Red Sox Play Louisa Here On Sunday

The Manassas Red Sox will try to break out of their slump this Sunday as they tangle with the strong Louisa team in a 4 p. m. DST game at Swavely Field.

The game will not be a playoff game, but it will be a game to decide the standings in the Rappahannock League. Since the League ended with two ties for first and second place and third and fourth place. Stafford and White Oak ended the season with 15 wins and 6 losses, while only one game back came the Red Sox, with 14 wins and 7 losses and Louisa with 14 wins and 7 losses.

The winner of this Sunday's game between White Oak and Stafford will end in first place, while the winner of the Red Sox-Louisa game will end in second place. Then the playoff will get under way Sunday, September 18, between these four teams.

Stafford once more held their jinx over the Red Sox as they topped the Red Sox in a doubleheader 2-1 and 12-7 last Sunday.

The first game was a pitcher's battle between the Red Sox's Bob Stutler and Stafford's Dick Knoxville.

The Red Sox's only run came in the seventh inning as D. Posey singled, advanced on an error and scored on Wells' single.

Dick Knoxville won his own game in the eighth inning as he singled after a walk and stolen base by F. Heflin.

Hitting for the Red Sox was D. Posey, M. Wells, C. Posey and B. Witt, all with singles.

Gospel Singers To Appear At Nokesville

Nokesville.—The Eppley Sisters Gospel Quintette, of Manchester, Pa., will appear at the Nokesville High School Auditorium Sunday evening, Sept. 18, at 8 o'clock, EST.

The Religious Education Committee of Brentsville District, is sponsoring their appearance.

The five sisters render a deeply spiritual program featuring vocal quintettes, soprano and alto solos, artistic piano playing and numbers on the following instruments: Vibraphone, guitar, electric Hawaiian guitar, saxophone, accordions and Cathedral Chimes. These five sisters are known from coast to coast and also in Canada. They are widely used in Youth for Christ rallies.

Thousands have heard this group, churches have been crowded to capacity and many turned away. If you wish to hear a musical program that is unique and different and has been rated as one of the best programs of its kind in the country, come and hear these five sisters. They have appeared in churches of 30 different denominations the past seven years. Their recent concert tours have included leading churches and radio stations in the United States and Canada.

Some of the girls are graduates of Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., others of the Dunmore School of Music, Harrisburg, Pa., and at present all are special vocal students of Messiah Bible College, Grunham, Pa.

The public is cordially invited to attend and is urged to come early.

Both sides of the proposed change in county government were given last Friday night at Brentsville District High School. Approximately 100 attended the mass meeting.

Speaking for the adoption of the new form was Wheatley M. Johnson, Dr. Floyd Riddick and Ned Bradford.

Short talks of opposition were given by lawyers Hayes Davis and William May, and E. D. Gohlwaite.

Mrs. M. Ryan Heads Blood Program Here

Alexandria.—Mrs. Marie Coletta Ryan was appointed Blood Program Field Representative for the American Red Cross, Eastern Area Headquarters here, on March 1, 1949.

Mrs. Ryan joined the Red Cross in July, 1942, and served as Club Director and Supervisor in the Southwest and South Pacific where she established rest areas for enlisted men and officers on several U. S. island bases for the armed forces until March 1, 1944. She returned to the States, joining National Headquarters as a Fund Campaign speaker.

EVERYONE INVITED

The Prince William County 4-H, FFA Dairy Show at Nokesville Saturday is to be an exhibit of some of our best cattle, which are being shown by the most progressive boys of the county. It is an effort on the part of the show committee to stimulate interest in better dairy animals, improved dairy practices, community spirit through the welfare of our farm youth.

All exhibitors, excepting for adults entering animals in the bull class, are to be bona-fide 4-H Club members of Prince William County, or members of the Harry Sanders FFA Chapter of the Nokesville FFA Chapter. All female animals are to be fitted by the exhibitor and shown by the exhibitor excepting where a member has more than one entry for the same class.

All who are interested in dairy cattle and the rural youth of the county are invited to come out for the County 4-H, FFA Dairy Show at Nokesville Saturday.

