SCHOOLS OFFER BIG HEALTH PROGRAM

REVIEW AND JEEP CHRISTENING ARE OUTSTANDING FEATURES

The Manassas Public Schools held their Open-House Celebration Thursday, May 6, 1942.

The program for the day commenced with the Music Festival directed by Miss Jessie Mae Conner. The music was centered around the songs of World War I and World War II sung by the glee clubs of both schools. Miss Conner sang a very lovely solo "The Rose of No Mans Land" accompanied by Mrs. Nancy Lyons. The members of the Spanish class sang several typical numbers under the leadership of Miss Sara Latham.

Following the singing of the National Anthem, by the entire group, the dedication of the Service Flag took place on the athletic field. The Service Flag was presented to the school and the Alumni Association by William Young, a student. Mr. R. C. Haydon, superintendent, accepted this gift in the absence of Mr. Wheatly Johnson.

Prof. R. Worth Peters, who was in charge of the day's events, then introduced Dr. Edward Alvey, Jr., chairman of the Virginia Educational War Savings Committee.

Dr. Alvey praised the students, teachers, and patrons and friends of the school, commendable accomplishment in the purchase of $18,962.80 worth of War Bonds and Stamps. This amount "purchased" 21 jeeps for the armed forces, estimating $900 per jeep. Osbourn and Bennett schools achieved this outstanding record during the time from March 15 to April 30.

Dr. Alvey said that if every school in the state had done as well as the Manassas schools the total sales during the National "Jeep campaign" would be greatly increased. He presented to the schools special certificates signed by Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Secretary of the Treasury, and Robert F. Nelson, staff administrator of the War Savings Staff.

This certificate bears a picture of a jeep and the name of the schools to which it was awarded. Since the certificate itself signifies the purchasing of one jeep, twenty gold stars were added for the additional jeeps. Dr. Alvey also commended Prof. Peters upon securing real jeeps for the christening ceremony. Lieutenant Louer, Fort Belvoir, Virginia who brought seven jeeps for the christening described a "jeep" as a "tough little job." Following the Lieutenant's description of the jeeps, the students who had been selected from the homerooms boasting the largest sales christened the jeeps.

As each jeep rolled up to the stand the student placed a name card on the front thus christening it. The jeeps were christened as follows by the following students.

CROWNING OF "JEEP ROYALTY" CELEBRATED BY STUDENTS

"Long live our king! Long live our queen!" A shout rent the air as to the strains of a conga Queen Bettie stepped down off her throne to lead the Conga chain. All the other dancers fell in behind the queen and her date and the line lengthened as it curved around the dance floor.

It was the highlight of the election for the King and Queen of the Bond Rally, which ended the day of the dance held in the gym Friday, April 30. The voting was done through the Stamps and Bonds committee. When one of the students bought stamps or bonds he or she was given a ballot on which to write his choice for the king and queen. The votes were a penny a piece so if a boy or girl bought an $18.75 bond, he or she would be allowed 1,875 votes for both the king and queen.

The drive lasted one week and when the votes were counted Friday afternoon, it was found that Harold Hersch and Bettie Parrish were first, thus making then King and Queen of the Bond Drive. Junior Roseberry and Nancy Parrish were chosen as Prince and Princess having gotten the next highest number of votes.

METHODISTS MEET AT GRACE CHURCH

ALEXANDRIA DISTRICT BRINGS MANY FOR ANNUAL ASSEMBLY

Grace Church, Manassas, Rev. W. O. Luttrell, pastor, was host to the Alexandria District Conference on Tuesday at the annual sessions. Some three hundred visiting ministers and delegates were on hand for one of the most inspiring meetings of recent years. Practically every minister of the area was present.

The talks, reports and sermons were all truly inspired and highly interesting and much appreciated. Of the lay talks, one of the most outstanding was given by Dr. George B. Cocke, who discussed the District Home.

Leadership training was another underlying theme of the meeting, and at least one fine sermon was largely devoted to this subject.

The address of Dr. Borchers, associate pastor of the First Congregational Church, Washington, was a careful study in the problems of missions in Latin America. Valuable literature was offered by the Conference to aid in such studies.

The Conference was honored in the presence of Dr. Paul F. Douglas, president of American University.

