W. M. KLINE HEADS DAIRY GROUP

Advantages Of Testing Cited By Speakers

The annual meeting and banquet of the Prince William County Dairy Herd Improvement Association was held in the Sunday School room of the Manassas Presbyterian Church on Thursday evening November 7, with W. M. Johnson, retiring president, presiding.

Speakers included Mr. O. D. Waters, Mr. Wilmer Kline, Mr. R. W. Dickson, Mr. W. M. Anthony, retiring tester, and Mr. Walter Spitzer, incoming tester. Mr. Waters' talk, delivered in a humorous but thoughtful vein, was well received by the members and their guests. The annual production report, presented by Mr. Dickson, State Testing Supervisor, showed an average increase for the Prince William herds of 30 pounds of butterfat per cow during the past year.

A delightful meal was served by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church and the dairymen joined lustily together in a number of songs, led by Mrs. Pattie Saunders and accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Connie Kincheloe.

It was reported that four new dairymen had joined the Association and placed their herds on test for the coming year. Mr. W. M. Kline in presenting the benefits of testing and keeping accurate butterfat and milk production made by his father, Mr. J. M. Kline during the past year by culling out cows indicated by the tester's findings as being low producers.

Officers of the Association were elected for the coming year:

Wilmer M. Kline, president; Elmer P. Hurst, secretary-treasurer; W. M. Johnson, P. A. Lewis, and C. C. Lynn, executive committee.

Mr. Hurst has very capably and loyally served the Association as secretary-treasurer for the past eleven years.

FAMILY NIGHT OBSERVED BY KIWANIS CLUB

An auspicious list of honor guests attended the regular meeting of the Kiwanis Club on Friday evening. The most prominent of these was our old friend and neighbor, Hon. Melvin C. Hazen, chairman of the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia. Mel looked mighty well for one claiming just to be out of the hospital. With him were E. Barrett Prettyman, corporation counsel for Washington, Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Colvin, also of Washington City.

The "old reliable" orator (none other than Hon. O. D. Waters) gave the visitors and honor guests a real old-fashioned welcome and made them feel right at home.

Sheriff J. P. Kerlin, a member of the Kiwanis Club, introduced Mr. Hazen in a most glowing tribute of a lifetime friendship. This gentleman in turn introduced Mr. Prettyman, the speaker of the evening.

Mrs. E. M. Colvin sang several delightful solo numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Lewis Carper.

Mr. Prettyman gave a talk, the title of which he gave as "When is a man civilized". Going back to the Stone Age, taking life individually and in community form, from the infant to the aged citizen, Mr. Prettyman built up a splendid word picture of how "Faith" is the real factor of civilization, and the key stone of the arch that links humankind.

It was "family night" and a number of guests were present besides the honor guests. Carol Winchester of the Arlington Club and his wife were there as visitors.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS ADDRESS

Mrs. Fred Alexander Is Charming And Forceful Speaker

Despite bad weather, a large group of club members and guests assembled at Parish Hall on Monday afternoon for the regular monthly meeting of the Manassas Woman's Club. The President, Mrs. C. C. Lynn, presided.

Mrs. Ballentine read the scripture lesson and offered a short prayer, the members joining in repeating the club collect. The pledge of allegiance to the flag was followed by group singing of America.

Mrs. R. B. Larkin was chosen as corresponding secretary to fill the unexpired term of the late Mrs. Noel Gill.

Mrs. F. R. Hynson reported that a splendid orchestra has already been engaged for the annual Christmas Ball, to be held in the High School gymnasium on December 27.

At the close of the business session Mrs. Marshall Douglas gave an interesting report of the recent Fourth District meeting held in Fredericksburg, which was attended by several Manassas Club women.

Mrs. Robert Lewis of the public welfare committee introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Fred Alexander of Richmond, a former Virginia Federation pres. Mrs. Alexander is a charming and forceful speaker and her subject, "Adjusting Club Welfare Objectives to Virginia's Needs", proved most interesting.

She complimented the local group on their choice of motto: "An effort made for others lifts us above ourselves", and said it was especially timely with world conditions as they are today.

