PRINCE WILLIAM DEMOCRATS NOMINATE CANDIDATES ON AUGUST 3

PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY CHAPTER AMERICAN R. C. HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Prince William County Chapter, American Red Cross, held its annual meeting on July 16 in the residence of the chapter's secretary, Mrs. E. H. Marsteller, Manassas, when reports of the year's work were presented by committee chairmen.

Mr. O. D. Waters, treasurer, received at the meeting final War Fund contributions from Coles District through Mr. William Ellycott, $18.50, which topped off the handsome total of $4,620.96 as the War Fund from this county to date. Since the quota of $3,500 has been more than met, this is indeed a source of satisfaction to all citizens who generously subscribed. Mr. Waters gave a report in detail of every penny given to the Red Cross and of every penny spent by the chapter.

The budget for the coming year was voted, which covers anticipated expenditures for Home Service, Disaster and War Aid, Nutrition, Junior Red Cross program, Home Nursing, Accident Prevention, Camp and Hospital recreational Council, First Aid, Blood Clinics, Production, War Fund, Roll Call, Administration and Civilian Relief.

299 pints of blood have been donated through the clinics held during the past nine months. These clinics will be continued and the next one will be in the Trinity Episcopal Parish Hall, Manassas, on September 16, when a large army of volunteers will be needed to meet the request from National Headquarters for 150 pints.

Numbers of sweaters, scarfs, helmets and stump stockings have been knitted; kits made and filled with articles needed by enlisted men; hospital garments, bathrobes and numerous pieces of clothing made throughout the county, besides much handwork done by the Juniors.

Mrs. Parrish brought a splendid report of Home Service activities, phone calls, telegrams, visits, case investigations, all of which lend aid and comfort to our men called to the colors, and to their families at home.

Civilian Relief, though limited, is to function during the coming year as it has done in the past.

National Headquarters urges the importance of the Chapter establishing a Home Nursing program in the county, and maintaining the Blood Donor clinics and Camp and Hospital Recreational Councils, which to this chapter include Belvoir and Vint Hill.

The Ration Board has been most kind and considerate in making possible the necessary food and gas purchases for those who came to give their blood at the clinics; Trinity Episcopal Church in lending the Parish Hall, and the Auxiliary donating and serving the doctors and technicians luncheons. Without these aids the Blood Clinics would not be possible.

The chapter's officers, re-elected, are as follows:

Mrs. William L. Lloyd, chairman; the Rev. A. H. Shumate, first vice-chairman; Miss Loretto McGill, second vice-chairman; Mrs. E. H. Marsteller, secretary; Mr. O. D. Waters, treasurer.

The chapter gratefully thanks the Journal for its generous cooperation; in every instance when the chapter has asked for publicity there has been a gracious and prompt granting of requests not only the past year but throughout a long period of the past.

PROMOTED TO SERGEANT

The Commanding Officer of the Middletown Air Service Command, Elmsted Field, Middletown, Pa., announces the recent promotion of Private James E. Senseney to the grade of Sergeant. Sergeant Senseney before entering the service was in the automobile accessory business in Charles Town, W. Va., Winchester, Va., and Luray, Va. He is a graduate of the Haymarket High School, Haymarket, Va., with the class of 1931, and is the son of W. E. Senseney of Catharpin, Va.

THANKS!

We are indebted to Mrs. Marshall Haydon for some very delicious ginger-bread, which was thoroughly enjoyed.

FIRST MANASSAS, JULY 21, 1861

A few years ago a German military student came to Virginia to study the tactics of Stonewall Jackson, who made his immortal stand on the banks of Bull Run eighty-two years ago this week. Today descendants of the men of Jackson's Brigade are pushing this same Marshall Erwin Rommel out of Sicily, after the British Eighth Army had chased him across a continent.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OF PRINCE WILLIAM HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

With one of the largest number of members and visitors present, the Prince William Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday, at the Prince William Hotel, for luncheon and business at noon.

