ORIGIN OF LOCAL SCHOOL LIBRARY

Was Definitely Extended Into A Public Library Also Through Carnegie Contribution.

The Ruffner-Carnegie Library which has been serving the community for a number of years in its double capacity as high school and public library has an interesting history back of this double function. This history goes back a long way. In 1899 when the main building of the Ruffner School was erected (the first section of the building had been put up in 1875), the then principal of the school together with Mr. W. Moran, editor of the Manassas Journal, and Mr. George C. Round, member of the Manassas District School Board, decided to start a public library and began soliciting books for it. At the request of Mr. Round, Mr. Andrew Carnegie donated $1,000 to the new library for the purchase of books, with the proviso that the books were always to be used by the public and that a library room should be provided by the School Board.

The Manassas District School Board (the county at that time had a school board for each of its districts in addition to the general county board) decided to accept the Carnegie donation with its accompanying conditions, subject to the approval of the County School Board and of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction. The consent of both the County Board and the State Superintendent having been obtained, the District Board then proceeded to erect a third story to the Ruffner Building as a home for the new library. The following excerpts from the minutes of the District and County Boards relate to this bequest:

FROM THE MINUTES OF THE PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY BOARD - AUGUST 12, 1899.

"The County Superintendent (Dr. H. M. Clarkson) was requested by the Board to write a letter of thanks from the Board to Mr. Andrew Carnegie for his promise of a thousand dollars for the purchase of books for a public library at Manassas in connection with the Ruffner School."

FROM THE REPORT OF THE MANASSAS DISTRICT BOARD TO THE COUNTY BOARD - Dec. 15, 1899.

"The trustees of the Manassas District Board beg to report that they have determined to accept the donation of Mr. Carnegie and are willing to administer the trust reposed in them. They submit herewith a letter from the State Superintendent of Public Instruction expressing the opinion that the trustees have a right to do so. The trustees wish it distinctly understood that the library is to be a circulating library to be opened at stated intervals and to be conducted according to the usual rules and regulations of Public Circulating Libraries for the benefit not only of those of school age but of persons of all ages."

A resolution of the County School Board was next recorded approving the action of the District Board in establishing a public circulating library in Manassas.

The following quotation from a recent letter to the Librarian in reply to a report sent to the Richmond Public Library:

"We appreciate the copy of the minutes of your school board of August 12, 1899 explaining the acceptance of the gift of $1,000 from Mr. Andrew Carnegie for the purchase of books. We are much interested in the types of the few grants made by Mr. Carnegie to Virginia institutions."

"May we take this opportunity to express our deep appreciation of this unique and interesting date." From M. A. W. Moon, Head Extension Division, Richmond Public Library, December 2, 1941.

In 1938 the Town Council of Manassas began making yearly contributions to the Library for the purchase of books for the public. This, together with the annual appropriations from the School Board and the State Aid Library Fund with yearly contributions from the Parent-Teachers Association and the Woman's Club, enables the Library to provide both for the school and the public a very good collection of standard books and recent fiction and much excellent material on questions of current interest. This two-fold character of the Library has a number of precedents. The John Marshall High School of Richmond, for instance, served the people of that city as well as the High School for a number of years.

SHARE - A - RIDE

To meet the transportation problem caused by the shortage of rubber and gasoline; the Civilian Defense Council, the Chamber of Commerce and the Kiwanis Club are sponsoring a Share-a-ride movement. The purpose of this is to aid those individuals desiring transportation from point to point and to assist car owners in their efforts to conserve tires, gasoline and automobiles. The Civilian Defense Office, phone Manassas 259, will serve as a clearing house for the purpose.

Those desiring to obtain a ride should register with the Civilian Defense office stating the destination, date, and approximate time of their proposed trip. If those contemplating a trip in their own car will register with the Defense office stating their destination, etc. They will be given names of individuals wanting to make the same trip.

It is hoped that through the efforts of this organization individuals can share a ride to such points as Washington, Alexandria, Fairfax, Fredericksburg, Richmond, Culpeper, Warrenton and any and all points in Prince William County.

SCRAP HARVEST FESTIVAL IS ON

County Is Organizing Intensively For Greatest Efficiency.

The Salvage Drive is on.

Awakened by the growing sense of responsibility in the matter, citizens from all sections of the county are getting into line under the direction of County Chairman, O. O. Holler.