The ministers made their reports as usual, only this year seemed to carry more inspiring news than usual. Several seemed little short of marvelous. Just a few of the statistics are recorded here.

Admitted to church membership by profession, 624; by transfer, 905; baptisms, 383; vacation schools planned, 58 (one pastor announced five sessions lasting over a period of seven weeks); number women's organizations, 80.

Only ten churches in the conference had not paid their respective quotas to date and some had paid for the entire year.

At the close of the program, Mrs. Burchard expressed her appreciation of the cooperation of all those who made Music Week possible, and those who had helped with the Mother's Day Sing. It was very gratifying to hear the words of praise from so many who attended, there being about 350 persons in the assembly. The program as given follows:

MANY PRIZES FOR CLUB GUESTS

MOCK RADIO PROGRAM FEATURES KIWANIS LADIES NIGHT

Ladies Night at the Manassas Kiwanis Club passed into very pleasant memory last Friday evening when the semi-annual observance took place at the high school gym.

To serve such a large group at this time is no easy problem and the local school system deserves credit for having made the assembly possible. Chief among the workers was the president of the Club, Professor and Kiwanian Worth Peters.

The home economics department shone as usual, both in the matter of cuisine and the service also. There was an abundance of good food and all hands enjoyed a mighty good meal.

Early in the evening, the "mike" was turned over to "O.D." as chairman of the entertainment committee. He had a program termed "What's my name." Closet skeletons rattled and the pages of history and even of the classics fluttered as O.D. read out his enigmatic sketches.

Only the ladies contested, and "Doctors" Tiffany and Parrish introduced the "patients" after the had been first broken by the Club's charming little sponsor, Mrs. Kitty Baker.

A high point was reached when one of the ladies found "O.D." describing her "worse half" but she stayed by her guns and got a nice prize.

Incidentally all of the prizes were worthwhile for O. D. had certainly culled the business section and all of the unhappy politicians. In fact he had so much money that he ran out of time first and put all of the balance in a substantial "jack pot" which was won by Miss Elizabeth Merchant in a draw with Mrs. Worth Peters.

Practically all of the fair sex present went away with some sort of a prize and Secretary Jack Royer saw that lovely little "nosegay" corsages went to everyone.

Others contributing to the success of the occasion were Mr. John Elliott who gave a humorous monologue; Rev. Thomas Faulkner, who sang two solos, with Mrs. Kitty Baker, accompanying; and Miss Jessie Mae Conner, who also sang, with Mrs. John Beard as accompanist.

Of course, there was the regular singing period, with Kiwanian Ray Ratcliffe living up to his reputation as the best song leader in the Capitol District. Unfortunately the Kiwanians were so thoroughly diffused about the large hall that the best effect of their "close harmony" was not so apparent even with "Sweet Adeline."

The list of members and guests is as follows:

The Col. and Mrs. R. A. Hutchison, Andrew W. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Hunton Tiffany, Mr. and Mrs. J. Carson Woodford, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Sigman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sudd, Frank A. Allston, Rev. SERVICE CLUB IS SET UP HERE

INITIAL ORGANIZATION STEPS ALREADY TAKEN BY INTERESTED PARTIES

Plans are now under way for the Manassas Service Club which will be located in the Roger Cross building on Senter Street and which will be operated for the pleasure and recreation of the young men who are stationed at nearby camps.

The Chamber of Commerce has been active for the past several months in investigating the possibility of establishing a service club here, and at the instigation of the Chamber and the Ministerial Association a meeting was held at the Town Hall on the night of April 29th which was attended by representatives of the following organizations: Womans Club, Junior Womans Club, Kiwanis Club, Chamber of Commerce, Town of Manassas, American Legion, Girls Service Organization and Ministerial Association. The need for a service club in Manassas was unanimously acknowledged, several locations for an appropriate building were discussed, and the manner of conducting and financing such a club was thoroughly gone into. The representatives of the various town organizations were Dr. George B. Cocke, Mr. Hunton Tiffany, Mr. F. L. Austen, Major J. M. Hanson, Mrs. J. Carl Kincheloe, Mrs. P. L. Proffitt, Mrs. E. D. Gothaite, Miss Walser Conner and Reverend Thomas Faulkner, and it was decided that they should form the Governing Board of the Service Club. The following officers were elected: Chairman, Rev. Mr. Faulkner; Vice-Chairman, Dr. Cocke; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Gothaite; and Corresponding Secretary, Miss Conner. Members of the women's organizations of the town will be asked to serve as chaperones and members of the Girls Service Organization will act as hostesses. The club will probably be open every night and all day Saturdays and Sundays, and besides providing a pleasant comfortable lobby, there will be a reading room, writing room, game room and rest rooms. Several pieces of furniture have already been donated, but more furniture will be needed, also books, magazines, lamps, rugs, and a piano. The Girls Service Organization is contacting merchants and business men of the town for financial assistance. Any individual contributions will be greatly appreciated and may be made to Mrs. Gothaite, the treasurer. If anyone has any furnishings to contribute, they may get in touch with Mrs. Proffitt.