Several committees were ready with reports, and the committee composed of Mr. Fred Hynson, Mr. O. O. Holler, Mr. C. W. Alpaugh and Dr. George B. Cocke, presented Mr. Fred Hynson, who gave a concise, interesting recommendation for the consideration of the members of the Chamber, relative to the establishment of a recreational center for the adults and children of this town and county. After some discussion and questions, the president Mr. C. C. Cloe, continued the committee with the request, that they report back as soon as possible, a definite plan and outline for the establishment of such a proposal.

Mr. Alpaugh reported as to the status of the closed N.Y.A. project here in our town, and after having reports from Mr. R. C. Haydon and Mr. Frank Allston concerning the prospects for the future use of same it was decided that the Chamber would use its influence individually and as a whole to try and have the Veterans Bureau take same over to be used as a rehabilitation training center for veterans of our country. On motion and duly carried, the following committee was authorized to act in behalf of the Chamber to take the necessary steps to have the Veterans Bureau take same over if possible, Hon. E. R. Conner, Col. Ryons, Mr. C. W. Alpaugh, Mr. R. C. Haydon and Dr. George B. Cocke.

A committee composed of Mayor Harry P. Davis, Town Manager Huntton Tiffany and Mr. O. O. Holler, was instructed to contact Mr. De Butts, Supt. of the Alexandria Division of the Southern Railway Co., to have trains No. 30 arriving here at 8:15 a. m. and No. 34, arriving here at 12 p. m. stopped to discharge and take on passengers to Alexandria, Va., and Washington, D. C., also to contact the 2nd, Postmaster general at Washington, D. C., to allow train No. 19, arriving here at 2:25 p. m., to work and handle Manassas mail from points north of Washington, D. C., thereby giving Manassas better incoming and out-going mail service.

A resolution asking Mrs. Frank Cox to place a write up in the D. C. paper and our local paper The Manassas Journal, inviting our women-leaders to become members of this Chamber and participate in the discussions pertaining to the betterment of our county and towns.

This was one of the most interesting and constructive meetings held for quite awhile, so remember its your organization and we need your help and attendance in person, so meet us next week, Tuesday at noon at The Prince William Hotel.

Mrs. O'Neal and Jimmie are visiting her parents at Scottsville.

NEW BOOKS IN RUFFIN-CARNEGIE LIBRARY

Some interesting new books have recently been acquired by the Library. Especially outstanding are Walter Lippman's "U. S. Foreign Policy" and Wendell Willkie's "One World."

Mr. Lippman's "U. S. Foreign Policy," though published only a few weeks ago, is already famous. Its main thesis is: "Can the United States make foreign commitments without a foreign policy and the force to back it up? Can we agree upon a foreign policy which will safeguard our future?"

Mr. Willkie's "One World" has had a phenomenal sale, already almost equal to that of "Gone With The Wind." In it he records his impressions during his recent epoch making trip around the world. His conclusions in regard to Russia and the framework around which a future durable peace must necessarily be built are very similar to those in Lippman's "U. S. Foreign Policy."

A list of the new books follows, and some discussion of the more important ones will also be given in another issue of the MANASSAS JOURNAL.

NON-FICTION:
Lippman—U. S. Foreign Policy; Willkie—One World; Saunders—Combined Operations (Official records of the Commandos). Holt—Life of George Washington Carver of Tuskegee; Nevins—Life of John D. Rockefeller, 2 v. Spence—One Foot in Heaven; Damon—A Sense of Humor; Pattee—Vitamins and Minerals for Everyone; Sense—America's Nutrition Primer.

FICTION:

Davenport—Valley of Decision; Beals—Dawn Over the Amazon; Christie—Cards on the Table; Garden—The Case of the Caretaker's Cat; Queen—There Was an Old Woman.

"DICKY" HAYDON GOES TO THE NAVY

The Manassas Garden Club will meet with Mrs. Robert Hutchison on Tuesday, July 27 at 3 o'clock. Please note the change of hour.

ENTRANCE AGE FOR CHILDREN BEGINNING SCHOOL

At a meeting of the State Board of Education, June 26, 1943, the Board decided that children may be admitted to the Public Schools of Virginia if they become six (6) years of age on or before September 30th. of the entrance year.

Acting upon the above the County School Board at its meeting July 7, 1943 decided to admit children to the first grade of the Public Schools for the session 1943-44 if they become six (6) years of age ON OR BEFORE SEPTEMBER 30, 1943.

