Book Reviews by High School Students Are Popular

Because of the interest demonstrated by students of the Manassas High School and expressed by many readers of The Journal, a series of weekly book reviews comparable to those printed in this newspaper during the past winter and spring will be printed during the present session of the Manassas High School.

Mr. Clarence Wagener repeats last session's offer and will give a prize for the best book review written by a member of the third or fourth year class of the Manassas High School and printed in The Journal between October 24, 1940, and May 15, 1941.

Due to the limited number of publication dates available, not more than twenty-eight students may compete. It is a case of first come, first served. But there must be not less than fifteen competitors, else the prize offer will be null and void. Closing date for entries is Friday, October 11, 1940.

Books reviewed must be obtainable on loan from the Ruffner-Carnegie Library. No book review is to exceed 400 words. No book reviewed by a student in competition for the W. C. Wagener Memorial Prize of the Supplementary Prize during the 1939-40 session is eligible for review this session.

Three judges are to be selected—one judge each by Prof. Worth Peters, Principal; Miss Eugenia Osbourn, Librarian, and Mrs. Keith Lyons, Teacher of English, of the Manassas High School.

The winner, to be announced at the 1941 banquet of the Manassas High School Alumni Association, will receive the W. C. Wagener Memorial Prize—Unrestricted choice of $10.00 worth of books at a Washington, D. C., book store, and a Certificate of Achievement.

Mr. Wagener also repeats the supplementary prize offer. He will give a copy of "The Story of the Human Race," by Henry Thomas, to the student of the first or second year class of the Manassas High School who writes the best book review (a minimum of twelve such students must compete) submitted on or before Friday, April 11, 1941. No book reviews by first or second year students can be printed.

In a letter to The Journal, Mr. Wagener expresses gratitude for space given the reviews last session and promise of space for the reviews projects for the present session. He is deeply appreciative, too, of the assurance of continued assistance on the part of Prof. Worth Peters, Miss Eugenia Osbourn and Mrs. Keith Lyons, without whose enthusiastic cooperation the plan could never have been put into operation.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS TO MEET

The Young Democratic Club of Prince William County will hold its October meeting, Tuesday night, October 1st, in the Court House at Manassas, at 8 o'clock. At the meeting tentative plans will be discussed as to the part the Young Democrats will take in the election campaign in conjunction with the senior Democrats. Every member of the club (and the club membership numbers over five hundred) is urged to attend as this meeting will be a very important one. Members of the Democratic Committee are also especially urged to be present.

LOCAL MERCHANTS AID BOYS FOOTBALL TEAM

Several Manassas merchants have generously contributed cash toward the purchase of uniforms and equipment for Manassas' latest athletic team, the Manassas Mighty Mites, whose members all weigh under 100 pounds and are less than 14 years of age.

These contributions of cash will enable the boys to be amply protected and to present a good appearance when they trot out on the field ready to do battle. Uniforms, pads and other equipment have been ordered now that the money so magnanimously contributed is available. This equipment will be loaned to the boys making the squad and returned at the end of the season so that the team next year will have equipment from the start.

It indeed seems to be a worthy cause. Not only will these boys absorb a good understanding of sportsmanship, teamwork and the spirit of give and take, but the football will mean that Manassas High School may look forward to having some new and well trained football material when the Mighty Mites trot out, as candidates for the team in the not too distant future.

Any person who wishes to contribute purchase of equipment for the boys may do so by going to Bennett Field any week day evening between 5:30 and 6:30, or contributions may be made through this paper.

Mr. Lamar, who prefers to be called just "Bo", is coaching the Mighty Mites in the art of blocking, tackling and the finer points of the game. Coach Lamar is enthused over the way the group under his tutelage are developing.

"They are the hardest working set of youngsters I have ever had under instruction," says Mr. Lamar.

He adds that if the boys keep working in the future as they have to date the team will be a good one. Coach Lamar should know whereof he speaks; he has had plenty of experience as a football player and ten years experience as a coach. The Mighty Mites are due to "go places" it seems.

Any boy in Manassas who weighs under 100 pounds and is less than 14 years old and wants to play football should report to coach Lamar. New players are welcomed.