Dallas Posey, manager of the Manassas Red Sox, was honored Sunday at the ball park following the Red Sox-Stafford game. He was awarded a gold wrist watch by members of the club. John Parrish, president of the club, made the presentation.

Speakers for the occasion included Mr. Parrish, Hon. Frank Moncure, Dudley Martin and J. A. Vetter.

Odd Fellows Meet

Lynchburg.—About 2,000 members of the International Order of Odd Fellows and former children of the Odd Fellows Home of Virginia attended the 10th annual homecoming celebration of the Odd Fellows at the home here Sunday.

Robert B. Hogan, of Richmond, grand master of the General Lodge of Virginia, delivered the main address, discussing the principle of Odd Fellows.

Wheat Growers are Urged to Cooperate Under 1950 Farm Crop Acreage Allotments

With the fall seeding of next year's wheat crop not too far away, Virginia growers were reminded that marketing quotas on future crops will largely depend on how well they comply under the 1950 acreage allotment program. This statement came from R. B. Bridgeforth, Chairman of the State Committee of the Production and Marketing Administration, who will administer wheat acreages under the allotment plan.

"If growers this fall plan within their wheat acreage allotments, they will produce in accordance with expected requirements and we won't be saddled with more wheat than we can sell. In this way, it wouldn't be necessary next year to consider using quotas, which provide marketing controls through penalties on excess marketings," the chairman said.

Mr. Bridgeforth pointed out that quotas, which must be approved by two-thirds of the growers voting in a referendum before they may be used, were considered probable earlier this year. However, quotas will not be used for the 1950 wheat crop, he said, since the total indicated

4-H, FFA Club Dairy Show At Nokesville

Nokesville.—All indications point to an interesting and successful County 4-H, FFA Dairy Show here on Saturday, September 10.

All dairy animals to be brought to the Hale property, Nokesville, by 10 a. m. Saturday morning and judging will start at 1 p. m. Lunch, to be served by the Nokesville FFA Chapter, will be available on the grounds. There will be no charge for admission, and there will be a farm machinery exhibit in connection with the show as an added attraction.

Premiums will include cash prizes made possible by generous contributions by individuals, businesses and organizations and purebred dairy heifer calves donated by Geo. O. Sutton W. M. Johnson, W. E. Leachman and P. A. Lewis.

In addition to the animals shown by members of the junior agricultural organizations, there will be a class in which farmers and dairymen may show purebred dairy bulls. C. A. McLearn, Madison, Va., will act as official judge of the show.

Gift Subscriptions

Students of Prince William County entering college for the first time this Fall will be given a nine months free subscription to The Manassas Journal if they will leave their address at The Journal office.

Since there is no way for The Journal to know who is eligible for the gift subscriptions, students must do this on their own, in order to receive the paper each week while in college.

Temple School Opens Monday September 12

Temple School, on Grand Avenue, is opening for the Fall term on Monday, Sept. 12.

Miss Margaret Temple Hopkins is headmistress of this school. Mrs. Frances Ellis, Mrs. Ethel Smith and Mrs. Eunice McConaha are associated with her. Mrs. Ellis has charge of the pre-school group, Mrs. McConaha assists with the nursery group and Mrs. Smith is House Mother.

This school is for kindergarten age and grade work for day students from the first through the third grades. They also have an outstanding music department, which is under the direction of Miss Hopkins and Mrs. Ellis.

Temple School is one of the first in this section to install the Germicide Lamps. This process purifies the air with violet rays which kills ninety per cent of all airborne germs. Another modern feature is that all the dishes are sterilized by violet rays.

They also have one of the finest playgrounds in this section. Representatives from Goodhousekeeping and Parents Magazine have visited here and state that it is one of the finest they have ever seen. All modern equipment and spacious grounds where the children play and really enjoy it.

If you are out for a stroll some of these Autumn days, stop by the Temple School and visit with the folks there. They would be delighted to have you and give you a tour of the buildings.

Prince William County Men To Be Invited to Meeting

Richmond.—A number of Prince William County officials will be invited to the third annual Virginia Highway Conference scheduled for October 20, 21, at the Virginia Military Institute in Lexington.

