STATEMENTS FROM CAPITOL' SHOW GENERAL TREND THIS YEAR

Governor Darden has announced that he will ask the next General Assembly to make mandatory the revocation of drivers permits following three convictions for speeding, just as they may now be revoked for two convictions for reckless driving, or for drunken driving.

He further announced that plans were under way to strengthen the administration of the law which re quires that a record of speeding convictions be kept on the back of drivers permits "when available." It has been suggested that the arresting officer take up the drivers permit, and give him in its place a temporary license until the case in concluded at which time the license will be returned to him, with the conviction, if any, recorded on the back. The Governor was of the opinion that trial justices would be more apt to impose stiff fines if the record of previous convictions was before them. As the law is now administered record of speedingconvictions are seldom placed on the drivers permits since offenders seldom appeal for trial.

GAME AND INLAND FISHER-IES-Talbott E. Clarke. executive director of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries, has announced that he planned to ask the next General Assembly to make it mandatory for hunters to list their kill on the back of their license and turn it in at the end of the season. Until the old license is turned in with the required information a new one would States, Cooperative and its members' not be issued.

HIGHWAYS-General James A. Anderson has announced that new cost approximately $6,429,613 and, begin at 10 a.m. due to war conditions will consist almost entirely of strategic and access highways. The program calls for the construction of 81.11 of new highways, widening of 25.54 miles of bridge Home Demonstration Club. roads, a 129 foot bridge and the building of nine new bridges of a total length of 1,124 feet.

The York River bridge and the Mattaponi river bridge have been postponed due to the shortage of steel and other materials. "Everything depends upon conditions of the war," General Anderson said," and the availibility of crittical materials."

"Highway maintenance operations cannot be entirely eliminated," General Anderson continued," even though there is a reduction in traffic, as well as in the reduction of highway funds." The highways are essential to the defense of the country and even though the local traffic will, to a considerable extent, be reduced, the war effort depends on the highway transportation for many essen tial materials.

"The maintenance Department has been unusually hard hit by the inability to secure road oils, and the out look is that no materials of this kind will be available this year except for patching and resealing of the most important highway bridges. No new equipment is now available and repair parts are hard to secure.

General Anderson reported that the ing up very well, with the exception of localities where saw-mills are operto such an extent that trucks hauling the traffic.

FARMERS HEAR PRODUCTION CALL

Stirring Address at Kiwanis Banquet Here

One of the outstanding meetings of the Manassas Kiwanis Club took place last Friday evening when more the eighty members and guests took their seats in the dining hall of the Princ William Hotel.

The meeting came immediatel afte the call of President Rooseve! upon the American Farmer to go to bat in the interest of producing mer food stuff in 1943. The speker e this occasion was Garland Clark, county agent of Page County.

(Editor's Note-He was so goo that OD's lauerls were distinctly in danger). Kiwanian Roseberry (Al bert) had charge of the program.

Prior to this portion of the program there had been a patriotic solo by Mrs. Joseph Hanson accompanied by the Club's sponsor, Mrs. Kitty Baker. The group singing had the distinction of the three " cheer leader", Kiwanian Alpaugh and Parson Faulkner assisting the regular "stand-by" Kiwanian Ratcliffe.

The initiation of John Roseberry was conructed by past-lieutenan governor of the Capitol District, Coi. R. A. Hutchison. It was a timely affair with so many guests present No Kiwanian in these parts has traveled so extensively among the individual clubs of the United States and Canada as has Col. Hutchison and none could have drawn a better picture of the real field of Kiwanis eff

Mrs. Vincent Davis was introduced to the assembly and got off two of her inimitable monologues.

In getting his speech under way. Mr. Clark went from one yarn to another that he had his crowd "warmed up" and ready for the more serious portion of his talk.

He praised the farmer as another unit of the American fighting mach ine, and showed the food requirements for the civilian population here and abroad among our allies as well as the army needs. In speaking of this he drew a picture of the seriousness of "point rationing" and stated that one of the ways to most effective deal with this situation would be to raise "Victory Gardens."

Continuing, he deplored the labor situation and declared that no same proposal had been made for its soluthan ever before to do a far, far greater job.

The farmer he said is faced with this fact that when prices do get better there is always a labor shortage, and there is always a long, long time between "drinks" of prosperity

Mr. Clark's talk was one of the best given to county farmers in a long time and it was fortunate that such fine weather permitted such excellent attendance.

