $18,000 were washed away between Blackstone and Lawrenceville.

EDWARDS BECOMES CHAIRMAN OF VIRGINIA DEMOCRATS

The State Democratic Committee on Wednesday named Horace H. Edwards, City Attorney of Richmond, as State Chairman of the Democratic Party of Virginia, to succeed the late Hon. J. Murray Hooker, whose policies, the new appointee immediately announced he would endeavor to follow.

PROGRAM GIVEN FOR UNVEILING

Governor Price To Make Leading Address At Jackson Ceremony

Former State Senator John W. Rust announced that the arrangements for the unveiling of the "Stonewall" Jackson monument on the Manassas Battlefield have now been completed and that the monument has been erected and is in place and is a beautiful tribute to the valor and strength of this great Virginian, and that the program for the unveiling, which will take place on the spot where Jackson won his immortal name, on August 31st, 1940, at 2 o'clock, p. m., is as follows:

Presiding Officer, former State Senator John W. Rust.

Invocation, Bishop H. St. George Tucker, of Virginia.

America, by the Quantico Marine Band.

Address by Gov. James H. Price.

Unveiling of monument by Miss Julia Preston, great granddaughter of Gen. Jackson and Miss Hooe Rust.

Music by the Washington Quartet and the Band.

Address by Dr. Douglas S. Freeman.

Benediction.

The monument's base is 8 feet high and the equestrian statue is 13 feet high, making a total of 21 feet. The sculptor, Mr. Joseph F. Polla, of New York, has performed a great work and the monument is a fine work of art and portrays the solidarity and character of Jackson which caused him to be named "Stonewall".

It is expected that a huge crowd will gather to do honor to this great Southern Soldier.

INTERESTING TALKS GIVEN TO KIWANIS CLUB

A delightful talk illustrated by slides was given to the Manassas Kiwanis Club on Friday evening by Mr. P. M. Jackson, field service expert of the U. S. Agricultural Department, located at Blacksburg. The talk which preceded was somewhat technical in detail but highly interesting, especially one statement to the effect that the ratio of returns on money spent with the farmers had given a return of seven-to-one.

The slides showed farm deterioration in the South, and need for soil maintenance.

Mr. Jackson was present at the guest of W. H. Brown, chairman in charge of the program.

On the previous Friday, Professor Frank Sigman gave a discussion on Democracy in education. Frank handled an involved discussion with his usual degree of skill in matters connected with educational work.

SIX VETERANS MAY GO TO LAST REUNION

The Virginia Division of the United Confederate Veterans is expected to be represented by about six survivors of the War Between the States in what may be the last national reunion to be held, on October 8-11 in Washington, D. C.

According to Mrs. Daisy Lester Avery, assistant to the adjutant-general in Virginia, it is estimated that 89 Virginia veterans survive, and it is probable that not more than a half-dozen will be physically able to make the trip.

The Virginia Division will be headed by General J. W. Gwaltney, who succeeded to command by virtue of seniority at the death of General W. McK. Evans. Next in seniority to General Gwaltney is General J. Rupert Moller, of Grottoes.

BYRD SAYS "ACT AT ONCE"

The Senate should stop unnecessary talk and act quickly on the pending universal selective draft legislation.

Our national security demands immediate action on all measures vital to our national defense.

HEBRON CHURCH BI-CENTENIAL

Madison County Event Of Local Interest

Next Saturday, August 24, is home coming day at Hebron Evangelical Lutheran Church, near Madison Courthouse. The celebration is the culmination of a series of religious observances which began last May and have continued throughout the summer, ending Saturday and Sunday, August 24 and 25 in National Lutheran Day.

The event is of much local interest because of the close association of the historic old church with the pioneer history of this section of Virginia, and it is of national interest to the Lutheran Denomination because Hebron Church is the oldest Lutheran Church in the United States in continuous use, having been dedicated in 1740 by a congregation dating from 1717.

Last minute changes in the program have scheduled the address of United States Senator Harry Flood Byrd, for Saturday afternoon instead of Sunday, as previously published, and the Sunday morning speaker will be Dr. A. R. Wentz, president of Gettysburg Seminary.

On Sunday morning Dr. Frederick H. Knobel, president of the Lutheran Church in America, will preach, and Dr. J. J. Scherer, Jr., president of the Lutheran Synod of Virginia, will officiate in a rededication ceremony Saturday at 10:45.

As Madison County was settled by the congregation of this historic church, the celebration of its two hundredth anniversary is an outstanding county event and the hospitality of Madison County, with its accustomed accompaniment of mountainous quantities of fried chicken and old Virginia ham will welcome the throngs which will gather at the old church on Saturday.

Pastor C. K. Rhodes, and his energetic committee, have been at work all summer on the celebration and the notable success attained has attracted State and National attention, and the Madison County Eagle, of Madison Virginia, is devoting much space this week to the celebration and history of the church.

According to Rev. John H. Fray, of Shepherdstown, West Va., and chairman of the Synod Committee for the celebration, the old church at Madison, is not only the oldest Lutheran Church in continuous use in the United States, but has claim to the additional distinction of being the oldest church building in the United States in continuous by the same congregation, regardless of denomination. After extensive research Rev. Fray states that he is unable to locate any church building in the United States which was built and used continuously by the same congregation for two hundred years.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS TO MEET TUESDAY

The Young Democratic Club of Prince William County will hold a business meeting Tuesday evening, August 27, at 8 p. m., in the Court House at Manassas for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State convention. All interested members are urged to be present.

HUNTER BENNETT

Hunter Bennett, aged 80, died at his home near Catlett's early this morning. He was a life long resident of that community. Funeral services will be held from the home tomorrow (Friday), with interment at Warren-ton.

FARM PROGRAM IMPROVEMENTS

Local Supervisor Cites Increase In Net Worth Of Farms

Virginia farm families on the Farm Security Administration program are tugging hard at the bootstraps of opportunity — and slowly lifting themselves out of debt.

According to a recent analysis of a sample of 205 family record books, picked at random throughout the state, these families reduced their debts to all others outside of FSA by about seven per cent in 1939.

FSA announced recently that the 8,500 borrowers in Virginia were repaying the debts to FSA satisfactorily, and the survey shows that the 205 families whose record books were analyzed reduced their outside debts from an average of $347 to $322.

W. H. Goodall, Jr., FSA supervisor for Prince William and Fairfax Counties, announced that between January 1, 1939, and January 1, 1940, these families increased their net worth by 19 per cent. While the 205 families is only a sample, the results are believed to be a fair indication of what all families are doing, Mr. Goodall said.