She urged that we be "doers of the word and not hearers only", working together to better conditions for that large marginal group of Virginia families living on meager incomes and deprived of so many of the better things in life.

Mrs. Alexander, in addition to her club work, is state commander of the women's field army of the Virginia cancer foundation, and is most enthusiastic in her desire to educate the public regarding cancer control. She quoted statistics showing the percentage of deaths caused by this dread disease in this state, our own county having a death rate of thirty-one during the years 1938 and 1939.

The hostesses served delicious ice cream and cake during the pleasant social hour following.

QUANTICO SCHOOL 100% IN DENTAL CORRECTIONS

At the beginning of the term, the Dental Clinic was held at the Quantico School. At that time, most of the pupils very willingly had their teeth cared for. By this willingness of the children, the co-operation of the parents, and encouragement of the P. T. A. the pupils are proud to say that they are now 100 per cent in dental corrections.

N. Y. A. COURSES FOR LOCAL BOYS

Professor Haydon Announces Opportunities For Local Training

The county school board met last Wednesday with all members but one present.

Official notification was had of the age restriction for children entering school, Dr. Hall's letter noting the minimum age as six years on September 1, next year and any year subsequent.

The Board requested its membership to go to the meetings of the Virginia Education Association next week. Several will go besides the chairman, Mr. Arrington. Professor Haydon and Miss Ayres will also go.

The Board authorized libraries for Brentsville and Nokesville.

Professor Haydon reported on a meeting at Richmond which he attended last week at which the additional uses of NYA funds were discussed. Special courses will be offered to youths from 17-25 if they will devote three hours daily for an eight weeks' period. Some of these will be in metal, auto engineering, woodwork and electricity. These classes will not be formed unless enough students present themselves. There are no charges.

At the same time, girls are offered courses in elementary nursing and child care. Here to the requirement for a minimum number of registrants must be observed.

COLORED MAN KILLED RESISTING ARREST

Late Tuesday evening, Carroll Braxton, a colored resident of this community was shot and instantly killed by officers of the law, in an alleged resistance of arrest.

According to current report, Carroll had shot Roscoe Davis, another colored man, in front of the Prince William Pharmacy, as the outcome of a gambling argument. This occurred about six o'clock.

Immediately thereafter, Deputy Sheriff Partlow, Town Sergeant Herring and Messrs. J. C. Kincheloe and C. L. Seeley drove out to where Braxton resides. Mr. Herring and Mr. Partlow went to the house, where Partlow informed the man that he was under arrest. The latter is said to have been in a furious rage, and grasping his shot gun, is quoted as saying that he would not be taken and that they (the officers) had better not draw their guns.

There were two shots. Braxton dropped to the floor and expired in a few minutes, the bullet apparently going directly into his heart.

NO SPECIAL SESSION

Governor Price stated this week that he does not anticipate an extra session of the General Assembly of Virginia this winter. He stated that unless some grave emergency arises which cannot now be foreseen, it will not be necessary to place the extra expense of a special session upon the State.

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.
November 6, 1940

The Manassas Journal

Gentlemen:
May I, through the columns of your newspaper, express to the voters of Prince William County my deep sense of appreciation for the vote of confidence given me in the election of yesterday?

The increased majorities given me by the voters in my six campaigns for Congress overwhelm me with the sense of the great responsibility with which they have entrusted me. In return, I can only pledge them a continuance of my utmost efforts in behalf of the welfare of our country in this its grave hour of need.

The election of yesterday has passed into history. Let us unite in the true spirit of America to make more history in a successful effort for preparedness and peace in a world torn with conflict.

Sincerely yours,
Howard W. Smith.

U. D. C. MEETING AT HAYMARKET

Miss Morton Reports Discovery Of Unmarked Confederate Graves

The Eighth Va. Reg't. Chapter U. D. C. held its last meeting of the year at the U. D. C. Hall, Thursday, November 7.

A special feature of the meeting was a delicious luncheon served by the Daughters for members and visitors, after which a silver offering was taken to raise funds for much needed repairs to the hall. So successful was this effort both socially and financially, it was decided to make it an annual affair.

Mrs. Morton reported a find of Confederate graves, without markers, in the County. The Chapter decided to inquire into the matter and have markers erected if possible.