To date the following merchants and business men have promised to contribute financially: Pitts Theatre, F. L. Austen, County Board of Supervisors, Whitmore & Hixson, Conner's Market, Manassas Grill, E. E. Rohr, L. S. Rohr, Cocke's Pharmacy, W. Hill Brown, Jr., Proffitt's Insurance Agency, National Heating Company, Margaret Lynch Shop, O. D. Waters, John Y. Roseberry, Pence Motor Company, D. J. Arrington, Joe's Barber Shop, Prince William Hotel, R. D. Wharton, W. E. Trusler, Stanley Owens, Mrs. Orma Davis, Mrs. Robert Smith and T. I. Martin.

Plans are being perfected for the celebration of Memorial Day.

Weather permitting, the ceremonies will be held at the pavilion in the local cemetery on Sunday, May 30th.

The affair is under the joint auspices of the U. D. C., the Ladies Memorial Association, and the American Legion.

Watch the Journal for further details of the program.

Postal Clerk's Wives Club will hold its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. C. B. Compton Thursday, May 20 at 8 P. M.

Canning season just ahead

This year the legion of home canners will be far larger than ever before. And with the canning season just ahead, it's none too soon to start planning now for this food conservation event.

Plan Your Canning Budget

A fair allowance for the average person is 100 quarts of canned fruits and vegetables a year. This figure includes both home and commercially canned foods. Divide that 100 quarts in thirds, one-third for fruits and berries, one-third for tomatoes and tomato juice, and one-third for vegetables with a large portion in leafy and green vegetables, and you have a rough estimate of your family's needs for the year.

Take Inventory
Check your canning equipment first. A large preserving kettle is a "must" for fruits and berries and tomatoes. Unless you have a pressure cooker or can borrow or rent one or share with your neighbor who has one, just forget about canning vegetables, meat, poultry and fish. It is folly to even attempt to can these things in any other way.

Sort, Use, and Discard
Assemble all your jars that can be used for sealing. Some mayonnaise and peanut butter jars and other jars can be used if they take the standard size self-sealing lids. Check the mouths of the jars and discard all those with chips, cracks or flaws for such defects make perfect sealing impossible.

Storage Space
Be sure there's enough storage space for your canned goods before you plan too much canning, for if you haven't a place to keep them, don't can—foods will spoil! They should be stored in a dark, cool place. It is not wise to keep them in the kitchen because of the heat from cooking.

FOR EASY COOKING IN A LIMITED SPACE
If you're cooking on a burner behind a screen or in a very small space, you'll want to read "Cooking In A Kitchenette" in this week's Family Circle. It's free at Safeway—out on Tuesday.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Word of God
 "By word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path."—Psalm 119: 105

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

Lord, I call upon thee, haste thee unto me: and consider my voice, when I cry unto thee. Ps. 141:1.

THE STRIKE SITUATION

The fifteen days of grace so kindly given to the sovereign government of the United States by John L. Lewis are rapidly drawing to a close with no indication that the existing threat to the Nation's war effort is being removed.

The House Military Affairs Committee has just recommended anti-strike legislation which includes most of the Howard Smith proposals; and even that grave-yard of anti-strike legislation—the United States Senate—now seems to be turning toward some kind of protective action which will outlaw strikes for the duration of the war.

Apparently it is the President who is holding back. He seem to prefer the long standing policy of appeasement. Labor must not be restrained by law, according to this theory, or else it will become angry and really cause trouble.

