ARMISTICE DAY PLANS ANNOUNCED

Business Houses will Close During Ceremony

Further plans for the gigantic Armistice Day celebration just completed by the American Legion committee in charge of the affair now include an almost unanimous consent by the merchants to close all business houses and offices from 10:15 a. m. until 11:30 a. m. so that owners, managers and all employees can attend the services. The school will also close and attend in a body.

It is also planned that the fire siren "sound off" at 10:15 announcing the event so that everyone in town and vicinity will be reminded and can get to the High School athletic field for the start of the exercises at 10:30 prompt. In case of inclement weather the complete program will be in the high school auditorium. It has also been learned that Mayor Harry Davis will not be able to attend and Town Councilman O. D. Waters has been delegated to make the address of welcome.

Manager Tiffany advises that all flag sockets will be in place this week and all persons who have received flags are asked to place them on the street as early as possible on Armistice day. When the exercises start, a group of boys from the Vocational School will pick up all flags and march with them to the assembly point and after the dedication will march back and again place them in the proper places.

ANNUAL HOME ACHIEVEMENT DAY OF H. D. CLUBS

225 homemakers of Prince William County attended the Homemaker's Achievement Day at Manassas Wednesday which featured Home Demonstration Club, Farm Security and Vocational Home Economics accomplishments during 1941 and Miss Ella Gardner, Recreation Specialist, U. S. D. A.

Mrs. Higgs Lewis, Chairman of the county Home Demonstration Club Committee, presided over the program and in her address challenged the group with the purposes of Achievement Day and the important place homemakers have in our national defense.

Mrs. C. T. Marshall, Homemaker Board Chairman led the panel on Homemaker's Achievements during 1941. Those taking part in the panel were Miss Virginia Weber, Manassas Vocational Home Economics, Mrs. Jesse Horn, Aden H. D. C., Miss Ester Dickens, Bristow H. D. C., Mrs. Paul Kercheffer, Dumfries H. D. C., Mrs. V. A. Hopkins, Greenwich H. D. C., Mrs. C. O. Polen, Hickory Grove H. D. C., Mrs. W. E. Lloyd, Manassas H. D. C., Mrs. R. Champion, Sudley Road H. D. C., Mrs. Arthur Vetter, Wellington, H. D. C., and Mrs. W. R. Burdette, Woodbridge H. D. C.

Dumfries H. D. C. Chorus furnished Special Music under the leadership of Mrs. C. T. Ennis, the chorus director. This club chorus during winter months sponsors weekly sings. Special numbers for the program included "Beautiful Dreamer" and "A Southern Melody."

Following a lovely lunch served by the Home Demonstration Clubs with Mrs. P. A. Lewis and Mrs. W. R. Wood as co-Chairmen, Madam Jolly-maker (Miss Ella Gardner) used her magic charm to loosen the vocal cords and joints of the entire group with songs, games, and stunts.

Home Demonstration Club members and children under the directorship of Mrs. A. W. Ballentine, Mrs. O. D. Waters, Mrs. Marie Barrett and Mrs. Goldie Brawner, staged a lovely Dress Revue, by modeling garments made during the year at Club dress and Coat Schools. Mrs. E. W. Thompson as commentator, pointed out the good points of each model, with the cost, value and savings of each.

The special feature of the day was saved until last. Miss Ella Gardner, Recreation Specialist and Social Economist, with the U. S. D. A., Washington, D. C. with her charm and wit spoke on "The Hows and Whys of Family Fun."

"Since the pace for family fun is set by the homemaker" stated Miss Gardner, "It is essential that you have dual personalities—be resourceful and be able to enjoy doing things for fun. Use common sense in choosing your recreation, know your limitations. One's mental attitude affects family fun. In the morning when you awake, don't gripe, stretch and think of all the good things in this world we live in! 'What do you worry about? Worry is a complete circle. What can you do about things you worry about?'"

"Can you make others happy in your home?" "What are you interested in? What do you collect? What is your hobby? Do you collect pitchers and then worry about dusting them or do you fill your mental scrap book with lovely pictures you have seen or do you like to make apple pie?"

"For happy years ahead begin now," stated Miss Gardner, "to store up remembrances, experiences, and abilities for future living."

