

NUMBER OF MEN NOW IN SERVICE

VIRGINIA'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE ARMED FORCES

On August 1, 1943, Virginia had furnished 154,300 of her sons to the armed forces and this figure does not include the women of the State now serving in various branches of the armed services.

Special permission to release the figures was given Col. Mills F. Neal, State Director of Selective Service, in order to emphasize the part that the State has played in building up these forces and the responsibility each locality and citizen of the State has to "Back the Attack" by the purchase of war bonds, so that Virginia's part in the Third War Loan Campaign may go over with flying colors.

The Capitol City of Richmond has sent 16,001 men into the armed forces, 11,823 being white and 4,178 colored. Norfolk sent the next largest number of men, 10,610 while the next two largest cities, Roanoke and Lynchburg, sent 4,961 and 3,028 respectively. Among the counties Arlington has furnished the largest number, 4,996; Pittsylvania, 3,152; Augusta, 2,498; Roanoke County, 2,917; Tazewell, 2,750; Wise, 2,991; Fairfax, 2,344, with even the smallest counties splendidly represented.

A list of the number of men in the armed forces from nearby counties is as follows:

| County | White | Negro |
|----------------|-------|-------|
| Arlington | 4597 | 399 |
| Culpeper | 508 | 179 |
| Fairfax | 2055 | 289 |
| Fauquier | 766 | 185 |
| Loudoun | 751 | 193 |
| Loudon | 401 | 208 |
| Madison | 328 | 81 |
| Orange | 568 | 117 |
| Prince William | 635 | 176 |
| Stafford | 523 | 84 |

The Virginia War Fund will ask the people of the Eighth Congressional District to give $190,767.60 for aid to the war effort through USO and other War Front causes, for humanitarian work among the destitute civilians of our Allies and the peoples of occupied countries. This announcement has just been authorized by Governor Colgate W. Darden, Jr., (right) Honorary President of the Virginia War Fund, who is shown above discussing the matter with Thomas L. Farrar, of Charlottesville, Vice-President of the Fund for the Eighth Congressional District, and John Stewart Bryan, of Richmond, the Virginia representative on the National War Fund directorate.

SOUTHERN STATES COOPERATIVE MAILED CHECKS

Members of Southern States Manassas Cooperative and Southern States Nokesville Cooperative are receiving checks representing their part of the $1,141,000 which Southern States Cooperative is paying to its farmer members in Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, and Delaware. Of the total being distributed, $905,000 represents a 2.6 per cent patronage refund, and $136,000, a 6 per cent dividend on outstanding capital stock.

Besides the payments being made by Southern States Cooperative, a dividend of 6 per cent on capital stock has been declared by the board of directors of each of the two local organizations. The total of Manassas' patronage refunds to its more than 500 members is nearly $5,000, and Nokesville's refunds to its approximately 200 members is about $1,900. J. C. Woodford manages Manassas Cooperative, and Ernest Goff manages the cooperative at Nokesville.

The board of directors for Southern States Manassas Cooperative is composed of W. M. Kline, president, and J. E. Barrett, W. M. Johnson, Elmer Hurst, A. H. Roseberry, and P. A. Lewis, Manassas, and L. B. Thomas, Wellington.

RECEIVES INTERESTING RELIC

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Roland, of Haymarket, have received an interesting souvenir from their son, Sgt. William F. Roland (Billy) from Guadalcanal—a brass bowl and nut cracker made by him from the end of a Japanese six-inch shell.

C. OF C. ENCOURAGES SALE OF WAR BONDS

The Prince William County Chamber of Commerce at the weekly luncheon meeting at the hotel on Tuesday, in a further effort to encourage the sale of War Bonds during the final week of the Third War Loan Drive, presented several local speakers on the program. Mayor Harry Davis, R. Worth Peters, and Mrs. J. Vincent Davis, members of the County War Finance Committee gave short talks on the progress of the current campaign and the need for additional loans of money to aid the war effort. The reports on Tuesday placed the bond sales estimated at that time at $200,000, or two-fifths of the total quota assigned the county. Complete returns from the various committees to date have not been made, but it is anticipated that the unreported sales will greatly exceed this amount, and it is hoped that purchasers during the last few days of the drive will push the $500,000 goal over the top.

"Mind Your Kitchen Arithmetic"

Using arithmetic to help with kitchen homework will help cheat the garbage pail, according to the home economists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture who have worked out pin-up tables showing the number of servings in a pound of food, be it pork, peas, or prunes. A timely glance at the following tables of vegetables, fruits, and meats will solve many kitchen sums and avoid the wastefulness of unplanned leftovers.

