

SERVICE FLAG IS DEDICATED

Honor Roll Published for the Manassas Industrial School

On Sunday afternoon, November 14, the Manassas Industrial School dedicated a service flag with unusually appropriate ceremonies and distributed a souvenir program containing the names of its former students, graduates and teachers who are in the armed service of their country.

Following the invocation, singing of the national anthem, responsive reading, the presentation of the Service Flag was made by Robert Farr, President of the Student Cooperative Association and this was followed by prayer and a solo, "The Lord's Prayer", by Miss Andretta Adkins.

The dedicatory address was delivered by the Rev. A. Joseph Edwards, D.D., Pastor of Zion Baptist Church, Washington, D. C. His subject, "A Challenge to Greatness", was very inspiring. It was followed by singing "The Manassas Hymn", an original composition dedicated to Rev. William H. Barnes in honor of the work he has done here; the words by Marie H. Lewis, Class of 1902 and music by Richard C. Gay, Jr.

An American Beauty Rose was provided for each son, husband, or sweetheart on the honor roll, which contains 203 names of former students, graduates and teachers—a very substantial contribution indeed to the war effort of the nation, and one of which Prince William County may well be proud. The list is published here:

STATES CO-OP TO CONDUCT SCHOOL HERE

A regional school to be attended by about 45 of Southern States Cooperative's representatives in this section will be held at Manassas Town Hall, Manassas Virginia, Friday, November 19, from 2 to 9 p. m.

Through classes, general discussions, and a movie the group will receive instructions in methods for meeting farm problems, methods which they will pass on to the farming public of their communities. The school will be conducted by W. G. Wyser, L. E. Raper, Dr. T. K. Wolfe, Richmond; Dr. C. D. Caskey, Baltimore, and R. R. Furgan, Winchester, Va.

Students for this school will come from Culpeper, Fairfax, The Plains, Remington, Warrenton, Leesburg, Sterling, Purcellville, Madison, Unionville, Orange, Herndon, Manassas, Nokesville, Vienna, Fredericksburg, Virginia; LaPlata and Upper Marlboro, Maryland.

FUTURE OF LOCAL SCHOOL DISCUSSED

Chamber of Commerce Holds Interesting Meeting

Thirty-three members of the Prince William Chamber of Commerce were present at the weekly meeting on Tuesday when committee reports were given by several chairmen. C. C. Cloe, president, presided and welcomed representatives of the Treasury Department who attended the luncheon. The main subject of discussion pertained to the future use of the buildings and equipment used by the former State Vocational School which have been offered to the County School Board for vocational training. The Board of Supervisors at a meeting last month, recommended that the County School Board accept the custody of the buildings and equipment from the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department. A committee appointed by Chamber including Dr. George B. Cooke, C. W. Alpaugh, and R. W. Waters, has been investigating the possibilities of utilizing the fixtures, and it is hoped that some means can be arranged to keep the set-up intact.

Interest is being shown locally in the possible development of a cold storage locker plant in this vicinity and a committee composed of Edgar G. Parrish, Frank D. Cox, and Miss Nell Grim, is contacting residents of the county to ascertain the needs of a food storage establishment. Mr. Frank R. Wilson, assistant to the Secretary of the United States Department of Commerce is assisting with a local survey and expects to come to Manassas again in the near future to continue further investigations. Reports on the findings will be made at next week's meeting.

MEETING OF BETHLEHEM CLUB

The Bethlehem Goodhousekeeping Club met on Wednesday, November 17 at the home of Mrs. R. C. Haydon. Mrs. Haydon and Mrs. Proffit acted as hostesses and Mrs. Compton and Mrs. Kinchele were the program committee.

In response to an appeal from the PTA it was voted to contribute $10. to the child health program for the schools.

The Club received a gracious letter of thanks from the Editor of the Yellow Jacket for its contribution to the High School paper to be sent out to former students now in the service.

Mrs. Byrd reported that copies of the History of Prince William County are continuing to sell and that the supply is rapidly diminishing. Even people far afield continue to show interest in this story of our county with its traditions and historic past.

Mrs. Len Weston entertained the Club by her charming rendering of three delightful Negro spirituals. This was followed by a surprise birthday party for Mrs. Proffit, who was really surprised.