A letter from a friend, Mrs. Glen Bayly Dewitt of Washington was read. She painted a vivid picture, tender and sad, of an old Confederate lady, bedridden and blind yet possessing all other faculties, who felt she must shake the hand of at least one of the old boys attending the Confederate Reunion held in Washington in September. This was arranged, and Mrs. Dewitt was present at the meeting of this daughter of the South and a boy who wore the Gray. So impressed was she at the joy of life in these two old people nearing the century mark, she sent the story to the Chapter. An unanimous vote of thanks was sent to Mrs. Dewitt, for her thoughtfulness in adding this appropriate touch to the program.

The delightful evening was not without its regrets; that the Chapter's beloved historian, Miss Alice Maud Ewell, was not present because of illness; and that an esteemed member, Mrs. Caldwell, has sold her home here and is going back to her old home in Tennessee in January.

After business matters were discussed, appropriate songs were sung and the meeting closed with the hope that all members would be present the first Thursday in April, 1941.

DRAFT QUOTA SET AT SIXTY FOUR

Selective Service Headquarters Announces Requirements

The Selective Service Headquarters in Richmond has announced that only 9,747 Virginians will be called into military service by June 30, 1941 out of the 342,000 who registered. When apportioned out by counties and cities this leaves for nearby areas the following quotas:

Prince William 64.
Fairfax 230.
No. 1. Arlington 211.
No. 2. Arlington 207.
Fauquier 107.
Greene 25.
Goochland 34.
Greene 25.
Loudoun 105.
Louisa 59.
Madison 39.
Orange 64.
Stafford 31.

The Prince William Selective Service Board has now posted the names of all registrants, with both the serial and order numbers so that any registrant may now ascertain how far away or how close he is to early call. To Fairfax County goes the honor of being called for the largest number of men, 230, its registration being the highest of any Draft Area in the State. The larger areas are subdivided, as in Arlington, with two boards, and in cities like Richmond, which has eight boards. The registration at Fairfax was 5528. In the other nearby areas the registration figures at present are given as follows:

Prince William 1533, Fairfax, 5528, Arlington No. 1 4999, No. 2 4909, Fauquier 2519, Greene 591, Goochland 896, Loudoun 2474, Louisa 1413, Madison 921, Orange 1492, Stafford 1145.

As previously stated in this newspaper, it is believed that the volunteers will fill the first call for November of one man from this county and that one man will be drafted immediately. Questionnaires are now going out from the various local boards and when received it does not necessarily mean an immediate call, but it is a requirement of law that when received they must be filled out and returned within five days, or the registrant will be subject to the severe penalties of the law.

The Prince William Selective Service Board so far has only sent out 50 questionnaires and it is believed that no great number will be sent out in addition to those in the immediate future because the Board desires that classifications shall be up to date and represent the current status of the men called with respect to their responsibilities and abilities.

MANASSAS PLAYS ALDIE FRIDAY

The high school footballers will close the season this Friday, November 15, against Aldie. The team has had a luckless season due to lack of material, and lack of the right spirit in some cases.

This is the second year for organized football in the high school, and the team should have made a better showing. Aldie has not proven very successful this season, and comes up with a poor record. The teams are evenly matched, and the game should be a close one. The boys from Aldie have boasted that Manassas should be a push over for them, but the boys from Manassas feel otherwise about the matter. Our boys claim that they have been saving all their steam for Aldie, and when they get here, they are going to let it loose. Reds Poling, a find in the back field, promises to turn on the steam as he did in Mt. Vernon. Pretty Boy Breeden says he doesn't care if he does get mugged up. Hal Lion quoted that he will make a tackle. Beefy Wheeler stated he will give all!

The game is called for 2:30, so let us go folks. Come out and give the boys a little support.

TRINITY GUILD BAZAAR

Trinity Guild will hold its annual bazaar and turkey dinner and supper on Tuesday, December 3.

Stewed oysters will be served at supper as well as at the noon hour. Other attractions will consist of a gift booth, apron and candy tables.

The menu will also include cranberry sauce, creamed potatoes, new peas, home-made hot bread, coffee, pineapple sherbet and cake.

