VICTORY FOOD CAMPAIGN IS ON

WOMEN LEADERS MAKING ACTIVE CANVASSES

The Prince William County Board of Agriculture met March 17th to launch the Victory Food Supply Campaign in this county and to consider farm labor problems. Mr. D. W. Tucker, of the state Extension Division staff, Blacksburg, assisted in presenting information to the board. Miss R. Belle Burke-District Home Demonstration Agent outlined the food campaign.

March 15 to 22 has been proclaimed as campaign week, but Neighborhood Leaders will continue their visits with all farm families as long as necessary to give each family an opportunity to make its pledge to produce at least a home supply of garden products, poultry, pork, and milk.

Leaders will distribute pledge cards which are in two sections, half to be retained by the family and half returned to the home demonstration agent. Those who make an agreement to produce as much of the home food supply as possible will be listed as V-Food Supply cooperators and will receive an emblem to be displayed in the home.

On the card returned to the agent's office, opportunity is given for the family to indicate its need for information on how to produce, and this will be supplied. Two new publications are just off the press, one on Victory Garden's and one on the farm poultry flock. These will be supplemented with other information to meet the needs.

The Victory Food Supply Campaign has been endorsed by Governor Darden who states "This is one of the most important programs we can launch for the welfare of Virginia this year, and I hope every family in Virginia will join in it."

Slogan for the campaign is the dire prediction that "those who do not produce may not eat." To this John R. Hutchison, director of the Agricultural Extension Division of V. P. L. adds, "Never before has it been so important to produce all the food possible."

The Extension Division has been requested by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to carry out the campaign, but many other organizations are cooperating with it: Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs, the Farm Bureau, the Grange, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, newspapers and radio stations, Council of Religious Education, State Chamber of Commerce, Vocational Education, Farm Security Administration, Soil Conservation Service, and others.

OBSERVATION POST DEDICATED

On Friday evening, with appropriate ceremonies the airplane observation post recently completed on the tower of the Town Hall was put into service on a 24 hour plan.

R. Jackson Ratcliffe is chief observer and he has named seven assistant observers, one for each day in the week. They will have charge on their allotted days.

The meeting was presided over by E. G. Parrish who introduced Lieutenant Speake, of the aircraft war-chairmaning service. State Senator Heller, of Bedford, chairman of the work in Virginia, also spoke very briefly.

The latter displayed movies illustrating the methods of reporting in the entirety, and how valuable the service is. A number of prospective observers were present and many questions were put and answered.

This new post is the consolidation of three smaller posts which have been operating for the past year. The new installation is modern in all details, and has a splendid view of the surrounding landscape for miles around.

PRE-SCHOOL "ROUND-UP"

The annual pre-school clinic for children entering Bennett School next year will be held on Thursday, April 1st, at 1:30 P. M., at the school.

It is important that all children reaching the age of six years by September 1 should attend this clinic.

If your child will be there, please let Miss Lanford know as soon as convenient.

Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet at the home of Mrs. Dennis Baker on Thursday evening, April 1st, at eight o'clock. Mrs. Vincent Davis and Mrs. Thomas Marshall will be Assistant Hostesses.

Wm. Hill Brown, Jr.

W. HILL BROWN, JR., SEEKS REELECTION

W. Hill Brown, Jr., Attorney for the Commonwealth, Prince William County, today announced that he would be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the office which he now holds, subject to the Democratic Primaries to be held on August 3rd, 1943.

Mr. Brown has served as Attorney for the Commonwealth, Prince William County, since April, 1938. He was appointed to this office in the year 1938 to fill out the unexpired term of the late Thomas H. Lion, and was elected in 1939 to the office for a four year term.

Mr. Brown was born in Manassas, Prince William County, Virginia. He was educated at the local public school, University of Virginia, and Washington and Lee University, and since 1933 has been engaged in the general practice of law here at Manassas.

BENNETT AND OSBOURN SCHOOLS OPEN DRIVE TO PURCHASE JEEP

March 15 saw the opening of the "Drive For a Jeep" in both Bennett and Osbourn Schools.

Off on the not so distant horizon is the goal, a jeep. Yes, a real army jeep!

Since both schools are taking part in this concerted effort to increase the sales of War Stamps and Bonds, there are actually two drives in progress.

To date after the completion of the seventh day of the drive Bennett School reports the amount of $281.05 worth of Stamps and Bonds. Osbourn High is quite proud of her record of $464.65 in seven days in comparison with the $361.20 sold during the entire month of February.

According to government records a jeep may be purchased for the sum of $900.00. Therefore $900.00 is the goal for both schools. If the students and teachers continue to respond to the challenge to "dip down deep" this quota will be filled before April 30.

According to plans now in preparation a ceremony of "field day" will be held for the purpose of christening the two jeeps.

On this day a program will be presented to the public in order to show what the schools have done during the year.

One week during the drive a "Bond Rally" will take place in Osbourn High School. All through this week students will vote for a jeep King and Queen by the purchase of Stamps and Bonds. On the last day of the week an entertainment will be presented by the various homerooms and organizations. The admission will be a War Stamp! At the close of this program the king and queen will be crowned and a prize presented to the homeroom or organization putting on the best performance.

The "Drive for a Jeep" in Osbourn is being sponsored by the High School Victory Corps. The V. C. has now become an important part of the school curriculum and is growing more and more in importance as days go by. This drive is only one of the many activities carried on under the auspices of this organization.

OSBOURN ALUMNI PLEASE NOTE

A meeting of the Osbourn High School Alumni Association will be held at the home of Mrs. Keith Lyons on Thursday, April 1, at 8 o'clock.

It is hoped that as many members as possible will attend.

A WONDERFUL ACHIEVEMENT

Prince William County, under the chairmanship of G. Raymond Ratcliffe, has hung up a most remarkable record in bond purchases.

During the past twelve months, it has been asked to raise slightly over $700,000. This is in itself a high figure to shoot at but the actual figures will run well over ONE MILLION ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

FAIR, UPRIGHT AND HONEST

Editor of The Times-Dispatch, Sir:

I read with surprise and regret of the death of the Honorable Frank Moore, of Lexington, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee. Mr. Moore was one of the highest type Christian gentlemen I have ever known. I served two terms with him in the General Assembly of Virginia and was associated with him on committees and on other occasions.

He was always fair and considerate of his fellowmen, and just in the handling of legislative matters. His upright, honest and conscientious method of dealing won the respect of everyone who knew him.

Mr. Moore's kind and thoughtful personality will be missed greatly in the General Assembly. Words cannot express the high esteem I had for this Virginia gentleman.

E. R. CONNER

Representative of Stafford and Prince William Counties, House of Delegates. Manassas.

COMMERCE GROUP WANTS VAGANCY STOPPED

At a meeting of the Manassas Chamber of Commerce held March 23, 1943 the following was unanimously adopted:

"WHEREAS, the shortage of farm labor in this county is becoming more acute, and

WHEREAS, a number of able bodied men, many of whom are without visible means of support, can be seen at almost anytime loafing in the various towns and villages of this county.

