JUDGE H. W. SMITH EXPLAINS BILL

Declares Racketeering And Lawlessness Is Rampant In Certain Unions

Honorable Howard Worth Smith, Representative of the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia, went on the air Monday evening to discuss the racketeering which is going on in labor unions and to explain the provisions of the legislation he is pushing to correct these evils.

Confining his discussion to the labor provisions of the Vinson-Smith Bill, Judge Smith stated that the measure is designed to suspend the 40 hour week and to freeze the "closed shop" for the duration of the war. He called attention to the fact that such restrictions in these regards as now apply will largely end on June 30 and that unless such measures as he and Representative Vinson now propose are enacted we will be right back where we were.

"Let's look the situation in the face," the Judge explained, "The Navy Department in the hearings on this bill estimated that the overtime payments alone on the naval construction program already authorized would amount to four billion dollars—paid by the American taxpayer. This $4,000,000,000.00 is equivalent to the pay of 5,000,000 soldiers at $21 a month for over three years and is just overtime on naval construction alone."

"Now why did we have the 40-hour week at all? It was enacted for the express purpose of spreading work during the depression. The requirement of overtime pay was solely for the purpose of penalizing the employer and thus induce him to spread employment. Today the United States Government is the employer. That means that you and I and every other taxpayer is being required to pay a ridiculous and stupendous penalty to remedy a condition of unemployment that no longer exists."

"Why," Judge Smith argued with his millions of interested listeners, "should the whole of the American people, engaged in the all-out effort to preserve their Nation, be thus penalized in order to preserve the so-called social gains of an organized minority? Why should we cling tenaciously to laws designed to retard production when our very existence depends upon our capacity for all-out production?"

"Now about the closed shop. I maintain that it is a fundamental principle of American liberty that no free American citizen should be compelled to either join or refrain from adjoining a labor union as a condition to his right to work and earn a living. This right is as basic as the right to breathe God's pure air. The closed shop, the union shop and maintenance of the union shop, all challenge and deny the right of free men to work without paying tribute."

"The right to work is the one fundamental and inherent right of a free people that no government, no court and no custom has ever challenged in all the history of mankind up until the present generation."

"These union super-governments set up their offices at the gates of defense plants. They have brazenly decreed that no man could work in defense industries where the closed shop existed without whatever tribute the Union wanted to demand. Even the country boy who applies for work as a common laborer on a defense contract must pay whatever tribute is demanded as a condition of employment by the labor union that sets itself up as greater than the Government which cravenly tolerates it."

LOCAL BUSINESS MEN SUPPORT BALL CLUB

The local business men of Manassas have by their liberal contributions insured Manassas of a baseball team for the 1942 season. Their whole-hearted support will endeavor the local boys to put a team on the field for the baseball season. Without their donations, it is doubtful whether Manassas could have placed a team fully equipped to start the season. The following merchants made donations:

Hibbs and Giddings, E. E. Rohr, Battle Street Lunch-Davis and Patie, Prince William Bakery, C. E. Fisher and Son, Western Auto Co., Manassas Ice and Fuel Co and Brown and Hooff.

GARDEN CLUB MEETING

The Manassas Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. A. A. Maloney on Tuesday, April 8 at 2:30 P.M.

IMPORTANT CIVILIAN DEFENSE ANNOUNCEMENTS

The local civilian defense office announces the appointment of Mr. Robert S. Hall as deputy-co-ordinator for the town of Occoquan and vicinity. Mr. Hall has designated air raid wardens, auxiliary police and auxiliary firemen and the necessary training has been completed.

A class for the training of air raid wardens, auxiliary police, messengers, etc. will begin on Monday, May 4th at 8:00 P. M. in the Town Hall of Manassas. This course consists of 10 hours first aid hours training in fire defense or control of incendiary bombs, 5 hours of gas defense, 2 hours which consist of training in the use and care of gas masks and hours identification of and protection against gases and 5 hours general course which is instruction pertaining to the different branches of civilian defense. This course of training is very interesting and instructive and it is hoped that everyone who can will avail themselves of the opportunity of being prepared to assist in civilian defense work.