WILLIAM H. CHAMBLIN

The funeral of the late Mr. William Hopkins Chamblin was conducted in Grace Methodist Church, Manassas, Va., on Sunday afternoon, November 9, by his pastor, Rev. W. O. Luttrell.

The large crowd attending the service attested the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Mr. Chamblin was born near Middleburg, Va., June 15, 1882, a son of Mr. William Henry and Mrs. Mary Frances Hopkins Chamblin.

About twenty-eight years ago he moved to Manassas to make his home with his widowed sister, Mrs. Hebe Jackson.

Practically all of his business life was spent traveling for Mayer & Son of Baltimore, Md., and H. & P. Glove Co., of Johnstown, N. Y.

Starting on a business trip to Warrenton, October 22, just a few miles out from Manassas he sustained injuries in an automobile accident that resulted in his death in the Alexandria Hospital ten days later.

He leaves a sister, Mrs. Hebe Jackson, a niece, Miss Carolyn Jackson, a nephew, Mr. Worth Jackson, all of Manassas and two half nieces and a half nephew, children of his half brother, the late Mr. Eugene Chamblin of Missouri.

He was buried in the family lot at Middleburg, Va. The service at the grave being in charge of the Manassas Lodge 182, A. F. & A. M. of which he was a member.

Mr. Chamblin was a man of quiet and gentle manners, loved and honored by his many friends and the companies for whom he traveled.

The following poem read by his pastor at his burial service was indeed appropriate, as it so near revealed his entire career:

What was his creed?
I do not know his creed, I only know
That here below, he walked the common road
And lifted many a load, lightened the task,
Brightened the day for others toiling on a weary way:
This, his only need: I do not know his creed.

His creed? I care not what his creed;
Enough that never yielded he to greed,
But served a brother in his daily need;
Plucked many a thorn and planted many a flower;
Glorified the service of each hour;
Had faith in God, himself and fellow-men;
Perchance he never thought in terms of creed;
I only know he lived a life, in deed.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Mortals and Immortals" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 17.

The Golden Text will be "He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal" (John 12:25).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Whom have I desire beside thee. My flesh and my heart faileth; but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever" (Ps. 73:25, 26).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures", by Mary Baker Eddy: "If the body is diseased, this is but one of the beliefs of mortal mind. Mortal man will be less mortal, when he learns that matter never sustained existence and can never destroy God, who is man's Life" (p. 425).

MRS. HAYDON TO ENTERTAIN BETHLEHEM CLUB

The Bethlehem Club will meet with Mrs. R. C. Haydon, Wednesday, November 20, at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. B. F. Knox will be assistant hostess.

THE VOICE OF AMERICA ON ELECTION DAY

The voice of America has spoken in every hamlet in each State, From the coral reefs of Florida to San Francisco's golden gate, May each nephew and niece of "Uncle Sam" abandon the "Hymn of Hate".

Each Senator and Representative support their President, in every move to make our beloved country great.

Surely no partisanship need enter into making appropriations for national defense.

Any opposition may well be termed an unpatriotic offense, Great values always call for expenditures of high cost.

Far better this, than America wait until all that she holds dear is lost.

May she take her place first among the nations of the earth, her aspirations and ideals ever high.

For such ideals are far above the dissension, confusion and the dim, As the sun, moon and stars shine above this world, so full of sin;

America! with all of her heart and might!

May she stand courageously and eternally by the principles she believes to be right.

Edgar W. Townsend.

A special Week of Prayer offering was made for the college. At the conclusion of the business session delightful refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Roy Blakemore, Miss Willette Myers and Mrs. C. B. Compton.

ROBERT B. SHACKELFORD

Lieut. Col. Robert Baylor Shackelford, 59, retired surgeon, U. S. A., died November 2, at his home, Cedarcroft, near Cismont, Va.

He became ill a month ago while on a visit to his daughter at West Point, N. Y., and was treated later at Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, D. C., returning to his home the last week of October.

Dr. Shackelford was a native of Albemarle County. He retired from the Army five years ago.

He married Miss Mary Field Bolling, daughter of the late Barrett Bolling of Charlottesville.