Knowing the "swell" of rice or dry beans keeps them from boiling over on the stove and saves food as well as time and energy needed to clean up. For an inexperienced cook, here is the arithmetic! Figure that one cup of dry rice will give 3 1/2 cups of cooked rice. Two cups of dry beans will yield 5 to 6 cups cooked.

In peacetime, a pound of butter could be cut into 36 or 40 pats, but smaller wartime pat size will give more. A pound loaf of bread is usually sliced into 18 pieces. Home economists figure two slices to a serving on the average.

LINE UP BROTHER!

TO ERECT AN HONOR ROLL

At the last meeting of the American Legion plans were completed for the building and erection of an Honor Roll to Memorialize the men and women who have gone into the service of their country from Prince William County. The Legion committee has already prepared a list which includes over twelve hundred names and it is expected that many more will be added before the Honor Roll is dedicated.

Commander Burchard appointed a committee consisting of E. G. Parrish, J. H. Dechant and Carl Kinchee to arrange the construction and erection of the memorial. The Board of supervisors have agreed to cooperate and the Honor Roll will be placed on the lawn of the Court House.

It is planned to have lights so that the names will be visible both day and night and so be a real living memorial.

Another committee was appointed at the same meeting consisting of W. M. Johnson, H. P. Tiller and J. M. Hanson whose responsibility will be to plan the services of dedication which will be held in connection with the Legion's annual Armistice Day ceremonies. It is expected that a program of real community interest will be announced as soon as the committee has completed its plans for the meeting. Commander Burchard has invited Governor Darden to be present and has already received his acceptance and promise to be here.

SUCCESS OF VICTORY HOG SALE PREDICTED

Approximately 115 hogs have been consigned to the Victory Hog Sale to be held at the Manassas Livestock Market on Tuesday, October 5. Farmers, Future Farmers and 4-H Club members enrolling hogs or pigs in the sale will accept payment for the animals in War Bonds and Stamps.

The owners of the Livestock Market are generously waiving all commissions and have arranged for outside buyers to be present in order that a good market may be assured.

Prizes will be awarded by the Warrenton Production Credit Association to the best hogs entered by Future Farmers of America and 4-H Club members.

The following have responded to the appeal made last week and their names have been added to the Honor Roll made up of those enrolling animals for the Victory Sale.

D. Saylor Diehl, Nokesville
C. C. Polen, Haymarket
Sidney Flickenger, Nokesville
T. B. Flickenger, Nokesville
Paul M. Shull, Hoadly
Mrs. Lelia C. Akers, Gainesville
P. C. Wigglesworth, Woodbridge
Mr. W. G. White, local dairyman, responded to the appeal as follows: "I am sorry I haven't any hogs ready to go but will buy a War Bond on the day of the sale."

Cattle sheep and other livestock, as well as hogs may be entered in the Victory Sale by having the sales entry slips designated with a "V" when unloading the animals at the stockyards.

Because of the fact that the Victory entries will be sold immediately after the farm produce in the sales ring is disposed of, the livestock should be brought to the market not later than 2 P. M.

Arrangements are being made by a special committee headed by J. Carl Kinchee, Manassas, to auction off several pigs and hogs to War Bond buyers the hogs to be donated to buyers of the greatest amount of bonds. Attention is called by Mr. Kinchee to the fact that bonds issued at the sale will apply to the County and community quotas in the "Back the Attack" War Bond drive now in progress.

Farmers cooperating by entering hogs and other livestock are offered an opportunity to obtain full value of all livestock in the form of Bonds without the necessity of paying the usual commissions, the expense being borne by the stockyard management.

WAR FUND DRIVE IS ANNOUNCED

GOVERNOR DARDEN STARTS CAMPAIGN FOR SERVICES

The Virginia War Fund, Inc., sponsored by Governor Colgate W. Darden, Jr., and headed by Homer L. Ferguson, of Newport News, today announced the signing of a contract with the National War Fund to raise $1,835,000 in Virginia this fall. The sum to be raised by Virginia will represent Virginia's share in the budgets of the seventeen agencies united in the National War Fund. These include USO and other war front agencies, relief groups serving the civilian populations of our Allies and others designed to relieve distress of refugees from or populations in occupied countries. Through one appeal to be conducted largely this autumn, the Fund hopes to raise $125,000,000.

