VOLUNTEERS FILL FIRST DRAFT CALL

Only One Prince William Man Needed Now

The Prince William Selective Service Board has mailed out questionnaires to the two volunteers from this county, and since only one man is needed for the first draft call, if either of these pass the physical examination, no one will be drafted from this county in this first call.

The two volunteers are Floyd Linthicum (120) of Manassas, and Mills Brown (813), of Quantico.

Mr. C. C. Cloe, chairman of the Prince William Selective Service Board, states that five hundred questionnaires will shortly be mailed to registrants at the rate of fifty a day and that registrants receiving them must fill them out and return them within the five days allowed by law. Any failure to make returns within the specified time will subject the registrant to the penalties of the law.

However, receipt of a questionnaire does not mean that there is necessarily any possibility of immediate call. The Board is merely proceeding to classify registrants far ahead of any quotas, so that subsequent calls may be promptly met without the delay which would be occasioned if classification were postponed until calls for men were made. It is believed that the first five hundred numbers will supply man power for a long time.

Announcement is also again made of the personnel of the Prince William Advisory Board which aids registrants without charge in filling out their questionnaires. Many registrants will be able to fill out their questionnaires without assistance, but it will be in their interest to be certain that all replies are made accurately. The local advisory board is as follows:

Judge Walter T. McCarthy, chairman.

Manassas: W. Hill Brown, Jr., Harry P. Davis, Dr. George B. Cocke. Occoquan: Capt. Thomas F. Joyce. Nokesville: Joseph Hale. Haymarket: Dr. Wade C. Payne. Independent Hill: E. L. Herring.

It is probable that advisory board members will be obliged to schedule certain hours or days when they may be consulted, as they would otherwise be unable to meet the demands of their own personal responsibilities and at the same time be available at all times.

It will be the aim of this newspaper to keep the public informed of all actions taken by the Draft Board, every week. They post on their office door all of their orders, as issued, but every registrant in Prince William will doubtless be able to keep track of his responsibilities under the Selective Service regulations by watching the columns of his local newspaper. However, the law places upon each registrant the responsibility of compliance with all orders of the Board as mailed to him at the address which he has filed on his registration card, and he is particularly cautioned not to fail to return a questionnaire within the five days allowed by law.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

"Education for the Common Defense" is the theme for the twentieth annual observance of American Education Week November 10-16. Surely, a more timely and important theme could not have been chosen. This general topic is broken up into seven sub-headings - one for each day of the week, as follows:

Sunday, November 10

Enriching Spiritual Life

Monday, November 11

Strengthening Civic Loyalties

Tuesday, November 12

Financing Public Education

Wednesday, November 13

Developing Human Resources

Thursday, November 14

Saturday, November 16

The sponsors of American Education Week are: National Education Association of the United States, the American Legion, the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

It is estimated from past reports that eight million parents and other citizens visit schools each year during this week. Millions of others learn about the aims, needs and accomplishments of the schools through the radio and press.

The message of President Roosevelt to the schools of America is printed on page 8).

MRS. FRED ALEXANDER TO BE GUEST SPEAKER

The November meeting of the Woman's Club of Manassas will be held on Monday, November 11, at 2:30 p. m. in the Parish Hall, Manassas.

The guest speaker will be Mrs. Fred Alexander of Richmond, Virginia, former President of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, and at present chairman of the committee on Public Welfare for the same organization. She will speak on, "Adjusting Club Welfare Objectives to Virginia Needs."

Mrs. Alexander is an interesting and forceful speaker, and greatly in demand as a speaker in the Virginia Clubs so that club feels most fortunate to be able to present her at this time. The program is being sponsored by the Public Welfare Committee of the Woman's Club of Manassas. A full attendance of club members is requested.

Hostesses for the afternoon are as follows: Mrs. V. V. Gillum, Mrs. A. S. Gibson, Mrs. R. M. Graham, Mrs. Aylene Guthrie, Mrs. Dan Eutsler, Mrs. E. D. Gothwaite.

The Fine Arts section of the Woman's Club held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening, October 22, in the home of Mrs. Dennis Baker with Mrs. Wade Dalton and Mrs. Marshall Douglas as assistant hostesses.