WILL VOTE ON WHEAT QUOTAS

PRINCE WILLIAM WHEAT GROWERS TO VOTE ON MARKETING QUOTAS ON MAY 2ND. POLLING PLACES AT MANASSAS, NOKESVILLE AND HAYMARKET

Prince William farmers who are this year growing fifteen acres or more of wheat will vote Saturday, May 2, on the question of whether or not they wish wheat marketing quotas to be in effect on this year's crop. Polling places for this referendum will be kept open from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. on May 2nd at the Haymarket Masonic Hall, the Nokesville High School and the County Agents office at Manassas. Eligible wheat producers of Gauleyville District will vote at the Haymarket Masonic Hall, those in Brentsville District at the Nokesville High School and growers of Manassas, Occoquan, Coles and Dumfries Districts at Manassas. Only growers who will be affected by quotas are eligible to vote.

If wheat marketing quotas are again adopted by a vote of 75 per cent of all U. S. growers balloting in the National Referendum on May 2, any farmer who has seeded within his wheat acreage allotment may market all of his wheat without penalty but if he has overseeded his allotment there will be a penalty on the wheat on the excess acreage. The penalty will be 50 per cent of the basic loan rate set up for the 1942 crop, should quotas be adopted.

Arguments advanced in favor of wheat marketing quotas include:

1. Without marketing quotas to control excess surplus production, no loans can be made available.
2. Without quotas, there is no systematic control over excess surpluses.
3. This is War—Winning war is first job. Farmers do not have time to produce things not needed. Tremendous reserves of wheat—more than will be needed are on hand. Enough is in sight for two full years.
4. Producing excess wheat wastes time, man power, machinery, soil and fertilizer—all of which are needed to produce other commodities essential for food and feed for victory.
5. Wheat storage space crowded—needed for other things. Flood of excess wheat can dangerously tie up transportation.

All eligible farmers (those producing fifteen acres or more of wheat and that will be affected by quotas) are urged to turn out and vote either for or against quotas as they see fit at their designated polling places on Saturday, May 2.

WAR SAVINGS COMMITTEES NOW THE OFFICIAL NAME

Mr. G. Raymond Ratcliffe has been advised from the Treasury Department in Washington that by order of the Secretary of the Treasury, effective immediately, the name of the Defense Savings Staff is changed to WAR SAVINGS STAFF.

The name of all local and State committees is automatically changed from "Defense" to "War" Savings Committees, but Mr. C. H. Edwards, Deputy State Administrator for Virginia states that the supply of stationery and advertising material on hand will be exhausted before new material is made available carrying the new name.

FELLOW AMERICANS WHAT DO YOU IMAGINE THE FRENCH PEOPLE ARE THINKING ABOUT TODAY?

Two years ago the French People were as free as you are. Today what do they think?

- as they humbly step into the gutter to let their conquerors swagger past,
- as they work 53 hours a week for 30 hour's pay,
- as they see all trade unions outlawed and all the rights for which they sacrificed their country trampled by their foreign masters,
- as they see their families go hungry and face a lifetime of serfdom.

What do those Frenchmen—soldiers, workmen, politicians or business men—think today?

Probably it's something like this—

- I wish I had been less greedy for myself and more anxious for my country;
- I wish I had realized you can't beat off a determined invader by a quarreling, disunited people at home;

I wish I had been willing to give in on some of my rights to other Frenchmen instead of giving up all of them to a foreigner;

- I wish I had realized other Frenchmen had rights, too;
- I wish I had known that patriotism is work, not talk, giving, not getting.

And if those Frenchmen could read our newspapers today, showing pressure groups each demanding things be done for them instead of for their country, wouldn't they say to American business men, politicians, soldiers and workmen—

- If you knew the horrible penalty your action is bound to bring, you'd bury your differences now before they bury you; you'd work for your country as you never worked before, and wait for your private ambitions until your country is safe.