THEREFORE, be it resolved that we hereby request the sheriff and other law enforcement officers of Prince William County and the law enforcement officers of Manassas to enforce to the fullest extent the State Vagrancy Laws in order to relieve the farm labor shortage."

HEARS REGULARLY FROM SONS

Mr. and Mrs. Berry Butler have been hearing regularly for their son, Tech Corp. Herman S. Butler, somewhere in The Middle East.

He seems in wonderful spirits, has seen lots since he left home, wishes to be remembered to all of his relatives and many friends back home. Sergeant Russell Thinker Butler is still stationed at Fort Devens, Mass., and is kept very busy in his line of work.

SERVICE NEWS

Robert Earl Hickey, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hickey, of Manassas, is now in training at the Coast Guard Station at Manhattan Beach, Brooklyn, New York.

COURT CLERK CANDIDATE TO SUCCEED HIMSELF

Along with other candidates for office, there appears in another column of the Journal a card announcing the candidacy of Leamon Ledman to succeed himself, as clerk of the court, an office he has held since September 1938, at which time his former superior, Hon. George Tyler died.

Born in Prince William County, Mr. Ledman was known to many people before he ever became court clerk. Some of his earlier acts of public service were that of magistrate and school trustee.

On April 3, 1916 he was named deputy clerk in which capacity he served until the decease of Mr. Tyler. This gives him a length of service of twenty-seven years in the clerk's office.

NOTICE "A" AND "B" BOOK HOLDERS

Holders of A and B gasoline ration books are eligible for grade III tires only.

Below is a letter received at the local Rationing Board from the Richmond State Office.

"We acknowledge your letter of March 16 with reference to Grade III tires.

We regret very much to advise that we have no Grade III tires in the State pool. If we receive any additional allotment, we will be glad to issue you as many as we possibly can."

TO FARMERS OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY

Orders for fall delivery of ground limestone have been delayed several months due to the labor shortage and transportation difficulties at the time plant. All those who have placed their orders are assured that the material will be coming through as soon as it can be shipped from the plant.

Even though this material may arrive at an inopportune time, farmers are urged to accept the material when it is delivered, as any cancellation for a later date will very probably result in the farm not getting any material at all. So far, no cancellations or orders can be accepted because the carloads are made up of orders for several producers.

All those who have not placed an order for any material at all, are urged to place their order for fertilizer (20% Superphosphate) since this material, so far, has been obtainable. This superphosphate is for use on hay or pasture and is to be hauled from the warehouse (Sadd's) by the farmer to his farm.

LORRRAINE C. MAGGARD, Sec. Prince William County A.C.A.

RURAL RETREATS TURNED OVER TO STATE HIGHWAYS

Secretary Ickes has announced that recreational areas in several retreats are being transferred to several states.

Many of these are near to the highways and will be taken over by those departments. In Virginia about 250 acres is thus involved.

"Jimmy" Now a Staff Sergeant

The Journal is very glad to report to the many friends of "Jimmy" King that he has recently been elevated to the rank of staff sergeant at Bolling Field where he is now stationed.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRINCE WILLIAM AND STAFFORD COUNTIES:

I announce my candidacy for reelection to the House of Delegates of the General Assembly of Virginia for the Counties of Prince William and Stafford, subject to the Democratic Primary Election, August 3, 1943.

Having served the good people of these two counties for the past two terms, and having been placed on two major committees—Roads and Finance—I feel that I can be of even greater service in the future.

There is no knowledge of the agreement, referred to by my opponent, by which a representative from each county should serve only two terms. I feel certain that the gentleman from Stafford never stood aside for me when first I became a candidate, and I see no reason why I am not entitled to run again.

I appreciate the support which I have had from the people of Stafford and Prince William Counties and if elected, I will endeavor to serve to the best interest of both counties.

Sincerely,

E. R. CONNER, Manassas, Virginia

BETHLEHEM GOOD HOUSEKEEPERS CLUB

The Bethlehem Good Housekeepers Club met March 17th at the home of Mrs. J. Kinchele with Mrs. C. B. Compton as co-hostess.

Mrs. Percival Lewis was in charge of the program which consisted of a surprise shower for Mrs. Victor Haydon, followed by an amusing game of wits.

Delicious refreshments were served to the fifteen members present.

The Club was pleased to hear from Mrs. Byrd that nine copies of the History of Prince William County has been sent out in the last month, to places as far off as California and even to London, where a copy had been asked for.

It is very gratifying that interest in this book continues and that the demand increases outside the county.

The Treasurer, Mrs. Byrd, reported that the Club had already made its contributions to the Red Cross and doubled the amount over last year's contribution.

A GOOD VEGETABLE GARDEN FOR EVERY TOWN AND RURAL FAMILY

We can no longer take food for granted. Week by week, the supplies of both canned and fresh vegetables for civilian use becomes more limited. The ration allotments of canned goods do not take care of the needs of families normally depending largely upon this source of supply and it is becoming noticeable that the supply of fresh vegetables is falling far short of the demand. With trucks and railroads so desperately overworked, it is a miracle that fresh vegetables from distant states are arriving as regularly as they do. Increased war time demands on the railroads and shipping restrictions will undoubtedly gradually restrict the supply of fresh vegetables. (Continued on page 4)

FARMERS AGAIN ASKED FOR SCRAP

STATE HEADQUARTERS ISSUES URGENT STATEMENT

Virginia farmers are once more being asked to make an intensive search of their farms for vitally important scrap iron and steel, Mr. O. O. Holler, local salvage chairman, announced today.

To insure continued production in all war plants, farmers in the State must contribute 87,500 tons of scrap, an average of 1,000 pounds for each of the State's 174,000 farms. The campaign will be run on a national scale, sponsored by the nation's rural press, and the Government has urged that 3,000,000 tons of scrap iron and steel be collected off the farms by July 1.

The Virginia Rural Press Scrap Committee will sponsor the collection in this State in cooperation with the State Salvage Committee and all local salvage committees. Robert A. Wilson, editor of the Virginia Farm Bureau News, is chairman of the committee, and other members include E. O. Meyer, secretary of the Virginia Press Association; Dr. Paul D. Sanders, editor of the Southern Planter; William C. Bourne, regional director of the Office of War Information; and C. H. Luebbert, executive secretary of the State Salvage Committee.

The drive will start April 1 and in Virginia will run to June 1, and although the season is a busy one for the farmer, the committee has stated that it is the time of the year when the farmer makes an intensive survey of his land, and so can turn up abandoned machinery or other equipment which will provide the vital scrap.

"There is no question but that a great amount of scrap remains on the farm," Mr. Luebbert, secretary of the State Salvage Committee, has stated. "If we all get enthusiastically back to this campaign, I am confident that all available farm scrap can be collected during the months of April and May. Surveys show that the most valuable scrap—iron and steel—is on the farm. We realize that this is a busy time for the farmers—but, we cannot forget that scrap is urgently needed if our boys at the front are to be provided with the implements of war."