She survives, with one daughter, Mrs. Fooks, wife of Capt. Nelson Fooks, a member of the faculty at West Point Military Academy.

There are three grandchildren. He also leaves two sisters.

Dr. Shackelford was located at Gainesville, Va., about 30 years ago, and will be remembered by many in this county.

BENNETT SCHOOL STAGES SUCCESSFUL HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Bennett School gave a Halloween party at the gymnasium on October 31, 1941. The primary people had their games and their costume parade together. The prizes for the best costume went to Gary Woods dressed as a Hindu and Anne Warren Coleman dressed as a clown.

The prize winners in the Elementary group were Carolyn Cooksey, dressed as a band leader, and Stewart Vetter as an old humpback man. All the children seemed to have a good time and we hope to have another party next year.

I Like This Book

One of a series of book reviews by students of Osbourn High School, Manassas. Session 1940-41. In competition for the W. C. Wagner Memorial Prize.

In this book, Marjorie Allee paints a very good picture of a true modern American girl, who leaves college unexpectedly to go to Paris to be house-daughter of a certain John Trueblood, director of the Quaker International center in Paris. Since Sarah Ann Reid, our "Little American Girl", is very much interested in people, in the French language, and in the country of France, this is, indeed, a very good chance for her to gain all of her desires by going to this country, even so unexpectedly.

After a very lovely boat trip, Sarah (or Sandy, as she is better known among her friends) finds herself in England. From here she and Mr. Trueblood take a boat train to France, where they are greeted by a hearty welcome from the remainder of the Trueblood household, consisting of Mrs. Trueblood, Jackie, their only child, and Katie, a German girl, who lives with and works for the Truebloods.

Sarah meets many friends of the Truebloods and learns to adapt herself to an entirely different way of living. The Truebloods being very economical people, she learns to go without some things which she had thought necessary before coming to live here. Before she had come to France, Sarah had set up three goals toward which she was to work daily. These were to learn to understand people, to learn more French, and to grow up. By the end of her stay in France, she feels that she has reached these goals to a great extent by learning to know many kinds of people of different nationalities, by taking a course in a French school, and by becoming more capable and grown up.

Our author, herself, has a good knowledge of France and shows this by describing the many important places to which Sarah goes on sight-seeing tours. She makes all of her characters so true to life that I feel that I know them as well as I do any of my own friends. I think that all who are interested in modern fiction and adventure should read "The Little American Girl".

"BREAKFAST" IS HAILED AS YEAR'S HAPPIEST HIT

Loretta Young, who shot to a new fame with her comedy role in Columbia's "The Doctor Take a Wife", and Melvyn Douglas, who already possesses a distinguished record as one of Hollywood's most gifted farceurs, are the new comedy starring combination of Columbia's "He Stayed for Breakfast", which opens Monday and Tuesday, November 18 and 19 at the Pitts Theatre. Hailed as one of the season's most delightful love-on-the-run laugh-fests, "He Stayed for Breakfast" was directed by Alexander Hall with a supporting cast which includes Alan Marshall, Eugene Pallette and Una O'Connor.

Set in a Paris background, the new comedy hilariously describes the romance of a politically-conscious cafe waiter and the estranged wife of a pompous banker. Douglas, in the former role, is a fugitive from the law for having taken a pot-shot at the financier; Miss Young connives at his escape and, in the end, takes a shot at the financier herself! But between the hectic beginning and the hilarious ending of "He Stayed for Breakfast" there is said to be an immeasurable quantity of great, good humor, of delightful, witty dialogue and of happily novel situations.

Pallette, as the banker, provides his share of the complications. Anxious to restore himself to his former wife's good graces, equally anxious to capture the fugitive whom he suspects she is hiding, Pallette's presence on the scene lends telling effectiveness to a comedy of outrageously humorous consequence. In addition, Alan Marshall lends further humor to the film, in his role as the elegant young publisher of a newspaper. Eager to replace Pallette in Miss Young's affections, he has centered all the journalistic fire he can upon the unhappy husband. Shooting him is a good idea, and Marshall is in hearty accord with it—until he discovers that Miss Young is hiding the would-be assassin!