At the close of the business section, Miss Alice Webb gave a very interesting and informative talk upon handicrafts which are now being made in Virginia. She illustrated her talk with many examples of these handicrafts including specimens of pottery, weaving, rugs, and articles made from corn husks and seeds, in addition to the better known crafts of knitting and embroidery. Mrs. T. J. Broadus gave a timely talk upon folk music of Virginia with especial reference to the White Top Music Festival held annually near Abingdon.

The meeting then adjourned and the hostesses served refreshments.

DANCE AT BRENTSVILLE

A round and square dance will be sponsored by the Brentsville Community League on the evening of Tuesday, November 12, on the old courthouse. Special music of excellent quality has been secured and everybody is cordially invited.

FORECAST NATIONAL ELECTION RESULTS

The N. Y. A. conducted an election at the Northern Virginia Regional High School on Monday with the following results.

For Mr. Roosevelt 305.

For Mr. Willkie 120.

CLUB THANKS HIGHWAY COMMISSION

A motion of thanks to the State Highway Commission for the improvements on Route 234 (Cross County Road) between Dumfries and Lake Jackson was unanimously passed at the regular meeting of the Kiwanis Club on Friday evening. This motion was offered by Mr. Alpaugh, and amended by motion of Mr. Conner to include the generous allocation for the portion of the same route between Manassas and Stone House.

The program at Chopawamsic has been changed by the housing committee since the Friday night assembly by virtue of a special program to be presented by John Kerlin which must be put at the club's regular meeting place. Incidentally tomorrow night is recognized as "family" night and those bringing guests will please see that proper notification goes through if this has not been done previously.

Secretary Graham announced to the Club that he had been delegated to go to Nokesville where the business men had expressed a desire to organize a service club for that community.

Mr. R. S. Hynson read a very humorous skit of "men and monkeys", which comprised the balance of the evening's program.

PRIZE AWARD IS CLOSE CONTEST

P.-T. A. Membership Campaign About Over

On the school days since October 21, all of the students of both the Bennett and High Schools have been madly hustling to get new members for the Parents-Teachers' Association. All of these students have their eyes on that five-dollar cash award which goes to the room having the largest percentage of P.-T. A. membership. The contest is now entering the home stretch, that is, the last week. On Thursday, November 14, the contest will be concluded and the winner will be presented with the award at the regular meeting of the P.-T. A. on that afternoon.

The battle for top spot in the standings has been a nip-and-tuck battle all the way. For the first week the race was headed by Miss Lutes' junior room. During this time their percentage climbed steadily until it reached 333. But at this point a dark horse overtook them in the backstretch and Miss Grace Metz's seventh graders appropriated the lead. The standings have been changed since then but it is more than likely that during this last week the leaders will have to put on the pressure to retain their positions. The standings follow in full.

Democrats Gain 14 House Seats and Lose 2 in Senate

President Roosevelt smashed the traditional objection to the Third Term in Tuesday's election by a popular vote of approximately 25,694,747 to 21,427,832 for Willkie. The electoral vote was 468 to 59 for Willkie, who carried Colorado, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Nebraska, South Dakota, Vermont, and possibly North Dakota.

In Virginia early returns gave Roosevelt 231,739 and Willkie 106,888. In the Eighth District Judge Smith defeated his Republican opponent by approximately 28,727 to 16,099. In the Eighth District the Communist candidate only received a few votes.

The proposal to change the Fairfax local government into an executive form was defeated by a vote of 4214 to 1163.

John L. Lewis, C. I. O. leader who promised to resign if Roosevelt were re-elected, and who sensed his losing power, has stated that he will now resign.

Howard W. Smith ran ahead of the President almost everywhere, and Senator Byrd led the Democratic ticket by virtue of the fact that he had no Republican opposition.

BOOK WEEK EXHIBIT

The plans for the Book Week Exhibit for next Thursday night, November 14, are progressing finely. A number of new books fiction, history and description of the countries involved in the present world crises, will be on display, together with an exhibit commemorating the 500th anniversary of one of the most outstanding events in history, the invention of too fast printing.

But people will also be glad to turn aside from war stories and the adventures of our modern troubled world to the peaceful life of old Prince William as illustrated in the exhibit of "Prince William before 1860," much interesting material is being gathered to illustrate these early days in the country before the "War Between the States", and the library urges all who have books or records of any kind relating to the subject to let them be used for this exhibit. A reverence for the past makes our present and our future all the richer and the more secure.