Mr. Luebbert said that farmers, because of their increased activities at this time, should find it more convenient to pick up scrap on their farms and haul it to town, especially as they must go into town frequently for supplies such as seeds and fertilizers.

He added that although each of Virginia's 174,000 farmers have been asked to contribute 1,000 pounds, the committee realized that small truck farms could not be expected to find that much, but that the larger farms could make up the deficit to fulfill the state's quota of 83,500 tons.

BENNETT SCHOOL TO SPONSOR RUMMAGE SALE

Each year in the spring, the Bennett School sponsors some kind of entertainment for the purpose of raising money to help with the general running expenses of the school; such as, art materials, paper towels, magazines, shop and athletic equipment.

This year, on account of tires and gas shortage, we are being patriotic and are putting on a rummage sale instead of the usual appetta, Tom Thumb Wedding or Bingo party. We think this rummage sale will put back into circulation much clothing and other useful articles that can't be used by some and may be used by others.

The Bennett students are working very hard collecting material for this sale which is to be held on Saturday, March 27, at the Farm Loan Association Building on Center Street.

The school wishes to thank those who have already contributed and to say that if any more contributions are forthcoming the pupils will come for them if you will call the school.

LULA C. SUTHARD

Lula C. Suthard, age 75, widow of the late James Monroe Suthard, passed quietly away Wednesday, March 17, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Claude Woodyard, after a brief illness.

Funeral services were held Friday in the chapel of the Baker funeral home, the Rev. J. Murray Taylor officiating, interment at Independent Hill.

Mrs. Suthard was a life long resident of Prince William County.

Surviving her are five children: Irving Suthard of Washington, D. C., Elbert Suthard of Reidsville, N. C., Louis Suthard of Remington, Va., Mrs. David Davis of Washington, D. C. and Mrs. Claude Woodyard of Manassas, Va., three sisters and two brothers and eight grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend sincere thanks and appreciation for the many offers of assistance and kindly expressions of sympathy in the recent death of our mother, Mrs. Lula C. Suthard.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, Jessie Williams, who departed this life four years ago today, March 27, 1939. Gone but not forgotten.

Four long years ago today Our loved one was called away. A voice we loved is stilled, A place is missed in our home That never can be filled.

It is not so far away, In that cold and silent grave, Lies our precious darling Whom we loved but could not save. Through all these years we've missed you, darling, But God knows what is best, So He took you home to be with him.

In the home of eternal rest, No one knows how much we miss you, Only those who have lost can tell, Of the grief that is borne in sorrow, For the one we loved so well.

FAN MAIL

This is a new kind of fan mail. It's addressed to America's Man of the Hour... to the man in uniform.

Brave letters from Mom and Dad... scrawled notes from Sis... envious banter from the kid brother... soft, sweet whispers from the girl who waits.

Fan mail... weighted with inspiration and encouragement and love... sealed with silent, fervent prayers... voicing sturdy confidence in Victory and echoing a nation's swelling hymn of hope for a happier world.

The men and women of the Southern Railway System know what this mail from home means to a fighting man. That's why we are so proud to handle it. That's why we keep it moving, day and night... regardless of its ever-increasing volume... regardless of the thousand and one difficulties a railroad faces in time of war.

We know, too, that the same faith and hope and courage which today enrich the fan mail of America's fighting men, will tomorrow inspire a new and a greater Southland.

That's why we're preparing today for the job we'll have to do when Victory has been won; the job of handling the travel and the commerce of the New South with the same impressive efficiency that is today speeding troops and war freight—and the fan mail of the nation's fighting forces.

RE: NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY, VIRGINIA, TO PREVENT THE SPREAD OF RABIES

NOTICE is hereby given that at a Special Meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Prince William County, Virginia, held on Thursday, March 18, 1943, at the hour of 3 o'clock P. M., proof was submitted to the Board that a rabid or mad dog had been at large and had bitten other dogs, and it being the opinion of said Board that an emergency existed, the ordinance hereinafter set forth was proposed for adoption and adopted, and the Clerk of said Board was directed to advertise the same in two consecutive weekly issues of the Manassas Journal, together with notice that said ordinance, being an emergency ordinance, is effective as of the date of its passage, the ordinance being in the words and figures following, to-wit:

"BE IT RESOLVED that the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Prince William County, Virginia, be, and he is hereby directed to publish once a week for two consecutive weeks in the Manassas Journal, a newspaper published in this County, that said Board did at a Special Meeting held on Thursday, March 18, 1943, at the hour of 3 o'clock P. M., at the Circuit Court Room, Court House Building, Manassas, Prince William County, Virginia, adopt an ordinance in the words and figures following, to-wit:

"BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of Supervisors of Prince William County, Virginia, as follows, to-wit:

"It shall be unlawful to permit the running at large within the boundaries of Prince William County, Virginia, of any dog, and all persons owning, having control of or harboring any dog or dogs within the County of Prince William Virginia, shall be, and are hereby required to keep the same confined to their premises, so as not to come in contact with any person or animal, unless said dog or dogs be in the custody of the owner or his agent and fastened to leash.

"It shall be unlawful and constitute a misdemeanor for any person to violate or to permit the violation of the provisions of this ordinance, and every person convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10.00 nor more than $300.00, or by imprisonment in jail for not less than one nor more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

"BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED that this ordinance be, and the same is made effective immediately, to-wit: On March 18, 1943, and shall remain in effect for a period of forty-five days from said date, unless sooner repealed by the Board.

"BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED that the Trial Justice be furnished with a certified copy of this ordinance, and that complaints for the offenses hereinabove set forth shall be prosecuted under the terms of this ordinance, and that all fines imposed under this ordinance shall be collected and paid to the credit of the General County Fund of this County.

"This ordinance is enacted and adopted under the provisions of Section 3305 (70) and 3305 (70a) of the Code of Virginia.

AYES: J. Murray Taylor, C. B. Roland, C. B. Fitzwater, W. M. Johnson, V. S. Abel, G. C. Russell.
RE: DISTRIBUTION OF COPIES OF ORDINANCE.

Be it resolved that the Game Warden is hereby authorized to have printed and distributed 1000 copies of the ordinance passed by this Board today for the quarantine of dogs for the control of rabies and urge all dog owners to have their dogs vaccinated.

AYES: J. Murray Taylor, C. B. Roland, C. B. Fitzwater, W. M. Johnson, V. S. Abel, G. C. Russell.

Nothing further the Board adjourned to meet again on Thursday, the Eighth day of April, 1943, at 10 o'clock A. M.

Dressings styled for salad glamour

Variety in a salad lies not only in the salad ingredients, but also in the dressing. Just a dash of this or that does wonders for your favorite salad dressing and mayonnaise, and changes the entire personality of the salads. And now that spring is getting under way, and fresh vegetables and fruits are making their appearance on the markets in greater abundance, it's the opportune time to let generous salads assume a featured role on the menu. Salads are vitamin and mineral foods, you know, and do wonders for winter-tired appetites.