MRS. ALLEN HOSTESS TO GARDEN CLUB

Special prayer is expected to be said in local churches Sunday for the people of Great Britain. The Rt. Rev. Henry St. George Tucker, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church in the United States, and a group of leading churchmen and educators of all denominations have asked that the day be set aside for the purpose.

In an appeal to Americans to pray for the British on Sunday Bishop Tucker said:

"We are united to our friends in the British Isles by the heritage of a common ideal of democracy and freedom and a common struggle to achieve it. In this hour when that heritage stands in peril we would identify ourselves in sympathy and fellowship with the British people.

"Let us on Sunday, September 28, unite in prayer to Almighty God that the people of Great Britain may be given grace to bear their suffering with unshaken courage and that they may be sustained by the faith that in the providence of God their suffering may serve moral and spiritual ends."

The club was urged to remember the district meeting in Richmond next month.

A large group of patrons and friends of the Manassas Parent-Teacher Association assembled in the Manassas High School auditorium on Thursday evening, September 19th, to welcome back the teachers who have been here for several years, and to greet the two new teachers, Miss Ford and Miss Hartwell.

The first regular monthly meeting of the school year was also held at this time. The opening prayer was led by Mr. Wood of the new N. Y. A. School here. There were also several other visitors from this school, all of whom were given a special welcome by the group.

Committee reports were heard and from all indications a busy, successful year is ahead.

Following the group singing of "God Bless America", an informal reception for the teachers was held around the refreshment table at the front of the auditorium.

The banner for the highest percentage of attendance at patrons was awarded to Miss Hartwell's Third Grade room.

The occasion was very pleasant and a very agreeable surprise was afforded, when the Most Reverend Bishop Ireton, asked a delegate from Manassas to stand and receive a beautiful American flag for being the most efficient club in the Diocese during the past year. The Diocese includes the entire State of Virginia and a portion of West Virginia.

The gentlemen of the local Holy Name Society have been most faithful and courageous in their work, and the honor received was justly due.

TEACHERS STUDY DEFENSE PROGRAM

Regional Meeting To Be Held At Warrenton

The relationship of teachers' organizations and the work of the schools to the American Defense Program will be one of the important questions to be discussed at the Regional Assembly of the Virginia Education Association September 28 at Warrenton.

Among those from the Prince William County Education Association who are planning to attend this conference are:

Sup't. R. C. Haydon, Mr. R. Worth Peters, Mrs. Ossie Tipton, Miss Sue Ayres, Rural Supervisor, Mr. Frank Sigman, Miss Elizabeth Vaughan, Mr. C. O. Bittle, Miss Maude Brown, Miss Evelyn Irons, Miss Ann Myer, Mr. W. Z. Moore and Miss Dorothy Brevard.

The Virginia Education Association is holding these conferences as a means of developing a State-wide program of local action designed to promote effective measures for the conservation and development of our human and natural resources and for the strengthening of democracy. Included in the items for discussion are:

1. The setting up of local councils on Education and the Defense of Democracy;

2. Provisions for citizenship training and recognition.

It is hoped to set up in each county and city in the State a committee composed of representatives of influential lay organizations, as well as boards of education, school officers, and teachers, to develop a unified program for the defense of democracy through:

1. Developing an understanding and appreciation of our free institutions;

2. Promoting self-discipline and a deepened sense of civic responsibility;

3. Developing physical hardihood through school and community programs of physical education and recreation;

4. Developing the technical and vocational skills need in industries essential to national defense.

The work of the committees on Education and Defense will tie in very closely with the programs for citizenship training and recognition. In fact, the plans for the latter may quite properly be undertaken by the committee.

Another purpose of the meeting at Warrenton is to secure the opinion of local educational leaders as to the desirability of re-formulating the program of the Virginia Education Association.

Still another purpose is to assist officers of local associations in planning and carrying through a program of activities for the year.

The conference which will begin at ten o'clock in the morning and last all day, will be presided over by Francis S. Chase, Executive Secretary of the Virginia Education Association.