In addition to the Thursday night program for the "Friends of the Library" and the Parents-Teachers Association the exhibit will be open during the day on Friday the 15th, is all interested in the library and also on Friday night after a program to be presented by the school.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Adam and Fallen Man" (will be, is, or was) the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 10.

The Golden Text (will be, is, or was)
"Unto thee will I cry, O Lord my rock . . . Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever" (Ps. 28:1-9).

Among the citations which (comprise or comprised) the Lesson-Sermon (is, or was) the following from the Bible: "Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. O wretched man that I am!
who shall deliver me from the body of this death? I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Rom. 7:20, 21, 24, 25 (to first period)).

The Lesson-Sermon also (includes or included) the following passage from the Christian Science textbook,
"Science and Health with key to the Scriptures", by Mary Baker Eddy:
"The Son of the Virgin-mother unfolded the remedy for Adam, or error; and the Apostle Paul explains this warfare between the idea of divine power, which Jesus presented, and mythological material intelligence called energy and opposed to Spirit"
(p. 534).

WOMEN RALLY TO NATION'S DEFENSE IN RED CROSS VOLUNTEER SERVICES

Training Courses Fit Them For Duties Vital in Present Emergency

WITH the call to the colors of more than a million of the nation's young men, American women everywhere ask how they can volunteer their services to aid in the emergency.
What part can women and girls play in national defense?

The American Red Cross, through its 3,700 Chapters and their branches, provides the answer. More than a half million women already have enrolled to give their time in Red Cross volunteer services, according to Mrs. Dwight F. Davis of Washington, D. C., Chairman of Red Cross Volunteer Special Services. Through sewing and knitting a million garments for Europe's war victims, and making millions of surgical dressings for war wounded and sick, they have gained efficiency and experience which can be readily diverted to the work for home defenses should the need arise, Mrs. Davis said.

In order to prepare most efficiently for any emergency which may come, the Red Cross is extending its training courses through its Chapters. Women motorists are trained for the Red Cross Motor Corps; girls who wish to volunteer for office work, train for the Staff Assistance Corps; other thousands join the Canteen Corps; women and girls who wish to learn to protect the health of their families, take

Top left, millions of garments and surgical dressings made for war victims by uniformed women; right, Nurse's Aides trained to serve in hospital clinics; Gray Ladies trained to give morale building services in military and civilian hospitals. All are volunteers who give time to this work of mercy every day.

Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick Courses; those who wish to learn how to aid the victim of an accident, enroll in the First Aid classes.

The Gray Lady Corps is composed of volunteers who require more specialized training and this is available only in those chapters near military hospitals. The Gray Ladies are the visitors in military and civilian hospitals giving those aids and comforts to elevate the morale of the sick. Nurse's interested in extending aid to Great Britain will become affiliated with the Fairfax Chapter.

One of the finest combinations of talent ever assembled for one picture makes Darryl F. Zanuck's Technicolor production of "Maryland" an entertainment event to which all movie-goers are looking forward. The 20th Century-Fox picture comes to the Pitts' Theatre on Thursday and Friday, November 14 and 15.

To Henry King, director of some of the screen's greatest hits, went the important task of megaphonizing "Maryland". Under his watchful eye went the talents of three leading members of the cast who have won "Oscars". In addition, five members of the production staff were honored and so it is not surprising that advance reports have hailed the picture as being even greater than "Kentucky".

Walter Brennan, that fire-eatin', horse-lovin' old codger, who was "Kentucky's" Academy Award-winning star, heads the impressive cast of "Maryland". Always a fine interpreter of character parts, he scores even more solidly in his newest role.

Fay Bainter, who won an "Oscar" for her brilliant work in "Jezebel", has a role which should bring her new honors. Brenda Joyce and John Payne, two of the screen's newest shining lights, share the romantic honors.

Charlie Ruggles and Marjorie Weaver are two other bright personalities in the cast. Hattie McDaniel, who won an Academy Award as the lovable "Mammy" of "Gone With The Wind", has a similar role in "Maryland".

