EXHIBITION DRILL BY WARRENTON RIFLES

The final game of the season for the Fauquier Loudoun Polo Team will be played on Sunday, October 5, on Goose Creek Field with the West Shore Polo Club of Harrisburg, Pa. This game is being given for the benefit of the Warrenton Rifles, Co. III, V. P. F., which will give an exhibition drill, commencing at two o'clock, including riot control formations and bayonet drill.

For the riot control demonstration, the center of the polo field will be marked out as a crossroads, representing an important junction in a town which is supposedly in a state of imminent riot. The Warrenton Rifles will show how they would cope with such a situation.

The game will begin at three o'clock. It is the third and decisive match of a series between these two teams, each having won one match. The Fauquier-Loudoun team is composed of Hubert Phipps, Lt. William Rand, R. J. Kirkpatrick and Robert Clark. The visitor's line-up will be Max Hempt, Doc Hempt, Forrest Hempt and Frank Frownfelter.

Immediately following the game there will be an inspection of the Warrenton Rifles in their dress uniforms.

All proceeds from the game will go to the Warrenton Rifles. The Goose Creek Field is located between Upperville and Middleburg and directing markers will be placed along the highways from Front Royal and Warrenton.

ADDRESSES PROSPECTIVE RECRUITS

Mate L. A. King, USN, was out on one of his semi-weekly trips on Monday. While here he addressed a class of nine possible recruits for the Navy and Naval Reserve.

Mr. King is arranging a regular schedule, and will probably have office space in the Post Office Building. Until that time he may be contacted through the office of the Manassas Journal.

It is best for inquiries to be made on the little coupons now running in the large Navy ads. Incidentally the advertisement this week carries a very excellent likeness of the famous newspaper publisher, Frank Knox, now Secretary of the Navy.

O'CONNELL HEADS DEFENSE PROJECT

Defense Council Plans To Collect Waste Materials

Local committees are now in process of organization in each of the thirteen counties and two cities of the Northern Virginia Regional Defense Council for the collection of waste materials, it was announced today by M. J. O'Connell, prominent Virginia business man and Chairman of the Salvage Committee.

At the same time, Mr. O'Connell issued an appeal to citizens to save their waste materials until the local committees are organized for a concerted drive. He stated that he hoped the actual drive could begin in October. Many inquiries about where to send materials have already been received he said.

"The response of leading business and professional men as well as local governments, civic and church organizations, to the proposed salvage of waste materials for National Defense, has been worthy of the finest expressions of American patriotism. We are having no difficulty whatever in getting busy men and women to consent to serve in this patriotic effort."

"Each community will have an active local Salvage Committee. That it will receive wholehearted support is confidently expected. The Regional Council has already received requests for someone to collect the waste materials."

"Our appeal will be directed to homes, farms, industries and any agency that has any kind of waste material that Uncle Sam can use in National Defense."

"I want to appeal to all citizens to begin saving waste materials now. Within the next 30 days everyone will have an opportunity to donate such materials, the returns on which will be devoted to local National Defense expenses and for Recreational activities of our boys now in training."

Mr. O'Connell stated that in order of their importance, Uncle Sam wants the following materials: Newspaper and paper of all kinds, steel, iron, cloth, rags. Tin cans have no value and while razor blades make good steel, the danger of cutting hands is too great to make them desirable.

It was learned that announcement of local Salvage Committee selections will be made within the next two weeks.

MANASSAS LOSES GAME TO FRONT ROYAL 19-6

The Manassas "Red Snappers" went down in defeat at the hands of Front Royal last Friday by the score of 19-6 after playing a good game all the way.

The visitors presented a heavy team and with the aid of several "breaks" scored three times while the "Red Snappers" scored on a long pass, Breen to Beeton, on the last play of the game.

The "Red Snappers" played a good team game with blocking and tackling the main standout of the locals.

The "Red Snapper" hope to hit the win column Friday when they journey to Aldie to encounter the only team that Manassas has beaten in the past two years. The game will start at 2:30 P.M.

The "Red Snappers" who took part in the Front Royal affair are as follows: Parrish, W. Bolding, J. Johnson, C. Bolding, A. Connor, T. Breedon, J. Broadbush, Beeton, H. Breen, Jasper, Wine, Parks, C. Carneal, and Lewis.

MATRICULATES AT BRIDGEWATER

Miss Mae Elizabeth Diehl, of Nokesville, has entered Bridgewater College.