"Have a place in every home for fun at one time or another. What does your family enjoy together? What family fun do you remember from your childhood? Indoors this winter, sing with your husband and children, sing the book through, sing with thievers from Riverton daily to farms of the county."

VIRGINIA STEPS AHEAD (Editorial)

Tuesday's election brings assurance that Virginia is going ahead with confidence in this time of national peril, with assurance that the existing emergency will not be greatly used in the Old Dominion to advance socialistic experiments.

The left-wing of Democracy receded still further into the back ground as a result of Tuesday's expression at the polls. Our New Dealish governor will shortly retire after a colorless administration of inaction, and a strong conservative Democrat will take the reins of State government.

Hon. E. R. Connor was re-elected to the House of Delegates without opposition, Prince William and Stafford have a safe, patriotic and energetic representative, and the Delegates from adjoining counties seem similarly satisfying.

DUMFRIES COURT HOUSE MARKED

History Of Third County Seat Will Be Reviewed At Ceremonies On Tuesday

The historical committee, of which Mrs. Mada Hibbs is chairman, will bring its work to a culmination when the third county house will be marked by an appropriate ceremony on Tuesday afternoon.

Through the courtesy of Congressman Smith, General Little has kindly consented to allow the Marine Band to play on this occasion. Hawes T. Davies, Sr., will preside over the ceremonies.

Beginning at 1 P. M. in the auditorium of the school, there will be a pageant by the school children.

Next there will be the addresses by Judge Smith, Hon. Charles Callahan, of Alexandria, and a native of Dumfries, and also Hon. Wade Ellis of Rippon Lodge, both of whom are noted historiographers.

During the exercises, the Glee Club of Occoquan will sing and the Marine Band will play a number of appropriate patriotic airs.

The marker itself constructed by M. J. Hottle, of Manassas, will be unveiled immediately following the speaking. The location is about a hundred yards or so from the school.

PRINCE WILLIAM FARMERS LEAD IN USE OF LIME

A recent report issued by the State AAA Office at Blacksburg showed that Prince William led all counties of Virginia in the number of farmers taking their full farm allowances in ground limestone or 20 percent Superphosphate during the 1941 Agricultural Conservation Program year. 337 farmers participating in the program during the past fiscal year received their full farm allowances in these soil building materials in lieu of cash payments.

Ground limestone was obtained through the 1941 conservation program by six hundred and twenty-four farmers and Superphosphate furnished under the program was used on pasture and grassland by two hundred and forty-eight farmers.

Through use of both day and night trucking shifts, from 10 to 200 tons of ground limestone is now being delivered from Riverton daily to farms of the county.

HALLOWEEN FETE DELIGHTS CROWDS

Kiwanis Sponsored Affair Success Despite Inclement Night

Rainy skies and slippery streets did not deter dozens of grotesquely arrayed youngsters last Friday evening and squads of them were organizing their own parades well before the appointed hour.

Band music and the street parade were ruled out by old Jupiter Pluvius. However, a number of beautiful floats had to blush unseen in their respective garages while the ensemble of young and old trooped to the high school where the royal court held forth.

The auditorium was literally jammed with contestants and their admiring friends. The leading asset of this part of the festivities the Santa Claus bagful of beautiful prizes gathered by G. R. Ratcliffe and his committee.

Previously an election had been held and results kept a great secret by Prof. Pters, principal of Manassas Schools. The unveiling revealed two handsome young rulers and their beautiful queens from the respective schools. From Bennett were Prince John Champion and Princess Catherine Graham while the high school had for its royalty Queen Mary Mason Davis and King Wallace Bolding.

The carnival committee had selected for the officials in the crowning, Mayor Harry Davis to crown the king and queen from the high school, while Councilman O. D. Waters crowned the prince and princess from Bennett.

Their majesties from the high school had as their court Misses Betty Thomas, Frances Brower, Dorothy Lawson and Bettie Parrish and Messrs. Hampton Alvey, Edward Jasper, Frank Parrish and Tomyns Monaghan.

The court for the prince and princess were Challice Haydon, Bonnie Lynn, Martha Ann Graham, Fleur Peters, Anna Warren Coleman, Teddy Peters, Robert Parker, Jackie Martin, Orrin Kline and Widdie Merchant.