Among the prominent educators from outside the State who have indicated an intention of attending are: Mrs. D. Barnes, President of the National Association of Classroom Teachers; Dr. T. D. Martin, Director of Membership, National Education Association, Washington, D. C.; Dr. Howard McCluskey, Assistant Director, American Youth Commission; and Dr. Lyle Ashby, Assistant Editor, Journal of the National Education Association;

Jule Warren, Executive Secretary, North Carolina Education Association; and R. B. Marston, Executive Secretary, West Virginia Education Association. President Joseph E. Healy and other leaders of the Virginia Education Association are also expected.

DANCE AT OCCOQUAN

The opening dance of the season will be held at the Occoquan District High School, Occoquan, Virginia on September 27th. Starting at nine-thirty and ending at one-thirty, the dance will be sponsored by the Parents-Teachers' Association of the school. Music will be furnished by a locally popular orchestra.

FINE ARTS CLUB

The Fine Arts Section of the Woman's Club had a nice meeting at the home of Mrs. T. J. Broadus' home Tuesday night.

SOUND ENHANCES

"BLONDIE" GAIEITY

Comedy and drama may be found in sound effects, just as they may in music or spoken dialogue.

In the old vaudeville days, the actors frequently won laughs with bits of business which in themselves were not particularly funny.

This idea is enlarged upon by director Frank R. Strayer in directing "Blondie On A Budget", fifth in the delightful Columbia series, and now at the Pitt's Theatre, Wednesday, October 2.

For instance, Arthur Lake, who plays Dagwood to Penny Singleton's Blondie, is washing dishes in one scene and Strayer wanted to simulate, as nearly as possible, the sound of dishes crashing on the floor.

One of the most spectacular effects provided by the technicians helped lovely Rita Hayworth through a difficult scene.

"I suppose I should have been chagrined", she added. "But I was not really. They even have to substitute for canaries sometime!"

CATLETT

Mrs. J. J. Murphey of Manassas, Va., spent Tuesday with Mrs. Geo. W. Crabtree.

Mrs. Emma Colvin and family of Washington, D. C., visited friends and relatives in Catlett, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Yeatman spent Friday in Washington, D. C., visiting relatives.

Mrs. Margaret Truitt of Washington, D. C., spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Will Ivey.

We are glad to welcome back to our community the smiling face of Miss Gladys Silcott for another school term.

A very delightful and refreshing shower fell on the evening of September 19, 1940, through the medium of Mrs. Hettie Colvin and Miss Gladys Silcott at the home of Mrs. Blanch Laws at Catlett, in honor of her son, Mr. Winfield Laws and his lovely bride, Charlotte.

Their many friends came burdened with not only attractive, but useful gifts, as an expression of their well wishing for the happy couple, and many laughs were enjoyed during the evening through the sharp and timely wit of the groom's sister, Miss Arabell Laws as she assisted in displaying the gifts.

About 75 friends and relatives were present.

Delightful refreshments were served at a late hour and the friends departed wishing the happy couple a long and happy married life.

Miss Arabell Laws left for Mary Washington College Monday, where she will be a senior this year. We will miss her smiling face in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Neff and two sons of Balto. Md., spent Sunday with Mrs. Helen Lloyd.

DETAILS OF SELECTIVE SERVICE REGISTRATION CARD

Here is the Selective Service Law's registration card, to be filled out on October 16 by Virginians who have reached the age of twenty-one but who have not passed their thirty-sixth birthday. Every male of the prescribed ages in Virginia must, according to law, fill out this card of a regular voting precinct of other place selected by the electoral board of your city or county.

If you are ill at home, or in a hospital, or for some other reason are unable to report to a place of registration, you are required to have a friend report for you and the electoral board will arrange to get a card into your hands, with its representative present to fill it out.

If you are away from home the law requires you to ascertain the location of a registration place in that vicinity, present yourself there and register just as though you were at home.

Wherever you are, be sure and register, Colonel Mills F. Neal, Selective Service Executive for Virginia, advised today, for those who fail to do so must be reported for violation of the law. Every male in the age bracket established must register, whether a citizen, an alien, or a non-resident of the community.

OCOQUAN
OCOQUAN AND VICINITY

The Rector's Aid of Pohick Church met at the church hall on Wednesday, September 18th at noon. There was a very large attendance; and after most sumptuous refreshments, the ladies agreed to make a lot of improvements on the Rectory Building.