In Virginia, Governor Darden, who serves as Honorary President of the Virginia War Fund, is actively assisting Mr. Ferguson, Fund President, in setting up a state-wide organization to raise Virginia's quota during October and November, but with a few communities not planning campaigns until early in 1944.

District Chairman who have been named are: I, George P. DeHardt, Gloucester; II, Charles B. Godwin, Jr., Suffolk; III, Edmund T. DeJarnette, Ashland; IV, Garland Gray, Waverly; V, Grasty Crews, Danville; VI, E. R. Johnson, Roanoke; VII, R. Gray Williams, Winchester; VIII, Thomas L. Farrar, Charlottesville; IX, C. S. Carter, Bristol.

In the majority of Virginia cities the Virginia War Fund quota has been added to that of the Community Funds and one united drive for all purposes will be held under the name of the War and Community Fund. In the counties and cities and towns which have no Community Chests, the District Chairmen have named County Chairmen to serve.

First of the communities in Virginia to begin a campaign will be the Alexandria War and Community Fund, which starts September 27th. Scores of counties and a number of cities have set up their principal efforts for the week beginning October 17th and continuing throughout the month of October.

James W. Phillips, Assistant State Commissioner of Public Welfare, has been loaned to the Virginia War Fund to handle the State Headquarters this year. R. F. Nelson, Director of Public Relations of the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce, has been loaned to handle promotion. All other officials and executives are volunteers.

AMERICAN HEROES

Three Japs killed with one bullet was the score of Marine Pfc. Nicholas Sileo while defending a small village somewhere in the South Pacific. Sileo dropped the trio as they approached Indian life and then bagged two more before the swarming little men's rifle fire put him out of commission and he had to be hospitalized. "That's OUR railroad, Tommy!"

A tiny lad on tip-toe flattens his nose against the window-pane, watching a passenger train speed by.

"That's our railroad, Tommy!" grandmother explains.

Yes, to grandmothers and kids...to farmers and business men...to all the people who live in the Southern Railway's territory...the Southern is "our railroad."

And how right they are...for the Southern is their railroad. Their railroad...and yours!

It brings you the clothes you wear and the food you eat. It hauls the fuel and lumber and brick that warm and shelter you.

It serves your mines and mills and industries...your forests and farms...your villages and your bustling, growing cities and towns.

It shares your pride in the Southland's progress; your dreams of a better, a greater South. And it works with you, in countless ways, to help make those dreams come true.

Today, your railroad has gone to war. Day and night, the men and women of the Southern are moving fighting freight and fighting men...keeping the wheels rolling under the heaviest transportation load in history.

Tomorrow, when final Victory has been won, the busy trains of your railroad will serve the growing transportation needs of the South...just as efficiently, dependably, economically as they are now serving the transportation needs of a nation at war.

Then, more than ever, you'll be proud to say of the Southern—"That's our railroad!"

Millions of Volunteers

Settle Down to Hard

Grind for 3rd War Loan

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15—With the first burst of enthusiasm spent, the "third" army of more than 4,500,000 volunteers settled down today for a steady siege and a day-by-day advance to reach its quota of fifteen billion dollars in the Third War Loan Drive.

Reports from all sections of the nation in the first week of the drive indicated that the battle to "Back the Attack with War Bonds" is progressing "according to plan," but that every possible effort must be exhausted if the goal of at least an extra $100 War Bond for every income earner is to be reached.

First meager reports indicate that in some cities and in some sections on this important battle front the immediate objective has been obtained and the quota met. In other sections a long hard pull will be necessary in the house-to-house and bench-to-bench canvass which has been undertaken in order to reach every man, woman and child in the United States.

This Third War Loan Drive is a challenge to the American people without parallel in history, for they are being asked to "lend" the largest sum of money ever raised in the life of any nation. It is a challenge to their will to sacrifice to "back the attack" of their husbands, sons, brothers and fathers who are sacrificing everything, even life, so that the people back home may continue to enjoy the freedom and liberty of the American way of life.

Reports from many of the urban sections of the nation indicate that workers are answering the challenge to send their dollars to war to "back the attack." "Fur coat money," "automobile money," "new appliance money," "new home money" is going into War Bonds for the duration, into the assembly lines for tanks and planes, to settle today's job and guarantee a victorious America of tomorrow when every War Bond dollar will pay $4 for $3.

