POLL TAX NEED IS DISCUSSED

Hon. C. R. Fenwick Addresses Kiwanis Club at 'Family Night'.

Last Friday evening was a triple treat for the Kiwanians. First, it was "family night" and the boys are always glad to have the fair sex with them; next, Col. Ben Jacobson and the Mrs. were back after a long, long absence in the Canal Zone, and last but not least another member of the General Assembly was present to add to the recent auspicious visits from the legislators.

As program chairman, Judge Brown introduced Hon. Charles Fenwick, of East Falls Church, as the guest speaker. Naturally, it was politics and Charley dealt with "getting out the vote".

He developed the origin and necessity of a poll tax very neatly and showed how its opponents really had no arguments against some form of direct tax in this matter.

The speaker declared that in his county, the county Democratic committee, of which he is chairman, sends reminder before the dead line to all citizens, irrespective of their party affiliations.

The evening was a pleasant one generally and the hope was expressed that the speaker would return. The only "riff in the lute" was a moan from one or two of the members that they would be in the "dog house" for a time because of insufficient notice that their "better halves" were expected to be present.

The following members and guests were present:

Mr. and Mrs. L. Ledman, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Trusler, Mr. D. J. Arrington, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hooff, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Ratcliffe, Mr. Robert A. Hutchison, Mr. A. H. Roseberry, Mr. Kite Roseberry, Mrs. G. Fleming Branch, Mrs. William L. Compton, Miss Nancy Parrish, Miss Betty Lou Parrish, Mr. E. G. Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. Hutton Tiffany, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hynson, Mr. R. S. Moser, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Diddle, Miss Nancy Leigh Diddle, Miss Betty Gore Diddle, Col. and Mrs. Benj. L. Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kincheol, Mrs. M. H. Kincheol, Mr. O. D. Waters, Miss Walter Conner, Mr. E. R. Conner, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Alpaugh, Rev. R. M. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Sigman, Mr. Walter Sadd, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hill Brown, Jr., Hon. Charles R. Fenwick, Mr. R. Worth Peters, Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, Mr. James E. Bradford, Rev. J. J. Widmer, Mr. Gary Allen, Mr. Fred R. Hynson, Mr. C. C. Lynn, Mr. J. P. Kerlin and Mr. Richard Haydon.

MANASSAS MILLS SOLD

One of the largest and best known commercial establishments of this section of Virginia changed ownership this week when the Manassas Mills were purchased by Mr. George B. Robey, well known attorney of Fairfax.

For a number of years the Manassas Mills have been owned by the Fauquier National Bank of Warrenton and managed by Mr. C. E. Tiffany.

THE MANASSAS GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Paul Cooksey was hostess on Tuesday afternoon to the Manassas Garden Club.

The club was delighted to welcome Mrs. B. L. Jacobson back, and two new members were present, Mrs. Raleigh Taylor and Mrs. J. T. Royer. Mrs. C. H. Stickle was a guest of the club. Mrs. Diddle, president, announced the state meeting would be in Staunton, May 23 and 24. Plans were discussed for the club's spring flower show, and also the school flower show in the fall.

Mrs. Marshall Haydon invited the club to meet at her home in May.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES

The signs of the times? With the activity going on, it looks as though the Easter Charity Ball of the Woman's Club will be the largest ever.

Much planning is being done for it by the General Chairman, Mrs. Broadus, and she reports that everyone who is asked to help is gladly co-operating.

The date for the ball is April 14, and the place, the High School gymnasium, dancing from 10 to 2.

JUNIORS PRESENT PLAY AT BRENTSVILLE HIGH

The Junior Class of Brentsville District High School will present a three-act comedy "Damsels in Distress" on Wednesday evening, April 2, at 8 in the high school auditorium.

The setting of this play is in the one rented room of Pam's and Gerry's. In Mrs. Guppy's rooming house. These two girls were sent to the city by their respective uncle and aunt; Pam to study music and Gerry to take a business course. Instead, Gerry has been studying dramatics, and Pam has been studying art. When the girls learn that they are to be visited by their aunt and uncle, they immediately set out to make things appear as they should. At this point, Jimmy Love comes in, dressed in a tablecloth. From then on, matters become more and more complicated as well as hilarious. Into the story come such unusual characters as a mad Russian girl, a kleptomaniac, a deaf and dumb man, and others. The two girls truly become damsels in distress. How they come out of such a mess on top, is cleverly brought out in the climax. This play is excellent material for the talented actresses and actors of the Junior Class.

IN MEMORIAM

On loving remembrance of my dear husband, Jessie Williams, who departed this life two years ago today, March 27, 1941.

The stars are shining upon the silent grave,
Where sleepeth a dear one we could not save.

We miss him from his home, we miss him from his place,
A shadow over our life is cast,
We miss the sunshine of his face.

We miss his kind and willing hand,
His fond and earnest care,
Our home is dark without him,
We miss him every where.

Thou art not forgotten Jessie,
Dear, nor will thou ever be,
As long as life and memory last,
We will still remember thee.

By his loving wife and daughter,
Fannie and Ruby Jane Williams.