However, all appeasement policies end the same way. The "appeased" gets angry and finally does its worst anyway. So the time to pull John L. Lewis down off his "high horse" is right now. We are only ankle deep in this war so far and we would better have this showdown now, rather than when we get in up to our necks.

The power to strike in a defense industry must be restrained by adequate laws. Union officials must be required to file financial statements with the proper authorities. Labor organizers must be subject to subpoenas by such agencies as the War Labor Board.

If the nation does not forthwith follow the advice given so forcibly by our own Representative, Howard W. Smith, a condition will be allowed to incubate which will cost us much in blood and treasure. The sooner the Administration realizes this fact, the nearer we will be to a successful termination of this terrible war.

Fighting on the Financial Front

You have heard much about the job banks are doing in the sale of War Bonds, and in the various War Loan Drives. Other war jobs of banking are not so spectacular, yet are vital—such as supplying credit for war production, maintaining essential financial services, safeguarding funds and combatting inflation. Of one thing, however, you can be sure. This bank—and thousands of others—are determined that the battle on the Financial Front can and shall be won.

Candidates Cards

To the Voters of Prince William County:

Feeling that my experience as Sheriff or Deputy for about twenty-eight years, justifies my being a candidate again, when experience is now needed under our present condition, I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Sheriff of Prince William County, subject to the Democratic Primary to be held on the 3rd of August.

I also take this opportunity to thank the people of said County for their kindness and consideration heretofore shown me, and hope my record will meet their approval and cause them to support me again in this election.

J. P. KERLIN

TO THE VOTERS OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Attorney for the Commonwealth, Prince William County, Virginia, subject to the Democratic Primary to be held on August 3, 1943.

I wish to express my thanks to the people of Prince William County for their support and cooperation during my present term of office. You know my record, and I feel, that with my past experience, I can successfully render a service to the people of my county. Due to the gasoline shortage it will be impossible for me to see each and every person in the county and so I take this opportunity of soliciting your continued support. You know what I have done in the past, both in private life (as I was born in your midst), and in public life.

If my efforts have met with your approval, I will greatly appreciate your help in the coming election.

Sincerely,
W. Hill Brown, Jr.

TO THE CITIZENS OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY:

I HEREBY respectfully announce myself a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for Prince William County, Virginia, subject to the Democratic Primary to be held August 3rd, 1943.

STANLEY A. OWENS
49 to end.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 27TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT

I hereby announce myself a Candidate for re-election to the State Senate for the 27th Senatorial District of Virginia, subject to the Democratic Primary to be held on August 3, 1943. I deeply appreciate the high honor you have bestowed upon me by electing me your State Senator.

I have on all occasions voted for what I believed to be for the best interest of my District and State, and if nominated and re-elected pledge a continuance of my best efforts in your behalf.

Respectfully,
H. H. Walton,

Mrs. J.-H. Stauff is spending a few days this week visiting relatives and friends in Washington and Arlington.

River Barges Will Carry Oil

Federal Craft Will Begin to Operate on the Ohio and Mississippi Soon.

KANSAS CITY.—The Federal Barge lines soon will be receiving converted river barges which will provide a carrying capacity of five million barrels of oil, Chester C. Thompson, president of the Inland Waterways corporation, announced here.

Putting these barges in operation, to run from the East Texas and Southern Louisiana oil-field areas up the Mississippi and Ohio rivers to points for shipment east, will make up a large part of the shipping loss river traffic has had on account of the war, Mr. Thompson told members of the Mississippi Valley association at luncheon.

What this transportation will mean to the oil-scarce East was indicated when Mr. Thompson said the capacity of the average rail tank car is 200 barrels. One tow will haul as much petroleum as the average freight train, he said.

Will Relieve Shortage. This inland transportation will help supplement the coastal traffic of tankers, lessened on account of submarine attacks on the Atlantic coast and in the Gulf of Mexico.

The railroads have done an excellent job, in Mr. Thompson's opinion, helping to relieve the shortage in the East, but they cannot continue this extra burden and fulfill all the other demands of the war effort without extra help. The protected Mississippi route thus will contribute much to the war effort.

Even wooden barges are being converted for the transportation of oil, he said. The conversion is being financed by the defense plant corporation, with some of the work being done by the Darby corporation in Kansas City.

