NIGHT LIBRARY IS INAUGURATED

The first of the series of Thursday night openings of the Carnegie-Ruffner library was held last Thursday evening at the Manassas High School. In connection therewith an inspection tour of the library was held before and after the exercises. Prof. R. W. Peters officiated.

Following the invocation by Rev. Thomas Faulkner of Trinity Episcopal Church, two vocal solos were given by "Charmie" Sinclair, with Mrs. Kitty Baker at the piano.

Mayor Davis followed with a brief talk which was highlighted by an appeal for appreciation of the library and a practical discussion of what such a library had cost to build up.

The Nokesville Glee Club, under direction of Miss Lois Sloop, then sang two numbers. Their presence, coming from such a distance, was greatly appreciated.

Father J. J. Widmer of All Saints Catholic Church, was next introduced by Mr. Peters. He gave the main address of the evening, which is quoted in part as follows:

(Ed. Note—Circumstances prevented us from the pleasure of publishing the same in this issue. It will appear next week.)

The final numbers on the program were two more delightful numbers by the Nokesville High Glee Club and a violin solo by Miss Louise McNair, a member of the faculty of that school.

CLUB CONTRIBUTES TO AMBULANCE FOR RED CROSS

The October meeting of the Woman's Club of Manassas was held in the Parish Hall on Monday evening of this week.

The program, on the Constitution of the United States, was sponsored by the Committee on Education, and was presented as a forum with several speakers. The Bill of Rights was ably presented and interpreted by Mr. Stanley Owens. Mr. Owens gave a very clear and understandable explanation of the any privileges and benefits bestowed on the citizens of this country in that early period of our history, and brought out how well these same rights protect and govern us in these troubled days. Miss Eugenia Osborn spoke on "The Differences in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution," giving some valuable and enlightening facts on how each document came into existence, the need for each. She recalled the difficulties and trials of the many men who gave both in getting these written, and later ratified by the several states. Miss Mary Wilson of the High School faculty followed with an excellent paper on the "Meaning of Democracy." She gave some very free and clever definitions of what this should and does mean to each of us. Music for the evening was furnished by the Junior Choir of the Presbyterian church under the direction of Mrs. Stickle. Their numbers were charmingly rendered, and the sweet young voices of the performers was as much of an inspiration as their singing.

Reports of the standing committees were indicative of unusual activity along many lines. Each committee reported its greatest efforts were being tied up in some manner with the "War Service" movement, and co-operation with State programs.

The club voted to make a contribution of fifty cents per member to a fund being raised by the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs to purchase an ambulance to be presented to the American Red Cross for Christmas. Mrs. Stickle, Mrs. R. T. Johnson and Mrs. R. C. Haydon were appointed a committee to attend to this fine project. Contributions may be sent to any of them at once.

Th next meeting will be on November 9, with an outstanding speaker from South America. An exhibit by local artists will be held by the Arts Section in October. A resume of the program as outlined for the club year gives evidence of many worthwhile projects, and an abundance of information and participation in the "finer things of life," which is so necessary to the present troubled days.

GOOD POLICE WORK

Officers Marshall and Herring, of Manassas, deserve much praise for their efficient work last Monday night in apprehending two men who are charged with unlawful entry and theft of printing supplies from the office of the Manassas Journal.

One of the men, Lacie Mullins, had just left employment with the Journal after a record of seven years of service. The other young man who was also lodged in the Town jail for the night was Arthur Gheen of the Centerville community. Both are deaf-mutes.

They were transferred to the County Jail on Tuesday afternoon to await hearing before Justice Compton and possible action by the next Grand Jury.

MOBILE UNIT WILL COLLECT BLOOD

The October meeting of the Prince William County Chapter, American Red Cross, was held on the 9th inst., to hear Mrs. Reed of National Headquarters, concerning the blood donor bank. This will be held in the Parish Hall, Manassas, Tuesday, November 10, Mrs. Mamie Lynch, Delaney, being chairman.

Members of the committee are Mrs. Marie Larkin, Mrs. Earl Hurst, Mrs. Stewart McBryde, Jr.; Mrs. George Turberville, Mrs. Charles A. Sinclair, Jr.; and Mrs. J. L. Bushong. Rev. Thomas Faulkner and Dr. and Mrs. Marsteller are members of the executive board.

The mobile unit from National Headquarters will arrive on the morning of November 10th, fully equipped, to take not less than eighty (80) pints of blood from residents of this county who count it a privilege to contribute to this priceless gift which is used by the War Department to save the lives of those at the far-flung battlefronts and also citizens at home overtaken by disaster. It is hoped that this minimum of eighty pints will be far exceeded.