"A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another . . . By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples."

JESUS SPOKE THESE WORDS to his faithful disciples at their Last Supper together. He knew that the hour of crisis was at hand, for already Judas had gone to betray Him. That night the Master was explicit in his instructions to the little band of men who were to carry on through the critical early days of the Church. And He was careful to admonish them to "love one another," for in that way could all men recognize them as His followers.

At the World-Wide Communion Observance this Sunday we must so "love one another." As we go to the Service we must abandon social rivalries, personal jealousies and animosities, with a prayer for forgiveness. We are bound together by the forgiving and redemptive love of God.

OUT OF SCHOOL YOUTH MOVEMENT MEETS AT OCCOQUAN FLAG DISPLAY RESCUES GRATIFYING SUPPORT

Three young people from the Rural Youth Council of Georgia-Nell Parrish, Billy Dennis and O'Donald Mays—who toured the county last week together with a cooperating committee connected with the schools, presented a program at Occoquan on Wednesday evening, September 17. The project was designed to interest the young people of the district in providing for themselves wholesome recreation.

Samples were presented of the activities which might be used. Group singing and group games were enjoyed by all. The folk dances used seemed to bring about a very active participation.

Because of the desire of the group (some eighty in number) to carry on the program, a discussion was held to discover ways of doing this. A committee composed of Dorothy Browne, chairman, George Katsarelis, and Estelle Bourne, with Mrs. Janet Murphy and Mr. Howard Petellat as advisors was elected to plan for the next get-together, which will probably be held within the next few weeks. All who care to come will be invited.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY AT WOODBRIDGE

Mr. Henry Hale, aged early 40's, shot his wife, Lillian Agnes Tuesday night at his home, near Woodbridge. There are eight children ranging in ages from 2 to 14. No account of the murder and suicide could be obtained from them.

Mr. Hale, works for Mr. E. W. Thompson, on his large dairy farm. No evident motive could be given for the tragedy. Dr. Marsteller, county coroner, gave a verdict of murder and suicide early yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hale are being buried from the Hall Funeral Home to-morrow at 2 o'clock.

Besides the children, Mrs. Hale is survived by her father, Mr. Robert Sullivan, number of brothers and sisters. Mr. Hale is survived also by his mother, Mrs. Maggie Hale, brothers and sisters.

Interment was at Woodbridge, Va., Rev. A. H. Shumate officiating.

IMPORTANT RED CROSS MEETING CALLED

A special meeting of the Executive Board and Committee Chairman, of the Prince William County Chapter of the American Red Cross, will be held, on Friday, October 10th, 1941 at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. E. H. Marsteller.

Miss Marian Wilder special Roll Call worker for this area, will be present, and plans made, for putting on an intensive drive in November for the 11th to 30th.

This year because of the vast amount of work and relief given by the Red Cross, the Chapter is asked to double its membership and enroll 1200 members.

Roll Call workers urged to attend.

P T A FEDERATION HOLDS SESSION

Prof. Haydon Welcomes Educational Group

Mrs. John Powell, president of the Prince William County Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations presided at the quarterly meeting held in the Presbyterian Church in Manassas on last Thursday.

Following the invocation by the Rev. D. W. Calvert, of Occoquan, Va., the group divided into various committees and made plans for the year's work. At the afternoon session these committee chairmen outlined these plans and promised to contact and work with similar committees throughout the County.

Supt. R. C. Haydon, in welcoming the group, expressed the belief that the work of the P. T. A. organization is largely the cause of educational advancement in our county, being composed of those people who are interested in making the County a better place because it is their home. Mr. Haydon later told of a project of the County organization—the erection of a marker on the location of the old Dumfries Court House—and thanked Mr. Bishop for donating the land for this purpose.

Mrs. R. Worth Peters outlined the work being accomplished by the Red Cross sewing group for war relief and asked the continued cooperation of various groups throughout the County.

Mrs. P. A. Lewis told of plans for Adult Study Group classes in County P. T. A. organizations.

Miss Kline explained the workings and plans of Federal Nutrition Program throughout the county, consisting of canning demonstrations, educational movies, distribution of bulletins, discussions on well-balanced meals, etc.

Dr. Abner Robertson, Executive Director of the Virginia Branch of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, after expressing his pleasure at being here, complimented the Manassas P. T. A. on winning the State silver cup for the greatest percentage increase in membership in the State during the past year—364 per cent. He urged that a large group attend the State Convention to be held in Lynchburg, Va., October 9th and 10th, at which time the cup will be awarded. Mrs. Powell will attend as delegate from the County Federation.