River traffic, normally 55 per cent downstream and 45 per cent upstream, already is 85 per cent north-bound. This costs 2½ times as much to handle as downstream haul.

The downstream movement of grain, for export to foreign countries, has been lost on account of the war. Likewise, bulk shipments destined for the West coast through the Panama canal were shut off even before Pearl Harbor.

Economy of Service. Government restrictions on warehousing have curtailed other sources of traffic such as sugar, Mr. Thompson said.

"The economy of our service is the movement of commodities in large volume for stock piling or warehousing," Mr. Thompson said. "When advance supplies of sugar jobbers were restricted to 30 days, naturally we could no longer take care of that business."

Steel tonnage likewise had slackened on account of the immediate demands by processors on the mills, he pointed out. A big source of business now is of bulk sulphur, from Texas and Louisiana upstream to the consumer industries.

Missouri river traffic has been the biggest disappointment of the war-time era, Mr. Thompson said, but minimum weekly service between Kansas City and St. Louis has been maintained since early March and will be maintained "until the ice chases us out."

A glowing post-war prospect was painted by Mr. Thompson however. This country, he said, will be the only one with its productive resources largely intact after the war. Thus it will be producing and manufacturing for the entire world. This presents an excellent prospect for river traffic, in his opinion.

GOVERNOR FAVORS CONSOLIDATION OF TWO EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

Following informal discussions last Saturday with Dr. Julian A. Burruss of VPI and Dr. D. W. Peters of Radford, Governor Darden announced that he would recommend to the next General Assembly that Radford State Teachers' College be converted into a woman's college of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

This consolidation, the Governor said, would be in the interest of efficiency, economy and the avoidance of duplication. It will not mean the abandonment of the buildings at Radford or the moving of the Radford students to VPI. It would simply mean that the faculties, laboratories and other resources of the two institutions which are close together and connected by excellent roads, can be shared.

This would be beneficial to both. VPI now has more than 100 women students and has had as many as 150. The availability of the resources of Radford College would be of real value in handling the growth of coeducation. If the future brought further growth of coeducation at the institute, facilities would have to be provided for them and this would mean duplication of what already exists at Radford and in many ways the educational work would parallel Radford's.

From the Radford standpoint affiliation with VPI would be "of inestimable value," the Governor said. The educational opportunities for the Radford students would be broader—they could benefit by courses already being given at VPI, share the laboratories and faculty and possibly open up new degrees for the students.

Governor Darden reported the Presidents of both schools as "very sympathetic" to the merger plan.

and interested in having studies made to develop all possibilities of it. Neither institution is committed in favor of consolidation, the Governor said. He added that no elaborate project will be drawn up, but that he hoped to work out the broad outlines in cooperation with Dr. Burruss and Dr. Peters, for consideration by the next General Assembly.

This is the first specific proposal to be announced by Governor Darden of his general legislative plan for Virginia education. Sometime ago he announced he intended to submit to the General Assembly a comprehensive program for improving the education system.

Aid to Enemy

"Any American who wilfully neglects to pay his taxes on time or to invest every cent he can in War Bonds is surely giving aid and comfort to the enemy. We have a job to do and we are all called for service to our country. Our dollars are called to service too. Let us all ask ourselves, 'Shall we be more tender with our dollars than with the lives of our sons?' — Secretary Morgenthau."

"YOU'VE DONE YOUR BIT NOW DO YOUR BEST!"

DURING the first year of our toughest war, we—

Trained millions of fighting men—made millions of dollars worth of fighting tools—built millions of tons of shipping to carry these men and tools to the fighting fronts.

And to help pay for it all, we bought War Bonds. Altogether, 50 millions of us bought War Bonds. And nearly 30 millions of us started putting, on the average, 10 percent of our pay into War Bonds every pay day through the Payroll Savings Plan.

That was a good start—a whale of a good start. But, every American knows that it was only a start. Nobody would contend for a single instant that what we did in '42 is enough for '43!

Did we make 48,000 planes last year? Believe it or not—we did. But we've got to make 100,000 this year! Sure! We broke every record in the world last year, building 8 million tons of shipping. But everybody knows that the 18 million tons we're building this year isn't enough!

We've got to do more fighting this year. We've got to do more building, more training, more shipping—and more saving.

We've got to buy more War Bonds.