"Labor-management committees are working hand in hand; returned war heroes, film stars, bankers, housewives, professional men, workers, clerks and salesmen—men and women in every walk of life are demonstrating that War Bonds bring unity to American life and that the nation is bonded in a common purpose in this great financing task," Ted R. Gamble, national director of the War Finance Division of the Treasury, said here today.

"The people of the nation are demonstrating that Americans on the home front can and will match the performance of the invading armies in 'backing the attack' when they are called upon to do a job," Mr. Gamble said.

"Never before in history have a people in civilian life been asked to do a job comparable to the task which must be done in this Third War Loan," Mr. Gamble observed, "but we have a sustaining faith in the ability of the American people to make every sacrifice, to meet every test with which they are faced, in the voluntary, democratic way so that our boys in the trenches and on the battle lines may have the tools with which to fight our common enemies."

Julia says—
Here's how with fall vegetables

I FOUND, long ago, that fall vegetables can really be both good and different! Take parsnips and rutabagas, for instance. If your family hasn't been too keen about them before, they might like them this way. I know my family does, and they're inclined to turn up their noses at them served in any other way. Here are some suggestions for those two fall vegetables, and others too:

CANDIED PARSNIPS—Wash and scrape or peel parsnips, and cook whole or cut in halves lengthwise. Cook covered in small amount of salted water, about 30 minutes or until tender. Drain, sprinkle with brown sugar, salt and pepper, and bake in moderate oven about 15 minutes, basting parsnips once or twice with hot water and meat drippings. Serve as you would sweet potatoes.

SPICED RUTABAGAS—(This goes for turnips, too). Wash and slice rutabagas, and cook covered until tender in just enough hot, salted water to create a steam, about 15 minutes. Drain and mash and season with salt, pepper and a little ground cinnamon and clove if you like.

CAULIFLOWER SALAD—Wash cauliflower, and separate into tiny flower-lets or chop coarsely. Add raisins, chopped apple, chopped nut meats and marinate in a tart light dressing. Serve on a bed of shredded spinach. This really tastes better than it sounds!

STUFFED SQUASH—Use small individual squashes like Danish. Split squash, remove seeds and parboil in salted water until almost tender. Drain and fill cavities with chopped, cooked meat and tomato mixture. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) for about 30 minutes or until squash is thoroughly tender and meat mixture is heated through.

CONGRATULATING DICK HAYDON, JR.

This newspaper is very proud of the fine friendships that it has among the young people of the County. We have taken great pleasure through the years in recording their outstanding achievements during their school careers, and it is an added delight to note how much credit they are reflecting upon Prince William County as they come into competition with young people from other sections of the country.

In this connection it is with particular satisfaction that we note from an official Navy publication that Richard C. Haydon, Jr., of Manassas, has been selected for officers' training under circumstances which mark him as an outstanding candidate for this honor.

"Dicky", as he is affectionately known to his many friends, has been in training at Sampson Station, New York, and his name occurs among 89 men who have been selected from the many thousands there to receive special training to become an officer. In consequence he will be assigned to some college where the Navy is giving the type of instruction for the service to which he will be assigned. We congratulate "Dicky" upon his preferment, and we congratulate our Superintendent of Schools and Mrs. Haydon on the accomplishments of their son.

A Poem I Like STREONS OF THE DESERT

"There's a stream of trouble across my path,
It is black and deep and wide;
Bitter the hour the future hath
When I cross its swelling tide,
But I smile and sing and say,
I will hope and trust always
I'll bear the sorrow that comes to-morrow

But I'll borrow none today;
Tomorrow's bridge is a dangerous thing,
I dare not cross it now.
I can see its timbers sway and swing

And its arches reel and bow.
O, heart you must hope always,
You must sing and trust and say
I'll bear the sorrow that comes to-morrow
But I'll borrow none today."

Associated Newspapers.
WNU Service.

"EASTERNERS," said Sheriff Victor Clark, "who patronize our dude ranches and indulge in the well-known pastime of going native, sometimes succeed in making a pretty convincing job of it, until an emergency occurs. Then they resort to their civilized instincts."

"I recall the day Simon Merrifield was murdered out at Wesley Holmes' Triangle Bar. Wesley called me on the phone and I hot-footed it out there."

"Looks like suicide," Wes told me. "Leastwise I hope so. But, try and keep it as quiet as possible. Bad for business to have these things noised around."