Realizing that distance is too great for a practical demonstration at any one point, the whole thing is being decentralized into districts, with separate dates.

The "festival" at Manassas will be on September 25th, with entertainment for participants to be announced next week.

The next definite set-up is at Occoquan where R. S. Hall, local chairman, is putting on real steam. His work in the "rubber drive" in June helped put the county in the enviable position it took among Virginia counties.

The date tentatively assigned for Occoquan is October 2nd., subject to final action of the subcommittee there. Their plans, as well as those of the Manassas-Haymarket group, will be given with more finality next week.

Nokesville and Dumfries are also slated to have "festivals" in some form. The general plan is to follow to some degree the lead given in Washington by the gala affair held at Griffith Stadium in that city.

Everyone realizes that this is not play but a serious proposition that is daily becoming more serious. It is one of the many things that can be done on the home front.

CHINESE MILITARY STUDENT TO SPEAK AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

A special Litany evening service with prayers for the world at war will be held at St. John's Church, Centreville, Friday evening, September 11, at eight o'clock. Mr. Frank Fu, a recent college graduate, who has been sent by the Chinese government to the United States to study military science, will give a short address following the service, on war-time conditions in China. Mr. Fu is a Chinese Christian, and was educated at a missionary college in Western China. In order for him to reach the United States he had to go by plane from China to India, and from there took the long sea route to New York via Capetown, South Africa. There was a constant danger from submarines and mines, but American Navy units successfully guarded the convoy through the voyage.

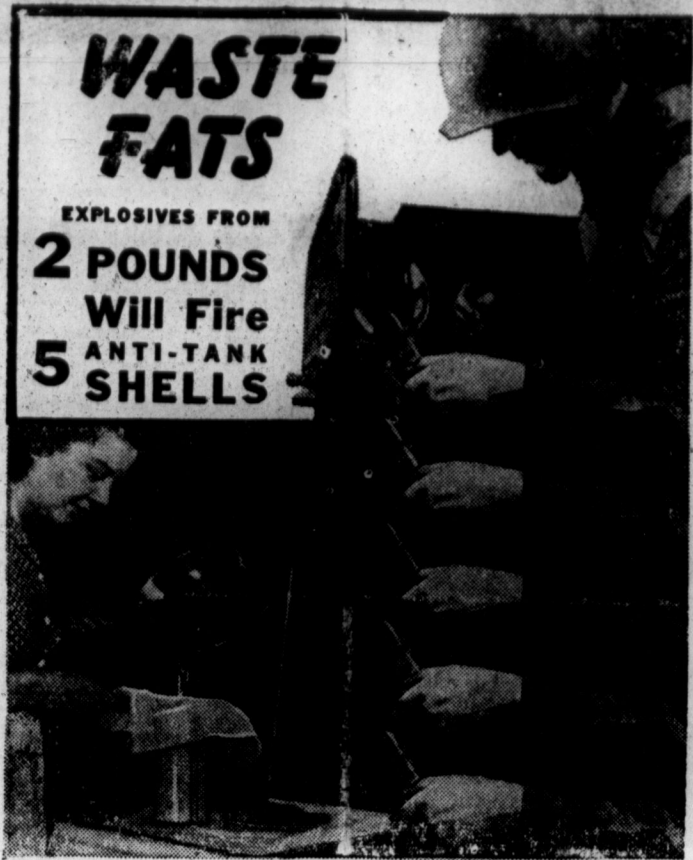

The public is welcome to attend the evening service and join with the congregation in prayers for world victory over evil. The service will be led by Mr. Robert L. Stevenson of the Virginia Theological Seminary, Alexandria. Mr. Stevenson is the son of missionaries in China, and is bringing Mr. Fu from Washington for the service.

Miss Eugenia H. Osborn, who has served for some years as School Librarian, is resigning from the school librarianship, but will continue to act for the public side of the Library. She is succeeded by Miss Hamilton as High School Librarian. Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson will take the position as Librarian of the Bennett School Library.

Library Hours: The Library hours at present are daily (except Saturday) from 9:30 A. M. to 4:00 P. M.

Anderson Engh will be the clinician in charge of the clinic. Any individual under 20 years of age with a crippling condition, may be examined by Dr. Engh at the Clinic. New patients desiring admission to the clinic should get in touch with the nurse personally, or through their family physician, for appointment.