Under Director King, a location unit travelled to Worthington Valley in Old Maryland so scenes could be shot against authentic backgrounds.

The romance, color and traditions of the proud South have been blended into a powerful story for the picture which soars to a sweeping climax as stout-hearted racing thoroughbreds compete in America's most spectacular Steeplechase, the Maryland Hunt Cup Race.

GREENWICH

Hallowe'en was celebrated last Friday night at the Greenwich School.
The party was sponsored by the Greenwich Intermediate 4-H Club.
The auditorium was beautifully decorated and there were many unknown, but beautiful faces seen. Also appropriate refreshments were sold.

An oyster and turkey supper will be sponsored by the Greenwich Presbyterian Church, Tuesday, November 12, at the O. F. A. Hall. Turkey and Oysters will be the main dish.

The Intermediate 4-H Club met
November 4, at the home of William Wood. Refreshments were and we decided to meet at the home of Dorothy Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. House and daughters visited Mr. and Mrs. J.
N. House, Sunday.

THE TRADITION SMASHER

Franklin D. Roosevelt has smashed the Third Term tradition by an overwhelming expression of the American people and he goes into office with the expressed satisfaction of the Nation on his foreign policy.

There is no other issue in the public mind beyond the international situation which threatens our very existence. We are satisfied that he is really helping England and we are willing to overlook and postpone domestic considerations until a lessened danger abroad will justify attention to details of smaller magnitude.

In the meantime the value of good sportsmanship in politics is becoming increasingly apparent, for we see Conservative Democracy, by sticking to the Party, strengthened in ability to aid effectively in keeping our ship of state on an even keel.

More insistently than ever before, and with the full right to speak, Conservative Democracy will continue to demand the eradication of Communism and all forms of radicalism from our government bureaus and from the industrial and civic life of the nation.

FAIRFAX REJECTS EXECUTIVE GOVERNMENT

It is gratifying to a neighboring county to note the positive manner in which Fairfax County has just voted against a proposal to change their present system of local government into an executive form, involving a new and very different county control.

We are facing, perhaps, a national crisis which, should it come, will call for a unified democratic expression of government even in the smallest country cross-roads. This is no time to admit the on-rush of unknown people and untried methods.

We congratulate Fairfax County in having rejected the proposal to change their local government into a dictatorial form by a vote so definite that there is little likelihood of any further efforts along this line as long as the critical international situation continues. Before long we may all have to make great sacrifices to preserve Democracy from Hitlerism, and we cannot afford to lightly throw away the basic gains in liberty which have been secured for us through generations of patriotic endeavor.

MRS. BLANCHE S. GILL

To the many that knew Professor Noel Gill and his wife, Blanche, the events of the past few months have been quite sad. Professor passed away some time ago and late Saturday evening, his widow died, a victim of thrombosis. Her body was found at noon next day by other occupants of the building in which her apartment was located.

Both of these good people had greatly endeared themselves to the folks here by their fine qualities and high integrity.

The body was taken to Campbell, Ontario, on Monday where interment was held to day.

EVENSONG AT

TRINITY CHURCH

The first of the Evensong Services will be held at next Sunday, November 10, at 7:30.

Mr. Cleveland Fisher will be organist for these services.

The public is cordially invited to attend and sing favorite hymns.

CHURCH SUPPER SUCCESSFUL

Nearly two hundred persons were served at the first oyster supper ever to be held in the new Parish Hall at Chantilly. No figures are available but it is thought that ample funds will be realized with which to buy the new doors for the building.

The lazing is all in place, and a temporary lightning arrangement is serving excellently. The exterior has an imposing appearance, and is a credit to the Parish and to the workers who brought about such a fine project.

There has never been any community center at Chantilly, and this will serve the purpose.

WASHINGTON'S ORDER ON PROFANITY

Q. Please quote George Washington's order to his troops on the use of profanity.—S. W. H.

A. (Orderly Book, August 3, 1776): "The General is sorry to be informed that the foolish and wicked practice of profane cursing and swearing, a vice heretofore little known in the American Army, is growing into fashion; he hopes the officers will by example as well as influence endeavour to check it and that both they and the men will reflect that we can have little hope of the blessing of Heaven on our arms if we insult it by our impiety and profanity. Added to this it is a vice so mean and low, without any temptation, that every man of sense and character detests and despises it.—George Washington".