Dr. Robertson told of P. T. A. cooperation in various branches of national defense work, but urged the importance of helping to preserve the stability of boys and girls of today as well. He described the P. T. A. as a broad democratic organization, one which draws all groups in a community, being non-partisan, non-sectarian, non-commercial, and does not seek to interfere with the technical administration of the school. In closing his most interesting and helpful address, he stressed understanding between the parents and teachers as being highly necessary and important for the welfare of the child.

The afternoon session was largely taken up by an open discussion led by Dr. Robertson, outlining the needs of an active local unit, the effectiveness of which is greatly increased by getting all members of the community actively interested in Parent-Teacher work.

The Alumni Association of Occoquan High School is sponsoring a kids party and cake walk at the school on Friday, October 3. The public is cordially invited to attend as kids. Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes.

DEFENSE CLASSES OPEN OCTOBER 6

County School Board Announces Schedule

National Defense classes in Metal Work and Electricity will start in the schools of Prince William County on Monday evening, October 6th at 7 o'clock P. M.

Announcement is made by the County School Board Office that in cooperation with the Federal Security Agency, the United States War Department and the Virginia State Board of Education, the Prince William County School Board will again sponsor and operate certain classes in the high schools of the County designated as National Defense Training Classes.

At Nokesville, a class will be offered in General Metal work, including electric welding, oxyacetylene welding, sheet metal, forge work and metal lathe work. Similar classes will be offered in the Osbourn High School and the Manassas Regional High School. In addition to these two metal classes, a class in Elementary Electricity will be offered in the Regional High School.

Enrollments are confined to out-of-school youth between the ages of 17 and 25. The classes meet five times per week from 7 P. M. to 10 P. M., Monday through Friday. The length of the course is ten weeks.

The following instructors have been secured for the various classes:

Goode—Manassas Registrations will be received up to 10 o'clock Monday evening and because of the limited number of pupils that can be enrolled in each class, it will be necessary that acceptances in enrollments be in the order that the applications are received. KIWANIANS PRESENT ROUND TABLE ON BUSINESS STANDARDS

Under the sponsorship of program chairman, Hunton Tiffany, a group of four Kiwanians discussed business standards and ethics at the Friday night meeting of the Kiwanians Club.

Mr. Edgar Parrish gave two readings very apropos of the subject, one of them being a business man's creed on business ethics.

Mr. O. D. Waters gave a talk on the quality put into goods as a trademark of good faith, not intelligible in the work of those not guided by this inspiration.

Mr. F. R. Hynson discussed fair competition. His portion of the panel developed the fact that folks not only render a community service by home dealing but often themselves a distinct benefit. It was shown that too many times a person would assume that some mail order catalogue gave a cheaper quotation without even taking the trouble to consult a local merchant.

Mr. Bradford spoke on the application of business ethics and standards among the public as a whole rather than merely the business men themselves, a thing so commonly done.

This being national Newspaper week, the publicity committee has invited Commander Thomas Kivilighan, Jr., USNR, and general manager of the Loudoun Times-Mirror to talk on the rural newspaper and its sphere of operations in the community.

FOREIGN RELIEF APPEAL SCHEDULED OCTOBER 5TH.

World-Wide Communion Sunday, October 5th, when Christians the world over join at the Lord's Table, will again be made the occasion for a special relief appeal, according to Leslie B. Moss, Executive Director of the Committee on Foreign Relief Appeals in the Churches. It is felt that the day of communion offers the finest opportunity "to enlarge our sympathetic sharing with the needy."

Relief funds are needed, according to the committee, to provide for 50,000,000 people in China who have lost their homes; for hundreds of thousands of children in Europe who are undernourished and ill; for thousands of Christian workers in Europe who are friendless and without support; for nearly 4,000,000 idle prisoners of war who need occupation of body and mind for 2500 "orphaned" missions that may be doomed without our help, for refugees, war workers, and embattled civilians who need relief, guidance and training.

Last year the churches fell far short of the $2,000,000 needed—they responded with only $675,000. This year the churches are again asked to provide $2,000,000—one-third of the total amount needed to fill all demands.