UNITED BRETHREN DEDICATE CHAPEL

Former Ministers And Other Notables Attend Exercise

On Sunday, September 6, members and friends of the United Brethren Churches of the Manassas Charge held their annual homecoming in the Manassas Chapel. At the same time this attractive little chapel was dedicated with appropriate services in which Virginia Conference and local ministers participated.

Every available seat was filled for the 11:00 service. At this service Rev. J. Paul Gruver, D. D., Conference Superintendent, brought an inspiring message on The Magnificence of God, stressing the importance of providing an attractive place to worship Him and reminding his audience that God is ready and willing to dwell with men and in temples and sanctuaries made with hands and that if humanity misses Him here, He will not be found elsewhere.

Following the sermon and the presentation of the offering, which was a splendid testimony of the loyalty and interest of friends and members, Rev. W. F. Gruver, D. D., who dedicated the Buckhall Church in 1905, dedicated the building. The pastor then baptised four babies and received five persons into the church membership. Two young people were also baptised by immersion in the evening.

In the afternoon, after all had enjoyed a bountiful basket dinner, Rev. John M. DeChant, pastor of the Manassas Presbyterian Church, brought greetings from the Manassas Ministerial Association. Rev. M. DeChant complimented the people and pastor on their achievement and also admonished them to build even more than a building. Councilman, Mr. O. D. Waters, with his usual wit and humor, represented the Town of Manassas, bringing greetings and giving many interesting facts about the town itself.

Rev. A. W. Ballentine, Pastor of the Lutheran Church, closed the afternoon service with a very interesting and informational address on the symbolism and furniture of the church, especially that of the Sanctuary. Special Music was rendered by the Buckhall Choir and a trio composed of Mrs. William Hensley, Mrs. S. G. Whetzel, Jr., and Mrs. Stanley A. Knapp.

At an afternoon meeting of the church officials of the charge reports and discussions showed the charge as a whole in good condition. All financial obligations have been met. Improvements have been made on every church of the charge and others are planned for the coming year. The pastor's salary was raised ten percent and a special benevolent offering accepted. Mr. Paul Breneman of the Manassas Church was elected delegate to the Annual Conference which meets in Harrisonburg, September 22 to 24. S. G. Whetzel, of the Aden Church, was chosen as alternate.

Rev. L. C. Messick, a former pastor of the charge, who was responsible for the beginning of the United Brethren Church in Manassas in 1917, after having purchased the old Methodist Episcopal Church, spoke touchingly of those early days of beginning. Miss Jessie Mae Conner, a recent graduate of Bridgewater College, and at present a teacher in the Manassas Public Schools, sang The Lord Is My Shepherd at the evening service. Miss Conner was accompanied by Mrs. Lewis Carper. Rev. Lee E. Sheaffer, a former pastor, gave the closing message choosing as his theme, "The Eternal Stars Shine." A glorious day of worship, and fellowship was brought to a close with the congregation singing, "God Be With You." Rev. Mr. Sheaffer pronounced the benediction.

Mrs. W. S. Athey this week brought us one of the most beautiful rose we have been privileged to see in many years. The stalk stood 12 feet 6 inches in height and had 15 blossoms on a single unsupported stalk.

FEW OF THE BOYS IN GRAY SURVIVE

Prince William Is Among The Honored Counties.

A list of the 45 surviving Confederate Veterans in Virginia has just been published. On the roster we find our own beloved Veteran, Mr. Robert Cushing.

Mr. Cushing was born in 1846 and has spent his long life in the vicinity of Sudley Farm, Prince William County. At the outbreak of the War between the States he was too young for active service, but in 1863 he enlisted under General J. E. B. Stuart, later serving under General Fitzhugh Lee, and General William C. Wickham. He took part in many cavalry "skirmishes," as Mr. Cushman modestly describes his contact with the Yankees. Previous to his enlistment he was frequently taken into custody by the Federal troops, but released on account of his youth. Finally, he says, he decided he was old enough to go after them, and he did.

His first fight was at Kelly's Ford. He was assigned to important service around Fredericksburg, was at Chancellorsville, Brandy Station. Being too young to serve at either battle of Manassas, he nevertheless was an observer of those battles. On one occasion General McDowell crossed his yard at Sudley.