There will be a Ham and Chicken dinner at the Occoquan Methodist Church in Occoquan on October 4th commencing at 5 p. m. The ladies of this church have a reputation of serving excellent dinners. Be sure of come and help those good women in this worthy cause.

The members of the Occoquan Methodist Church entertained the faculty of Occoquan and Lorton schools on Tuesday evening, September 17th at the church in Occoquan. Rev. D. N. Calvert, the Minister, gave the address of welcome. Mr. Marshall Tyres of Lorton was master of ceremonies. Mrs. Mattie Timms; Mrs. Binie Cross; Mrs. Richard Smith and Ellen Haislip were the Committee on arrangements.

Miss Elizabeth Vaughan introduced the Occoquan High School teachers, and Mrs. Christine Knopp introduced the Lorton School Teachers.

Mrs. Herman F. Jennings rendered reading, Miss Ellen Haislip rendered Monolog Readings; Miss June Timms and Mr. Claggett Hawkins sang solos.

The church was almost filled to capacity. It was beautifully decorated with various flowers in season, which made a beautiful sight.

After the introductions, talks, singing, reading, etc., refreshments were served all present. Cake and cocoa were plentiful. After refreshments, various games were played until time to depart for home. Everybody entered into and enjoyed those games.

This meeting will long be remembered by all who had the privilege to attend as one of the most enjoyable evenings they ever spent.

Several deaths have occurred in the community recently; and we deeply sympathize with those relatives and friends of the departed ones, and trust God in his wisdom will give them strength to carry on. We omit their names, because they have appeared in the papers prior to this writing.

It is with great satisfaction we report the upholding by The Supreme Court of the United States of the action of the School Authorities at Minersville, Pa., in expelling from school some "Children of members of Jehovah's Witnesses" who refused to salute the Flag at school exercises. Every patriotic citizen will be happy that the Court's decision was that the States may require all Public School Children to salute the Flag regardless of religious scruples. Are we in Prince William County causing our school children to pledge allegiance to the Flag of our country at school exercises DAILY as we should? If not, why not? Are we real patriots, or have a Communist tinge. Patriotism is a real necessity these days.

Fishes are biting fine now at Occoquan Creek. Several large BASS have been taken the past week. Also the first PIKE has been caught here; somewhat of a rarity in this creek. Occoquan has been spending some of the Town Taxes on repairing its streets, by graveling the most important streets. It is hoped those streets can be tarred next year. The Town Council also DONATED $400.00 to the O-W-L-Volunteer Fire Department to help pay the notes on the equipment. You citizens of Occoquan can see your tax money is

'YOU'RE NOT SO TOUGH' IS SIGN...ANT ACTION DRAMA

Recently the screen has seen Marlene Dietrich in a western role and Edward G. Robinson portraying a kindly doctor. So it isn't surprising to learn that the Dead End Kids and Little Tough Guys have been removed from the brick and asphalt of the city and transplanted to a California ranch in roles of their new Universal picture, "You are Not So Tough", which comes to the Pitt's Theatre Wednesday, October 2.

The Dead End Kid group includes five of the boys—Billy Halop, Huntz Hall, Gabriel Dell, Bernard Punsky and Bobby Jordan, all from the original "Dead End" stage production. In "You're Not So Tough" they will be seen as itinerant workers, following California's corps.

In supporting roles will be seen Nan Grey who has just finished several roles which mark her as one of the screen's really versatile youngsters. Nan appears as an "Okie" girl, struggling with her family, to keep body and soul together in the shanty-town, living places of the migrant "dust-bowlers", "Arkies" and "Okies" who have swarmed to California.

Rosina Galli appears as the Italian ranch owner about whom the story revolves. Miss Galli comes to the screen from the Italian-language stage.

The direction is by Joe May, whose recent "The House of the Seven Gables" and "The Invisible Man Returns" were outstanding successes.

Much of "You're Not So Tough" was photographed on California ranches against authentic backgrounds.