MOCK HORSE RADISH—Add 1/2 cup finely-ground cabbage to 1 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise, and touch it up with a dash of salt and pepper and celery seed if desired. Use it as horseradish or as a dressing for meat and vegetable salads. Perfect as a relish on cold plate lunches or with sandwiches.

MOCK HOLLANDAISE—Mix 1 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise, 2 tps. prepared mustard, 1 tsp. lemon juice, and a dash of salt, and serve as a sauce for hot vegetables.

PEANUT BUTTER DRESSING—To 1 cup of salad dressing or mayonnaise, add 1/4 cup of peanut butter, and a few drops of lemon juice. Mix well and serve on cabbage, carrot, and fruit salads.

SUNDAE DRESSING—Stir 1 tsp. powdered sugar into 1 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise, then mix with chopped walnuts and/or raisins. Top off fruit dessert salads with this heavenly dressing.

AND REMEMBER—Catsup, prepared mustard, chopped pickles, celery, olives, onion juice, garlic powder, meat and chili sauces, chopped, hard cooked egg, horseradish, a dash of sage, shredded cheese, chopped parsley and most any spice or herb can be added to salad dressing and mayonnaise for delectable taste variety.

SKYLARK

By M. T. Raymond and F. Zylstra

This book, written by Raymond and Zylstra, was published by Dodd, Mead & Company, N. Y. in 1941. The story is of two teen-age sisters, Susan and Fern Dewees, whose father had died and left them his photography business in Chicago.

The story starts when Susan went to the Municipal Airport to make a picture of a large clipper coming in. While making the successful picture of the clipper, she met the head pilot. Through this picture she and her sister won a free tour through South America, to make photographs for the Geographical Company.

In preparation for the tour, they found that the pilot was flying to the Southern part of South America. His duty was to deliver a plane called Skylark to a South American plantation and agreed to take the girls on their way.

On their tour the plane went out of commission. They were whirled into the jungle in their wrecked plane, Skylark, later to be found and sent home on board a large passenger boat.

This book is very exciting because it tells of the thrilling adventures of these two sisters who try to make the best that they can for themselves and those around them.

This book may be borrowed from the Ruffner Carnegie Library.

FAUQUIER BOARD ASKS WORK-OR-JAIL PLAN

Unemployed persons in Fauquier County should go to work on farms or be jailed under the Virginia vagrancy laws, the Fauquier County War Board of the United States Department of Agriculture asserts. The war board, meeting in Warrenton, urged county authorities to enforce the vagrancy laws strictly, since there is "an acute shortage of farm and dairy labor in the county." The labor shortage, said the war board in its resolution, has made it impossible for farmers to harvest all of the 1942 corn crop and threatens to interfere seriously with food production in 1943.

MR. CONNER ANNOUNCES

Some weeks ago, Hon. E. R. Conner, of Manassas, made a statement to the effect that he would be a candidate for re-nomination to the office of Delegate in the General Assembly. At that time no opposition was expected. Lately it has developed, as evidenced in the political cards now being carried.

Few men have gone to the General Assembly and secured the recognition which has come to "Ed" Conner in the time he has served. His power on the floor and in the many hearings and conferences is unquestioned. He is known by all of the influential men of the Capitol City and consulted generally in matters of public interest, state-wide as well as those affecting only Stafford and Prince William Counties.

The appearance of opposition to Mr. Conner was really a surprise. The people of the two counties are alive to the fact that they are fortunate enough to have a good man on the job and are not very likely to do anything toward replacing him.

Mr. Conner's official card appears in another column.

Three cheers for the Prince William County Board of Supervisors for putting a forty-five day quarantine on dogs in this county. The ordinance is a blessing not only to the population of the county, but to the best friends of mankind too—it affords protection to our citizens and to their pets against a possible epidemic of the dreaded disease of rabies as well as being a measure to insure residents against the general nuisance of being subjected to annoyance from dogs.

Candidates Cards

TO THE VOTERS OF PRINCE WILLIAM, FAIRFAX AND THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA:

At the request of many of my friends in this Senatorial District, I have announced my candidacy for nomination to the office of State Senator, subject to the Democratic Primary, August 3, 1943.

The district, composed of Alexandria City, Fairfax and Prince William Counties has a complex situation that needs the services of the most experienced man whom the voters can secure. My service in the General Assembly which extends over three sessions has fitted me to represent the best interest of all the peoples in this District.

As a life long farmer, I am fully acquainted with many rural problems which face the farmers of this District. Having served as a member of the Board of Supervisors of Stafford county and as clerk of the court of that county, I am in a position to assist in problems of county government which may arise.

Owing to war restrictions it will not be possible for me to see many of the voters of the District. I am taking this means to solicit your support and consideration of my candidacy, with the pledge that if elected I shall certainly devote my whole hearted efforts in the interest of all of you.

GEORGE W. HERRING, Woodbridge, Virginia

To the Voters of Prince William County

Subject to the Democratic Primary of August next, I respectfully announce my candidacy for the office of Clerk of the Circuit Court of Prince William County. Experience is the chief qualification, and having been in the said office since 1916—first as deputy clerk and then as clerk—I feel that I possess this. If elected, I will faithfully perform the duties of this office, as I have heretofore done in the past. The support and aid of every voter is respectfully solicited, and to the people of Prince William I now wish to express my appreciation and thanks for their past co-operation, as well as for any assistance rendered me in the coming election.

Respectfully, LEAMON LEDMAN

TO THE PEOPLE OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY:

I am a candidate for the House of Delegates of the General Assembly of Virginia, for the Prince William-Stafford District, subject to the Democratic primary election to be held on August 3rd, 1943.

After serving as your representative for two terms, 1935 to 1938 inclusive, it was my pleasure to stand aside in order that a candidate from Prince William County might have the opportunity to serve you in this capacity. This action of mine was in accord with the gentlemen's agreement entered into many years ago when the two counties were joined in one legislative district, and which agreement was that the Counties would alternate, two consecutive terms each. So far this agreement has been adhered to, and I submit in all fairness and equity our next Delegate should be from Stafford County.

It is my desire to again serve

MORE ABOUT CATHARPIN

NORFOLK, VIRGINIA March 16, 1943

Editor Manassas Journal Manassas, Va.

Knowing that the people of Prince William would like more enlightenment on the name Catharpin I enclose the copy of a letter which was printed in our paper. Personally, without giving much thought to it, I assumed that it was an Indian name, but since there are so many of English derivation in upper Prince William it seems quite plausible that Catharpin could be an important from the maritime nation. However, when I think of Catharpin I always am reminded of a pleasant little community whose baseball players could give any nine a game of it. There were the Browns, Sanders, Patties, Catons, Lynns et als, including the fair cheering section. If the dictionary had said that a catharpin, instead of being a leather-covered chain, is a horsehide-covered ball I would have searched no further for a definition.

Sincerely, Ralph K. T. Larson

City Editor, Norfolk Virginian-Pilot definition of catharpin—But the main question was how the name became attached to Virginia localities.