FSA makes loans to low income farm families for purchase of livestock, workstock, tools, seed, fertilizer and for farm improvements, with the purpose of helping the needy farm families help themselves. Each borrower follows a plan of farm and home operation worked out by the farmer and his wife and the FSA supervisors. This plan is designed to give the family a living at home and to conserve soil and water resources of the farm. Each family keeps a record book of its operations.

HOUSEKEEPERS REVIEW LIFE OF WOMAN ATTORNEY

The regular monthly meeting of the Bethlehem Good Housekeeper's Club was held at Clover Hill Farm on Wednesday afternoon of this week, with Mrs. Wheatley Johnson and Mrs. Wm. Pierson as hostesses.

Mrs. May Dogan, Miss Mary Jane Morris, Misses Jane and Bonnie Lynn were among the guests present. The life of Margaret Brent, first woman attorney in the United States and noted land owner of her time, was studied at this meeting. The name of Madame Schumann-Heink was proposed for discussion at the September meeting, at which time Mrs. J. F. Burks and Mrs. R. L. Lewis will be hostesses, with Mrs. Proffitt and Mrs. W. Hill Brown, Sr., in charge of the program.

Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson, in giving the report of the library committee, told of several new books in the library and expressed appreciation for the recent gift of five volumes by Miss Katherine Pattie.

It was reported that satisfactory progress is being made toward completion of the history of Old Prince William, being sponsored by this club.

THE CONFEDERATE SOLDIER

On every hand, in every land, different opinions are rife, As with individuals, so in a nation's life.

Her sons responded to the South-land's call, And gave their devotion, their lives and all.

Perhaps, Providence decreed the South should not sever The bonds of the Union, that they might protect us forever; But the valor and courage of the veterans in gray, Has never been surpassed by any soldiers in battle array.

Soon life's battles will be over for those who wore the gray and the blue, And America expects the sons and daughters of each to be loyal and true,

I have faith that all who followed their conception of right, On whichever side they chose to fight.

Will find the gates of Heaven ajar, When they have entered the portals of glory and appear before the judgment bar.

Edgar W. Townsend.

Son of Confederate veteran from S. C.

SPECIAL PARADE TO FEATURE FETE

Giant Line Of March Arranged For Tobacco Festival

Active preparation for the National Tobacco Festival "four mile parade" to be held here September 6 was begun this week.

The festival parade committee has announced plans to include over fifty floats, and about thirty drum and bugle corps organizations in the spectacular parade, feature of the sixth annual tobacco celebration. Last year over 100,000 people lined the streets of South Boston to witness the hour-long passing of elaborately decorated floats bedecked with comely princesses.

The story of the success of the festival parades is also the story of the rise to prominence in the parade business of Watkins G. Hunt, of South Boston, who after directing the producing of floats for the first celebration here in 1935, continued in the business to gain a national reputation as the "International Parade Master".

Mr. Hunt has returned to South Boston each summer to direct his "home town" parade. He has already opened up a float production plant here in a large tobacco warehouse. In the course of the next thirty days about fifty magnificent floats will be decorated. Fancy papiermache statuary, horses, lions, comic faces, and other fixtures have been assembled from the over 120,000 pounds of properties and equipment possessed by the Hunt organization.

They have managed parades in seventeen states and Mr. Hunt says that this fall after the festival they have engagements at Newport, R. I., Atlanta, Ga., and Harrisonburg, Va.

GARDEN CLUB MEETING

The Manassas Garden Club will hold their August meeting at the cottage of Mrs. Harry Davis at Lake Jackson on Tuesday, August 27, at 2:30 p. m. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Robt. Hutchison.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

W. C. T. U. meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Will Thompson, Wednesday, August 28, at 2:30 p. m.

POTOMAC ASSOCIATION

The Potomac Baptist Association was held at North Fork, Va. Those attending from Manassas were: Rev. and Mrs. R. M. Graham, Miss Nannie Rittenhouse, Col. and Mrs. R. A. Hutchison, Mrs. Emma Herrell, Mrs. Proffitt, and Mrs. Peters.

MONEY MAY BE SENT LOCALLY TO AID THE ALLIES

Any one wishing to donate money which will be immediately forwarded to the National committee for aiding the Allies, may send or bring such sum to R. D. Wharton, Manassas, Va., treasurer of the nearest local committee. Any sum will be greatly welcomed.

NYA TRADE SCHOOL ESTABLISHED HERE

State Board Of Education Will Co-operate With Local Set Up

Announcement was made in Richmond this week that the State Board of Education is sponsoring the establishment of a vocational school at Manassas in co-operation with the National Youth Administration. The institution will occupy the premises here more recently known as The Swavely School for Boys, and earlier as Eastern College.

Under the name of the Manassas State Vocational School, instruction will be given to boys from 18 to 25 years of age, under a plan which will enable them to earn their board, lodging and other incidental expenses. Admission of local boys will be through the County School Administration, which is headed by Professor R. C. Haydon.

Professor Arthur E. Jackman, director of the new school, is a graduate of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, class of 1930, and more recently has been identified with the Apprentice School of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company. His staff will include Messrs. K. J. Hatke, J. Vincent Davis, M. S. Burckard, and other competent and experienced instructors.

Courses will be given in electric welding, sheet metal, auto mechanics, carpentry, cabinet making, painting, interior decorating, electricity, plumbing and steam fitting, shoe repairing, cooking, and possibly other vocations.

The National Youth Administration has been working on the project for some time and a group of young men are now at work reconditioning the buildings and premises and it is stated that around three hundred pupils will be accommodated. The school replaces a similar project at Fort Belvoir, which has had to vacate to give space for regular army activities.

The establishment of this State Vocational School at Manassas will be welcomed by all who are interested in the development of the old college property at Manassas, as well as all who are interested in community growth and vocational training.

POLICE CHIEFS TO HAVE INTERESTING CONVENTION

The fifteen annual convention of the Virginia Police Executives Association will be held at the Hotel Roanoke, Roanoke, September 25th, and 26th, it was announced today from the Association office, 902 Travelers Building, Richmond.

Attention at this year's meeting will be focused on strengthening the national defense through the police, the new police communications system, social and job security for the police, organization of police work, the trend of various kinds of crimes in Virginia, and police recruitment and promotion. The program will include many prominent state and local police officers in Virginia as well as nationally known police authorities from other states.