Douglas, caught between these cross-fires of romance and of jealousy, is said to provide a brilliant and delightful characterization as the fugitive who hid from the law in a lady's boudoir—and stayed not only for breakfast but for lunch, tea, dinner, breakfast and a few other meals!

WALLACE BEERY COMING IN "WYOMING", PIONEER SAGA

Bringing thrills, action and comedy, "Wyoming", starring Wallace Beery in outdoor adventure, comes Thursday and Friday, November 21 and 22, to the Pitts Theatre, with a cast that includes Leo Carrillo, Ann Rutherford, Lee Bowman, Paul Kelly and other principals.

Filmed on location at Jackson Hole, Wyoming, amid the majestic Teton mountains, "Wyoming" tells the story of Rob Harkness, former train robber, who to protect a girl and small child, becomes the leader in a fight for law and order in a primitive Wyoming region. Cavalry battles with Indians, rounding up of cattle rustlers and other thrills mingle with comedy as Beery lays siege to the heart of the "lady blacksmith" of the town, a role played by Marjorie Main. Another thrill is an adventure aboard a speeding troop train. Hundreds of players take part in the battles and action.

Among the comedy highlights are Beery's serenading Miss Main with a harmonica, playing "A Bird in a Gilded Cage", his whimsical swimming hole scene with Bobs Watson, his encounter with General Custer, and his meeting with the "lady blacksmith" who spans him with a shovel. Thrills include his dramatic escape from jail, his encounter with Joseph Calleia, who plays the villainous leader of a horse-stealing ring and his dramatic organizing of the ranchers to combat the cattle thieves.

GEMS OF THOUGHT SERVICE Friends

What is a Friend? I will tell you. It is a person with whom you dare to be yourself.—Frank Crane.

Real friendship is a slow grower, and never thrives unless engrafted upon a stock of known and reciprocal merit.—Lord Chesterfield.

There are no greater miracles known to earth than perfection and an unbroken friendship.—Mary Baker Eddy.

There can never be deep peace between two spirits, never mutual respect, until, in their dialogue, each stands for the whole world.—Emerson.

When friendship is settled, trust must be formed, you must pass judgment.—Seneca.

A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.—Proverbs 18:24.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother, Georgia Housin Berry, who left us six years ago, November 4, 1934.

The steps we loved so well are gone
The voice we used to hear is silent
Too far away for sight or speech
But not too far for our thoughts to reach.

NEW LIFE AT FORT MEADE

New life will begin officially for Fort Meade next Monday, November 18. It will be a gradual reawakening. First will come scattered truckloads of civilian-garbed selectees bound for the reception center, where 30,000 will be housed and introduced to Army ways and uniforms. To the 9,187 Guardsmen will be added 10,800 selectees so that soon the division will be organized on a full-strength basis, ready for 12 months of strenuous training in all aspects of modern warfare. The plans for the expansion of Fort Meade and for training there will be outlined in an illustrated feature article appearing next Sunday in The Washington Sunday Star.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in later years.

I know Him whom I have believed and am persuaded that he is able to guard that which I have committed to him.—Timothy 1:2.

FIFTH COLUMN DANGERS

The rapid increase in this country of explosions, wholesale poisonings and other acts of sabotage in unsuspected and widely separated localities are in themselves sufficient evidence of a Fifth Column menace which is growing daily if we were not already warned by those in a position to know, that a very savage attempt is being made to destroy our country from within. Certainly there is ample evidence at hand to convince all patriotic citizens that it is high time that we do something about it, but who can tell us just how to deal with this hidden menace?

In due time we will know plenty about them, but it will then be too late to prevent what they have done. In the meantime we can at least begin to be really cautious and conservative about taking up with strangers and in becoming identified with new organizations and publications that spring up among us with all sorts of schemes to uplift us and better our condition in life.

The first goal of the Fifth Column in any new area of invasion is the enlistment of gullible well known and highly esteemed local citizens in behalf of their enterprise. Once this is accomplished the real promoters lurk in the background and the local personalities do their nefarious work for them without the least suspicion that they are aiding the dreaded Fifth Column.

It is particularly important to beware of war-refugees from France who have come here to save us from the fate they claim to have suffered there and, possibly, to pick up some money.