TRINITY GROUP TO

GIVE CARD PARTY

The Trinity group of the Episcopal Church will hold a benefit card party at the home of Mrs. Jack Merchant on Friday evening, November 8. Refreshments will be served and prizes given. There will be a small charge for admission.

To Our Neighbors

The Southern States Nokesville Cooperative was recently organized by 131 farmers of Nokesville. They purchased the Prince William Farmer's Service in Nokesville, a longtime Southern States Agency, and opened their own cooperative to take advantage of the cooperative buying power of Southern States Cooperative. We, the undersigned, were elected at the patrons' Annual Meeting the first Board of Directors.

Service and Savings Depend on Volume

It is our job, in the interest of our neighbors who buy through this cooperative, to counsel the management and advise on the best ways and means to serve farmers in this area. With good management and fast, efficient service, savings will be made through the volume of purchase which farmers put through this store. In order that you and the rest of us may reap full benefits of cooperative buying, we urge you to purchase your feed, seed, fertilizer, and other farm supply needs through your cooperative Southern States Nokesville Cooperative. The quality is unbeatable, the price is right, the increasing volume will make greater savings possible.

IN MEMORIAM

In said but loving remembrance of my uncle, James Edward Ellison, who died November 4, 1939.

Dear Uncle Eddie, Jesus called you home

Oh, hard indeed it was for us to part I can never express in one small poem The lonely ache existing in my heart.

Tis hard to realize that you are gone Dear Uncle, you still seem so near each day

I miss your humor, dear, and ready fun, You were so kind, so helpful and so gay.

Your clay returned to Mother Earth, hereafter

In future bright our kindred souls shall meet

Then heaven shall echo with our joyous laughter Reunited, dear heart, at our Father's feet.

By Your Loving Niece,
Belva E. Light.

I Like This Book

One of a series of book reviews by students of Ouburn High School, Manassas—Session 1940-41 competition for W. C. Wagner Memorial Prize.

"HERE I STAY"

ELIZABETH COATSWORTH

This is an unusually good book about a young girl in an early Maine settlement. The book states the courage and faith of this girl, Margaret Winslow.

Margaret stayed at the old settlement while the rest of the settlers moved to Ohio because the land was more fertile there. Her reason for staying was her faith in her father who had died a few years before. This took much courage because it meant she would have to do all the work, that there would be no man or woman around to keep her company, that she would have to keep up all the farm by herself.

During those days communication was very slow. It was sometimes four months before she saw a person and heard another voice besides her own.

Margaret awoke one morning to find an Indian Tribe camping across the Pond from her home. In those days Indians were said to be a very savage tribe. She noticed that these were a tribe that her father had made friends with. The Chief wanted to know how her father was and she told him of his death. The Indians taught her how to do many things. In the evenings she would play the harp and sing for them. The girl's great courage was shown by staying because there were many wild animals up in the hills. She lived in constant fear of their coming down at night. One night she was awakened by sounds in the barns. She went into the barn and killed the animal. Although Margaret had been quick, she had not been quick enough to save one of her dogs which had been killed trying to protect her and the other animals.

I think this is one of the most interesting books I have read because it tells something of the life of our forefathers.

HUNTERS MUST BE SMART
THESE DAYS

Going hunting is a far more complicated undertaking today than when old Dan Boone and his cronies could stroll out of their cabins and bring back grouse for breakfast, or bear steak for lunch. The days are long departed when a hunter could go out into the wilds of Virginia without considering the possibility of a chance meeting with a brother sportsman, a C. C. C. enrollee, a farmer's cow, or a game warden.

Modern sportsmen must be concerned not only with bagging their game, but also with many precautions which they are urged to observe in order to perpetuate their favorite sport and to make it as safe as possible. The following are some of the suggestions to hunters made by Carl H. Nolting, Chairman of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries:

First, be careful with your gun. Always hold it so that you can control the muzzle even if you stumble. Don't shoot until you are sure of your target, and be especially careful not to shoot other hunters, or C. C. C. camps and work projects. Each C. C. C. camp has been requested to post warning signs within one-half mile of its boundaries and work projects, and the enrollees are required to practice all safety precautions during the hunting season.