The banquet meeting of the Association is scheduled for the night of September 25th. A prominent speaker is now being secured. Plans for the convention are going forward under the direction of John M. Webb, chief of police, Staunton and president of the association.

85 PER CENT OF FARM FAMILIES OWN MOTORS

Importance of the automobile to farm families is revealed in a recent study of 17,000 selected farms by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The survey indicates that 85 per cent of farm families own motor vehicles. Highest ratio of ownership was found in central and southern California, where 97 out of every 100 farm families owned motor vehicles. Kansas and North Dakota rank next with automobile ownership in 96 per cent of farm families. Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, and Iowa follow with 94 per cent; Oregon and Washington, 92 per cent; New Jersey, 88 per cent; Pennsylvania and Ohio 86 per cent.

Used-car purchases exceeded two to one new-car acquisitions in farm families, the study also showed. Average price paid for new cars was $739, compared with an average purchase price to $263 for the used cars bought.

IN MEMORIAM

Deep down in my heart lies a picture
Of a dear one laid to rest
In memory frame I will treasure it
Because to me she was one of the best.

One who loved her as a sister
In loving memory of my darling son.
Harvey L. Cornwell.

The depth of my sorrow no one can tell
For the loss of the one I love so well.
While he sleeps his peaceful sleep
This darling memory I shall always keep.

Deep in my heart dear Harvey
Is a place kept just for you
Not always shall the parting be
For in God's hills so true
When blinding tears shall cease to flow
I too may claim eternity
And find my way to you.
Devoted mother.

THE OTHER FELLOW

By Algia A. Martin

When you find a fellow
That rubs your fur wrong,
Don't show your dislike
Or keep your face long.
But try a little smile.
Then again try a smile.
Then, both will feel better
When chance you do meet.
If you say a word of kindness
When you pass him on the street.
And it will pay as we go along
If we try a smile, or hum a song.

BREEZY HELPFUL THOUGHTS

Intellectual honesty is best demonstrated by those who are not afraid to act upon their own convictions.

Much of our own individuality is covered up by the fact of another's opinion.

The greatest beneficial society on Earth is the Brotherhood of mankind.

Broad-minded men accept, and respect the personal convictions of their friends, or acquaintances without prejudice and offence.

Little doubts are the miscreants that often consume great faiths.

HORSES AND DOGS STILL VITAL IN WARFARE

A mechanized blitzkrieg wins battles and makes headlines, but it is a co-ordinated service of supply, working quietly and efficiently behind the battle front, that wins wars. And a service of supply cannot be efficient without horses—hundreds of thousands of horses. The vital part that horses, trained dogs and other animals are playing in the present war, and in this country's plans for national defense, is outlined in an illustrated feature story appearing next Sunday in The Washington Sunday Star.

GREENWICH

Rev. Lloyd Boutyard, of Falmouth, is in charge of the Baptist revival this week. His sermons seemed to be enjoyed by all.

Misses June and Joyce Tutor, of Arlington, visited Jacqueline Armell and Frances Wood this week.

Mrs. George Hopkins and daughter spent last week with her mother. Mrs. A. W. Leak, of Charlottesville, Va., will visit relatives at Greenwich next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Weeks and family spent Sunday at Manassas with her father.

Mr. Dillon Wood celebrated his birthday last Sunday.

Mrs. Lena Price and friend are visiting Mrs. Raymond Ellis this week.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear mother, Janie C. Abel, who suddenly passed away two years ago, August 21, 1938.

The month of August once more is here

To me the saddest of all the year
Because two sad years ago today
My darling mother passed away.

From this world of many changes
To the land of peaceful rest
God has taken my dear mother
To have sweet eternal rest.

Your loving lonely son, Clinton.

IF I HAD MY WAY HAS MUSICAL HEART APPEAL

The happy combination of Bing Crosby and Gloria Jean is resulting in top-notch entertainment at the Pitt's Theatre, Monday and Tuesday, August 26 and 27, where Universal's "If I Had My Way" is heading the bill.

Musically, the picture is one of Crosby's best. Gloria, who made her screen debut in "The Under-Pup" is an unusual child soprano. She is twelve years old, yet she handles difficult renditions in a manner that has amazed musical experts.

Eight songs are to be heard in "If I Had My Way". Of these, "Meet the Sun Halfway", "I Haven't Time to Be a Millionaire", and "Pessimistic Character" are duets by Bing and Gloria. Other numbers include a solo by Crosby, "If I Had My Way", a solo by Gloria, "Little Gray Home in the West", "April Played the Fiddle", sung by Crosby accompanied by Six Hits and a Miss, and two songs, "Ida", sung by the famous vaudeville and minstrel performer, Eddie Leonard, and "Rings On My Fingers", sung by Blanche Ring. The last two numbers are accompanied by the Six Hits and a Miss. With the exception of "If I Had My Way", all of Crosby's numbers are by the song writing team of James Monaco and Johnny Burke. "If I Had My Way" is by James Kendis and Lou Klein.

Old timers, patrons of vaudeville when the variety entertainment was in its heyday, will be delighted with the screen appearance of Eddie Leonard, Blanche Ring, Trixie Friganza, Grace LaRue and Julian Eltinge, who are to be seen in one of the sequences of the picture.

DIVORCE IN MINOR ISSUE IN DRAMA OF DEEP SIGNIFICANCE

Though divorce creates one of the vital problems presented in "A Bill of Divorcement", announced for early showing here, the title does not exactly describe the nature of the story nor its real significance as a document of human compassion and sacrifice. Divorce, as such, is incidental to the theme. It opens on Thursday and Friday, August 29 and 30, at Pitt's Theatre.

"A Bill of Divorcement" does not concern itself with any moral issues of domestic infidelity; it does not set forth tragic results that may follow sudden marital discord. Instead, the story concerns itself vitally with a woman's courage, a man's dependency, and a young girl's tragic disillusionment, building to a powerful situation that can be climaxed only by one person's selfless sacrifice.

The plot revolves mainly about four characters portrayed by Adolphe Menjou, Maureen O'Hara, Fay Bainter and Herbert Marshall. Menjou is the shell-shocked veteran who returns home after a long illness to find his wife loving another man, and his grown daughter a stranger whose fear of his presence is overshadowed by the fear of inheriting his madness, which she only now learns is more than an injury—it is a frightful inheritance! And she who should never have been born was planning to marry and hoping to have many children!