Persons desiring to offer blood are asked to list themselves promptly with Mrs. Delaney, chairman, or any member of her committee.

Aside from giving aid to others, the donors receive further a very great compensation in that their blood is typed, which again as good citizens is of infinite value, and while being processed for the war emergency use should any blood disease be discovered at the laboratory, the person is advised, individually and not through any other agency or office of the Red Cross.

Further details of this clinic will follow in the next edition of The Journal.

Mrs. Edgar Parrish, Mrs. Worth Peters and Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson reported that their committees had accomplished their needed purposes.

The treasurer's reports for the past year have been audited and the Chapter well organized and doing everything requested of the by National Headquarters.

At the November meeting, Mr. Laise of the National Headquarters will be present and fully explain "disaster preparedness demands," at which time all children, executive board members and Red Cross members are urged to attend.

The chapter has been notified that its camp quota will be sent to Belvoir and a request has been made for kits for service men to be completed and shipped before Christmas.

Prince William County will not fail in its full contribution to the blood donor bank, which must be met on November 10.

MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION MEETS

The Ladies Memorial Association will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. A. O. Weedon, Thursday, October 22, at 2:30 p. m. A full attendance is requested.

BIGGEST SWEET POTATO. Early this week Mr. Harold Smith brought the largest sweet potato into the shop that we have ever seen. It weighs over six pounds, and the best part of it is that it is very sound and good, which means the editor will make about two meals off of it.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY MEETING. The W. M. U. will hold its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Thos. Russell on Oct. 20 and 2:00 o'clock. Mrs. W. J. Jasper will be the leader of the program.

ENTERTAINED FOR

MRS. FRANK COX

On Tuesday afternoon last a miscellaneous shower was given for Mrs. Frank Cox at the lovely home of Mrs. Connie Kincheol. The house was tastefully decorated and its cheerful atmosphere obscured the dreary outside. A large number of guests were present and the gifts were both useful and beautiful.

Mrs. Cox, a recent bride, is the daughter of Hon. E. R. Conner, member of the House of Delegates, and very popular with every one.

Mrs. W. H. Lamb was the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Connie Kincheol.

MAGGARD — CROSBY

Mr and Mrs. Jesse Crosby announce the marriage of their daughter, Lorraine Elizabeth, to Mr: Richard Ellis Maggard, son of Mr. and Mrs. David C. Maggard of Cumberland, Kentucky.

The ceremony took place Saturday, October 10, at four o'clock at the home of the bride in the presence of a few close friends and relatives. The Rev. J. J. Widmer, pastor of All Saints Catholic Church officiated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a brown faille suit with brown accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Her only attendant was her cousin, Miss Mary Gilroy of Washington who wore a tan suit with luggage tan accessories. Mr. James A. Maggard, brother of the groom, was best man.

Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served by the bride's parents after which Mr. and Mrs. Maggard left for a brief wedding trip.

BOOK CLUB MEETING

The Book Club will meet Thursday, October 22 at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. John T. Maloney. It is hoped that all members will be present and bring with them a visitor.

AN EXPLANATION.

As many of our readers already know, our linotype operator is lodged in the Prince William County Jail. We are therefore sending out this issue of The Journal with only four pages, that our advertisers may not suffer from unusual delay. Such an incident has never taken place in this shop before and we sincerely trust that it will never happen again.

PRINCE WILLIAM MEN AT GREAT LAKES

"Hitting the deck," Navy lingo for getting on the job, was the first expression the two Manassas, Va. Men who reported to the U. S. Naval Training Station at Great Lakes, Illinois last week, learned on beginning their recruit training.

Now classified as "boots," these men are receiving instructions in military drill, seamanship, and naval procedure, plus vigorous "toughening" under the Navy's physical hardening program. Upon completion of this training, the men graduate from "boots" and become Bluejackets, and at that time are granted a nine-day leave.

On returning from their leaves, these men will either be retained for specialized training at one of the Navy's many service schools, or assigned to duty abroad a Man-o-war or some other shore station.

These men are: George B. Posey, 20, son of Mrs. J. C. Posey, Clyde J. Nicholson, route 3; Alden A. Yates, 21, son of Elijah Yates, and husband of Mrs. Lena M. Yates, route 1, and Henry L. Russell, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Russell, route 2.