In his 97th year Mr. Cushing, the only surviving Confederate Veteran in Prince William County is often seen walking about the town. He is remarkably active for one of his years and one of the most beloved residents of the town.

Mr. John H. Johnson, Confederate Pension Clerk for Virginia, says in his report that there are now five living Veterans over 100 years of age. They are Mr. Cornelius Baldwin Hite, of Washington; Mr. R. E. Miles, of Shawsville, Mr. B. M. Cash, of Staunton; Mr. F. Fife Lumsden, of Mine Run, Orange County; and Mr. James T. Carter, of Sutherland. Two of these Mr. Miles and Mr. Cash have passed the 102nd milestone.

There are 18 Negro servants over 100 years of age who receive Confederate pensions. The oldest Negro pensioner on record on the Confederate rolls at Richmond was Henry Clay Reed, of Tazewell, who died at the age of 114.

KIWANIS CLUB TO SPONSOR "GO-TO-CHURCH" MOVEMENT.

At the meeting of the Kiwanis Club on Friday night, Kiwanian Fred Hynson addressed not only the Club but also the local ministerial association who were present as special guests on that evening.

Mr. Hynson gave a splendid exposition on the subject which will be printed in an early issue of the Journal.

He also stated that he was asking the Club to make September 27th the special focal point of the movement, and President Trusler appointed a committee to assist. This committee is composed of Mr. Hynson, as chairman and Messrs Haydon and Ledman. Earlier in the evening, Kiwanians O. D. Waters and Didlake conspired to upset Kiwanian Hynson's dignity in front of the auspicious guests who had a big laugh at the thrust.

GREAT STRATEGISTS
(By Mrs. R. B. Gossom).

Someone remarked that the Japanese reminded them of ants which indeed gives one food for thought. Did you ever watch ants pouring out of a hole in the ground or a crack in the wall; hundreds, thousands, millions, no end, they keep on marching. If temporarily stopped, next day they appear some place else; busy little mites, determined on reaching their goal, food, their wisdom seems supernatural.

To illustrate I will relate a little true story. "When the writers daughters were attending a Teachers College some years ago. It was my custom to send them each week a package of goodies prepared in the home kitchen.

At first, after the feast, what had not been consumed was carefully wrapped and stored in their trunk, but next day it was so full of the little pests it had to be thrown out. The next time to outsmart the rascals, they tied it up in a box and hung it to the chandelier from the ceiling. Next day that, too, was like the first. So they began to decide on a strategy that would put an end to their troubles. They hit on an idea, to put a tin can in the wash bowl, and set the box of goodies on top the can, the water in the bowl serving as a moat. This bit of old world strategy practiced by wealthy Lords to protect their castles against the enemy invaders proved efficient, but it did not turn back the ants, they kept coming, suicide squadrons, trying to swim across to the food until the water was covered with the dead and dying which in time would serve as a bridge sufficient for the on coming hordes to cross over. King Solomon must have known all about ants, when he wrote, "Go to the ant thou sluggard. Consider her ways and be wise."

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

NUMBER 11 ★ 2 wonderful lunches for 2 wonderful lunches ★ New Safeway policy that saves you money ★ How one Dad got to a ball game!

Put this column in your cookbook under "hunches for lunches"

It takes very little longer to prepare an interesting, well-balanced noon meal than it does to eat whatever the refrigerator happens to offer. Besides, with the "keep fit" program on throughout America, you owe it to Uncle Sam to make lunch as much a "Victory" meal as breakfast or dinner. Here are two menu ideas that were planned and tested by the Safeway Homemakers' Bureau.

LUNCHING ALONE

(Grilled Open-face Cheese Sandwich on Whole Wheat—Stripped with Bacon Sliced Tomatoes with Favorite Dressing Baked Apple with Cream Oatmeal Cookies Milk or Tea)

NOTE: It's well to be prepared for days when you chance to eat home alone. Cheese, bacon, and oatmeal cookies can easily be kept on hand; tomatoes can be scalded and stored in the refrigerator ready to peel; and extra baked apples make good solitary desserts.

