CHURCH EMPOWERED
National Sunday School Lesson for January 8, 1950
DRY SELECTION—Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.—Acts 2:38.

Text: Acts 2:1-4; 14-17: 37-41.
Someone were to ask you the "What does the world need?" what would be your answer? Some would say, "Clothing and still others would reply the world needs most is the world's information of the world's beneficence of God and the Church, the institution in the world which is capable of interpreting our lesson this week, we are as Christians know of it, the church had existed before Pentecost; and the events occurred on that memorable day entered into fullness of life when the Holy Spirit descended upon the disciples, never to think of Pentecost as the ascension of God on Sinai was the birthday of the Jewish nation, so was that

Jerusalem waiting for the promised power. They were not idly waiting, for in Acts 1:14, we are told that they continued steadfastly in prayer. Pentecost, which is a Jewish religious festival, came as the name indicates, 50 days after the Passover. It was the season of thanksgiving for the harvest of grain. Multitudes of religious Jews gathered in Jerusalem for the feast-days, Peter and the other apostles were gathered together, probably in the upper room, for the observance of the religious rites, when there came sudden signs from heaven and the descent of the Holy Spirit on them, individually and collectively. Both wind and fire had symbolical meaning for the Hebrews, who saw God moving in the elements and heard his voice in the clouds.

"The day of Pentecost found Jesus disciples assembled at Jerusalem, like the Israelites before Sinai, waiting for the promise of the Father (Acts 1:4). Again did God descend from heaven in fire, to pour forth that Holy Spirit which gives the spiritual discernment of his law; and the converts to Peter's preaching were the first fruits of the spiritual harvest, of which Christ had long before assured his disciples. Just as the appearance of God on Sinai was the birthday of the Jewish nation, so was that

One of Two Sedans in 1950 Chevrolet Line

The Styleline, one of two individually designed sedans which have achieved immense popularity with Chevrolet owners, will have new beauty in 1950. Improved grille work, sturdier bumper guards and more tasteful ornamentation are some of the exterior improvements. New Chevrolet also offer increased power and comfort with the Powerglide automatic transmission as optional equipment on De Luxe models.

Pentecost the birthday of the Christian church." Smith's Bible Dictionary, Revell's.
Empowered by the Holy Spirit these disciples began to speak "the mighty works of God" in languages other than their own. To the amazement of those who heard, they spoke in languages understandable to all who listened. We have no record of what they said, but only that they told of the "mighty works of God."
In response to the bewilderment of all the Jews and the scoffing of some of them, Peter stood up to preach. He began where the people were, defending the apostles against the ridiculous charge of drunkenness. Then he explained that their unusual conduct was due to the presence of the Spirit of God within them, calling the attention of his hearers to the prophecy of Joel, which was being fulfilled before their eyes.
Such spirit-filled witnessing produced conviction. Men recognized the truth of their sin and their responsibility before God. Through the words of Peter, they saw Jesus Christ crucified, raised, exalted and heard him demanding lordship in their lives. Convinced of their sin and pierced to the heart with the realization of their need, they cried: "What shall we do?" Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you." To repent is to exercise such godly sorrow for sin that one turns from it in helplessness with faith in God's power to forgive. Salvation from sin is impossible in the absence of sincere repentance.
Coupled with this repentance was baptism. Remission, or forgiveness of sins, comes by repentance and faith. Baptism is the way one shows to the world his death to sin and the old life of sin and his resurrection to a new spiritual life in Christ.
In obedience to the demands of God's Spirit, upon their sin-convinced souls, three thousand people gave themselves up to God. This initial act of obedience was followed by a life of loyalty and prayer. Such was the result when these early Christians were empowered for their task of witnessing for God.

NEWS from HOLLYWOOD

Joan Leslie likes her newly won independence so much, she's loathe to sign up with any one studio. Metro is anxious to get her and is jostling out some mighty attractive bait after her splendid performance with Bob Walker in "The Skipper Surprised His Wife." She wouldn't be averse to a good Western and, maybe, a dip into television.

There's no doubt but that Bill Boyd is the "hottest thing" in America today. When he appeared on the Paramount lot recently, painters, carpenters, grips, electricians, sewing women, make-up men, hairdressers, actors, directors and producers all converged on him and demanded Hopalong Cassidy's autograph for their children.

Latest honor to come to Irene Dunne, who has more honorary memberships than probably any other Hollywood actress, is from Mysore, India, where the Council of Fine Arts voted her "the most distinguished actress of the American screen."

Burt Lancaster plans to make "Saint Columbia and the River" sometime during 1950. It's about an Irishman who helped build the Hudson River tunnel.

Lew Ayers will not only star in "New Mexico," but he will direct it, as well. Most of the picture will be filmed on location and is scheduled to start about the middle of January.

It cost the studio a reputed $40,000 for that scene in "On The Town," in which Ann Miller and Jukes Munshin danced so vigorously in a museum that a huge dinosaur collapsed. The crumbling of the model consumes several seconds of running time on the screen. And then some people wonder why it costs so much to make a film.

Dusty Anderson, who was a beautiful model (and still is beautiful) and came to Hollywood for "Cover Girl" is being very successful in a new career — painting — her canvases are selling at $750 and up. When her husband, Jean Negulesco, goes to England to direct "The Mudlark," she will spend her time in Paris, painting.

Last summer, at Twentieth-Fox, they worked night and day so that Betty Grable could finish "Wabash Avenue" in time to move down the coast to Del Mar, where her racing stable was running. The film has long since been cut and canned, but word now comes that it won't be released until late in 1950. In the meantime, Betty is working in "My Blue Heaven" with Dan Dailey, which will be released before "Wabash Avenue."