Jointly sponsored by the Highway Department and V. P. I.'s civil engineering department, the conference will bring together an estimated 700 road-conscious officials for a discussion of mutual road and street problems.

Invitations will be extended to the Supervisors, Commonwealth Attorneys, County Engineers and other officials and leaders from each Virginia County.

Also invited will be city and town officials, county surveyors, State highway engineers, road-building contractors, Federal highway officials, planning boards, State Police officers and highway safety authorities.

TUCK TO APPEAR

Sponsoring authorities said a new emphasis will be placed this year on giving county, city and town authorities the opportunity to air their local road and street problems. A special panel discussion will be devoted to highway problems of the political sub-divisions of the State.

For the first time in the three-year history of the conference, military transportation officers and Virginia railroad officials will attend the conference.

While the agenda is still in a tentative stage, those invited to appear on the program include Virginia's Governor Tuck, Thomas H. McDonald, U. S. Commissioner of Public Roads, and Lieut. Gen. L. T. Gerow, commanding officer of the Second Army Headquarters at Fort Meade, Md.

Mrs. Virginia Park Elected President Of Local Group

William A. Early, president of the Virginia Education Association and Superintendent of Arlington County Schools, spoke on "Teaching As A Profession" when the teachers of the county met for their Fall meeting on September 1, at the Osborn High School.

Mr. Early's address was inspirational to all of the teachers present. He spoke of the great responsibility each teacher has, for the parents intrust to them their most precious possessions.

"We, as teachers, should be proud of our profession. Education is an investment, and the parents and teachers must work together to see good results from this investment."

Mr. Early gave many examples of the statement, "Where a country lets their educational system lag, their economic welfare lags," he said. "We enjoy the greatest standard of living everywhere, and it is up to us to see that everyone is educated to the utmost. We as teachers, are sowing seeds of democracy and attitudes for the future."

BUSINESS SESSION HELD

Mrs. Virginia Park, president of the association, presided at the morning business session following devotionals by Rev. Testa, pastor of the Manassas Presbyterian Church, Virginia County.

Miss Shirley Davis, music teacher at Occoquan, led the group singing, with Mrs. Royer at the piano.

The president welcomed the old and the more than forty new teachers.

The president was instructed to appoint a committee to revise the present constitution of the association.

A resolution committee was appointed for "Aunt Maude" Jordan. The following committee was appointed: Miss Sue Ayers, chairman; Miss Carol Faulconer and Mrs. Osie Tipton.

ELECT PRESIDENT

Miss Elizabeth Lloyd made an explanation of the pre-ventorium, and stressed the importance of each teacher joining.

Mr. Art Clifton, of the Washington Life Insurance Company, spoke on the benefits of group insurance.

Miss Sue Ayers talked about the Junior Red Cross. She reported that two students represented the Junior Red Cross at Atlantic City this summer and that they would bring back reports to each of the local organizations.

Mrs. Virginia Park was elected president for the year 1949-50.

Vets Policy Data Given

Some major points of National Service Life Insurance are summarized for World War II veterans by the Veterans Administration.

A veteran can buy as little as $1,000 worth of insurance, or as much as $10,000, depending upon his needs and his financial circumstances. Immediate amounts may be bought, in multiples of $500.

There are six permanent plans of GI insurance. They are ordinary life, 30-pay life, 20-pay life and three endowment plans. A veteran can choose any one on any condition of these six plans according to which fits his condition best.

As to the final payment, the Veterans Administration will pay the proceeds of the policy in a lump sum, if that is what the veteran wishes. Or he may choose regular monthly payments to the beneficiary. The payment will be made to whomver the veteran selects, a member of his family or to someone not related, according to his selection.

Since each veteran wishes to make sure which GI insurance plan best fits his own circumstances, it is recommended that he consult his nearest VA office for complete information.

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa:—
I am a fifteen year old girl and I go with a nineteen year old Jewish boy. My parents think he is nice boy but they don't want me to go with him because he is not from town and because he is Jewish.