Directing the appeal is the Committee on Foreign Relief Appeals, an agency to coordinate the relief activities of eight organizations: The American Bible Society, the International Missionary Council, the American Committee for Christian Refugees, the Church Committee for China Relief, the American Bureau for European churches, the American Friends Service Committee, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

In an article prepared to emphasize relief needs, Dr. Moss stated:

"The tragedy of human suffering which has descended on the world brings dense shadow to unnumbered souls. The starvation and despair which confront large portions of the human race call for heroic measures. The example of our Lord in ministering promptly to all who called for help is of especial significance for us now. We can be sure that were He physically present His compassion for the distress of His children would bring a swift solution of their troubles. But today He has to depend on us. Christ has no hands but yours. If those who suffer and plead for help are to know the comfort and the solace of His help it must be through your efforts. He depends upon His followers."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Unreality" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches and societies of Christ. Scientist, on Sunday, October 5.

The Golden Text will be "All that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever" (1 John 2:16, 17).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following:

ing from the Bible: "Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them" (Matt. 7:17-20).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Everything good or worthy, God made. Whatever is valueless or baneful, He did not make,—hence its unreality" (p.525).

FARMERS GET THINGS DONE working together

FOR INSTANCE: Twenty years ago it was rare for a farmer in these parts to get a good stand of legume hay. The seed sold in those days was imported and unadapted to our land and climate. In 1923 about 150 farmers met in Richmond to take steps to change things in their favor. They formed a cooperative. That first year they pooled seed cars and did $100,000 worth of business together.

Eighteen years later the 150 farmers have become 116,515. The shoestring of a business they started has become the third largest farmers' cooperative in the world, and through the years these farmers working together have purchased, manufactured, and distributed to themselves over 94 million dollars worth of supplies necessary to carry on the business of farming.

American farmers working together in the American Way can get things done! Agriculture can save Democracy... Cooperation provides the way.

Merit examination for clerks, stenographers, typists, bookkeeping, machine and telephone operators for future positions in the Virginia State Employment Service, State Department of Health, and the Virginia Commission for the Blind were announced yesterday by the merit system councils of the agency from their joint office in 506 Travelers Building, Richmond, Virginia.

Dates for the examinations will be announced later, but applicants may apply for as many of the examinations listed as they wish, but must use separate application blanks for each one. The tests are being given to establish lists for future appointments and to qualify present personnel who do not now have a merit status. When vacancies are filled from the registers, appointment will be made by selection of the three highest available candidates from the list at the time the vacancy occurs.

Examinations probably will be held, it was said, in Richmond, Norfolk, Lynchburg, Charlottesville, Alexandria, Harrisonburg, Roanoke, Bristol, Pulaski, Appalachia and Exmore.

Registers resulting from the examinations will remain in force for two years unless exhausted prior to that time.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in their youth.

"In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." John 16:38.

DEPORTATION OF BRIDGES

This week a special inspector of the Justice Department has filed a report based upon an eleven week investigation in San Francisco of the Harry Bridges case, in which it is recommended that Bridges be deported on the grounds than any alien who has been affiliated with the Communist Party should be expelled because the Party since its organization in 1919 has advocated overthrow of the Government by force.

The manner in which our Government itself has apparently shielded this notorious Red agitator for years has been a source of wonderment and humiliation to all patriotic Americans, and if the Justice Department does not now act on this recommendation there will certainly be found in this attitude full grounds for the wide-spread belief that nothing can be done against Communists in the United States because all of the government agencies which deal with the problem are themselves honeycombed with members of the Party.

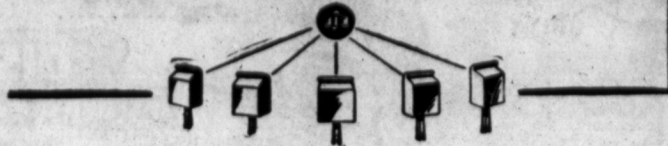

At the present time the most elementary military considerations require that we aid Russia in its fight against our greatest menace, but this does not mean that we should lessen our vigilance against the Communist Fifth Column here. It is all the more reason why we should tighten up everywhere and rid our country of these vipers.

