

PMA Committeemen Elections Scheduled For December 15

Over 100,000 Virginia farmers will be eligible to vote in the annual farmer committeemen elections to be held through the State Saturday, December 15.

Vote! FARMER-COMMITTEEMAN ELECTIONS

Rosenberger Addresses Art Section

Francis C. Rosenberger, writer and editor, was guest speaker at the November meeting of the Fine Arts Section of the Woman's Club which met at the home of Mrs. Dan Kelso November 21, with Mrs. Florence Que as co-hostess.

City Officials Are Guests Of Lions Club

A well-attended meeting of the Lions Club last Wednesday evening joined with officials of the town in free discussion of general problems of municipal government.

500 Attend Co-op Party At Osbourn

Almost 500 persons from this County attended the annual membership meeting of the Prince William Electric Cooperative held Tuesday evening at the gymnasium of Osbourn High School.

You Be Sure

To read "Personality of the Week," on the editorial page of The Manassas Journal. This will be a regular weekly feature and will deal with people of Prince William County.

Dr. Riddick Is Woman's Club Speaker

Guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Manassas Woman's Club Monday night at the Parish Hall was Dr. Floyd M. Riddick, Senate editor of the Daily Digest of the Congressional Record.

Large Sum Being Added To Jack Pot

Failure of winners of three of the weekly awards of the Manassas Merchants Mart to present themselves at one or another of the stores participating in the advertising project added a nice sum to the already substantial jackpot to be divided on December 22.

Town Council Delays Water Rate Action Until December 9th

Nursery Sets Opening Day For Monday

A nursery, endorsed by the Town Council Monday as a good plan, will be opened Monday morning in Manassas by Mrs. A. P. Hevener and Mrs. H. V. Anderson, at 323 East Center St., Mrs. Hevener's home.

Board of Viewers Gives It's Report On Milnes' Petition

With all members present, the Town Council Monday evening postponed until the continued regular meeting to be held December 9, action on the water rates for persons living outside the corporation limits.

Must Choose Carefully

Committeemen have a big job for them in looking after varied interests of our farm-bridged said. "Only the wisest, and most representative farmers can properly do the job it is up to farmers in this to see that such men are

Letters To Santa Claus

Santa Claus—I am 8 years old and want a doll, coloring book, candy and nuts. Don't forget my sister, 2 years old. Love, CHRISTINE and GLENN

Rural Institute Members Meet

Prince William County Rural Life Institute members and guests heard several addresses today at Grace Methodist Church which helped to answer the question, "How can my church do the best possible job in the place where it is located?"

Pearson's 'Counting House' To Establish Office Near Here

Pearson's 'Counting House,' established in 1934, by its present director, Jack Pearson, has recently purchased a plot of ground in nearby Yorkshirre for the purpose of erecting a modern, well-equipped accounting office.

Mayor Commends Club

Mayor Davis, after commending the club for activities in the interest of a better community, commended the organization for offering opportunity to the town's officials to discuss with citizens, in an informal manner, problems which concern all citizens, indicating that in his opinion it led to better understanding between citizens and officials, when matters of specific interest to the citizens required formal presentation to the Council in regular session.

Directors Chosen

The board of directors chose Mr. Van Doren, president; Mr. Detwiler, vice president, and Mr. Wheeler, secretary-treasurer.

Remarks on Forum Given

Mrs. Lloyd gave a few brief remarks about the very interesting Woman's Forum at Miller and Rhoades which she attended early in November. It was the opinion of the speakers at the forum that women of today must take a more active part in local and national affairs.

Color of Coupon Varies

With the belated delivery of the regulation tickets each merchant is providing visitors to their stores with coupons of colors which differ for each store.

Large Drawing Expected

Exact figures are not yet available, but the great increase in the number of coupons collected daily indicate that the next drawing will involve selection from more than 5,000 coupons.

Age Limits 2 to 5

Designed especially for working mothers who are not financially able to employ special nurses or mothers who do not want to place their children in an institution, arrangements for the care of children between the ages of 2 and 5 can be made by the hour, day, week or month. It is also designed for mothers who wish to shop.