—Look at me — "I worked too little and too late."

Harry P. Davis,
Mayor of Manassas

land. Tuesday afternoon, Christian Education among children in a world at war" by Miss Elizabeth A. Jarrett; Church schools" by Mrs. T. G. Bets-chler; "After vacation school, what?"

by Miss Margaret Seavers, and also on the same afternoon, "Training of our ministers" by Dr. H. H. Sherman.

program of lay activities, including talks by H. A. Hitch district lay reader; George Young, Dr. George Reamey, Rev. Jno W. Newman, Rev.
G. I. McAllen, Rev. Herman Wilson,

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"He that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved." These words from Matthew 24:13 comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday, April 26, in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Probation After Death." Included among the Scriptural selections will be "Behold, I shew you a mystery:
We shall not all sleep, but we shall be changed. In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed" (I Cor. 15: 51, 52).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "We know that all will be changed in the twinkling of an eye, when the last trump shall sound; but this last call of wisdom cannot come till mortals have already yielded to each lesser call in the growth of Christian character. Mortals need not fancy that belief in the experience of death will awaken them to glorified being" (p. 291).

Bryant, Annie. A tribute of love and devotion to our dear mother,
Annie Bryant, who left us April 4, 1941.

Her work here has been finished:
Her heavenly crown she's won
She waits to greet each one of us
At the setting sun.

God knows how much we miss her:
He counts the tears we have shed
And whispers, "Hush, she only sleeps:
Your mother is not dead"
By her loving and lonely daughters.

SERVE YOUR COUNTRY IN YOUR TRADE

Men between 17 and 50 can serve their country in their trades by joining a Construction Regiment of the U. S. Naval Service. Qualified men are immediately rated as petty officers with good pay, at a steadily increasing rate, liberal allowances in many cases for your family and vital service to your country in your own line of work. Experts in many construction trades are urgently needed. So concrete workers, drillers, machinists, electricians, pipefitters, tractor operators and men trained in many other construction trades are urged to contact their Navy Recruiting Station which is open in the Post Office building at Manassas on Thursday of each week.

WAR-TIME YACHTING FOR UNCLE SAM

Yachtmen will take to their boats this season fully aware it's a new role they are playing in the sport and the war effort. Some 25 or 30 former pleasure craft that once cruised favorite Potomac River and Chesapeake Bay rendezvous are now in operation with the Potomac Naval Command and under direct command of Coast Guard. How these and other pleasure boats flying the flag and pennant of the Coast Guard on 24 hour duty are guarding vital military reservations and bridges and otherwise aiding the cause of war is described in an illustrated feature article appearing next Sunday in the Washington Sunday Star.

WHEN THE BOYS

COME BACK

Hon. Howard Smith, speaking on a nation-wide radio program Monday night, brought to attention of the American people an aspect of the labor situation which has not heretofore been sufficiently appreciated.

The Judge told us a lot of undeniable and disquieting facts about the "super-government" which organized labor is attempting to establish, but particularly his revelation on the probable situation which will confront the returning soldiers and sailors is enough to make every patriotic citizen stop and do some thinking.

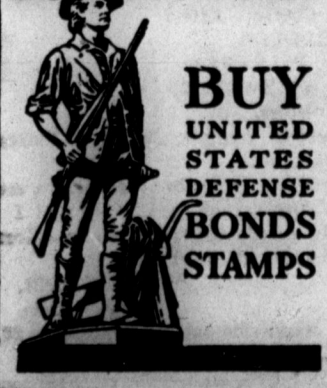

After the war, even if we win, work will be slack. Unemployment will probably be even more prevalent than during any previous depression.

Under the closed shop which organized labor is apparently attempting to fasten upon the entire industrial system of the nation, the factory door will be slammed in the face of the returning hero. With organized labor itself confronted with unemployment in its own ranks, there will be no place at all under closed shop rules for the fighting men when they get back.