THE MILLER OF OLD CHURCH

Ellen Glasgow, the author of "The Miller of Old Church", was born in Richmond, Virginia, in 1874. In her stories she wrote about the real people of the South as she found them and not as other people thought they were. Some of the settings for her novels are in Virginia as this one is. This story was published first in 1941 by the Doubleday, Page and Company.

In this story the characters are like people you may have known. Abel Revercomb plays the part of the miller in a little old-time Virginia village known as Old Church. His sister, Blossom, is also of great importance to the story. The Revercomb farm joined the rich plantation of the Gays. The owner of this plantation was Mr. Jonathan Gay, who had been mysteriously killed near an old spring which was known as Popular Spring. After his death Mrs. Gay and her sister, Kessiah, lived on there in the summer but did not live there in the winter. On the plantation was the little cottage of old Reuben Merryweather, who claimed he lost one of his legs in a battle at Manassas, and his granddaughter, Molly, who acted as overseer while Mrs. Gay was away.

The stillness which usually presided over the Gay plantation was turned into confusion and excitement when the young Jonathan Gay returned home after being abroad. It seemed that the learned ways of Jonathan did not help him in making friends, for he even forbade Abel's brother, Archie Revercomb, to hunt on his land, a thing which everybody had been doing for years. Later Jonathan secretly married Blossom but lost interest in her in favor of Molly. Abel, the miller, also loved Molly and with the existing dislike for one another, which began with the hunting incident with Abel's brother, it became quite a contest as to who would win her. The old Popular Spring comes back into the story to help decide the winner.

This book may be borrowed from the Ruffner-Carnegie Library.

A REPORT to America

The Ford Motor Company's business has always been to serve the needs of the American people. In providing them with low-cost transportation for the past 38 years, we have developed one of the country's largest and most useful industrial units. During a national emergency, we feel that these facilities should be devoted without reserve to our country's needs. Toward that end we started rolling months ago, with these results:

- 1 A $21,000,000 Ford airplane engine factory, started only 6 months ago, is nearly completed. Production will start with an initial order for 4,236 eighteen cylinder, air-cooled, double-row, radial engines.
- 2 We are building a new $800,000 Ford magnesium alloy foundry, one of the few in the country. It is already producing lightweight airplane engine castings.
- 3 Army reconnaissance cars—military vehicles of an entirely new type—are rolling off special Ford assembly lines at the rate of more than 600 a month. We have produced Army staff cars and bomber service trucks.
- 4 The government has given the "go-ahead" and work is now under way for the fast construction of an $11,000,000 Ford plant to produce bomber airplane assemblies by mass production methods.

- 5 Several months ago work was started, on our own initiative, on an entirely new 1500 horsepower airplane engine especially designed for mass production. This engine is now in the test stage and plans are being developed for producing it in large quantities when and if needed.
- 6 A Ford aircraft apprentice school has been established, to train 2000 students at a time.

That is a report of progress to date.

The experience and facilities of this company can be used to do much of the job which America now needs to get done in a hurry.

Our way of working, which avoids all possible red tape, enables us to get results and get them fast. This benefits users of our products and workers who produce them.

We are ready to make anything we know how to make, to make it to the limit of our capacity if need be, to make it as fast as we can go, and to start the next job whenever our country asks us to. And to this end, we know we have the full confidence and loyal support of the workmen throughout our plants.

OUR LAST STATE SENATOR

In our issue of March 13 we stated in an editorial that it has been so long since Prince William had a Senator in the General Assembly of Virginia that no one seems off hand to be able to recall his name.

We are indebted to Mr. William Payne Meredith, of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board of the District of Columbia for the information that his father, Hon. Elisha E. Meredith was the last State Senator from Prince William, serving sometime in the Eighties.

The distinguished services of Congressman Meredith are gratefully remembered by many citizens of the county, but his previous record in the State Senate, now more than half a century ago, had indeed been obscured by a lapse of time which should not ever again occur, for virile, growing and progressive County like Prince William should have and fully deserves to have more frequent direct representation in our State Senate.

We hope that the solution of the Re-Districting problem will be such that once more there may at least occasionally be heard in the historic halls of Richmond the voice of a "Senator from Prince William".

RECALLING JOHN BURROUGHS

One hundred and four years ago, on April 3, 1837, John Burroughs was born in an old farmhouse near the village of Roxbury, N. Y. After spending his youth on the farm and later working as a Treasury clerk in Washington, he built a home on the banks of the Hudson River. An interesting story on the life of this great American naturalist and writer is told in an illustrated feature article appearing next Sunday in The Washington Sunday Star.

LAW AND ORDER THRILLER STARS JOHNNY MACK BROWN

Frontier desperadoes come to death grips with a wild-riding, two-gun United States marshal in Universal's thrilling cowboy drama, "Law and Order", coming Saturday, March 29, to the Pitt's Theatre with Johnny Mack Brown in the starring role.

Fuzzy Knight, musician and comedian, Nell O'Day, comely equestrienne, and James Craig, former football ace, head the strong supporting cast of western favorites.

The screenplay, adapted from a W. R. Burnett novel, presents Brown as a crusading marshal who finds his reputation for cleaning up outlaw-ridden communities has preceded him to the once-peaceful town of Rhyolite. There the fiery peace officer is called upon to go into action again. How he finally brings a ruthless band of killer to justice is said to furnish the thrilling climax to an action-packed film.