Editor, Virginian-Pilot: Catharins being strictly nautical, your Richmond contemporary would of course seek enlightenment from a general and then quote a landlubber. Catharpins were made of chain and covered with leather, they cross-connected the topgallant backstay on one side with the royal shroud on the other, close beneath the crossrees of a square-rigged ship. It should be noted that there was one pair of topgallant backstays for each mast, which were set up below with deadeyes and lanyards in the chains, and aloft were eyespliced to the jack, a spreader at the topgallant mast head. There was a pair of royal shrouds, set up in the top, and eyespliced to the royal mast band. When topgallant masts were hoisted, the catharpins kept these pairs from going adrift. Catharpins are briefly described in Admiral Stephen B. Luce's "Manual of Seamanship," used as a textbook at the Naval Academy prior to 1900.

Now, with uninformed speculations stilled, perhaps someone will find out how such a name came to a creek, etc.

VEGETABLE GARDEN

ually cut down on fresh food supplies as the war continues.

The situation offers a challenge to town and village families, where there is ample space for home gardens. The need of home grown food to supplement the limited rationed allowances will become more apparent as the year moves on. Throughout Virginia and the Nation, city and town men and women civic organizations and clubs are adopting "Victory Gardens" as their major project. Roanoke, Va. organizations are making a united effort to have a garden grown in every suitable back lot and on every vacant lot. Lack of teams or tractors for plowing up a plot for a Victory Garden should offer no obstacle since the average town garden can be spaded up by hand in a few hours time. The men in service are meeting their goals on the war fronts. Will we meet our home front goals of having "A Victory Garden for Every Town, Village and Farm Family"?

Growing a good family vegetable garden calls for work—work that every able bodied town and farm gardener will patriotically and willingly perform.

FARMERS WARNED IN MEAT SALES

MUST SECURE AUTHORIZATION BEFORE MAKING SALES

In order to prevent black-market operations, and assure adequate supplies of meat for the armed forces and equitable distribution among civilians, the Department of Agriculture has announced a meat management of purchase and sales.

Livestock slaughterers who sell beef, veal, mutton, lamb and pork, including farmers, butchers, and local slaughterers who are not already OPA "quota slaughtered under Meat Restriction Order 1, must operate under a permit system beginning April 1 and identify with their permit number each wholesale cut of meat sold. They must also keep records of purchase and sales.

Dealers in livestock must obtain a permit to buy and sell, and are required to keep records of their operations. Farmers are not required to have dealers permits, but are requested to keep records of purchases and sales.

Slaughterers operating under the Federal inspection act are required to set aside for war uses designated percentages of their production. This order is effective immediately.

Farmer permits in all areas, and butcher and local slaughter permits in all towns except Richmond, Norfolk and Bristol, will be issued by County USDA War Boards, according to instructions received by the Virginia board. War boards will report suspicious activities, but will not be responsible for compliance or investigation of alleged violation.

Farmers who slaughter for home use only, do not need a permit, but if any of the meat is sold a permit must first be obtained. The order in no way affects the sale by farmers of live meat animals, except the keeping of records of purchases and sales.

A farmer who obtains a permit for delivery of meat directly to consumers may comply with the regulation by attaching a tag showing his permit number. Meat delivered for resale must be stamped with his permit number. Slaughterers who already operate under Federal state, county or city inspection will continue to use the same number they now stamp on wholesale meat cuts.

An additional reason for the order is to curb the increasing sale of contaminated meat or meat from diseased animals. Meat handled illegally often does not receive sanitary care.

Upon receipt of permits, slaughterers will be issued quotas, based upon past activities. Slaughterers who deliver excess meat before the new restriction goes into effect April 1, may expect their quotas to be reduced in later periods.

Agricultural officials say that two main types of lawbreakers are engaged in black marketings. The racketeer slaughterer ignores the Government's regulations on the quantity of meat he may sell. The chiseling operator sells meat for prices higher than those permitted by OPA ceilings. Enforcement of the regulations will cut them off from their supplies. Unstamped meat may be readily spotted in butcher's coolers or showcases.

Consideration is being given to temporary increases in local civilian quotas in certain deficient meat-producing areas to relieve situations where the population and livestock production have increased, but because of rigid percentage slaughter quotas, livestock must be moved out of the area for slaughter and the meat transported back. This would relieve the situation in certain defense areas of the state says the Virginia War Board.

A dealer in livestock gets no stamp of any kind nor are his operations restricted. He is required to keep complete records, including the date he bought the animals, the seller, weight, price paid, to whom sold, and price received. Under the order a dealer is a person who buys and sells livestock and keeps them less than 30 days. Any dealer or agent who is registered at a posted stockyard under provisions of the Packers and Stockyard Act of 1921 is not required to obtain a permit.

MAJOR WOODSON DISCUSSES TRAFFIC CONDITIONS

Seven hundred and four persons in the State of Virginia lost their lives in traffic accidents during the year 1942, according to an official report just released by Major Charles W. Woodson, Jr., superintendent of State Police, and the total property damage amounted to $2,000,000. The total economic loss was $30,000,000.

In addition to the deaths from traffic accidents there were also a total of 6,479 persons injured. Of these 1,951 were classified as "seriously" injured. The figures for both killed and injured are much less than those for 1941, the figures for that year being 1,110 killed and 10,523 injured, but the mileage rate also decreased from 18.25 in 1941 to 14.3 for 1942.

Pointing out that 58 per cent of all accidents occurred during daylight hours and that 237 of Virginia's fatalities last year were pedestrians, Major Woodson said that speed too fast for existing conditions still continued to be the largest single contributing cause of accidents. Failure to observe the right-of-way rules he gave as the second largest contributing factor towards accidents; driving on the wrong side of the road, the third, and improper passing, the fourth.

Of the total fatalities 569 were males and 135 females, while of this number 193 were male pedestrians and 44 female pedestrians.

Rural traffic accidents accounted for 559 fatalities and urban the remainder, while bicycle riders accounted for 16 deaths.

Records show that Saturday is still the most dangerous day in the week, as far as accidents go. Last year there were 3,066 accidents reported on this day, while Sunday was a close second with 2,222 reported.

In spite of the fact that rainy days are usually credited with the largest number of accidents, Major Woodson reports that 74.5 per cent occurred during clear weather and 69 per cent on dry roads. Records further show that it is not the driver who is just a beginner who must be watched most closely, for 43 per cent of drivers involved in accidents last year had over eleven years of driving experience. Only one-half of one per cent had less than three months experience.

The dangerous driving age, according to records, would seem to be within the twenty-five to thirty-four age limit, with 6,466 accidents within this limit and 244 drivers in this bracket being involved in fatal accidents.

Liquor apparently accounted for but 13.8 per cent of drivers being involved in fatal accidents while 10.5 per cent of pedestrians involved had been drinking.

A total of 1,614 unlicensed drivers were involved in accidents during the past year and the accidents of 71 of these drivers were fatal.