The meeting broke up after delicious refreshments had been served by the hostess.

"THE RUMP PARLIAMENT" (Editorial)

In English history the Rump Parliament was so called on account of the general contumely and derision with which that assembly of the British Parliament in 1659 was regarded. That there is possibility that the approaching session of the General Assembly of Virginia may be held in somewhat similar disesteem is indicated by a recent editorial reference in the Richmond Times-Dispatch to the Assembly which will convene this winter as "The Bob-tailed Assembly," and advancing the idea that it should conclude its deliberations as quickly as possible and adjourn.

It is not always that we agree with the ideas of the Times-Dispatch, particularly in its Anti-Southern viewpoint, but here we do find much food for thought and commendation in the Richmond newspaper's belittlement of the possibilities of constructive accomplishments by this Assembly.

So far as Prince William County is concerned the majority of our citizenry scarcely feels that it has representation either in the State Senate or the House of Delegates and will not be greatly interested in what the "Rump Parliament" or "Bob-tailed Assembly" does this winter; for certainly there is no State leadership or program up for consideration.

GOVERNOR DARDEN VISITS THE MANASSAS JUNIORS

At the regular meeting of the Junior Woman's Club of Manassas, which fell on Armistice Day, the Club was greatly honored to have His Excellency, The Governor of Virginia, as its guest.

Governor Darden gave an informal talk appealing to the Club for its support of the current War Fund Drive. He expressed great enthusiasm about the recent survey conducted by the Juniors on the Juvenile Delinquency problem in Manassas. It was found, in most instances, that this delinquency was brought about by both parents being away from their homes during the day, leaving adolescent children unsupervised to seek their own amusement. It is hoped that some of the other town organizations will lend their support in providing some solution to this problem.

FLYING TO CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Pearl Russell was the guest of honor Friday night, Nov. 12 at a combined miscellaneous shower and farewell party given by Miss Elizabeth Bredon and Mrs. Leonard Cross at the home of Mrs. Cross. Mrs. Russell, who is flying to California next week to join her husband, Pvt. James Russell, received many useful and lovely gifts and the best wishes of her friends for a pleasant trip.

Remember Wednesday, December 1 is the date of the Gift Mart and Food Sale in the Parish Hall, Manassas. This is the date of the Gift Mart and Food sale.

WAR FUND DRIVE

The Virginia War Fund drive will feature a special drive at the Manassas Livestock Market next Tuesday, Nov. 23.

Prince William folks desiring to donate livestock, poultry, eggs furniture or any salable articles to be sold for benefit of the War Fund should bring them to the Manassas Livestock Market at Bull Run on Tuesday November 23.

Our fighting men need and appreciate this help as do all of the relief agencies that are combined in this fund; and every one who can do so is urged to help.

E. R. CONNER, Chairman, Prince William War Fund.

CONSTANCE HENRY HONORED BY U D C

Daughters of the Confederacy Entertained by Mrs. Burhen

The Manassas Daughters of the Confederacy were delightfully entertained at the Prince William Hotel in their November meeting. Each arrival was graciously welcomed by the hostess, Mrs. Burhen, wife of Commander Burhen, and ushered into the assembly room charmingly receptive with golden candle light and autumn leaves, roses and chrysanthemums, the Stars and Bars and Old Glory.

After the preliminary opening with the Lord's Prayer and Salutes to the Flag, a brief program of readings was given by the Historian, Mrs. R. A. Hutchison.

The beautiful membership certificate of the late Miss Constance Henry was presented by the President, Mrs. R. L. Byrd, who was requested by the Chapter to send the same with a message of love and sympathy to Miss Henry's mother, Mrs. Arthur Henry, of Harrisonburg.

(Note. Mrs. Henry was one of a small group of girls who composed the first Manassas Junior Daughters. The name was the Judith Henry Juniors, memorial to one of the early casualties of the War of the Sixties. Mrs. Judith Henry, an aged invalid killed in the First Battle of Manassas.)

Among the items of new business, the Treasurer was directed to respond to the appeal of the local PTA by sending a check of five dollars.

Adjournment was followed by a delicious "high tea", when good food, good talk, good fellowship brought to a close the season of programs of the new official year.