As we listened Monday night to the calm and moderate address by Howard Smith we pictured again our distinguished and beloved Judge, delivering a charge to a jury this time the jury being the American people. The case has been pretty well closed. The people have the facts. It is now up to the fathers and mothers, the sisters and brothers, of the fighting men of the nation, to decide whether organized labor shall be permitted in effect to say:

"Organized labor will win this war. The fighting men who do not die in this glorious contest can starve to death when they get home. Unionism must survive!"

AUTOMOBILE SEIZURE

Senator Downey, of California, has introduced a bill which would permit the government to seize any private automobile. Under its terms the owner could accept a payment of 50 per cent of the price offered, if he is not satisfied, and could appeal to the Court of Claims for the balance.

There is as yet no indication as to how Congress will react to the Downey proposal, but advocates of the measure point out that of the present 30 million automobiles in service, not more than 10 million can be kept going.

Officials of the Office of Price Administration are quoted as saying that they have not had anything to do with the introduction of this bill, but regard it as a practical measure. Senator Downey is quoted in the Congressional record as stating that ten million cars should be removed from the roads and placed in a vast pool to meet a serious transportation crisis we can expect within a year or so.

Senator Downey insists that two-car families should turn their extra machines over to the government and persons who live within two or three miles of their work should walk.

All these discussions and proposals, whether justifiable or not, certainly indicate that we do have a very critical national problem just around the corner with respect to private automobile transportation and that every citizen, right now, should follow every practical suggestion made in the interest of conservation of tire rubber and gasoline.

SERIOUSNESS OF TIRE THEFT

Hon. Leon M. Bazile, Judge of the Circuit Court of Stafford County, declared from his bench in Fredericksburg this week that the theft of automobiles and of automobile tires was one of the worst law violations possible at this time when both were being rationed.

Judge Bazile made this statement as he imposed sentence of five years upon a young man found guilty of such conduct. Two younger boys received suspended sentences with the admonition from the Judge that he could think of no better punishment, if the law allowed, than to have 30 lashings on their bare backs.

No doubt there will be local cases where similar offenders will plead youth as an extenuating circumstance, but they should realize the gravity of such an offense in this time of war.

ACCEPTING NEW POSITION

Mrs. Fred Troemmler, formerly Miss Letha Foster, who has been employed for a couple years in the local Health Department, has accepted a position with the Pennsylvania Central Airlines, and will be stationed at the National Airport, Washington, D. C. She will begin her new work on May 1, 1942.

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

The Postmaster General, acting under advice from the Attorney General has barred the mails to the magazine "Social Justice," which was established by Father Coughlin.

There will be loud lamentations about the "freedom of the press," but we do not think the suppression of a subversive publication by refusing its use of mailing facilities in any way violates that Constitutional guarantee. This magazine has not been suppressed. The government of the United States has only refused to help circulate its Fifth Column propaganda. It can continue to print its "defeatist" agitation and to advocate "appeasement at any cost." It can go right on printing what seems to be the official line of Nazi propaganda.

The United States has only said, "We will not carry your poison around the country." It is believed that there are about a hundred other publications in the country which are likely to also be denied the mails, and very properly.

Many of these subversive publications follow the official line of propaganda so closely that they may well be suspected of being inspired and financed by the enemy. They should be investigated by grand juries. We are at war now and our gallant fighting men are making the supreme sacrifice on many fronts. It is, therefore, no time to quibble about Constitutional guarantees of free speech.

We have jails, and if necessary firing squads, for those in America who collaborate directly with the enemy. Eventually we will have to use some of these stern restraints. Possibly the sooner the better.

WOMAN'S CLUB JOINS WAR SAVINGS CAMPAIGN

The Manassas Woman's Club has joined the effort now being made by The American Legion, The Legion Auxiliary and the Junior Woman's Club in the house to house canvass for pledges to purchase War Savings Bonds.