The County Schools open for regular work Wednesday September 1st.

MAURICE SMITH TAKES OVER PRINCE WILLIAM BAKERY

Every town the size of Manassas needs a good bakery. Manassas has a large trading area in Prince William and Fairfax Counties and it is therefore a source of satisfaction to all of us that the Bakery has been re-opened and is operated by a local boy who is so proficient in this business.

Mr. Smith was born in the good old County of Culpeper, but he has lived here many years. He graduated from the local schools and worked for his father, Mr. J. W. Smith, for some time. He and his charming wife, who was Miss Helen Lloyd, enjoy a wide circle of young friends, and are both good church workers.

We gladly welcome Maurice back and wish him a long and successful business career with us.

MAY-NELSON

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. May of Bristol, have received word that their son, Marine Gunner Russell D. May of Ellero Marine Air Base, and Miss Shirley E. Nelson of Forest Grove, Mont., and Santa Ana, Calif., were united in marriage Saturday, July 10, 1943, in the home of Mrs. Mary Carothers, 521 Wellington Ave., Santa Ana, Calif. Wedding rites were performed by Capt. Albert N. Park, Jr., U.S.N.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with accents of dusky pink and navy accessories. She carried pink and white carnations and wore an arrangement of the same flowers in her hair.

She was given in marriage by Mr. John Trautwein of Costa Mesa, Calif. Mrs. Ruth Secor of San Diego, matron of honor, was gownned in gold gabardine with brown accessories and her flowers were Peruvian lilies.

Lt. C. R. Goehring, U.M.C., was best man.

The bridal party stood before the fireplace which was banked with greenery and shasta daisies and beautiful dahlias.

Mrs. Ruth O'Connell presided at the piano while Mrs. Marvin W. Oakland sang Cadman's "At Dawning."

After the reception Marine Gunner and Mrs. May left on their honeymoon at Idyllwild in the San Jacinto Mountains, Calif., and on their return will make their home in Santa Ana, Calif.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nelson of Forest Grove, Mont., graduated from the Lewiston, Mont., High School, and

A CORRECTION

Last week a typographical error made by us in the political announcement of our good friend, Hon. George W. Herring caused his statement to be directed to the voters of Fairfax County, when it should have been to the voters of his own County of Prince William, to which the financial figures specifically apply, although, of course Fairfax has benefitted quite as substantially, if not more so on account of its larger population.

Mr. Herring is particularly deserving of the support of the voters of Prince William, which has not had a Senator for 52 years; and he really has the most to offer the Democrats of Fairfax County and Alexandria City as their logical choice to represent them in the State Senate.

MISS YEAKLE IS BRIDE OF ENSIGN SWART

The Herndon Methodist Church was the setting Saturday afternoon, July 10, at 4:00 o'clock p. m., for the wedding of Miss June Irene Yeakle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Yeakle, of Herndon, Virginia, to Ensign Frank Daniel Swart, U.S.N.R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Stacy S. Swart, of Fairfax, Virginia.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. Marvin Mann.

The bride wore a powder blue street-length dress with a small white hat and white accessories. A corsage of white orchids completed her costume.

Miss Lella Yeakle, who wore a two-piece pink dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds, served as her sister's maid of honor, and John Swart, cousin of the groom acted as best man.

Immediately after the wedding, which was attended by members of the two families and a few close friends of the young couple, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The couple will make their home in Pensacola, Florida, where the bridegroom is stationed.

The Ladies Aid of the Manassas Baptist Church will hold their annual picnic on Tuesday, July 27, at 6 p. m. in the church yard.

Robert Harry Bryant of Manassas is registered at the College of William and Mary this summer under its "work-study" plan. Bryant graduated from the Brentsville District High School and entered the college in June.

Light Vote Probably May Cause Some Upsets

No Issues Involved Except In The Legislative Contest

(An editorial review by this newspaper)

On Tuesday, August 3, the Democrats of this County will make nominations to fill a number of important elective offices, and of course, these nominations will be equivalent to election as is generally the case throughout Virginia.

A number of the local officers have no opposition and their names will not appear upon the Primary Election Ballot. These include the County Treasurer, Sheriff, and Commissioner of Revenue.