Is that too much to ask? Many of us are making more money than we have made for years. The things we'd like to buy with that money have either disappeared or are as "scarce as hen's teeth." So, why not put that money into War Bonds at good interest—$4 for every $3 when the Bonds mature? Money to help pay for the war—keep prices down—provide peacetime jobs and peacetime goods and a generally decent world for all of us when the war is won.

Chances are, you're already in the Payroll Savings Plan—buying War Bonds—doing your bit. But don't stop there. See if you can't boost your ante! Do your best!

How millions of Americans have done their bit—and how they can do better:

Of the 34 million Americans on plant payrolls, nearly 30 millions of them have joined the Payroll Savings Plan. (If you aren't in yet—sign up tomorrow!)

Those Americans who have joined the Plan are investing, on the average, 10 percent of their earnings in War Bonds. (If you haven't reached 10 percent yet—keep trying!)

BUT...

America's income this year will be the highest in history: about 125 BILLION dollars! In spite of all taxes and price rises, the average worker will have more money than last year—more than ever before!

That is why Uncle Sam has a right to ask us, individually, to invest more money in War Bonds, through the Payroll Savings Plan. He asks us to invest not 10 percent or 15 percent or 20 percent, but all we can!

BOOST YOUR BOND BUYING THROUGH THE PAYROLL SAVINGS PLAN

SENATOR BYRD RAPS JOHN L LEWIS

SAYS CONGRESS WILL SUPPORT USE OF FORCE

The President, in the circumstances, had no recourse except to seize the coal mines, and I fully approve his action. To seize and operate an industry by the government, however, is not a solution of labor controversies. It is entirely possible and probable that John Lewis prefers to see the coal mines of America nationalized and operated by the government. As he himself yesterday expressed it: "We now have a new employer—the Government of America, which has a good labor record." If John Lewis can bring about a situation for the nationalizing and operation of the coal mines by the government he can then mobilize his voting strength and can probably secure greater concessions from the government than from private industry. If losses then occur in the operation of the mines the National Treasury will pay the bill.

It is my conviction that the President has the support of the vast majority of the Congress in any measures he may deem necessary to control this critical situation. If further legislation is required to implement his present power, it will be quickly given. I will vote for any necessary legislation to put in operation the full force and majesty of the United States Government so that the interests of America may be protected.

I have advocated and actively supported all proposals to prevent strikes in defense industries. I introduced legislation, which is now pending before the Senate Military Affairs Committee, providing that all strikers in defense industries must "work or fight". If passed, I am convinced strikes in defense industries would cease for the duration of the war.

It was a shrewd move on the part of John Lewis in declaring a truce of 15 days. During this period desperate efforts will be made by him to effect a compromise and secure, if not in whole, then in part, his demands.

It is well for the nation to realize the extreme gravity of this situation. A government back-down or compromise on these issues now will result in starting a train of circumstances which can readily bring disaster to the country. Other labor leaders will demand the same consideration that Lewis has been able to force from his government by threats and coercion. What Lewis is determined to do is to secure a better settlement than any other union has been able to accomplish in time of war.

The future control of inflation is linked inseparably with the ultimate decision in the Lewis case. Any compromise or surrender to Lewis will render the control of inflation much more difficult, if not impossible. It will mean a wholesale demand for increased wages and will result in increasing the cost of living. Another spiral of inflation will then start which may have the consequences of a national disaster.

The coal strike issue is now between the government and the union, of which Mr. Lewis is the head.

A surrender or compromise of any vital principle by the United States Government to John L. Lewis would be a declaration to the world that America is unable to control its internal affairs at a time of the greatest peril this nation has ever faced. It would lower the morale of our sons who are fighting and dying on many foreign battlefields. It would encourage Hitler and the Japs, who would believe that after all America does not have the intestinal fortitude and the fighting spirit at home to support American boys who are fighting so bravely abroad. It would prove that John L. Lewis is more powerful than John L. Lewis is more powerful States.

No nation can win a bitter and terrible war if it permits any citizen, in a vital matter affecting defense production, to place his own selfish interests and the interests of his followers ahead of the vital needs of his country. Any compromise of any nature whatsoever in this controversy will have very damaging consequences to the full utilization of our most effective war effort.