Do you think they should tell me not to accept dates from him when he calls. I like this boy very much and he likes me. I have gone out with Gentile boys but I never seem to have fun with them. When we go out we laugh and do other amusing things.

What should I do—continue to go with him or break off with him?

UNDECIDED L-N-J

Answer:—
Perhaps your parents object to this boy because they know nothing about him and they feel that they would know more about someone who lived in your town. Some very great rascals can be most amusing.

However, I don't think they should object to your having dates with him, because he is Jewish. Some of the nicest people I've ever known were Jewish. But it is a fact that people who marry people of like religions get along better and have a far better chance for happiness.

So, I can understand why your parents would rather you fall in love with someone they know and who goes to the same church.

You probably know that most Jewish people object very strenuously to their children marrying Gentiles. So taking both those things into consideration I think it would be better for you at your age to keep your relations with this boy on a friendly basis and not fall in love.

LOUISA

I have been going with a boy for about six months just off and on. He makes dates with me and always breaks them. He acts like he likes me when he is with me but is always breaking dates giving such excuses as car trouble, couldn't get rid of a boy or something. I am getting very disgusted with him. Please tell me what to do.

I am not surprised that you are disgusted. There might be some excuse for breaking one date but when it happens over and over, it seems to have been done on purpose. Don't give him the opportunity to break another one.

Polio Foundation Asks Dimes and Dollars Now to Pay for Patient Care in Epidemic of Infantile Paralysis Throughout Country

With thousands of children and adults in hospitals today as the result of current widespread polio epidemics, and with as many new cases likely to develop in the months just ahead, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has launched a Polio Epidemic Emergency Drive to provide immediate funds for patient care.

The price-tag on this year's epidemic will be so enormous, according to Basil O'Connor, National Foundation President, that $14,500,000 must be raised to meet the national polio bill. During 1948, when there were 27,908 cases in the country, the highest number since the record total in 1916, the National Foundation and its Chapters spent $17,000,000 in March of Dimes funds to provide epidemic services, he said. With even more cases this year, it looks as though it may cost $25,000,000 in 1949 to pay for that part of medical and hospital care which families cannot pay themselves.

By the end of August, as much money had been advanced in epidemic aid to National Foundation Chapters whose March of Dimes funds have been exhausted by the cost of care as was sent in all of 1948. The nation's total number of cases now is as large as a full year's toll in previous years, with predictions for at least double that number before December 31.

Furthermore, it is estimated that a minimum of $5,000,000 will be required to continue helping 1948 patients who still need clinic or hospital treatment. The National Foundation gives assistance as long as medical care is necessary, regardless of age, race, creed or color. The money raised in the Polio Epidemic Emergency Drive will be used exclusively for services to polio patients in all states, Mr. O'Connor said. Contributions may be mailed to POLIO, care of your local Post Office.

"This emergency drive is our only hope of providing care for patients without slowing up scientific research and professional education programs of the National Foundation," Mr. O'Connor explained. "It is an ironical fact that this heavy incidence,

If she and her husband can save up enough money to buy the land on which to build, they may be able to borrow enough from the bank to build and give a mortgage on it to the bank or to the Building and Loan Association. Blight Widespread On Tobacco, Peanuts

BLACKSBURG—Severe damage on both tobacco and peanuts from a disease called sclerotial blight has been noted this year in several Virginia counties, says S. B. Fenne, plant disease specialist at V. P. I. The blight is particularly prevalent in Sussex, Greensville and Brunswick counties.

The blight in past years has caused severe injury to peanuts and soybeans in that area, but now, Fenne says, "Is more severe on peanuts than I have ever seen it." The disease is being found mainly in crops growing in light, sandy soils. Fenne reports there is some indication that where tobacco was grown after peanuts the blight is more severe than where tobacco has been grown continuously in the same field.

The cowboy-rides at breakneck speed on a cow pony and makes a flying leap from the saddle and grasps the wild steer by the horns. He then succeeds in throwing the steer to the ground. There also will be trick riding and roping as well as antics by the rodeo clown. Blue Comb Danger Seen in Virginia

BLACKSBURG—Watch out for blue comb!