To members absent by illness, a sympathetic thought was expressed in the gift of flowers placed in the hands of the Remembrance Committee. And many thanks send with the red rose to The Journal for unfailing and loyal service.

BISHOP GOODWIN HERE

Bishop and Mrs. F. D. Goodwin were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Hawes T. Davies, Sr. at dinner last Sunday. The Bishop was here to confirm a class at Trinity Episcopal Church.

THANKSGIVING A TIME TO BUY BONDS

Women's Division Conducting November Bond Sale Under Chairmanship of Mrs. Davis

"God of our Fathers, known of old, Lord of our far-flung battle line, Beneath whose awful hand we hold Dominion over palm and pine; Lord God of Hosts, Be with us yet, Lest we forget, Lest we forget."

Kipling

With the coming of Thanksgiving, 1943, we turn with thankful hearts toward the Lord God of Hosts. The black days of 1942 have given way to a faint glimmering of light on the horizon, a surging of hope in the breasts of all the conquered peoples of the world, and of us whose duty it is to release them from darkness. Certain it is that our recurrent successes on all the battle-fronts are leading us slowly, but steadily, toward Victory. Certain it is that we shall soon have "dominion over palm and pine"—the palms of Pacific isles, the pines of Rome will soon be ours, not to hold, but to release.

This we have to be thankful for—this and much more. That in the midst of a world torn with misery and pain and slow death, that we of all peoples are still able to sit down to a traditional Thanksgiving turkey, with all—or most—of the trimmings. That we are still able to give where it is most needed. That our money will provide the food, the guns, the tanks which alone will accomplish the victory toward which we strive. "Let us give thanks that we can give" is no hollow phrase, no banality flung by some silver-tongued orator—it is rather the heartfelt prayer of gratitude of all thinking people.

How, then, can we refuse to LEND our money? Our great democratic government is not asking us to GIVE, but just to lend it. What finer or more profitable investment can there be than an investment in Victory—an investment which may save our sons' lives? An investment which returns to us thousand-fold in the years to come. Our dollars, invested in War Bonds, provide the tools of war, without which our armies are helpless; prevent inflation by curbing unnecessary spending; and return to us $4 for every $3 LOANED, after the Victory is ours.

Let us see that our Thanksgiving prayer of gratitude takes a tangible form. Let us designate this day for the purchase of an extra war bond, so that on Thanksgiving, 1944 . . .

" . . . The tumult and the shouting dies
The Captain and the Kings depart . . ."