We have religious, social, fraternal, civic and educational organizations in our midst, already established, and deserving by years of devotion to their fine objectives to take care of the needs of every citizen, and give group expression to his ideas. There is no need for new associations to attain community betterment and individual improvement. Our good old institutions have served us well and long, and if we will just work through them according to our natural faiths and affiliations, we will be doing a great deal to safeguard our respective localities from this dreaded menace to our security.

COUNTY AGENTS COLUMN

1941 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM CLOSES JUNE 30.

The 1941 Agricultural Conservation Program year closes on June 30, 1941, two months earlier. This gives less time in which to earn the maximum farm allowance. With the liberal allowances of $12.00 per ton using 20 per cent Superphosphate on hay or pasture and $2.00 per ton for using ground limestone or its equivalent on any land, it is hoped that every farmer will be able to earn his maximum farm payment even with the less liberal allowance for speeding grasses and legumes. Assistance will be gladly given at the county agents office in planning soil building practices and obtaining ground limestone or Superphosphate, when desired, to make full use of the benefits of the program in furthering soil improvement.

PROVISIONS FOR TREE PLANTING

In addition to the regular maximum payment for carrying out soil building practices under the 1941 farm program, an extra $15.00 at the rate of $4.50 per acre will be allowed for planting tree seedlings. One year locusts and pines (several species) are available from the Virginia Forest Service Nursery at $2.00 per thousand. When planted 6 1/2 feet apart each way, 1,000 seedlings are enough for one acre. Although planting is not recommended until next spring, orders should be placed early for seedlings since the supply at the State Nursery is limited.

ANOTHER BIG TURNIP

N. E. Garber of Nokesville has sent into the Journal Office a turnip weighing 3 1/2 pounds. It is a fine specimen.

FRATERNAL VISITATION

State Councilor Beck of the Daughters of America made her official visitation on Monday evening, the hostess council being Prince William No. 45. Accompanying her were Deputy National Councilor Blincoe, District Deputy Bennett, Past National Councilor Hopkins, State Conductor Spillman, Member State Judiciary, Mann, Past State Councilor Danton, Member State Finance Board, Garrison, Member State Credential Committee, Perkinson. More than twenty members of nearby councils were also present as visitors. After the conclusion of the meeting, delicious refreshments were served, and a pleasant social hour enjoyed.

NEARBY 200 PERSONS IN THIS AREA RECEIVING BENEFITS

A statement issued today by W. G. Baylis, manager of the Alexandria office of the Social Security Board, shows that 169 persons in this area are now receiving monthly payments of old-age and survivors insurance. This figure represents the number of men, women, and children in the counties served by the Alexandria office who have been awarded monthly payments of old-age and survivors insurance since monthly benefits became payable. Among these listed are 21 widows, 42 children, 83 retired wage earners, 22 wives of retired wage earners, and 1 aged dependent parent.

The field manager explained that when a fully insured wage earner, who is 65 years old or more, files claim for his monthly old-age insurance benefits, his wife may also claim monthly benefits when she is 65 years old or more. In addition each of his children under age 16 (18 if in school) will receive monthly benefits.

Mr. Baylis pointed out that when an insured worker dies, leaving a widow with minor children, monthly payments of survivors insurance are made to his widow and to his children who are under age 16 (18 if in school). An insured worker's widow who has reached age sixty-five, or the widow who has children under age 18 in her care receives three-fourths of the amount of her husband's primary insurance benefit and each of his minor children receives one-half of his primary insurance benefit within certain limitations.

Mr. Baylis said that where the insured wage earner dies and leaves no survivors entitled to monthly benefits, a lump-sum death payment is made to the widow or widower or children or parents of the deceased. If no one of the above-mentioned relatives is living, a payment covering the burial expenses, up to an amount of six times the primary insurance benefit, will be made to the person who paid such expenses. A total of 60 lump-sum payments have been made this year.

IN MEMORIAM

Lavinia Davis

Who died one year ago, November 11, 1939.

When God looked down upon the earth

And sought with gifts to bless it,

He sent the flowers for beauty;

As for joy, the birds express it.