County offices in contest include those of Commonwealth's Attorney and Clerk of the Court, and in one Magisterial District the nomination of Supervisor will occur. In these contests there are no outstanding issues involved, the battle being among friends aspiring to replace the incumbents in office.

For Commonwealth's Attorney, Mr. William Hill Brown, Jr., who now holds the office, is being opposed by Mr. Stanley Owens. Both are well known and highly esteemed. Judge Brown was born in Manassas where his father, the late William Hill Brown, Sr., was for many years the senior member of the lumber firm of Brown and Hooff. He was educated in the public school here. Mr. Owens is a native of Georgia, but has practiced law in Manassas for several years. He is the son-in-law of Mr. W. E. Trusler, Chairman of the Republican Party for the Eighth District, but Mr. Owens is well known as a Democrat.

For Clerk of the Court Mr. Leamon Ledman, the present Clerk, is being opposed by Mr. O. D. Waters. Both these gentlemen are well known and highly esteemed. Oddly enough, both have been Sunday School superintendents for a great many years. So far as this newspaper can observe neither of these gentlemen are offering for office on alleged unfitness of his opponent, but each candidate is standing squarely upon his own suitability for nomination.

It is only in the legislative offices of State Senate and Delegate to the General Assembly that any real issues are involved in this Primary. In the case of the State Senate there is no question as to the logical action of the democracy of Prince William County. We have our own county man in the race—a man who has rendered distinguished service to Prince William as their former Delegate, and we have the first chance of success in fifty-two years of having a State Senator from Prince William County. Few indeed can remember when the late Congressman Meredith was in the State Senate, and that is the last time our county had this honor. The name of George W. Herring will not be first in the order of names on the ballot, because the electoral boards to be impersonal generally arrange candidates in alphabetical order, but this name should be the choice of Prince William voters.

In the contest for Delegate there is also presented a very definite issue—not merely a question of returning to the legislature a man like E. R. Conner, whose record there has been so outstanding. In the present contest, as readers of the Journal already know, Mr. Conner is being opposed on the grounds of the alleged existence of a "gentleman's agreement" which it is claimed should cause him to retire voluntarily in favor of his opponent. As readers of the Journal already know the existence of any such "gentleman's agreement" is purely a matter of opinion.

IF YOU HAVE NO CANNER, MAKE ONE

"All authorities on home canning advise that non-acid vegetables be canned by processing (cooking in jars) in a steam pressure cooker because a pressure cooker is the only household utensil that can retain a much hotter than boiling temperature. High temperatures are desirable when canning beans, peas, corn, greens, etc., because they insure more certain destruction of bacteria and because the canning can be done more quickly. But," says Gladys Kimbrough, Home Service Director of Ball Brothers Company, who heartily approves using a pressure cooker whenever possible, "the time is at hand when we must be practical. Don't worry if you can't buy a pressure cooker for surely you can find a wash boiler, lard can, baby bath tub or some deep container in which water can be boiled. Tack a few strips of wood together to make a rack or platform to hold the jars about one-half inch from the bottom of the container. Find something, even if it has to be a board, to use as a lid. Then you will have a water-bath canner for those Victory garden vegetables."

"You are afraid to eat vegetables canned that way? Nonsense! A lot of folks who say a water bath can't be used were misled on vegetables canned by that method. But let's get three things clear before we go any further: first, there have been a few instances of poisoning from eating canned vegetables; second, all such danger can be avoided by boiling the canned vegetables 15 minutes before tasting or serving; third, a pressure cooker is not a guarantee against spoilage. There will be spoilage if the pressure gauge registers too low or if poor judgment is used in the selection, preparation, and packing of food into the jars. And don't let anybody tell you otherwise."

"Now, back to the water bath. The water should be steaming but not boiling when the jars are lowered into it and deep enough to cover the tops of the jars two or more inches. No water won't get into the jars if directions are followed."

The water should be brought to boiling as quickly as possible and kept boiling steadily throughout the canning period.