CHRISTMAS SEALS ON SALE

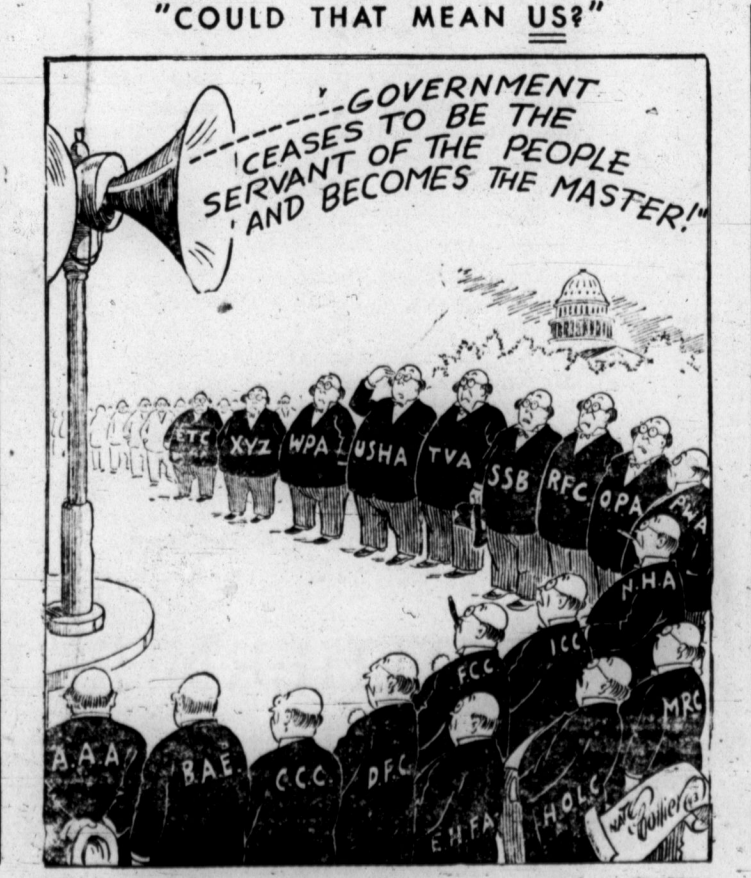

The recent arrival in Prince William County of Christmas Seals, to be sold this year to support the work of the local Tuberculosis Association, is the occasion for the annual statement from Mrs. J. C. Kinchele, treasurer of the association, concerning the use of the Christmas Seal money.

"Christmas Seal money, the sole support of the Prince William Tuberculosis Association, is carefully budgeted and expended on meticulously planned projects." "The goal for each year's sale is set accurately to finance the program planned for the following year. The amount of money actually raised determines how completely the program is carried out. The goal for the 1943 Seal Sale in this County is $1,375."

The 1943 program of the association is in now planned consists of an expanded educational program through the schools, clubs, and civic organizations, two clinics for the diagnosis of tuberculosis among white and colored children and adults, a special diagnosis clinic to be conducted for junior and senior high school students of the county, sanatorium care for tuberculosis patients, and assistance with dental clinics, hot lunch projects, and other health programs, including furnishing cod liver oil and milk for needy children.

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFF

Corporal Walter Bodt's squad was spying out Jap positions in the Pacific. We needed information badly. The squad got it, but was cut off from our lines. Using handkerchiefs tied to bayonets, Marine Corporal Bodt wigwagged the information back. He lost an eye, sustained other wounds from furious enemy fire, but his message was urgent: He stuck and got it through, winning the Navy Cross. Weapons are urgent too, and your War Bonds buy them.

11:15 a.m.—Preaching Service

On the first and third Sundays of each month the preaching service will be followed by a very simple lunch and fellowship hour followed at 1:30 by a worship service which will take the place of the evening worship. All night services have been discontinued for the present.

The above plan is being put into use in cooperation with the government's conservation program and that our people may have the benefit of both morning and evening worship services with one trip to the church.

Evangelistic services will be held at Church of God, Purcell, Va., beginning October 31st at 7:45 P. M., and continuing at same hour through November 14th, closing that night. The services will be conducted by Rev. Harold Borfer of Roanoke, Va. Special singing. The public is cordially invited.

REV. S. D. PITTMAN, Pastor

Thirteen billion dollars—the sum the Treasury must raise in the Second War Loan drive, is only one sixth of the estimated cost of the war for the fiscal year of 1943.

"...A-way down South in Dixie"

THERE'S a new tune in the air in our Southland these days. And it's sweet music to the ears of America's fighting men.

You hear it in the vibrant roar of great Southern mills and factories...

You hear it in the ceaseless clatter of Southern shipyards...

You hear it in the busy hum rising from Southern farms and forests and mines...

You hear it in the deep voice of powerful Southern Railway locomotives and in the endless rumble of the Southern's freight trains.

It's the song of the South today...the hustling, wartime Southland, served by the Southern Railway System and dedicated, above all else, to speeding the day of final Victory.

And after the war is won, this great and growing Southland will turn to the rich, rewarding tasks of Peace.

Then, new and better products will come from modern Southern industries.

Then, new wonders will spring from Southern research laboratories.

Then, Southern forests and farmlands, mills and mines, will bustle with peacetime activity.

Then, the men and women of the Southern Railway System will make good use of the lessons they're learning under the pressures of war...to speed the peacetime commerce of the Greater South to an eager world...from "A-way down South in Dixie."

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST
The Word of God
BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

Malachi: 4:2

WHY BLAME THE O. P. A.?

Almost without exception the political leaders of the South's Democracy denounce the O. P. A. They tell us that the procedure of the Office of Price Administration is contrary to the fundamental principles of representative government; that its high-handed methods deprive us of the protection afforded us by the Constitution.