"We went down to the cabin which had been assigned to the Merrifields. Simon was lying on the bed, a peaceful look on his face, dead. Beside him on a table was a half-consumed glass of liquor. Wes picked up the glass and handed it to me. 'Poison,' he said."

"It was poison all right. I looked around the cabin. 'Does Mrs. Merrifield know about this?'"

"No one knows. Mrs. Merrifield is out riding with a party of friends. I suppose," he added gloomily, "it's my job to break the news."

"Tell me all you know about it, Wes," I said.

"Not much to tell. About 1:30 this afternoon Merrifield called up the cook and ordered a glass of Scotch and soda delivered to his cabin. The cook brought it down. Merrifield met him at the door, mentioning that he intended to read awhile, and then take a nap. He wasn't, he said, feeling very well. At 3:30 Tony Metcalf got back from town with the mail. There were some pieces for Merrifield and he brought them down to the cabin. No one responded to Tony's knock, so he stepped inside. He saw Simon lying on the bed. At first he thought the man was sick, so he called me. That's about all."

"Well, we hunted around the interior of the cabin, but didn't find much of interest. It certainly looked as though Simon had committed suicide. It occurred to me that when we began digging up the dirt we'd probably find that Merrifield had either been having financial troubles, or his wife had been two-timing him, or he was in love with some woman who was married to someone else and wouldn't have him. I had investigated dude suicides before, and most always one of those reasons fit the case. Dudes are like that."

"We went up to Wes' office and were just sitting down, when four riders came into the ranch yard, two men and two women. One of them was Mrs. Merrifield, and Wes went to the door and called her inside. She was a trim little thing, pretty as a picture with wide blue eyes. Wes introduced her to me and then cleared his throat noisily and found some things on his desk to occupy his attention. She looked from one to the other of us and I could see it was up to me."

"The fact is, Mrs. Merrifield," I said, "something pretty serious has happened." Then I saw there was no use beating around the bush with this young lady, so I blurted: "Your husband's dead. He committed suicide this afternoon."

"I'm a pretty good judge of human nature, but I sure missed the boat as far as this little woman was concerned. She stared at me a minute, then her eyes rolled up into her head and she collapsed like a coat dropped from a hook. Wes swore and opened a door into the living room and bellowed for his wife."

"You shouldn't have given it to her so brutally," he told me angrily.

"Guess not," I agreed. "I had an idea she had more stuff in her. Still, it must be pretty tough to have your husband go out by way of poison at that."

"Then Mrs. Holmes arrived and we carried Simon Merrifield's wife into the living-room and hung around awkwardly while Mrs. Holmes got damp cloths and things and tried to bring her to. After awhile the little woman's eyelids fluttered. She moaned, opened her eyes and tried to sit up."

"Just lie still," Mrs. Holmes soothed, "till you get your strength back."

"Sorry I was so brutally frank," I apologized gruffly. "I thought it would be best to get it over with at once."

"A shudder passed through her frame. 'But what a horrible way to die. Poison! Oh, why didn't he tell me he was in trouble?'"

"I glanced at Wes, but Wes' face was stony. 'We'd better get outside,' he remarked uncomfortably, and headed for the door."

"Wait a minute," I said. "Hold on here. Little lady, that's about the sweetest bit of acting I've ever witnessed. You dangled near got away with it. It's a shame I've got to hold you for the murder of your husband."

"Later in Wes' office, with him still looking startled and dumb, I explained."

"Why, shucks, Wes, don't you remember? When she came to she allowed that being poisoned was a horrible way to die. Now how did she know he was poisoned? She was supposed to be in a dead faint when we mentioned the manner of death."

When our fighters fly at 400 miles an hour with a Jap Zero or a Messerschmidt on their tails there isn't much time for cogitation so the Army and the Navy show as many motion pictures of actual dog fights and air battles as possible to our student fliers.

Pictures of trainer flights, bombing flights and flights by fighters are all a part of the routine for our student pilots and must be drilled into them just as it is necessary for us to remind ourselves daily of the necessity to buy an extra $100 Bond in September. U. S. Treasury Department

PUT KITCHEN FATS TO WORK

With fats and oils rationed, America's housewives have a valuable source of cooking fats in meat drippings, fat trimmings from uncooked meat, cured pork rinds, and fat skimmings from soups and stews. They can be saved and used for baking, frying, and seasoning.