One word that can win (or lose) the war!

WHEN YOU ADD it all up . . . When you cut through the fog . . . One word is going to win this war or lose it.

That one word is . . .

IF.

We're going to win this war . . . If we spit on our hands. If we work till it hurts. If we SWEAT instead of perspire.

If we roll out far more guns—far more tanks—far more ships—far more planes.

And if we don't forget for a minute that guns and tanks and ships and planes cannot pay for themselves!

If we remember it takes money. Lots of it. The Government is asking us to lend it. Not just our spare cash. But every blessed dollar we can afford.

The Government wants us to buy Stamps and Bonds with it. And still more Stamps and Bonds.

Let's not make the fatal mistake of sitting back and letting the other fellow do it. Let's do it now. Everybody. You. Me. Us. All. Start now buying Stamps and Bonds every pay day.

Show the man behind the gun, the man on the sea, the man in the air, that you're going to see this thing through—and see it through NOW.

Remember, you can start buying Bonds by buying Stamps for as little as 10 cents and that you get a $25.00 (maturity value) Bond (Series E) for only $18.75.

TELEPHONE MAN CITED FOR HEROISM

GEORGE R. PAYNE

George Randolph Payne, Middleburg, Va., combinationman in the plant department of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia, has been awarded a bronze Vail medal in recognition of the courage and presence of mind he displayed in recruiting a fellow employee after a severe electric shock on July 2, 1941.

According to an announcement by R. C. McCann, vice president and general manager of the company, Aldrich Dudley, Jr., manager of the Middleburg office and Payne were engaged in stringing wires on a pole line.

Having pulled the wires out and supported them on brackets, Dudley ascended the pole on which the wires were to be terminated. Payne attached a hand line to one of the wires, and while standing a short distance from the pole on which Dudley was located, began pulling the wire up to enable Dudley to terminate it. Dudley's position was about thirty feet above the ground.

Dudley grasped the wire with his left hand preparatory to terminating it, he received an electric shock which rendered him unconscious. Payne looked up and saw Dudley hanging on the pole supported by his safety strap which had caught on the bracket. He released the hand line immediately and hurriedly ascended the pole. With calmness and courage he placed Dudley's limp body on his shoulder and with great effort descended the pole. Noting that Dudley was still breathing, Payne promptly placed him under a shade tree and ran to a nearby telephone to summon a doctor. When he returned Dudley had regained consciousness and was sitting in a rather dazed condition. A few minutes later he took him to the Medical Center in Middleburg where his condition was found to be satisfactory except for burns on all the fingers of his left hand and upper lip.

The Vail medal awards are made annually, and are provided by a fund established as a memorial to Theodore N. Vail, former president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. Under the terms of the establishment medals are awarded to telephone employees for acts of service which conspicuously illustrate Mr. Vail's ideals in public service.

Considerable discussion was entered into, and Mr. Cloe appointed a committee composed of Dr. George B. Cocke, C. W. Alpaugh, E. R. Conner and Professor R. C. Haydon to assist the citizens committee to formulate ways and means as rapidly as possible.

WHEAT! WHEAT! EVERYWHERE:
PLENTY FOR ALL TO EAT.

Water is a necessity, but a deluge of it can be a serious menace. So it is with wheat. Bread is the staff of life, but too much wheat at one time presents an aggravating problem. That problem faces American farmers today with an indicated 1,331,000,000-bushel total supply on July 1, which is about 92,000,000 bushels greater than the supply the same date in 1941. Huge supplies greatly affect the price, say U. S. Department of Agriculture officials. Transportation, storage and production facilities demanded by surplus wheat are needed in the Nation's defense effort. Virginia wheat growers, along with growers in other states, will ballot on May 2 to determine whether regulatory marketing quotas shall be operative on the 1942 crop. SEE LOCAL STORY ON PAGE 1

MORGAN AND OTHERS SCORE IN
STORY OF CAP'N BOB YANCEY

There is the flavor of American tradition and a warm atmosphere of family life in "The Vanishing Virginian," which opens an engagement of two days at the Pitts Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, April 27-28.