The prizes were awarded for the most original costume, the most comical, the best child's, the best period costume, and the best girl's costume. Judges for this were: Mrs. Dennis Baker, Mrs. Jenkins Davies, Mrs. Stewart Slaybaugh, and Messrs W. L. Lloyd and Carl S. Berryman.

With all of the myriad of colors and caprices, this was surely a hard job. Mr. Dudley Martin, in his best cavalier style, acted as master of ceremonies while Dr. George B. Cocke, brought forward the groups and individuals to the judging platform which was the stage of the auditorium. Nearly a hundred prizes were handed out. In fact, so many that it was impossible to keep track of them. Everyone was pleased and happy and that was what counted for most.

As an added feature, the youngsters journeyed over to the gymnasium where games and dancing were enjoyed to a late hour. Refreshments were composed mostly of cider and doughnuts, fit for a king to eat and quite apropos of the season being observed. Messrs Herbert Saunders and Edward Sinar supervised the games.

It was a happy thought that the Kiwanis club put forth and the instant response showed what a wholesome evening could come from a properly arranged celebration. It is hoped that this will become an institution of the town in the future.

I Like This Book

views by students of Osbourn

sion 1941-42 in competition
for the W. C. Wagener Memorial Prize.

"THE FAMILY"

"The Family" was written by Nina Fedorova, and her story is one of the life of a Russian refugee family that moved for safety to the British concession in Tientsin, China. The author is one of the more recent novelists,
and her book was published in September 1940, by Little, Brown and Company at Boston. It is a story of modern times, and it tells of the lives of refugees, not only from Russia but also from countries such as Germany
from which the Jews fled.

The story of "The Family" is quite interesting, for it tells of the real conditions many refugees must endure.
They were people without and they were treated with little respect.

The members of this "family" were descendants of a one time rich aristocratic family of Russia, but they were exiled and became just one of the poor refugee families on the concession. "The Family" lived in a boarding house of which Tania, the mother, had charge. She did this as a means of livelihood not only for herself but also for her mother, her daughter,

Lida, and her two nephews, Peter and Dima. The fathers of Peter and Dima had been killed in Russia, and Tania's husband was still somewhere in that country.

The breaking out of the hostilities between Japan and China and the effect that the struggle had upon the refugees form one of the main points of action in the story. There were five Japanese and several Chinese people living in the boarding house and, when hostilities broke out, they were no longer friends but became spies upon one another. The members of "The Family" were inclined to help
the Chinese, for it was in their country that they had found refuge. Peter joined the Chinese forces to protect Tientsin, but the Japanese succeeded in capturing it.

How does the Japanese occupation of Tientsin affect "the family"? Nina Fedorova will tell you if you read
"The Family."

The book was interesting in that it held your interest and gave you vivid descriptions of places and scenes important to the story. The situations at that time are like those in many countries today, and makes you realize how lucky we are to be Americans.

This book may be borrowed from the Ruffner Carnegie Library.

Her many friends are hoping for her speedy recovery to health and ington where they will spend the

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wesley Gibbons in Arlington.

Mrs. Emory Carter of Arlington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W.
Smith was quite ill last week of a throat infection but is now improved.

The members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Sudley Church desire to thank the public in general for their kind cooperation which made our recent annual Bazaar and Turkey and Oyster Supper such a success. This annual occurrence is one of Sudley's happiest days when we can welcome all of our old friends who came and dine with us.

Mrs. William S. Brower and young son, Billy, Mrs. Sara Caton and Mr.
Chas. F. Caton narrowly escaped very serious injury last Friday night when Mrs. Brower's car in which they were riding, was struck from the rear
by a large truck which was passing through Haymarket. The car was completely wrecked while all the occupants miraculously escaped with only bruises and shaken nerves and muscles. Mrs. Brower, who was struck in the chest by the steering wheel, has gone to Washington today (Tuesday) for an x-ray.

Friends of Dr. Charles Ford Brower will regret to know that he is quite sick at his home near Catharpin.
However, his condition seems improved at this writing.

send their names at once."

The clergyman, who was somewhat deaf, supposing the clerk was giving the notice requested by him, rose and said: "And for the benefit of those who haven't any, they may be obtained from me any day between three and four o'clock; the ordinary ones at fifteen cents, and the special ones with red backs at twenty-five cents each."