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S LUNCH

(Vegetable-beef Soup in Large Soup Plates Whole Wheat Crackers Peach, Pear, and Cottage Cheese Salad Whole Wheat or Enriched White Bread Butter Jam-filled Cup Cakes Milk)

NOTE: With an hour or less for lunch, school children naturally want food to be ready the minute they get home and don't want to be bothered with complicated dishes. Soup, salad, and dessert meals like the one above are nutritious, quick to prepare, and easy to eat.

More "Hunches for Lunches" Hunches for lunch box meals is the subject of the feature article in the Family Circle of September 11. This magazine comes out every Thursday—is free at Safeway.

Toll Boards Hum As War Traffic Increases

War calls are now flooding the long distance telephone lines of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Companies in Washington, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia—calls to factories, navy yards and army bases—calls that mean guns, tanks, airplanes and submarines—calls that order the movement of troops, the sailing of transports and supply fleets—the calls that are helping to bring victory.

Just as it is necessary to keep highways and other means of travel open for the movement of troops and war materials, it is vitally important that the lines of communication be available for use at all times by the armed forces. As everyone knows the center of the entire war effort is in Washington, consequently the communications highways in the Nation's Capital are just about jammed to their capacity. Every unnecessary call made from or to the capital city, therefore, contributes just that much more to congesting the telephone lines and slowing up the war effort.

Never before has the telephone company handled such enormous daily volumes of long distance calls. The above chart shows how long distance traffic between the Nation's Capital and numerous centers of war activity have increased in a recent 12-month period. A "Telephone Hour" announcement last this to say on the subject: "In the Bell System alone a switchboard army of 180,000 women cover the board 24 hours a day and when off duty are subject to call in emergency. Of course, not all the calls that go through have to do with war, but all the calls that have to do with war do go through the switchboards. Good service is more necessary in the grim business of war-making than ever in peace. The weavers of speech, unite the country..."

CHRISTMAS MAIL FOR THE U. S. ARMED FORCES ABROAD

The local postmaster has released the following information on Christmas mail for members of the armed forces abroad:

Christmas parcels and Christmas cards should be mailed during the period beginning October 1 and ending November 1, 1942—and, says the post office department, "the earlier the better."

Parcels should not be heavier than 11 pounds, nor longer than 18 inches, or more than 42 inches in length and girth combined.

However, the War and Navy Departments urge that all packages be restricted to about the size of a shoe box and to about 6 pounds in weight. No perishable matter will be taken and patrons are reminded that the soldiers are amply provided with food and clothing. Items of more than ordinary value should be insured. For further details, see your local postmaster, and remember, that November 1 is the deadline and the earlier the better.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

By parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a precious heritage to them in after years. "Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain." Ps. 127:1.

Governor Darden Frowns

On College Fraternities

The fathers and mothers of Virginia will applaud the action of Governor Colgate Darden in his recent action concerning the fraternity activities at William and Mary, and elsewhere. The Governor says that he intends to recommend at the next session of the General Assembly of Virginia that fraternities and sororities not be allowed to maintain separate establishments to be used as living and meeting quarters.

The Governor states that he has arrived at this conclusion for many reasons, one being that members of the student body should associate together as much as possible during their college years. "Too much emphasis is placed on the social life and too little is paid to school work," the Governor added. "In the matter of expense," Mr. Darden said, "fraternity and sorority memberships entail additional costs annually which almost equals the tuition charged the Virginia student, this cost arising largely from the maintenance of separate establishments. Parents often must borrow money to send their children to college and they make the added sacrifice for fraternity and sorority expenses because they believe that their child will be humiliated if not permitted to join."

We do not know just how many other considerations may also have influenced the Governor's action. Certainly there exists a popular belief that some of the "goings on" in these establishments have not been at times entirely what they should be. In any event the reasons given by Mr. Darden are entirely sufficient to justify the action taken and we take pleasure in voicing our unqualified endorsement of his viewpoint.

DAUGHTERS OF COFEDERACY ELECT OFFICERS

The Manassas Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy was graciously entertained at the home of Mrs. R. L. Byrd, Wednesday afternoon, September 3. Mrs. C. W. Rector, of Upperville, was co-hostess with Mrs. Byrd. The principal feature of the historical hour was the reading of the personal reminiscences of W. B. Stalvey of Mullins, S. C., who was with Lee at Appomattox. Besides a detailed account of his experiences at that time.