This warning comes from Dr. E. P. Johnson, animal pathologist at V. P. I. Blue comb may appear suddenly in a flock of healthy birds, he explains, and can be recognized by a depressed, listless condition, lack of appetite and whitish or watery diarrhea. Usually the red part of the comb will darken, eyes may be sunken and legs shriveled.

The disease generally affects birds ready to come into production.

If the disease hits your birds, cut down on feed during hot weather, and provide plenty of shade and fresh drinking water. Additional green feed will help. For treatment, use a tablespoonful of muriate of potash for three or four days. Then leave it out of the water, and put a pound and a half of the muriate of potash in every 100 pounds of mash. Feed the medicated mash for three or four days.

Molasses in the drinking water is another treatment. A half pint of molasses to each gallon of drinking water is needed. Then for a few days feed a molasses-mash mixture made up of 40 pounds of bran, 40 pounds of ground oats, and 20 pounds of molasses.

Travel Group Urges Money For Publicity

RICHMOND—The Virginia State Commission on Conservation and Development has unanimously adopted the recommendations of the Virginia Travel Council that Governor Tuck be requested to include the sum of "at least" $300,000 a year for state advertising in his 1950-51 budget. The request was officially presented to the Commission at its last meeting by R. F. Nelson, managing director of the Council, a non-profit organization representing travel interests throughout the state.

"States with much less to offer the tourist than Virginia have built their revenues from vacation and tour business from a half billion to a billion dollars," Nelson told the Commission. "Virginia can increase its travel business in a few years from $164,000,000 to the half billion dollar mark."

"The key to success is a larger state advertising appropriation plus the cooperation of those in the travel business. An outstanding example of this cooperation is Michigan, where the state expands $250,000 a year, which is more than matched from private sources by the thirty-three year old Michigan Travel Council."

Resolutions To Tuck

C. S. Carter, of Bristol, chairman of the Commission, applauded the work being done by the Virginia Travel Council, but stated that any action for an increased advertising fund by the state should not influence private interests to relax their efforts.

He said that he would favor an increased appropriation provided that private efforts would be stepped up to match the work of the state in this field. G. P. Arnold, assistant director of the Department of Conservation in charge of state advertising, referred to the work of the Council as an essential part of the overall advertising program of Virginia. Individual members of the Commission were unanimous in favoring an increased appropriation and on motion of Edward Lauck, of Luray,

The town should make provision for a bus terminal, with the cooperation of the bus company. Also at present there are no facilities for a rest room, and this should be incorporated in such a terminal.

Councilmen at their first meeting were Mrs. W. Sedrick Saunders and Roy Doggett.

Outgoing councilmen Arthur J. Vetter and W. E. Trusler were given a vote of thanks for their years of service.

Councilman G. Wallace Hook was elected vice-mayor, and the following were appointed chairmen of the four major committees: Streets, Mr. Doggett; Finance, Mr. Hook; Utility, J. E. Rice; Cemetery, Mrs. Saunders.

The next council meeting will be held Monday, Sept. 26.

The motion was unanimously adopted.

William A. Wright, chairman of the Department of Conservation was requested to present the resolutions to Governor Tuck with a request that his budget include "at least" $300,000 for state advertising. The Department's appropriation request will be heard by the Governor's Legislative Advisory Council on October 3, at Richmond.

PAYS TO ADVERTISE!

Philadelphia, Pa.—Jim Riley believes it pays to advertise. A sign on his sidewalk bootblack stand reads: "Pedal habiliments artistically lubricated and illuminated with an ambidextrous facility for the infinitesimal remuneration of 15 cents."

LOVELY HEDGE, BUT—
Pasadena, Cal.—Given some seeds by a friend, Mrs. Jean Thorpe planted them. The seeds came up quickly and developed into a high ornamental hedge. Slips from the plants soon did the same for neighbors. Curiosity overcame Mrs. H. B. Romage, a neighbor, who took a sprig to a nurseryman for identification and for some more seed. The shrubbery was "marihuana," and it was soon harvested and burned by police.