QUAIL BAG LIMIT REDUCED

On receipt of the federal regulations on hunting migratory game birds the Virginia Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries announced their new regulations on hunting upland game. These regulations provide a general open season on rabbits and quail east of the Blue Ridge from November 20 to January 20, while west of the Blue Ridge the season will be November 15 to December 31. Bag limits on quail will be 8 a day and 150 a season, and on rabbits 6 a day and 75 a season. Regulations on other species remain essentially the same as last year.

Grouse may be hunted in the western counties from November 15 to December 31. Bag limits will be 3 a day and 15 a season. The season will remain closed on grouse in most of the eastern counties, but where such counties do have an open season it will be from November 20 to December 31.

In counties having an open turkey season the general hunting season will be November 20 to January 20 east of the Blue Ridge, and November 15 to December 31 west of the Blue Ridge. Bag limits will be 2 a day and 4 a season.

The general season for deer will remain November 20 to December 31. This year's 3-day elk season will be November 11, 12, and 13. Bear may be hunted from November 20 to December 31 east of the Blue Ridge and November 15 to December 31 in the western counties. Bag limits for all three of these "big game" animals will be one a season.

The squirrel seasons prescribed by general regulation will be September 1 to September 15 and November 20 to January 20 east of the Blue Ridge, and September 1 to September 15 and November 15 to December 31 west of the Blue Ridge. However, many counties will have local regulations further limiting the general season within their boundaries.

Minor changes in the Virginia game laws include the provision of an open season on groundhogs, September 1 to January 5, and the legalizing of the use of the bow and arrow for taking game birds.

While the above general regulations will govern hunting throughout Virginia this year, this summary does not present a complete transcript of the state game laws. There are many exceptions and additional county regulations which will modify the general regulations in particular localities. All hunters are urged by the Game Commission to consult the Virginia Game, Inland Fish, and Dog Laws to become fully acquainted with all the regulations which must be observed in the particular counties in which they plan to hunt. Copies of this pamphlet will soon be available at the offices of the county clerks.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER
Wherefore do you spend money for that which is not bread.—Isaiah 55:2.

QUERY
In the discussion of the conscription bill in the Senate yesterday, Senator Burton K. Wheeler, of Montana, inquired of Senator Morris Sheppard, chairman of the Military Affairs Committee: "Does the Senator think that Hitler will attack the United States?" "That is my firm belief," replied Senator Sheppard, "and if it wasn't I wouldn't be here trying to get the Senate to approve this legislation."

To this opinion Senator Wheeler demurred, contending that most of the emergency had been manufactured by propagandists. "The only emergency I can see is that the election is coming on."

Senator Wheeler's confidence recalls that of a colleague, the late Senator Borah. The occasion was the conference of President Roosevelt and Secretary Hull with the Senator Foreign Affairs Committee in an effort to bring about revision of the Neutrality Act. Hull called attention to the imminence of war. But in reply to his pleadings, Senator Borah declared that there would be no war; that he had private sources of information superior to those of the Department of State.

This is what we would like to know: Is Senator Wheeler's source of information the same as that of Senator Borah?
—Baltimore Evening Sun.

IN MEMORY
In sad but loving memory of Janie C. Abel

Who was suddenly taken from us two years ago, August 21, 1938. Our hearts still ache with sadness. Our eyes shed many tears. God only knows that we have missed you.

At the end of two saddened years.
No flower in the garden fairer
Brighter or ever grew.
Than the one that God has taken,
Janie, we will always remember you.

ARMY NEEDS COLLEGE GRADUATES

The Army Air Corps plans, in the near future ordering certain college graduates to study meteorology at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, California Institute of Technology and New York University, on flying cadet status.

Requirements for this course of study are that the applicant be unmarried, not less than 20 nor more than 27 years of age, college graduate who has specialized in the sciences, and who is able to pass a physical examination up to the same standards required of any Army Officer.

Upon successful completion of the course of study Flying Cadets under this classification are commissioned in the Officer's Reserve Corps and may compete for commission in the Regular Army. While undergoing instruction these cadets are paid a monthly salary of $75.00, and in addition are furnished food, clothing and shelter.

Further information and application blank forms may be procured at any recruiting office, or by writing to the Commanding General, Third Corps Area, Baltimore, Md.

CATHARPIN

"Home Coming Day" will be observed at Sudley next Sunday, August 25. All former residents and friends are most cordially invited to come, bring their basket lunch and spend the day at Old Sudley.

Rev. W. O. Luttrell, pastor of Manassas Methodist Church, is expected to be present to deliver the afternoon sermon. Rev. Jesse M. Bell has been invited to be present to assist with the singing. Be sure to come and enjoy the day with your old friends.

Friends and former schoolmates were sorry indeed to hear of the sudden death of Thomas McGuinn, which occurred last Sunday.

Mr. A. M. Allison died at his home at Catharpin, Wednesday morning, August 21, after a lingering illness.

Officer and Mrs. Raymond L. Briggs and daughter, Patricia, of Washington, are spending this week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L.

COUNTY AGENTS COLUMN

AUGUST 31—FINAL DATE FOR SPREADING 1940 FARM PROGRAM LIME

All farmers receiving ground limestone as a grant of aid under the 1940 agricultural conservation program who have not yet spread it are reminded that they have only to August 31 to get it on the land. Unless it is applied by this date, which is the last day of the 1940 program year, nothing will have been done toward earning the $2.00 per ton allowed for its use and the farm will necessarily have to be charged up with the full cost of the material.

Each farm on which AAA ground limestone was found unsprayed on the first visit of the Supervisor will be re-checked immediately after August 31 and it is hoped that every farmer who received the material through the program will meet this requirement and avoid being responsible for the full cost of the lime. Applying it now on land that will go in corn next spring, on hayland or on pasture is recommended. It will be too late to wait until corn is cut to spread it.

1941 FARM PROGRAM GROUND LIMESTONE AVAILABLE AFTER SEPTEMBER 1.

Farmers participating in the Agricultural Conservation Program may receive all or a part of their ground limestone allotment this fall in time to use on small grain.

Applications are now being taken at the County Agents office for fall delivery. All ground limestone obtained through the 1940 program should be spread not later than the 31st of this month.

TIME FOR APPLYING FOR WHEAT INSURANCE CLOSES AUGUST 31

Commercial wheat growers may be assured of 75 per cent of their normal yield in 1941 at a cost of approximately 35 cents per acre, this amount to be deducted from their 1941 farm program payments, by applying for the all-risk wheat insurance at the County Agent's office.