The list of guests is as follows: Pugh, J. Carson Woodford, M. G. Garber, W. R. Free, J. R. Eagle, C. B. Fitzwater, J. H. Eagle, D. W. Garber, Thomas D. Jones, Charles W. Lewis. C. C. Lynn, Jr., C. F. M. Lewis, R. J. The hostesses will be Mrs. Kitty Ratcliffe, Frank Miller, Leo Miller, Conway Seeley, C. C. Lynn, C. B. Roland, E. A. Davis, R. R. Fishpaw, H. J. Parrish, Henry Fletcher, C. H. Wine. Thomas G. Faulkner, Jr., Wilmer Kline, O. R. Hersch, Paul E. Kline Everett Kline, J. W. Ellis, D. N. Kerlin, W. E. Herring, N. A. Wheeler, G. R. Slusher, R. L. Fredrick, B. H. Lewis, J. W. "I never saw the likes of it!"

YES, Bill has been guarding that crossing for a good many years now . . . and never before has he seen the likes of the transportation job the Southern Railway is doing today.

You see, when America declared war, the men and women of the Southern knew that they would be up against the biggest, most important job they had ever tackled.

They know now that millions of fighting men are counting on them to keep enormous quantities of war goods rolling. They know now that Uncle Sam is depending on at a moment's notice. They know now that gas-and-tire-rationed civilians are looking to them to handle essential civilian travel and the transportation of civilian necessities.

them to move troops by the millions...swiftly, safely,

It's a big, tough job...chock-full of headaches and heartaches. But the Southern's men and women are setting it done!

That's why full-packed trains are rumbling by Bill's post at the crossing in an endless proces ... carrying freight and passengers in a volume that amazes even railroaders.

What's more, the trains that are heavy with war traffic today will keep on rolling after Victory is won. For then the Southern Railway will be serving a new and a greater South...a busy, prosperous Southland.

And Bill will still be saying, "I never saw the British Enlist Advice of Labor

Workers Are Represented on Production Boards in Many Industries.

LONDON.-For the first time in British history a move is being made on a national scale to enlist the skill and experience of the men and women in the factories and workshops to stimulate output.

In practically all engineering factories the workers are electing reprsentatives to joint production committees, writes Jack Tanner, president of the Engineering Union of Great Britain, expressing his per-sonal views in an article made public by the British information services. Formerly this had been the task of the managements alone.

task of the managements alone.

"Workers engaged on the job had no machinery for bringing forward ideas," says Mr. Tanner. "Often they felt frustrated because they could see that things were going wrong, but were denied the right of helping to put matters straight.

"Now that the National Engineering Employers federation has followed the lead of the government and agreed with all the engineering trade unions on a plan for joint

> 'I think it is true to say that many of the employers were amazed to find the wide range of knowledge among their workers. They have discovered that skilled engineers not only understand their particular craft, but have also mastered to a considerable extent the wider prob-lems of their industry.

"I have dealt only with my own industry, but this form of negotia-tion and co-operation between em-ployers and workers is by no means confined to engineering. Right at the beginning of the war, the tradeunion movement secured a government pledge that no decisions af-fecting the workers would be taken without the appropriate trade unions being consulted.

"That pledge has been kept. nest Bevin, the minister of labor, has carried out the greatest mobilization of man power in British history, but he has done it all in full consultation with a joint committee composed of representatives of the British Trade Union Congress General council and the British Employers confederation.

"This industrial democracy has enabled employees, employers and government to work together through the stormy years of war. I believe it must be maintained and developed for the equally difficult days of peace. If we succeed in doing that, we shall have gone some of the way toward ensuring that the promises now being made to the people are realized."

'Surprise' Awaits Enemy WASHINGTON .- Rep. J. Parnell

Thomas (R., N. J.) finished an inspection of some of the "most secret of newest material" of the army and announced: "Believe me, the Heinies are going to get some terrific surprises."

A comparison of army ordnance and captured German weapons at the Aberdeen, Md., proving grounds "clearly proved the superiority of American arms," said Thomas, a member of a house military sub-committee which has just finished an inspection tour. He said that the nature of some of the secret weap-ons "never has been hinted at publicly, and I know they will come as a complete surprise to the enemy." The new carbine adopted by the army, he said, is "undoubtedly the most effective small arm in the world." The new weapon is being supplied troops which formerly car-ried pistols as sidearms.

Bonus meats in the menu

There's no need of too much worry about making your meat allowance stretch when there are all those delicious bonus meats that can be had (at least at this writing). I speak of sundry meats such as liver, heart, kidney, pigs' feet and all those extras that don't come in on the meat quota.