Twice in two years John Lewis has won victories over his government and gained all of his demands. In this day of the most desperate peril this country has ever faced, will he win a third victory? The next 15 days will be critical days for America. The No. 1 business before the country is the winning of the war at the earliest possible time. Nothing must be permitted to interfere.

If you haven't gotten around to buying a Second War Loan Bond, stop and think what it would mean to you if our soldiers hadn't gotten round to the fight.

"Goose Step Tripper," Dolly Lonas; room, Jeffress; "Jupiter's Scooter," Jeannette Hurst; room, Heartwell.

Jeeps will be given these names as they are manufactured and roll off the assembly line. After the christening ceremony the Commissioned Victory Corps officers were given a ride through town, and all the honored guests on the speaker's stand were given the privilege of riding in a real jeep.

A demonstration of what the jeeps can take was given under the command of Lieutenant Lover. The audience gasped for breath as the jeeps sailed through the air off a board platform.

At the conclusion of the demonstration the lunch hour was called. The public was invited to inspect the exhibits displayed in both schools. The art exhibits showed outstanding ability, the airplane exhibit showed the work the Industrial Arts pupils are doing toward the war effort. The Journalism Club displayed the "School at War Scrap Book" and the issues of "The Yellow Jacket."

The science and social studies classes displayed posters, scrap books and other things concerning the relationship of their studies to the war. The commercial classes had on exhibit various examples of outstanding work in shorthand, typing and other commercial subjects. The Home Economics students proudly opened their cottage to the public for inspection of their work. The exhibits in Bennett were very interesting, the displays including art, needlework, and handicraft.

In the afternoon the speakers stand was crowded with honored guests to observe the Victory Corps Review; Colonel W. M. Best, V. S. M. C.; Colonel Fred Ryan of Occoquan, Virginia, Mayor Hanson from the Battle Field Park, Mr. R. C. Haydon, Mr. Tiffany and other prominent patrons and guests, Mr. R. Worth Peters as Colonel of the Victory Corps and several student and faculty officers.

After the Victory Corps marched onto the drill field and halted, Colonel Ryan, who instructed the officers in the principles of military drill, introduced Colonel Best, the guest speaker. Colonel Best praised the students on their drill and in his talk stressed the real value of the Physical Fitness Program.

By the command of Colonel Peters, the Corps passed in review before the reviewers stand. The spectators were quite thrilled at the impressive sight of the color guard marching in front of the three platoons of girls dressed in red, white and blue, the two platoons of boys followed the girls dressed in blue and white.

The race over the obstacle course proved to be most exciting, with Junior Roseberry taking the honors, John Broadus a close second and John Wood third. But we will meet in heaven some sweet day,
And there together we shall dwell.

When ever I go home dear mother
And see that you are not there,
I think and say to myself,
I know you are in Gods loving care.

ENTERTAIN ARMY SONS

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Athey have had visiting them their sons, Cadet Thomas W. Athey, army aviation student at the University of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Sergeant Carleton C. Athey, quartermaster corps, U.S.A., now stationed on the Alcan Highway.

Mrs. Virginia Stieringer was entertained by her girl friend, Miss Christine Williams at the home of her mother, Mrs. Bessie Hottle, Saturday night. Mrs. Stieringer is planning to spend the summer with her mother.

"I'm tired tonight
-and I'm proud of it!"

Yes, Tom is going home tired tonight... just like last night... and the night before. Tired and proud!

You see, Tom is a typical member of the Southern Railway Family. And when America was plunged into war, something happened to him... and to the forty-two thousand men and women who make up this Family.

Overnight, every Southern railroader became a soldier... every Southern car and locomotive became a weapon of war... every transportation job, a chance to hasten America's day of final Victory.

Since Pearl Harbor, this mighty army has struck many powerful blows for freedom... by keeping the wheels rolling under the biggest transportation load in all the long history of the Southern Railway System.

Rain and shine, day and night, troop trains and war freight... tank cars and passenger trains... are rolling continuously and swiftly on the Southern.

It's a big job... a tough job... a vital job. But it's being done... and done right!

That's why Tom and the other men and women of the Southern are tired when they go home from the job these days... and "proud of it."

They're proud, too, because they know that the work they are doing so well today is paving the way for the new and greater Southland that lies beyond the Victory they're helping to win.