The final date for applying for this insurance on wheat to be seeded this fall, as well as the final date for applying ground limestone received as a grant of aid under the 1940 farm program, is August 31.

J. Pattie.

Mrs. Harry J. Ayres, of Arlington, has been visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Harrover.

A revival service is being conducted at Sudley this week by Rev. John S. Schwartz. Services will be continued all next week.

Miss Virginia Papa has entered St. Joseph's Villa, near Richmond to receive her high school training.

FARM COOP HOUSE TO REORGANIZE

Special Entertainment Features To Be Staged

Celebration of the opening of the new Southern States Nokesville Co-operative will take place when Southern States patrons in the Nokesville community hold their annual meeting at the Nokesville High School, Thursday evening, August 29, at 8 o'clock, with Charles Herring, general chairman, presiding.

Dr. T. K. Wolfe, Richmond, an official of Southern States Co-operative, will review the organization's report for the year ended June 30.

A board of directors will be elected. "What Co-operation Has Meant to Me" will be explained by M. S. Kerlin, and "Our Experiences with the Co-operative" will be outlined by Mrs. Davis-Nolley. Troy E. Counts will have as his topic, "Why Farmers Should Co-operate".

J. J. Baker, Culpeper, district manager for the co-operative, will present the movie, "98,925 Farmers Run This Business", revealing high lights in the organization's program which is being conducted in Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, West Virginia, and North Carolina.

Prizes to be awarded to contest winners will include $20, $10 and $5 values in Southern States supplies. The social program will also include music by Pete Collier and his Hill Billies and refreshments.

Committee chairmen are J. F. Hale, I. W. Liskay, Mr. Kerlin, L. W. Huff, and Frank Foster.

Patrons of the Manassas community will celebrate the opening of Southern States Manassas Co-operative at their annual meeting Friday evening, August 30, at 8 o'clock in the Manassas High School.

Dr. Wolfe and Mr. Baker will take the same parts on this program that they took at Nokesville.

Wilmer M. Kline will discuss "What Co-operation Has Meant to Me", and Mrs. A. B. Lawson will outline "Our Experiences with the Co-operative". W. C. Sudd will explain "Why Farmers Should Co-operate", with W. M. Johnson presiding.

Board members will be elected. The social program of music, contests with prizes, and refreshments will be the same as for the Nokesville meeting.

Chairman of committees, planning the event are Elmer Hurst, J. J. Conner, Wilmer Kline, W. M. Johnson, and P. A. Lewis.

Southern States patrons in the Burtonsville community will hold their annual meeting in the Burtonsville Grange hall, Thursday evening, August 29, at 8:15, with Daniel Snyder, general chairman, presiding.

Speakers will include Roy L. Wilson, J. E. Wilson, Mrs. Nellie Epler, S. J. Athey, and G. L. Leitze, Woodlawn, district manager for Southern States Co-operative.

Successors to retiring board members will be named.

The meeting will be followed by a program of contests with prizes, music, and refreshments.

Heads of committees are George Iager, Norman Wessel, Charles Latleif, Talmadge Wilson, and Mr. Athey.

BUCKHALL

Mrs. Clara Payne, of Manassas, attended the funeral of Mrs. Loraine Walkowiak on Monday, of Alexandria.

Mrs. Clara Payne, Mrs. Vida Pearson, and Mr. and Mrs. Arrine Pearson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Hardbowder, of Bell Haven, Va.

We are all happy to know that Glen Payne, who has been ill at the Walter Reed Hospital, will return home. Mrs. Ruby Boatwright and her two sons spent the week with her sister, Mrs. Vernon Gordon, of Manassas.

WATER GATE CONCERTS SEASON NEARING END

The last two concerts in the National Symphony Orchestra's current and most successful season of "Sunset Symphonies" at the Potomac Water Gate will be played on Sunday, (Aug. 25) and Wednesday (Aug. 28) of this week.

The final Sunday concert will introduce a new American conductor to Water Gate audiences, Alexander Bloch, director of the Symphony Orchestra of Central Florida; and will mark the first appearance with the National Symphony Orchestra of "Washington's own baritone", Garfield Swift.

For the gala final concert on Wednesday evening, Guy Fraser Harrison, conductor of the Rochester Civic Orchestra, and the young American dancers, Miriam Winslow and Foster Fitz-Simons, will make their second appearance with the National Symphony as guest conductor and soloist respectively.

Mr. Bloch, guest conductor on Sunday's concert, is new both in the sense that this will be his Washington debut, and in that he is a recent recruit to the conducting field. Originally a concert violinist, Alabama-born Dr. Bloch began his career as a conductor with a chamber music group, later directing the Alliance Symphony Orchestra of New York and the Alexander Bloch String Quartet. Three years ago he became permanent conductor of the Symphony Orchestra of Central Florida, and in that brief time has moulded the organization into one of the finest small orchestras in the country.

Mr. Swift, soloist with Mr. Bloch, has appeared in recital in New York and Chicago, and as a radio artist has been in great demand by the three major networks. With the National Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Swift will sing Di Provenza il mar from Verdi's "La Traviata" and Ovin Dissipe la Tristesse from Thomas' opera, "Hamlet". The orchestral part of the program will be comprised of Overture to Weber's "Der Freischutz", Tchaikovsky's Fifth Symphony, Entr'acte and Ballet Music from Schubert's "Rosamunde" and Tchaikovsky's "Romeo and Juliet".

One of the most brilliant concerts ever presented on any "Sunset Symphonies" series was given a little more than a year ago when Guy Fraser Harrison and Winslow and Fitz-Simons joined forces for the first time at the Water Gate. For that reason, they have been invited to return on Wednesday to provide a fitting close for this summer's season.

One of the outstanding leaders in the American dance, the partnership of Winslow and Fitz-Simons will present on that evening six dances from their new repertory: "In the Fields" (Jarehfelt), "Frail Woman" (Tansman), "Archaisms" (Retsof), "Crusader" (Reger), "Valse" (Debussy's "La Plus Que Lente"), and "Chromo" (Guion). "Frail Woman" and "Valse" are solo numbers by Miss Winslow, while Mr. Fitz-Simons will appear by himself in "Crusader". The Orchestra under Mr. Harrison's direction will play Handel's "Royal Water Music" in the Harty arrangement, Liadov's "The Enchanted Lake", "Francesca da Rimini" by Tchaikovsky, Symphony No. 8 in F major by Beethoven, and Polovetsian Dances from Borodin's "Prince Igor".