A LETTER FROM CAMP

To the Editor:

The soldiers from battery "G" from Fort Sheridan, Ill. now at Shreveport, La. on maneuvers were actually bombs Saturday evening September 20 by our own planes. We are the red forces and were protecting the airport from the blue forces which is the enemy. Our red plane was out on bombing practice and was supposed to be bombing on a target one mile from us and something happened, I don't know what but the bombs were dropping right around our tents. bombs blew holes four feet deep all around our camping area. In a few minutes we were visited by generals, captains and lieutenants. We soldiers really got a dirt showers which we didn't need. We thought on maneuvers they were supposed to simulate bombing with sacks of flour but we found out different, we figured we are lucky to be living and able to carry on in maneuvers. We were so scared we couldn't move or say anything for a while. I think the officers more scared and surprised than anyone else after they bombed us by accident all the bombing planes were called to the airport and we moved out of the area in a short time. I don't know who is protecting the airport from the enemy now, I reckon they will take it over. We soldiers from battery "G" figure they can have the airport as far as we are concerned when our own planes start to bombing us.

COMMISSION BY ANDREW JACKSON

Mrs. Lamar Has Original Document Signed by "Old Hickory"

Our esteemed friend Mrs. L. Q. C. Lamar, of Manassas, was a pleasant caller at the Journal Office this week and gave us the opportunity of viewing the original commission to her grandfather, Augustus Archibald Nicholson, as a Captain of the Marine Corps, dated March 2, 1835 and signed by Andrew Jackson, President of the United States.

The old document, on genuine parchment, is in excellent condition and is a fine specimen of the printing of a century ago. It also bears the signature of Mahlon Dickerson, Secretary of the Navy.

Major Nicholson was a native of South Carolina and began his long and distinguished service to his country as a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps. He was assigned to the command of the Marines in the famous ship Constitution and later was transferred to the Constellation. Other ships to which he was assigned at various times included the North Carolina, and the Fulton. At the time of his death in Washington in 1855 he was in active service as Quartermaster with the rank of Major.

Two sons of Major Nicholson were also Naval officers: Col. Augustus S. and Commodore Sumnerville L. whose son, Reginald Fairfax Nicholson was commissioned Read Admiral in 1911 after long and distinguished service. In 1909 Admiral Nicholson was designated by the President to serve as Acting Secretary of the Navy.

Mrs. Lamar is the daughter in law of Judge Lucius Quintus Cincinnatus Lamar, of Mississippi, who previous to his elevation to the Supreme Court had served with distinction in Congress until the War Between the States when he became prominently identified with the formation of the Confederacy and took the field as a gallant soldier with commission as Lieutenant Colonel. In 1862 he was sent to Russia by President Davis as a Special Commissioner, and Mrs. Lamar has a set of Confederate cuff-buttons which he purchased in Paris while on that assignment. He played a notable part in the rebuilding of the South, re-entered Congress, was elected to the Senate; became a member of President Cleveland's cabinet as Secretary of the Interior and finally became an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court where he served until his death in 1893.

BRENTSVILLE DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

On Friday, September, 22, the Nokesville S. C. A. had its meeting of the 1941-42 school session. In charge of the meeting was the Vice-President, Glen Sommers; the secretary was Miss Jean Harpine. The only business discussed was whether to give a social to the room who gets their S. C. A. dues paid up in full first. It was decided that we follow the same procedure that we did last year and to have the social.

On Wednesday, September 20, the Woman's Club gave a reception for the members of the faculty. It was held in the Home Economics Building.

On Tuesday of that week the Nokesville School had a "Night Games" which was directed rural youth in recreation. The games were especially played in hopes that people out of school age would take part in them, although anyone that wanted to could play. A good number of people took part in the games and every one had a good time.

Some very interesting talks have been given in the High School Assembly by Rev. Graham, Rev. Newman and Rev. Mitchell. We appreciate very much having these speakers with us and profit very much by their talks.

The High School and Grade enrollment is about the same as it was last year.

The graduates of last year attending College are as follows: Frances Hale, Mary Washington; Mae Diehl, Bridgewater; Gordon Ellis, Harry Smith, and Gerald Herring, V. P. L.; Earline Squires, Madison; John Walter Bittle, Roanoke; Margaret Mayhugh and Frances Ellis returned to Madison and Mary Washington respectively, and John Bear and Selwyn Smith to V. P. L.

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM

Notice to the Manassas Journal

So far this year, there have been four (4) cases of Infantile Paralysis reported in Prince William County. However, there is no particular reason for alarm in this county as this disease is usually more prevalent throughout the country at this season of the year.

For the week ending September 20, 1941, there were four (4) cases reported throughout the State, while for the week ending September 21, 1940, there were twenty-two (22) cases reported. At the present time, there are fewer cases throughout the State than there were at this time last year.