HOW TO RENDER FAT

1. Trim excess fat from all uncooked meat and keep in refrigerator until ready to render.
2. Chop fine or grind.
3. Render in double boiler.
4. Strain through cloth.
5. Cool to room temperature.
6. Cover tightly and store in refrigerator. (May be mixed with other rendered fat or drippings which have been strained.)
7. Use for baking, frying, and seasoning.

Use of these fats is vital to the government's fat conservation program. If all cannot be used in the kitchen, the surplus and waste fat should be sold to a retail meat dealer as fats are a valuable source of glycerin used to manufacture ammunition. One pound furnishes enough glycerin to fire four 37-millimeter anti-aircraft shells.

Kitchen fat can be valuable in the war effort. Save it! Use it!

TYPICAL RECIPES USING SALVAGED KITCHEN FATS

| PIE CRUST | BAKING POWDER BISCUITS |
|---|--|
| 2 cups flour 1/2 cup drippings or rendered fat 1/2 teaspoon salt Sift flour, measure, add salt and sift again. Cut in cold fat until particles are about size of peas. Add cold water, little at a time, mixing quickly and evenly through flour with a fork until dough just holds in a ball. Use as little water as possible. Chill before rolling. This makes enough pastry for a two-crust 9-inch pie. Roll the dough to about one-eighth inch in thickness. | 3 cups flour 4 1/2 teaspoons baking powder 1 teaspoon salt Mix and sift dry ingredients. Cut in cold fat. Add the milk all at one time. Stir with a fork until the dough clings in a ball. Turn on a lightly floured surface and knead gently for one-half minute. Pat or roll one-half inch thick and cut with a small biscuit cutter, dipped in flour. Place on baking sheet and bake in a hot oven (450°F) for 12 to 15 minutes. |

| JIFFY CAKE | CRACKLING CORN BREAD | GINGER COOKIES |
| 4 tablespoons rendered fat or drippings 1 cup sugar 1 egg 1/2 cup milk Put all ingredients in a bowl and beat well with a rotary beater. Batter should be light and smooth. Pour into deep layer pan and cover evenly with the following mixture: 1/2 cup grated sweet chocolate or coconut and 1/2 cup finely chopped nuts. Bake in a slow oven (350°F) for 35 to 40 minutes. | 2 cups corn meal 1/2 cup sifted flour 3 teaspoons baking powder 2 cups milk Chop cracklings (the crisp brown pieces left after fat is rendered) or put through food grinder. Sift together dry ingredients, add milk so which beaten egg has been added, and mix well. Stir in cracklings. Pour mixture into greased pan and bake in hot oven (425°F) 30 to 40 minutes, or until well browned. | 5 cups flour 1 tablespoon soda 1 tablespoon ginger 1 cup rendered fat or drippings Sift flour once, measure and sift again with soda, salt and ginger. Cream fat, add sugar and continue creaming. Add beaten eggs, vinegar and molasses. Add dry ingredients and mix. Roll in balls the size of a walnut. Place on a cookie sheet and bake in a moderately hot oven (400°F) for twelve to fifteen minutes. Yield: 3 dozen. |

The Third War Loan is your loan.

The securities on sale fit your purse. Check the one which is applicable to you and buy it to the point of personal temporary sacrifice. Always keep in mind your sacrifice is only temporary because you do not give your money away when you "buy" War Bonds; you lend your money at interest. Your money is not even frozen. In the event of an emergency—and the record shows that Americans are not redeeming their Bonds except in the event of true emergencies—your Bonds are redeemable.

The United States Government has never in its history repudiated a Government Bond. As further evidence of the strength of this country to guarantee repayment of your money, United States potential wealth amounts to $89,000 per capita. Even with the heavy current war expenses, our national debt is only $1100 per capita.

Only a country like ours could make such a deal with its citizens: repay you with interest for a loan of your money to protect you and your family against enemies which would murder, rob, or enslave you.

The number one "buy" for you is the familiar Series E War Bond. Twenty-seven million American workers are buying Series E Bonds at the rate of $420,000,000 a month. Your Third War Loan duty is to buy at least one extra $100 Series E Bond above your regular buying. Buy more if you can.

Keep these facts in mind about the Series E Bonds:
They come in $25, $50, $100, $500 and $1,000 denominations. They sell for 75 per cent of their maturity value. They pay you $4 for every $3 invested if held until maturity, which is 10 years from issuing date. You may redeem them at any time 60 days after issue without notice at stated redemption values. Every Bond carries this redemption table.

Missing...

"Missing in action." You know what that can mean.