Get those cripples. No good sportsman leaves a cripple in the field until he has done everything in his power to find it, and he is always careful not to shoot at game which is out of the effective range of his gun. The warning against "sky shooting" is especially appropriate now that ducking season is open, as the crippling loss among these birds often exceeds 50 percent of the legal kill.

To avoid unpleasant experiences with law enforcement officers, be sure you are thoroughly familiar with the hunting regulations. Special attention is called to the following:

It is illegal to shoot from an automobile or other vehicle.

Migratory waterfowl may be hunted only between sunrise and 4 p.m. Other species may be hunted from one-half hour before sunrise until one-half hour after sunset.

Dove season will reopen November 20 and close December 31.

The woodcock season will be open only from November 20 until December 4.

It is illegal to hunt on another person's land without his permission. Respect the landowner's rights. Ask his permission before you hunt.

FIFTY YEARS OF FOOTBALL

George Washington University now is celebrating its 50th year of football. On November 8, 1890, George Washington, then Columbian College, dabbled for the first time in the game which was to engulf the Eastern seaboard. The story of football at George Washington University is told in an illustrated feature article appearing next Sunday in The Washington Sunday Star.

And Vicinity...

Mr. and Mrs. Worth Simmons and children from Alexandria, Va., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey M. Janney in Occoquan.

We are glad to welcome to our community the following who recently moved to houses in Occoquan: Mr. and Mrs. James F. Sheppard and family, who have rented a house from Mrs. Harry Slack.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pierce, who have rented an apartment from Mrs. Theresa Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Weakley who have rented an apartment from R. Warthen Hall.

We hope those good folks will be happy in our town.

The Pohick Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary held their regular monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. Claude O. Bodkin in Lorton on Wednesday, November 6. There was a very large attendance at which everyone had a very enjoyable afternoon. Mrs. Bodkin is a grand hostess.

Some Halloween pranksters destroyed some Virginia State Signs near the bridge at the N. W. End of town; which was not very funny for anyone to do. We wonder if the PARENTS of those who tore down those signs would approve of their DEAR? boys having part in such acting? It is one thing to play funny pranks on Halloween night, and another to destroy State Government property. (This is a very serious offense, if prosecution were effected). We sincerely hope none of the members of the Boy Scout Troop was implicated in such acts.

At a regular meeting of the O-W-L-Volunteer Fire Company held in the Fire House in Occoquan on Friday, November 1, officers for the year 1941 were nominated. Balloting on those officers will be held at the regular meeting the first Friday in December. Be sure to come out and cast your ballot for your choice for officers for 1941. Names of those nominated are omitted at this time, but will be announced after the balloting in December. (This company is now fully incorporated under the laws of the State of Virginia), and is entitled to all rights and privileges under the law. Our good friends who desire to contribute to help pay for the balance due on the Engine and Equipment, please send your donations to Mr. ROBERT S. HALL, the president, Occoquan, Va. THANK YOU.

We are pleased to report that Mr. Harvey Petellat of Occoquan who recently enlisted in the U. S. Army has been promoted to First Class Private. More power to you Harvey. We are sure you will soon earn more promotions and will get them.

ROOSEVELT'S MESSAGE TO TEACHERS AND PATRONS

The White House
Washington
October 1, 1940
To the Patrons, Students, and Teachers of American Schools:

World events are making it increasingly apparent that the theme of American Education Week this year was selected wisely. Education for the Common Defense as a slogan puts education in its proper relationship with other departments of government. One of the purposes behind the adoption of the Constitution of the United States was "to provide for the common defense". In the 1780's there was strife among the thirteen States. Each State cared too little for the common interests of all.

We have now had one hundred and fifty years to build a strong foundation for the common defense. Due, however, to conditions outside our own country we find that the way of life we cherish stands in jeopardy this year more than in any year since 1789. There is an unusual need for the schools to play their part in providing for the common defense. The war being waged on two continents at present is not a war to be won by arms alone. How much a country values its institutions and the freedom of its people is likely to prove even more important than arms as a determining factor in the ultimate decision.

How much do we in this country value democracy? How unitedly and firmly will we stand in support of the Bill of Rights?

