

Nokesville PTA Supper Party Planned For Parents on Jan. 26

The parents and children of this school have been invited by the PTA Teachers Association to attend a supper Thursday night, Jan. 26, at 7:30 o'clock in the gymnasium of the school for the first time since 1949. Mrs. Paul Irvin will be in charge of the program and the business session.

The guest speaker will be Miss Treham, district supervisor of the school system.

Each child of the school will be given a notice by his teacher next Monday morning which he is expected to take home and have his parents fill out indicating whether they will attend the supper party. It is necessary in order that the committee can prepare the supper for which there will be a charge.

Mrs. Harry Hoffacker of Nokesville, Penna., spent several days with the Bowman-Wheatzel families on their way to Florida, to spend a couple of days.

We are so glad to report that Mrs. Somers, who has been so very ill at the Bethesda Naval Hospital, is on the road to a recovery. Need to say all his family has spent long hours going to see him, and he will be just a little better. Glen hasn't been at school for a long time so now all many friends are hoping after operation he can be well again.

Who remember Harold Swartz who lived here is sorry to hear that he has been very ill and have to be in a sanitarium several more months.

Mrs. Mattie Renner of Silver Hill, Md. spent the weekend with Mrs. here. She spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy near Aden.

The Clifford Doves were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin and family in Falls Church. Mrs. Eloise Sonatrank and Helen House were Sunday dinner guests of the Roscoe Croushorn family.

The David Somers family recently visited with "Grandpa" J. J. True who is now staying with his daughter, Mrs. Pearl Owen in Washington.

Mrs. Will Wright has returned home from visiting with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Bruntz in West Virginia. Mrs. Bruntz is very ill again and the Wrights are planning to bring her here to stay with them.

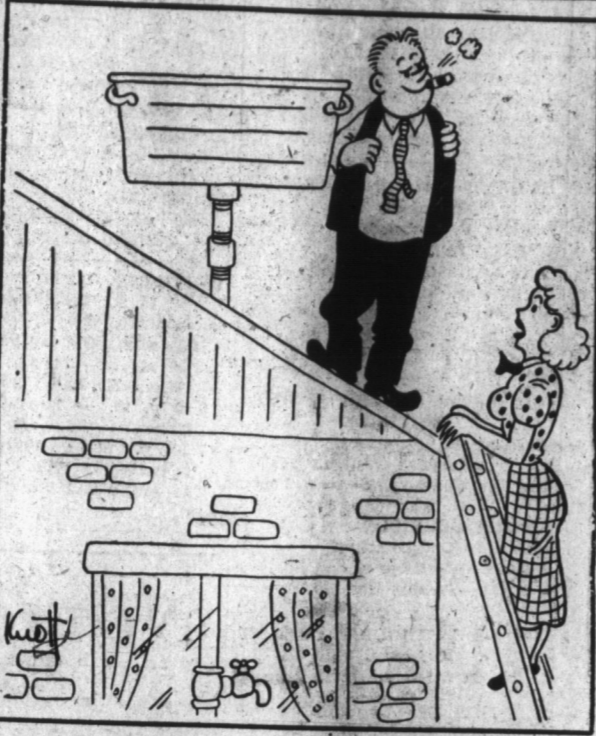

Miss Mary Hooker is entertaining all of the young people of the Church of the Brethren at her home on Sunday evening. They will listen to the radio story, "The Greatest Story Ever Told," and enjoy the evening together.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cale Gibson were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darnell of Richmond. Mr. Darnell is the student minister for the Presbyterians here.

Mr. O. D. Landes returned home from the hospital last week and is much improved. He asks that we think all who have been so kind to him during his recent illness. Mrs. Melva Goodrich of Alexandria and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brown of Morrisville, Mrs. Delphia Herndon and son, Billy of Manassas and the J. W. Wrights visited Mr. and Mrs. Landes on Sunday.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Shepherd were Miss Marian Poole of Alexandria, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoffacker of Greenville, Pennsylvania, Mrs. Mattie Renner of Silver Hill Road, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Max Shepherd of Manassas, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Shepherd and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Whetzal and Wade, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Bowman and Shirley.

Mrs. Ted Shepherd spent Saturday afternoon with her sister, Mrs. Billy Foley who has been very ill in Emergency Hospital in Washington. Polly seems to be getting along all

Catharpin

By Mrs. Wallace Rion

CATHARPIN — At the regular Catharpin home demonstration club meeting, which followed the brunch last Friday, Mrs. C. L. Nelson, president, reviewed the meeting of federation goal leaders of the county in Manassas, and the club endorsed recreational plans made at that meeting.

Attending the luncheon and joining the club as new members were the following: Mrs. Palmer Smith, Miss Virginia Smith, Miss Betty Pickett, Mrs. S. F. Poelend, Mrs. C. F. Sinclair, Mrs. L. W. Crews, and Mrs. Mauds Ellis.

Mr. and Mrs. Rumsy Light of the R-RR Ranch honored his father, Wade H. Light of Waterford, with a birthday dinner last Sunday. Guests were Mr. Light and Mrs. Light and James Light and his three children, Waterford; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Williams and three children, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Mills and daughter, Front Royal; Mr. and Mrs. Orle Royston and two children, Boyce.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Ellison were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Webb of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Neville Ellison and Mrs. Robert Hutchison and Desmond, Catharpin; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Fox, Manassas; and Louis Ellison, Centerville.

The Ellison's are putting in a new water system with an electric hot water heater.

Mrs. Doek J. Glisson of Bradley Forest, Manassas, called on friends in Catharpin last Sunday as she was on her way to Martinsburg to see Mr. Glisson, who is in the sanitarium there. Since Christmas, Mr. Glisson has been feeling very badly, and his doctors have not yet diagnosed the complication.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pattie had

SCHOOL BUS DISCUSSION

R. Worth Peters, division superintendent of schools, spoke to the Manassas P-TA on the school bus transportation system at a meeting Thursday night, Jan. 19, at 8 o'clock at the high school auditorium. Dr. Floyd Riddick, P-TA president, was in charge of the meeting.

Truman warned lack of defense may be atomic Pearl Harbor.

Also on the sick list has been

Sara Lee Gay who had to miss school because of illness.

Mrs. Elnora Showalter, Mrs. Nora Beall, Mrs. John Fearneyhough, Mrs. Harry VanNort, Mrs. Willard Wilkins and Mrs. Fred Shepherd spent Wednesday afternoon in the homes of Mrs. George Beahm and Mrs. Robert Beahm to make plans for this quarter because they are among the ladies of the Church of the Brethren who have birthdays in January, February and March. The ladies plan to hold a spaghetti supper for the public in the church basement on February 22 and a "Birthday luncheon" at the church on March 15—more about these coming events later.

Mr. S. S. Stultz is another one of our Nokesvillians who is looking Southward. He plans to leave with Mr. Saylor Diehel and Edna next Monday. They plan to make their stay in Sebring, Fla.

Mr. A. Sines underwent a minor operation in Washington the first of last week and is getting along just fine. He had to stay down just two days.

C. W. Franklin Spends Christmas in England

LONDON, England—Charles W. Franklin, seaman, USN, of Route 3, Manassas, Va., celebrated Christmas this year with 100 needy English children, who were invited to attend the Christmas party at the Naval Headquarters in London.

The party, held in the American Embassy's Mayfair canteen, was high-lighted with the appearance of Father Christmas, the British equivalent of Santa Claus. Each child received a present of candy, nuts and gum.

How To Relieve Bronchitis

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.