SPECIAL PREPARATIONS MADE FOR BEGINNING OF RED CROSS ROLL CALL

The annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross will be launched November 11 over the combined networks of the three major broadcasting systems when the chairman of the Red Cross joins with national defense leaders, political commentators and personalities of stage, screen and radio in voicing one of the most impressive appeal for membership ever undertaken.

The broadcast will be carried by NBC, CBS, between 10 and 11 p. m., E.S.T.

Vice-President Henry A. Wallace, speaking for President Roosevelt, will urge the united support of the nation to enable the Red Cross to obtain a membership comparable to the days of the first World War.

The program will be keynoted by Chairman Norman H. Davis, of the Red Cross, who will address the nation at large and the army of more than 1,000,000 Red Cross volunteers participating in the campaign. Secretary of War Stimson and Secretary of Navy Knox will salute the Red Cross for its current services to the armed forces of the nation. Associate OPM Director Sidney Hillman will sound the importance of Red Cross First Aid in conserving manpower in the defense industries.

Edwin C. Hill and Gabriel Heater, nationally-known news commentators, will describe the part being taken by the Red Cross in the present world emergency. Heater will act as master of ceremonies.

Highlighting the entertainment features of the broadcast will be a new song, written and dedicated to the Red Cross by Irving Berlin. It will be sung by Lucille Manners and Ross Graham, supported by a symphony orchestra and chorus under the direction of Albert Wallenstein. Fred Waring and his band will also do their version of the Berlin number.

With the microphone picking up various points of the nation, listeners will be taken to dedication ceremonies of Red Cross hospital recreation building at Fort Monmouth, N. J., hear the description of Red Cross welfare work typified at the U. S. Naval Base at San Diego, Calif., and will be taken to the scene of Red Cross first-aid work with the night shift of a St. Louis munitions plant.

These are small words but they are large in their application to happiness and security.

Mr. Elwood Sullivan got hurt while working at Fort Belvoir.

DEMOCRATS WIN
USUAL VICTORY

Republicans Gain Their Only Seat In Fairfax.

Colgate W. Darden, Jr. was swept into the Governorship of Virginia by an overwhelming majority of from four or five to one, in an election which scarcely caused a ripple through out the State. State Senator William Tuck, of South Boston, likewise becomes Lieutenant-Governor and A. P. Staples was re-elected Attorney-General of Virginia.

Fairfax County, where a keen scrap for Delegate culminated in victory for Col. Richard R. Farr, Republican candidate for Delegate to the General Assembly, over the Democratic incumbent, Francis Pickens Miller.

Fairfax County furnished a notable exception to the State-wide political calm. Here a bitter fight was waged over the office of Delegate to the General Assembly. Francis Pickens Miller, seeking re-election for his third term as Democratic nominee, was defeated by the Republican candidate, Col. Richard R. Farr, who came to within 78 votes of victory two years ago, and this time, while actually receiving no larger total vote, smashed his way through to victory with a margin of 189 votes. The totals were: Farr 1,588, Miller 1,300. The State candidates won by around 1800.

In Arlington, Hon. Charles C. Fenwick won over his Republican opponent for Delegate by the usual Democratic margin. The totals were Fenwick 2,245; Clay 557.

In Arlington, for the County Board DeLashmott won over Ayres by a vote of 2,199 to 598.

In Prince William, Hon. E. R. Conner had no opposition for re-election as Delegate to the General Assembly from Prince William and Stafford.

radio, have members of your family play instruments with the radio, such as, keeping time with a band by using a baking powder can with rocks, let your husband play the radiator with his can, or play the washboard.

"Last of all, plan a place for each member of the family to keep his or her valuables (remember yours when you were 10 years old) and seek seclusion at times."

An exhibit on the sources of vitamins in planning a well balanced diet as a second line of defense was put up by the County Nutrition Committee. Farm Security Administration had a most interesting exhibit on "Uses of Whole Wheat as a source of Vitamin B" and Manassas Home Economies featured posters on Nutrition and aprons made by the first year class. Independent Hill Home Demonstration Club (less than one month old) featured an exhibit of American Cheese, canned Sandwich spreads and corn-shuck mats made by members of their group to date.