Mrs. Stalvey gave some fine advice regarding religion and citizenship which could be followed to advantage today.

The chapter stood silently for one minute in honor of the late Mrs. M. M. Washington, who was a faithful and valued member for so many years. Mrs. R. L. Byrd and Mrs. E. H. Nash were appointed to write resolutions of sympathy on the death of Mrs. Washington.

A great deal of interest was displayed in the part this chapter is to play in helping to sponsor the education of a War Nurse from this District. Each of the six districts of the Virginia Division, U. D. C. is raising funds to educate one nurse for war duty. It is hoped that those members who were not present at this meeting and any friends who care to make a contribution to this worthy cause will communicate at once with Mrs. R. A. Hutchison.

The following officers were elected to serve the Chapter for the year beginning in October:

President—Mrs. R. A. Hutchison.

1st. Vice President—Mrs. Lewis J. Carper.

2nd. Vice President—Mrs. James Conner.

3rd. Vice President—Mrs. Robert Gulick.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. R. L. Byrd.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. McDuff Green.

Treasurer—Mrs. Alvin Compton.

Historian—Mrs. E. H. Hibbs.

Registrar—Mrs. W. A. Newman.

Recorder of Crosses—Mrs. E. H. Nash.

Custodian—Mrs. W. A. Newman.

The Call to the Annual State Convention was read. It will be held at the Jefferson Hotel, Richmond, October 6-8. Delegates to the convention are as follows:

The wedding will take place September 26.

GETS BIRTHDAY APPRECIATION

At the all day meeting held at Belle Haven on Sunday, Rev. Murray Taylor (whose birthday it was) received a pleasant surprise. Quite appropriately, the gift of a handsome cake was made at noon time, Rev. Norman Luck of Fredericksburg, acting as master of ceremonies.

Brother Taylor got several other beautiful and practical remembrances on the occasion, which was a very happy one.

Mr. Luck has been assisting him in an evangelistic meeting which will continue every night throughout the present week.

MANY dairymen in Southern States territory are getting free hay for their stock by using the right fertilizer on fall grains. The extra wheat that results from the fertilizer more than pays back the cost of the fertilizer. The extra hay is FREE FEED.

The balanced plant nutrients in Southern States open formula fertilizers get the grain off to a head start. Plenty of plant food holds over to increase the hay yields.

By using Southern States open formula fertilizer in the paper bag, you save on bag costs, on handling trouble, and get 1% more fertilizer in the land. Use Southern States 0-12-12 or 0-14-7 this fall.

The object of this suit is to settle the accounts of the administrator of the estate of Vincent Johnson, deceased; to ascertain and determine all debts and liabilities of said estate; the amount and value of the real estate owned by said Vincent Johnson at the time of his death; to sell the said real estate and have the proceeds applied to the payment of the liens against the same; to ascertain the interest, if any, of Emma Johnson in the estate of the said Vincent Johnson, and for general relief.

An affidavit having been filed that the heirs of Vincent Johnson (colored) deceased, if any, are parties unknown; it is therefore ordered that the said heirs of Vincent Johnson, deceased, if any there be, appear within ten days after publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect their interests; and a copy of this order shall be published for four successive weeks in the Manassas Journal and posted by the Clerk as directed by statute.

Given under my hand as Clerk of the Circuit Court of Prince William County, Virginia this 15th day of August, 1942.

MORALE

The Secret Weapon That Will Win The War

Congress Can't Vote It

Dollars Won't Buy It

It's Your Job To Build It

PUT UNITY INTO YOUR COMMUNITY

Unity starts with U. To win the war, stop private wars at home on the job, with neighbors.

Honest apology ends friction—starts teamwork.

If we pull together, we'll all pull through.

BE A RUMOR-STOPPER

Rumors help the enemy. Trace the facts. Face the facts. Don't exaggerate.

Make your community gossip-proof, smear-proof, panic-proof, fear-proof. Every patriot shoots a rumor dead on sight!

MEET SHORTAGE BY SHARING

Use all of everything. Don't hoard. If everybody cares enough, and everybody shares enough, everybody will have enough. No waste in your ice-box, brain-box!

KEEP THE MORAL STANDARDS OF THE NATION HIGH

Don't weaken the home-front by wangling something for yourself on the side.