The picture is based on the best selling biography by Rebecca Yancey Williams. It closely follows the narrative, with Frank Morgan appearing in the title role as Cap'n Bob Yancey, the author's father. Morgan is completely in command of the fiery, lovable character he impersonates.

The story is without artificiality in plot or treatment. It is merely the account of Cap'n Bob Yancey, for many years of the State's Attorney for the City of Lynchburg, and his remarkable family. The love of home and the lofty ideals fixed by him light the picture as they did the book. The two older daughters enter into their romances with his blessing and he faces triumph and defeat alike with courage and fortitude, but always amusingly.

Morgan plays Cap'n Bob to the life, blustering and lovable at the same time. Spring Byington is completely endearing as his absent-minded but jealous wife, and Kathryn Grayson scores an outstanding success as Rebecca Yancey, the daughter who wants to be a musician but who is forced to study painting because of family tradition.

FIGHTING U-BOATS WITH HELIUM

Big non-rigid airships, more popularly known as "blimps," are rapidly proving to those who have in the past questioned them that they are a military weapon of A-1 worth. They are being used to protect shipping, to sight and attack submarines. The factor today stands out foremost as lighter-than-air sails into a new and brighter dawn. The factor is helium. The story of what this miracle means to modern warfare is told in an illustrated feature article appearing next Sunday in the Washington Sunday Star.

T. B. EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN

NOW UNDER WAY

An intensive effort to make the public conscious of the fact that tuberculosis is most easily cured before symptoms of the disease appear will start in Virginia on April 1 when the Early Diagnosis Campaign of the Virginia Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated county and city organizations opens.

In keeping with expectations, Miss Leslie Combs Foster, executive secretary of the Virginia Tuberculosis Association, said today, the war already has caused an increase in mortality among Virginians from tuberculosis.

According to figures compiled by the State Department of Health, there were 66 more deaths from tuberculosis in Virginia in 1941 than in 1940. In 1940 the number of such deaths reached 1,560 and in 1941 had risen to 1,626. While the increase in mortality among whites was small, advancing from 35.8 to 36.2 per each 100,000 population, the death rate among Negroes leaped from 124.8 to 133.4.

"We anticipated a rise in tuberculosis because of the war," said Miss Foster, but did not expect it would come so soon.

One of the chief aims of the State and local associations in the forthcoming Early Diagnosis Campaign, Miss Foster explained, will be to redouble efforts to give information to the public and increase clinic facilities to help find cases of tuberculosis by means of the X-ray, a procedure which is expected to uncover hitherto unsuspected cases in order that they may be arrested before reaching an advanced stage.

BEAUTIFUL NAVY

POSTERS NOW AVAILABLE

The Navy Editor of the Manassas Journal, Mr. R. D. Wharton, has been advised by Lt. Commander H. G. Chandler, Officer in Charge of Navy Recruiting in Virginia, that a supply of attractive window stickers is available for display by the families of men who are now serving in the United States Navy.

Commander Chandler expressed himself as being pleased that the Navy Department has taken steps to honor the families that have furnished fighting men for the Navy. If an immediate member of your family is serving with the Navy, you are privileged to request a sticker by writing to the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station, Richmond, Va. or by inquiring of Mr. Wharton who will set that your request gets through.

The sticker is red, white, blue, 7 1/2 X 10 inches, and was design by one of America's outstanding artists. White lettering on a blue water background attests to the fact that "There Is A Man from This Family in the Navy."

I Like This Book

One of a series of book reviews by students of Osbourn High School, Manassas—Session 1941-42 in competition for the W. C. Wagoner Memorial Prize.

"I Rode with Stonewall" was written by Henry Douglas and published by the University of North Carolina Press in 1940.