Respectively submitted,
J. McIver Jackson, M. D.

HOME BUILDING STOPPED

If you had 14 pounds of copper wire, perhaps you could build that dream house you've been planning. But the chance are you won't be able to get the wire, nor a lot of other metals you would need; and you'll have to wait until after the war. The story of how the building of private homes is being completely shut off is told in an illustrated feature article appearing next Sunday in the Washington Sunday Star.

WALKS 17 MILES TO GIVE BLOOD FOR ARMY, NAVY

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—Edward Degus, 28, got up at three a.m., walked 17 miles here from Hilton without eating breakfast—and donated his blood to the Red Cross for national defense.

Degus' donation—which appears to be a new high in patriotism—was added to that of others here as part of the blood plasma reserve being collected for the Army and Navy.

When Red Cross chapter officials learned of his 17-mile trek, it was immediately announced that transportation would be provided for future donors coming in from out of town.

EAST, SOUTH AND WEST: Come, come, Margaret don't be a dummy. That's common knowledge now. Since we've discovered the conveniences of Redi-Cut Cakes we all have a lot more leisure.

JUNE: Do you know, Betty, I've solved the problem of school lunches for my youngsters with Southern Bread and Redi-Cut Cake. A couple of sandwiches, fresh fruit and a slice of Redi-Cut Cake takes good care of them until school's out.

BETTY: Yes, and Southern Bread is extra healthful now that it contains Vitamin B-1. They're thrifty products, too—we have a little bank almost filled with pennies we've saved by using Southern Bread and Redi-Cut Cake.

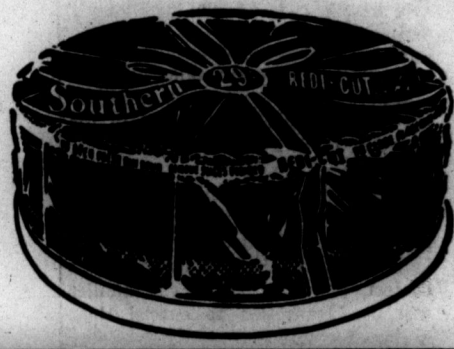

It's A Fact!

CATHARPIN

The Hickory Grove Home Demonstration Club held a most delightful meeting last Tuesday at "Snow Hill," the home of Mrs. T. O. Latham. The joint hostesses Mrs. Woodside, Mrs. Preston Smith and Mrs. E. L. Hoffman had planned a most delicious menu which was prepared in picnic style at the outdoor fireplace on the lawn and was greatly enjoyed by about twenty members and guests. Reports for the year's work were turned in and a condolence committee appointed with Mrs. L. J. Pattie as chairman. An invitation to meet with the Grange at Haymarket on second Friday in October was accepted. A dress revue was given, with the members modeling some garment which had been made this year. Discussions were held and much valuable information derived therefrom.

The beautiful panorama stretching before us added so much to the pleasure of the afternoon. The home-stands and the fields with their "long encampment of the corn," interspersed with colorful woodlands showing their first tints of autumnal glory with the beloved Bull Run Mountains in the back ground made a picture which we will not soon forget.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter K. Caldwell are spending several weeks with relatives in Tennessee.

Rev. Clark H. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maddox of Washington were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Tribble at "Tecumseh" Sunday. Mrs. Daisy Wilson of Upper Lou-

TYPHOID FEVER

"There is a popular misconception that typhoid fever no longer is a public health problem. Doubtless this idea can be traced to the tremendous drop in cases that has occurred during the past 35 years, the decrease being due to the consistently improved city and town water supplies, to the safeguards surrounding the large scale commercialized production of milk, to municipal sewage disposal systems, to the general screening of homes, and in rural areas to the increased installation of the sanitary pit privy. While it is true that the cases now occurring are few as compared to those of several decades ago and that, especially in cities and large towns, the physician comes upon cases rather infrequently, typhoid fever remains a public health concern throughout many sections of the United States. This is attested in Virginia by the 256 cases and 27 deaths which were reported to the State Department of Health in 1940," states Dr. I. C. Rigin State Health Commissioner.

"From a strictly abstract point of view, typhoid fever should be a rare disease. The cause of the disease, the typhoid germ, was discovered many years ago; the method of its spread is equally well known, and the principle of prevention successfully have been applied for a long time. The weak link in the chain is individual indifference or ignorance. The medical profession, sanitation engineers, and public health officials can, and will continue to, control the measures that eliminate typhoid fever as a nas problem, but the supervision of the individual water and milk supply and the development and maintenance of environmental sanitation on properties in rural or near rural areas do not lend themselves to those wholesale procedures.