"Any jar suitable for use in home canning (and only those with names lettered on them are suitable) may be used for water-bath processing. Mason jars may be sealed with one-piece zinc cap and rubber—if you can find the caps—with glass top seal, or with two-piece vacuum seal caps. Glass top seal cups and vacuum caps seal on the top edge of the jar, therefore it is necessary to make sure the top edges of the jars are even, smooth, and perfect in every respect. The bands are screwed down tight on the vacuum seals as soon as the jars are filled to within from one to one-half inch of the top, and should not be tightened again. Zinc caps are screwed down on the rubber and then loosened slightly. Bands for glass top seals are screwed down and then loosened. This tightening and loosening is called 'partly sealing' and should always be done before jars are placed in a canner. Seals are completed by tightening caps or bands immediately after processing."

"Then there is the jar with a glass lid and rubber ring held in place with wires—it is ideal for canning, especially when fitted with high-tension, stretch-proof, steel wire. It is partly sealed before and completely sealed after processing."

"Those who select vegetables that are young, tender, and right out of the garden, and waste no time in washing them clean, cooking them five to ten minutes, and pouring into clean, hot jars and processing immediately, will live to laugh at those who say it can't be done. It is the Cans, not the Cans, who are going to win the war on both home and battle front."

WILL HITLER BOMB THE VATICAN?

After due warning to Italy the Allies have begun the systematic bombing of military objectives in Rome, by daylight when they can select their targets.

Rome is a great center of Axis military activity and should be bombed whenever the attack fits into the strategy of the United Nations.

Nearby is Vatican City—a religious center of priceless value to all Christian people throughout the world. The Allies have pledged themselves to spare religious and historical places at Rome. It is conceivable, however, that the Vatican might be unintentionally and accidentally hit.

There is more probability, however, that Hitler himself might destroy the Vatican, charging the crime to the American or British bombers. That he is capable of doing so is amply demonstrated and that such an outrage would possess enormous propaganda advantages cannot be doubted.

Looking back a little way into our own history to the sinking of our battleship Maine in Havana Harbor, it has never been proven to this day that the deed was not done by Cuban or other interventionists seeking war between the United States and Spain. Thus a slogan, "Remember the Maine," contributed substantially to that conflict.

In a like manner Adolph Hitler might seek to inspire for his own use a great slogan, "Remember the Vatican." He could easily also drop shell fragments of unquestioned American manufacture. These are very easily obtainable in the Ruhr Valley and in Berlin itself, with more to come.

By such a dastardly act the Nazi war machine might hope to divide the Protestant and Catholic world in a way they fancy would prolong their own tottering regime.

ARE YOU HELPING THE AIRCRAFT WARNING SERVICE IN MANASSAS?

TO THE VOTERS OF PRINCE WILLIAM, FAIRFAX AND THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA:

At the request of many of my friends in this Senatorial District, I have announced my candidacy for nomination to the office of State Senator, subject to the Democratic Primary, August 3, 1943.

The district, composed of Alexandria City, Fairfax and Prince William Counties has a complex situation that needs the services of the most experienced man whom the voters can secure. My service in the General Assembly which extends over three sessions has fitted me to represent the best interest of all the peoples in this District.

As a life long farmer, I am fully acquainted with many rural problems which face the farmers of this District. Having served as a member of the Board of Supervisors of Stafford county and as clerk of the court of that county, I am in a position to assist in problems of county government which may arise.

Owing to war restrictions it will not be possible for me to see many of the voters of the District. I am taking this means to solicit your support and consideration of my candidacy, with the pledge that if elected I shall certainly devote my whole hearted efforts in the interest of all of you.

GEORGE W. HERRING,
Woodbridge, Virginia

WILLIAM AND STAFFORD COUNTIES:

I announce my candidacy for re-election to the House of Delegates of the General Assembly of Virginia for the Counties of Prince William and Stafford, subject to the Democratic Primary Election, August 3, 1943.

Having served the good people of these two counties for the past two terms, and having been placed on two major committees—Roads and Finance—I feel that I can be of even greater service in the future.

There is no knowledge of the agreement, referred to by my opponent, by which a representative from each county should serve only two terms. I feel certain that the gentleman from Stafford never stood aside for me when first I became a candidate, and I see no reason why I am not entitled to run again. I appreciate the support which I have had from the people of Stafford and Prince William Counties and if elected, I will endeavor to serve to the best interest of both counties.