MATERIAL WANTED FOR WAR HISTORY

The Virginia Conservation Commission is launching an undertaking of importance. This is the gathering of material for a history of the present war as it concerns the state of Virginia and Virginians. It has been found by experience that if the collecting of historical material is left to a period after the event, much matter is lost, especially of a personal nature. Consequently the commission desires to collect the material while the war is in progress and while happenings are fresh. It will clip the newspapers of the state for articles, but some historical matter is not found in newspapers, particularly matter that might best be kept out of immediate publication. Moreover, other matters, such as programs of entertainments and church services, are often not printed in newspapers but should be collected. Another feature to be included is descriptions of public feeling during the war and public reactions to events of the war. Most of all, the commission wishes to gather full information about Virginians in the services, especially about those who die in the services, in order that a volume of biographies may be compiled.

In this connection the Conservation Commission is requesting persons to act as correspondents in the various cities, towns and county seats. But it also seeks volunteers for this service in all the villages and hamlets of the state, in order to gain as full material as possible. This is not a hard or difficult undertaking and should appeal to those desiring to make some contribution to the war services. Such persons are requested to write to H. J. Eckenrode, Virginia Conservation Commission, Life Insurance Company of Virginia Building, Richmond.

ANOTHER GOOD IDEA

Our good friend, Mrs. Bessie Tubbs, of Triangle, was in the office this morning to again offer a war-aid suggestion.

Mrs. Tubbs wants to know why so many folks who work the regulation eight hours can not individually, or by pooling, make more use of the hours of daylight which remain after the regular work is done.

The farmer does not need this idea as he works a double shift most of the time anyway. But

Make this friendly bank your headquarters for all of your financial transactions. Whether you are aiding the war effort by purchase of bonds and stamps, or are meeting your own necessities in these difficult times, you will find us willing and able to serve you.

The Peoples National Bank of Manassas

STAR SPANGLED SERVICE

THE work of banks has acquired more and more of a patriotic hue. Starting a couple of years back with the first "defense" loans there came a rapid procession of big war jobs for banks to do. The war work of banks already represents, in the words of President Roosevelt, "a record of accomplishment of which you all may be justly proud." But our bank, like so many others, considers our job only started. We know there will be new and heavier demands on us from our country, and we are ready to serve.

NATIONAL BANK OF MANASSAS

there are many on payrolls who might consider this idea of Mrs. Tubbs.

Electricity helps make America's war planes some of the world's most deadly weapons. Here are a few of the ways in which G-E equipment serves in the air.

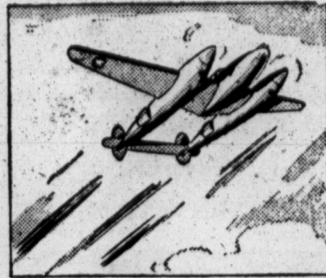

1. Lamps are the eyes of the plane at night, ranging in size from cockpit lamps no larger than a pea to landing lamps of more than half-a-million candlepower.

2. Radio combines the voice and the ears of the plane, allowing communication between the pilot and his squadron, and the ground and sea forces.

3. Instruments are the sensitive brain that relays messages to the pilot from all parts of the ship and helps him to control the plane in its flight.

4. Superchargers are the lungs of the plane, pumping extra oxygen to the carburetors, giving our planes the altitude so necessary to modern warfare.

NUMBER 65 ★ Cook for a crowd with the greatest of ease ★ Produce by the pound ★ Mary learns to make eating more fun

Cook for a crowd with the greatest of ease

For economy in entertaining, saving in transportation and genuine victory friendliness, neighborhood block parties or family get-togethers are really atune with the times. Pots of steaming coffee, bowls of crisp salad, and something solid for a main dish appeal to the whole gang.

ORGANIZATION—It's another thing, of course, if large-quantity cookery is new to you; but don't despair. Get some organization into the affair, let everyone know what she is to do. A good idea is to divide the responsibilities into cooking, serving, and clean-up duties and schedule everyone's work.

EQUIPMENT—If it's going to take large kettles which none of you have, borrow some. Preserving kettles are ideal for cooking large quantities of food, and cookie sheets make fine covers. Wide shallow pans are usually better than deep ones, because foods cook more quickly in shallow containers and aren't crushed by their own weight.

SERVICE—Buffet service is probably easiest for serving the crowd, particularly if the party is in the small quarters of someone's home. The Homemakers' Bureau has planned this supper menu which is well adapted for buffet style or tray service, although it could be served otherwise.

THE more you grow, the less you have to buy. Many dairy farmers find it more profitable to feed home-grown grains than to sell them. To help you use your home-grown grains most economically, Southern States Co-operative makes a balanced, concentrated grain mixture called Southern States 32% Milk Maker. You can mix this ration with home-grown grains in almost any protein feed you want.

A well-balanced 20% ration is made with equal parts of your own grain and 32% Milk Maker feed. For a 24% feed, use 7 bags of home-grown grain and 13 bags of supplement.

Drop in and let us figure out a balanced ration for you, making the best use of your home-grown grains.