"Despite a continued effort of years on the part of state and county health officials to have rural premises supplied with protected water and milk supplies and with a sanitary pit privy, or other approved measures of sewage disposal, there literally are thousands of homes in rural Virginia yet lacking these essential safeguards. This defencelessness is the basic factor behind the occasional outbreaks in small communities, as well as the isolated case which together, still reflect a definite typhoid menace.

"The individual householder in rural and semi-rural communities must realize that for those whose water supply is inadequately protected whose milk supply is unsafe, whose sewage disposal is faulty, and whose home is unscreened, typhoid fever can and does appear with its associated critical illnesses and sometimes fatal termination.

"The county health departments, and personnel of the State Health Department in sections lacking local health service, upon request, gladly will advise on problems of environtal sanitation. Until a greater interest in the prevention of typhoid fever is shown by the sanitary measures generally employed by those living in country districts, typhoid fever will continue needlessly to harm and kill."

BAKING FIRM AIDS DEFENSE

Route Salesmen Will Receive Defense Stamps For Cooperation

Uncle Sam will be the winner in more ways than one in a new Defense Stamp Contest which the Lee Baking Company has announced for its route salesmen. This contest will be run in connection with the company's fall advertising campaign which contemplates the use of greater newspaper space than has been used in any similar period to date.

Every red blooded American is being asked by his country to do his bit—to buy Defense Savings Stamps and Bonds to help pay for the weapons that will insure our free American way of living. Millions of patriotic Americans throughout our great country are rallying behind their government in this important movement. The Lee Baking Company, as a company, steps in stride with this parade, through the medium of this unique and timely contest.

To start off the contest, every route salesman will be given a book containing one dollar's worth of Defense Savings Stamps. He is then rewarded in a number of ways for effecting economies in connection with his job. For example, C. M. McMullan, manager of the Lee Baking Company, believes there are many ways in which his route men can cut gasoline consumption in accordance with the request of the Federal Oil Administrator. Mr. McMullan believes gasoline consumption can be cut by his men without impairing their selling ability or service to their customers and he proposes to reward every man who cooperates with the government in cutting down gasoline consumption as follows:

For every dollar's worth gasoline a route salesman conserves while operating his route during the ten weeks contest, he will receive a Defense Savings Stamp for his album.

There will also be rewards for safe driving. The route salesmen of the Lee Baking Company as a group already enjoy a remarkably fine safety record and as a special extra reward for keeping up this fine work every route man will receive additional stamps for keeping his record clean during the contest.

Additional Savings Stamps will be awarded for increased sales.

At the end of the contest there will be a very substantial reward in the shape of U. S. Defense Bonds for the high man of the plant.

It is Mr. McMullan's belief that the equivalent of many U. S. Defense Bonds will find their way into the hands of his salesmen through this contest, and they and their families will be encouraged to extend their savings for defense.

HOW WOMEN CAN HELP

The Red Cross always has depended on local volunteers to carry on its humanitarian work, and has trained millions of women to be ready for emergencies in their own communities.

Now, when the national defense crisis brings to light an acute shortage of trained nurses, the Red Cross is once again on the job. Cooperating with the Office of Civilian Defense, this great national organization has undertaken to train 100,000 women for immediate service as volunteer nurse's aides.

The situation is serious. Nursing facilities of civilian hospitals and health agencies are strained. Should a great emergency or wide epidemic come, it might not be possible to find enough trained nurses to meet the situation.

Our strength in the uncertain months and years ahead can be directly measured by the steps of preparedness we take today. If we are to be adequately prepared we must recognize and act accordingly in mobilizing and training women to do those things for which they are best suited. Out of the training of 100,000 women as Nurse's Aides will come a trained corps of laywomen conscious of the problems and responsibilities of the nurse, and with a quickened interest in community work.

As a long range measure, an appeal has been issued to all young women considering entering the nursing profession to enroll at once as student nurses and Congress has made an appropriation to facilitate their training.

The Red Cross Nurse's Aide Corps, on the other hand, is entirely voluntary. After being trained for their duties, women who can give several hours of their time every week without pay will be asked to serve as assistants to graduate nurses in all kinds of community health services. The work they can do will release the sorely pressed professional women for more technical duties.