All of this, and more, may be true—but why should the Democracy of Virginia, and of the South, kick the O. P. A. around so vociferously, when it insisted that we all vote for the "Third Term President."

A striking denouncement of the O. P. A. has just come from the Howard Smith Committee in Congress. The report really tells the American people just what is being done to their liberty. Virginians, particularly, will acclaim the report and will join the whole nation in agreement that Judge Smith has again rendered a great national service—which indeed he has.

BUT—how many Democrats on this Committee will support the Fourth Term and ask their supporters to do so next year, just as they endorsed the Third Term four years ago?

In other words: What is the use of bewailing over a situation which we endorse at the polls? The New Deal viewpoint, which has culminated in such transgressions upon liberty as complained of in the O. P. A. were just as apparent four years ago as now; and yet we were all requested (and most of us complied) to line up as good Democrats.

Somehow as we note how the O. P. A. is being kicked around we are reminded of a song that was popular, we believe, when Champ Clark was

FOR VICTORY

Make this friendly bank your headquarters for all of your financial transactions.

Whether you are aiding the war effort by purchase of bonds and stamps, or are meeting your own necessities in these difficult times, you will find us willing and able to serve you.

The Peoples National Bank of Manassas

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

No—fire fighters, 1943 style. Styles in banking have changed too. Banks are no longer simply places to store or borrow money but have grown to be a vital part of the nation's economic structure. Just think, for example, of the part banks have taken in the war effort, financing the war, selling war bonds and handling ration coupons. We are proud of our new role. We seek new ways to serve.

BONDS OVER AMERICA

Surmounting the Capitol Dome at Washington stands Crawford's bronze statue of Freedom, symbol of the freedom and liberty our government has guaranteed to immigrant and native citizen alike since the founding of the Republic.

Home of Freedom

Keep America Free; Buy War Bonds

In the capitals of conquered Europe freedom and liberty are hollow, mocking words mouthed by jackal puppets like Mussert, Quisling, Laval, Degrelle or Laurel.

Robert Fogle, Seaman First Class has returned to his station after spending thirty days leave with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Fogle, of Manassas, Mr. Fogle is a graduate of the Haymarket school.

FDR says:
Originally we asked for 10 percent in bonds; now we need considerably more.

GAINESVILLE

Mrs. Lawrence Hunsberger and daughter, of Clifton, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Smith.

Miss Sarah Jane Lightner spent the week-end with her sister at Mary Washington College, Fredericksburg.

Mr. William (Billy) Piercy spent Saturday in Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Russell, of Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. John Minton, of Alexandria, were all week end callers at Mountain View Farm.

Mrs. William Corder and sons of Haymarket were Sunday callers of Mrs. V. H. Wood.

At this writing Mrs. C. F. Sinclair is much indisposed.

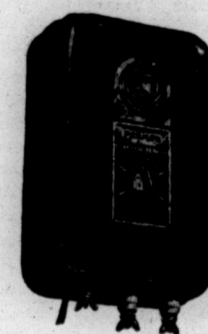

Mr. and Mrs. Lee G. Grey, of The Plains, were Sunday callers at "Somona Farm".

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McCuin spent Saturday visiting and shopping in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard McCuin of Falls Church, and Mr. and Mrs. Levele Cornell and daughter, Alice and Mr. David Cornell of Merrifield were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McCuin.

NOTICE TO NAVIGATION INTERESTS

Navigation interests and others are advised that there will be test firing in the waters of OCCOQUAN BAY and POTOMAC RIVER from the vicinity of Sandy Point, Virginia, until further notice.

Firing will occur two or three times per week and will last for intermittent periods during all hours of the day and night. The direction of fire will be approximately 195 degrees (true) from Sandy Point, Virginia.

The danger zone covered by the firing activities will include a triangular area, the west side of which extends from Sandy Point, Virginia, to a point 100 yards east of Free-stone Point, Virginia, and the east side from Sandy Point to a point 350 yards west of can buoy C-37A on Mattawoman Bar. During firing played by day and a red light by night from a flag pole on Sandy Point. The general area is shown on U. S. C. and G. S. Chart 560, and on the map on the reverse side of this sheet.