As far as nutritional value goes, they have everything that other meats have, and in most cases, more too.
Liver, heart, and kidney are right on top of the list when it comes to contributing iron to the diet. They're vitamin foods, too, for they contain vitamins A, B, C, and some D.

If you've built up a psychological resistance toward them, it is most likely because you've probably never tried them. But if you like chicken giblets, then you're bound to like these bonus meats.

MOCK GIBLET NOODLES-Saute small pieces of liver or kidney or pre-cooked heart in hot shortening. Make a sauce out of the pam drippings or use mushroom sauce and add meat and sauce to hot noodles. Don't pass judgment on sundries until you've tried this dish.

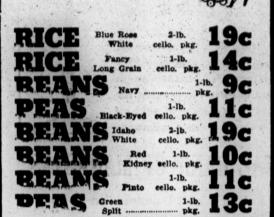

SPANISH KIDNEY-Remove white centers and tubes of kidneys, slice into thin slices, brown quickly in hot shortening along with chopped onion. Cover with tomato sauce or canned tomatoes and steam for about 15 minutes. Serve with rice or spaghetti.

LIVER BURGERS-Grind uncooked liver, using the coarse knife of the grinder, add about ½ as much bread crumbs, chopped onions and season-ings to taste. Add enough beaten egg or evaporated milk to bind mixture. Shape into patties and fry quickly. Grand with whole kernel corn.

Joseph C. Grew Warns

Half-Effort Will Not Defeat Japan

By JOSEPH C. GREW

United States Ambassador to Japan until the outbreak of war, and author of "Report From Tokio."

(Written for the Treasury Department in connection with the Retailers' "SAY YES" campaign to complete the nation's 109,000,000 partially filled War Stamp albams.)

W ASHINGTON, D, C.—In describing one of the big air battles over Guadalcanal a recent warrior caste which is ruthless and newspaper account tells of an Amer- cruel beyond comprehension. ican flyer who parachuted from his crippled plane to the waters of Lunga Bay. The Navy craft which picked him up next went to the rescue of a Japanese pilot seen strug-gling in the water nearby. As the rescue boat reached the Japanese flyer he suddenly pulled out his re-volver, aimed it at the drenched American pilot and pulled the trig-ger. The cartridge failed to explode. Then the Japanese officer turned the gun on himself with suicidal intent. Again he pulled the trigger and again his revolver failed him. At this point an American sailor knocked him out with a boat hook and pulled him aboard the American craft a prisoner.

Almost daily one reads eye-witness stories such as this one, and all of them clearly demonstrate that war with our enemy in the Pacific cannot end in compromise.

For ten years I lived in Japan. The truth as I know it from close observation is this: Nothing less than the exertion of our maximum capacities, individually and collectively, in a war of offense will bring our beloved country safely to the longed-for haven of victorious peace.

JOSEPH C. GREW Says It's Fight to Finish

From the flood of eye witness accounts of atrocity and bestiality one fact shines clear. We must utterly crush that machine and caste and system. If, however, we Americans think that collectively and individually we can continue to lead our nor- total victory. U.S. Treasury Department mal lives, leaving the spirit of selfsacrifice to our soldiers and sailors, we shall unquestionably run the risk of a stalemate with Japan. I do not have the slightest doubt of our eventual victory. But I do not wish to see the period of our blood, sweat and tears indefinitely and unnecessity. sarily prolonged. We must not fail to realize that we are up against a powerful fighting machine, a people whose morale cannot be broken even by successive defeats and untold economic hardship, a people who gladly sacrifice their lives for their Emperor and their nation. We must also remember that Japan did not start this war without carefully laid military plans for victory over the United States and a peace dictated by their war lords at the White House.

This is a total war, the only answer to which is a total American victory. It is a war in which half measures of any kind mean incredimeasures of any kind mean incredible-waste of material, energy and human life. In this sense a half-filled War Savings Stamp album is symbolic of a half effort. There are, I am told, roughly 100 million partially complete War Stamp albums now in circulation. These uncompleted Stamp albums are, in a measure like a 100 million threats to a ure, like a 100 million threats to a speedy and victorious peace. On the other hand, for every War Savings album completed and cashed in for a Bond, you the owner have helped some soldier or sailor take a forward step on the uphill road to Friends of Rev, O'Ferrall Thompson who has been acting rector of St. John's Episcopal Church since last une, journeyed to the Seminary on Tuesday morning to see him graduate. Mr. Thompson received his diploma at the head of his class.