Viewers Report Given

The board of viewers appointed to report on the alley between Church Street and another alley running east and west parallel to Center Street closed reported that the alleys appeared to be unkept and that they appeared as though they had not been used for the past 20 years.

Manager Ritter Speaks

Manager Ritter presented a few of the more recent accomplishments which the Council may claim with pride and satisfaction. He presented a clear statement of the difficulty with which officials served when modern equipment was unavailable, where manual labor had to serve in place of mechanized operations.

Sudley Church Schedules Two Meetings

Members of the Sudley Methodist Church attended Thanksgiving services Sunday and heard announcements of two important meetings for the immediate future and an outline of plans for the Christmas Day program to be presented by the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Two new members, Mrs. Ian Ross and Mrs. W. J. Saylor, were welcomed by the president, Mrs. W. L. Lloyd.

New Members Welcomed

In the business meeting preceding the talk, the members voted to entertain the Spring institute of the Fourth District.

Remarks on Forum Given

Mrs. Lloyd gave a few brief remarks about the very interesting Woman's Forum at Miller and Rhoades which she attended early in November. It was the opinion of the speakers at the forum that women of today must take a more active part in local and national affairs.

Men's Church Group Started

GREENWICH—On Tuesday evening, 24 men gathered at the Sunday School building of the Presbyterian Church at Greenwich and organized a men's group.

Auto Ordinance Adopted

An auto ordinance on the regulation and sale of motor vehicles, to go into effect May 1, 1950, was adopted by the Council. However, the only change from the old ordinance in effect is in the matter of violations, in which upon conviction the violator will be fined not less than $5 or more than $50.

Initial Meeting Held

The initial meeting of a study course, which will extend over about eight months, was held last night at Sudley Church, when members met to study the book, "Our Faith in God," under the leadership of the Rev. Mr. Duley.

Trade Name Born

The trade name "Pearson's 'Counting House,'" was born in late 1946 and the distinctive trade mark, ink pot and quill, has been widely publicized and commented upon.

County Polio Head Chosen

William H. May, of Manassas, has been appointed by Gen. Alexander A. Vandergrift to serve as campaign director for Prince William County in the 1950 March of Dimes campaign for funds to fight infantile paralysis.

Coming Events

Post 114 of the American Legion is sponsoring a turkey shoot to be held at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Regional High School, at one dollar a shot. The Post will furnish ammunition and the public is cordially invited.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Martin of Centreville are the parents of a daughter born November 19, at Columbia Hospital.

Eleven Years of Banking

Mr. Pearson was employed by a Washington, D. C., bank immediately upon graduating from high school. The last five years of an 11-year experience in banking was spent as general ledger bookkeeper.

Need Brought Home

AURORA, Ill.—One of the hardest workers in the promotion of a baseball game between the city's firemen and policemen, the proceeds of which were to go for the purchase of iron lungs for polio treatment, was Fire Lieutenant Carl Numrich. Two days after his 6-year-old son, Bobbie, became ill. The case was diagnosed as infantile paralysis.

Director Expresses Need

Serving his second year as chairman of the drive, General Vandegrift said that the country is faced with the certainty that 17,000 victims of 1949 must be cared for in 1950, the greatest carry-over case load in the 12-year history of the foundation. He added that each community must be ready to help new patients in outbreaks predicted in many areas next summer.

Feature of the Week:

Something New to Be Added To Local Streets This Year

Welfare Group Attends Meeting at Warrenton

Mrs. Elizabeth Painter, superintendent of Public Welfare; Miss Nancy Didiak, social worker, and John W. Ellis, member of the Board of Supervisors, and also the local Board of Welfare, attended a meeting Monday at Warrenton which was sponsored by the Virginia Conference of Social Work.

W. Cross Dies

Roger W. Cross, Sr., died at residence at 12:20 a.m. today. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow at Hines Funeral Home, Washington, and interment will be at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow at Arlington.

Welfare Group Attends Meeting at Warrenton

Mrs. Elizabeth Painter, superintendent of Public Welfare; Miss Nancy Didiak, social worker, and John W. Ellis, member of the Board of Supervisors, and also the local Board of Welfare, attended a meeting Monday at Warrenton which was sponsored by the Virginia Conference of Social Work.