Sincerely,

E. R. CONNER,
Manassas, Virginia

TO THE VOTERS OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Attorney for the Commonwealth, Prince William County, Virginia, subject to the Democratic Primary to be held on August 3, 1943.

I wish to express my thanks to the people of Prince William County for their support and cooperation during my present term of office. You know my record, and I feel, that with my past experience, I can successfully render a service to the people of my county. Due to the gasoline shortage it will be impossible for me to see each and every person in the county and so I take this opportunity of soliciting your continued support. You know what I have done in the past, both in private life (as I was born in your midst), and in public life.

If my efforts have met with your help in the coming election,

Sincerely,

W. Hill Brown, Jr.

TO THE CITIZENS OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY:

I HEREBY respectfully announce myself a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for Prince William County, Virginia, subject to the Democratic Primary to be held August 3rd, 1943.

STANLEY A. OWENS

I hereby announce my candidacy for re-nomination as Justice of The Peace for Gainesville District. I will appreciate your support.

I hereby announce myself a Candidate for re-election to the State Senate for the 27th Senatorial District of Virginia, subject to the Democratic Primary to be held on August 3, 1943. I deeply appreciate the high honor you have bestowed upon me by electing me your State Senator. I have on all occasions voted for what I believed to be for the best interest of my District and State, and if nominated and re-elected pledge a continuance of my best efforts in your behalf.

EVERY DRIVER CAN HELP

KEEP 'EM ROLLING

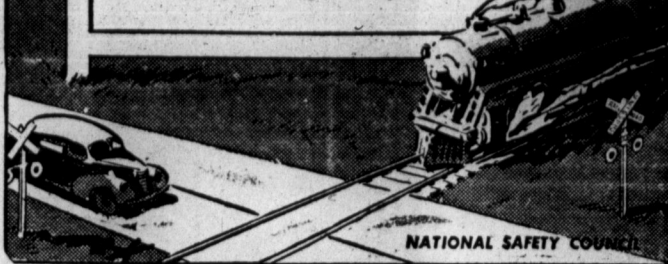

WAR, 1943 style, is war on wheels. Men, weapons and materials vital to victory must be moved swiftly, safely and without delay.

But each day accidents at grade crossings in America injure or kill 19 motorists and delay 38 trains a total of 22 hours—a drain on manpower and time that a nation at war simply cannot afford.

Will you, as a patriotic driver, enlist in the nationwide campaign now under way to stop these accidents? Here's how you can help:

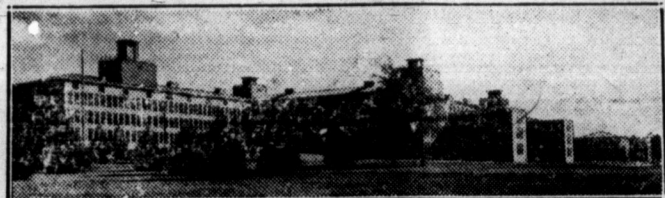

1. Be extra careful—war-time careful—in all your driving.
2. Be especially alert when approaching a grade crossing.
3. Be sure the way is clear before you cross the tracks.
4. LOOK, LISTEN and LIVE!

Help keep 'em rolling for victory!

NATIONAL SAFETY COUNCIL

FROM ATTIC TO COUNTRY ESTATE

New home of the Bell Telephone Laboratories at Murray Hill, New Jersey.

The new "country home" of the largest research organization concerned with problems of electrical communication in peace and war, the Bell Telephone Laboratories, traces its beginning back to an attic. For it was in a Boston attic rigged up for experimentation that Alexander Graham Bell carried on the work that resulted, on March 10, 1876, in the first electrical transmission of the voice. Research and development has continued throughout the years, growing in importance and producing far-reaching improvements.

Though the main offices of the organization remain in New York City, this new establishment at Murray Hill, New Jersey, provides the necessary freedom from electrical and other disturbances, which is essential to certain types of research. Its design incorporates the experience of many years of Bell System work and also the results of study of other modern laboratories.

The new laboratory comprises two parallel buildings, one 670 feet long and the other 360 feet, connected by a 144-foot transverse building. There are numerous measures for safety, including fire doors that close automatically at a given temperature, and showers within ready reach of workers in case of fire or acid burns.