Generally no restrictions will be imposed on through traffic in the Potomac River or Occoquan Bay, but vessels are requested not to remain in the danger zone during the display of firing signals. Vessels traffic will be instructed on navigation procedure by patrol boats during special tests which might endanger navigation.

DO WHAT YOU CAN FOR GREEK WAR RELIEF

While we are helping the various war relief projects, this newspaper especially invites attention to the needs of Greek sufferers.

All civilized people know of the tragic fate of Greece and of the desperate plight of the heroic people of that unfortunate country.

Their countrymen here are only modestly asking for donations of clothing, and we urge our friends to help.

The local Greek War Relief Committee is making the following appeal:

"The Greek War Relief Association is asking for donations of clothing of all kinds, particularly coats, shoes, and underwear, for suffering Greek population.

"The storeroom at No. 515 C. St., in the rear of the Quantico Railroad Station will be open from 11 A. M. to 5 P. M. Please leave donations there, as the local Committee has no means of calling for your gifts.

"Ask Pete Pandazides or Harry Konikides.

Make it a thrifty CHRISTMAS—give WAR BONDS. Keep on BACKING THE ATTACK.

DOZING BY THE RIVER

MANY clay-carrying rivers sluggishly empty their red freight from the Piedmont into the Gulf of Mexico. Not many people have ever heard of the Piedmont. They don't know that throughout the southeastern states this area between the mountains and the coastal plain marks the boundary between enterprise and sloth.

Both black and white just sit on squallid porches and talk.

Nowhere is one so reminded of this as at Apalachicola. It is a small town on the banks of a river, both named from the Indians who once lived there. Today the village seems asleep. It lives in the past, and in spite of cheering pamphlets issued by the Chamber of Commerce, the place seems doomed to gradual stagnation.

The inhabitants of this Florida hamlet talk of the glories of the place as a port, of the only two famous men who ever lived there, but many of their neighbors, both black and white, just sit on squallid porches and talk.

Slowly the red river flows past them, almost as stagnant as the mental outlook of the people. It has risen hundreds of miles northward, flowed through prosperous cotton farms and thriving industrial cities. But the blight of the coastal plain seems to be reflected in the slow meandering of the stream, just as it certainly is in the people. That blight is malaria.

The disease is the curse of the South, especially along rivers like the Apalachicola, which in spring freshets flood thousands of acres of flat land. Mosquitoes and malaria are inevitable, and figures issued by the Florida State Board of Health show that this corner of the state is one of the worst in America.

Quinine, of course, would control this condition, but not enough people know it, know the correct dosage, nor that it is a cheap and safe remedy for this plague. And some are too poor to buy the little that is needed, which seems tragic considering how little it is. Malaria experts have many times pointed out that 20 grains of quinine per day for 5-7 days is all that is needed. The total requirements of Apalachicola would not amount to a fraction of what is lost annually both here and throughout the South because malaria saps ambition and kills initiative.

LIFE, LOVE AND ZEST IN "THE POWERS GIRL"

Calculated to pull anyone out of the doldrums—offering beauty, fashion, romance, music and songs par excellence—"The Powers Girl," Charles R. Rogers' film with music is slated for its local premiere at the Pitts Theatre thru United Artists release.

Ellen Evans, a small-town gal played by Anne Shirley, is discharged from the local high school because she appears in a compromising magazine photograph. Ellen vanes and heads for the big city of New York to join her sister Kay, played by Carole Landis. Things begin to happen, such as Ellen's romantic leanings toward Jerry Hendricks, who is none other than dancer George Murphy.

Carole, who is furthering her desire to become a Powers model and is trying to make her way with Murphy's assistance, gives Anne some love headaches, but it all comes out all right—with the latter's wedding to the loved Murphy who has been accepted as a lieutenant in the Air Force.

Alan Mowbray does a realistic job of impersonating the beauty connoisseur, John R. Powers; the Powers girls, in person, are gorgeous to beam upon and certainly merit being dubbed the "long-stemmed American beauties"; Dennis Day puts over some tuneful songs with his usual charm; Benny Goodman and his swing virtuosos provide a zesty musical background; and the grown women by the beauties and created by Adrian of Hollywood are worth looking at twice.

War Bonds should mean something more to you than just "a good sound investment." Figure it out yourself.