He held his last service locally on January 10th at which time bishop Mason was present to confirm Mrs. R. J. Clizbe, who is now a member in good standing of the church.

Rev. Thompson has gone back to his own diocese, that of Southwest Virginia, having taken over the church at Bluefield, where he will be after February 1st. A grandson of Governor O'Ferrall, he is a gentleman of the old South and the Church is fortunate to have such a gifted young man in the ranks of its workers.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Matthews is reported as slowly recovering from her sudden attack of appendicitis which occured last month.

Cosat and Geodedic survey men have erected a triangulation tower on the school ground. It will be a base for future surveys, a plate having been placed as a permanent marker.

War Stamp Sales Over Half Billion Dollars, Album Drive Opens

Appealing Margaret C. Russell of the War Savings Staff tacks up this new Treasury poster which will be seen from coast to coast. It pictures retailers slegan, "SAY YES." A drive is underway for Americans to buy additional War Stamps to fill albums and convert them into War Bonds.

tion's retailers from the tiniest hamlets to the mighty cities are acting as a spearhead in a great Treasury Department campaign to sell the additional War Savings Stamps needed to fill more than 100,000,000 albums now in the hands of the American people.

$559,777,000 for the period from May 1, 1941, through November, 1942.

Stamp sales have risen from less than three million dollars per month when they were first introduced to the public to an average of more than fifty million dollars per month at the present time. The Treasury's slogan, "A half-

WASHINGTON, D. C .- The na- | dlled album is like a half-equipped soldier." has been adopted officially by retailers for the campaign.

The importance of the drive is seen in the fact that a War Bond potential of nearly two billion dollars hangs in the balance. Every War Stamp album, converted into a People's Bond, for which the purchaser pays $18.75 and which matures to $25.00 value when According to a report released by which the purchaser pays $18.75 and the Treasury Department today, which matures to $25.00 value when sales of War Savings Stamps totaled held for 10 years, "adds its force to the war effort. The Treasury Department is counting upon the country's school children to play a powerful role in the success of the SAY YES drive. The volume of stamp and bond sales is at the rate of $200,000,000 for the current school year.

SHIPMATE WRITES PARENTS

THEIR SON DIES AS A HERO

BUENA VISTA-C. S. Carpenter whose son Sergeant Courtney S. Carpenter, Jr., USMC was reported missing in action by the Navy Department on September 13, received a letter Monday from Corporal George Chamberlin a gun mate and friend of Sergeant Carpenter, describing his death.

The letter was written from a hospital at Pearl Harbor where Corporal Chamberlin has been since the sinking of the Quincy on August 8. Excerpts from the letter are: "Court and I were at our battle stations on Gun 17 of the Quincy. Things Charles R. Fenwick, member of the happened so fast—we were alone on the gun after all the crew members member of the Council, has had re- were either killed or wounded. We were going to leave our gun, which was completely out of action and try to give one of the other crews assis-100 acres, or more. Good house lationstip of the Juvenile Court to tance. Just after leaving our gun Courtney, remembering we still had one round in the chamber went back to attempt to fire it. Simultaeously a salvo hit right underneath us. I was temporarily blinded and slightly wounded by this, but was able to see in three or four minutes. I searched for Courtney and finally found him among the remnants of my gun crew. He was not dead but failing fast.

"The Japs had ceased firing and no more shells were hitting the ship." "I found a stray life jacket and put it on him. I managed to get him over the side with me and eventually to a life raft but he died en route and was buried at sea.'

That, sir is an account of the last minutes of your son's life. Courtney was living up to the highest traditions of the Marine Corps when he wanted to get that other round off-I hope I can be as good and fine a soldier as Court was and such an honor to his Corps, his Country and his name.'

Young Carpenter, 27, who entered the Marine Corps in 1940 was line Sergeant on the U. S. S. Quincy. He had visited 28 countries.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Carpenter, of Buena Vista, and one sister, Mrs. H. H. Hickman, of Richmond. He was a native of Roaneke.

(Editor's Note-Corporal George E. Chamberlin, Jr. is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chamberlin, Sr. Floris. Virginia, and is still in the Hospital in Pearl Harbor.

Jail 50,000 Jews In Old Fortress

Sick Are Dying Like Flies in Underground Dungeons.

LONDON.—Fifty thousand Jews from Germany and Czechoslovakia have been thrown into the Austro-Hungarian fortress at Terezin and several thousand who are ill or charged with "criminal" acts are in underground dungeons where they are "dying like flies," a Czech government spokesman said. Everyone sleeps on damp floors and each is given only enough food to keep alive.