WASHINGTON'S DIORAMA EXPERT

In numerous department of the Government in Washington visitors are impressed by museums and exhibits, many of them established on a permanent basis, which present a vivid portrayal of Federal construction work and activities throughout the country. Among these exhibits the animated diorama holds first place in interest. Experts in the designing of dioramas and in the making of large-scale and relief maps is Frederick C. Crass, now 71 and retired from active service, but who today continues his work as a fascinating hobby. The art of Mr. Crass, whose most prized work is a 30-foot model of the Mount Vernon estate, is described in an illustrated feature article appearing next Sunday in The Washington Sunday Star.

It is also gratifying to know that all the 1939 Corporation Taxes have been paid; except ONE PIECE OF PROPERTY with mixed ownership. The owners of this piece of property will pay in due time, because the taxes due have been posted in Manassas and will draw interest until finally paid.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST. Bible Thought and Prayer. If parents will have their children receive the daily Bible education, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in their years.

Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people; and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you that it may be well unto you.—Jeremiah 7:23.

WHO HATH DONE THIS THING?

"This is incredible! This is not like the Germans we knew. They always loved children. German family life centered about the home and little ones. Germany every year sent to children the world over gifts to make them happy. How could men from a nation of such people deliberately destroy so many young lives?"

Necessarily this is true. The insanity which has beclouded the thinking of so many Germans has substituted cruelty and persecution for a traditional kindness and gentleness. It has crowned materialism and de-throned religion.

Christian civilization cannot exist in a world where the Nazi ideology operates unchecked. While praying, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do", that civilization should bring to bear all its weight in a final effort to destroy and

ULTIMATE SOUTHERN TRIUMPH

Superintendent J. H. Binford has made a significant note in Richmond's history when he reports that the enrollment of white students in the city's high schools has hit its peak and is beginning to show a decline. As of last Monday, there were 42 fewer white high school students in Richmond than there were a year ago.

Richmonders may also take a fond look at the city's crop of 18-year-olds. There is a larger number of these attractive youngsters in the city than there will be for some years to come. There was a sharp decline in urban American births during the decade from 1920 to 1930, and these lagging years are now beginning to take their toll of the high schools.

Regionally speaking, we hold the balance of power in the American population situation. The former Confederate States go marching on with greater population strides than those that are being taken in the North. Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi are furnishing the seed-bed of American population, and eventually the descendants of the people of this region will inherit the substance of the nation, unless there is a decided change in regional birth rates.

Love will not desert us in our declining years, For we have lived together long enough To see the rainbow through the tears; We have endeavored to keep it always bright, Knowing that life, without love, would be a starless night. Edgar W. Townsend.

Three leading members of the cast in "Maryland" have been awarded "Oscars". In addition, five members of the production staff have been honored. The superb list of prominent players is headed by Walter Brennan, the Academy Award-winning star of "Kentucky".

Love. A youth sees in his sweetheart the girl of his dreams, In the heyday of her beauty, when the lovelight beams, Then it is that he becomes romantic, wants to hold her hand and kiss, For the wedding bells will soon be ringing, Bringing hopes of perfect bliss.

Next comes the consummation of love's full fruition, A little girl or boy, Filling all the household with a foretaste of celestial joy, For God has made the birth of this tiny spark of life worth while, And created not anything sweeter than the patter of a baby's feet, or smile.

Love will not desert us in our declining years, For we have lived together long enough To see the rainbow through the tears; We have endeavored to keep it always bright, Knowing that life, without love, would be a starless night. Edgar W. Townsend.

"MARYLAND" The romance, beauty and traditions of the proud South, climaxed by the most spectacular Steeplechase in America, The Maryland Hunt Cup Race, are highlights of Darryl F. Zanuck's Technicolor production of "Maryland", new 20th Century-Fox picture which comes to the Pitts Theatre on Thursday and Friday, October 3 and 4.

Said to be greater than the tremendously popular "Kentucky", "Maryland", which was directed by Henry King, promises to be rated as one of the best pictures of this or any entertainment season.

During fall months a leghorn will need six pounds of feed to make one dozen eggs

... and that is not all. If she is to produce all the eggs her body was built to make, she must have good feed, fresh water and clean quarters every day of every month.

The Southern States feeding program will provide your birds with freshly mixed, properly balanced, palatable mash and clean, wholesome scratches from top-grade feeding grains. If you follow the directions on the open formula tag, your hens will put out their full share of eggs this fall and winter.