Throat In Fine Shape; Opera Star Sings Over Telephone To Prove It

Grace Moore, operatic and motion picture star, recently thrilled a few notes to a Philadelphia newspaper reporter over telephone wires from her Faraway Farms, near Newton, Conn., to squelch reports she was a patient in Temple University Hospital for treatment of a throat ailment.

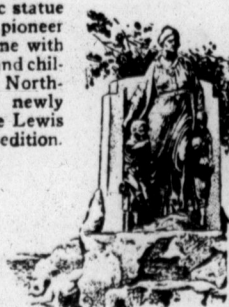

She did enter the hospital some time ago for one day "just to shake off a bad cold," she said, but her throat is "full of health now."

BURLINGTON BOMBS—These bombs, bought by citizens of Burlington, Iowa, just before they were loaded in a United States Army Air Forces B-17 Flying Fortress somewhere in North Africa for a journey of destruction over Leghorn Harbor, in western Italy. Money for these bombs was contributed by 350 members of Burlington, Iowa, American Legion Post No. 52. When they reached North Africa, First Lieutenant William A. Whitmore, commanding officer of an Army Air Force ordnance company, and a resident of Burlington, took a personal interest in the contribution from his home town. The bombs were used on a successful raid against the Italian mainland on May 28, 1943. Lt. Whitmore, (left), and Sergeant Neal I. Zollers, also a Burlington man, watch Arabs loading the bombs just before the raid.

JAP WEAPONS ARE NOW TROPHIES—Never to fire again except in ordnance tests this captured Japanese artillery piece recently was landed at San Francisco. The shield shows that this 105-mm gun saw heavy action before it was taken by the Americans in the Southwest Pacific area. Ordnance experts point out that most of the captured Japanese artillery compares unfavorably with American weapons in muzzle velocity and fire power.

Poultry Leftovers

A homemaker who has a bird in hand this Thanksgiving time will surely want to extract every good bit of poultry flavor, and also to reach that high 100 per cent goal—"nothing wasted."

Plan to save all meat bones, fat, skin, stuffing, and gravy. All have a future in post-Thanksgiving meals, used in such ways as these:

Serve chopped leftover poultry meat, creamed and hot—on toast, as a pie topped with biscuits rounds, or with mashed potato, rice, noodles, or spaghetti. To make it turkey or chicken a la king, give it richer sauce with egg yolks added, and perhaps mushrooms and some leftover peas or string beans.

Or mix bits of poultry meat with mashed potatoes. Shape into cakes, and brown in a little fat for a tasty lunch time dish.

Mix leftover stuffing with bits of poultry meat or gravy, and brown to make well-flavored hash. Or mix stuffing, leftover meat, and gravy, all three, and brown in the oven for a scallop.

An all leftover shepherd's pie may be assembled, if the ice box holds makings such as these: A few pieces of poultry meat, a little stuffing, some gravy, and mashed potatoes. The gravy will need some added liquid. So, if the bird skeleton with its last tag ends of meat hasn't been boiled for broth, now's the time. Fill a baking dish or small individual baking dishes with the meat, stuffing, and gravy, and top off with potatoes. Bake until hot all through and lightly browned.

An excellent dish for making a little leftover poultry meat go a long way comes from Italy and is called "risotto" or "rice dish." Ingredients for enough risotto to serve 6 people: 2 cups or more chopped cooked poultry meat, 1 quart of poultry broth, 1 onion chopped, 2 tablespoons fat, 1/2 cup rice, and a little grated cheese. To make, take the meat off the bones and chop it. Stew the bones in enough water to make a quart of broth and add any leftover gravy that will furnish chicken flavor. In a large frying pan cook the chopped onion for a few minutes in the fat, add the broth, and when it boils rapidly, sprinkle in the rice slowly. Cover the pan, simmer the rice for about 25 minutes, or until the grains swell and become soft. Shake the pan from time to time to keep the rice from sticking, but do not stir unless absolutely necessary. By the time the rice is done, it will have absorbed the broth and the grains will be large and separate. Then add the small pieces of chicken and salt to taste. Then turn the mixture into a hot platter and sprinkle with grated cheese.