Mom says you must be brave. "It's what your father would expect of us," she tells you when it's bedtime and your chin starts to feel shaky. Then she kisses you extra hard and turns her head away so you can't see her eyes.

You've never let her see you cry. Not once, since that telegram came and she twisted it all up in a ball, then smoothed it and put it in the desk.

But, lying in bed, you play "Pretend"—pretend you can hear his step as he comes up to your room—pretend you can feel a stubble brush your forehead. And sometimes, in the dark, you can almost smell a cigarette-y suit close to your face.

Later you dream—dreams that you don't tell about. And in the morning you wake up with that funny, empty feeling in your stomach.

Poor little guy. We—all of us—wish there were something we could do. Perhaps there is. Why shouldn't it be this?

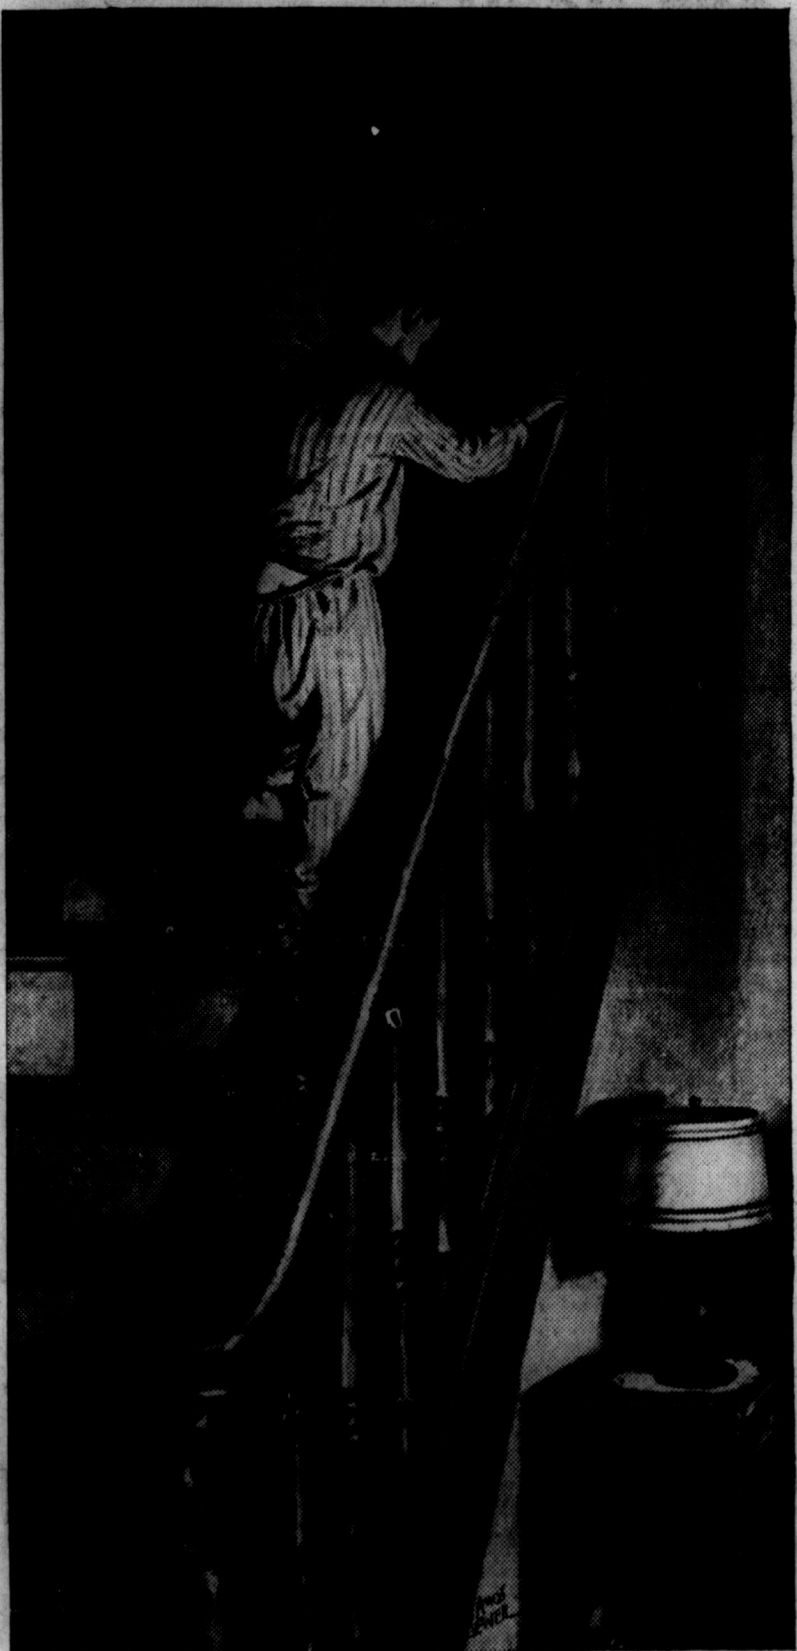

We can resolve that the plans your father had for you shall remain within your reach, that you shall have the chance to grow and learn, that your opportunities will be bounded only by your own get-up-and-go, that you will progress and prosper in direct relation to your own ability—in a land of freedom and opportunity.

Those are the things your Dad valued, the things for which he gave his life. Though some may strive to change all that—provide you with the "benefits" of an all-powerful government, the "advantages" of regimentation, the "blessings" of bureaucracy—we can resolve they won't succeed.

You, son, won't read these words, and if you did, they wouldn't mean much to you now. But your father's friends—known and unknown—are making you a promise, just the same.

You may never hear it from their lips. But if you were older you would read it in their faces—recognize it in their spirit. They are determined to keep America free. To keep it a land in which government is the servant, not the master of the people. To keep it the kind of America your Dad wanted to preserve—for you.

SOUTHERN STATES
FARM LIFE

RIGHT now in the nation's poultry houses there are 163 million more chickens than there were a year ago. There isn't enough feed in sight to take care of all of them. Here are some good points to remember:

One—You can't afford to feed a single "star boarder" this year. Keep your catching hook handy and cull out every week the birds that aren't producing.

Two—Get rid of the rats. Three rats will eat enough feed in one year to care for two laying hens.

Three—Keep the birds comfortable so they can use their feed to best advantage. Each 100 layers should have about 20 to 24 feet of hopper space. A one-inch lip nailed on the hoppers will keep the birds from billing feed out on the ground.