CATHARPIN

The installation service for the officers of the newly organized Women's Society of Christian Service of Sudley Church was conducted Sunday morning by our pastor, Rev. John S. Schwartz.

We hope to have every woman of our community enroll in this society as charter members. Among those to join this newly organized group, we are honored to have Mrs. E. May Dogan, Mrs. Maggie A. Hundley and Mrs. J. D. Wheeler who were Charter Members of the first Society organized at Sudley Church, 54 years ago, by Mrs. Juliana Hayes. The devotion of these splendid women to Old Sudley has been inspiration to all of us, and we are proud, indeed, that we can rely upon them for help and advice in planning the work of our new society.

Please help us to see that every woman in our church is invited to become a member of this group.

The Young People's Group elected the following officers Sunday evening.

Hampton Alvey, president; Rolfe Ellison, vice president; Frances Brower, Secretary; Gordon Pattie, treasurer.

After a discussion of plans for future work, the group enjoyed a wiener roast.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Sloper had as their guests last week, Mrs. Sloper's father, Mr. G. H. McGuire of Alexandria, and Mr. and Mrs. John George of Baltimore. During the week Mr. McGuire celebrated his 83th birthday.

Mr. Homer Kidwell and his bride spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kidwell, and also attended services at Sudley Church.

Announcing the big
NEW FORD
 1941 FORD

In some years, some cars take a big jump ahead. The Ford does that for 1941.

It has jumped ahead in size. It's the biggest Ford we've ever built, inside and out. It's wider. It has a longer wheelbase. Its seating room is wider by as much as 7 inches. It has new wide doors and semi-concealed running boards.

You'll notice also a new beauty, achieved by a skilful blending of mass with longer flowing lines. Larger windshield and windows give better vision all around.

One of its biggest advantages is the new soft ride.

New, slower-action springs give a slow, gentle, gliding movement. A newly designed stabilizer helps absorb road shocks, and maintains balance on sharp curves and in cross winds.

More rapid acceleration to match its familiar speed and power makes this new Ford
 an even livelier car to drive.

These are only a few of this new car's outstanding features. It represents all the rich experience gained in building more than 28 million motor cars.

Any Ford dealer can give you many good reasons for making this your 1941 car.

Services at St. Timothy's Catholic Church this Sunday morning at 9
 a. m.

At 8 p. m. Sunday, September 29, the four churches which now form the Fairfax Methodist Circuit, will hold a final union service at the Centreville Methodist Church. For twenty-four years the Fairfax Circuit has been composed of Andrew Chapel, Centreville, Fairfax, and Pender. At the coming session of the Virginia Conference in Roanoke, Virginia, a number of new circuit boundaries will be announced. Among the appointments which will be changed will be the Fairfax appointment.

The official announcement of proposed changes will be made just before the close of the annual conference on Monday, October 21.
 A farewell supper was given to Rev. and Mrs. Marshall Milton recently prior to their departure to Brandon Parish. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Radford, under the auspices of St. John's Guild.
 Rev. Robert Gibson, deacon and instructor at the Theological Seminary at Alexandria, has taken charge of Upper Truro Parish, prior to the call of a regular rector. He will be assisted by Rev. Mr. Rennie, senior student.
 The enrollment at the beginning of school was 157. A slight increase is expected during the first months of schools.

At a meeting of the student cooperative association on last Monday
 the following officers were elected:
 Josephine Roberson, president;
 Janice Griffith, vice president; Bobby Kline, secretary; Madeline Korzendoffes, treasurer.

We welcome back to school Mrs.
 Emily Day Reed and Miss Nellie Lawler who have taught here for several years. Three new teachers are with us this year. The new teachers are Mrs. C. E. Miley, jr., Floris, Va., principal; Miss Margaret North-cross, Elliston, Va., primary teacher, and Miss Iona Marshall, Pulaski, Va., 5th and 6th grade teacher.

The Student Cooperative Association is selling ice cream at the lunch period each day. The money is to be used for playground equipment and class room materials.

 There will be a Parent-Teachers' Association meeting in the Centreville Elementary School in the near future. All parents are urged to come. The date and time will be announced later.