Cranberry Christmas Gifts

This wartime year when food will be especially welcome for Christmas, call on cranberries to make delicious and different gifts. Small glasses of cranberry jelly to serve with poultry the year around, cranberry jam made with orange and raisins, or bright candied cranberries for a Christmas confection are all possibilities.

When cranberry jelly is being made for holiday dinners, put up some extra in small glasses to give away for Christmas. Many people do not know that cranberry jelly, properly made and sealed with paraffin, will keep like other fruit jelly and is always delicious with chicken dinners.

Cranberry jam is a good food gift now that jam is rationed. Make it of 2 pounds of berries, 1 cup raisins, 2 oranges, 3 cups sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1 pint water. Pick over the berries, and wash berries and raisins. Peel the oranges and remove any seeds. Combine the fruits and chop. Add sugar, salt and water. Cook about half an hour until thick, stirring often. Pour into hot sterilized jelly glasses. Cover with paraffin when cool.

Candied cranberries are Christmas-red in color, bright, plump, and semi-transparent and are good either as a sweetmeat or garnish. They are easy to make but take time. For 1 pound or quart of berries use 3 cups sugar and 2 cups water. Select large, firm perfect berries, wash and drain. Make 2 or 3 small slits in each berry with the point of a knife. In a large saucepan boil sugar and water together until clear. When cool add berries, bring slowly to the boiling point, then remove from stove and let stand overnight. (The pan should be large enough to allow all berries to float on top of the syrup during the cooking. If the berries are heated too quickly, the skins will burst before they absorb the syrup.)

Next day drain the syrup from the berries and boil until it is thick. Allow the syrup to cool, add the berries, heat slowly and cook gently 3 or 4 minutes. Allow berries to stand in syrup 2 hours or more. Then cook slowly for the third time just 5 minutes. Allow berries to stand in thick syrup over night, warm on the stove until the syrup will pour easily, and drain berries from the syrup. Spread them on a rack covered with cheese cloth to dry. Store in a tightly covered jar for a Christmas sweetmeat or garnish. The syrup left over after the berries are candied makes delicious dessert sauce or is good to use in holiday punch.

WAR BONDS

CRISP November days call for crisp and tasty salads! And they're so easy to make—just a few fresh vegetables and a bit of ingenuity, and you have a salad that perks up the whole meal and makes it rich in vitamins. For example:

Raw Vegetable Symphony

Mix together 1 cup each ground, shredded or chopped raw cauliflower, celery and carrots with 1 cup ground nut meats. Salt to taste. Mold by packing firmly in an individual custard cup. Turn out immediately on crisp lettuce leaves. Garnish with your favorite salad dressing to which 2 tbsps. lemon juice have been added and with ground nut meats or stuffed green olives. Serves 6-8.

Stuffed Cabbage Crown

For a buffet supper, hollow firm cabbage head with sharp pointed knife. Cut so edge is pointed. Fill cabbage shell with mixture of 1 1/2 cups each of shredded cabbage, carrots, unpeeled red apples and a few raisins. Season to taste with salt and mix with your favorite salad dressing.

Mock Crab Salad

Pare and shred 2 cups raw parsnips. Add 2 tbsps. lemon juice and enough salad dressing to coat, immediately, so parsnips won't discolor. Add 1 cup diced celery, 1 onion finely minced and 1/2 cup sliced stuffed or ripe olives. Salt to taste. Mix with dressing. Serve on lettuce cup with sliced hard-cooked egg garnish.

Wilted Lettuce

To bowl of torn lettuce or thinly sliced cabbage and grated carrots, gradually add hot mixture of the drippings of and 4 slices finely cut and fried bacon (or 2 tbsps. drippings alone), 1/2 cup mild or diluted vinegar, 1 tsp. sugar, 1/2 tsp. dry mustard and salt and pepper to taste.

French Orange Salad

Arrange thin slices of dry onion between thick slices of orange, sandwich-fashion. Serve on lettuce. Top with French dressing.

Waldorf Salad

Mix 1 cup each sliced celery and diced tart apples. Add few broken nutmeats and raisins. Mix with mayonnaise. Blend thoroughly. Serve on crisp lettuce leaves. Serves 4.