Along with other experienced research organizations, many of the Bell Laboratories' scientists and engineers are engaged in research and development on problems related to the war.

"MRS. BLANK" CALLS THE WRONG NUMBER

"Mrs. Blank," sure she had called the right number, was a bit nettled when a "wrong number" answered. When on her second try she had no better success, she was angry. But suddenly she thought, "I wonder if the number is 9732 or 9372?" Looking in the directory, she found it was neither of these, but 9273.

"Wrong number in mind," is shown to be the largest single cause of wrong number difficulties, according to telephone engineers. Memory plays strange tricks. Confusion of numerals is a common experience, even in numbers which one calls frequently. Many telephone users solve this problem by keeping at hand a personal list of the numbers they often call, rechecking them for accuracy with each new directory issued.

The fewer wrong numbers, the better of course for both telephone callers and telephone company. A wrong number wastes the time both of the caller and the "other fellow." Avoiding this as far as possible is especially important these days when the need for fast and accurate service is so extensive in all the war activities.

Besides errors of memory, wrong numbers result from hasty dialing, which is apt to cause the caller to add or transpose numerals or letters; others result from incorrect use of the equipment, as when a caller, realizing he has made a mistake, redials without first hanging up to release the mechanism. Errors in calls from manual telephones often result from poor enunciation as well as from poor memory.

The vast majority of callers are accurate and experienced in their use of either dial or manual equipment, the telephone company reports, and this contributes substantially to the quality of the service for the general public.

Smitty says—

AIR FIGHTERS BIVOUAC IN GREENLAND—The rigors and hazards of air patrol along the bleak Greenland coast are demonstrated in this picture of a U. S. Army Air Forces Mission patrol mission forced down on the inhospitable Arctic fjord by bad weather and zero-zero visibility.

Unhurt, except for bruises and scratches, members of the crew cut their way out of the plane and improvised a snow shelter, using one wing as a roof. Then they rationed their emergency food supply, melted snow for water, and kept sending out weak radio signals in hope of directing rescue. On the fourth day they were sighted and photographed from the air, and rescued by a Coast Guard vessel immediately dispatched to the scene.

CENTREVILLE

Afternoon service and Bible class were held at St. John's Episcopal Church at 3 p. m. last Sunday, with an attendance of twelve beginning the study. A meeting of the Altar Guild was held following the service, all members being present.

Mr. Robert Dye has purchased the old Confederate Fort at the intersection of the Manassas Road and it is stated that he will undertake the rather large task of leveling the mound down to provide for some important building projects. The old Fort has been marked by the National Park Service and figured prominently in the war history of the Centreville. There were originally three of these forts, connected with formidable rifle pits. One was leveled down many years ago to provide a building site for a bungalow. The largest and most important, which was the apex of the entire system of Centreville Forts, and still showing the positions of the old gun emplacements, is located a few hundred yards east of the Episcopal Church, and not yet accessible to motor travel.

BLACK MARKETS

Think here

Can you honestly say you never misused a single small ration stamp?

It's such a little thing to do — carelessly. It seems so unimportant.

Yet it takes only a single innocent offense, repeated by many others just like you, to mount up into a great national menace.

Black Markets can get their start in what seems the most innocent way—through honest, patriotic people like you who wouldn't do one thing to handicap the war effort.

—people who don't even realize they are misusing their rationing books, or violating the rationing rules.

The farmer who kills his own meat—as he is entitled to—and sends his extra red stamps to a relative in town.

The woman who has guests coming for dinner, finds herself short on stamps, and begs her grocer to help her out.

The man who returns the garageman's friendly services by handing him a few loose gas coupons.

Multiply one innocent violation by all the innocent, careless violators and we'll be a nation of cheaters—and starvers.

Take only a little that isn't yours . . . and, together, you take all!

—If you want to keep your skirts clean of any Black Market transactions, do these three things:

1. Make no purchase of rationed goods without surrendering the correct amount of ration points.
2. Obtain no rationed goods, to which you are not entitled, on someone else's ration stamps.
3. Pay no more than ceiling prices.