Females drivers had a decided "edge" over the male drivers both as to the number of accidents and the fatalities. Records show that male drivers were involved in 20,353 in the State during the year and 697 of these were fatal. Women drivers had 2,046 accidents listed against them but only 30 women drivers were involved in fatal accidents.

Foreign licensed drivers were involved in 1941 accidents in the State during the year and of these 99 were fatal.

Major Woodson emphasized the fact that motorists should not relax their vigilance in the traffic lanes merely because wartime restrictions have reduced the amount of traffic. On the contrary he said the need for safe and sane driving is more imperative than ever.

TEACHER SALARY INCREASES LIKELY

Following lengthy conferences between Governor Darden and a special committee from the Virginia Education Association, it now appears likely that an additional salary boost for the school teachers of Virginia will shortly be announced.

Governor Darden told members of the special committee with whom he met last week that he was not disposed to call a special session of the General Assembly or to make any recommendations to them involving the large sum of money requested by the committee. Any immediate help for the school teachers now hinges on the ability of the committee and the Governor to work out and agree upon "some modest" amount which might be allocated to them by the Governor in an executive order.

The committee, headed by Francis S. Chase, executive secretary of the Virginia Education Association, laid before the Governor a plan for teacher raises of 20 to 30 per cent to meet increased living costs and other adjustments. It would require between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 a year and the VEA group requested action on the plan immediately in order that county boards of supervisors might take it into consideration in their new budgets which are now in preparation.

Governor Darden pointed out to the committee that such a large program was a matter for the General Assembly and that there was not enough time for the lawmakers to assemble and properly consider and act on such a program, certainly not by April 15th, which was the date set by the committee. He also pointed out that there are now many vacancies in the Assembly.

At Governor Darden's request the committee is now at work perfecting a new plan of a compromise nature. If this is in any way practical it will undoubtedly receive the Governor's stamp of approval. This, he has said, will be in the nature of a "modest increase."

Only a few weeks ago the Governor, by executive order, made available $232,500 to help localities cope with the teacher salary program. This anticipated by half a year the increase voted by the General Assembly providing for an increase of $15 per teacher unit.

In addition to the VEA committee, one made up of officials from eight southwest Virginia counties has also called on the Governor for assistance in the matter. They requested a 10 per cent increase.

The report from the special VEA committee is expected this week, and the Governor has said he will give the matter his immediate attention.

"CAPTAINS OF THE CLOUDS" TELLS GLORIOUS STORY OF ROYAL CANADIAN AIR FORCE

James Cagney takes off on his greatest role in "Captains of the Clouds" which will be shown at the Pitts Theatre. In a career which has been studied with brilliant performances, his role as the daredevil flyer in the new Technicolor picture emerges as the grandest of them all. "Captains of the Clouds" is a story of the Royal Canadian Air Force, and it is a story of glory, a story of thousands of men who hourly risk their lives that democracy may survive. Magnificently directed and photographed, superbly acted and brilliantly written, the new motion picture is one of the most vital and enthralling entertainments the screen has provided in many years.

A large and able cast supports Cagney in the film. There is Dennis Morgan, handsome and virile young leading man, who more than fulfills the prophecies made for his success after his fine performance in "Kitty Foyle." Brenda Marshall, whose flashing brunette beauty is fully revealed for the first time by the Technicolor cameras, is completely believable as a flirtatious and vixenish French-Canadian girl who plays havoc with the hearts of the fighting pilots. Alan Hale, George Tobias and Reginald Gardiner, as an Irish, Canadian and English flyer, respectively, each turn in memorable performances.

The story of "Captains of the Clouds" deals with a group of pilots who make a difficult and dangerous living picking up freight and passenger jobs in Canada's northern woods and lake country. Immersed in their own romantic, financial and personal problems, they pay little heed to the war until one day they hear Winston Churchill's "We Shall Never Surrender Speech." With one accord they go to the nearest air field to enlist. They are somewhat chagrined to learn that they are considered too old to be fighting pilots, that the air force can use them only as teachers. Used to flying "by the seat of their pants," they find the rules and regulations trying, and Cagney, a rugged individualist, is finally put out of the service because his disregard of rules causes a near-casualty. At last, however, using the papers of one of his pals who has done his last power dive, he gets the chance he has dreamed of—to fly a bomber to England. On the way over, the unarmed squadron is attacked by a lethal Messerschmitt, and in one final and magnificent act of courage, he wings his way to glory.

Henry was an old friend of the Journal and we are mighty sorry to see him pass.

KIWANIS CLUB ADDS DEFENSE SCHOOL DIRECTOR TO MEMBERSHIP

State Senator Heller, of Bedford, Va., and the military family of Speake were honor guests of the Kiwanis club last Friday evening.

Mr. Heller was introduced by "OD," who took time out to tell one of his famous jokes. Being in town in the interest of the new airplane post, he was present at the club as the guest of Kiwanis Parrish.

The speaker praised the work of civic clubs and told of the many jobs that such clubs were doing and could yet do in prosecution of the war effort.

Prior to his introduction, the Club welcomed a new member, Mr. Frank Alston, formerly of the Kiwanis Club, of Durham, N. C. He was given the hand of Kiwanis fellowship by Kiwanian Frank Sigman.

The lieutenant governor will be with the club on April 9th, and president Peters urged that all committees meet and report their progress by that date.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE FARM NEAR GREENWICH, VIRGINIA

By virtue of a certain deed of trust dated November 20, 1935, and of record among the land records of Prince William County, Virginia, in Deed Book 97, page 298, from J. T. Sullivan and Aimee E. Sullivan, his wife, to the undersigned trustee, to secure the payment of their certain promissory note in the sum of $1687.64, default having been made in the payment of the said note, the undersigned trustee, at the request of the holder of the said note, will offer for sale at public auction, on at 11 A. M. of that day, in front of the Peoples National Bank of Manassas, in the town of Manassas, Virginia, all that certain tract or parcel of land situate near the village of Greenwich, in said county and state, containing 73 acres, more or less, according to a plat and survey made February 14, 1924, by C. Fitzwater, Surveyor, reference being made to said deed of trust for a more particular description of the said land. The said tract of land is well located and has on it a comfortable dwelling house and all necessary out-buildings, and is an exceedingly desirable piece of property.

TERMS OF SALE: The said land will be sold for cash, but subject to the balance due the Federal Land Bank of Baltimore, under and by virtue of a certain mortgage against the same originally in the sum of $1500.00, and also subject to the taxes assessed for the year 1943. The balance now due on said mortgage will be announced on the date of sale.