RE: CARNIVAL ORDINANCE.

BE IT ORDAINED AND ENACTED by the Board of Supervisors of in it by Section 153-a, of the Tax Code of Virginia, of 1936, that the following ordinance be enacted and ordained by said Board, to-wit:

"Section 1. Every person, firm, company or corporation, who or which exhibits performances in a carnival, or any other show, exhibition or performance similar thereto, shall procure a County license therefor.

"Section 2. There is hereby imposed by the adoption of this ordinance a County license tax on carnivals of $200.00 per day, or $1,000.00 per week.

"For the purpose of this Section, a carnival shall mean an aggregation of shows, amusements, concessions, eating places and riding devices, or any of them operated together on one parcel of ground, streets or roads, or on contiguous parcels of grounds, streets or roads, moving from place to place, whether the same are owned and actually operated by separate persons, firms, or corporations, or not.

"Section 3. This ordinance shall not be construed to prohibit any resident persons from holding and operating a carnival for charity or other benevolent purposes, nor of carnivals of volunteer fire companies, whether an admission be charged or not.

"The provisions of this ordinance shall not be construed to allow without payment of the tax herein imposed, carnivals for charitable or benevolent purposes by a company, association or persons, or a corporation, who make it their business to operate carnivals, no matter what terms of contract may be entered into or under what auspices such carnival is held or operated by such company, association or persons, or corporation for benevolent or charitable purposes, it being the intent and meaning of this ordinance that every company, association or persons, or corporation, who makes it their business of holding and operating carnivals for compensation, whether a part of the proceeds are for charitable or benevolent purposes or not, shall pay the license tax prescribed herein.

"Section 4. Every person, firm, company or corporation, who or which holds and operates a carnival above described in this ordinance without paying the license tax herein required, shall be fined not less than $50.00 nor more than $500.00 for each offense.

BEAUTIFUL PAINTINGS
AT FINE ARTS MUSEUM

Well, have you made that visit to the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts this summer to see its special exhibition, culled from the finest works in the permanent collection? We extend you another invitation in case you haven't.

Meanwhile, we shall take our final summer stroll through the galleries. You have been taken on previous tours in this column to the more or less specific collections in the big exhibition—the religious, and that devoted to younger artists native to Virginia, and otherwise.

Now for a roam-at-will tour to point out many canvases of many schools and themes. We cannot imagine a more refreshing experience to the visitor on a hot day than to stand before that towering canvas of the great American landscapist, John F. Carlson, in which he leads us over a snowclad forest floor in among great trees, spattered with warm winter sunshine. What a canvas for any time of the year is this poetic "Sylvan Labyrinth"!

Not a few feet distant is another oil that will refresh the spirit as well as the heart and body. It is by another American artist, Emil Carlsen, whose long career resulted in giving to the art world some superb still-lives and nature studies. This Carlsen is entitled "Wind in the East" and reveals a giant wave crashing into helpless foam against a gray adamant cliff. It is a cool, inviting canvas of rare charm.

With summer outside, we can find the theme continued in an oil by the "last of the American impressionists", Chile Hassam. This artist, who died in 1935, was an avid interpreter of New England coast villages was owned by the Museum, "Looking into the Little South Room"—is an intimate glimpse of a lady knitting in a sunlit room, through which we can feel a gentle summer wind stirring the draperies.

Still in the mood for repose, there is the restful beauty and spiritual comfort of that large canvas by Gari Melchers, "The White Chapel", painted in that little church in Egmond-aan-Houff, which was the setting for some of his most famous religious canvases. In this painting, we see a proud, young couple, presenting their baby for the rite of baptism.

Two ministers, one in the high pulpit and the other at the lectern, and a grandparent complete the picture. It is flooded with light from the stained glass windows of the altar. Every inch of this painting will bring to you a sense of delight and wonder.

If you love summer, color, and the lazy flow of the river under a nooday sun, then Monet's shimmering "Ile sur la Seine pres Giverny" will satisfy to the utmost. Perhaps, who knows but that this island in the Seine is now a pocked-marked field with the trees Monet painted in vibrating impressionist tones nothing but blasted ribbons of wood.

Again, if you still want the same season, turn to Mazzanovich's "Summer Day", with its purple shadows, soft greens, and wandering clouds. On the other hand, if you wish to rest in your wanderings and, at the same time, find a canvas that will keep you on a constant trail of new experiences and discoveries, sit before the large oil "Interior of a Kitchen", by Jacob Cornelius Delft, which, incidentally, was discovered in the basement of a Richmond home. The great Dutch artist will give you food for thought as well as depicting for you viands that make one marvel at his skill.

In these tours so far, we have made no mention of the fine collection of portraits owned by the Museum, many of which are in the summer show. For example, "Evelyn Byrd", by Sir Godfrey Kneller, "Lord Byron", from the brush of another great English portraitist, Sir Thomas Lawrence; and still another, "Portrait of a Lady", by Sir Peter Lely.

Sir Joshua Reynolds is represented by "Lady Doubleday", Thomas Sully by "Anna Joynes"; and the pupil of Rembrandt, one Ferdinand Bol, is represented by a large oil, "Portrait of a Scholar".

In the downstairs gallery, which houses the richly carved furniture and bookcases of the late Judge Payne, are to be found his portrait by Gari Melchers, and that of Mrs. Payne by G. P. A. Healy, and, in other galleries, are this artist's portraits of Daniel Webster, Henry Clay and the Bryan family. There is also a Hubbard of "John Quarles James and Alfred James" and, in the silver gallery, a portrait by Edwin Child, of Thomas Branch, the Richmond philanthropist and banker. This gallery also contains the Jaquelin-Amber portraits, and William Merritt Chase's full-length study of Hilda Spong, the actress.

And now, in spite of all that has been mentioned, we have not yet covered the whole show. There is the Dugald Stewart Walker collection of illustrations and bookplates, and the sketches of Gari Melchers, with four other traveling exhibitions now being shown in one of the lower galleries. As to the clock collection, we wouldn't know how to begin a description of this amazing group of timepieces, or the Strauss collection of silver, covering three centuries. There is only one way to realize the extent of this summer show—that is to see it. It is not too late.

WATERFALL.

Mr. Preston Smith treated his family and friends to a real surprise on Monday, the morn of his departure for a visit to the West, fulfilling his boyhood dreams to see this land of adventure and romance; he took unto himself a wife, a friend of many years, Miss Audrey Nalls, of Alexandria; Miss Nalls a former stenographer in the government service, has spent her summers and vacations in this vicinity since childhood, is much loved and a charming person.