Next time you order feed, ask your Southern States Cooperative Service Agency for some All Mash Ration. This mash is fortified with vitamins and high protein ingredients—and makes your regular Southern States feeds go farther. All Mash Ration is equivalent in feeding value to a mixture of equal parts of Super Laying Mash and coarse scratch. You don't need to feed any grain when you feed All Mash Ration.

If you need new feeders, talk over your needs with your local Southern States Service Agency. If anyone can get them for you, he will.

IT'S A FACT!

that the layers on the farms of Southern States patrons laid enough eggs last year to supply every man, woman and child in Baltimore, Richmond, Wilmington, Wheeling and Washington with an egg for breakfast every morning for a year.

I'M HERE...

the enemy's just over the hill!

MAYBE I'm your boy—or the boy next door. You know, Mary's sweetheart. Joan's husband, Timmy's daddy. Your son, Father! Your boy, Mother!

Anyway, I've got something to say to you. I've got to make you understand.

This is it. This is zero. This is INVASION!

I'm here, with a million other boys just like me. We're your INVASION forces. And we're going to stay. It wasn't easy getting here, and it is going to be a lot harder before we're through.

WE'RE GIVING ALL WE'VE GOT

I said we were going to stay. I promise that, even if it means the thing—well, the thing we don't like to talk about. Because we're giving all we've got: Our minds, our strength, our blood.

But you see, this isn't going to be enough. Not unless these planes we need snarl down out of the sky on the enemy just over there. Unless those tanks get here. Unless the supply ships get through. Unless there are enough bullets for this rifle.

YOU'RE ON THE INVASION FRONT NOW!

It's that extra $100 War Bond, all of them together, making up the $15 billion worth they're asking you to buy in September, that will prove that you are on the INVASION front with him.

Your part is at least one extra $100 Bond during the Drive—at least $100. Of course, that's in addition to your regular bond buying. A $100 Bond is the rock bottom figure. Some of you will have to invest thousands to put this Drive across. Take it out of your pay check—or out of that nest egg you were saving for a rainy day.

All you can spare is too little, all you've got is just going to be enough.

Look at it this way: You won't be giving anything. You will be investing in VICTORY—and your future.

Things like safety for your family and money after the war to buy a new home, or to educate your children.

You're buying a stake in VICTORY—and that means America, yours and mine!

I guess that's all I've got time to tell you now. The enemy is waiting, just over the hill. Don't keep us waiting for you!