"All hope for them has been abandoned," the spokesman said, adding that Jewish leaders in the Czech protectorate had received demands from the Nazis to prepare 15,000 other Jews for deportation.

The spokesman said the Germans had launched a campaign to ex-terminate Jews from the protectorate and that of 40,000 Jews formerly in Prague only 15,600 now remain.
The Jews at Terezin are said to include 7,000 young men and women who are forced to work on farms or build barracks. Outside fortress walls thousands of other Jews live in concentration camps where con-ditions are said to be "horrible,"

A European observer said the Germans planned to exterminate the Jews, not only in Europe but throughout the world.

"Extermination is the word," he said, "with a little torture thrown in to gratify the higher nature of the metaphysical and mystical ed 2,000,000 Jews in the past three years and that hundreds of thousands of others had been deported from Germany, Poland, Czechoslovakia and other European countries.

Too Much Salute, Not

Enough Shoot, Say Indians FORT DEVENS, MASS.—Indian soldiers stationed at this fort, itching to go on the modern warpath against the Axis, have one good-natured complaint — "too much salute, not enough shoot!"

That was the war cry among more than 1,000 tribesmen from Oklahoma, New Mexico and other states as Massachusetts observed "Indian day" in recognition of the aid the Redmen gave to the white pioneers of the Bay colony.

Since Massachusetts now has only a comparatively few of her own to honor, the presence of the Devens warriors gives the state its greatest population of Indians since the days of the Puritans.

All rags, rope and string must be kept separately and not only must not be destroyed, but must not be thrown into garbage cans or refuse

Advance Information

By CARLTON JAMES Associated Newspapers. WNU Features.

SAM SHEPARD was the logical suspect for the crime. Sam had borrowed $15,000 from old Mrs. Hodges, and had given her a note for the amount. Mrs. Hodges was a real estate operator and maintained an office on Fay street in Bridge-water. According to the secretary, she kept all her business papers in a safe at the office, but according to the secretary, she had taken Sam Shepard's note home with her on Tuesday night.

Mrs. Hodges lived out in the country in Barstow.

Wednesday morning she was found dead in bed, killed with a Tie $15,000 note was missing.

On the Monday before, Sam Shep-ard had left the distant city of Hayden and driven by automobile to Barstow, arriving Tuesday afternoon Barstow, arriving Tuesday afternoon about four o'clock and registering at an inn operated by a Mrs. Bean. He had gone directly to his room and retired, first telling Mrs. Bean that he was terrifically tired after his long drive. At eight o'clock that evening he had waked, dressed and set out for a walk in the country, returning to the inn about midnight.

He admitted being in the vicinity of Mrs. Hodges' house.

Inspector Otis Jackson, assigned to the case, learned these things before he called on Shepard. Mrs. Saunders, Mrs. Hodges' housekeep-er, gave him the added information that Mrs. Hodges had pleaded a headache upon returning home on Tuesday, and had gone immediately to bed, without eating any dinner.

Inspector Jackson got in touch with authorities in Hayden. They and Mrs. Hodges' office secretary provided him with this information: Sam Shepard's affairs were in bad shape. He hadn't been able to keep up interest payments on his note If Mrs. Hodges foreclosed he would be ruined. He had no particular reason for visiting Barstow in the middle of the week.

Jackson assembled all this information, sorted it out, thought about it and then went to the inn where Sam Shepard was staying, and questioned him.

"Why did you come to Barstow in the middle of the week?"

"For two reasons. First, my health was in pretty bad condition as a result of financial worries. Second. I wanted to have a talk with Mrs. Hodges. I owe her $15,000. I was going to ask her to extend the note for three months."

"Did you see Mrs. Hodges on Tuesday night?"

"No. I retired the minute I arrived here. I waked at eight o'clock dressed, walked out to the Barstow place, found it dark and so returned to the inn and went to bed.

Inspector Jackson looked at the roung man thoughtfu'ly. "You're pretty frank about all this."

"Why shouldn't I be? I have noth-

"Did you contact any one at all before you retired, after reaching here Tuesday night?"

"Yes. I called Mrs. Hodges' office in Bridgewater. Her secretary adn't been feeling well and had one home early." "Is that all?"

"Yes."

Inspector Jackson didn't arrest Som Shepard. Instead he had a alk with Mrs. Hodges' secretary.

"When Shepard called did you tell im Mrs. Hodges had taken his note "Why, no. Why should I?"