Preston was an eligible bachelor; believed to be immune to Cupid's wiles, is popular, and all that goes in the making of a good citizen, active in the Grange, master of boy scouts, deputy sheriff, a deacon in his church, and a prosperous farmer of robust health, ambitious and industrious. Some gals are so lucky.

The revival services at Antioch the week following, home coming day, conducted by Rev. Allen, of Warren Baptist Church, was well attended. We felt a great spiritual blessing. Baptismal rites were on last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reilly, of New York, returned to their home on Friday last, having spent two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Smith, attending the meetings, and calling on relatives and friends.

Mrs. Dewitt and Miss Rhoda Dewitt, of Washington, are spending their annual vacation with Miss Florence Smith. Mrs. Alice Wright also spent the week end with Miss Smith.

Mr. Carrol Wright, Edward, Bob, and Carroll with their grandfather, spent Sunday at Occoquan.

Those who attended the Potomac association held at North Fork Church last week, were Mr. R. B. Gosson and Barton Padgett, delegates, and Miss Florence Smith, Mrs. Dewitt, and Miss Rhoda Dewitt, Mrs. R. R. Smith, and son, Wade, and Mr. and Mrs. Reilly.

Miss Mary Margaret Thomas, of Ft. Myer Heights, is visiting her aunt, Miss Margaret Shirley. Shirley and Billy Thomas, who attended the home coming at Ewell chapel also visited there Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. R. J. Wayland, of Occoquan, visited her parents, Sunday afternoon. She was accompanied home by Philip Thornhill and her son, Bobby, who had spent sometime with his grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gosson, Jr., and son, of Spartanburg, S. C., spent Monday at Mt. Atlas. They will visit Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herrell in Washington this week, and the World's Fair over the week end, also pay a visit to Montauk, where Mr. Gosson was employed when a youth, and are planning to return to stay over Labor Day with his parents.

Mrs. Milton L. Harlow and children, of Washington, are spending some time at Hagley. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnes and children, of Arlington, also spent Sunday at Hagley.

Much sympathy is expressed in the tragic death of Thomas McGuinn, sixteen year old son, of Mr. Snowden McGuinn. He met death while swimming at Buckland, Sunday afternoon, rather than drowning.

THEY'LL HAVE TO LICK ME TOO!

I'm not very much for fighting, but I'm not a pacifist gink; I wouldn't run at the sound of a gun, nor faint when the sabers clink. Now don't class me as a braggart, but this I'll say to you—That when they lick "Old Glory" they'll have to lick me too. It's your flag and my flag—this old red, white and blue, And it's waving means a freedom my friends, for me and you While I don't approve of fighting, and I don't think that you do—Yet, when they lick "Old Glory" they'll have to lick me too. "Old Glory's" never met defeat—it's honorable and true. I like its stripes of red and white, its starry field of blue. Our fathers fought and bled for it for freedom for me and you—So, when they lick "Old Glory" they'll have to lick me too.

I like to thank of America as the home of the brave and true; I like to think of America with peace for me and you; But if they're hunting trouble I'll say this much to you—That when they lick "Old Glory" they'll have to lick me too.

SMITH—NALLS

Mr. James Preston Smith, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Smith, of Waterfall, and Miss Audrey Nalls, of Alexandria, were quietly married at the home of Rev. Barret Grimsley on Monday.

The groom's brother, Mr. Robert L. Smith, and his aunt, Miss Florence Smith witnessed the ceremony.

The radiant young couple left immediately for a motor trip through the west, and an extended visit with relatives in Denver, Colo.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Mind" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 25.

The Golden Text will be "Elesed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding" (Dan. 2:20,21).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding" (Isa. 40:28).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures", by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine Science, explains the abstract statement that there is on Mind by the following self-evident proposition: If God, or good, is real, then evil, the unlikeness of God, is unreal. And evil can only seem to be real by giving reality to the unreal. The children of God have but one Mind" (p. 470).

BRENT-MIRANDA COMBO NEWEST SCREEN DUET

One of Hollywood's most popular young leading men and one of the most glamorous actresses of the day form fast company together in Paramount's new comedy drama, "Adventure in Diamonds", which opens next Wednesday, August 28, at the Pitt's Theatre. Their names: George Brent and Isa Miranda.

Brent, of the "smiling Irish eyes" and talent for roaring adventure roles, has hung up many records in Hollywood, not the least of them the distinction of having been Bette Davis' leading man three times during the past two seasons. He appeared with her, of course, in "Jezebel", "Dark Victory" and "The Old Maid".

Of Brent's newest film partner, Miss Miranda, much has been heard during the year. Referred to as "the world's most glamorous woman" by no less expert a connoisseur of feminine beauty than Italy's great soldier-poet, Gabriele d'Annunzio, she was a reigning favorite of the European stage and screen when Paramount contracted her and induced her to make a film in Hollywood.

"Adventure in Diamonds", a blend of high comedy and tense melodrama, presents Brent as a romantic-minded young Royal Air Force officer, who gets seriously involved with a lovely lady crook, and Miss Miranda as an adventuress who sets out on no less ambitious a mission than to rob the fabulous Kimberley diamond mines of South Africa.

The story of "Adventure in Diamonds" starts out aboard a Cape Townbound luxury liner, aboard which the vacationing Brent meets Miss Miranda and unknowingly becomes her tool in the opening stages of the boldest attempted theft in the history of Kimberley.

Thrills and laughs follow one another in rapid succession as Brent manages to get Miss Miranda into the closely-guarded mines, discovers just what her mission is, joins the secret service in an attempt to break up the ring and even enlists her aid for a time against her fellow conspirators. The story reaches a high point of frivolity when the pair masquerade as a honeymooning couple at the behest of the police.

The South African diamond mining district and its metropolis, Cape Town, often called "the Paris of the Southern Hemisphere", provide "Adventure in Diamonds" with a novel and romantic background. The elaborately-guarded mine interiors, the breath-taking scenery, the high life of the capital and even an ostrich race are shown in the film.

CENTREVILLE

A. B. Carter, a life time resident of the county, was buried in the Episcopal cemetery here this morning. He was born in one of the old King Carter homes in the Red Hill neighborhood, and was a descendant of that famous Virginian. He leaves a daughter residing at Fredericksburg and a son living near Burke. For many years, Mr. Carter was game warden for Fairfax County, and also engaged in private business.