Dishonesty and indulgence in you saps the nation's fighting strength. A decent world tomorrow depends on how you live today!

THE SECRET OF STEADINESS AND INNER STRENGTH IS ON EVERY PENNY: "IN GOD WE TRUST"

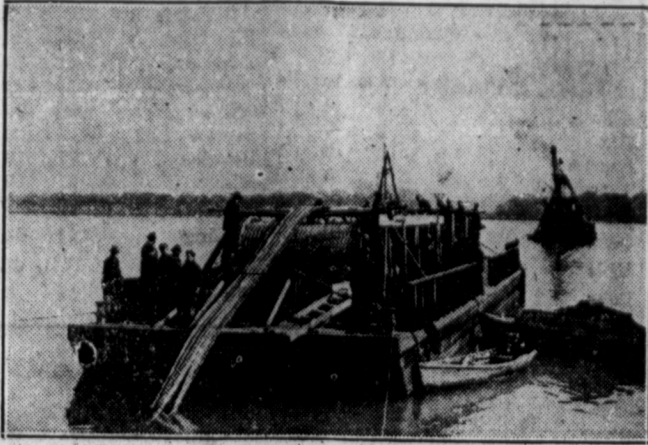

A general who has fought through two wars said: "Telephone wires may be cut, radio stations be destroyed, but no bombardment can stop messages from God coming through if we are willing to receive them. To listen to God and obey Him is the highest form of national service for everybody everywhere."

Another World's Largest

Everything in the new Pentagon Building of the War Department in Arlington, Va., is on a gigantic scale—and the telephone system is no exception. A switchboard containing operating positions for 155 girls and dial equipment to handle a city the size of Lynchburg, Va., will be required to serve the 12,000 telephones expected in the initial installation, which will later be increased to approximately 16,000 telephones.

Furnishing service like that requires more than switchboards and dial equipment, however. The messages have to get from Washington, D. C., central offices across the Potomac River or, in this case, under it. Shown above is the huge barge from which six of the twelve cables to serve this large project were laid. The cables contain 10,588 pairs of wires altogether and totaled about 300 tons in weight. They were carefully laid in a prepared trench dug in the river bottom which was later filled in.

"TORTILLA FLAT" COMES TO LIFE IN PICTURESQUE FILM

There is double satisfaction in the picture, "Tortilla Flat," for those who read John Steinbeck's novel, and for those who missed it. The film brings his memorable characters to life, recreating the picturesque California colony of paisanos near Monterey.

Readers of the book will rejoice in the visual recreation. Those who never saw the novel will be thrilled by the beauty and action of the story. Both will be pleasantly entertained.

Spencer Tracy, Hedy Lamarr and John Garfield costar in the Merton Goldwyn Mayer adaption, which opens next Monday and Tuesday, September 7-8 at the Pitts Theatre. Victor Fleming, director of "Gone With the Wind," and many other distinguished pictures, directed this.

The supporting cast is superb, faithfully reflecting the lovable characters of the novel. They include the imitable Frank Morgan, with Akim Tamiroff, Sheldon Leonard, John Qualen, Donald Meek, Connie Gilchrist, Allen Jenkins and Henry O'Neill.

Tracy's role is a distinct departure from any of his previous characterizations. As the philosophical Pilon, drawn between the good and bad of life, he reaches a high peak in his career. Miss Lamarr, as Dolores, a desirable paisano charmer, demonstrates her dramatic abilities beyond anything she has yet attempted. John Garfield, her suitor, the lazy, impetuous Danny, is at his best.

gardens, and the sweep of the bay beyond, have been achieved with artistry.

The pulsing action of the love story, the battles and the tranquil interludes, have been captured under Fleming's direction by a cast of unusual competence and understanding.

BENTLEY-SHERIER

In the Colonial setting of old Christ Episcopal Church Miss Ruth Anne Sherier was married to George E. Bentley Friday evening. The ceremony was conducted by the rector, the Rev. Edward Randolph Welles, who had returned during the week from a two month stay in New England.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sherier of "Eastern View" on King Street Road and is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Tompkins of Washington. She was given in marriage by her father and the couple exchanged vows before an altar setting of white gladioli and white asters.

Candles illuminated the white Colonial interior of the old church and palms formed a background for the decorations. The hour of the ceremony was eight o'clock.