"That's the point. You wouldn't in Jac'son next day visited Mrs. Saunders, the housekeeper. "Did Mrs. Hodges tell you she had with her from the office before s'e relired on Tuesday night?" o di la't tell-me nothin', except at she had a headache and was g to bed without her dinner.

"Were you here all evening?" "Nope. Mrs. Hodges told me ! ould have the evening off, so I went ver to see my sister, Minnie.' "And what time did you get

About seven o'clock this mornng, in time to get Mrs. Hodges' preakfast." The buxom lady shud red. "It was me who found her. were:

"Yes, I know." Jackson returned to police headquarters and explained his findings o the chief.

"Of course," he said, "the one who killed Mrs. Hodges was the secretary. I've sent a man out to pick

"But hold on! How do you know? Sam Shepard had the only motive. would the secretary want to kill her?" "That's Jackson shrugged. "That's a All I know is Shepard couldn't have possibly known that Mrs. Hodges took the note from her office to her ome. And the note was stolen. The only one who knew about it being there was the secretary. I've checked thoroughly. It looks as though the secretary saw a swell chance to pin the guilt, logically, or an innocent man.

Our Freedom Is Priceless

By JOSEPH E. DAVIES Ambassador to Russia and Belgium.

(Written for the Treasury Department in connection with the Retailers' "SAY YES" ampaign to complete the nation's 100,000,000 partially filled War Stamp albums.)

What I myself saw in my four years in Europe gave me a new realization of the priceless rights which we here enjoy.

No secret police can in the night whisk us away, never again to be seen by those we love. None of us can be deprived by any party, state or tyrant of those pre-cious civil liberties which our laws and our courts guarantee.

None of us can be persecuted for practicing the faith which we found at our mother's knee.

None of us can be persecuted, tor-tured or killed because of the fact that an accident of fate might have made us of the same race as the Nazarene. No American can be placed by any party or government in a regi-mented vise which takes from him or her either freedom of economic opportunity or political religious lib-What would the millions of unfortunate men, women and children in Europe give to be able to live and enjoy such a way of life? Well, in this war, those are the things in our lives which are in jeopardy. Our boys are dying to preserve them for us. Then we can do no less than to say yes and mit mose war stamp albums. It is our duty and privilege to help the secretary of the treasury, Mr. Morgenthau, in his magnificent effort to do the tremendous job of getting the money to keep our boys supplied with the weapons with which to fight our fight.

Surely that is little enough for us to do on the home front.

We could lose this War!

MISTER, if you think this war's a cinch, better read your paper or listen to the radio. You'll change your mind—quick.

If you think we're going to march to Berlin and Tokio just because we're right—forget it!

People just as clean and decent as we are—just as righteous—just as patriotic, have been ground to the dust under the hobnailed boots of other people trained and toughened for one purpose—war.

Choose now. Either we give our boys the planes, tanks, guns, and ships they've got to have to win—or we're letting them march to their defeat and our destruction. Planes cost money. Tanks don't grow on trees. And the storks don't bring subchasers.

We've got to pay for them. "We" means all of us-including you.

How? By buying WAR BONDS. By putting 10 percent of every dollar we earn into the Pay-Roll Savings Plan. A dime out of every dollar—a dollar out of every ten—every payday. And every time our savings amount to $18.75 we get a Bond, worth $25 in 10 years. That's $4 back for every $3 we put in. Isn't that the least we who stay at home can do to help win the war? Stop and think about it—next time you're tempted to buy something you don't really need. Remember the President's words—"We cannot have all we want if our soldiers and sailors are to have all they need."

And if, every payday, we don't set aside every nickel, dime, or dollar we can possibly scrape together for War Bonds, we're letting our boys down.

That's the truth, every word of it—ana we know it!

DO YOU KNOW?

When you buy WAR BONDS, you're saving, not giving! Series E WAR BONDS are worth 33½ percent more in 10 years! You get back $4 for every $3 you invest! These BONDS, when held to maturity (10 years), yield 2.9 percent per year on your investment, compounded semi-annually!

Joining a Pay-Roll Savings Plan makes saving easy!

Thrift or Christmas Club) is a convenient way to save

Joining your bank's Victory Club (it works like any Thrift or Christmas Club) is a convenient way to save for War Bonds for those who aren't members of a Pay-Roll Savings Plan.

You can have enough money to do a lot of things you'd like to do, and to buy the many things you'll need after the war is over, if you save enough in War Bonds every payday NOW!

You can start buying WAR BONDS by buying War Stamps for as little as 10 cents.