He Saw His Chance

Sammy Kaye had quite an experience at one performance when he turned his band over to a contestant to conduct his "Want to Lead a Band" feature. Said Kaye: "The band is yours, sir?" "In that case," was the reply, "the first thing I'd like to do is hire my brother—he's a trumpet player out of work!"

Miss Doris Kathryn Bowman Married to Rev. E. D. Noley

Miss Doris Kathryn Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Bowman, Boones Mill, Va., and Rev. Eugene Davis Noley, son of Rev. and Mrs. Davis Noley, Nokesville, Va., were united in marriage at 8 o'clock on Saturday evening in the Bethlehem Church of the Brethren, Boones Mill, by Rev. Rufus B. McDaniel, assisted by Rev. O. E. Pike.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of blue satin in fashioned with a fitted bodice, bertha effect, with lace yoke, long sleeves pointed over the hand and a long full skirt ending in a circular train. Her fingertip veil of ice blue illusion hung from a crown of illusion scooped with iridescent sequins. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with stephanies.

Mrs. Willard Ager, of Chicago, Ill., sister of the bride, served as matron of honor and wore a open blue faulle dress styled after that of the bride. Her headdress was a crown of blue net and she carried a nosegay of mixed garden flowers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Sarah Pike, of Boones Mill, and Indiana, Miss Texie Bashier, of Christiansburg, Va., cousin of the groom; Miss Theresa Hall, of Canton, Chl. and Bridgewater College. They wore dresses of varied shades of home of the bride, after which the couple left for a short trip.

For traveling the bride wore a suit of brown tweed with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mothers of the bride and groom wore navy blue dresses with matching accessories and corsages of white roses.

After September 8 the bride and groom will make their home at Bridgewater College, where they will continue their education.

VOTE SEPTEMBER 20

With very few changes since then, the present form of County Government was set up in 1901 for the purpose of keeping control of the counties by the State Government in Richmond. What changes have been made in Business, Highways, Farms and Households since then? And yet we get excited about a Change in Government.

You don't have to go elsewhere. Ask any citizen of Manassas whether he would discard the Town Manager Plan? And the Old Mayor and Council were far more efficient and Democratic than your present County Government.

FOR DETAILS

Also the long jacket suit is good this season, there are a variety of styles suitable for all figures. Peplum-like jackets and those with double or odd pockets are featured. The collar may be a stand-up one, a rolled one, or flat with rather wide lapels.

Buttons are used a great deal—self-covered, tortoise or other materials. Velvet is used on some jackets' pockets and collars.

Safety Contest
Sponsored
By Local Firm

Mr. Walter C. Sadd, president of the Prince William Motors, Ford dealer here has entered his dealership in a $100,000 car safety contest sponsored by the Ford Division, Ford Motor Company.

Mr. Sadd is one of 6,000 Ford dealers throughout the nation who has entered his dealership in the contest during September and October.

Seven hundred prizes totaling $100,000 will be awarded winners of the safety contest. The prizes are 25 new Fords including five Ford trucks; 25 $1,000 U. S. Savings Bonds, 100 $100 Bonds, 200 $50 Bonds and 350 $25 Bonds.

The contest has the support of the National Safety Council, the Inter-Industry Highway Safety Committee and other safety organizations.

Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, in a letter to L. D. Crusoe, Vice-President and General Manager of the Ford Division said:

"Certainly every motorist should check and double check the mechanical condition of his car for safety's sake and you at Ford are making such a check easily available for all drivers throughout the country."

Rules Outlined

"And I am sure that this free check-up and safety contest, with its attractive prizes, will make Americans more safety conscious—it will save lives."

In order to participate in the contest, Mr. Sadd pointed out, motorists must bring their car or truck, of any make, to the dealership for a safety check at absolutely no cost or obligation to the motorist.

Free checks will be made on the brakes, steering, headlights, rear stop lights, tires, windshield wipers, muffler, glass, horn and rear view mirror.

The Prince William Motors will place an attractive safe driver reflector insignia on the car or truck inspected and motorists will be given an entry blank to participate in the contest.