"I Rode with Stonewall" differs from all other biographies on Jackson in that Major Douglas, who prepared the notes for the story, served on the general's staff and brought out many minute details about the great Stonewall. The book takes only Jackson as a man, from the time he took command of the army of the valley until his death on the battlefield near Chancellorsville, Virginia. The book tells stories about many of the other famous fighting men of the Confederacy such as Beauregard, Lee, Stewart, and Ashby, through their associations with Jackson.

Douglas describes the characters so vividly that you can feel the charm of Stewart, the kindness of Lee, and the somberness of Jackson. It gives a clear picture of the sacrifices by the officers and men during the War between the States. Reading about the valiant men who fought and gave their lives for what they thought was right gives us courage to face these perilous times.

The book has a fast moving plot and is written in such a pleasing style that I am sure everyone will enjoy it.

This book may be borrowed from the Ruffner-Carnegie Library.

How to Grow Hogs Bigger and Faster

Meat is a concentrated food and the government wants more of it. One important meat is pork. Prices should hold good for this staple for some time to come. It will pay you to produce more.

Most all farmers grow hogs, but the problem today is to grow them bigger and faster. If you feed them corn alone it will take 11 bushels to make 100 pounds of pork. But a well-balanced open formula like Southern States PIG & HOG FEED is a much more efficient pork builder. It will pay you to lay in a supply of this feed and follow the directions on the tag.

Take good care of farrowing sows for their condition will have an important effect on the next pig crop. The PIG & HOG FEED tag will tell you how to feed the brood sow.

Make Home-Grown Grain Go Further

Southern States Cooperative makes a 40% PORK MAKER feed to use with home-grown grains. This concentrated feed will save you money if you have an ample supply of grains on hand or have laid by some of the government wheat now coming onto Eastern farms. With this concentrate you can do a better pork making job at less cost.

LOCAL P. T. A. MEETING

Committee reports given at the local Parent-Teacher meeting on last Thursday afternoon gave evidence of much activity during recent months on various projects.

The school lunch project, just completed, greatly benefited many needy children and was entirely the work of willing school mothers.

Prof. R. Worth Peters reported that the Bennett School Dental clinic successful year yet held, with a total of 1221 corrective dental operations having been made by Dr. M. S. Fields.

Two rooms in the school reported 100 per cent corrections and two other rooms were very close to achieving this average. Much of this work was paid for out of funds raised by the P. T. A. Dental committee.

Plans for the annual Pre-School Clinic are now in progress and it is hoped that, in addition to the tests being made at this time, X-Ray chest examinations can be arranged some time during the year.

Members were urged to attend the Nutrition class now being held by Miss Alice Webb.

The County P. T. A. Federation meeting, to be held at Nokesville on April 30th, was announced.

Dr. J. H. McNeil, of the County Health Department, talked on the school health program and gave some excellent advice on general health problems. He stressed the urgent need of good nutrition as a base for good health and pledged the full support of his department to schools throughout the county.

Group singing of "Rose of No Man's Land" closed the meeting after which the teachers of Bennett School entertained at tea in the school library, where new books purchased with the P. T. A. donation were on display.

AIR RAID INSTRUCTIONS

(Issued by the Prince William County Defense Council).

Until a suitable system of sirens can be installed air raid warnings will be sounded by fire trucks and police car traversing the streets with sirens sounding intermittently. All clear will be sounded by fire trucks and police car traversing streets with sirens blowing continuously.

GENERAL RULES TO BE OBSERVED BY ALL CIVILIAN DURING AIR RAID.

1. REMAIN CALM and do not be frightened. More damage can be caused by panic than by falling buildings, materials or by bombs themselves.

2. IF AWAY FROM HOME, seek the nearest shelter. Get off the street or highway.

3. IF YOU ARE DRIVING, park your car at curb on side of road, turn off lights.

4. IF YOU ARE AT HOME, seek shelter in the refuge room. This room should be a comfortable place with as little window exposure as possible and at least two outlets. The refuge room should be blacked out by providing all openings with dark curtains or draperies so that no light can be seen from the outside. Turn out all lights. Do not let cracks of light show from outside.