T. E. DIDLAKE, Trustee

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE IN THE TOWN OF MANASSAS, VIRGINIA

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY, VIRGINIA, TO PREVENT THE SPREAD OF RABIES

NOTICE is hereby gives that at a Special Meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Prince William County, Virginia, held on Thursday, March 18, 1943, at the hour of 3 o'clock P. M., proof was submitted to the Board that a rabid or mad dog had been at large and had bitten other dogs, and it being the opinion of said Board that an emergency existed, the ordinance hereinafter set forth was proposed for adoption and adopted, and the Clerk of said Board was directed to advertise the same in two consecutive weekly issues of the Manassas Journal, together with notice that said ordinance, being an emergency ordinance, is effective as of the date of its passage, the ordinance being in the words and figures following, to-wit:

"BE IT RESOLVED that the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Prince William County, Virginia, be, and he is hereby directed to publish once a week for two consecutive weeks in the Manassas Journal, a newspaper published in this County, that said Board did at a Special Meeting held on Thursday, March 18, 1943, at the hour of 3 o'clock P. M., at the Circuit Court Room, Court House Building, Manassas, Prince William County, Virginia, adopt an ordinance in the words and figures following, to-wit:

"BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of Supervisors of Prince William County, Virginia, as follows, to-wit: "It shall be unlawful to permit the running at large within the boundaries of Prince William County, Virginia, of any dog, and all persons owning, having control of or harboring any dog or dogs within the County of Prince William, Virginia, shall be, and are hereby required to keep the same confined to their premises, so as not to come in contact with any person or animal, unless said dog or dogs be in the custody of the owner or his agent and fastened to a leash.

"It shall be unlawful and constitute a misdemeanor for any person to violate or to permit the violation of the provisions of this ordinance, and every person convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10.00 nor more than $300.00, or by imprisonment in jail for not less than one or more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED

that this ordinance be, and the same is made effective immediately, to-wit: On March 18, 1943, and shall remain in effect for a period of forty-five days from said date, unless sooner repealed by the Board.

"BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED that the Trial Justice be furnished with a certified copy of this ordinance, and that complaints for the offenses hereinabove set forth shall be prosecuted under the terms of this ordinance, and that all fines imposed under this ordinance shall be collected and paid to the credit of the General County Fund of this County.

"This ordinance is enacted and adopted under the provisions of Section 3305 (70) and 3305 (70a) of the Code of Virginia.

Omaha... Ten seconds isn't much time, is it? But listen! The Bell Telephone System today handles more than 850,000,000 calls daily. Suppose, by more accurate calling, by answering promptly, by less useless talking, telephone users saved as little as 10 seconds average per call. That figures up to 8,500,000,000 seconds daily, or more than 26 years of telephone service, which might be saved for the war effort.

Delhi... India has started a $24,000,000 "telecommunication development" to provide for greater civilian traffic, it is revealed in New Delhi. Between principal cities trunk telephone lines will be increased from 65 to 300. It is believed that industrial development and added telephone and telegraph communication will make it necessary to retain many of the new circuits after the war.

Chicago... "Uncle Sam in uniform"—whether training, fighting, or at other work—makes such extensive use of communications equipment that production for this purpose is enormous. The Western Electric Company, manufacturing unit of the Bell System, reports having turned out much more equipment since the present conflict began than during the entire period of World War I.

Stockholm... The number of telephones in use in Sweden, number one European country in telephone density, passed the million mark for the first time by the end of 1942. A gain of 54,000 telephones was reported last year, making a total of 1,014,000 now in service. On the basis of Sweden's population of 6,406,474, this makes approximately one telephone for every six persons.

Portland... Representatives of 10,000 Portland, Ore., club women have asked members to limit their telephone conversations to essential calls and "make those brief." "The thoughtful use of the telephone is a real contribution to the war effort," they said, "and one of the major needs is more shooting and less talking."

Pug Manders, Brooklyn Dodger professional football ace, is said to spend his off-seasons climbing telephone poles as a lineman, in order to maintain his famous "leg drive" which makes him a difficult man to stop when he has a pigskin under his arm.

How gasoline rationing affects your car

War-time driving conditions, for which your car may not have been originally designed and adjusted, necessitate unusual care. Here are tips from Pontiac engineers to help you guard against trouble and excessive wear.

Engine knock or "ping", frequently caused by lower octane, war-time gasoline, can be corrected through motor tune-up, timing adjustment or—in serious cases—removal of cylinder head to clean out carbon.

Pre-war normal driving required a change of crankcase oil every 2,000 to 3,000 miles. Today, shorter drives on a cold engine may cause harmful condensation and thus require more frequent oil change.

Batteries discharge in idle cars. Pontiac engineers advise, especially for A Card drivers, limited use of electrical accessories, battery check-up every two weeks, periodic check of generator, starter, voltage regulator.

Pontiac Service*

*IN THE SERVICE OF THE NATION

Essential transportation is vital to the war effort. That's why we, as Pontiac dealers, are devoting our entire energy and all of our skill, facilities and equipment to the all-American job of keeping your Pontiac and all makes of cars rolling safely and efficiently for the duration. Pontiac dealers and their service facilities are in the service of a nation at war.

Avoid difficult conditions, man-power problems and material shortages, it is good news indeed to know that your Pontiac dealer is "on the job." Our staff of competent, factory-trained mechanics, our efficient tools and equipment and our stock of functional replacement parts are here to help you keep your car running for the duration. How to Distinguish Nationality of Aircraft

UNITED STATES ARMY
Wing and Fuselage—Blue disk with white star and red center
Rudder—Black, white and red vertical stripes; blue field

UNITED STATES NAVY
Wing and Fuselage—Blue disk with white star and red center
Rudder—Blue, white and red vertical stripes

GREAT BRITAIN, R. A. F.
Wing—Blue stripe, white stripe with red center
Rudder—No identification; vertical red, white and blue stripes on fin.

RUSSIA
Wing and Fuselage—Red star
Rudder—No identification

MEXICO
Wing—Red triangle, white triangle with small green triangle in center
Rudder—Green, white and red vertical stripes

GERMANY
Wing—Black cross
Rudder—Black swastika circled in red field

ITALY
Wing—Roman fasces, yellow, in white disk
Rudder—Green, white and red vertical stripes with royal arms in center

JAPAN
Wing—Red disk
Rudder—No identification

Civilian air raid spotters will have no difficulty distinguishing Axis planes from those of the United Nations if they memorize the markings illustrated above. American and British planes have designs of red, white and blue, and Russia has a red star. Watchers on the southern border occasionally may see the red triangle of Mexico. Axis raiders are easily spotted through the familiar black cross and swastika of Germany, the round red rising sun emblem of Japan and the Roman fasces insignia borne by Italian planes.

Sugar Harvest To Set Record

Florida Everglades Crop to Yield 100,000 Tons in Six Months.

CLEWISTON, FLA.—The largest raw sugar mill in the United States reached a capacity output of almost 1,000 pounds a minute as 4,000 pickers harvested the war-rationed crop in the Florida Everglades.

From the 30,000 acres of cane under cultivation in the rich muck soil surrounding the southern banks of Lake Okeechobee will come more than a record 100,000 tons of raw sugar during the next six months.

This together with sugar produced in other sections of the United States must partly supply the needs of a nation whose imports have been curtailed by the war. Before Pearl Harbor, the United States depended upon Cuba, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Philippines for more than two-thirds of its total consumption.