He sent the sun for radiance,

And the stars for glory, too,

And then he sent for comfort.

THE LATE MRS. NOELL GILL

There passed away on Sunday in Manassas, Va., Blanche Linton, wife of the late Professor Noell Gill. Deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Linton and was in her 65th year.

After spending her early life in Campbellford, she was married to Professor Gill thirty-eight years ago, and since that time, until the passing of her husband three months ago, she had lived in Kingston, Port Hope, Manassas, Va., and Washington, D. C., where her husband followed his profession. She was a lady held in high esteem in Campbellford. Each summer, for thirty years or more, Professor and Mrs. Gill had spent the summer at their cottage, Trent River. A devout Anglican, she was interested in the affairs of church and state.

Surviving are one son, Flying Officer Linton Gill of Regina, one sister, Mrs. S. H. Neale of Dundas, and two brothers, John A. Linton and Adam T. Linton, both of Campbell-ford.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. T. S. Gault, at the home of her brother, Mr. John A. Linton, George Street, on Wednesday afternoon, when the presence of a large number of friends and a gorgeous display of flowers showed the esteem in which the late Mrs. Gill was held in Campbellford, where she was so well known. Among those from a distance attending the service was her son, Linton of Regina, and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Neale of Dundas.

The pallbearers were Messrs. J. Ernest Birks, J. C. Birmingham, Chas. H. Calver, Major J. M. Bygott, J. V. Bedford and Marshall West.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

CITIZENS THROG MASS MEETING

Patriotic Gathering Urges More Aid For Britain

Several hundred persons responded to the call of Chairman Charles Pickett, of the Fairfax County branch of the Committee to Defend America by aiding the Allies on Monday evening, for an appropriate observance of Armistice Day.

Following the singing of "America" by the audience, accompanied by the band, Mr. Pickett introduced Rev. Gray Temple, of Truro Parish, who gave the invocation, after which Mr. Pickett explained the two fold purpose of the meeting.

Reading a telegram from William Allen White, nationally known publisher, he showed the need for unification of purpose among all Americans. The other reason for such a meeting was specifically to encourage patriotism.

He described Armistice Day 1918, when he himself was in Paris. The speaker declared that it is the duty of every American to make sacrifices to preserve the liberties and privileges for which our forefathers fought.

Following this, Mr. Pickett introduced a group of some thirty men eligible to call for military service during the next month or so, according to the selective service drawing. The audience gave each a good hand as he rose and took a bow.

The band when rendered a medley of airs which were popular during the last great war.

Richard Eaton, a resident of France for nearly a quarter century, gave his impressions of the closing moments of the collapse of the French Republic, describing many tragic scenes of that terrible hour. He interspersed his talk with several human interest stories.

Hon. Francis Pickens Miller, Fairfax County representative in the General Assembly of Virginia, described fighting scenes in the last hours prior to the Armistice Day of 1918. He gave some of the impressions created at that time, and how erroneous some of them proved to be. He dwelt with terrible realism on the power of the same great enemy as now again afield, with a definite purpose to destroy everything for which we stand and in which we believe.

The speaker declared that with but a few exceptions the English speaking peoples now remained the only exponents of real Democracy. "These," he added, "Will not survive unless we act and act in time. Who has given us this time? You and I both know, and we should pay them just tribute as they watch o'er the ramparts in which we should be helping." (Long and strenuous applause followed this statement).

Excoriating the enemies of Democracy, he concluded by saying that "Hitler wants to determine the kind of a world for us to live in. Are we going to let him make our world?"

Paying tribute to the young men of the coming draft who had just been introduced to the audience, Mr. Miller urged that "the only way to have a sound Democracy is to have an adequate defense."

The audience then sang "God Bless America", and the ceremonies were brought to an end by the salute to the flag by the Vienna Boy Scouts, with the American Legion Post of Vienna, acting as color guard. The salute and taps were both played by Bugler Al Lewis of the Boy Scout Patrol of Vienna.

With the playing of the national anthem by the band, the meeting adjourned. Chairman Pickett and Mr. Frank Gicker, Jr., who had charge of arrangements, were heartily congratulated on the success of the gathering.