The motorist must then complete in no more than 50 additional words the following statement:

"All cars and trucks should be safety-checked periodically because a jury of prominent persons in national safety circles will judge the winners. Only one entry per car or truck may be entered."

Other details of the contest are available at the Prince William Motors.

YORKSHIRE

The Civic Group met with Captain and Mrs. Jesse Morse last Thursday evening, ten were present. Nice to know that some of the folks who had not been attending have started meeting with us again. Mr. Johnson, member of the county board of supervisors, was guest speaker. He spoke about the New Form of County Government, and made a comparison of the old and new form. The group meetings with Mrs. Elizabeth O'Neill next month. Thanks to Captain and Mrs. Morse for having us meet with them.

Mrs. Roy Helms and Jean spent several days shopping in Richmond last week. While down there visited a friend, Miss Mary Sheppard, in Winterham, Amelia County.

We extend our sincere sympathy to Mrs. Ray Wells, who lost her father last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Farr and daughters, Shirley and Neppie are our new neighbors living in the Marshall apartment. Welcome! They're from east Tennessee.

Jack Heaton has a position with the government now. He is working in the Radio Communications Department at the Pentagon. Mrs. Forest Leigs and two children were weekend guests of the Heaton family.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Witt and children have returned from a vacation. Their mothers, Mrs. W. F. Witt and Mrs. A. Hinchey, of Lynchburg, were invited to go along with them. They went to Boston where they visited Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Witt and daughter, Charmaine, for a few days and went sightseeing in and around Boston. They were dinner guests of the Witts at the Historical Red Lion Inn in Cabasset. Leaving Boston they went up the coast to Portland, Maine, across New Hampshire, Vermont and Lake Champlain through the Finger Tip Lake region of New York to Niagara Falls and Canada. A scenic trip which all enjoyed thoroughly.

Captain and Mrs. Jesse Morse's guests during the holiday weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Morse and family of Philadelphia, Captain and Mrs. Wilfred Hafner and son Mike of Alexandria, and Lieutenant Hargrave of Arlington.

Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Robbins and Ellen spent several days last week in Allentown, Pa.

Sunday afternoon visitors to the Witt house were Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Portch and Miss Essie Portch of Fredericksburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Barnes have as guests a nephew and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Frank Paul, of Point Marion, Pa. Also visiting them are Mr. George Barnes and Stanley Great house of Point Marion, Pa.

Dr. Jose Sansone, attache of the Cuban Embassy in Washington, recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Brown of Bristow, and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Barnes of York-shire.

Advice Given
To Farmers
On Forestry

CHARLOTTESVILLE—More than 90 pct. of the farmers in Virginia have from one to many acres of land that at present is not producing the cost of taxes. These abandoned agricultural, eroded, cut-over areas should be planted with trees immediately so that all acres on the farm will produce an income. Not only will planting tree seedlings reclaim land that is non productive at present, but will produce a cash income in the future by producing pulpwood and sawtimber.

Tree plantations also add value to farms in many other aspects besides producing cash crops for the future. Soil erosion is decreased, clear streams and rivers result, increased animal and bird life will result, and the sale value of the land is increased.

The Virginia Forest Service has two forest tree seedling nurseries for the production of tree seedlings. These nurseries are located at Charlottesville and at Camp Peary, near Williamsburg, Virginia.

The new nursery at Camp Peary first time during the spring planting will have seedlings available for the season of 1950. Approximately 5,000,000 seedlings will be available for the 1950 planting season. This number will approximately double the number of seedlings available in 1949.

Seedling applications may be secured from your County Agent, Chief Forest Warden, or the Virginia Forest Service in Charlottesville.

Clubs Organized
In 94 Counties

BLACKSBURG—Corn clubs, with a membership of almost 4,800, have been organized in 94 Virginia counties this year, says P. H. DeHart, agronomist at V. P. I.

Aim of the club members is to grow 100 bushels of corn per acre, he explained.

Prizes, including $9,982 in cash, 31 silver cups or trophies, one purebred bull, and several other items, have been offered by 23 different organizations, DeHart said.