Destroyed Four Years Ago.

Four years ago the U. S. Sugar corporation, which operates 12 plantations in Florida, was destroying acres of the new precious cane. The federal government, under the sugar act of 1937, had limited Florida production to 1 per cent of the total amount used in the United States.

Shortly before December 7 the restriction was lifted by presidential proclamation. But it was too late. The producers who suddenly were called upon to step up production found that machinery and other materials needed for the expansion were not available.

Today they are attempting to replace with research and efficiency of operation what they lack in facilities.

The Florida corporation maintains two laboratories and a staff of scientists who are constantly experimenting with varieties of cane in an effort to get the utmost return from a planting. The sugar house, which formerly operated on two shifts a day, has been placed on a three-shift, 24-hour-a-day schedule.

Sugar for the Soldiers.

This forced-draft tempo of operation has spread to the fields and the plantation homes of the Negroes who reap the cane. It is reflected in the made-up songs they sing as they swing the machete-like cane knives.

"Cut it short and get it all in . . . gotta send more sugar to the soldier men," is the type of chant that is heard above the metallic ring of the sharp blade against the brittle cane.

The Everglades harvest will continue until the middle of May, almost a month longer than last year. Jay W. Moran, vice president of the corporation, predicted that it would be the largest in the Florida industry's history, more than doubling that of five years ago.

Puts Tax on Childless to Hike Births in Bulgaria

BERNE.—Bachelors, widowers and childless couples of Bulgaria are to be taxed for the support of large families under a new state program to halt the decline of the birth rate.

A Sofia dispatch said taxes of the fathers of three or more children would be cut 40 to 50 per cent and the mothers would be awarded medals, ranging from bronze for three to gold for seven.

Bulgarian bachelors of 27 or older employed in state, communal or public positions, under terms of the law, are given 17 months from the effective date to get married. The same rule applies to managers of private enterprises.

Widowers and divorcees without children, as well as soldiers and officers, monks and bachelors, will be taxed from 5 to 20 days of their salaries for the fund to aid big families. This will be augmented by a 1 per cent tax on financial negotiations and realty transfers.

Childless couples will be taxed after six years of marriage.

British Hail Accuracy Of American Bombers

LONDON.—The admiralty was reported reliably to have sent a message of thanks to the U. S. army air force in Britain for its successful daylight raids on Nazi U-boat bases along the French coast.

The message was delivered after aerial reconnaissance established a "remarkably high standard" of bombing, the Daily Mail's air correspondent, Colin Bednall, said.

Declaring photographs of the results had been "an eye-opener to many in this country," Bednall added that "armor-piercing bombs are shown to have been pinpointed with uncanny accuracy and damaging effect, on the underground pens which the Germans boasted would give their U-boats immunity from air attack."

Judge Cuts Speeding Fine As Wedding Gift to Youth

CINCINNATI.—"I'll give you a $5 wedding present," Judge Spraul said in police court. "Instead of $8 and costs, the fine will be $3 and costs."

Judge Spraul was talking to Roy Bradford, 18, of Norwood, who was in such a hurry to get to Bethel, Ohio, to be married, that he drove 50 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone. The youth said that after receiving the citation he went on to Bethel and was married.

NEW AIR RAID SIGNALS AT A GLANCE

Effective 12:01 a.m., Feb. 17, 1943, in the Eastern military Area.

WHEN YOU HEAR:
A long steady blast on an air raid siren, horn, or whistle—This is the BLUE signal—This means enemy planes probably coming your way.

Black out the lights in your home and business house. Either draw your blackout curtains or turn the lights off.

If you are in your automobile on the street or road: Switch your lights to the low beam—proceed wherever you are going—proceed with caution—start thinking about getting to a safe place.

If you are walking: continue to walk—Start thinkink about where you will go if a raid signal follows.

WHEN YOU HEAR:

A series of short blasts on the air raid horn or whistle or a rising and falling sound on the air raid siren—This is the RED signal—This means enemy planes overhead.

Keep your lights blacked out. If you are riding in your automobile: Pull over to the side—stop—go to the nearest air raid shelter.

If you are walking: go to the nearest air raid shelter—get off the street.

If you are on a street car or bus: Get out—go to the nearest air raid shelter.

REMEMBER:

After the RED signal there will be a BLUE signal. This does not mean "All Clear." This means enemy plane no longer overhead. Keep on alert. Enemy planes may return.

YOU MUST:

keep your lights blacked out. If you were in your automobile prior to the "Red" signal, you may get back into it, turn the lights on the low beam, and proceed wherever you are going. Proceed with caution.

If you were walking prior to the "Red" signal, you may resume walking.

If you were on a street car or bus, you may get back onto it and proceed.

REMEMBER:

A BLUE signal may not always precede a RED signal. There may not be time enough. But a BLUE signal always follows a RED signal.

REMEMBER:

Whenever you leave your home or business house, the light must be blacked out or attended.

REMEMBER:

Unless your community has prescribed a signal for "All Clear" that is different from either the BLUE or the RED signal, the only thing that means "All Clear" is the switching on of the street lights that were out during the BLUE (blackout), or an announcement transmitted by radio, telephone, or police, or other means.

WANTED

Ten Dollars ($10) will be paid for information as to the location of quartz crystals commonly known as "diamonds," or rock crystals.

Only crystals that are clear and unbroken and being no smaller than one-half inch through are wanted.

Anyone knowing where such crystals can be found in quantities will be paid ten dollars on presentation of a sample and information as to where they are found.

"...and you'll always have tobacco in your old tobacco box!"

When I was a kid my father used to sing a song that ended up with this refrain:

"Oh, save up your money and put it in your sock
And you'll always have tobacco in your old tobacco box!"

Well, the words stuck with me, but I guess the moral didn't.

No matter how hard I tried . . . no matter how many good resolutions I made . . . I always ended up even. If I made more money, I spent more money. Finally, I resigned myself to it—sold myself the idea that I was the kind of fellow who never could save up any money.

But it's all different now!

About 10 months ago, I started buying War Bonds on the Pay Roll Savings Plan. Figured it was the least I could do for Uncle Sam . . . to be kicking in my 10 percent every month to help pay for the ways and means of licking the Axis.

That's the only way I thought about it . . . until just recently!

Now, all of a sudden, I've discovered that—for the first time in the history of Yours Truly—I'm saving dough. Every month, rain-or-shine, hell-or-high-water, I'm sticking away a War Bond, a bond that'll bring me back $4 for every $3 I put in.

Those Bonds are beginning to mount up now. And I'm going to keep them mounting up. For I've discovered what a swell feeling it is to be saving money . . . saving it on a plan that's regular as clockwork and twice as sure.

About the time those Bonds start coming due, my kid'll be ready for college. So you can guess what I'm going to do with the money.

And maybe I'll sing my father's song to myself . . . only changing it a little:

"Oh, save up your War Bonds and put them in your sock
And you'll always have tobacco in your old tobacco box!"