Herman Ritchie had the misfortune to fall from a horse on Saturday and fracture his arm.

The lawn party given at Royal Oaks by the altar guild went through on schedule despite the rainy day. A fair sum was realized to be used for altar hangings.

Mrs. Marcia Ewell is very ill at a hospital in Washington.

LOMBARDO TO PLAY

FOR TOBACCO FETE
Guy Lombardo, and his Royal Canadians, will play for the Coronation Ball of the National Tobacco Festival, the largest annual dance held in America. The Lombardos will honor on this occasion the beautiful Martha Scott, star of stage, screen and radio, who will reign over the two days of festivities.

Guy Lombardo and his band have been playing together for many years and rank at the top, and are admitted to play the "sweetest music this side of Heaven". This orchestra played for the National Tobacco Festival in 1936 and drew the largest attendance of any of the coronation balls. It is by popular request that the Lombardos have been secured for the 1940 dance, which will be held in South Boston, Va., on Friday night, September 6, 1940.

This orchestra is responsible for the sweet melody, unusual orchestrations, muffled brasses, and slow crooning rhythm, which have made the Lombardo outfit a leading attraction from the point of popular following, on the stage, the radio, recordings and the ballroom floor. The Canadians harmony speaks well for their fraternal harmony.

The name Lombardo spells the best in dance music wherever mentioned, and in line with previous celebrations, National Tobacco Festival officials have secured the best for the expected ten thousand dancers. 75 thousand square feet of floor space is available, the floor of this huge dance hall is being made perfect for dancing, and all is in readiness for the best and largest attended dance held here in the history of the National Tobacco Festival.

OCCOQUAN AND VICINITY

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall E. Davis and son, of Lorton, and Mr. and Mrs. Garner and children, of Lorton, are spending several days vacation at North Beach, Md. Mrs. R. Warthen Hall and daughter, of Occoquan, also spent several days at North Beach, Md., and have returned to their home in Occoquan.

Mr. and Mrs. "Stoney" Hanlon and sons, of Georgia, are visiting Mrs. Hanlon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sealeman in Occoquan.

Mr. Bill Govey, of Arlington, Va., who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Bustin during the past week, has returned to his home.

Rev. and Mrs. John Morrison, of Waverly, Va., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Morrison's father, Mr. Tom Sealeman in Occoquan.

Miss Marie Barnes, of Washington, D. C., who has spent several weeks visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Fred A. Barnes in Occoquan, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Barnes, of Washington, D. C., and Occoquan, Va., spent several days last week visiting an aunt in Wyoming, Pa.

Miss Etta Davis and Mrs. Campbell, of Snug Harbour near Featherstone, Va., are visiting in the New England States. We are expecting them to return home in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lee, of Ohio, spent several days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Slack in Occoquan. Mrs. Lee is the daughter of Mr. Slack. The Lees were also entertained by Mr. and Mrs. H. Caldwell Slack in their home in Alexandria, Va.

We are glad to be able to report that Miss Mary Petellat, of Occoquan, who was operated on at the Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital in Washington, D. C., has been discharged from the hospital and is convalescing at the home of relatives. She will return to her home in Occoquan in a few days. We are pleased to report that Mr. Gene Bryant is recuperating rapidly at his home in Occoquan. We reported his accident last week.

We reported last week, that all the 1939 Occoquan Town Corporation Taxes were paid except THREE. Since that report TWO have paid, so we are on the verge of 100 per cent. By the time this is of the press, we will undoubtedly have a CLEAR STATE. Let us hear from any other town with such a good record. We are real patriotic citizens in this BURG.

To the Editors and Publishers, of The Manassas Journal.

The O-W-L-Volunteer Fire Department takes this opportunity of thanking you for your kind consideration in giving our Carnival being held at Woodbridge, Va., during this week the excellent publicity (FREE) in your valuable publication, "The Manassas Journal". If we were to pay for this publicity, we fear we would have to pay most of the profits made on the carnival. Your generosity and co-operation in giving us this wide publicity FREE will always be remembered. We also hope our wide circle of friends will see the benefits of subscribing to the Manassas Journal and receiving all the county and local news every week.

Our entire membership joins me in thanking you for your kind consideration in giving us this much needed publicity.

Very truly yours,

ADEN SOCIETY MEETING

The Ladies Aid Society of the Calvary United Brethren Church, of Aden, met in the home of Mrs. Don Landis, August 15th., for its August meeting.

Mrs. L. V. Arnold, president of the society was in charge. The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Landis. The election of officers resulted in the following being chosen; Mrs. Arnold, president; Mrs. Landis, vice president; Mrs. Joe Horn, secretary; Mrs. C. M. Hively, treasurer; Mrs. Lula Vance, assistant treasurer.

Mrs. G. W. Montgomery, of Washington, was drawn as the one to receive the quilt made by the society. At the close very tasty refreshments were served by Mrs. Landis and Mrs. Newman.

CATHOLIC GUILD PRESENTS
FIRST OF NEW PROGRAMS

"The Catholic Attitude on Birth Control" was the subject of the talk by the Chairman, Harry J. Kirk, who is president of the Washington Catholic Evidence Guild, at the meeting on the court house lawn last Monday evening.

Mr. Kirk pointed out that three out of every four childless marriages in the U. S. A. end in divorce, and that 93 per cent of all our divorces are accounted for by these childless couples and those with only one or two children. Benjamin Franklin, the tenth child of his parents and John Marshall, born nearby in Fauquier County, the greatest Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, the fifteenth child of his parents were given mention.

"If the human race still exists ten thousand years hence", concluded the speaker "the Catholic Church will continue to condemn this practice, otherwise she would cease to be the Catholic Church as Christ founded it".

Miss Edith Jarboe explained the "Sign of the Cross". She explained how it is used as a reminder of Our Saviour's death on the cross.

A. J. Gaffigan's subject was "Faith and Reason". He showed the limitation of man's reason and how faith Francis H. Thornton, past president of the Guild, told "How to Keep on the Road to Truth".

The following is the program announced for next Monday night, August 26, 1940, on the court house lawn.

Chairman Charles E. Ferry, "Nothing Defiled Shall Enter Heaven".
Elizabeth Raney, "Was Jesus Christ God?"

C. G. Klimowicz, "The Sin of Adam".

Clemens Poiesz, "The Folly of Indifference to God".

In the event of rain the program will be given in All Saints Catholic Church and the public is cordially invited to be present. There will be no collections and the speakers will invite questions from the audience.