5. HAVE A SUPPLY OF DRY SAND and buckets of water convenient in the event an incendiary bomb strikes. Do not throw water on an incendiary bomb. Unless you have some means of spraying water on a bomb do not try to use water to extinguish it. Do not get too close to an incendiary bomb. By covering the bomb with sand and the use of a long handled shovel an incendiary bomb may be removed with comparative safety.

6. KEEP OUT OF THE LINE OF WINDOWS. Fragments and glass splinters cause most casualties.

7. IF EXPLOSIVE BOMBS FALL NEARBY, get under a heavy table,

Keep these 14 ideas for making simple but different sandwiches

They come from Safeway's Homemakers' Bureau

Sandwiches, when they are a daily lunch diet, can become awfully tiresome unless you intersperse the old standbys (ham, cheese, tuna, etc.) with new and different ones now and then. Not only for variety's sake, but—well, you know what fun surprises can be. They needn't be elaborate. Just glance at these appetizing sandwich ideas from the Homemakers' Bureau. They're simple but wonderfully different, not only for lunches you pack but also for teas and light refreshments in the evening.

Just plain good

Grated raw carrots with finely chopped roasted peanuts or raisins, moistened with salad dressing or peanut butter.

Peanut butter with jam, jelly, honey or finely chopped dried fruits.

Cottage cheese with jam or jelly or chopped dried fruits; or with finely sliced chives, pickles, or onion; or with chili sauce.

American, swiss, pimiento, or cream cheese taste different with lettuce and mayonnaise on pumpernickel or raisin rye bread.

These are on the meat side

Ground bologna, ham, or corned beef, diced hard-cooked eggs, chopped sweet pickles, mayonnaise or boiled dressing.

Mashed sardines and chopped hard-cooked eggs blended with olive oil.

Cottage cheese and minced clams, seasoned with plenty of lemon juice and salt.

These are sort of sweet

Cream cheese, finely cut parsley, grated onion, lemon juice, and mayonnaise.

Chopped hard-cooked egg and finely chopped watercress or tender young spinach leaves, mayonnaise, lemon juice, prepared mustard.

Chopped ripe or green olives, and chopped nuts, blended with mayonnaise.

Mashed avocado, minced onion, lemon juice, and mayonnaise.

These are a bit fancier

Ground or chopped dried fruit—raisins, prunes, figs, apricots, or dates—and chopped nuts, moistened with honey.

Nut bread, sliced thin and spread with creamy butter and grated orange or lemon rind in thin mayonnaise.

Boston brown bread sliced thin and spread with pimiento or pineapple cream cheese.

Things you may not know—and should ... about bread

Q. Just what is enriched bread?
A. Enriched bread is bread made from white flour that has been enriched with Vitamin B₁ (Thiamin) Vitamin B₂ (Niacin) and Iron—all so essential to your good health.

Q. Why does white bread need to be enriched?
A. The refining process used in making white flour takes out that part of the wheat containing a large percentage of the Vitamins B₁ and B₂ (Thiamin and Niacin) and the Iron. Enriching simply puts these essential elements back into the flour in the proportions of wholewheat flour.

Q. What other benefits are found in bread?
A. Bread is an excellent source of energy and protein. There are approximately 80 calories in the usual one-ounce slice 3 grams of protein.

Q. How much enriched bread should a person eat?
A. At least two slices per person per day are recommended in addition to an otherwise well-balanced diet.

Q. Is all bread enriched now?
A. No, only about 40% of the white bread on the market is enriched. Make sure the bread you give your family is enriched.

Q. Where can I get enriched bread?
A. At your nearby Safeway Store you'll always find enriched bread made according to U. S. Government specifications. It's fresh daily and guaranteed to please you completely or all your money back.