Our great public school systems in the States, including colleges and universities, are rendering invaluable service in training men for work in defense activities. But it is more important now than ever before that our schools should give serious attention to the development of an appreciation of our traditional freedom. What the schools do may prove in the long run to be more decisive than any other factor in preserving the form of Government we cherish.

Franklin Roosevelt.

VALUABLE ADDITIONS TO WAR LIBRARY AT FREDERICKSBURG

It was announced today at headquarters of the Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania National Military Park that a large addition to the Park Library had been received in the form of a gift from the New York Public Library. It includes 149 volumes of material relating to the War Between the States. Among them are numerous items that have been especially sought by the Park library, such as "Harper's Pictorial History of the Rebellion", "The Report of the Congressional Committee on the Conduct of the War", John B. Gordon's "Recollections of the Civil War", and the five-volume series entitled "New York in the War of the Rebellion." These works will be very useful to the Park Historical Staff in providing information requested by Park visitors, and in the general research program.

The large donation from New York is one of the numerous examples of the co-operation that the Park Service has received from State, Municipal, and University libraries throughout the country, in the effort to build up here an important collection of source materials bearing on the War Between the States.

This gift brings the Library up to a total of more than 2500 volumes. The items most needed for the collection now are Volumes 7, 9, 10, 12, 43, and 44 of the Southern His-

We wish to thank our various correspondents for sending their notes early this week.

Combining drama with hilarious comedy, "Girl From Avenue A," the entrainment-packed 20th Century-Fox film starring Jane Withers, opens next Wednesday, November 13 at the Pitts' Theatre. It is Jane's most pretentious picture, giving her lots of room to display her varied talents and providing her strongest supporting cast to date. Kent Taylor, Katharine Aldridge, Elyse Knox, Laura Hope Crews and many others are featured.

"Girl From Avenue A" depicts the adventures of Jane as a hungry and homeless spitfire from New York's Bowery. She is taken to the Park Avenue home of a society author, Kent Taylor, in order that he may study her characteristics and speech for a play he is writing.

Suspicious at first of the suave and handsome man who has befriended her, Jane stays on in the swanky surroundings. She attempts to become a lady to please her new boy-friend played by promising Rand Brooks.

But her dreams of attaining the stature of a lady are rudely shattered when she reads the play and discovers that Kent is only using her as an object of ridicule. Jane is heartbroken, but she doesn't give up.

In the suspenseful climax Jane proves she is more than a match for the Park Avenue "debs" despite their fine clothes and superior airs.

Filled with tender, human touches and interspersed with many moments of hilarity, "Girl From Avenue A" is far and away Jane's biggest and best picture. Jane proves herself an accomplished actress by her adult handling of her exacting role. You will find all that you love best in Jane is shown in the excellent picture.

MICKEY ROONEY CRASHES CAFE SOCIETY

Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney and the rest of the Hardy Family, plus golden-voiced Judy Garland, come Monday and Tuesday, November 11 and 12 to the Pitts' Theatre in the ninth and latest of the popular series, "Andy Hardy Meets Debutante".

The story takes them to New York where Andy Hardy, son of the family, is faced with a problem very serious to him but full of laughs for everyone else. Back in Carvel he has become smitten with the pictures of a glamorous New York debutante and when his onesided romance is discovered by his hometown sweetheart and his chums, he answers their heckling by boasting that he really knows the debutante.

Judge Hardy is called to New York to defend a law case involving the Carvel Orphanage and he takes the family with him, thus forcing Andy to actually meet the debutante and bring back proof of their friendship. He gets out of his predicament but only after he has turned Manhattan upside down and supplied hilarity galore.

In addition to the typical Hardy Family comedy, the film has high points of drama when Judy Hardy wins his important case from the best legal brains of New York and when he takes Andy to the Hall of Fame at New York University and convinces him by example that the snubs and sneers of high society boy. Together with Stone and Mickey, the other members of the "family" are their entertaining selves; Fay Holden as the lovable "Ma" Hardy, Sara Haden as schoolteaching Aunt

Judy Garland appears for the second time in the Hardy series as Betsy Booth, who came to Carvel from New York in a previous film and became one of Andy's staunch admirers. She greets the Hardys on their arrival in New York, helps Andy to meet the debutante, and sings two tuneful numbers to help the proceedings along.