For her costume the bride chose a gown of ice blue satin with a long train. Of a period design, the dress was of a Renaissance type with a Medici neckline, long sleeves and a gathered skirt. With it the bride wore a simple tulle veil held in place with orange blossoms and carried a small bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

The period style was carried out in the costumes of the attendants who wore taffeta gowns which swept the floor and court headdresses with arrangements of three feathers in the Prince of Wales style for presentation to royalty.

Mrs. Don Garber of Silver Spring, Md., was matron of honor and was in blue taffeta. Her gown had short sleeves and a full skirt and with her headdress she had a short face well of blue. Her flowers were Picardy gladioli.

The other attendants' costumes were similar to that of Mrs. Garber. In contrast to her blue gown, all were in gold and carried mauve gladioli. They included Miss Penelope Barton of Alexandria; Mrs. William Davies, the former Miss Cornelia Alfriend; Mrs. Arvin Basnight and Mrs. Robert Fain of Washington.

Donald Garber was best man for Mr. Bentley and the ushers were Arvin Basnight, Richard Barton, Ensign Richard and Charles H. Tompkins, Jr., of Washington.

Following the ceremony at Christ Church a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, "Eastern View." There the couple with her parents and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. George Bentley, greeted their relatives and friends from Alexandria and Washington.

The receiving line formed in the living room where seven branch candelabra illuminated the scene. Clematis and palms formed the background and gladioli were the main decorations for the house. In the dining room the bride's cake formed the table centerpiece, and a large punch bowl was arranged at the far corner of the room.

Mrs. Sherier received in a gown of aqua shade with a full skirt and an applique design. Her flowers were white orchids. The bridegroom's mother was in gold lace and had a matching Juliet cap. She wore green orchids at her shoulder.

Assisting with arrangements and in greeting guests at the reception was the bride's sister, Miss Elizabeth Sherier.

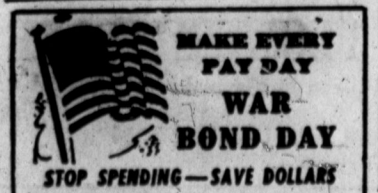

FIRE DEPT. WINS FOR SEASON OF '42

The Fire Department brought to a close their successful season by downing the Chamber of Commerce in a double header 10-7 and 5-0.

The play-off was to have been the best two out of three, but Douglas didn't see any need of playing a third game so he shut them out in the night cap, allowing only four hits. Albrite pitched good ball for the C. of C. but lacked the backing up. Albrite also did the heavy hitting for the C. of C. collecting two home runs. This play-off brought to a close the season of '42. Runners up in the league were the Kiwanis and the Aerian Legion.

ONE OF "OUR BOYS" CALLS AT THE JOURNAL OFFICE

Flight Commander Samuel C. Hot-tle, of Cariff Field, Arcadia, Florida, was a most welcome visitor at the office this week.

Sam is just about the youngest flight commander in the Army Air Corps and certainly at his field. Only twenty-two years of age, he has already created a name for himself and we are looking forward to even greater things from him.

Sam is a Journal boy.

THE "MINUTE MAN" WAS A WORKER, TOO

"Labor has proved again what I always knew to be true—namely, that the patriotism of the American worker is as sound today as when the Minute Men left their farms and dropped their tools to fight for freedom at Lexington and Concord."

HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR.
Secretary of the Treasury

The "Minute Men" of Concord and Lexington, who gave us liberty, were workers, too. Just as today, they fought with tools and guns alike

... Today America faces the most dangerous foes in all its history. This is a people's war—a workers' war—everything we have is at stake.

... Today all America salutes Labor for its epic four-star Victory Drive—

★ In out-producing the Axis in guns, planes, tanks, ships, and all the weapons with which we will win this war.

★ In supplying millions of men to the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard.

★ In working on Civilian Defense through air raid protection, salvage, conservation, Red Cross, and other home front activities.

★ In setting the pace for America's great WAR BOND VICTORY DRIVE for 10% of everybody's income invested regularly, systematically in War Savings Bonds.

Make this your personal "Declaration of War" against the Axis—invest at least 10% of your pay every pay day in War Bonds. For victory today—and for your own financial security tomorrow—join the Payroll Savings Plan without delay!

September is Payroll Savings Month—Do Your Part!
